SIR,

THO' the World might not be ſurprized at the Preſumption of this Application in an Author, it could not but be very much ſo at the Reception You have deigned to give it, were not Inſtances of Your Royal Highneſs's Humanity, Affability and Condeſcenſion, and of your Readineſs to encourage even the obſcureſt Merit, too frequent not to become familiar to it.

I might indeed alledge in Extenuation of the Liberty of this Addreſs, that the very Dignity of this Work forbid me to turn my Thoughts upon any beneath Your Royal Highneſs for its Patron; for as PRINCES, with their ſeveral Rights, Relatives and Pretenſions are the immediate and proper Subject of Genealogy, this Science ſeems to have a natural Claim to their Protection: And tho' Your Royal Highneſs had not vouchſafed to have patronized this Performance in ſo publick a Manner, yet the conſpicuous Rank You hold in Europe would neceſſarily have, in ſome ſenſe, intereſted You in it; for as no Country affords the Genealogiſt ſo ample a Field as the Empire, ſo neither does any Family of it more frequently, or more deſervedly, employ his Attention than That of Your Royal Highneſs.

As for the following Tables, the only Merit they pretend to, Sir, is that of their being the firſt Attempt in the Engliſh Language, and the compleateſt yet extant in any, for reducing this extenſive and confuſed Study to Method, and for connecting and embelliſhing the dry Skeleton of Names and Dates with the proper Ligaments and Colourings of Hiſtory.

Regular Diſpoſition and Order (which are the great Aids of Memory and the true Secret of Learning, or of diſpatching Buſineſs of any Kind) are as peculiarly requiſite in this Science as in that of Aſtronomy, where, tho' the Objects which the Eye is converſant about are the brighteſt and moſt diſtinct, yet their Multiplicity would make our Attention deſpair of comprehending, and our Memory of retaining them, with the reſpective Times of their ſhining and diſappearing, were they not diſtributed into ſeparate Conſtellations, and diverſify'd with ſome enlivening Circumſtances from Hiſtory.

While the proper Buſineſs of my own Vocation led me, in compiling this Work, to admire and ſet forth the ſtanding Miracles of the Divine Wiſdom and Providence in propagating the various Nations of the Earth from one common Parentage, and in ſtrengthening this original Relation by ſubſequent Ties and Renewals of Conſanguinity; in making both the Union and Diſperſion of Mankind, the Riſe and Fall of Empires, the Virtues, and even the Vices of Rulers, with all the numerous Viciſſitudes and ſeeming Inconſiſtencies of human Affairs, ſubſervient to the ſteady Proſecution of one regular Plan of unerring Wiſdom and Goodneſs, to the exact Accompliſhment of the Predictions of the Old and New Teſtament, and to the gradual Diſperſion of the Light of true Religion into the remoteſt Corners of the Earth; Your Royal Highneſs's Knowledge in Hiſtory and political Affairs will enable You to view this ample Scene in a different Light, and to ſubjoin to thoſe Contemplations others no leſs worthy of the High Station to which You are born.

To behold the Sovereigns of all Ages and Nations raiſed, as it were, from the Death of Oblivion, drawn up in the Order of their Succeſſion, ranged under the Banners of their reſpective Tribes and Conſtellations and paſſing in one compendious Review before your Eyes, diſtinguiſhed, part of them by their own Good or Ill Actions, and part by Nothing but their Names, or the precarious Stock of Fame borrow'd from either their Anceſtors or their Poſterity, terminating all alike in the common Mark and Boundary of Mortality, and ſubject to the inceſſant Fluctuations of Property, Power and Splendor, will exhibit a Spectacle not unworthy Your Royal Highneſs's Attention, and apt to inſpire great and ſerious Thoughts.

It will not fail to awaken, in a Mind ſo well diſpoſed, due Reflections on the Value and Duration of human Happineſs and Glory, to put You in Mind that the Stability of Families, and the Welfare of Kingdoms, next under the Bleſſing of God, depend on the Wiſdom, the Application and perſonal Vertues of Princes; that even the few ſcatter'd Characters of Heroes, Conquerors, Deliverers, which to vulgar Eyes ſhine with ſuch a diſtinguiſh'd Blaze in theſe wide Records of Antiquity, owed too great a Part of their Luſtre to the cloudy, turbulent and calamitous Conjunctures of the Ages in which they appear'd; and that the only ſolid Glory flows unforced and unſought for, from a vigilant Improvement of the Occaſions of doing Good preſented by Providence, and from a Soul rather equal to great Enterprizes than fond of being ſignalized by them, even that, which neither courting the Applauſe, nor ſhrinking at the Cenſure of the giddy Multitude, dares abide the ſevere Teſt of Hiſtory, and can ſecurely commit itſelf to the uncorrupt Judgment of unbyaſs'd Poſterity.

As theſe Thoughts will naturally ariſe in Your Royal Highneſs's Mind on a general Survey of this Work, ſo the examining the particular Tables of your own Family, your tracing your Blood to the dear and venerable Sources of its high Original, the obſerving it for ſo many Ages and Deſcents tranſmitted and refin'd through the uncorrupt Hearts of Great and Good PRINCES, Fathers of their Country and Friends to Mankind, beloved in their Lives and unfeignedly regretted at their Deaths, renowned above all the Heroes of Europe for that diſtinguiſh'd fraternal Union which conſtitutes the real, intrinſick Strength of Families, and bleſſed, almoſt all of 'em, with that Length of Days and Encreaſe of Poſſeſſions, which ſeem the peculiar Rewards promiſed by Heaven to Filial Piety; theſe Reflections will, if poſſible, furniſh Your Royal Highneſs with new Incentives to perſevere in the Courſe of Vertue traced out by the Footſteps of ſuch Great Anceſtors, to keep alive the Lamp of Domeſtick Glory tranſmitted through ſo many Illuſtrious Hands and to convey down to future Deſcendants the ſacred Depoſite of an eminent good Example ſo long familiar to your Houſe and Name.

Theſe, Sir, are Bleſſings which we expect and dare ſecurely promiſe our ſelves from a PRINCE framed by Nature and Education to be the Inheritor of the Vertues as well as Titles of his Royal Progenitors; and as the reading of Hiſtory will greatly contribute to nouriſh and fortify thoſe generous Diſpoſitions, ſo give me leave to add, that Your Royal Highneſs's vouchſafing to patronize theſe Studies, will excite a noble Emulation in the contemporary Youth of this Nation, to extend their Thoughts beyond the narrow Limits of their own Age and Country, and to form a juſter Eſtimate of the Happineſs we now enjoy, by comparing it with That of other Times and Nations; that it will give new Life and Vigour to the wiſe Inſtitution of Your Royal GRANDFATHER for rendring modern Hiſtory and Languages more familiar to our Nurſeries of Learning, and will wipe off the Reproach caſt on us by Foreigners, viz. That while the ſeveral Branches of antient Literature are minutely purſued and carried to a greater Degree of Perfection with us than with any other Nation, we are apt to give too narrow a Compaſs to the general Courſe of our Education, and either wholly to neglect Hiſtory, or to fix our Attention and waſte the whole Strength of our Minds on the Controverſies of our own Age and Iſland only, as if we were cut off from the reſt of the World in Intereſt as much as in Situation.

I am ſenſible, Sir, that the various Fruits I have been mentioning can only be raiſed and gathered in the ſpacious Fields of juſt and regular Hiſtory; but I may humbly venture to ſay, that the having recourſe to theſe Tables will make the reading of any Hiſtory more entertaining and inſtructive; and I only preſume to offer them to Your Royal Highneſs as Repertories for recollecting and ranging the Facts and Ideas that are collected from thoſe larger Volumes, which it is well known You make the conſtant and uſeful Amuſement of your morning Hours. Far from imagining that Your Royal Highneſs can learn any Thing new from theſe Tables, I ſhall think my ſelf ſufficiently happy if You detect no conſiderable Omiſſion or Inaccuracy in them.

The early and rapid Progreſs which Your Royal Highneſs made in all the parts of Learning worthy of a Prince, to the evident danger and impairing of Your Health, makes me conſcious, Sir, that I pay You but a very low Compliment in celebrating this particular part of Learning, and in ſaying, that Your Royal Highneſs is critically verſ'd in the Genealogies of all the Princes of Europe; ſince how few are there ſo incurious as not to be acquainted with the ſeveral Branches and Alliances of their own Family? That this Relation is ſufficient to lead Your Royal Highneſs into the Knowledge of all the moſt conſiderable Pedigrees in Europe, I could eaſily prove by enumerating their ſeveral Intermarriages with Your Anceſtors, did I imagine thoſe Alliances conferred more Honour to, than they derive from, the Illuſtrious Houſe of BRAUNSCHWEIG-LUNEBURG.

Nor ſhould I even mention That of Your Royal Highneſs's GREAT-GRANDFATHER with a GRAND-DAUGHTER of Britain, but that it is too pleaſing a Topick to be paſſed over in Silence by a Britiſh Author; ſince it is to that happy Conjunction that we of theſe Nations owe our Deliverance from All we dreaded, and the Enjoyment of All we wiſh, under the juſt and benign Government of Your Royal FATHER and GRANDFATHER.

That Your Royal Highneſs's FAMILY may long be the glorious Inſtruments of diſpenſing theſe Bleſſings to a thankful People, and may add new Acceſſions of Luſtre to Genealogical Tables, muſt be the natural Wiſh of every Friend to Juſtice, Liberty and true Religion, as well as of,

SIR,

PREFACE.

BRITISH MUSEUM

THIS Book of ROYAL GENEALOGIES is at laſt finiſh'd, after ſeven Years hard Labour, and the Author hopes the firſt Encouragers will forgive the Time, ſeeing the Work is much better and larger for that Delay; having at firſt only propos'd to tranſlate from the High Dutch the Royal Genealogies of the learned Mr. JOHN HUBNER of Hamburg, a very valuable Book and a good help to this Work (tho' many wiſh the German Bookſellers had been at the Charge of correcting it, and of ſupplying its Defects in their late Editions of it) whereas the Readers may perceive this Work is near three Times as large as that Volume of Mr. Hubner, for which the Author has been more obliged to many other Genealogiſts and Hiſtorians ancient and modern; and therefore his Propoſals were juſtly altered, tho' not to his own Profit, but much to the Advantage of the Work and the Benefit of the Encouragers.

The Genealogical Tables are diſpoſed in a Method much like That of Mr. Hubner, which is the moſt plain and comprehenſive and beſt for avoiding Confuſion, even preferable to the Method of Mr. IMHOFF, whoſe learned Works have yet been often more uſeful, eſpecially for ſolving Chronological and Genealogical Doubts; for that Mr. Imhoff has judiciouſly followed Monſieur du Cheſne, Mr. SANDFORD and many other eminent and accurate Genealogiſts, whom the Author has carefully conſulted in order to correct what is wrong, or to improve what is right in Hiſtorical Facts, or in Chronological Dates, or in Genealogical Diſpoſition.

He has alſo compoſed many Tables in this Book, ſome of which were never attempted and others not finiſh'd by any Author that he hath ſeen; ſo that his is the moſt extenſive and copious one Book of the Kind in any Language, as it is the firſt in Engliſh of ſo large a Scope.

It is divided in two Parts, for the ſake of binding it in Two Volumes, with a Title Page to the Second Part; yet the Pages are continued in Succeſſion thro' both Parts, that the Book may be bound in One, as any Perſon may think fit.

PART I. begins with the Chronological Hiſtory of the ancient Families, Empires, Kingdoms, States and Republicks, ſeveral Genealogies and many Catalogues with a View to the Genealogies of the more eminent Perſons of moſt Nations on Record, from the Beginning of Time down to the Chriſtian Era, in 303 Pages; whereby the Sacred Hiſtory of the Bible is connected with other Hiſtories. This he undertook at the Requeſt of ſome learned Gentlemen, and for the Entertainment of thoſe that affect not a Book all of Genealogies only: In compiling which he has been much beholden to ſome learned Moderns, as Uſher, Simſon, Iſaacſon, Prideaux, Talents, Marſhal, Scaliger, Ubbo Emmius, Spanhemius, and many more, whom he has carefully compared with Euſebius, Diodorus Siculus, the Greek and Roman Claſſics, and other ancient Hiſtorians and Chronologiſts, in order to be as exact and certain as poſſible in both Facts and Dates; but has followed the Chronology of USHER and PRIDEAUX, as what in his Opinion is the moſt accurate. After which

The Genealogical Tables alone begin with thoſe of the Patriarchs before and after the Flood (according to the Chronological Connection of Saurins's Diſſertations in Engliſh, that this Author made when that Book was publiſh'd) and for the better underſtanding of Holy Scripture he exhibits the Judges, Kings and High Prieſts of God's Peculiar, the Aſmonæans and Herodians, with the Progenitors and Family of JESUS of Nazareth, the promiſed Meſſiah. Next

The old Chaldæan, Median, Lydian, and Perſian Monarchs before Cyrus the Great; the Perſian Monarchy from Cyrus to ALEXANDER the Great; the many old Princes of Greece, Macedon, Epirus, Pontus, Armenia, Cappadocia, Hiberia, Comagene, Pergamus, Bithynia, Boſphorus, Thrace, &c. Then

The Seleucidæ, Ptolemaidæ, the Carthaginians, Numidians and Mauritanians, the Arſacidæ and their Succeſſors the [illegible] Damaſcens, T[illegible] rojans and Romans; with Chronological C[illegible] and Weſtern, and of the

The

PREFACE.

The Genealogies of the Families of Domitius, Antony, Julius Cæſar, Auguſtus, the firſt ſix Roman Emperors and Cæſars continued, of Veſpaſian, Trajan, Adrian, Antonin, Severus, Gordian, Valerian, Conſtantin, Valentinian, Theodoſius, Leo Magnus, &c. of the Oſtro Goths and Viſo Goths, the Heruli, Vandals, Lombards and Italian Kings; of Heraclius, Baſilius and other Eaſterns; of the Comneni and Angeli, the Courtneys and Palæologi. Then

The Turkiſh and Tartarian Kings of Perſia with the Sophies; the Caliphs of Arabia, Syria and Perſia, with the Genealogy of MAHOMET their Prophet; the Turkiſh Kings of Leſſer Aſia and others before the Irruption of the Tartars into South Aſia; the Turks of Damaſcus and the Turkiſh Emperors; the Mahometan Sovereigns of Egypt; the Saracen Caliphs of Africa; and the Chriſtian Kings of Jeruſalem and Armenia; the Kings and Emperors of China and Japan, the Tartars, Magors and Great Moguls; the Kings of Abyſſinia and of lower African Ethiopia; thoſe of Morocco, Fetz and Barbary; and thoſe of Mexico and Peru in America. Thence returning into Europe, he begins with

The Genealogies of the Kings of Hungary; the Dukes and Czars of Muſcovy and Ruſſia; the Princes of Poland, Courland, Radzivil, Olyka, Sapieha, Tranſilvania, Moldavia and Vallachia; the Heathen and Chriſtian Kings of Denmark, Norway and Sweden, with the various Branches of Oldenburg and Holſtein; the ancient Royal Suevi and Goths of Germany, the Amazons, the oldeſt German Kings and the Princes of the old Saxons till WITTEKIND the Great, ending with Page 447.

PART II. begins with the Grand Revolution made by the Emperor CHARLEMAIN, whoſe Genealogy is exhibited, and next That of the Saxonian, Franconian and Schwabian Emperors, of thoſe during and after the Great Interregnum, and thoſe of Auſtria; the Arch-Dukes of Auſtria from their Three Patriarchs, with other old Families in Tyrol, Carniola, Carinthia, &c. and the ſix happy Marriages of Auſtria. Next

The three ſpiritual Electors of Mentz, Triers and Cologne, with the ſpiritual Princes; and then the Genealogies of the ſix temporal Electors, or the various ancient and modern Families of Bohemia, Saxony, Brandenburg, Bavaria, Palatin and Braunſchweig; the Princes of Sileſia, Mecklenburg, Pomerania, Heſſe, Naſſau, Orange, Luxemburg, Wurtemberg, Baaden, Anhalt, Salm, Eaſt-Frieſland, Furſtemberg, Cleves, Guelders, Holland, Flanders, Hainault, Brabant, &c. and all the Princely Families of Germany and the Netherlands, or of All North of France, till he reach the Great Houſes of Burgundy and Lorrain in their ſeveral Branches. Then

All the Kings of France ancient and modern, and the various Princely Families related to them or deſcended from them; all the Houſes of Savoy and Sardinia, Nemours, Montferrat and Genua; the Doges of Venice, the Exarchs of Ravenna, the Houſes of Milan, Mantua and Gonzaga, Eſté and Modena, Farneſe and Grimaldi, Pico and Cybo, and many Others in the North of Italy: The old Kings of Italy and Tuſcany, with the Grand Dukes and many Others in the Middle and South of Italy, with the Genealogies of ſeveral Popes: Next the old Kings of Syracuſe; the various Kings of Naples, Sicily and Cyprus, and all the diverſe Kings of Spain and Portugal ancient and modern in their various Branches.

At laſt he returns home to the Royal and Princely Genealogies of the Britannic Iſles, or the ancient and modern Kings and Princes of England, Wales, Scotland, Man and Ireland, with thoſe Families that are any Way related to them, by Deſcent or by Marriage; concluding with a brief Account of all the Peers in England, Scotland and Ireland that he could find upon Record before or ſince the Norman Conqueſt, according to their Surnames Alphabetically digeſted; and alſo Liſts of the preſent Peers of each Nation according to their Precedency, for which you may ſee the Indexes.

He could delineate and [illegible] at full Length the [illegible]logies of all the Peers and Great Gentry of the Britannic Iſl[illegible] to encourage a Work of that vaſt Labour and Charge [illegible] done.

P R E F A C E.

Several Perſons have obliged the Author with good Materials and Books in compiling this Work; the Duke of NORFOLK furniſhed him with the Genealogy of his Family in Manuſcript; the Earl of INCHIQUIN with the large magnificent Table of the two Princely Families of Thomond and Inchiquin, deſcended from the ancient Kings of Ireland, delineated by the Chief Herald of Dublin; the Viſcount GALLWAY and the Lord DE LA WAR gave him ſome Engliſh Genealogies in Manuſcript; the Earl of BUCHAN and his Son Lord CARDROSS, Sir JOHN GUISE Baronet, Sir RICHARD ELLIS Baronet, the Reverend Mr. John Maſon Rector of Aſwarby in Lincolnſhire, the Reverend Mr. Benjamin Andrews Atkinſon a diſſenting Miniſter of London and Mr. Zollman F. R. S. have lent him ſeveral moſt uſeful Books in his Way; the Reverend Dr. Clagget Dean of Rocheſter got him ready Acceſs to the Earl of SUNDERLAND's Library; Mr. du Thom Envoy from Wolffenbuttel aſſiſted him in the Tables of Eſté and Braunſchweig; Mr. de Hoppman Reſident from Mecklenburg Schwerin reviſed the Tables of Auſtria, Holſtein and Mecklenburg; Signor Pucci Miniſter of Florence and Signor de Campos of Portugal reviſed the Tables of their Countries; Mr. Gaſtaldi of Genua corrected Table 406, and Baron Pfutſchner corrected the preſent Houſe of Lorrain (both which Corrections are at the End among the Errata) Antony Hammond Eſq; lent him an exact Liſt of the Engliſh Peers reviſed by Mr. Green of the Herald's Office. The Works of George Crawfurd Eſq; furniſh'd him with the Nobles of Scotland; and Roderick Mackenzie Eſq; an exact Liſt of the Scots Peers at the Union; the Lord KINGSALE and the Earl of INCHIQUIN reviſed the Peers of Ireland: For which he returns his hearty Thanks.

The Tables did not afford room to quote all the Authors uſed in this Work; as indeed They are too many to be mentioned here: For beſides the many Books that the Author bought and borrowed, he has conſulted thoſe that he could neither buy nor borrow, but found them in publick and private Libraries; and has been at all poſſible Pains and uſed all Means to make the Work accurate, copious and plain.

At the Perſuaſion of judicious and learned Men, he has omitted the Genealogical Queſtions at firſt intended for explaining the Tables; for that their Uſe is well ſupply'd by the Tables themſelves, in which he has endeavour'd not to omit any Chronological Dates, and hath ſhewn as carefully as he could the Times of the Princes Births, Marriages and Deaths, their Parents, Wives and Children, their Branches and the various Families to which They are or were related.

No Man can pretend to write or print a large Book of this Kind without Errors, occaſioned by the Errors of his Vouchers, or by his own Miſtakes, or by the Neglect and Careleſſneſs of Journeymen Printers: But he has endeavour'd to take ſo much Care, that the Defects, or Miſtakes, or typographical Errors may be eaſily corrected by the Pen of the curious Reader, and would be thankful to receive their Corrections in caſe of another Edition.

He has avoided all Terms and Expreſſions that may give Offence to any Nation or Family, to any Party or Perſon; having nothing to do with the National Controverſies of Hiſtorians, nor with the Eccleſiaſtical and Religious Debates of Theologians, nor with the Politicks of Stateſmen, nor with the private Jangles of the Criticks in a Work of this Kind, but only with Facts and plain Truth: So that he has let every Nation enjoy its own Fable; and if any find Fault, he hopes They will readily excuſe him, not having deſign'd to offend 'em, and is willing to make Satiſfaction, if he lives to publiſh a ſecond Edition.

Many have encouraged this Work as it is an Abridgment of Univerſal Hiſtory, and may be uſed as an Index or Dictionary to all Hiſtory; nay and a Regulator too of thoſe Hiſtories whoſe Authors have been either ignorant or negligent of Chronology and Genealogy, without which any Hiſtory is deficient, imperfect and perplexing; ſo that as the Learned know how to uſe this Book upon Occaſions, the Learners alſo may be aſſiſted in reading any Hiſtory with Profit, by being previouſly acquainted with theſe Tables and by comparing them with the Hiſtory in Hand: For however difficult and laborious the Work has been in the Compiling, it is plain and eaſy to others, who at one View, and often in one Page, may ſee the principal Perſons and Affairs of many Years in their proper Series and Deduction by Genealogy and Chronology.

P R E F A C E.

The Readers not accuſtomed to ſuch Tables may take Notice of the following Marks and Characters therein, whereby any Perſon of the meaneſt Underſtanding can read the Genealogies with Eaſe and Pleaſure, viz.

I. † The Mark like a Dagger ſignifies Death, or that the Perſon † died at ſuch a Time.

II. ——————^—————— This Ruler or Stroke is call'd the Line of Generation if it has this Notch, otherwiſe not.

III. —^— The ſaid Notch is call'd the Punctum Saliens or Point of Generation from which the Offspring deſcends in the Tables; importing, that He above the ſaid Notch or Punctum is the Father, and that all under it are his Offſpring as far as the Line of Generation extends, ſhorter or longer.

IV. No Line of Generation has more than one Punctum Saliens, unleſs two or three in all the Book occaſion'd by a dubious Caſe.

V. N. N. or Non Novi, ſignifies that the Perſon's Name is not known.

VI. ‿ This Semicircle is the Marriage Mark and ſometimes the Union of two Families by Marriage, under which Mark the Punctum Saliens directs to the Children of that Marriage.

VII. ⁂ Theſe three Stars are the Mark of a new Family, or that the Perſon under it is not of Blood with the Family of the Table, but coming to be related or ally'd to that Family.

VIII. ‖ Theſe two perpendicular Strokes are call'd the Baſtard Bar, ſignifying that the Children adjoining to it are of the Miſtreſs or Concubine, and not of lawful Wedlock, tho' They belong to the ſame Father with the legitimate Iſſue that are under the ſame Punctum Saliens and Line of Generation. But ſometimes two Strokes are alſo uſed to ſeparate two legitimate Families of the ſame Father.

IX. | This ſingle perpendicular Line is uſed only to diſtinguiſh the Children of the ſame Father inſtead of a Blank, where the Table has not Room for a Blank.

X. 1. 2. 3. 4. placed above proper Names import that the Perſon was born of the 1ſt, 2d, 3d, or 4th Wife of the ſame Father above the common Punctum Saliens; or ſometimes the Children of the 1ſt, 2d, 3d or 4th Husband of the ſame Wife.

The Abbreviations are common enough to be underſtood, as Emp. Emperor, K. King, P. Prince, D. Duke, C. Count, E. Earl, Ld Lord, Viſ. Viſcount, Fa. Father, Da. Daughter, Br. Brother, *nat. TABLE I.

The Antediluvian PATRIARCHS from Adam to Noah.

In the Beginning of Time JEHOVAH ELOHIM EL-SHADDAI, the Eternal God Almighty, created, or made out of nothing, the Heavens and the Earth, and all Things therein; Time beginning in the Imaginary Year of the Julian Period 710. on the 23d Day of October, Afternoon, before the Chriſtian Era 4004 Years. And the All-wiſe God thought fit to perform Creation gradually in the ſpace of Six Days.

1. ADAM the firſt Man, not born, but made of Red Earth by his Heavenly Father on the 6th Day of Creation; and God breathed into him the Breaths of Life.

EVE the firſt Woman, not born, but made of one of Adam's Ribs by her Heavenly Father on the 6th Day of Creation; and God breathed into her the Breaths of Life.

Male and Female created he them, and join'd them in the ſacred Bond of Matrimony; becauſe it was not meet that Man ſhould be alone. He placed them in Paradiſe, the Garden of Delights, with a Command to multiply their Kind by natural Generation: And being made living Souls, Rational Beings, after the Image of God in Knowledge, Righteouſneſs and Holineſs, with Dominion over this lower World, They were capable of ſubmitting rationally to the Laws of their Creator, who promiſed to them Life and a better Paradiſe upon their perfect Obedience to the Moral Law written on their Hearts; but threatned Death with all its Conſequences upon their Diſobedience: And as a Teſt thereof God ſeparated the Tree of Life, and alſo the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil; of which laſt he forbid them to eat under the aforeſaid Penalty. But by the Temptation of Satan (the Adverſary of God and Man, the firſt of the Angels that had lately fallen from Heaven by Rebellion againſt God) ſpeaking through the Throat of a Serpent, EVE was deceived to diſobey the Creator in eating the forbidden Fruit, and ſhe tempted ADAM to eat thereof too: And ſo, 'tis likely, in half a Year's time, They fell into the Condemnation of Satan, or from their State of Innocence, Happineſs and Life, into a State of Sin, Miſery and Death. Yet, though they were repriev'd, and the Execution of the Sentence ſuſpended for ſome time, by God's gracious Promiſe of ſending MESSIAH, the bleſſed Seed of the Woman, to bruiſe the Serpent's Head, in the Fulneſs of Time, and to recover from the Fall them and all of their Offspring that ſhould believe in him; They were, nevertheleſs, baniſhed out of Paradiſe into the wide World, there to live at hard Labour until by Death they return to their original Duſt. And becauſe of the promiſed Meſſiah, God repeal'd not the aforeſaid firſt Command for the multiplying of their Kind by Generation; and ſo our Parents begat a numerous Offspring: For ADAM lived 930 Years, and † before Meſſiah or Chriſt was born, 3074 Years, before the Flood 726, before NOAH's Birth 126; but he lived contemporary with all the other Sethite Patriarchs, viz. with Seth ADAM lived 800 Years, with Enos 695, with Kainan 605, with Mahalaleel 535, with Jared 470, with Enoch 308, with Methuſelah 243, and with Lamech the Father of Noah 56 Years.

The PATRIARCHS in the Line of Kain, called the Sons of Men.

2. KAIN, if begotten in Paradiſe, was born Anno Mundi 1, the firſt Man born of a Woman, ſignifying a Poſſeſſion, but he prov'd a Curſe, a proud, envious, wicked Man; for, becauſe God accepted of Abel's Offering and not of his, he was incenſed againſt God and Abel; and ſo murder'd his godly Brother in the Field: For which he was marked and excommunicated A. M. 128, before Chriſt 3876. He had, no doubt, been married about 108 Years, had a numerous Offspring, with whom, and with thoſe of his Kindred that affected him, he travelled Eaſtward from Eden into Perſia, called the Land of Nod, or of the Vagabond, or the Land of him who was now become a Vagabond; where he built a City, the oldeſt upon Record, and his Race was greatly multiplied in the Earth.

ABEL, perhaps a Twin with Kain, or born ſoon after him, a pious and righteous Man, murder'd by Kain, when aged at leaſt 126 Years, being married about 106 Years, and might have had a numerous Offspring; though none of them was choſen to be the Progenitor of Chriſt.

Other Sons and Daughters, born by Eve to Adam before the Birth of Seth, who by a ſober Computation amounted to many Thouſands in their Procreations; and who, with the Children of Abel, were enough to make Kain afraid of being ſlain, to prevent which God was pleaſed to ſet a Mark upon him.

The PATRIARCHS in the Line of SETH, called the Sons of God.

2. SETH, the Son of Adam and Eve, given in the room of Abel, as the Root of Chriſt's Progenitors, to enjoy the ſpecial Bleſſings of the New Covenant, was born ſoon after the Murder of Abel, A. M. 130, before Chriſt 3874, before the Flood 1526; lived before he begat his Son and Succeſſor Enos 105 Years, lived afterwards 807 Years, begetting Sons and Daughters, in all 912 Years † A. M. 1042, before Chriſt 2962, before Flood 614, before Noah's Birth 14 Years; after the Tranſlation of Enoch 55 Years, after Adam's Death 112, having reign'd ſo long alone as the Prince and Head of the Sons of God, or Members of the viſible Church; and lived contemporary with all the Patriarchs of the Family, except Noah.

Other Sons and Daughters, born by Eve to Adam after the Birth of Seth. And, no doubt, they had a very numerous Offspring, before the Murder of Abel.

M. 874, before Chriſt 3130, before Flood 782; liv'd before he begat Noah his Succeſſor 182, and afterwards 595, begetting Children, in all 777 Years. †A.M. 1651, before Chriſt 2343, five Years before the Flood, and before his Father Methuſelah, after Adam 721, after Enoch 664, after Seth 609, after Enos 511, after Kainan 416, after Mahalaleel 426, after Jared 229.

10. NOAH, the Heir of Seth's Bleſſing, born A. M. 1056, before Chriſt 2948, before Flood 600; liv'd before he begat Japhet 500, and his Succeſſor Sem 502 Years, and after the Birth of Sem until the Flood came 98 Years. See the following Table. He liv'd contemporary with all before him, except Adam, Seth and Enoch.

Japhet. Sem. Ham.

TABLE II.

The PATRIARCHS after the Flood of the Line of Japhet.

NOAH, the general Patriarch of the New World, born before the Flood 600 Years, A. M. 1056; was in the Ark with his Family during the Flood A. M. 1656; lived after the Flood 350 Years; in all 950. † A. M. 2006, before Chriſt 1998, two Years before the Birth of Abram, and after the Confuſion of Languages at Babel 196 Years.

Japhet, the eldeſt Son, born before the Flood 100 Years, A. M. 1556; lived after the Flood perhaps as long as his Brother Sem, viz. 502 Years; in all 602 Years. † A. M. 2158, before Chriſt 1846 Years, after the Confuſion of Babel. 348 The Patriarch of the moſt Part of the Scythians, Grecians, and the other Nations of Europe and Leſſer Aſia. He obtain'd a good Share of Sem's Bleſſing for his Offſpring.

Sem or Shem, the ſecond Son. See Tab. 3.

Ham or Cham, the youngeſt Son. See Tab. 4.

GOMER

From whom are deſcended the Cimbrians or Cimmerians, the Phrygians, and other Nations of Leſſer Aſia; who ſent their Colonies afterwards into the North and Weſt, from whom the Gauls, or ſome of the Gauls, deſcended; for They were of various Sorts.

MAGOG

The Father of the Getes and Maſſagetes, on the Sides of the North of Great Aſia, from whom came the Aſiatick Scythians, at or near Mount Caucaſon, or (as in the Hebrew) Gog-haſan. And from theſe came the European Scythians, and the Goths.

MADAI

Father of the Macedonians (not of the Medes; who inhabited not the Iſles of the Gentiles among the Sons of Japhet) in the North of Greece, who ſent Colonies into other Parts of Europe.

JAVAN

The Janus or Javanus of the Ancients, Father of the Jaones or Iones in Leſſer Aſia, towards the Coaſt of the Mediterranean and the Grecian Iſlands, from whence they ſailed into Greece: For the Hebrews call'd Ionia or Javan, the Country from Thrace to the Iſthmus of Peloponeſus. And the Chaldeans interpret Javan Macedonia. The Athenians are alſo call'd Iones.

MESECH, and TUBAL

Theſe are always put together in Sacred Writ, as living promiſcuous or near each other; the Fathers ſo the firſt Inhabitants of the Country lying Eaſt of the Euxin Sea, called Iberi, Tibareni and Moſchi, from whom the Moſcovites are deſcended, and many other Northern Nations.

TIRAS

Father of the Thracians; for Thrax or Thirax is in ſound near to Tiras or Thiras; and beſides there are many other good Proofs of it. And from them deſcended the Polonians, though others think otherwiſe.

ASKENAZ

The Father of the Askanians, or firſt Inhabitants of Pontus and Bythinia towards the Euxin Sea; and alſo of the Country in and about old Ilium or Troy. The Euxin is by ſome call'd Axin, from Askenaz. The German Nation is ſuppoſed to ſpring from a Colony of Askenaz.

RIPHATH

The Father of the Riphatæi or Paphlagonians, from whom afterwards came the Colonies of the Ruſſians and Pruſſians: Nay, ſome too of the oldeſt Britons or Gauls, that firſt inhabited Great Britain and Ireland; for all the Britannic Nations firſt came from the Gauls.

TOGARMA

The Father of the Cappadocians and Galatians, from whom came the upper Cilicians, who owned Japhet for their Father. But from their Colonies are deſcended many Nations between Germany and Greece, as they think.

ELISHA, OR ELISAH

The Father of thoſe Greeks who were call'd Ellenes, from Elis in Peloponeſus.

TARSHISH

The Father of the firſt Inhabitants of the Sea-Coaſt of Cilicia, where was the antient City Tarſus. But the Hebrews were wont to call every Place Tarſhiſh, to which they went by Sea, whether by the Mediterranean or the Red Sea.

KITTIM, OR CITTIM

The Cyprians, Latins, and firſt Inhabitants of Italy, eſpecially theſe laſt: But not the Macedonians, as ſome have thought without juſt Ground.

DODANIM, OR RODANIM

The firſt People in Epirus, who built the City Dodona, and worſhipd there Jupiter Dodoneus, the ſame with Javan, from whence they traveld into other Parts of Europe. But if it is Rodanim, it is the firſt People that dwelt upon the River Rodanus, in the South and Eaſt of France.

Some of theſe are Names in the Dual or Plural Number, which are ſuppoſed therefore to be rather the Names of Nations than of particular Men; but That hinders not their being deſcended from Japhet: And by theſe were the Iſles of the Gentiles, or the Europeans, divided in their Lands, every one after his Tongue, after their Families, in their Nations, Gen. x. 5. But Moses recounts not their Births, Ages and Deaths; reſerving that Honour for the Family of Messiah, as in the following Table.

The leſſer and later Nations of Europe are deſcended of thoſe more ancient Nations, except that ſeveral Colonies of the Phenicians, Cuſhites, and Africans have ſettled in Spain, Sicily, Sardinia, and other Parts of Europe by Sea.

TABLE III.

The PATRIARCHS after the Flood, in the Line of Meſſiah, from Sem to Abram.

1. NOAH, the general Patriarch of the New World. See Tab. 2.

Japhet, the eldeſt Son.
See Tab. 2.

2. SEM, or SHEM, the ſecond Son, born before the Flood 98 Years, A. M. 1558; the Progenitor of Meſſiah, who got the ſpecial Bleſſing of his Father Noah, by a ſpecial Grant, about 48 Years after the Flood; lived after the Flood 502 Years, in all 600 Years. † A. M. 2158, ten Years before the Birth of Jacob, and before the Birth of Meſſiah, or Chriſt, 1846 Years. The Father of many Nations, particularly of all the Children of Heber.

Ham, the youngeſt Son.
See Tab. 4.

ELAM

Father of the Elamits, or ancient Perſians, whoſe Country joind to Media.

ASHUR

Father of the Aſſyrians, on the upper Parts of the Tygris and Euphrates, whoſe Capital was Ninibeh, which Nimrod built, and there uſurped his Monarchy after the Diſperſion of the Nations.

3. ARPHAXAD

The Heir of Sem's Bleſſing, born two Years after the Flood, when Sem was juſt 100 Years old, A. M. 1658, before Chriſt 2346; livd 438 Years. † A. M. 2096, before Chriſt 1908 Years; after Abram left Haran 14 Years, and 11 before the Birth of Iſaac. From him a Part of Aſſyria was called Arphaxitis by Heathen Authors; and the Chaſdim, or Chaldeans, are called from him rather than from Cheſed, the Son of Nahor, the Brother of Abram: For the Chaſdim are older than Cheſed.

LUD

Father of the Lydians near the River Meander, in Little Aſia, and of the Carians, Lycians, Pamphilians, where afterwards Creſus reignd, the rich King of the Lydians, a People famous for Antiquity, Wealth, Valour and large Colonies ſent into divers Parts of the Earth.

ARAM

Father of the Syrians, who to this Day call themſelves Arameans, the old Inhabitants of all Meſopotamia, and of the Country of Damaſcus.

UZ

The Father of the firſt Inhabitants of Trachonitis, and the Founder of the ancient City of Damaſcus.

HUL

The Father of the Armenians: For a Part of Armenia was calld Cholbeth, or Hul's Houſe, the Country of Cholobetene.

GETHER

The Father of the Geturits, or the Inhabitants of the River Getri, between Armenia and Carduchia.

MASH

The Father of the firſt Inhabitants of Mount Maſius in Meſopotamia.

4. SALA

The Heir of Sem's Bleſſing, born after the Flood 37 Years, when Arphaxad was 35, A. M. 1693, before Chriſt 2311 Years. He livd 433 Years, and † A. M. 2126, before Chriſt 1878 Years, after the Birth of Iſaac 18 Years. The Father of the firſt People at Suſiana.

5. HEBER

The Heir of Sem's Bleſſing, the immediate Father of the Hebrews, (from whom they were ſo calld that ſpoke his Language) and of many other Nations; born after the Flood 67 Years, when Sala was 30, A. M. 1723, before Chriſt 2281; livd 464 Years. The oldeſt Man born after the Flood, and ſeems to have preſerved the Language that was us'd before the Flood, and before the Confuſion at Babel. † A. M. 2187, before Chriſt 1817, after the Deaths of Noah, Sem, Arphaxad, Sala, Peleg, Rehu, Serug, Nahor, Terah and Abraham; after the Confuſion at Babel 377 Years, when Iſaac was 79 Years old, and Jacob 19; before the Deſcent into Egypt 111 Years, and after the Flood 531 Years.

6. PELEG, or PHALEG

The Heir of Sem's Bleſſing, born when Heber was 34 Years old, after the Flood 101, when Nimrod began to build Babel, A. M. 1757, before Chriſt 2247; livd 239 Years. † A. M. 1996, before Chriſt 2008, before the Birth of Abram 12 Years; after the Flood 340 Years, after the Confuſion 186 Years. In his Days the Earth was divided (or at his Birth) by Father Noah; but the People would not obey, and loving to abide together in the Vale of Shinar, by the Influence of Nimrod, they imployd themſelves in Building the City and Tower of Babel for about 53 Years: But when their Work was ſtopt by the Confuſion of Languages, they willingly diſperſed to their ſeveral Places of the Earth. Some learned Men think that a Colony of Phaleg travelld into Greece, and from him were calld Pelaſgi.

7. REHU

The Heir of Sem's Bleſſing, born when Phaleg was 30 Years old, after the Flood 131 Years, A. M. 1787, before Chriſt 2217 Years; livd 239 Years. † A. M. 2026, before Chriſt 1978 Years; after the Confuſion at Babel 216 Years, after the Flood 370, when Abram was 18 Years old.

8. SERUG

The Heir of Sem's Bleſſing, born when Rehu was 32 Years old, after the Flood 163 Years, after the Confuſion 9 Years, A. M. 1819; before Chriſt 2185; livd 230 Years. † A. M. 2049, before Chriſt 1955 Years; after the Flood 393 Years, after the Confuſion 239 Years, when Abram was 41 Years old.

9. NACHOR

The Heir of Sem's Bleſſing, born when Serug was 30 Years old, after the Flood 193 Years, after the Confuſion 39 Years, A. M. 1849; before Chriſt 2155 Years; livd at UR of the Chaſdim or Chaldees, 148 Years. † A. M. 1997, before Chriſt 2007 Years; after the Flood 341 Years, after the Confuſion 187 Years; before the Birth of Abram 11 Years.

10. TERAH, or THARAH

The Heir of Sem's Bleſſing, born when Nachor was 29 Years old, after the Flood 222 Years, after the Confuſion 68 Years, A. M. 1878, before Chriſt 2126 Years; livd 205 Years. † at Haran in Meſopotamia A. M. 2083, before Chriſt 1921 Years; after the Flood 427 Years currant, after the Confuſion 273 Years, when his Son ABRAM was 75 Years old. See Tab. 5.

JOKTAN

The ſecond Son of Heber, born, perhaps, next Year after Phaleg, the Father of Thirteen Nations, that, after the Confuſion at Babel, travell'd from Shinar into Arabia, and poſſeſſed a very large Part thereof, between Meſha on the Weſt and Sephar on the Eaſt. They were the firſt and trueſt Arabs, and Authors of the Arabic Language.

1. Almodad. 2. Sheleph. 3. Hazarmaveth. 4. Jerah.
5. Hadoram. 6. Uzal. 7. Dicklah. 8. Obal.
9. Abimael. 10. Sheba. 11. Ophir, 12. Havilah.
13. Jobab.

If JOKTAN was born in the 2d Year of the Building of Babel, all his thirteen Sons might be born while the Building was carried on; for they are mentiond in the Diſperſion, (Gen. x) and therefore his youngeſt Son Jobab was the Father of a Family, when they left Shinar; only allowing, that they were not the firſt of the Nations, who diſperſd to inhabit their Portions of the Earth. See Tab. 4. concerning the Building of Babel, and what is ſaid under Peleg.

Haran. Abram. Nahor.

TABLE IV.

The PATRIARCHS after the Flood, in the Line of Ham.

NOAH, the general Patriarch of the New World. See Tab. 2.

Japhet, the eldeſt Son. See Tab. 2.

Shem, the ſecond Son. See Tab. 3.

HAM, or CHAM, the youngeſt Son, born before the Flood 96 Years, A. M. 1560, before Chriſt 2444; livd after the Flood perhaps 502 Years, in all 598; and ſo † at near the Age of Sem, A. M. 2158, before Chriſt 1846 Years, after the Confuſion at Babel 348 Years. He and his Offspring came under his Father's Curſe, when Canaan his youngeſt Son was a Man, and capable to join with him in mocking his Father, about 48 Years after the Flood. The Father of many great Nations who peopled all Africa, and a Part of Aſia.

CUSH

The Father of the old Scenites, calld afterwards Saracens, in Arabia: A large Colony of them travelld into Africa, and mixed with the Offspring of Mitzraim and Phut, who were calld Maurs, or Moors, a People of a tawny Complexion; but their firſt Settlement was in Arabia only, not in Ethiopia, as is commonly thought: Nor are the Ethiopians, or Blacks, the Deſcendants of CUSH, but of Mitzraim.

NIMROD

Or the Rebel, ſo calld by Moſes; but by his own People Belus, or Bel or BAAL, afterwards worſhipped as a God. He ſeems to be the eldeſt Son of Cuſh, and ſo at the Birth of Peleg, after the Flood 101 Years, he might be 65 Years old, of the ſame Age with Sala, and ſo old enough to be at the Head of the Builders of Babel, who carried on the Work for 53 Years, until the Confuſion of Languages made the Nations to diſperſe, and fill the Earth after the Flood 154 Years. But he continued at Babel, was a mighty Man in the Earth, and a mighty Hunter before Jehovah, even to a Proverb; whereby he had gathered Men under his Command, and failing in his Attempt of univerſal Monarch, by reaſon of the Diſperſion, he founded a particular Monarchy; and the Beginning of his Kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh in the Land of Shinar, Cities that he built: But afterwards his Ambition led him to go forth from Shinar into Aſſyria Northwards; and, having conquerd the Nation of Aſhur, the Son of Sem, he built four other Cities, viz. Niniveh, Rehoboth, Calah and Reſen, ſet up his Throne at Niniveh, which he ſo called after his Son NINUS; and thus he founded the old Aſſyrian Monarchy: For Aſſyria is calld the Land of Nimrod by the Prophet, Mich. v. 6. And this Monarchy continued in great Grandeur, tho' not in a genealogical Succeſſion, if we reckon from the Confuſion of Languages after the Flood —— 154

Or A. M. —— —— 1810

During Years —— —— 1446

Until the Deſtruction of Sardanapalus, A. M. 3256

But we have no certain Account of the Aſſyrian Monarchy much before Pul, the Father of Sardanapalus.

Seba

Father of thoſe Sabeans in Arabia that dwelt near the Gulph with their Brethren, but different from the other Sabeans, that deſcended from Joktan, the Son of Heber: For there were ſeveral Sorts of Sabeans.

Havilah

Father of a People in Arabia near the Perſian Gulph, but different from Havilah of Joktan.

Raamah, or Regmah

The Father of a Country in Arabia upon the Perſian Gulph.

Sabtah and Sabtecha

Fathers of the firſt Inhabitants of the Country in Arabia, towards the Mouth of the Perſian Gulph.

Sheba

The Father of a People in Arabia, near the Perſian Gulph, who abounded in Spices.

Dedan

The Father of a People near Sheba and Regmah, famous for Trade and Navigation; different from, and more ancient than, the Dedan of Idumea.

Theſe Cuſhites that firſt ſettld in Arabia, near and upon the Perſian Gulph, afterwards did ſpread themſelves through South Arabia, and ſailed over the Gulph too, into the Country of Carmania, and travelld into India

MITZRAIM

The Egyptians. The Name is in the Dual Number, expreſſing the Upper and Lower Egypt, which is Mitzraim in Hebrew; for Egypt is a Greek Word of much later Date. But the Word is uſed in the ſingular Mazor, (Mich. vii. 12.) which ſeems to have been the Name of the ſecond Son of Cham. Egypt is alſo calld the Land of Cham, perhaps, partly becauſe Cham went along with his Son Mazor's Colony from Shinar to Egypt, after the Confuſion Six Years, A. M. —— —— —— 1816

Until it was conquer'd by Cambyſes King of Perſia A. M. —— 3479

Ludim

The Ethiopians that ſettled South of Egypt: For the Ludim were a Colony of the Egyptians, and not of the Cuſhites.

Anamim

A People in Africa, Weſt of Egypt, where the Idol Amon was worſhipped, and ſpoke a Language compoſed of the Egyptian and Ethiopic.

Lehabim

A People that dwelt Weſt of Thebais and Egypt, in a ſandy and ſcorched Land, calld the ſcorched Egyptians

Nephtuchim

A People in Africa, near Egypt upon the Coaſt of the Mediterranean.

Pathruſim

The People of Thebais, or Pathros in Egypt, or adjoining to it.

Caſluhim

A People that either at the Diſperſion went from Babel, or afterwards went from Egypt into Colchis in Aſia, on the Eaſt of the Euxin Sea.

Caphtorim

A People that went along with or ſoon after the Caſluhim into Colchis, and poſſeſſed a Part of Cappadocia near Colchis.

The Philiſtins are the Deſcendents of both, for, Gen. x. 14. they are ſaid to deſcend from the Caſluhim; and Jer. xlvii. 4. it is ſaid, The Lord will ſpoil the Philiſtins, the Remnant of Caphtor! So, Amos ix. 7. God ſays, Have not I brought the Iſraelits from Egypt, and the Philiſtins from Caphtor? The Caſluhim and Caphtorim might be induced to travel into Colchis and Cappadocia, ſo far from the other Sons of Mitzraim, from a Deſire of finding there Gold and other Metals, which induced many other Nations afterwards to go thither. But finding thoſe Parts afterwards inconvenient, becauſe of troubleſome Neighbours, a large Colony of 'em travelld from thence into Phenicia, as Moſes informs us, Deut. ii. 23. And the Avims, (a little Tribe of the Canaanites) which dwelt at Hazerim unto Gazah, the Caphtorims, which came out of Caphtor, deſtroyed them, and dwelt in their ſtead; long before Abram.

Thus all Africa was peopled by the Offspring of Mitzraim, and by thoſe of Phut; the Lake Tritonis, about the Middle of Africa, being their general Boundary, the firſt inhabiting Eaſt of it, and the ſecond Weſt of it: Tho' afterwards they mingled, as did all contiguous Nations.

PHUT

Father of the Lybians, and of the Mauritanians, or Moors in Africa, from near Egypt to the Atlantic Ocean: From the Word Phut came Phuts, and Fez, or Fez, the Name of a Country, or Kingdom, to this Day, in the Empire of Marocco in Africa. But tho' the Lybians and Moors moſtly deſcended from Phut, many of them alſo came from Mitzraim, and in after Days from Cuſh, whoſe Offsprnig made Incurſions into Africa, and brought with them the Arabian Language, much uſed there to this Day.

CANAAN

Might be born four Years after the Flood, and ſo was 44 Years old when Noah pronouncd the Curſe upon Ham, and particularly upon Canaan his youngeſt Son, the Father of the Canaanites, who, in remembrance of that Curſe, choſe rather to be calld Syrians, but eſpecially Phenicians, and are ſo calld by the Grecian Hiſtorians, who call the Land of Canaan Phenicia; a Country very early famous for Learning, Trade, Navigation, Architecture, and other uſeful Arts and Sciences too: Nay, it was the Nurſery of learned Men for many other Countries, and arrived to very great Wealth, Power, Renown and Fame, till conquerd by Joſhuah, the Judge and Captain of Iſrael, when many Colonies of 'em fled by Sea to diſtant Parts of Europe and Africa; and the reſt became Servants to Iſrael, of the Line of Sem, according to the Promiſe and Curſe of Noah.

The Eleven Phenician or Canaanitiſh Nations, that dwelt from the River of Egypt to Euphrates, or that had Syria on the North, the Deſert and Euphrates on the North-eaſt and Eaſt, the Stony Arabia on the South, Egypt on the South-weſt, the Mediterranean Sea on the Weſt. It was but a ſmall Tract of Land, but well filld with many rich People, that ſprang from CANAAN, viz.

1. Sidon, or the Sidonians.
2. Heth, or the Hittits.
3. Jebuſits.
4. Amorits.
5. Girgaſits.
6. Hivits.
7. Arkits.
8. Sinits.
9. Arvadits.
10. Zemarits.
11. Hamathits.

All the other Canaanits were but Branches of theſe Eleven Original Nations.

TABLE V.

The Poſtdiluvian PATRIARCHS from TERAH to JACOB incluſive.

TERAH, the Heir of Shem's Bleſſing, the Son of Nachor, the Son of Serug, the Son of Rehu, the Son of Phaleg, the Son of Heber, the Son of Sala, the Son of Arphaxad, the Son of Shem, the Son of NOAH. Tab. 4.

VII. Dishan begat

1. Uz. 2. Aran.

ESAU the elder Twin, born with Jacob, provd a mighty Huntsman and a Warrior, yet sold his Birthright to Jacob for a Mess of Pottage, when aged 24, whence he was calld EDOM; married at 40 to Adah the Hittite, (calld Bashemath, Gen. xxvi. 34.) and to Aholibamah the Hivite, (calld Judith, ibid) was cheated by Jacob and Rebeccah out of Abraham's Blessing, while Isaac, then blind, was imposd upon, Esau aged 77; and then he married Bashemath, the Sister of Nebaioth, and Daughter of Ishmael, (calld Mahalath, Gen. xxviii 9.) Upon the Death of Isaac he wholly left Canaan, about An. Pereg. 210, before Exodus 220, before Jacob's Descent into Egypt—05. He conquerd the Horites and Hivites in Mount Seir, South of Canaan in Arabia, and became the Prince of a People made up of Horites and his own Offspring, whose Genealogies are briefly recorded in Gen. xxxvi.

I. Adah bore to him Eliphaz, who by his Wife begat —— And by Timnah his Concubine

1. Teman. 2. Omar. 3. Zepho. 4. Gatam. 5. Kenaz.

Duke Amalec.

II. Aholibamah bore to him
Duke Jeush.
Duke Jaalam.
Duke Korah.

III. Bashemath bore to him Duke Reguel.
1. Nahath.
2. Zerah.
3. Shammah.
4 Mizah.

All these Patriarchs sent Colonies into several Parts of Arabia, but were swallowed up in the following Monarchy, Gen. xxxvi. 31. where it is said, These are the Kings that reigned in the Land of Edom, before there reigned any King over the Children of Israel; that is, before Moses was King in Jeshurun, viz.

I. BELAH, the Son of Beor, at the City Dinhabah.

II. JOBAB, the Son of Zerah, at Bozrah.

III. HUSHAM, the Son of N. N. in the Land of Temani.

IV. HADAD, the Son of Bedad (who smote Midian) in the Field of Moab, at Avith.

V. SHAMLAH at Masrekah.

VI. SHAUL at Rehoboth, by the River.

VII. BAAL-HANAN, the Son of Achbor.

VIII. HADAR at the City Pau.

But they had no Genealogy, being Kings elected, and not hereditary, as appears from their different Families, and the Capitals of their Kingdoms.

As for the 11 Dukes, mentiond after those Kings, They did not succeed to the Kings; for we have no Intimation of it in the Original, and are only the Names of the 11 Duchies, or Principalities of that Monarchy, calld after the Dukes that first ruld over them, before they were subjected to the Monarchy, viz the Province or Duchy of Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, Aholibamah, Elah, Pinon, Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, Magdiel, and Iram.

TABLE VI.

The Twelve PATRIARCHS of ISRAEL from JACOB's Flight to Haran, A. M. 2245, to the EXODUS of Moses, A. M. 2513, during 268 Years.

JACOB or ISRAEL, the Son of Isaac, the Son of Abraham, the Son of Terah, having got from Isaac the Bleſſing of Abraham, fled from Eſau aged 77, A. M. 2245, to Haran in Meſopotamia, and in a few Months was there married to his Couſins RACHEL and LEAH; for he could not have waited 7 Years before Marriage, (as is commonly thought) only he covenanted to ſerve Laban 7 Years for each Wife, or 14 Years for both, at the end of which JOSEPH was born; and, after living there 6 Years more, in all 20, he returnd to Canaan with his Families and Flocks, A. M. 2265, when aged 97. I have made another Computation of the Ages of theſe Patriarchs, upon the Suppoſition, that Jacob ſerved Laban 7 Years before, in my Chronological Connexion of Saurin's Diſſertations on the Pentateuch.

TABLE VII.

The CHRONOLOGY of ISRAEL in Egypt from the Deſcent to the Exodus, and from thence to the Death of MOSES.

		ERA of Deſcent.	Before EXODUS.	Anno PEREG.	Age of LEVI.	Age of JOSEPH.	Age of KOHATH.	Age of AMRAM.	Before MOSES.	After Flood.	Before Chriſt.	A. M.
The DESCENT, or Jacob's going down to Egypt with his Family; according to our Chronology, happend when he was aged 130, when Joſeph ſettled them in the Land of Goſhen, a Place fit for their Flocks, in Lower Egypt, in the End of the 2d Year of Famin ——		1	215	215	50	39	12	..	135	642	1706	2298
JOSEPH, too grateful to the Kings of Egypt, conſulting the Grandeur of the Monarchy more than the Good of the People, during the Years of Famin, firſt amaſſd all the Money of Egypt and the neighbouring Nations into the Treaſury of Pharaoh; and when they had no more Money, they ſold their Flocks and Herds for Bread; and at laſt they ſold their Lands and Liberties, and ſubmitted to the abſolute Dominion of the King: Nay, Joſeph broke their Clans, and blended them throughout all Egypt, to prevent the Re-aſſerting of their ancient Freedom, and obliged them to give to Pharaoh the 5th Part of their Yearly Income; by which miſtaken Policy the Iſraelites, after Joſeph's Death, were great Sufferers, when the bloody Tyrants of Egypt took from them their Lands and Liberties; as in this Table.
JACOB a dying bleſſed his Twelve Sons, and alſo Ephraim and Manaſſeh the Sons of Joſeph, adopting them into his Family; foretold what ſhould happen to them all; gave a ſignal Prophecy concerning Shiloh or MESSIAH to be deſcended of Judah, in an Extaſy of Spirit; orderd his Body to be buried in Machpelah; and †, aged 157, after living in Egypt —	17	17	198	232	67	56	29	...	118	659	1689	2315
Accordingly his Body embalmd was carried in great State to Canaan, and ſolemnly interr'd in the ſame Grave with Abraham, Sarah, Iſaac, Rebeccah, and Leah.
JOSEPH, upon their Return from the Funeral, was humbly addreſſd by thoſe Nine Brethren that were guilty of Selling him, whom he aſſured of his Protection
AMRAM, the Son of Kohath, the Son of Levi, was born in Egypt after the Death of Jacob ——	38	55	160	270	105	94	67	...	80	697	1651	2353
JOSEPH † in full Grandeur in Egypt, aged 110, after the Birth of Amram ——	16	71	144	286	121	110	83	16	64	713	1635	236
He was exalted by King Mephramuthoſis in the 15th Year of his Reign, was Prime Miniſter till that Pharaoh died, viz. 10 Years; and ſervd next under King Thmoſis about 1 Years more, and under King Amenophis about 30 Years more, and died in the 30th Year of Pharaoh ORUS, (according to Manetho) in all 80 Years, having renderd himſelf neceſſary in all Reigns. The Book of Geneſis ends in Joſeph's Death, containing the Hiſtory of 2369 Years.
LEVI †, aged 137, after the Death of Joſeph ——	16	87	128	302	137 After Levi	After Joſeph 16	99	32	48	729	1619	2385
Amram married his Couſin JOCHEBED, (though ſhe is commonly calld his Aunt, or the immediate Daughter of LEVI, but not of Kohath's Mother, and born to Levi about 7 Years before he died) his Father's Brother's Daughter, either of Gerſhom or Merari, as others think from ſome Greek Copies, after the Death of Levi ——	32	119	96	334	32	48	131	64	16	761	1587	2417
KOHATH †, the Son of Levi, the Father of Amram, and Grandfather of Moſes, this Year, aged 133; and } MIRIAM, the Daughter of Amram and Jochebed, the Siſter of Aaron and Moſes, was born the ſame Year, } after Amram's Marriage ——	2	121	94	336	34	50	133 After Kohath	66	14	763	1585	2419
From the Death of Joſeph, during 58 Years, under the Kings of Egypt, the Iſraelites enjoyd Peace and Plenty, until another King aroſe that knew not Joſeph, perhaps a Conqueror or a Foreigner, calld RAMESSES MIAMUN, who obſerving the mighty Growth of the Hebrews, both in Wealth and Number, made the Egyptians afraid of em, and began to perſecute them ſeverely in the firſt Year of his Reign, viz. after the Birth of Miriam ——	8	129	86	344	42	58	8	74	6	771	1577	2427
And this Oppreſſion continued until the EXODUS, viz. under this King during 67 Years, and under his Son Amenophis during 19 Years, in all 86 Years.
AARON, the Son of Amram and Jochebed, the Brother of Miriam and Moſes, was born after the Oppreſſion began ——	3	132	83	347	45	61	11	77	3 Age of MOSES.	774	1574	2430
This wicked King firſt orderd Shiphra and Pua, the two principal Midwives, to charge all the other Midwives, to ſtifle in the Birth all the Males of the Hebrews; and finding they had not, or could not do it, he next made by Proclamation an Order to drown all the Hebrew Male Infants.
MOSES, the Son of Amram and Jochebed, the Brother of Miriam and Aaron, in the ſixth Year of the Oppreſſion, was born after Aaron ——	3	135	80	350	48	64	14	80	...	777	1571	243
When Miriam was aged 14: For when Moſes was put into the little Ark among the Bulruſhes, ſhe was of age to watch him, and to ſend for her Mother to nurſe him at the Command of THERMUTIS the King's Daughter, who drew Moſes out of the Water, committed him to Jochebed to be nurſed as her adopted Son, and educated him at Court in all the Learning of the Egyptians. Upon which it is ſuppoſd ſhe prevaild with her Father to revoke the barbarous Edict, and to let the Male Hebrew Infants live. But otherwiſe the Oppreſſion was continued; for though the Males were now ſavd, they were educated in Bondage, and the King, having robbd them of their Land of Goſhen and of their Flocks, imployd ſome of them in making Dikes and Banks to ſtop the Waters of the Nile, others were traind up in Brick-making, and others in Stone-hewing, and in all ſorts of Maſonry: For by their Labours that King built monſtrous Pyramids of great Stones well cut, and alſo two great Cities well fortified, calld his Treaſure-Cities, Pithom and Raamſes. But the more they were oppreſſd the more they increaſed.
JOSHUAH the Son of Nun, of the Tribe of Ephraim, was born in the 41ſt Year of the Oppreſſion, and after the Birth of Moſes ——	35	170	45	385	83	99	49	115	35	812	1536	2468
Moſes aged 40, in the 46th Year of the Oppreſſion, viſiting his oppreſſd Brethren, ſlew an Egyptian that was beating an Iſraelite, and hid him in the Sands; but when it was known at Court, and finding the King intended to puniſh him for it, (THERMUTIS perhaps being now dead) he fled from Egypt to JETHRO, the Prince and Prieſt of a Colony of Midianites, near Mount Sinai in Arabia; and there married Jethro's Daughter ZIPPORAH, after the Birth of Joſhuah ——	5	175	40	390	88	104	54	120	40	817	1531	2473
CALEB the Son of Jephunneh of the Tribe of Judah, (ſee Tab. 11.) being 40 Years old when ſent to ſpy the Land of Canaan, Joſh. xiv. 7--10. was born after the Flight of Moſes ——	1	176	39	391	89	105	55	121	41	818	1530	2474
Amram †, aged 137, in the 62d Year of the Oppreſſion, 17 Years after the Flight of Moſes; and after the Birth of Caleb ——	16	192	23	407	105	121	71	137	57	834	1514	2490
King RAMESSES MIAMUN †, in the 67th Year of his Reign, and his Son AMENOPHIS came to the Throne after the Death of Amram ——	4	196	19	411	109	125	75	... After Amram	61	838	1510	2494
But the Oppreſſion died not with him; for, Exod. ii. 23. though it came to paſs in proceſs of Time that the King of Egypt died, yet the Children of Iſrael ſighed by reaſon of the Bondage, which continued 19 Years under all the Reign of Amenophis till the Exodus.
GOD appeard to Moſes in a burning Buſh not conſumed near Mount Sinai, (where he was chief Shepherd of Jethro's Flocks) and ſent him back to Egypt, there to work mighty Miracles, to deliver Iſrael from Bondage, to inſtitute the Paſſover, to lead them out of Egypt, that is, to make the EXODUS, to lead them through the Red Sea, (in which Pharaoh Amenophis and his whole Army were drownd) and to bring them to Mount Sinai. After the Death of King Rameſſes Miamun ——	19	215	....	430	128	144	94	22	80	857	1493	2513
Thus the ISRAELITES were in Egypt from the Deſcent to the Exodus during ——	215				After EXODUS.	Age of CALEB.	Age of JOSHUA	Age of AARON.
And here the IIII PERIOD of the Old Teſtament begins, at the Expiration of the 430 Years of Peregrination, and reaches to the Founding of Solomon's TEMPLE during 480 Years currant. See Tab. 8 and 10 —— in	1
Moſes this Year defeated Amalek, and receivd the Law from God on Mount Sinai, where the Iſraelites made a golden Calf. And next Year he erected the TABERNACLE, ſent Spies to ſearch the Land of Canaan, from Rithmah the 15th Station near Kadeſh Barnea, and numberd the fighting Men 603550 —— in	1
Korah, Dathan and Abiram rebelld againſt MOSES and AARON, and were deſtroyd before JEHOVAH; and Aaron's Rod bloſſomd at Haradah the 21ſt Station —— in	5				2	40	46	85	82	859	1491	2515
The grand Camp of Iſrael arrivd at Ezion Gaber on the Red Sea, the 32d Station, where they incamped two full Years, and where the Water of Hereb run into the Red Sea —— in	31				7	45	51	90	87	864	1486	2520
They left Ezion Gaber in the beginning of the 40th Year, and came to Kadeſh of Zin (not Kadeſh Barnea) the 33d Station, where Miriam †, aged 122; and where MOSES and AARON were condemnd to die in the Deſert and not to croſs the Jordan, for not glorifying God at the Rock Meribah. —— in	2				38	76	82	121	118	895	1455	2551
And alſo in the beginning of this Year they came to the 34th Station, Mount Hor, where AARON the Prieſt, in the Arms of Moſes and Eleazar his Succeſſor, †, aged 123. Next they pitchd at Tſalmonah the 35th Station, where the BRAZEN SERPENT was erected in the Wilderneſs, to cure thoſe Rebels that had been bit by the fiery Serpents. From thence, by ſeveral eaſy Marches, they arrivd at the Kingdom of Heſhbon; but King SIHON, refuſing them Paſſage and drawing forth his Army, was totally routed by Moſes, who took poſſeſſion of all his Land from the Arnon to the Jabbok. Then pitching at Mount Abarim, MOSES detachd an Army and fought the Giant OG, King of Baſhan, deſtroyd his People and poſſeſſd his Land. After this glorious Conqueſt of the Land Eaſt of Jordan, which was given to the Tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Half Maneſſeh, MOSES pitched in the 42d and laſt Station in the Plains of MOAB, along the Banks of the Jordan over againſt Jericho; when Balaam, under divine Influence, bleſſed the Camp of Iſrael from the top of an Hill in Moab; but wickedly adviſed BALAK King of Moab how to procure God to curſe them: Accordingly, to gain that grand Point, King Balak ſacrificed the Honour of the Virgins of Moab and Midian, who by their Arts drew the Iſraelites into Fornication, and alſo into Idolatry, by worſhipping the prophane Idol Baal-peor: for which God ſmote by a Plague 24000 of his People, until PHINEAS ſtaid the Plague, by zealouſly ſlaying Zimri and Cozbi in the very Act of Fornication. Then MOSES obſerving that all were dead who came out of Egypt aged above 20, except himſelf, Joſhua and Caleb, he made another Muſter of the fighting Men, viz. 601730, ſent 12000 armed Men to be avengd of the Midianites, (not the Moabites) who cut off the FIVE KINGS of Midian, and Balaam, and all they met with, Man, Woman and Child, except the Virgins, and brought in a very great Booty. At laſt he recapitulated the Law, or rehearſd the Book of Deuteronomy to the Heads of Iſrael, took a final View of his dear Camp, walkd up alone to the top of Piſgah on Mount Nebo, had a miraculous View of all CANAAN Weſt of Jordan, and then laid him down to die in the Arms of his God, who buried him in a Valley over againſt Beth-peor in Moab, aged 120; his Eye was not dim, nor his natural Force abated, and the Iſraelites mourned for him 30 Days, Deut. xxxiv.					40	78	84	123	120	897	1453	2553

Thus MOSES, by an eaſy and ſure Tradition, might be informd of ancient Tranſactions, having converſd with his Father AMRAM before his Flight 17 Years, who livd with LEVI 32 Years, and he with ISAAC 17, and he with SHEM 50, and he with METHUSELAH 98, and he with ADAM 243 Years. But all their Tradition was confirmd by Divine Revelation.

TABLE VIII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the JUDGES and KINGS of ISRAEL, from the Exodus to the Temple, during 480 Years.

The JUDGES of Iſrael not being Hereditary Princes, but occaſionally raiſd out of the ſeveral Tribes, and not having a Princely Genealogy, I exhibite here a CHRONOLOGICAL Table of the Judges and Kings of Iſrael, from the Exodus to the Founding of SOLOMON's Temple during 480 Years currant, or 479 Years, 1 Month and 2 Days complete, as it is plainly recorded, 1 Kings vi. 1. This Period is alſo regulated by Judg. xi. 26. where Jephtah, writing to the King of Ammon, affirms that Iſrael had poſſeſsd the Country of Gilead, Baſhan and Heſhbon Eaſt of Jordan 300 Years, before the Oppreſſion of the Ammonites began.

But the Words of the Apoſtle PAUL, Acts xiii. 20. (viz. And after That, he gave unto them Judges about the ſpace of 450 Years until Samuel the Prophet) are of no uſe in this Chronology; becauſe the Apoſtle intended not to determine exactly the Number of Years belonging to the Judges, but only to ſpecify the Number uſually aſcribed to thoſe Judges by the Jews in his Time: As Joſephus, and generally the whole Jewiſh Nation, then eſteemd the Book of Judges the juſt Meaſure of this Period, and that the Years of Servitude and Reſt were diſtinct and ſucceſſive, and that every Sum was to be added to the foregoing for making up the intire Chronology of this Interval; for from the beginning of Cuſhan's Oppreſſion to Samuel, by that Addition of the Years of Servitude and Reſt, there are juſt 450 Years, which the Apoſtle mentions only occaſionally, with a Note of Inaccuracy, (ὡς) as it were, or about, the ſpace of 450 Years, the Number then commonly aſcribd to the Judges, which therefore hinders not our ſtating the Account more exactly according to the expreſs Scripture Proof above mentiond: For, by adding the Numbers, it was no leſs than 649 between the Exodus and the Founding of the Temple, which is 169 Years more than 480. This has perplexd all Chronologers (even the moſt accurate Archbiſhop USHER was miſtaken in his new Way) till Sir JOHN MARSHAM cleard the Difficulty (in his Book calld Canon Chronicus, p. 305.) by allowing Synchroniſms or Contemporaries, or that ſome of the Judges ruld in the Eaſt while others ruld in the Weſt.

TABLE X.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Reign of King SAUL, and of the firſt 30 Years of DAVID's Life.

	Age of David.	Era of Saul's Reign.	ERA of EXODUS.	ERA of Ingreſs.	A. M.
Upon the People's clamouring for a King, SAUL the Son of Kiſh, the handſomeſt and talleſt young Gentleman in all Iſrael, when aged 25, was by Samuel anointed privately, and ſoon after preſented to the Tribes at Mizpeh, as King elect of Iſrael and approved by the general Voice——	. .	1	396 Before	356 Chriſt	2909 1095
The Spirit of JEHOVAH came upon him, to qualify him for his high Station; for in one Month he raiſd an Army, beat NAHASH King of the Ammonites, and raiſd the Siege of Jabeſh-Gilead. Upon which, at Gilgal, the grand Aſſembly made him King, 1 Sam. xi. 15. before the Founding of the TEMPLE——	. .	. .	84
King SAUL reignd in all—— 40 Viz. { Honourably, peaceably, and free from Trouble -- 2 } 40 Under Oppreſſion, War and Trouble —— 38	. .	. .	398	358	2911 1093
For in the 3d Year of Saul's Reign happend the VIII. Servitude, again under the Philiſtins, who oblig'd SAUL often to ſhift his Quarters without a ſettled Reſidence, becauſe he would not ſubmit to the Philiſtins, that would not allow of one Smith in all Iſrael, to prevent their uſe of Arms. This laſted during —— 13		. .	3
Mean while SAMUEL was allowd by the Philiſtins to be the Judge of the People in Civil Affairs; for he is ſaid to have judgd Iſrael all the Days of his Life, 1 Sam. vii. 15. DAVID, the youngeſt Son of Jeſſe, was born at Bethlehem,	1	10	406 }	366	2919 1085
in the 8th Year of this Servitude. Juſt 30 Years before the Death of King SAUL, and before the Temple ——	. .	. .	74
In the 12th Year of this Servitude, JONATHAN, the Son of King Saul, aged 18, having ſmote the Philiſtian Garriſon at Geba, the Philiſtins brought their numberleſs Army, to grub up and depopulate all Iſrael, next Year. Then King SAUL blew the Trumpet, and gatherd a vaſt Multitude at Gilgal, but wanting Arms, they deſerted and hid themſelves, all but 600: Upon which, on the 7th Day, SAUL impatient of SAMUEL's not coming that Day early, with Inſtructions from God concerning the War, preſumd to offer Sacrifices and give Directions himſelf, contrary to God's Appointment; for which he forfeited his Crown, 1 Sam. xiii. 14.	4	14	410	370
Yet SAUL marchd his 600 Men to Migron near Gibeah, where JONATHAN only with his Armor-bearer ſurprizd the Philiſtian Garriſon, when Terror from God ſeizd the Philiſtian Army that lay in the Neighbourhood, ſo that they ſlew one another, and the Iſraelites joind Saul's little Army, who purſued the Philiſtins to their Borders.	5	15	411	371	2924 1080
And ſo after 13 Years, the VIIIth Servitude ending, SAUL took the Kingdom over Iſrael, 1 Sam. xiv. 47. That is, having coverd it from the Enemy, he regarded not his late Forfeiture, but took it himſelf, without conſulting God; and reignd after this, tho' in perpetual War, for 25 Years, 1 Sam. xiv. 52. There was ſore War againſt the Philiſtins all the Days of Saul. SAUL now begins a new Reign, and was very proſperous for 12 Years, prevailing in War over Moab and Ammon, Edom and the Kings of Zoba, the Philiſtins and all the Enemies of Iſrael. At length, in the 12th Year, God ſent SAUL to extirpate Amalek, in purſuance of an old Sentence: But Saul ſav'd AGAG their King, and the beſt Booty, contrary to God's expreſs Charge to him; for which he forfeited his Crown a ſecond time, when Samuel ſlew Agag, and intirely deſerted Saul to the Day of his Death, 1 Sam xv. 35. —	17	27	423	383	2936 1068
God alſo deſerted him now, rebuked Samuel for his Mourning for Saul, and ſent him to the Houſe of Jeſſe at Bethlehem this ſame Year, to anoint David.

	Age of David.	Era of Saul's Rei gn.	ERA of Exod.	ERA of Ingreſs.	A. M.
DAVID was anointed, by God's Choice, to be Saul's Succeſſor in preſence of all his Brethren; but without the Knowledge of Saul, 1 Sam. xvi. 1, 2, &c. before the Founding of the Temple--	. .	. .	57
SAUL now deſerted of God, troubled with an evil Conſcience, and frequently diſorderd in his Mind, by the Advice of his Servants ſent for David to ſooth him with the Muſic of his Lyre; for David was educated to be his Father's chief Shepherd, (Formoſi pecoris cuſtos formoſior ipſe) and ſo was traind up to the Uſe of Arms and alſo to Poetry and Muſic, (and to ſerious Religion too) for which he became famous ſo early, 1 Sam. xvi. 18. but David ſoon returnd to his Father before Saul knew of his being anointed, 1 Sam. xvii. 15 ——	18	28	424	384	2937 1067
The Philiſtins renewd the War, and brought into the Field GOLIAH, the monſtrous Giant of Gath, who during 40 Days blaſphemd JEHOVAH, and defyd Saul's Army, in the Name of Dagon, twice a Day as his Champion, none daring to accept of his Challenge, until DAVID (ſent by his Father with ſome Refreſhments for his three eldeſt Brothers in the Camp) accepted of it; and without Armor advancing between the Armies, with his own Shepherd's Staff and Scrip, DAVID from his Sling did ſink a round Pebble in the Giant's Forehead, that made him to ſtagger and fall, when DAVID ran and ſtood upon him, and forthwith cut off Goliah's Head with Goliah's own Sword in ſight of both Armies: Upon which the Philiſtins fled, and SAUL and his Army purſued them to their Borders ——	19	29	425	385	2938 1066
And upon their Return the Women and Minſtrils of Iſrael ſang and playd in Dances with this Chorus, viz. SAUL hath ſlain his Thouſands, but DAVID his Ten Thouſands, 1 Sam. xviii. This made SAUL envious, and next Day to attempt to ſlay him with a Javelin, which David twice eſcapd, while ſoothing the King's Mind with his Harp. But SAUL, not yet knowing of David's Anointing, retaind him at Court, and ſet him over his Guards; but, conceiving Malice at David, SAUL movd him from Court with the Command of 1000 Men to fight againſt the Philiſtins, with the Promiſe of his Daughter Merab for a Wife.	20	30	426	386	2939 1065
But mean while SAUL gave Merab to Adriel, and when DAVID returnd ſafe from Skirmiſhing (to the Grief of Saul) he was offerd Michal the other Daughter for 100 Foreskins of the Philiſtins, which David gladly accepted, and for Michal he fought and deliverd 200 Foreskins. SAUL at length hearing of David's Anointing, and finding that God was with him, that Michal lovd him, and that he had the Eſteem of all the People, became more afraid of David, and adviſd his Son JONATHAN and his Servants to ſlay him; tho' in vain: For Jonathan lovd him, and reconcild him and the King this time——	21	31	427	387	2940 1064
The Philiſtins renewing the War, SAUL ſent DAVID as his General, who beat the Philiſtins home again, and upon his triumphant Return, SAUL, being really or feignedly troubled with the Evil Spirit, again attempted to ſlay David with his Javelin, while David was diverting him with his Harp: But David eſcaping, SAUL ſent Aſſaſins to murder him a bed. But David eſcaping again, by the Contrivance of his Wife Michal, and flying to SAMUEL at Ramah. SAUL ſent three Sets of Meſſengers one after another, who, inſtead of taking David, turnd all Prophets; nay SAUL himſelf, coming for him, turnd Prophet too, 1 Sam. xix. Upon which DAVID was again in Favour, but not long; for next Year David, juſtly afraid of being murderd, enterd into a Covenant of Friendſhip with his belovd JONATHAN, who	22	32	428	388	2941 1063

diſcover'd his Father's open Reſolution at Table to cut him off, and adviſd him to flee for his Life: And ſo DAVID never returnd to SAUL's Court, but wanderd about 8 Years in Deſerts and ſtrong Holds, 1 Sam. xx. For DAVID firſt with no ſuitable Retinue ran to Nob near Shiloh, where AHIMELECH gave him the Sword of Goliah for his Defence, and entertaind him with ſtale Shew-Bread, for which he and 84 other Prieſts were afterwards cut off by SAUL; none eſcaping but Abiathar, who came to David with an Ephod in his Hand, 1 Sam. xxi. and xxii.	23	33	429	389	2942 1062
Then DAVID ran to ACHISH King of Gath, where not finding himſelf ſafe, he ſoon eſcapd to the Cave of Adullam in Judah, where he ſet up his Standard and gatherd 400 fighting Men, of deſperate Circumſtances like himſelf. Thence he went to Mizpeh of Moab, where he ſettled his Parents and Kindred, and where in all likelihood old Jeſſe died, aged 134.	24	34	430	390	2943 1061
Thence he returnd to Adullam with his Band. Thence to the Foreſt of Hareth. Thence to the Relief of Keilah, when he raiſd the Siege and ſpoild the Philiſtins; where SAUL hoped to catch him, tho' in vain:	25	35	431	391	2944 1060

and thence to the Hill of Hachilah, on the South of Jeſhimon, while SAUL with an Army hunted him unto a Rock in the Wilderneſs of Maon, where Saul had ſurrounded him on the Rock, if he had not been diverted by a new Invaſion of the Philiſtins, 1 Sam. xxiii.	27	37	433	393	2946 1058
Then David movd to the ſtrong Holds of Engedi, where Saul hunted him (as ſoon as the Philiſtins were beat back) with 3000 Men. Here DAVID cut off a Piece of Saul's Royal Mantle, inſtead of ſlaying him, while a ſleep in the great Cave, whereby SAUL was pacifyd once more, and went home, 1 Sam. xxiv. This Year DAVID was going to ſlay Nabal at Carmel near Paran, and all his Males, for his Ingratitude and ill Manners; but was prevented by the Wiſdom of ABIGAEL his Wife, who, upon Nabal's ſudden Death, became David's Wife this Year; as a little before he had married Abinoam of Jezreel, becauſe that SAUL had given Michal to Phaltiel. About the beginning of next Year DAVID movd to his old Camp, the Hill of Hachilah, where SAUL again hunted him with 3000 Men But DAVID with Abiſhai in the Night, finding Saul and Abner and all the Camp faſt a ſleep, venturd not to ſlay Saul, but only to carry off his Spear and Cruiſe; and upon diſcovering it in the Morning, SAUL acknowledgd his Fault, and went home again pacifyd, 1 Sam. xxvi. Mean while DAVID, hating to be idle, marchd againſt thoſe Geſhurites, Gezrites and Amalekites that lay South of Ziklag, and left none alive to tell Tidings: But he told a great Lie to King Achiſh, affirming he had made an Inroad upon Judah. The GENEALOGY of King DAVID, from Judah to King REHOBOAM.
JUDAH, the 4th Son of Jacob, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, was born at Haran when his Father Jacob was aged . . .	82	49	166	2249
He was aged at the Descent into Egypt 49 Years and 4 Months, and brought with him 5 Sons, viz. Tab. 6.
2. PHAREZ, the 2d Son alive of Judah, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, born by Thamar in Canaan when his Father Judah was aged . . .	34	15	200	2283
He was aged at the Descent 15 Years and 8 Months, Tab. 6.
1. HEZROM, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, born in Canaan when his Father Pharez was aged above . . .	14	1	214	2298
He was aged at the Descent 11 Months, (Tab. 6.) which, added to the Column of the Years of Peregrination, make the Total before Descent . . .	. . .	. . .	215

BEZALEEL, the Master-Mason or Architect of the Tabernacle under Moses, and in Conjunction with AHOLIAB of the Tribe of Dan, Exod. xxxi. 2, &c.

2. JEPHUNNEH.
1. CALEB the Great, born in Egypt, the Year after Naasson of Judah, being aged 40 when sent to spy the Land, Josh. xiv. 7. and after Naasson died in the Desert, this CALEB became the Prince of Judah in the Plains of Moab, Numb. xxxiv. 18, 19. He and Joshua were the only Persons that came out of Egypt, who also passd over the Jordan, or that made both the Exodus and Ingress, without any Diminution of his Vigour, as he owns when aged 85, in the 6th Year after Ingress, Josh. xiv. and whose Offspring possessd the largest and best Share of the Tribe of Judah, viz.

2. Kenaz, calld the Brother of Caleb, Josh. xv. 17.

1. Shobal, Prince of Kiriathaim. 2. Salma, Prince of Bethlehem. 3. Hareph, Prince of Bethgader.

4. Iru. 5. Elah. 6. Naam. See 1 Chr. iv. 15.

Achsah, Wife of OTHNIEL, the Judge, Judg. i. 12. and Tab. 8.
See their Offspring in 1 Chron. iv. 13, 14.

These three Heads, or Princes, of Families are mentiond, 1 Chron. ii. 50--55. as the Sons of CALEB, the Son of HUR, that is, the Grandson of Hur and immediate Son of JEPHUNNEH; for they inhabited his Lot in the Tribe of Judah.

Besides these, the KENITES also, a Colony of Midianites under Hobab, the Son of JETHRO, (Moses's Father-in-law) being Proselyts, marchd with Israel through the Desert, and settled first in the Lot of Caleb, in the South of Judah near the Wilderness of Paran. But afterwards a Branch of 'em, under one Heber, settled in Naphtali, (whose Wife Jael slew Sisera, Judg. iv. 11) and from him in time came Hemath, the Father of the House of Rechab, 1 Chron. ii 55. which Rechab was the Father of Jonadab, who joind with JEHU against the Worshippers of Baal, 2 Kings x. 23. and also instituted a Law in his Family, That none of 'em should drink Wine for ever, nor sow Seed, nor plant, nor possess Vineyards, nor build Houses, but should always dwell in Tents, as their Progenitors had done; which Law we certainly find (from Jer. xxxv. 6, &c.) was most punctually observd in that Family, from that Time till the Days of Zedekiah, during 296 Years.

4. SEGUB, the fourth Son of Hezrom, by the Daughter of Machir the Son of Manasseh, whom Hezrom married when he was aged 60, 1 Chron. ii. 21. &c.

Jair and his People, that seem to have possessd 23 Cities in Gilead, among the Manassites, 1 Chron. ii. 21, &c. But not the same Jair, that was of the Tribe of Manasseh, Numb. xxxii. 41.

5. ASHUR, the Son of Abijah, the last Wife of Hezrom.

The People of Tekoa, 1 Chron. ii. 24.

3. RAM, or Aram, the 3d Son of Hezrom, and the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, the first of them that was born in Egypt.

Having no Account of the Years of Generation, nor of the Ages of DAVID's Progenitors, we are left to our own Conjectures in the Chronology of HEZROM, RAM, AMMINADAB, NAASSON, SALMON, BOAZ, OBED, and JESSE, to state their Ages when each begat his Son.

Some think those too few, from HEZROM's Descent into Egypt A. M. 2298, to the Birth of DAVID A. M. 9919, during 621 Years; and have therefore imagind two or three of the Name of BOAZ: That so the Patriarchs after Salmon might not appear too old, when their Successors were born.

But as there is not the least ground for that Imagination in Holy Writ, where always one BOAZ is mentiond, and no more, nor any Intimation of another; so it will appear by my Chronology, that such an Imagination or Supposition is not needful, only by allowing that BOAZ, OBED and JESSE were each 110 Years old when they begat their Successors, and that JESSE might live to be aged 134: For there are many Instances in History of hail, vigorous old Men of that Age, particularly in England, one Thomas Par sufferd Penance, in Shropshire, for Adultery when aged 105, married his 2d Wife when aged 122, and died aged 152, at London Anno Domini 1635. Thus Anno after Descent.	Anno before Exodus.

RAM might be born about 13 Years before the Death of Joseph, and 3 Years after Amram, when Hezrom his Father was aged . . .	58	58	157	2356
For after his Birth his Father Hezrom was twice married, as appears here, under his Sons Segub and Ashur.
AMMINADAB, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, might be born in Egypt when his Father Ram was aged . . .	59	117	98	2415
NAASSON, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, was born in Egypt when Amminadab was aged . . .	59	176	39	2474
And so at the Exodus of Moses NAASSON was aged . . .	39	215	. . .	2513 }
For that Number and the Ages of Hezrom, Ram and Amminadab make up the Total between the Descent and Exodus . . .	215	Bef. Christ		1491 }

Thus also NAASSON, when Prince of Judah at the Erection of the Tabernacle, was aged 41 }
And having traversd the Desert after that Erection for . . . 18 } 59
He begat his younger Son Salmon, and livd several Years afterwards.

But all the Names of this Branch of NAASSON, except Elimelech and his two Sons, are suppressd in Holy Writ; perhaps as a Punishment on him that refusd to obey the Law, in redeeming Elimelech's Estate, and in marrying Ruth, the Widow of Mahlon, to revive the Name of the Deceasd.

But neither He nor Salmon did succeed to NAASSON as Prince of Judah; for that Honor was conferred on CALEB, the Son of Jephunneh.

2. SALMON, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, was born in the Desert when Naasson was aged — 59 | 20 | . . . | 532
And so when Moses died in the Plains of Moab SALMON was aged 20
RAHAB the Harlot (or rather the Inn-keeper, as the Word imports) was next Year savd in Jericho when aged 16
She became a Proselyte, and was married to SALMON, tho' we know not how soon after the Sack of Jericho: But supposing in 6 Years, when Joshua had finishd the War, and gave Rest to israel, when she was aged 22
And that BOAZ, her youngest Child, was born after Marriage . . . . . 30 } 52
She might well be capable at that Age of bearing her youngest Child, of which we have many Instances in our Days. And her other Children being Daughters only, or Sons that left no Male Issue, her youngest Son came to be Salmon's Heir, viz.

1. Elimelech, born at Bethlehem, married Naomi, and becoming poor was forced by Famin to mortgage his Estate, and travelld with his Family into the Land of Moab, in the 10th Year of Judge EHUD's Rule, A. M. 2688, Tab. 8. and there died.

2. N. N. who was rich, and continued at Bethlehem.

 Ruth the Moabitess the Wife of

BOAZ, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, who was born at Bethlehem, (where Salmon's small Lot fell among the great and numerous Family of CALEB) when his Father Salmon was aged . . . . . 56 | 76 | 36 | 2589
In the 11th Year of the Anarchy. Tab. 8.
He livd to a great Age, and became rich; and was perhaps a Widower when Naomi returnd with RUTH from Moab, and when RUTH applyd to him to do the Part of a Kinsman according to the Law of Moses.

1. Mahlon, married RUTH. 2. Chilion, married Orpah.
But both these Sons of Elimelech dying in Moab without Issue, Naomi their Mother, after 10 Years Absence, returnd to Bethlehem with her Daughter-in-law RUTH, but very poor, A. M. 2698, Tab. 8.
Naomi then directed RUTH to apply to BOAZ, to redeem her Husband's Estate, (either thro' Mistake or Design; for BOAZ was not the nearest Kinsman) and to marry RUTH according to the Law.

N. N. the nearest Kinsman of Mahlon, who refusd to redeem Elimelech's Estate upon the Terms of marrying Mahlon's Widow RUTH, the poor Moabitess: Therefore BOAZ accepting of the Right of Redemption from N. OBED, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, the Heir of Elimelech and Boaz, who was born at Bethlehem when his Father Boaz was aged . . . . .

He might be married soon enough, but either had only Daughters, or Sons that died without Male Issue, whereby his youngest Son came to be his Heir, viz. . . . . . 110 | 186 | 146 | 2699

He was married soon enough, (as appears by his Family subjoind) and that he was very old when DAVID was born appears from 1 Sam. xvii. 12. TABLE XII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Reign of King DAVID.

When the Philiſtian Army marchd againſt SAUL, Achiſh King of Gath, took DAVID and his 600 Men with him into the Field; but the Lords of the Philiſtins, not inclining to truſt him in a Battel againſt the Iſraelites, prevaild to ſend him back to Ziklag, where arriving in three Days, he found a diſtant Colony of the Amalekites had in his Abſence burnt the Town, and carried away Captive all the Women, Children and Goods; upon which David's Men were ready to ſtone him to death: But he encouragd himſelf by Prayer, and encouragd his Men, by God's Direction, to purſue and overtake the Enemy, whom he ſmote a whole Day, recoverd all ſafe, and returnd to Ziglag loaded with great Spoil. Two Days after his Return, a young Amalekite, eſcaping out of the Battel of Gilboah, told DAVID how the Philiſtins had beat the Iſraelites out of the Field, and that King SAUL had deſird him to ſlay him, which, he ſaid, he did, and carried off SAUL's Crown and Bracelets, which he preſented to David; but that Preſent did not prevent his being immediately cut off by David's Order, becauſe he had ownd to have ſlain the LORD's ANOINTED, whether it was true or falſe; tho' indeed it was falſe: For now SAUL being deſerted of God, and afraid at the Approach of the Philiſtian Army, went diſguiſd to the Witch of Endor, the Day before Battel, to bring SAMUEL up from the Dead, in order to be adviſd by his old Friend in this Emergency, becauſe he could get no Advice from God. The Witch raiſd a Demon, or fallen Angel, in the old Appearance of Samuel, who, by God's Permiſſion, told SAUL his Fate, even that to morrow he and his Sons ſhould be in the State of the Dead. Accordingly, next Day, when the Battel was fought on Mount Gilboah, the Iſraelites fell before the Philiſtins; and when SAUL ſaw three of his Sons ſlain, viz. JONATHAN, Abinadab and Melchiſhuah, and being ſore wounded by Arrows, and hotly purſued by the Enemy, he fell upon his own Sword, as did his Armour-Bearer; when the foreſaid Amalekite might ſnatch the Crown and Bracelets, which he brought to DAVID at Ziklag. Next Day the Philiſtins found SAUL's Body, cut off his Head, and ſent it to be a Spectacle throughout all Philiſtia, and naild his Body, and the Bodies of his three Sons, to the Wall of Bethſhan, and took Poſſeſſion of many of the Cities of Iſrael.

DAVID mean while thankd the Men of Jabeſh-Gilead for their Gratitude to SAUL, in taking his Body and the Bodies of his Sons from the Wall of Bethſhan, and for burying their Bones. DAVID ſtrengthend himſelf by an Alliance with TALMAI, King of Geſhur, whoſe Daughter Maacah he married, the Mother of Abſolom and Siſter Thamar. At the end of thoſe two Years of Peace, a bloody War enſued between Iſhboſheth and David for near 5 Years, in which Iſhboſheth daily loſt ground; for in the Battel of Gibeon was Abner routed, loſt 360 Men, while Joab, DAVID's General, loſt but 20, among which was his Brother Aſael, ſlain by Abner in the Purſuit, 2 Sam. ii. 23.
At laſt Abner, being affronted by ISHBOSHETH, deſerted him and came to Hebron, where DAVID feaſted him; and Abner engagd to bring in all Iſrael to David. But Joab returning from purſuing a Troop, and finding Abner had departed in peace, ſent for him back without David's Knowledge, and treacherouſly murderd him in the Gateway, 2 Sam. iii. This intimidated Iſhboſheth and all Iſrael, until Baanah and Rechab, two of his Captains, murderd him on his Bed, and brought his Head to David, who immediately cut them off as vile Murderers, and buried the Royal Head in the Grave of ABNER at Hebron, 2 Sam iv.	6	36	442	402	2955 1049

Upon this 340822 valiant Men from all the Tribes of Iſrael came to Hebron, and anointed DAVID King of all Iſrael, (which was his 3d Anointing) when he took his Coronation-Oath, or made a League with the People before Jehovah, 2 Sam. v. and 1 Chr. xii.

The next half Year was ſpent partly at Hebron, and partly at the Siege of Jebuſi, (that till then was poſſeſſd by the Jebuſits) of which David took in the Fort of ZION, and calld it the City of DAVID: And Joab having took in Jebuſi, DAVID calld it JERUSALEM, made it his capital City, rebuilt it, and well fortifyd it, 2 Sam. v. 6--9. and 1 Chron. xi. 4.——	1	38	444	404	2957 1047

Now HIRAM, King of Tyre, ſent Envoys to congratulate King DAVID with Cedar Trees, Carpenters and other Maſons for building his Palace and Caſtle of Zion. But when all the World ſaw that David was eſtabliſhd in the Kingdom of Iſrael, the inveterate Philiſtins renewd the War, and enterd Judah with a great Army to hunt him. Upon which David retird from Jeruſalem, then in Rubbiſh, to the ſtrong Hold of Adullam, and by God's Direction attackd 'em in the Valley of Rephaim, and routed them in the Battel of Baalperazim, where he burnt their Image-Gods, 2 Sam. v. Before this Battel, three of David's Worthies, hearing him long to drink of the Water of the Well of Bethlehem, broke thro' the Army of the Philiſtins, and, in defiance of their Garriſon at Bethlehem, brought of that Water to Adullam; tho' David would not drink it, but devoutly pourd it out before Jehovah as an Offering 2 Sam. xxiii. 13--17. 1 Chron. xi. 15--19.
Next Year the Philiſtins returnd to the Valley of Rephaim, when DAVID by God's Direction marchd behind them, and, at the Signal of God on the tops of the Mulberry Trees, ſmote them from Geba to Gazer, 2 Sam. v. And ſo he recoverd all the Land of Iſrael. DAVID, having now obtaind a general Peace, and finiſhd the City and Fortifications of Jeruſalem, was piouſly anxious for the Ark of God, that had been taken by the Philiſtins in the laſt Year of ELI's Rule, had been ſent back in 7 Months, and then lodgd in the Houſe of Abinadab, in Kiriath-Jearim near Philiſtia in Judah, where it ſtatedly remaind, During SAMUEL's Rule before Saul's Anointing 16 } During SAUL's Reign —— 40 } In all 66 years During DAVID's Reign at Hebron —— 7 } And during his Reign at Jeruſalem —— 3 }	2	39	445	405	2958 1046
And now DAVID went with 30000 choſen Men out of all the Tribes, and brought the Ark from Kiriath-Jearim, upon a new Cart, in a ſolemn Proceſſion, finely deſcribd in Pſal. lxviii. and cxxxii.	3	40	446	406	2959 1045

But Uzzah being ſuddenly ſlain by God, for ſuddenly and raſhly touching the Ark, David was afraid of bringing it to Zion, and therefore ſent it to the Houſe of Obed-Edom, 2 Sam. vi. Yet when he had found his Miſtake, and that God had bleſſd the Houſe of Obed-Edom for the Ark's ſake, DAVID in three Months formd a more ſolemn Proceſſion, and with great Sacrifices brought it to the Tabernacle, that he had prepard for it in ZION, which is therefore calld the City of God, and from this Time was an Emblem of the Church. Now the Ark had Reſt, 1 Chron. vi. 31. and DAVID, clothd with an Ephod, ſang with the People, Ariſe, O JEHOVAH, unto thy Reſt, Thou and the Ark of thy Strength! for the Lord hath choſen ZION, &c. as in Pſalm. cxxxii.
Next Year DAVID enjoying profound Peace, and ſitting in his Palace of Cedars, propoſd to Nathan the Prophet to build a TEMPLE for the Ark, and for the other Utenſils of the Tabernacle of Moſes, that had been lately tranſlated from Shiloh in Ephraim (where Joſhua placd it) to Gibeon in Benjamin, not far from Jeruſalem, where it was attended by its proper Miniſters. But next Day, tho' God ſent Nathan to approve of David's good Intention, yet he forbid him to undertake a Work not fit for a Man of Blood, and which was reſervd for a peaceable King of his Offspring; withal promiſing, That his Seed ſhould be Kings to many Generations, 2 Sam. vii. This was 11 Years before SOLOMON the peaceable was born; which Time King DAVID imployd in ſubduing the Nations round him, and in aggrandizing his Kingdom to the Extent of the Promiſe made to ABRAM, Gen. xv. 18. Even from the River of Egypt, to the great River Euphrates. For	4	41	447	407	2960 1044 taken from the Men of Hadad-Ezer, and a vast Quantity of Braſs taken at Betah and Berothai, which he dedicated to God, Ibid.

But tho' the Syrians were ſubdued, yet one REZON, the Son of Eliadz, deſerting the Camp of Hadad-Ezer his Lord, upon the firſt Defeat, and gathering a Band of warlike Men, became their Captain, and in ſome time made a Settlement at Damaſcus, where he became their King; the firſt of thoſe Kings of Syria that often annoyd the Iſraelites, whoſe Royal Name was HADAD and Ben-hadad: (as PHARAOH was the Name of the Kings of Egypt) Nay the Enmity began in this Rezon, whom God ſtirrd up againſt Solomon, 1 Kings xi. 23, 24, 25.
Now TOI, or Tou, King of Hamath, ſent his Son Joram, or Hadoram, with a Preſent of Veſſels of Gold, Silver and Braſs, to congratulate King DAVID, upon his Conqueſt of Hadad-Ezer his old Enemy, Ibid.
5. DAVID ſent his General Abiſhai againſt the Edomites, who ſlew 18000 of 'em in the Valley of Salt, and garriſond all the Land of Edom, and made them Tributaries too, Ibid.	9	46	452	412	2965 1039
6. DAVID ſubdued alſo the Amalekites, and ſpoild them of much Gold and Silver, which he alſo dedicated to God, Ibid.	10	47	453	413	2966 1038
And now King DAVID, remembring his Covenant with his old faithful and loving Friend Prince JONATHAN, the Son of King SAUL, ſent for his Son Mephiboſheth, reſtord him to Saul's paternal Eſtate at Gibeah, and retaind him at Court as a Prince at his Table, 2 Sam. ix.
7. After this NAHASH King of Ammon, DAVID's old Friend, died, and David ſent Embaſſadors to condole his Son King HANUN, to offer the Continuance of Friendſhip: But Hanun's Counſellors perſuaded him to male-treat them as Spies, to ſhave the one Half of their Beards, and to cut their Garments cloſe to their Buttocks, whereby the Gentlemen were forcd to ſtay at Jericho, till their Beards were grown, 2 Sam. x.
Upon this a grievous War enſued; for Hanun, juſtly afraid of David's keen Reſentments, hird Auxiliaries, viz. 20000 Foot of the Syrians of Beth-Rehob and Zoba, and 12000 of Tob (the Country whither Jephtah formerly fled) near Ammon, and 1000 Men of Maachah in Trachonitis near Gilead, 2 Sam. x. 6.
But in 1 Chron. xix. 6, 7. we read of greater Preparations and larger Auxiliaries, who joind the Ammonites in Battel.	11	48	454	414	2967 1037
DAVID was not behind in his Preparations for War, and ſent General Joab with all the Army of the mighty Men, who met the Enemy in the Field of Rabbah, the Capital of Ammon, and beat them out of the Field into the City, which Joab did not then beſiege, but returnd with the Army to Jeruſalem.
Then the Syrians Weſt of the Euphrates ſent and hird the Syrians Eaſt of that River, who raiſd a great Army under Shobach the General of Hadad-Ezer, (the Son or Succeſſor of the laſt mentiond of that Name) and joind the Weſtern Syrians in the Cauſe of the Ammonites.
But DAVID, not afraid of that Confederacy, gatherd the valiant Men of Iſrael, forded the Jordan, came upon them and gave them a total Rout, ſlaying 7000 Men that fought in Chariots, and 40000 Foot, and Shopach their General. Upon which the People of Hadad-Ezer made Peace with David, and became his Tributaries; nor did any of the Syrians help the Ammonites any more, 1 Chron. xix. 16, &c. And now David, having cut off all Aſſiſtance from the Ammonites,	12	49	455	415	2968 1036
Next Year when Kings go forth to Battel, or in the Seaſon of Campaigns, he ſent Joab with the Army to waſte the Country of Ammon, and to beſiege Rabbah.	13	50	456	416	2969 1035
During the Siege DAVID, being at Jeruſalem, walkd one Evening on the flat Roof of his Palace, and from thence viewing BATHSHEBAH, the Wife of Uriah, waſhing herſelf, ſent his Pimps to prevail with her to come to his Palace, where he lay with her, and then ſhe returnd to her Husband's Houſe, which was in the Neighbourhood. When ſhe had conceivd, ſhe ſent and told the King of it, who immediately ſent for Uriah from the Siege; but could not with all his Art perſuade him to go home to his Wife's Bed, while the Ark, and Iſrael and Judah abode in Tents, and the Army incampd in the open Fields, according to the Cuſtom of good Men in thoſe Days. And becauſe DAVID could not thus cover his Adultery, he added to that Sin the other dreadful Sin of Murder, by ſending the virtuous, the innocent, the brave URIAH back to the Siege, with Letters to Joab, to ſet him in the fore Front of the hotteſt Battel, and to retire from him, that he might be ſlain by the Enemy; which curſd Order Joab exactly performd, 2 Sam. xi.
When Bathſhebah heard her Husband was dead, ſhe mournd for him certain Days according to the Decency of the Times; after which DAVID ſent for her, and married her.
Mean while the long Siege of Rabbah was carried on with more Vigour; and Joab, having took the City of Waters adjoining to it, ſent to King DAVID to come himſelf, and take it in, leſt Joab ſhould have the Honour of it.
So DAVID went with the Reſt of the Army, took in Rabbah, ſmote Hanun, and wore his Crown, exalted Hanun's Brother SHOBI to be the tributary King of Ammon, and tormented the Ammonites that had been moſt guilty, under Saws, and Harrows and Axes of Iron, and made them paſs through the Brick-Kiln, 2 Sam. xii. 26, &c. (Some impute that Cruelty to David's living then in Wickedneſs without Repentance.) and returnd to Jeruſalem with great Spoil; when Bathſhebah bore to him the Child begotten in Adultery.	14	51	457	417	2970 1034
But forthwith in the middle of his Triumph, while all were congratulating him, GOD ſent the Prophet Nathan to reclaim him by the Parable of the Rich and Poor Man, and to denounce the heavy Sentence, viz. That, becauſe of the Murder of URIAH, the Sword ſhould never depart from his Houſe; and that an Enemy ſhould ariſe to him out of his own Houſe, who ſhould lye with his Wives in the ſight of the Sun, and not ſecretly, as he had done at firſt with the Wife of Uriah, 2 Sam. xii.
DAVID repented and humbled himſelf before God; upon which Nathan, in God's Name, pronounced his Pardon, and aſſurd him that God would not ſlay him, only that the adulterous Child ſhould die; as it happend, in 7 Days: And DAVID having composd the LIſt Pſalm, as a laſting Memorial of his Repentance, and having recoverd himſelf, he comforted his Wife BATHSHEBAH, (who had been alſo mourning for Sin) and ſhe conceiving bore to him a Son, whom David calld SOLOMON, or Peaceable; but Nathan calld him JEDIDIAH, the Beloved of God; juſt eleven Years after his Birth was foretold, as the peaceable King that ſhould build the Temple of JEHOVAH, and	15	52	458	418	2971 1033
Before the Founding of the ſaid TEMPLE	. .	. .	22
But David in his own Perſon was three Ways chaſtiſd: For
1. AMNON his eldeſt Son fell in love with Siſter Thamar, (David's only Daughter, and the full Siſter of Abſolom) and lay with her, after having inſnard her, 2 Sam. xiii.	16	53	459	419	2972 1032
2. After two full Years ABSOLOM revengd the Injury of his Siſter, by murdering Amnon before all his Brethren, when made merry with Wine at Abſolom's Feaſt: Upon which Abſolom fled to his Grandfather Talmai, King of Geſhur, Ibid.	18	55	461	421	2974 [illegible]
At the end of three Years, Joab, perceiving David's exorbitant Affection for Abſolom, and his Longing to ſee his Darling, got a cunning Woman of Tekoah with a clever Tongue, to bring David, by a feignd Story, into a Conceſſion of ſending him for Abſolom; and ſo Joab brought the lovely Abſolom back to Jeruſalem: But David's Honour ſo far prevaild over his Love, that for two Years he admitted not his charming Abſolom to ſee his Face, till by the Interceſſion of Joab he admitted him, and ſeald his Pardon with a Kiſs, 2 Sam. xiv.	21	58	464	424	2977 1027
3. But this was the Introduction of his 3d Chaſtiſement; for next Year, being the Sabbatical, ABSOLOM prepard him a fine Equipage of Chariots and Horſes, and 50 running Footmen, and like a prime Favourite, ſtole the Hearts of the People from the King, deſigning to dethrone him, and inthrone himſelf. And when the Plot was ready for Execution, it is ſaid, 2 Sam. xv. 7. And it came to paſs after 40 Years; either exactly 40, viz. after David's Flight from Saul's Court to Abimelech at Nob, Tab. 10. or above 40 Years, viz. after Samuel anointed him juſt 45. Or ſome, ſuppoſing an Addition of two Letters made to the Original by Tranſcribers, read it, After 4 Years, viz. that Abſolom had been brought home from Exile; deceiving his Father With a Shew of Religion, Abſolom marchd with 200 Men, pretending to pay his Vows at Hebron, the Place of his Birth; but really to meet Ahitophel and his other Conſpirators, who ſent Spies thro' all Iſrael to give notice, That by the Sound of the Trumpet they would know of ABSOLOM's reigning at Hebron, 2 Sam. xv, xvi, xvii.	23 24	60 61	466 467	426 427	2979 1025 2980 1024
When DAVID heard it, he forthwith left Jeruſalem, with his Guards and Servants, and thoſe that affected him, marching by Mount Olivet and Bahurim, and fording the Jordan arrivd at Mahanaim, in Gilead.
Mean while ABSOLOM enterd Jeruſalem, where, by Ahitophel's Advice, he lay with his Father's ten Concubins (that had been left to keep the Palace) in ſight of all Iſrael, on the Houſe-top, in order to convince the People that he defyd his Father; (tho' God permitted it, in order to fulfil his Threatning by Nathan the Prophet) And he could have overtook and ſlain him, by a Detachment of 12000 Horſe, before he could get over the Jordan, while weary and weak-handed, as Ahitophel wiſely counſelld: But God left him to follow the Advice of Huſhai, (David's ſecret Friend) even to levy all Iſrael and hunt his Father in Perſon. But Ahitophel, thinking himſelf ſlighted by their not following his Advice, left the Court, rode home to his City, put his Houſhold in order, and gravely hangd himſelf; which was all an Anſwer of David's Prayer, Lord, turn the Counſel of Ahitophel into Fooliſhneſs.	25	62	468	428	2981 1023
Mean while DAVID ſet up his Standard at Mahanaim, to which many brave and good People reſorted, and was ſuccourd with Proviſions by his Friend SHOBI King of Ammon, by Machir of Lodebar, and by Barzillai the good Gileadite.
And ABSOLOM enjoyd his Pleaſures for ſome Weeks at Jeruſalem, until a numberleſs Army from all Iſrael was raiſd for him; when he marchd at their Head, with his General Amaſa, to beſiege his Father in Mahanaim.
But DAVID wiſely ſtaid in the City, and ſent his Army out to fight the Enemy in the Field, under the Command of Joab, Abiſhai, and Ittai; yet fooliſhly chargd them to deal gently with the young Man, with Abſolom, which diſcoverd his exorbitant Love for that Parricide, 2 Sam. xviii.

They

Continuation of TABLE XII.

They marchd not far before they met the Foe in the Forest of Ephraim, (not in the Tribe of Ephraim, but that Wood was so calld either from some memorable Acts of the Ephraimites there, or because they had made a Purchase of it for their Cattel) where a bloody Battel ensued, and God gave the Victory to David's little Army, who slew 20000 of the Rebels that Day, and many more of 'em were devourd by the Wood.

At last the grand Rebel ABSOLOM encountering the Servants of David, his fine long Hair caught hold of an Oak, and he was caught up between Heaven and Earth, while his Mule rode away from under him, leaving him hanging by his Hair; which Joab hearing of, went quick and thrust three Darts into Absolom's Heart, while yet alive in the Oak; and Joab's ten Armour-bearers cut him down, and cast him into a great Pit, and coverd him with a great Heap of Stones, aged about 30 Years, the handsomest Man of his Time, without Issue.

Then Joab sounded a Retreat, and returnd to Mahanaim, where he found David mourning for his reprobate Son Absolom, instead of rejoicing: Upon which his Friends had deserted him, if he had not shewn himself by Joab's Direction, and prepard to return with Honour; as he did by the solemn Invitation of the Men of Judah who also met him in Form at Gilgal, (with the Half of Israel, tho' not in Form) who magnificently conducted the King to Jerusalem, where he shut his ten Concubins into perpetual Ward, and where the Men of Israel complaind to the King, that the Men of Judah had stole him home without acquainting them; to which the Jews replied, that the King was their Kinsman, and that they had put him to no charge; but the Israelites said, that they had ten Parts in the King, and so had more Right in him than one Tribe could have; Why then, said they, did you despise us, that our Advice should not be first had in bringing back our King? 2 Sam. xix.

But a Man of Belial, Shebah, the Son of Bichri, a Benjamite, improving the fierce unguarded Words of the Jews, fomented a Rebellion among the Israelites; and so drawing off from Jerusalem, he blew the Trumpet, saying, We have no Part in David, nor Inheritance in the Son of Jesse; every Man to his Tent, O Israel!

DAVID forthwith made Amasa his chief General, according to his Promise at Mahanaim for obtaining the Invitation, and sent him with the other General under him at the Head of the Men of Judah: But Joab treacherously murderd him on the Road, and took the Command of the Army, pursuing Shebah thro' all the Tribes, and at length besiegd him in Abel-Beth-Maacah in the North Country: But after the Wall was batterd, a wise Woman savd the City, by advising the Inhabitants to cut off Shebah's Head and throw it out to Joab: Which being done, Joab returnd in Triumph, and all the Land had Rest, 2 Sam. xx.

The Harvest of this Year being deficient, a Famin began that continud three Years successively, tho' not as a Chastisement of David; for when he enquird of JEHOVAH, it was found, that God had sent it for SAUL and his bloody House; because in wicked Zeal for Israel he slew many of the Gibeonites, contrary to solemn Covenant in Joshua's Time, 2 Sam. xxi. 1, 2, &c.

DAVID offerd an Attonement to the Gibeonites, but nothing would satisfy them, till seven of Saul's Offspring were deliverd to 'em, and by them hangd before Jehovah in Gibeah the City of Saul; which was done in the beginning of Barley Harvest in the last Year of Famin, viz. Armoni and Mephibosheth the two Sons of Rizpah SAUL's Concubin, and the five Sons of Michal's Sister Merab, which she bore to Adriel the Meholathite: But David spard MEPHIBOSHETH the Son of Jonathan for his Father's sake; nay, in Reverence to Saul and to Rizpah his Concubin, DAVID took his Bones, and the Bones of Jonathan, and the Bones of the seven hangd at Gibeah, and buried them altogether decently in the Sepulchre of Kish at Zelah: After which God was intreated for the Land.

During those Years of Famin, and perhaps the Year after too, the Philistins having renewd the War, DAVID went, and in fighting against them waxd faint, and would have been slain by the Giant Ishbibenob, if not rescued by Abishai, who slew that Giant. This was the last Battel that David fought in Person; for his Men swore they would not permit him to take the Field any more, 2 Sam. xxi. 17. But after this his Warriours fought the Philistins three times, and killd three other Giants, and finishd the War.

Next Year being Sabbatical, DAVID became very ambitious, and against all Advice to the contrary, he orderd Joab and other Officers to number all the Men of Israel and Judah above the Age of 20, which was done in 9 Months and 20 Days, 2 Sam. xxiv. 9. those of Israel amounting to 800000 valiant Men, and those of Judah 50000, besides the Levites and the Benjamites, 1 Chron. xxi. 6. where the Number of the People is a Thousand Thousand of Israel, and 100000 Men that drew Sword, and of Judah 470000 that drew Sword: For there might be two Lists, of which this last was made by the Officers under Joab, and the first by Joab himself; because 2 Chron. xxvii. 23, 24. it is said, their Number was not under 20 Years old, and Joab began to number, but finishd not; because before he finishd there fell Wrath against Israel, neither was the Number he took put into the Account of the Chronicles of King David: And [illegible] Author of the first Book of Chronicles might have his Sums from the Records of the Tribes, whereby the Sums differ from those in 2 Sam. xxiv. 9.

But tho' David's Heart smote him, and he humbled himself before Jehovah, confessd his Iniquity, and begd Pardon; yet God shewd his just Anger, by sending the Prophet Gad with an Offer of three Sorts of Punishments, either 1. Famin for 7 Years, that is, 3 Years past, and this 4th or Sabbatical Year, (in which there was no Harvest according to the Law) and 3 Years to come, 1 Chr. xxi. 12. in all 7 Years; or 2. Three Months Flight before his Enemies; or 3. Three Days Pestilence throughout all Israel. But DAVID in this great Streight wisely chose to fall into the Hands of God, because of his Mercy, and prayd not to fall into the Hands of Men. And so the Pestilence came, which destroyd 70000: But when the destroying ANGEL was about to destroy Jerusalem, God stopt him at David's Prayer, who in Sackcloth saw the ANGEL between Heaven and Earth with a drawn Sword in his Hand, just over the threshing Floor of Araunah or Ornan the Jebusite, which David bought for 600 Shekles of Gold, and by God's Direction built there an Altar unto JEHOVAH, upon which he offerd great Sacrifices when God answerd him by Fire from Heaven upon his Altar of Burnt Offering, whereby DAVID knew that this was the very Place where God's TEMPLE must be built, for which he had prepard vast Materials.

SOLOMON married to Naamah, a Princess of Ammon, had this Year a Son born by her, (when he was going in his 17th Year) whose Name was REHOBOAM; for Rehoboam was aged 41 when Solomon died, and he began to reign, 1 Kings xiv. 21. For tho' David calls Solomon young and tender, (1 Chr. xxix. 1.) and tho' Solomon owns it himself, (1 Kings iii. 7.) yet David owns that he was a wise Man, 1 Kings ii. 9. and fit for Government, even before he got the special Wisdom from God; and so he was of proper Age to be married.

DAVID, now worn out with Labour and Wars, could not keep himself warm a bed; and therefore got ABISHAG, the fair Shunamite Virgin, to nourish him: But the King knew her not, 1 Kings i.

Adonijah his Son, perceiving his Father's Infirmities, prevaild with all his Brethren, except Solomon, and with General Joab and the High Priest Abiathar, to assist him in Usurping the Kingdom, and to proclaim him King of Israel at Enrogel near Jerusalem. Then Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the Son of Jehoiadah attended BATHSHEBAH, who, going before the old King, told him what Adonijah was doing: Upon which DAVID orderd Zadok the Priest, Nathan, Benaiah, with the Guards and the mighty Men, forthwith to proclaim SOLOMON King, and to anoint him at Gihon, a Fountain West of ZION at Jerusalem; which was done with the general Huzzaes of the People that were heard at Enrogel, and disturbd the Feast of Adonijah, who fled to the Tabernacle at Gibeon, and laid hold on the Horns of the Altar, to importune Mercy for the sake of God which was granted by Solomon upon Promise of good Behaviour for the future.

Thus SOLOMON reignd conjunctly with DAVID about 6 Months; and the Years of Solomon's Reign comprehend those 6 Months, or are to be reckond from 6 Months before his Father died.

At last King DAVID, having assembled his Nobles and mighty Men, exhorted them to fear Jehovah, and chargd SOLOMON to build the Temple, of which he gave him a Model, with Directions how to dispose of the Priests and Levites in their Ministrations, made great Presents for the Building, as did also the rest of the Assembly; and having thankd God, they sacrificed next Day 1000 Bullocks, 1000 Rams, 1000 Lambs, with their Libations or Drink Offerings, did feast before Jehovah with great Gladness, anointed SOLOMON King the second time, and Zadok to be High Priest; and so King DAVID, having given his last Exhortations and Instructions to King SOLOMON his Son, slept and died in a good old Age, before the Founding of the TEMPLE—

The CHRONOLOGY and Hiſtory of the Reign of King SOLOMON.

SOLOMON, JEDIDIAH, the peaceable, the Beloved of God, was born to DAVID by Bathſhebah, Tab. 11. 2971

Was married, aged 16, to NAAMAH, a Princeſs of Ammon, the Mother of REHOBOAM, born to Solomon aged 17 2988

Was in Poſſeſſion of the Throne of Iſrael ſix Months before the Death of his Father, and in Conjunction with him till David died; when SOLOMON began to reign alone the ſame Year, viz. ——

ADONIJAH his Brother, whoſe Uſurpation had been pardond, [Tab. 12.] now intreated Bathſhebah to ſollicite her Son King SOLOMON, to grant him Leave to marry Abiſhag, DAVID's Virgin Concubin; but Solomon, deeming that Requeſt to proceed from a Deſign of another Uſurpation, orderd Benaiah forthwith to ſlay him, 1 Kings ii. 13--25.

ABIATHAR the High Prieſt, of the Race of ELI, for having joind in Adonijah's Uſurpation, was not ſlain, becauſe his Father Abimelech had been ſlain by Saul for DAVID's ſake, and he had attended David in ſuffering Times: But SOLOMON ſuſpended him from officiating in the Tabernacle, and ſent him to Anathoth, his paternal City; when ZADOK was appointed to officiate alone, as High Prieſt, 1 Kings ii. 26, 27. Thus the High Prieſthood returnd, from the Family of ITHAMAR, to that of PHINEAS the Son of ELEAZAR, according to the Word of Jehovah, by young Samuel, to old Eli at Shiloh, 1 Sam. iii. 11, &c.

Old JOAB, then fearing the worſt, fled to the Horns of the Altar at Gibeon: But SOLOMON, remembring David's Advice on his Death-Bed, ſent Benaiah to kill him, even at the Altar, for having baſely murderd two better Generals, ABNER and AMASA, [Tab. 12.] and for joining in Adonijah's Uſurpation: And Benaiah was made the General, 1 Kings ii. 28--35.

Shimei, who had ſo bitterly curſd and affronted David in his Diſtreſs, was by SOLOMON confind to Jeruſalem all his Life, and ſworn, on Pain of Death, not to paſs over the Brook Kidron; but 3 Years after he tranſgreſſd, and was juſtly put to Death, 1 Kings ii. 36, &c.

HIRAM, or Huram, King of TYRE, David's old Ally, ſent Envoys to congratulate his happy Acceſſion to his Father's Throne; and Solomon ſent to HIRAM, to inform him of his Intention of building a ſtately Temple for JEHOVAH, deſiring his Aſſiſtance in cutting down the Cedars and Firs of Lebanon; which King Hiram undertook to convey by Sea in Floats, upon Condition that Solomon ſhould ſupply Hiram's Houſhold yearly with 20000 Meaſures of Wheat, and 20 Meaſures of pure Oil: And ſo theſe two KINGS made a League together, 1 Kin. v. 1-12.

And now they join'd in a Parnerſhip of Trade to the Eaſt Indies, from Ezion Geber on the Red Sea, near Eloth in Idumea; which Trade had been begun there by King David, when he conquer'd the Edomites, and planted a Colony of Iſraelites in that Coaſt, about 25 Years before.

Before the Temple was built, People were uſed to worſhip and ſacrifice to Jehovah on the Tops of Hills, or High Places: Therefore SOLOMON went to worſhip this Year at Gibeon, the High Place of greateſt Dignity, where the Tabernacle of Moſes was, and all its Utenſils, (except the Ark of the Covenant, which was in Zion) and where he offerd 1000 Burnt-Offerings.

While he ſtaid there, God appeared to him in a Dream by Night, and ſaid, Aſk what I ſhall give thee: But SOLOMON only aſkd Wiſdom, and a good Capacity of Ruling well his great People; therefore God gave him not only what he aſkd, but likewiſe what he asked not, even Wealth and Honour above all Kings, with a Promiſe of long Life alſo, if he perſeverd in God's righteous Ways, 1 Kings iii. 1--14.

Upon his Return to Jeruſalem, SOLOMON ſtood before the Ark of God, and offerd, by the Prieſts, upon the Altar in Zion, Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings, and made a Feaſt for all his Servants; during which he had an Occaſion of diſcovering his great Wiſdom, by the Deciſion of the Caſe of the two Women, contending about the living and the dead Child; whereby all Iſrael ſubmitted to his Authority, and feared him; for they ſaw the Wiſdom of God in him to do Judgment, 1 Kings iii. 15, &c.

For GOD gave him exceeding much Wiſdom, and Underſtanding alſo like the Sand on the Sea-Shore, or the Knowledge of innumerable Things, ſo that nothing was hid from him: He receivd alſo an inlargd Heart, a Magnanimity or Greatneſs of Soul fit for ſo great a Prince, ſo great a Philoſopher; for his Wiſdom far excelld that of the Wiſe Men of the Eaſt, and all the Wiſdom of Egypt, being the wiſeſt of all mere Men before or ſince, and had no Rival, being wiſer than Ethan, Heman, Chalcol, Darda, and the Sons of Mahol, who were then famous for Wiſdom, 1 Kin. iv. 29, &c.

The next great Evidence of his Wiſdom was, his chuſing ten wiſe Princes under him in the Adminiſtration of Government, and twelve Officers or principal Purveyors of Proviſions for the Royal Family, each in his Month throughout the Year; who are mentiond, 1 Kings iv. 1--19.

Now JUDAH and ISRAEL were multiplied as the Sand of the Sea, and dwelt ſafely, every Man under his Vine or Fig-Tree, from Dan to Beerſhebah, eating and drinking, and making merry all the Days of SOLOMON's happy Reign, who ruld over all the Kingdoms round Iſrael, from Philiſtia on the Weſt to the Euphrates Eaſtward, and Northward unto Damaſcus, and Southward to the River of Egypt and the Red Sea, even all the Lands conquerd by King DAVID, or by him made tributary to the Crown of Iſrael, to the full Extent of the Promiſe made to ABRAM, Gen. xv. 18. And indeed thoſe two were the only Kings to whom that Promiſe was fulfilld, 1 Kin. iv. 24.

Naamah, the Mother of Prince Rehoboam being now dead, SOLOMON married the Daughter of Pharaoh, King of Egypt, and brought her to his Father's Palace in Zion.

Now King HIRAM, who was an excellent Architect, ſent many Carpenters and Stone-Cutters to SOLOMON, but above all his ingenious Name-ſake HIRAM Abif, the moſt accompliſhd Maſter-Maſon upon Earth, to contrive, overſee and conduct the Building, and the making of all the coſtly and curious Utenſils and Appurtenances of the Temple, in Conjunction with thoſe two MASON-KINGS, 2 Chron. ii. 13, 14. and 1 Kin. vii. 13, 14.

Then SOLOMON raiſd a Levy of Iſraelites under Adoniram, to work in the Mountains of Lebanon, with the Sidonians and Tyrians by Turns, even —————— 30000

And Iſhſhabbal, Men of Burden, or Labourers —————— 70000

Theſe Burden-Bearers were of the Remains of the Canaanites, 1 Kin. ix. 20, 21. whereby Solomon obſervd God's Law, Lev. xxv. 24. Thy Bond-Men ſhall be of the Heathen! And fulfilld NOAH's Curſe upon Canaan, Gen. ix. 25. A Servant of Servants ſhalt thou be!

And SOLOMON gatherd Maſons —— 80000

Who are calld Iſh-Chotzeb, Men of Hewing, alſo Ghiblim, Stone-Cutters and Sculpturers, and Bonai, Builders in Stone, belonging to both the Royal ARCHITECTS, 1 Kin. v. 13, &c.

And Harodim, Chief Officers or Maſter-Maſons, under the great HIRAM-Abif, 3300: But in 2 Chron. ii. 18. they are calld Menatzchim, or Overſeers and Surveyors, and in Number —————— 3600

And here ends the IVth PERIOD of the Old Teſtament, viz.

From the Exodus to the Founding of the Temple } Years currant 480

That ſtrong and ſtately Structure was carried on with Joy and Expedition, but without the Noiſe of Workmen's Tools, (all Things being prepard at a Diſtance) under the Conduct of Almighty God, who inſpird King Solomon, King Hiram, and Hiram Abif, in this glorious Erection; (as he had formerly inſpird Moses, Bezaleel, and Aholiab, in erecting the Tabernacle) the Deſcription of which is left to the curious Enquirers into Architecture: Only if we conſider its Dimenſions, from the ſtately Portico and Entry in the Eaſt, to the Sanctum Sanctorum in the Weſt, with all its large and convenient Apartments and Courts, its well wrought and coſtly Materials, and its prodigious Decorations of Gold and precious Stones, its gorgeous Utenſils alſo, and all its curious Appurtenances, all done exactly according to Geometry and the niceſt Architecture, we muſt conclude, it was the moſt magnificent and glorious Building ſince the Creation, the Maſter Piece and Standard of Masonry in all after Ages to all Nations, and that nothing has been erected like it in the whole World, and perhaps never will be again.

As for the Charge, beſides the vaſt Sums, and rich Materials paſt reckoning, that King David and the wealthy Iſraelites in his Time amaſſd for it, his richer Son SOLOMON expended more Wealth upon it, than all Europe at this Day can produce; beſides the Contributions of all the noble and wealthy Iſraelites, and of all the neighbouring Nations, who were either his Tributaries or his Allies; for whom he built in the Temple the large outer Court of the Gentiles, and ſo made it an Houſe of Prayer for all Nations.

While it was a building, God encouragd Solomon, by ſending a Prophet with a kind Meſſage to him, 1 Kin. vi. 11, 12, 13. and at the end of 3 Years, after the Fleet ſaild from Ezion-Geber, it returnd from Ophir, (now calld Ceylon) and brought home for Solomon's Share 120 Talents of Gold, which King Hiram his Partner, and Conductor of the Trade, is ſaid to have deliverd to Solomon, 1 Kin. ix. 14. For we cannot poſt that Sum to any other Account. And the Suppoſition of this firſt Voyage is confirmd from 1 Kin. x. 11, 12. and 2 Chron. ix. 11. where it is expreſly ſaid, that the Ships brought from Ophir great plenty of Almug or Algum Trees, of which the King made Pillars, or Terraces and Stays, for the Houſe of the Lord: But ſome Time was requird to prepare them, and they muſt have been uſed during the Building, or before the Temple was finiſhd.

This firſt Succeſs in Trade animated Solomon to go to Ezion-Geber, and there to order a Fleet of his own to be built, 2 Chron. viii. 17, 18. and was further obligd to King Hiram in the Building, the Rigging, the Victualling, the Loading, and the Manning of the Ships; for the Iſraelites had little foreign Trade till now, but the Tyrians livd by it: Therefore, tho' Solomon's Men were Merchants, Factors and Accountants, the Crew of Sailors and Pilots were Tyrians, until the Youth of Iſrael were in time educated Navigators, 1 Kin. ix. 26, 27.

King Hiram built a Navy too, which ſaild along with Solomon's Navy from Ezion-Geber, about a Year after the Return of the firſt Fleet, or three Years after the Founding of the Temple; which in three Years returnd to Ezion-Geber (for not having the Uſe of the Compaſs, as Mariners now have, they only coaſted it, which made the Voyage ſo long) about the end of the 6th Year after the Founding of the Temple, richly loaded from Ophir and Tarſhiſh with 420 Talents of Gold for Solomon, many precious Stones, and plenty of Algum Trees, of which he made Harps and Pſalteries for the Singers, and adornd the Temple with the precious Stones.

Thus King Solomon, having Wealth, Materials, and Workmen in abundance, built and finiſhd the glorious Temple of JEHOVAH, both Outſide and Inſide, with all its coſtly Utenſils, in the ſhort Time of ſeven Years and ſix Months, viz. in the 8th Eccleſiaſtical Month, Bull, of this Year, 1 Kin. vi. 38. ——— Even 228 Years before the firſt Olympiad; but above the Olympiads we have no Hiſtory of Greece, only fabulous wild Stories.

SOLOMON did not forthwith dedicate the Temple, but delaid it about ten Months, till next Year when the Rubbiſh was cleard, the Walls well dryd, and all Things duely prepard for that great Solemnity. And ſo

When,

They all came to Jeruſalem, and the adjacent Villages, the latter end of the 6th Month; for on the firſt Day of the 7th Month (the 23d of October, being New-Years-Day of the Civil Year) they obſervd the Feaſt of Trumpets.

And on the 6 following Days,

The Prieſts and Levites brought the Tabernacle of Moses in Pieces, and all the Utenſils, from Gibeon to Jeruſalem, and lodgd moſt of them in an Apartment of the Treaſury of the Temple, where they remaind while the Temple ſtood.

But on the 8th Day of Ethanim, the 30th of October, the Feaſt of the Dedication of the Temple began, which laſted 7 Days, except the Interruption of the 10th Day by the Faſt of Attonement.

In the Morning of the ſaid 8th Day, the Prieſts brought the Ark of Jehovah, from its Tent in Zion to the Temple, reſting it at ſeveral ſhort Stations, (as when they brought it from the Houſe of Obed-Edom to Zion, 2 Sam. vi. 13.) where they had occaſional Altars of Turf, on which the Prieſts offerd Sheep and Oxen without Number, that Solomon and the grand Aſſembly brought, with Muſick and great Joy; and at length lodgd it in its proper Place, in the midſt of the Oracle, or Sanctum Sanctorum, under the Wings of two of the large Cherubim there erected, that reached to each other and coverd the Ark above, or the Ark ſtood under their Wings, facing the Door of the Oracle; ſo that when the Door was open, it might be ſeen with its Staves a little drawn out.

The Ark containd nothing but the Two Stone-Tables of the Moral Law that Moſes put in it; only its Lid, calld the Mercy Seat, had upon it the ſame two little Golden Cherubim that Moſes made for it, which were now coverd above by the extended Wings of the large Cherubim, and hence God is ſaid to dwell between the Cherubim; and the Pot of Manna and Aaron's Rod were lodgd with the Ark.

The Ark was made in the 2d Year of Exodus.

Upon his Return to Jeruſalem, SOLOMON ſtood before the Ark of God, and offerd, by the Prieſts, upon the Altar in Zion, Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings, and made a Feaſt for all his Servants; during which he had an Occaſion of diſcovering his great Wiſdom, by the Deciſion of the Caſe of the two Women, contending about the living and the dead Child; whereby all Iſrael ſubmitted to his Authority, and feared him; for they ſaw the Wiſdom of God in him to do Judgment, 1 Kings iii. 15, &c.

For GOD gave him exceeding much Wiſdom, and Underſtanding alſo like the Sand on the Sea-Shore, or the Knowledge of innumerable Things, ſo that nothing was hid from him: He receivd alſo an inlargd Heart, a Magnanimity or Greatneſs of Soul fit for ſo great a Prince, ſo great a Philoſopher; for his Wiſdom far excelld that of the Wiſe Men of the Eaſt, and all the Wiſdom of Egypt, being the wiſeſt of all mere Men before or ſince, and had no Rival, being wiſer than Ethan, Heman, Chalcol, Darda, and the Sons of Mahol, who were then famous for Wiſdom, 1 Kin. iv. 29, &c.

The next great Evidence of his Wiſdom was, his chuſing ten wiſe Princes under him in the Adminiſtration of Government, and twelve Officers or principal Purveyors of Proviſions for the Royal Family, each in his Month throughout the Year; who are mentiond, 1 Kings iv. 1--19.

Now JUDAH and ISRAEL were multiplied as the Sand of the Sea, and dwelt ſafely, every Man under his Vine or Fig-Tree, from Dan to Beer-ſhebah, eating and drinking, and making merry all the Days of SOLOMON's happy Reign, who ruld over all the Kingdoms round Iſrael, from Philiſtia on the Weſt to the Euphrates Eaſtward, and Northward unto Damaſcus, and Southward to the River of Egypt and the Red Sea, even all the Lands conquerd by King DAVID, or by him made tributary to the Crown of Iſrael, to the full Extent of the Promiſe made to ABRAM, Gen. xv. 18. And indeed thoſe two were the only Kings to whom that Promiſe was fulfilld, 1 Kin. iv. 24.

Naamah, the Mother of Prince Rehoboam being now dead, SOLOMON married the Daughter of Pharaoh, King of Egypt, and brought her to his Father's Palace in Zion.

Now King HIRAM, who was an excellent Architect, ſent many Carpenters and Stone-Cutters to SOLOMON, but above all his ingenious Name-ſake HIRAM Abif, the moſt accompliſhd Maſter-Maſon upon Earth, to contrive, overſee and conduct the Building, and the making of all the coſtly and curious Utenſils and Appurtenances of the Temple, in Conjunction with thoſe two MASON-KINGS, 2 Chron. ii. 13, 14. and 1 Kin. vii. 13, 14.

Then SOLOMON raiſd a Levy of Iſraelites under Adoniram, to work in the Mountains of Lebanon, with the Sidonians and Tyrians by Turns, even ———	30000
And Iſh Sabbal, Men of Burden, or Labourers ———	70000
These Burden-Bearers were of the Remains of the Canaanites, 1 Kin. ix. 20, 21. whereby Solomon obſervd God's Law, Lev. xxv. 24. Thy Bond-Men ſhall be of the Heathen! And fulfilld NOAH's Curſe upon Canaan, Gen. ix. 25. A Servant of Servants ſhalt thou be!
And SOLOMON gatherd Maſons ———	80000
Who are calld Iſh-Chotzeb, Men of Hewing, alſo Ghiblim, Stone-Cutters and Sculpturers, and Bonai, Builders in Stone, belonging to both the Royal ARCHITECTS, 1 Kin. v. 13, &c.
And Harodim, Chief Officers or Maſter-Maſons, under the great HIRAM-Abif, 3300: But in 2 Chron. ii. 18. they are calld Menatzchim, or Overſeers and Surveyors, and in Number ———	3600
Being in all	183600

And SOLOMON having purchaſd large and coſtly Stones well hewn in abundance, with all other neceſſary Materials paſt reckoning, He laid the FOUNDATION-STONE of the Temple, in the Place that DAVID, by God's Direction, had appointed, even

And here ends the IVth PERIOD of the Old Teſtament, viz.

From the Exodus to the Founding of the TEMPLE } Years current. 480

That ſtrong and ſtately Structure was carried on with Joy and Expedition, but without the Noiſe of Workmen's Tools, (all Things being prepard at a Diſtance) under the Conduct of Almighty GOD, who inſpird King SOLOMON, King HIRAM, and HIRAM Abif, in this glorious Erection; (as he had formerly inſpird MOSES, Bezaleel, and Aholiab, in erecting the Tabernacle) the Deſcription of which is left to the curious Enquirers into Architecture: Only if we conſider its Dimenſions, from the ſtately Portico and Entry in the Eaſt, to the Sanctum Sanctorum in the Weſt, with all its large and convenient Apartments and Courts, its well wrought and coſtly Materials, and its prodigious Decorations of Gold and precious Stones, its gorgeous Utenſils alſo, and all its curious Appurtenances, all done exactly according to GEOMETRY and the niceſt ARCHITECTURE, we muſt conclude, it was the moſt magnificent and glorious Building ſince the Creation, the Maſter Piece and Standard of MASONRY in all after Ages to all Nations, and that nothing has been erected like it in the whole World, and perhaps never will be again.

As for the Charge, beſides the vaſt Sums, and rich Materials paſt reckoning, that King DAVID and the wealthy Iſraelites in his Time amaſſd for it, his richer Son SOLOMON expended more Wealth upon it, than all Europe at this Day can produce; beſides the Contributions of all the noble and wealthy Iſraelites, and of all the neighbouring Nations, who were either his Tributaries or his Allies; for whom he built in the Temple the large outer Court of the Gentiles, and ſo made it an Houſe of Prayer for all Nations.

While it was a building, God encouragd SOLOMON, by ſending a Prophet with a kind Meſſage to him, 1 Kin. vi. 11, 12, 13. and at the end of 3 Years, after the Fleet ſaild from Ezion-Geber, it returnd from Ophir, (now calld Ceylon) and brought home for SOLOMON's Share 120 Talents of Gold, which King Hiram his Partner, and Conductor of the Trade, is ſaid to have deliverd to SOLOMON, 1 Kin. ix. 14. For we cannot poſt that Sum to any other Account. And the Suppoſition of this firſt Voyage is confirmd from 1 Kin. x. 11, 12. and 2 Chron. ix. 11. where it is expreſly ſaid, that the Ships brought from Ophir great plenty of Almug or Algum Trees, of which the King made Pillars, or Terraces and Stays, for the Houſe of the Lord: But ſome Time was requird to prepare them, and they muſt have been uſed during the Building, or before the Temple was finiſhd.

This firſt Succeſs in Trade animated SOLOMON to go to Ezion-Geber, and there to order a Fleet of his own to be built, 2 Chron. viii. 17, 18. and was further obligd to King Hiram in the Building, the Rigging, the Victualling, the Loading, and the Manning of the Ships; for the Iſraelites had little foreign Trade till now, but the Tyrians livd by it: Therefore, tho' Solomon's Men were Merchants, Factors and Accountants, the Crew of Sailors and Pilots were Tyrians, until the Youth of Iſrael were in time educated Navigators, 1 Kin. ix. 26, 27.

King Hiram built a Navy too, which ſaild along with Solomon's Navy from Ezion-Geber, about a Year after the Return of the firſt Fleet, or three Years after the Founding of the Temple; which in three Years returnd to Ezion-Geber (for not having the Uſe of the Compaſs, as Mariners now have, they only coaſted it, which made the Voyage ſo long) about the end of the 6th Year after the Founding of the Temple, richly loaded from Ophir and Tarſhiſh with 420 Talents of Gold for Solomon, many precious Stones, and plenty of Algum Trees, of which he made Harps and Pſalteries for the Singers, and adornd the Temple with the precious Stones.

Thus King SOLOMON, having Wealth, Materials, and Workmen in abundance, built and finiſhd the glorious TEMPLE of JEHOVAH, both Outſide and Inſide, with all its coſtly Utenſils, in the ſhort Time of ſeven Years and ſix Months, viz. in the 8th Eccleſiaſtical Month, Bull, of this Year, 1 Kin. vi. 38. ———— Even 228 Years before the firſt Olympiad; but above the Olympiads we have no Hiſtory of Greece, only fabulous wild Stories.

SOLOMON did not forthwith dedicate the Temple, but delaid it about ten Months, till next Year when the Rubbiſh was cleard, the Walls well dryd, and all Things duely prepard for that great Solemnity. And ſo

When,

In the Seventh Eccleſiaſtical Month, Ethanim, or the Firſt Civil Month of this Year Solomon———— aſſembld at Jeruſalem the Elders, the Heads of Tribes, and the Chiefs of the Fathers of Iſrael, in order to celebrate, according to the Law, the Feaſt of Trumpets, the annual Day of Attonement, and the Feaſt of Tabernacles, and of the Harveſt; and now hence forward the Feaſt of DEDICATION: Therefore SOLOMON certainly choſe the fitteſt Time; for the Males of Iſrael were obligd by the Law to attend the Altar in the Tabernacle, and the Ark of God in Zion, this Month; and as many Females as pleaſd.

They all came to Jeruſalem, and the adjacent Villages, the latter end of the 6th Month; for on the firſt Day of the 7th Month (the 23d of October, being New-Years-Day of the Civil Year) they obſervd the Feaſt of Trumpets.

And on the 6 following Days,

The Prieſts and Levites brought the Tabernacle of MOSES in Pieces, and all the Utenſils, from Gibeon to Jeruſalem, and lodgd moſt of them in an Apartment of the Treaſury of the Temple, where they remaind while the Temple ſtood.

But on the 8th Day of Ethanim, the 30th of October, the Feaſt of the DEDICATION of the Temple began, which laſted 7 Days, except the Interruption of the 10th Day by the Faſt of Attonement.

In the Morning of the ſaid 8th Day, the Prieſts brought the Ark of JEHOVAH, from its Tent in ZION to the TEMPLE, reſting it at ſeveral ſhort Stations, (as when they brought it from the Houſe of Obed-Edom to Zion, 2 Sam. vi. 13.) where they had occaſional Altars of Turf, on which the Prieſts offerd Sheep and Oxen without Number, that SOLOMON and the grand Aſſembly brought, with Muſick and great Joy; and at length lodgd it in its proper Place, in the midſt of the ORACLE, or Sanctum Sanctorum, under the Wings of two of the large Cherubim there erected, that reached to each other and coverd the ARK above, or the Ark ſtood under their Wings, facing the Door of the ORACLE; ſo that when the Door was open, it might be ſeen with its Staves a little drawn out.

The ARK containd nothing but the Two STONE-TABLES of the Moral Law that Moſes put in it; only its Lid, calld the MERCY SEAT, had upon it the ſame two little Golden Cherubim that Moſes made for it, which were now coverd above by the extended Wings of the large Cherubim, and hence God is ſaid to dwell between the Cherubim; and the Pot of MANNA and Aaron's ROD were lodgd with the Ark.

The ARK was made in the 2d Year of Exodus.

After which God inſtituted no ſuch a Symbol of his gracious Preſence in the Church.

When the Prieſts came out of the Moſt Holy Place, they and the Levites of the Houſes of Aſaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, with their Sons and Brethren that were Singers, all arrayd in white Linnen, with Cymbals, Pſalteries and Harps, and 120 Prieſts ſounding with Trumpets, all ſtood at the Eaſt ſide of the Altar of Incenſe with their Faces to the Door of the Oracle, (the ſaid Altar being between them and that Door) and while the Singers and Minſtrels were in the higheſt Harmony, praiſing Jehovah with the old Chorus, viz. For he is good, for his Mercy endureth for ever! God took Poſſeſſion of his Houſe, by filling the Oracle or Moſt Holy Place, and alſo the Holy Place, with a glorious Cloud, ſo that the Prieſts could not ſtand to miniſter at the Altar of Incenſe, 1 Kin. viii. 1--11. 2 Chron. v.

Solomon ſtood on a Brazen Scaffold 5 Cubits long, 5 Cubits broad, and 3 Cubits high, erected in the middle of the Court, between the Altar of Incenſe Weſt of him, and the Altar of Burnt Offering Eaſt of him, where he could ſee and be ſeen by the Princes and People of Iſrael, that ſtood in the Courts of the Temple North, Eaſt and South of him: And upon that viſible Sign of God's Preſence, the Cloud of Glory, Solomon made a pithy Speech to the People, to whom he turnd his Face, and bleſſd all the Congregation round him; and then, kneeling down with his Hands ſpread forth towards Heaven, he raiſd his Voice, and by divine Inſpiration utterd a moſt pious and well adapted Prayer to Jehovah, the God of Iſrael, the God of the Temple; whereby he dedicated the Temple to God, and ſanctifyd or ſeparated it for ſpecial divine Service, and prayd for all needful Bleſſings to the People of Iſrael, or to the Strangers that ſhould ever pray to God in this Temple, or towards it, moſt elegantly concluding, Now therefore ariſe, Oh JEHOVAH ELOHIM, into thy Reſting Place, Thou and the Ark of thy Strength! Let thy Priests be cloathed with Salvation, and let thy Saints rejoice in Goodneſs, 2 Chron. vi. 41. And, riſing from his Knees, he gave a ſhort Exhortation to the People, to keep their Hearts perfect with Jehovah their God, to walk in his Ways, and to keep his Commandments as at this Day, 1 Kin. viii. 61.

When Solomon had made an end of Praying and Speaking, the Prieſts having before dreſſd the Burnt Offerings, and laid them upon the new, great Brazen Altar, (but without putting under them any of the ſacred Fire, that was preſervd on the little Brazen Altar of Moſes, that Solomon had placd in the Court before the inner House) then the Fire came down from Heaven, (either thro' the Openings of the Temple, made for letting out the Smoak of the Sacrifices, or from the Oracle, the Sanctum Sanctorum, as at the Dedication of the Altar of Moſes, Lev. ix. 24.) and conſumed the Offerings, while the Glory of Jehovah filld the Houſe in the Vehicle of a Cloud; ſo that the Prieſts could not enter farther than the great Altar; and Solomon came from his Scaffold to attend the Sacrifices. Upon which double Evidence of God's Preſence, viz. the Holy Fire and Cloud of Glory, the People fell proſtrate on the Pavement, worſhipping and praiſing JEHOVAH, For that he is good, and his Mercy endureth for ever, 2 Chron. vii. 1, 2, 3.

Then the King and all the People fed that holy Fire with coſtly Sacrifices, by the Prieſts that waited on their Offices; while the Singers and Minſtrels performd the moſt charming Harmony, that perhaps was ever done by Men upon Earth: And becauſe the great Altar was not capacious to receive all the Burnt Offerings and the Meat Offerings, and the Fat, Solomon was obligd to hallow the middle of the Court before the inner House, near the great Brazen Altar, (or to ſeparate it for that ſpecial Service at that Time) where the Prieſts offerd upon the little Brazen Altar of Moſes, and, if need was, upon the Pavement too, or elſe upon occaſional Altars of Turf, upon which they laid ſome of the Holy Fire: For beſides the Sacrifices of the wealthy and willing People, Solomon offerd 22000 Oxen and 120000 Sheep, which might be conſumd in the Days of the Feaſt of Dedication.

When Solomon went to bed, Jehovah appeard to him at Night the ſecond time, (as before at Gibeon) aſſuring him, that he had heard his Prayer, had choſen and hallowd this Temple, as an Houſe of Sacrifice and Worſhip to himſelf; promiſing to fulfil all the particular Petitions of that Prayer, and to have his Eyes and Heart there perpetually. God alſo then renewd his Covenant made with David, promiſing to eſtabliſh the Throne of Solomon, and that of his Offspring over Iſrael for ever, upon the Condition of Solomon's perſevering in the Religion of David; and threatning, that upon the Diſobedience and Idolatry of Solomon's Royal Offspring, Jehovah would extirpate Iſrael, demoliſh this Temple, and make them and it a Proverb among all Nations, and an Aſtoniſhment among all Travellers, who will readily conceive the procuring Cauſe, even Wickedneſs and Idolatry, 2 Chron. vii. 12, &c.

Thus the King and People dedicated the House and Altar of God, and kept the Feaſt 7 Days, except one Day's Interruption: For the 3d of thoſe Days, viz. The 10th Day of Ethanim, or 1ſt of November, was obſervd as a Faſt Day, it being the Day of Annual Attonement, when, by the Law of Moſes, they were to afflict their Souls, and abſtain from all Work, as on a Sabbath Day; and when ZADOK the High Prieſt carried the Blood of Attonement the firſt time into the Oracle before the Ark and Mercy Seat; which was a Statute never to be ſuſpended or diſpenſed with, Liv. xxiii. 27, &c.

And yet that Interruption rather added to the Solemnity of the Dedication, and the Feaſt became the more memorable; becauſe on this Day the Year of Jubilee was proclaimd by Sound of Trumpets, which was the 9th Jubilee Year from the firſt Year of Reſt that JOSHUAH gave to Iſræel, in the 7th Year after he paſſd over the Jordan,

As for the Cloud of Glory or Schekinah, that filld the Inner Houſe, after the firſt Day, it was contracted within the Oracle, and abode upon the Mercy-Seat only.

And when the Multitude of thoſe Sacrifices were offerd, the Prieſts would, no doubt, take the Holy Fire from the Altar of Moſes, and the other Places, and lodge it with the Reſt of the Holy Fire on the great Altar, where it was daily fed and preſervd till that Temple was deſtroyd; after which the Jews had no more Schekinah, nor Holy Fire, nor Ark, nor Urim and Thummim on their High Prieſt's Breaſt, nor any of the Holy Relicks of MOSES.

The 11th, 12th, 13th, and 14th Days of Ethanim, or the 2d, 3d, 4th, and 5th Days of November, were the other Four Days of the Feaſt of Dedication, when the reſt of the Sacrifices were offerd, and all Iſrael feaſted at Jeruſalem, from Hamath to the River of Egypt; a great Congregation, beſides Proſelytes and Strangers alſo in abundance, that from all foreign Parts would readily attend the Solemnity, and no doubt would worſhip and praiſe Jehovah in the Court of the Gentiles, which was their Priviledge, as they ownd Jehovah to be the Supreme God.

On the 15th of Ethanim, or 6th of November, the Feaſt of Tabernacles began, with another ſolemn Aſſembly (as on the 8th Day) according to the Law of Moſes; which Feaſt laſted ſeven Days, Lev. xxiii. 34, &c. 2 Chron. vii. 9. during which they offerd great Sacrifices: But

The 8th Day, the 22d of Ethanim, or 13th of November, was obſervd as a Sabbath by the ſolemn Aſſembly, an Holy Convocation, as preſcribd Lev. xxiii. 36. In the Evening of which, or in the beginning of the 23d Day of Ethanim, (reckoning the Day from Evening) or 14th of November, even after the Sabbath was over, SOLOMON diſmiſſd the People, who, on the ſaid Day, bleſſd the King, and went home to their reſpective Cities and Countries, full of Joy and Gladneſs, for all the Goodneſs that Jehovah had done for David his Servant, and for Iſrael his People, 1 Kin. viii. 65, 66. 1 Chron. vii. 8, &c.

This is the great Improvement of the Moſaical Diſpenſation, begun by David, and now perfected by Solomon, who, by the Miniſtration of the Prieſts, offerd Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings upon Jehovah's Great Altar, and burnt Incenſe upon his Altar of Incenſe, in a ſolemn Manner three Times in the Year, viz. at the three High Feſtivals, of the Paſſover, of the Pentecoſt, and of the Tabernacles; beſides what he offerd at other Times ſtatedly and occaſionally, before he forſook Jehovah, and alſo after he repented, 1 Kin. ix. 25. compard with 2 Chron. viii. 12, 13. And the Prieſts and Levites attended their ſeveral Offices, according to the Law of Moſes, and the Appointment of King DAVID a little before his Death, 2 Chron. vii. 6. compard with 1 Chron. xv. 4--24.

Mean while SOLOMON, about ſix Months before the Temple was finiſhd, or at the end of ſeven Years after it was founded, began to build in Jeruſalem,

1. His Two Royal Palaces for himſelf and his Queen, with convenient Courts, fine Portico's, and lofty Columns of the moſt curious Orders; and in the Portico of Judgment he erected his Throne, made of the beſt Ivory, all inlaid and flowerd with Gold, with a round Canopy: The Seat or Chair of State had well wrought Stays or Arms, and a Golden Footſtool, adjoining to which were two Golden Lyons, and between them the King ſat; unto which Chair he aſcended by ſix Steps, adornd (inſtead of Rails) with ſix Golden Lyons on one ſide of the Steps, and ſix Golden Lyons on the other ſide.

2. He built Millo or the Royal Exchange, (a Place where the People met to conſult about the Publick, or to tranſact Buſineſs) by filling up a great Gulph between Mount Zion and Mount Moriah, with curious Arches, upon which Piazza's were erected, with ſtately Columns on both ſides; and between them run the Highway from Zion to the Temple.

3. He rebuilt the Wall of Jeruſalem, more ſtrong and commodious than David's Wall; for he had more Wealth and Skill in Maſonry.

4. He built many Store-Houſes throughout Iſrael Weſt of the Jordan, 1 Kin. ix. 19. or Magazines, where he lodgd all ſorts of Stores, eſpecially Proviſions for his Family, his Retinue, and his Horſes; in order to prevent a Scarcity and Dearth, and to have all Things in due Seaſon, brought by his 12 chief Officers, his Purveyors, each in his Month; whereby Solomon kept a plentiful Table, ſpending every Day 30 Meaſures of fine Flower, 60 Meaſures of Meal, 30 Oxen, 100 Sheep, beſides Harts, Roe-Bucks, Fallow-Deer, and fatted Fowl; Barley alſo, and Straw for the Beaſts, 1 Kin. iv.

5. He built the Houſe of the Foreſt of Lebanon, moſtly of Cedars, 100 Cubits long, 50 Cubits broad, and 30 Cubits high, upon 4 Rows of Cedar-Pillars; the ſtately Tower of which lookd towards the Road that leads to Damaſcus, Cant. vii. 4. This was Solomon's Summer-Houſe, whither he retird from the Heat of Buſineſs, to be agreeably amuſd in that famous Foreſt; and this Palace on the North ſide of his Kingdom was well fortifyd, and made an Arſenal; for there he lodgd his 200 Targets of beaten Gold, each weighing 600 Shekles, and his 300 Shields of beaten Gold, each weighing 300 Shekles.

6. He built ſeveral Cities for his 1400 Chariots, his Charioteers, Horſes, and Horſemen; ſeveral of which lay between Jeruſalem and Lebanon, at convenient Stages for expeditious Travelling, and in other Stages to other Borders of Iſrael round about: For he had 40000 ſtrong Horſes, for Carriage and hard Labour, in 4000 Stables, or 10 Horſes in each Stable; beſides Dromedaries, Aſſes, Camels, &c. and 12000 fine Horſes from Egypt for his Favourites, Attendants and Guards, 1 Kin. iv. 26. compard with 1 Kin. x. 26, &c. and 2 Chron. ix. 25.

7. He built Gezer in the Tribe of Ephraim, a City of the Canaanites not conquerd, till Pharaoh King of Egypt got Leave from Solomon to ſend an Army to take it in; which he did, and made a Preſent of it to his Daughter Solomon's Queen, 1 Kin. ix. 16. and Solomon rebuilt and fortifyd it.

8. He built Hazor in Naphtali, a ſtrong City.

9. And Megiddo, a City of Manaſſeh bordering on Iſſachar, now taken from the Canaanites, that had not been expelld before, he rebuilt and fortifyd it.

10. Bethhoron the Upper } Both on the Borders
11. Bethhoron the Nether } between Ephraim and Benjamin, he made fenced Cities, with Walls, Gates and Bars.

12. Alſo Baalath in the Tribe of Dan, near Philiſtia, he made a regular and fortifyd City.

King SOLOMON made one warlike Expedition, 2 Chron. viii. 3, 4. even to Hamath-Zobah, (a Country Eaſt of Gilead, and South of Syria, near the Euphrates, which David had not conquerd; for its King was David's Ally againſt Hadad-Ezer, ſee Tab. 12.) and he prevaild againſt it, moſt likely by the ready Submiſſion of the Prince and People, who were now made Tributaries, and ſo could not hinder Solomon from Building.

13. Tadmor, calld by the Greeks Palmyra, a City and famous Place in the Deſert, the Entry of Hamath-Zobah; the Remains of which are ſeen by Travellers to this Day.

14. He built alſo ſeveral Store-Cities well fortifyd on thoſe Confines, for the good of Iſrael Eaſt of the Jordan.

For the Overſeeing of theſe many and diſtant Erections, Solomon imployd, beſides the Maſter-Maſons, 550 chief Officers over the People and Workmen, 1 Kin. ix. 23. who are ſaid to be only 250 in 2 Chron. viii. 10. becauſe the ſaid 250 might be ſaid to be Overſeers Eaſt of the Jordan, while the other 300 officiated Weſt of the Jordan, and in the Foreſt of Lebanon.

But all theſe Erections were not ſo ſoon made as the Temple; for, 1 Kin. vii. 12. Solomon ſpent 13 Years in building them; nor is that a long Time, conſidering their Nicety and Number: For when the Temple was finiſhd, Solomon diſperſd thoſe 183600 Men imployd about it, into thoſe other Parts of his Kingdom, for carrying on thoſe other Buildings; and all of 'em might be finiſhd at the end of the ſaid 13 Years, he not wanting Skill, nor Money, nor Materials, nor good Hands, to carry on the grand Deſign of Architecture throughout all his Dominions at pleaſure.

Yet his Maſonry made not Solomon neglect his Navigation; for mean while, after three Years, his Fleet returnd from the Eaſt Indies richly loaded, with 450 Talents of Gold, and many many precious Stones, and more Algum Trees, of which he made much uſe in building his Palaces; for it ſeems to have been much finer than Cedar, 2 Chron. viii. 17, 18. This was the third Return of Trade, which now ſeems to have been regulated and eſtabliſhd by Solomon, whoſe Fleet returnd from ſeveral Parts of India, every third Year henceforward, and brought home 666 Talents of Gold, 2 Chron. ix. 13. beſides precious Stones, vaſt Quantities of Silver and Ivory, with Apes and Peacocks, and many other things that were curious and rare in the Land of Iſrael, 1 Kings x. 22. which Trade continued in the Hands of the Kings of Judah till the Days of King Achaz.

Thus King Solomon excelld all the contemporary Kings of the Earth in Wealth and Power, as well as in Wiſdom and Learning; for beſides what he receivd from the Iſraelites, and from his tributary Countries, and his immenſe Wealth got by Navigation, he earnd great Riches by an Inland Trade from Chapmen and Merchants, who dealt in his Goods, and ſent them into Egypt, and throughout all Arabia, alſo to the Nations Eaſt of the Euphrates, and thro' Syria into the Northern Nations; whereby the Land of Iſrael, with Tyre and Sidon in the Neighbourhood, became the Center of Trade.

When SOLOMON had built his Palaces, he rewarded HIRAM King of Tyre, by giving him 20 Cities in the Land of Galilee; but when Hiram went with Solomon to view them, he did not like them, and calld it the Land of Cabul, or the dirty, diſpleaſing Land: Wherefore Solomon no doubt gave him an Equivalent, moſt likely in the Way of Trade and Navigation, which was more agreeable to the Tyrians, and having expelld the Canaanites, who dwelt there before this Time, Solomon rebuilt thoſe 20 Cities of Galilee, and planted Colonies of the Iſraelites in that Land.

But when his Palaces were built, and he had brought his Queen to her new Palace, and he was exalted in his full Meridian Glory, All the Kings of the Earth ſought the Preſence of Solomon, to hear his Wiſdom that God had put in his Heart; and they brought every Man his Preſent, Veſſels of Silver and of Gold, with Raiment, Harneſs and Spices, Horſes and Mules, a Rate Year by Year; as if they had been his Tributaries, 2 Chron. ix. 23, 24.

But eſpecially the Queen of SHEBAH in South Arabia, near the Indian Sea, hearing, by Merchants, Travellers, or Navigators, of SOLOMON's Glory and moſt excellent Wiſdom, and of his Fame concerning the Name of JEHOVAH, came to Jeruſalem with a large Retinue, with Camels that bore the fineſt Spices, and very much Gold, and precious Stones.

She was a Woman eminent for Wiſdom, and came to prove SOLOMON with hard Queſtions, and commund with him of all that was in her Heart. But ſhe was not able to puzzle him; for he anſwerd all her Queſtions, until ſhe could ask no more, to her intire Satisfaction and Amazement.

But when ſhe had ſufficiently provd his Wiſdom and vaſt Knowledge, had conſiderd his 3000 Proverbs, and 1005 Songs, his Philoſophical Writings alſo of Beaſts, Fowls, Reptiles and Fiſhes, and of Trees and Plants, from the great Cedars of Lebanon to the Hyſſop on the Wall: When ſhe had ſurveyd his glorious Aſcent to the Temple, and the Inſide of it, as far as was lawful for a Stranger, and had been gorgeouſly entertaind in his ſeveral Palaces; had beheld the Œconomy of his Houſhold, the Meat of his Table, the Order and Attendance of his Servants and Miniſters of State, his Cup-Bearers and their fine Apparel, his many ſtately Edifices and ſtrong Cities, and all his Works, and all his Glory, there was no more Spirit in her: And ſhe ſaid to the King, It was a true Report that I heard of thee in my own Land, of thy Acts and of thy Wiſdom! Howbeit, I believed not the Words, until I came and mine Eyes had ſeen; and behold the Half was not told me! for thy Wiſdom and Proſperity exceedeth the Fame which I heard: Happy are thy Men, happy are theſe thy Servants, who ſtand continually before thee and hear thy Wiſdom! Bleſſed be JEHOVAH thy God, who delighteth in thee to ſet thee on the Throne of Iſrael! becauſe JEHOVAH loved Iſrael for ever, therefore made he thee King to do Judgment and Juſtice. By which, it ſeems, ſhe was a Proſelyte of the Gate at leaſt.

The Queen made a Preſent to SOLOMON of 120 Talents of Gold, and greater Store of fine Spices, than ever was before or ſince in Jeruſalem, beſide precious Stones: And when he had made her a Preſent according to his Royal Bounty, and had given her all her Deſire whatſoever ſhe askd, ſhe returnd with her Retinue to Shebah.

But SOLOMON lovd many ſtrange Women beſides his Queen, even the Women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians and Hittites, and he clave unto theſe in Love, contrary to the Law, Exod. xxxiv. 16. of which he had 700 Wives, and 300 Concubines; and his Wives turnd away his Heart from God, and from the true Religion, which he had ſolemnly ownd; for they became his chief Counſellors, and influencd him to neglect his Duty every where, eſpecially in the Temple which he had built for JEHOVAH, the God of Iſrael; nay, even at laſt to forſake that Holy Temple, and to build a Temple and an Altar for Chemoſh, the abominable Idol of Moab; and another for Molech, the horrid God of Ammon; and another for Aſhtoreth, the laſcivious Goddeſs of the Zidonians, on the Hills adjoining to Jeruſalem; and in other Places he erected Temples and Altars for all the ſtrange Gods of his ſtrange Women, at their Deſire and Pleaſure: Nor did he ſtop there, but was ſo wickedly complaiſant, as to attend his Wives to thoſe Temples, and to burn Incenſe and offer Sacrifices to their ſtrange Gods in his old Age.

SOLOMON's Effiminacy might begin in the Year after the Queen of Shebah left him, viz. —— —— And in 6 Years his Women might have the total Aſcendent over him, ſo as to command and oblige him to do what they pleaſd, viz. —— And now JEHOVAH was juſtly angry at Solomon; becauſe his Heart was not conſtant and perfect with God, as the Heart of DAVID his Father, (who for all his Faults never departed from the true Religion) and becauſe his Heart was turnd from Jehovah the God of Iſrael, who had appeard unto him twice, and had bleſſd him above all Mankind with Wiſdom, Glory and Wealth, and had expreſly warnd and chargd him againſt Idolatry: Wherefore God ſent a Prophet to ſay to Solomon, For as much as this is done of thee, and thou haſt not kept my Covenants and Statutes, I will ſurely rend the Kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy Servant; tho' not in thy Days, for DAVID thy Father's ſake; but I will rend it out of the Hand of thy Son: Howbeit, I will not rend away all the Kingdom, but will give one Tribe to thy Son for David's ſake, and for Jeruſalem's ſake which I have choſen. But this did not reclaim him.

JEHOVAH, being thus juſtly provokd, raiſd up an Adverſary againſt SOLOMON, Hadad a Prince of Edom, who fled a Youth into Egypt when David conquerd Edom, and Joab deſtroyd the Males of the Edomites. Pharaoh handſomly provided for him, and gave him his own Queen's Siſter for a Wife, who bore to him Genubah his Son, that was educated among Pharaoh's Sons. And when Hadad heard that David and Joab were dead, he returnd to his own Country, and gatherd ſome Remains of the Edomites, became their Captain, and, they revolting from Solomon, in time revivd and multiplyd, and made Hadad their King, who did great Miſchief to Iſrael in the latter Days of Solomon; tho' their Kingdom was but ſmall, and they were again made tributary by SOLOMON's Succeſſors.

God alſo raiſd up Rezon the Son of Eliadah, who fled from his Lord Hadad-Ezer, [Tab. 13.] and gatherd a Band of Men, became their Captain, and ſettling at Damaſcus, erected there a new Kingdom, who became an Adverſary to Iſrael all the latter Days of Solomon, and reignd without controul over Syria. Thus by the Syrians before, and the Edomites behind, and the ſtrange Women, SOLOMON's Glory was much impaird.

And Solomon not yet repenting, God ſent the Prophet AHIJAH the Shilonite to JEROBOAM an Ephraimite, the Son of Nebat, whoſe Mother was Zervah a Widow-Woman, (whereby ſome think he was a Baſtard) who being very induſtrious and valiant, the King advancd the young Man to be Ruler over all the Charge of the Houſe of Joſeph: And the Prophet, meeting Jeroboam new cloathd alone in a Field, tore the new Garment in 12 Pieces, and ſaid to Jeroboam, Take thee ten Pieces, for thus ſaith Jehovah the God of Iſrael, behold I will rend the Kingdom from Solomon, and give thee ten Tribes, &c. Promiſing, that if Jeroboam ſhould keep God's Statutes, God would make him a ſure Houſe; and that God would afflict the Seed of David, but not for ever!

But when Solomon heard of this Prophecy, and that Jeroboam deſignd to accompliſh it, he ſought to ſlay him; which forcd Jeroboam to fly to Egypt unto King Shiſhak, where he remaind until the Death of Solomon: Now, according to the Egyptian Chronology, this ſame Shiſhak, calld alſo Seſonchis, aſcended the Throne of Egypt this very Year; and we may juſtly ſuppoſe, that Jeroboam then run his Country about three Years before Solomon's Death.

At length after Solomon had left God, and had joind himſelf to ſtrange Women about 14 Years, and had worſhipd ſtrange Gods about 7 Years, he came to himſelf, and repented of his miſchievous Madneſs, the ſame Year that Jeroboam fled to Egypt.

That he repented appears, from ſome Chapters of his Book of Proverbs, and from his Book of Eccleſiaſtes, which is a laſting Monument of his Repentance: For, after a full Survey, he there pronounceth All things to be Vanity and Vexation of Spirit! except the Fear of God, and the Keeping of his Commandments, which he declares to be the Whole Duty of Man, and his chief Intereſt. Beſides, it is ſaid, 2 Chron. xi. 17. That Rehoboam's People walked 3 Years in the Ways of David and Solomon; where the Way of Solomon is made parallel to that of David, as a Pattern of Goodneſs; whence we may well conclude, that Solomon was no more finally abandond of God than David, but was alſo renewd by Repentance. Only God has not orderd the ſacred Writers ſo expreſly to mention his Reformation, nor how long before his Death, as a Puniſhment on his Memory, for having ſo wretchedly departed from God, and the true Religion: Juſt as Father Adam's Repentance is not expreſly recorded, tho' plainly concluded from the brief Hints of Moſes.

And ſo Solomon having abandond ſtrange Women and ſtrange Gods, about 3 Years before his Death, like a true Penitent, returnd to the true inſtituted Worſhip of the true God, to frequent his Temple in due manner, as before his Defection; and, as the great Preacher of his Time, to exhort all People to fear God, and keep his Commandments, (which is the Whole Duty of Man) and to avoid the Snares of wicked Women, from his own woful Experience.

But it don't appear that Solomon ever did recover his former Glory, or made any great Reformation in his Kingdom, that had been generally corrupted by his bad Example and malign Influence; for God did not honour him ſo far, tho' his Sins were pardond by the Merits of the promiſd MESSIAH, of whom Solomon was an eminent Type.

And ſo, after living in the Fear of God during the Remains of his Life and Reign, he ſlept with his Fathers, and was honourably buried with David in the Royal Sepulchre of Zion Caſtle. And tho' he had many Wives and Concubines, he left no Son upon Record but Rehoboam, his eldeſt, born to him by Naamah a noble Ammoniteſs. Thus

We cannot ſafely recount from Heathen Authors the Princes that were contemporary with SOLOMON, nor the Tranſactions of other Nations in his Time; for we have no Heathen Hiſtorian ſo ancient by ſome Hundred Years: And the Accounts that the Gentiles have tranſmitted, before the three famous Chronological Era's, (viz. That of the Olympiads, That of Rome built, and That of Nabonazar) are either fabulous or uncertain; for without Chronology all Hiſtory is uncertain:

But Solomon died before the { Firſt Olympiad . . . . 199 } Years.
{ Founding of Rome . . . . . 227 }
{ Aſtronomical Era of Nabonazar 228 }

But from theſe and the following Tables we may conclude, that the moſt illuſtrious Time of the XII Tribes of Iſrael was from the Death of King Iſhboſheth to the Death of King Solomon during 73 Years; but eſpecially while Solomon reignd in all his orient and meridian Glory, before his Apoſtacy about 24 Years: For afterwards the Glory of both the Kingdoms, of Iſrael and Judah together, came far ſhort of the Glory of Solomon's Reign.

TABLE XIV.

The CHRONOLOGY of the KINGS of Iſrael and Judah, from the Partition at SOLOMON's Death to the Death of King ASA.

Upon SOLOMON's Death his Son REHOBOAM, aged 41, went to Shechem, where all Iſrael (with JEROBOAM at their Head, now returnd from Exile, ſee Tab. 13.) appointed to meet him, and to crown him upon certain Conditions or Conceſſions; for they ſaid, Thy Father made our Yoke grievous, but make thou it lighter, and we will ſerve thee! Rehoboam, delaying his Anſwer for three Days, adviſd firſt with the old Men that had been Solomon's privy Counſellors, who ſaid, If thou wilt be a Servant to this People at this Juncture, and ſpeak good Words to them, then they will be thy Servants for ever! But he neglected this good Counſel, and following the Advice of the young Men, his Contemporaries and flattering Favourites, he anſwerd the People roughly on the third Day, ſaying, My little Finger ſhall be thicker than my Father's Loins! My Father made your Yoke heavy, and I will add to it! My Father chaſtiſd you with Whips, but I will chaſtiſe you with Scorpions! Upon which moſt impolitic Anſwer, the People replyd aloud with one Voice, What Portion have we in David, or Inheritance in the Son of Jeſſe! To your Tents, Oh Iſrael! Now ſee to thine Houſe, David. So Iſrael departed firmly reſolvd to revolt from Rehoboam, in order to have their Rights and Privileges, their Properties and ancient Freedom, reſtord and ſecurd.

Rehoboam ſent Adoram his chief Treaſurer to reclaim them; but, to ſhew their Firmneſs, they ſtoned the Treaſurer to death: And ſo Rehoboam, not liking his preſent Situation, and juſtly fearing their fierce Reſentments, made ſpeed to mount his Chariot, and fled faſt home to Jeruſalem.

Then the Elders of Ten Tribes aſſembled a great Congregation at Shechem, to which they invited JEROBOAM, and there they crownd him King, by the general Voice of the People, according to God's Prediction by the Prophet Abijah, Tab. 13. And ſo the Partition of the Tribes was made, from which commence the 390 Years of Ezekiel, Chap. iv.

The Kingdom of JUDAH.

Conſiſted of the Tribes of Judah and Benjamin, who adherd to REHOBOAM, and of the little Tribes of Simeon and Dan, who were under the Protection of Judah.

KINGS of JUDAH.

I. King REHOBOAM, when returnd to Jeruſalem, raiſd an Army of 180000 Men, to reduce the Ten Tribes by War; but God interpoſd by Shemaiah the Prophet, ſignifying, that he had made a Partition of the Tribes, and forbidding the Jews to levy War againſt their Brethren of Iſrael upon that account; and ſo they disbanded: Yet, notwithſtanding, there was continual War between the two Kingdoms, during the Lives of both thoſe Kings.

REHOBOAM reignd 17 Years currant, and began this firſt Year to eſtabliſh his Kingdom, and build fifteen Cities of Defence, viz. Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoah, Bethzur, Shoco, Adullam, Gath, Mareſhah, Ziph, Adoram, Lachiſh, Azkcah, Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron; ſome of 'em in the heart of his Kingdom for preventing Rebellions, and others in the Frontiers to ſtop the Motions of Invaders. He fortifyd alſo the ſtrong Holds, and filld them with military Men and good ſtore of Proviſions; and in every City he put Shields and Spears, and made them exceeding ſtrong; and ſo dwelt ſafely at Jeruſalem, and his Kingdom was better fortifyd, tho' not ſo large in Extent of Ground as that of Iſrael; nay, it was alſo better peopled.

For all the Prieſts and Levites, that were baniſhd by Jeroboam, came and ſettled in Rehoboam's Kingdom; and after them, out of all the Tribes of Iſrael, they that ſet their Hearts to ſeek the Lord God of Iſrael came to Jeruſalem to worſhip their Father's God, and many of 'em ſettled in this Kingdom, and ſtrengthend it.

But tho' theſe things took up at leaſt three Years, they are all aſſignd by Chronologers to this firſt Year; becauſe they were then begun.

During the firſt three Years of his Reign, REHOBOAM well maintaind the true Religion, but after once he thought his Kingdom ſtrengthend and eſtabliſhd, he and moſt of his Subjects forſook the Law of Jehovah, and erected alſo High-Places, and ſet up Images in Groves on every high Hill, and under every green Tree; nay, they were guilty of Sodomy, and of all the Abominations of the old Canaanites, ſinning more hainouſly than their Fathers.

I. King JEROBOAM, the Son of Nebat, reignd 22 Years currant, and this firſt Year he began to rebuild Shechem, and Tizzah in Ephraim, and Penuel in Gad But being afraid, that if the People frequented the Temple of Jeruſalem, they might be decoyd to the Houſe of David, and influencd to ſlay him, he thought it neceſſary, for his Safety and Settlement, to inſtitute a new Ceremonial and Form of Religion; and ſo he erected his 2 great Golden Calves, the one at DAN in the North, that had been long famous for Micah's Images; [Tab. 8.] and the other in the South at BETHEL, or the Houſe of God, ſo calld by Father Jacob: And JEROBOAM ſmoothly told the People, It is too much for you to go up to Jeruſalem; Behold thy Gods, Oh Iſrael, which brought thee out of the Land of Egypt! Juſt as the Iſraelites ſaid when they got Aaron to erect their firſt Golden Calf, Exod. xxxii. 4. which now they complyd with the more readily for that the Heads of Tribes were inragd at REHOBOAM, and that JEROBOAM pretended not to worſhip ſtrange Gods, but the true God under the Similitude of a Golden Calf, the Idol of Egypt; which yet was contrary to the expreſs Letter of the ſecond Command, and an open Contempt of God's Wrath, xxxii. 34. an Introduction to the Polytheiſm of the Heathen, and for which the Iſraelites were ſmartly puniſhd: For as they were never reformd, this was ever laid to their Charge, until they were extirpated. In conſequence

He made an Houſe of High-Places or Altars, or many Altars in one Houſe, contrary to God's Inſtitution; and many Temples, not only at Dan and Bethel, but likewiſe in the Cities of Samaria, in order to make Religion as eaſy as poſſible. He appointed a Feaſt of Tabernacles, not on the 15th of the 7th Month, as in God's Law, but on the 15th Day of the 8th Month, as he had deviſd in his own Heart. As for the Paſſover and Pentecoſt, either he neglected them, or obſervd them the ſame Time with the Jews. He alſo expelld the Prieſts and Levites, for diſſenting from his new Form of Religion, and made Prieſts of the loweſt of the People of any Tribe that offerd themſelves; and further erected his aſſumd Prerogative in Eccleſiaſtical Affairs,

KINGS of JUDAH.

Therefore God raiſd up againſt REHOBOAM Shiſhak King of Egypt, who with 1200 Chariots, 60000 Horſemen, and People without Number; with his Auxiliaries the Lubims, the Sukkims, and the Ethiopians, came and took the fenced Cities of Judah, and laid Siege to Jeruſalem. Upon which REHOBOAM and his Princes, having humbled themſelves and reformd, God ſent the Prophet Shemaiah to aſſure them, that he would not deſtroy Jeruſalem, nor overturn the Kingdom, only that they ſhould become Servants to Shiſhak for a time; to let them ſee the Difference between that and God's Service. So they were obligd to ſurrender Jeruſalem to Shiſhak, who plunderd the Temple and Palace Royal of all their Treaſures, and carried off Solomon's Golden Shields into Egypt, which REHOBOAM ſupplyd with Shields of Braſs.

After this, Things went well in Judah, tho' not ſo well as in the firſt three Years; becauſe the King prepared not his Heart to ſeek the Lord, tho' he reignd 12 Years more, in all 17 Years: And when he died, aged 58, he was buried in the City of David. And was ſucceeded by

II. ABIJAH his Son, or Abijam, whoſe reign is alſo reckond to commence from the beginning of the 18th Year of Jeroboam, and reignd 3 Years. He brought into the Field an Army of 400000 Men againſt Jeroboam, whoſe Army was 800000: They met at Zemaraim in Mount Ephraim, where ABIJAH, after a ſerious Rehearſal of Jeroboam's Rebellion and Apoſtacy, exhorted the Men of Iſrael to return to their Allegiance to God, and the Houſe of David, tho' in vain; for Jeroboam, confiding in his Numbers, made an Ambuſh mean while, and ſurrounded ABIJAH's Army. But ABIJAH and his People firſt pray'd to Jehovah, then ſhouted for the Battel, bravely attackd the Enemy, gave Jeroboam a total Rout, and ſlew 500000 Iſraelites, the greateſt Slaughter mentiond in Story; nay, he hunted Jeroboam, and purſued his Victory, by taking the Cities of Bethel, Jeſhanah and Ephraim, with their Towns. This King is ſaid, in 1 Kin. xv. to have walkd in all the Sins of his Father, and that his Heart was not upright with God; but, in 2 Chron. xiii. that is not laid to his Charge, and therefore we may ſuppoſe he was reformd in the ſecond Year of his Reign; and becauſe he maintaind the true Religion in its full Decorum, his Reign, tho' ſhort, being only 3 Years currant, was very glorious, and he was buried with his Fathers in the City of David; left a numerous Offspring, and many wiſe Sayings, 2 Chron. xiii. 21, 22.

III. ASA, the Son of Abijah, began to reign in the 20th Year of Jeroboam, and reignd 41 Years. He began well, and followd the laudable Example of King David; for which God bleſſd him with ten Years Peace without Inturruption.

His Reign was opend with the Xth Great Year of Jubilee. ——————————

ASA, during his ten Years Peace, made a great Reformation, deſtroyd in his Kingdom the Altars of the ſtrange Gods, and many High Places, brake down the Images, and cut down the Groves; nay, he exerciſd his Authority in obliging his Subjects to ſeek the Lord God of their Fathers, and to keep his Law. Alſo he fortifyd his Kingdom with fenced Cities, that had Walls, Towers, Gates and Bars, and proſperd in his Architecture: Nay, tho' he livd now in Peace, he wiſely provided againſt a Storm, by training up in the Military 300000 Jews that bore Targets and by executing the Prieſt's Office with his own Hands, as the High Prieſt himſelf.

While he was dedicating his Altar at Bethel, by burning Incenſe on it, God ſent a certain Prophet from Judah to reprove his Idolatry, and to reclaim him; who, with a loud Voice before the King and the grand Aſſembly, propheſied of King JOSIAH's defiling and demoliſhing that Altar, (tho' after 350 Years) and confirmd his Prophecy by three Miracles; firſt by the Altar's being rent, and the Aſhes pourd out; next by the Withering of JEROBOAM's Hand, when beckoning to ſeize the Prophet; and then by the King's Hand being reſtord by the Prophet's Prayer for him. The whole Story is in 1 Kin. xiii. and the Accompliſhment of the Prophecy in 2 Kin. xxiii. Yet JEROBOAM was not reformd, but continued an obſtinate Apoſtate and Idolater, repairing his rent Altar, and worſhipping his Golden Calf, ſtill fearing that the Kingdom ſhould return to the Houſe of David.

But all thoſe Buildings and Innovations in Religion, being deſignd and begun in the firſt Year of his Reign, tho' they could not be perfected ſo ſoon, are uſually by Chronologers aſſignd to this firſt Year: Only ſome think, that the Prophecy concerning Joſiah was in the ſecond Year of JEROBOAM, which interrupts not Our Chronology.

JEROBOAM, not being able alone to ruin Rehoboam, no doubt, inſtigated his old Friend Shiſhak, King of Egypt, to invade Judah, (as in the other Column) and rejoiced in his Conqueſts; for we read not that Shiſhak offerd to invade Iſrael, but returnd with the Spoils of Judah to Egypt.

When his Son Abijah fell ſick, he ſent his Queen in Diſguiſe to the Prophet Abijah in Shiloh, (who had at the firſt foretold his Advancement, Tab. 13.) to know whether the Youth ſhould live or die? But the Prophet, warnd of God, not only told her who ſhe was, even the Wife of JEROBOAM, but alſo that her Son ſhould die, and that of all the Family he only ſhould be honourably buried, for that in him ſome Goodneſs was found; but that all the reſt of the Family ſhould be cut off, and not be buried, but eaten by Dogs and ravenous Creatures, becauſe of JEROBOAM's Ingratitude, Unbelief and grand Apoſtacy: Nay, that for his Sin, and for making Iſrael to ſin with him, God would extirpate that Kingdom, and ſcatter them beyond the Euphrates, 1 Kings xiv. 1–18.

JEROBOAM, perceiving Abijah, King of Judah, to be a warlike Prince, did alſo prepare for War, and levied 800000 Men to defend his Kingdom: But he never proſperd after the Death of Rehoboam; for Abijah gave him a total Rout, as in the other Column.

JEROBOAM never retrievd his Honour and Grandeur after the great Battel of Zemaraim, (as in the other Column) nor ever recoverd the Cities that Abijah took from him, nor ever turnd from his Idolatry: For having loſt Bethel, he and his People went as far as Dan in the North, to worſhip before their other great Golden Calf.

JEROBOAM, tho' deliverd of his Scourge, King Abijah, was not able to recover his Loſſes, nor to diſturb the Peace of Judah under good King Aſa: Nay, he ſeems to have been renderd unfit for Government by ſome ſore Diſeaſes, for Jehovah ſo ſtruck him that he died, 2 Chr. xiii. 20.

II. NADAB, the Son of Jeroboam, began to reign in the end of his Father's Reign for two Years currant; for, 1 Kin. xv. 25, 28. he began his Reign in the ſecond Year of Aſa, and he was ſlain by Baaſha in Aſa's third Year, and ſo he reignd a part of two Years. He followd his Father's ill Example.

After his Father's Death he raiſd an Army, and laid Siege to Gibbethon in Philiſtia, during which, one of his Generals, Baaſha, the Son of Abijah of the Houſe of Iſſachar, conſpird with the Army againſt him, and ſlew him, and was proclaimd King of Iſrael by the Army.

and Spears, and alſo 280000 Benjamites that bore Shields and drew Bows, who upon the firſt Signal could take the Field.

ASA did not diſturb Baaſha, but let him go on in his Way, having no Call to it, while he quietly poſſeſsd the Countries in the Kingdom of Iſrael, that his Father Abijah had conquerd.

Jehoſhaphat, the Son and Heir of King Aſa, was born this Year: For he was aged 35 when he came to the Throne, 1 Kings xxii. 42. or 35 Years after This.

After the Ten Years Peace.

ASA in the beginning, by the Skirmiſhes of the Iſraelites, had his conquerd Countries a little deſtroyd; but the War was not fierce for ſome Years.

Zerah King of the Cuſhites, or the Ethiopians in Arabia Petræa, and of the Lubims, the beginning of this Year came againſt Judah, with an Army of a Million of Men, and 300 Chariots; but King ASA raiſd a little Army againſt Zerah, to prevent his joining Baaſha, and ſtopt his Motion in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareſhah; where, after earneſt Prayer, Aſa and his valiant Jews attackd Zerah and his Ethiopians, who fled before him, and were purſued unto Gerar, ſo vanquiſhd that they could not rally; and ſo ASA and his People, having ſmote Gerar and the Cities round it, and the Shepherds Tents, returnd to Jeruſalem loaded with rich and great Spoil.

On the road the Prophet Azariah, the Son of Obed, met him with a kind Meſſage from God, which encouragd him to make another Reformation, by rooting out the Sodomites, and putting away the abominable Idols out of all his Dominions, and repairing the Altar of JEHOVAH before the Porch of the Temple: And ſoon after the Victory of Mareſhah, the King, in the 3d Month of this Year, about the Time of Pentecoſt, made a grand Convocation, when they offerd part of the Spoil in Sacrifice, viz. 7000 Sheep and 700 Oxen; and then enterd into a Covenant to ſeek the Lord God of their Fathers with all their Heart and Soul, with the Penalty of every Perſon's being put to death, whether Small or Great, Man or Woman, that did not ſeek the Lord God of Iſrael. The People ſwore unto Jehovah with a loud Voice, with Shouting, with Trumpets and Cornets, and rejoicd at the Oath, and, being very ſincere, God was found of them, and gave them Reſt round about: By Virtue of which Covenant Maachah, the Widow of Rehoboam, and Grandmother of King ASA, was removd from the State of Queen Dowager to a Place of Ritirement; becauſe ſhe had made an Idol in a Grove, which ASA cut down and ſtampt it, and burnt it at the Brook Kidron. And the King brought into the Temple the Silver and Gold, and Veſſels, and other valuable things, which his Father and he had dedicated to God.

ASA, upon the Invaſion of Baaſha, took a deal of the Silver and Gold from the Treaſuries of the Temple, and of his Palace, and ſent it to Benhadad, the Son of Tabrimon, the Son of Hezion, or Rezon, King of Syria at Damaſcus, (for Rezon was the firſt King of Damaſcus, ſee Tab. 12.) whereby he bribd Benhadad, to break his League with Baaſha, and to invade Iſrael, in order to divert Baaſha from his Projects; as in the other Column.

When Baaſha returnd home, ASA raiſd all his Men, and went to Ramah, and from thence carried off the Materials of the Building, wherewith he built Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

At that Time came Hanani the Seer to ASA from God, ſaying, Becauſe thou haſt relied on the King of Syria, and not on JEHOVAH thy God, therefore is the Hoſt of the Syrians eſcaped out of thy Hand: Were not the Cuſhites and Lubims a great Hoſt, with many Chariots and Horſemen? yet, becauſe thou didſt rely on Jehovah, he delivered them into thy Hand: For the Eyes of Jehovah run to and fro through the Earth, to ſhew himſelf ſtrong in behalf of them whoſe Heart is perfect towards him. Herein thou haſt done fooliſhly! therefore from henceforth thou ſhalt have Wars. At which the King was inragd, and impriſond the Prophet, and, inſtead of ſubmitting to God's Reproof began to be an Oppreſſor of the People; for Perſecutors will readily prove Tyrants.

ASA loſt the Countries that his Father took from Jeroboam; for King Ela, the Son of

KINGS of JUDAH.

III. BAASHA, obtaining the Crown by foul Means, had not yet Leiſure to diſturb Aſa, but was intent upon ſecuring his own Kingdom; which he did firſt by the ſame foul Means, even by ſlaying all the Houſe of Jeroboam, leaving none alive. But however baſe and barbarous he was, God was juſt, and now fulfilld his Threatning, made by Abijah the Prophet, againſt Jeroboam.

BAASHA ſet up his Throne at Tirzah, and reignd 24 Years. But tho' he had been an Inſtrument of deſtroying the Houſe of Jeroboam, he deſtroyd not his Idolatry, made no Reformation, but followd Jeroboam's ill Example; for which he was alſo puniſhd like him.

BAASHA, now fully eſtabliſhd, began to meliorate his Circumſtances and Situation, having his Eye fixd upon thoſe Countries conquerd by King Abijah, which he deſignd now to recover; and next upon keeping his Subjects from worſhipping at Jeruſalem, the old Plot of Jeroboam: And ſo he began to make Inroads on Judah, after Aſa's ten Years Peace.

BAASHA, being in a State of War againſt Aſa, may be ſuppoſd to have perſuaded the Ethiopians to attack Judah, with a Promiſe of joining them; but he was diſappointed by Zerah's total Rout, as in the other Column.

It is ſaid, 2 Chron. xv. 19. And there was no War unto the 35th Year of the Reign of Aſa; and, 2 Chron. xvi. 1. In the 36th Year of the Reign of Aſa did Baaſha, King of Iſrael, come up againſt Judah, and built Ramah. But that is to be underſtood not of the very Reign of Aſa, but of the Kingdom of Aſa; for, according to Our Chronology, it was juſt in the 35th Year of the Kingdom of Judah, or ſo long after the Partition of the Tribes, when BAASHA invaded Aſa's Kingdom. And it muſt be ſo underſtood, becauſe BAASHA reignd only 24 Years, and began only in the 3d Year of Aſa's very Reign.

BAASHA was not frightend by Aſa's glorious Victory over the Cuſhites, but rather more enragd, and prepard for a furious War, and now reſolvd to recover the Countries taken from Jeroboam, and to hinder the Iſraelites from going to Jeruſalem, for many of 'em had joind in Aſa's Covenant. And ſo, Having over-run the conquerd Countries with a great Army, BAASHA began to build Ramah, on the Frontiers of Benjamin towards Ephraim, and to fortify it, in order to prevent the Iſraelites from going to Jeruſalem, and to keep out Aſa's Subjects from coming into Iſrael. This was in the 35th Year of Aſa's Kingdom, not of his Perſonal Reign.

But Benhadad King of Syria, at the Inſtigation of King Aſa, ſent an Army againſt Iſrael, ſmote the Cities Iſon and Dan, and Abel-Beth-Maachah of Manaſſeh, (calld alſo Abel-Maim) and all the Tract of Cinneroth, and all the Land and Store-houſes of Naphtali. Upon the News of which BAASHA left his fortifying of Ramah, to repair his Loſſes, and to ſecure his Kingdom againſt the Syrians.

At that Time the Prophet Jehu, the Son of Hanani the Seer, was ſent of God to King BAASHA, ſaying, For as much as I exalted thee out of the Duſt, and made thee Prince over my People Iſrael, and thou haſt walked in the Way of Jeroboam, and haſt made Iſrael to ſin, behold I will make thy Houſe like that of Jeroboam, &c. 1 Kin. xvi.

Yet BAASHA perſiſted in his Idolatry, and reſtord the Altar at Bethel: For, tho' he could not fortify Ramah, he recoverd and kept Poſſeſſion of the Countries that Abijah had took from Jeroboam. When BAASHA died, he was buried in Tirzah: And was ſucceeded by.

IV. ELAH his Son, who reignd at Tirzah two Years, purſuing his Father's Wars, and following his ill Example; nay, added Drunkenneſs to his Father's Sins: For, in the 2d Year of Baaſha, who ſeems to have been a warlike Prince, carried on the War againſt ASA, and maintaind his Father's Conqueſts during his ſhort Reign; for Elah was cut off by Zimri in the 2d Year of his Reign, and the 27th of ASA's Reign, as in the Chronology.

Thus ASA livd to ſee an end of Baaſha's Family, as of that of Jeroboam, who were both extirpated without any Remnant, while the Houſe of David flouriſhd.

N. B. It is written, 1 Kin. xvi. 23. In the 31*ſt Year of* ASA began Omri to reign over Iſrael 12 Years; ſix Years reigned he in Tirzah: But the firſt of theſe 12 Years was the 27th of ASA, upon the Death of Zimri, Ver. 15, 16. as in the Chronology: For Omri reignd in all 12 Years, viz. five Years in Competition with King Tibni, and ſeven Years alone after Tibni's Death, which ſeven Years began in the end of the 31ſt Year of ASA's Reign.

ASA, during the Competition of Omri and Tibni, Kings of Iſrael, took ſome Cities of Ephraim; for the Iſraelites, being divided, were not at leiſure to hinder him; until the 31ſt Year of his Reign, when Tibni was dead.

And ſo the 6th Year of Omri is parallel with the 32d Year of ASA. In which Year alſo Jehoram, the Son of Prince Jehoſhaphat, was born, viz. 32 Years before his Father took him to be Partner of his Throne, 2 Kin. viii. 17. as will appear in its Place.

After King Tibni's Death, ASA now had to do with a politic Prince, Omri King of all Iſrael, who, being a warlike Man, renewd the War againſt Judah; for Hanani had propheſied that ASA was to be plagued with Wars: Yet we read not that ASA's Kingdom was impaird by Omri, only that the War continued on the Frontiers, and that Omri deviſd his wicked Statutes to be even with ASA, for his ſolemn Covenant above-mentiond.

But tho' ASA's Heart was perfect before God, or ſincere, yet he made not a thorough Reformation in his Kingdom; for all the High Places were not taken away in his Time.

ASA upon the Death of Omri was more at eaſe from War, becauſe Achab would make a Ceſſation of Arms, no doubt, in the beginning of his Reign, which ASA would readily accept of, becauſe of his Age and Infirmities: For

ASA was now, two Years before he died, ſeverely afflicted or diſeaſd with the Gout in his Feet, for which he imployd Phyſicians, which was well done; but his Error was, that he truſted more to their Skill than to Jehovah: And therefore he was never cured, but died of it, And they buried his Body in his own Sepulchres, which he had made for himſelf in the City of David, and laid him in the Bed filld with ſweet Odours, and divers kinds of Preparations by the Apothecary's Art, and made a very great Burning for him. And his Reign, his Servant Zimri, the Captain of his Chariots, conſpird againſt him at Tirzah, and while ELAH was drinking himſelf drunk, in the Houſe of Arza his Steward, Zimri went in and ſlew him: But tho'

V. ZIMRI reignd only ſeven Days, yet the forthwith cut off all the Houſe of Baaſha, with his Kindred and Friends, leaving none alive, according to the Word of Jehovah by the Prophet Jehu: So that Baaſha and Elah, being as wicked as Jeroboam, were puniſhd in the ſame manner with Extirpation, by the righteous Providence of God, which alſo purſued wicked, bloodthirſty ZIMRI; for while he uſurpd the Throne, the Army of Iſrael was again beſieging Gibbethon of the Philiſtins; and when the News came to the Camp, the Army was inragd, that ZIMRI ſhould make himſelf King without conſulting them: Therefore the Army forthwith proclaimd their General Omri King of Iſrael, even where Baaſha ſlew Nadab, and uſurpd the Throne about 25 Years ago. And

VI. OMRI, leaving the Siege of Gibbethon, and marching with the Army, forthwith laid Siege to Tirzah, and on the 8th Day after Elah's Death, when Zimri ſaw the City was taken, he ſhut himſelf up in the Palace, ſet it on fire, and periſhd in the Flames.

Yet OMRI had not a very quiet Poſſeſſion; for Iſrael was now divided, the one Half of the People having proclaimd

VII. TIBNI, the Son of Ginaſh, their King; and the other Half adhering to OMRI.

Athaliah, the Daughter of Achab, the Son of OMRI, was born by Jezebel his Wife, 42 Years before her Son Achaziah came to the Throne of Judah.

The Competition laſted five Years, with perpetual War and Bloodſhed, no doubt,, even till OMRI's People prevaild, and Tibni died; when OMRI came to reign alone for ſeven Yerrs: For he reignd in all twelve Years, as in the other Column.

This is the laſt Year that OMRI reigud at Tirzah, as it is written, 1 Kin. xvi. 23. Siz Years reigned he in Tirzah only; forthe Palace having been burnt down by Zimri, there was not Accommodation enough at Tirzah for King OMRI, now that his Kingdom was inlargd: Therefore OMRI bought the Hill of Shemer or Shomeron, for two Talents of Silver, upon which he built a City and Palace, which he calld Samaria, after the old Owner of the Hill, which became the Capital of the Kingdom of Iſrael.

OMRI was a mighty Prince, but mighty wicked; for he wrought Evil in the Sight of the Lord, and did worſe than all that were before him; for we read of the Statutes of OMRI, (Mic. vi. 16.) that were kept by his wicked Succeſſors, and that brought on the utter Deſolation of Iſrael; whereby OMRI was worſe than Jeroboam; for he made Iſrael to ſin by Temptation, Example and Allurement only; but OMRI by Statutes, by Compulſion, by Perſecution for Conſcience ſake, having eſtabliſhd Iniquity by Laws, which was, to order all his Subjects to worſhip the Golden Calves under ſevere Penalties; eſpecially, that none who diſſented from the Religion of the State, ſhould have any Place of Profit or Truſt under the Crown, and ſhould be treated as Enemies to the Government; which he rigorouſly executed till he died, and was buried in Samaria. When VIII. ACHAB his Son began to reign over Iſrael during 22 Years currant, who provd more vile than his Father; for he did Evil in the Sight of the Lord above all that went before him: Nay, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the Sins of Jeroboam, he firſt introducd the Worſhipping of Baal, having been married to Jezebel the Daughter of Eth-Baal King of the Zidonians: She was a zealous Idolatreſs, and in her Temper extremely imperious and malicious, addicted to Witchcrafts and Whoredoms, the worſt of Women: Upon which account the falſe Propheteſs in Rev. ii. 20. is calld Jezebel. And King ACHAB, being wholly under her Influence, built a large Temple and an Altar for Baal in Samaria, and worſhipped that Idol by ſacrificing to him, and made a Grove round the Temple, to hide their impure and profane Rituals and Practices there.

See the following TABLE.

TABLE XV.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Iſrael and Judah, from the Death of ASA King of Judah, to the Death of JORAM the Son of ACHAB, King of Iſrael, during 30 Years.

KINGS of JUDAH.

IV. JEHOSHAPHAT the Son of Aſa, the Son of Abijam, the Son of Rehoboam, upon his Father's Death aſcended the Throne with an intire Reputation, the better Son of a good Father, aged 35, and reignd 25 Years. His Mother was Azubah, the Daughter of Shilhi. He began his Reign at the end of Aſa's 41ſt Year, and of Achab's 4th Year: So that his firſt Year and Achab's fifth Year are parallel.

JEHOSHAPHAT began to ſtrengthen himſelf againſt Iſrael, placing Forces and Garriſons in the frontier Cities, and in thoſe of Ephraim that his Father Aſa had taken during the Competition of Omri and Tibni, [Tab. 14]

Jehovah eſtabliſhd his Kingdom, and all his Subjects made him large Preſents, ſo that he had Riches and Honour in abundance; becauſe he walked in the firſt Ways of DAVID, (which indeed were his beſt Ways) and worſhipped not Baalim, as Achab did; but ſought to JEHOVAH the God of his Fathers, and walked in his Commands, and not after the Doings of Iſrael; for his Heart was lifted up in the Ways of Jehovah, and he removed the High Places and Groves out of Judah.

JEHOSHAPHAT ſent his Princes thro' the Land, with the Levites to aſſiſt them, who taught the Book of the Law of Jehovah to all the People; which was an excellent Expedient towards a thorough Reformation: While Jezebel excited Achab to ſlay thoſe that taught it in her Kingdom.

JEHOSHAPHAT enjoyd profound Peace; for the Dread of Jehovah fell upon the Kingdoms round Judah: Nay, ſome of 'em became his Tributaries, as the Philiſtins, who brought him Preſents, and Tribute-Silver; and the Arabians brought him an annual Tribute of 7700 Rams, and as many He-Goats.

He became an exceeding great King, and increaſd the Wealth of his Subjects, by his foreign Trade in the Indian Seas, and by much inland Trade; for he had brought much Buſineſs into the Cities of Judah, where he built Caſtles and Store-Cities.

Yet he wiſely prepard for War, armed all his Subjects, and had ſeveral brave Generals, as

1. Adnah, who commanded of the valiant Jews	300000	In all 1160000
2. Jehohanan, who commanded	280000
3. Amaziah, who willingly offerd himſelf to the Service, at the Head of	200000
4. Eliada, who commanded of the Benjamites armd with Bow and Shield	200000
5. Jehozabad, who commanded Men ready for Battel	180000

Theſe were all ready to take the Field on the firſt Alarm, and by turns attended him as his Guards, whereby he became a formidable Prince.

But JEHOSHAPHAT committed Folly by entring into Affinity with Achab King of Iſrael; for this Year he married his Son Jehoram, aged 16, to Athaliah the Daughter of Achab and Jezebel, which provd a very unhappy Marriage to the Royal Family of Judah, as will appear in its Place.

Achaziah, the Son of Prince Jehoram, was born by Athaliah this Year; for when aged 22 he came to the Throne of Judah, or 22 Years after This, 2 Kin. viii. 26.

We read no more of JEHOSHAPHAT till the 17th Year of his Reign, but we have many Accounts of ACHAB's Reign during thoſe eight Years, which occaſions the following large Blank.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

In the beginning of ACHAB's Reign, one Hiel of Bethel, a Man of Power and Wealth went and rebuilt Jericho; but, in laying the Foundation, his eldeſt Son Abiram was ſlain; and, when the Gates were ſet up, his youngeſt Son Segub was ſlain; according to the Curſe of JOSHUA upon ſuch an Undertaking above 530 Years before, Joſh. vi. 26.

King ACHAB, at the Inſtigation of his Queen Jezebel, ſlew the Prophets of Jehovah, or thoſe Scribes that were converſant in the Law of Moſes, and taught the Iſraelites the Religion of their Progenitors, who are therefore calld Prophets; they are ſuppoſd to be the Levites that had not heen baniſhd, or that afterwards venturd to reſide in Iſrael; or elſe they were Simeonites, who were much diſperſd thro' Iſrael as Teachers of Youth and Scribes. But who ever they were, 'tis certain they were a great Eye-ſore to wicked Jezebel, the Patroneſs of the Prophets of Baal, who could not bear that the Law of God ſhould be taught.

But Obadiah the Governour of the King's Houſe, a good Man that worſhipped Jehovah as well as he could in his Circumſtances, ſavd an hundred of thoſe Prophets, whom he hid in Caves, and fed them with Bread and Water, until they made their Eſcape into Judah, while Baal's Prophets livd upon the Fat of the Land, and were retaind at Court eating at Jezebel's Table.

ACHAB reignd in Peace or free from War many Years, in which Time he built many Cities, and alſo a little Palace all of Ivory; but wretchedly departed from God and Goodneſs, being wholly governd by his wicked Wife, following the Idols of the old Amorites, as if he had ſold himſelf to work Wickedneſs, even contrary to his better Knowledge.

Yet that he might not pretend Ignorance, in carrying on the Idolatry and Abominations of Jezebel, God raiſd up in his Kingdom, and duely qualifyd, one of the moſt eminent Prophets that ever livd, who in a few Years ſlew Jezebel's Prophets, even ELIJAH, (or Elias) not a Levite, nor a learned Simeonite, nor a Jew, but a Tiſhbite, an Inhabitant of Gilead in the Tribe of Gad, whoſe Name ſignifies God the Lord, or the ſtrong Lord, importing his Commiſſion from Jehovah. He was a Man of ſtrong Paſſions, and ſo was fitted by Nature, as well as by Grace, for the rugged and hard Work to which he was calld.

ACHAB prudently ſtrengthend himſelf by an Affinity with Jehoſhaphat; and

This Year there was great Joy at the Court of Samaria, upon the Marriage of ACHAB's Daughter Athaliah to Jehoram, the Prince Royal of Judah, when ſhe was aged 19, whereby Jezebel might hope to introduce her Abominations into Judah, as it happend afterwards.

The Birth of Achaziah, the Son of Jehoram Prince of Judah, this Year, no doubt, would rejoice the Heart of Jezebel and her King: But their Joy and Peace did not laſt long, for this ſame Year Elijah firſt manifeſted himſelf to ACHAB, ſaying boldly to the King, As JEHOVAH the God of Iſrael liveth, before whom I ſtand, there ſhall not be Dew nor Rain theſe Years, but according to my Word: And ſo a Famine commencd that laſted three Years and ſix Months; tho' Elijah told not ACHAB how long it would laſt, or, indeed, could not tell at that Time.

King ACHAB regarded not the Prediction, till he ſaw the Accompliſhment to his Sorrow, and then he ſought for Elijah in every Country far and near, but in vain; for, as a Puniſhment on Iſrael, God had hid the Prophet in an obſcure Place, the Brook Cherith Eaſt of the Jordan, where he was miraculouſly fed by Ravens during the Famin: And when that Brook was dryd for want of Rain, God directed him to go Weſt of the Jordan, to Zarepta in the Territory of Zidon, where he was fed by a poor Widow, whoſe Barrel of Meal and Cruiſe of Oil (according to God's Word by the Prophet) did not fail till God ſent Rain; and where he raiſd from Death the Widow's Son; whereby ſhe and her Neighbours were converted to the true Religion, as ſome of the firſt Fruits of the Gentiles.

While the Famine laſted, the Court and People of Iſrael might greatly be ſupplyd from the Stores of Judah; but King ACHAB went one Way, and Obadiah, the good Governour, another Way thro' the Land, to find out as much Water in the Fountains and Brooks, as might preſerve alive the Horſes and Mules, and other uſeful Beaſts. At length Obadiah in his Tour met Elijah, who was ſent of God to meet ACHAB, and aſſur'd Obadiah he would ſee the King. When they met, the King ſaid, Art thou he that troubleth Iſrael? To which Elijah bravely anſwerd, I have not troubled Iſrael, but thou and thy Father's Houſe, by forſaking the Commandments of Jehovah, and by following Baalim! Now therefore ſend and gather to me all Iſrael unto Mount Carmel, (which is by the Shore of the Mediterranean, a great way from Samaria, or the Palace of Jezebel) and the 450 Prophets of Baal, and the 400 Prieſts of the Groves, who did eat at Jezebel's Table, while the People of Samaria were a ſtarving. The King readily obey'd for the ſake of removing the Famine; and when the People came to Carmel, the Prophet chid them for Halting between two Opinions, charging them to be either for Jehovah or for Baal; and to put the Matter beyond diſpute, He propoſd that Baal's Prieſts ſhould ſacrifiſe one Bullock to Baal, and he would ſacrifiſe another to JEHOVAH; that no Fire ſhould be put under the Wood, and that the GOD who anſwereth by Fire ſhould be worſhipped as the One only, the Living and True GOD: Which all the People approved of as a fair Propoſal.

When the Prieſts of Baal had in vain cryd to their God, from Morning till the Time of the Evening Sacrifice, and had cut themſelves for Madneſs; but no Voice was heard, no Fire deſcended on their Bullock: Elijah having ſufficiently mocked them and their imaginary God, he bid the People draw near to him; then he repaird an old Patriarchal Altar found there, and erected on it 12 rough Stones, according to the Number of the Tribes, and upon this Emergency did conſecrate it an Altar in the Name of Jehovah, (as the Patriarchs were wont to do) and having made a Trench about it, he bid the People pour Water three times on the Bullock and the Wood, till the Altar was all wet, and the Trench filld with Water: After this Apparatus, Elijah prayd to and pleaded powerfully with JEHOVAH, who ſent down His Fire that conſumed the Sacrifice, the Wood, the Stones, the Duſt, and the Water in the Trench? Upon which the People fell on their Faces, ſaying aloud, Jehovah he is the GOD! Jehovah he is the GOD! But Elijah demanded, as an Evidence of their Sincerity, that they would apprehend all the Prieſts and Prophets of Baal, and, having brought them to the Brook Kiſhon, Elijah, in the Name of Jehovah, orderd them to be all ſlain. Then Elijah bid the King to return Home, and prepare a Feaſt, for that there would be abundance of Rain, which forthwith happend upon the Prophet's praying on Mount Carmel.

But when King ACHAB returnd to Samaria, and had told his Jezebel what Elijah had done, and how he had ſlain her Prophets with the Sword, ſhe ſent a Meſſenger to threaten Elijah's Death; who therefore fled for his Life into Judah, tho' it ſeems he ſtaid not to viſit Jehoſhaphat, nor to worſhip in the Temple, but marched forward to Beerſhebah, where he left his Servant, and thence travelld alone into the Wilderneſs of Arabia, where he bemoand himſelf under a Juniper-Tree, deſiring Death, and falling aſleep; but was waked by an Angel twice, who gave him Victuals, telling him, that in the Strength of this Meal he ſhould ſubſiſt 40 Days, which he did in travelling to Horeb the Mount of God, where GOD met him with Storms, Earthquakes, and Fires going before his Majeſty, and at laſt, in a ſtill ſmall Voice, ſaid, What doſt thou here Elijah? To which the Prophet replyd, I have been very jealous for Jehovah; becauſe the Iſraelites have forſaken thy Covenant, thrown down thine Altars, and ſlain thy Prophets, and I, even I, only am left, and they ſeek my Life too. But God, having aſſured him that there were 7000 in Iſrael that had not worſhipped Baal, not only denyd his Requeſt of Dying, (nor did he ever die) but ſent him about important Buſineſs, ſaying, Go, return to the Wilderneſs of Damaſcus, and on thy Way anoint Hazael to be King of Syria, and Jehu to be King of Iſrael, and Eliſha, the Son of Shaphat of Abel-Meholah, to be thy Succeſſor, who ſhall avenge the Cauſe of God in their ſeveral Stations: Which were afterwards fulfilld, tho' not at the ſame Time; for Elijah only anointed Eliſha, who, upon Elijah's caſting his Mantle over him, left all to follow him as his Servant; but the other two were calld forth by Eliſha to their Work, after Elijah was tranſlated.

ACHAB was deliverd from the Famine, but reignd not at eaſe full three Years: For Benhadad King of Syria with a vaſt Army, commanded by 32 petty Kings, marched over Iſrael, and having laid Siege to Samaria, he ſent Meſſengers to ACHAB, demanding his Homage, and all his Silver, and the goodlieſt of his Wives and Children; which ACHAB agreed to, ſaying, My Lord, O King, according to thy Saying I am thine, and all that I have. But Benhadad, not contented with that Submiſſion, ſent again demanding further, that his Syrians ſhould to morrow ſearch the Palace and other Houſes, and carry off what they pleas'd; which ACHAB, by Advice of the Elders, refuſed to comply with; yet offerd to ſtand to his firſt Submiſſion. Then Benhadad ſaid in a Rage, The Gods do ſo unto me, and more alſo, if the Duſt of Samaria ſhall ſuffiſe for Handfuls for all the People that follow me! To which ACHAB wiſely replyd, Let not him that girdeth on his Harneſs boaſt himſelf as he that putteth it off.

But while Benhadad prepar'd to attack the City, God raiſd a Prophet in Samaria, to forbid ACHAB to fear the Multitude of his Enemies, for that this Day God would deliver them into his Hands, and he ſhould know that Jehovah is the only true GOD: So ACHAB by the Prophet's Direction, muſterd 232 Princes of the Provinces, who at Noon made a Sally with 7000 Men behind them, while Benhadad and his Kings were drinking drunk in the Royal Pavilion; nay, as undiſturbd at the News, Benhadad orderd his Officers to take thoſe Iſraelites Priſoners whatever

KINGS of JUDAH.

JEHOSHAPHAT, during theſe 8 Years paſt, livd in Peace, maintaind his Reputation, preſervd Iſrael in Time of their Famine, increaſd his Family, and abounded in Wealth and Grandeur.

Jehoſhaphat, being perſuaded to join with Achab in military Preparations againſt the Syrians, followd his Example in placing his Heir Jehoram at the Head of the Government, not as Partner in the Throne, but as Vice-Roy, aged 26, juſt 6 Years before he was made Partner with his Father; for, 2 Kin. i. 17. and iii. 1. it is ſaid, That Joram, King of Iſrael, did ſucceed to his Brother Achaziah, in the ſecond Year of Jehoram, the Son of Jehoſhaphat, King of Judah; and in the 18*th Year of* Jehoſhaphat's Reign, who reignd in all 25.

was their Errand. But he ſoon found his Error, when the Iſraelites beat up his Quarters, gave him a total Rout, and he narrowly eſcapd with a few light Horſemen; when ACHAB marchd forth and ſmote the Horſes, and Chariots, and the Syrians with a very great Slaughter.

Upon this glorious Deliverance, the ſame Prophet adviſd King ACHAB to prepare for another Bout with the Syrians at the Return of the Year; for Behadad's Counſellors had adviſd him to drop thoſe 32 Kings, and to place Generals in their Poſts over ſuch an Army as he had loſt, and to fight in the Plains; Becauſe, ſaid they, the Gods of Iſrael are only Gods of the Hills. So Benhadad brought an Army that filld the Plains of Aphek, where the Iſraelites pitchd for ſeven Days over-againſt them, in two Bodies like two little Flocks of Kids, till animated by a Prophet, on the ſeventh Day, the Iſraelites attackt the Syrians, and ſlew 100000 Footmen in one Day, the Reſt flying to Aphek, where the Town-Wall fell and killd 27000 of 'em, while Benhadad fled into an inner Chamber.

But his Servants, hearing that the Kings of Iſrael were merciful, put Sackcloth on their Loins, and Ropes upon their Heads, and went forth to King ACHAB, ſaying, Thy Servant Benhadad ſaith, I pray thee let me live! To which ACHAB ſaid, Is he yet alive? He is my Brother: Which Words the obſerving Syrians quickly catchd, and ſaid, Thy Brother Benhadad, &c. Then ACHAB having ſent for him, and took him up into his Chariot, Benhadad ſaid, The Cities which my Father took from thy Father I will reſtore; and thou ſhalt make Streets for thee in Damaſcus, as my Father made in Samaria. So ACHAB made this Covenant with him, and ſent him home. Upon which a certain Prophet came diſguiſd to ACHAB, and by a Parable convicted him, concluding, Thus ſaith Jehovah, becauſe thou haſt let go a Man whom I appointed to utter Deſtruction; therefore thy Life ſhall go for his Life, and thy People for his People! This made ACHAB return to Samaria, not triumphing, but heavy and diſpleaſd. But the Peace laſted 3 Years between Iſrael and Syria.

King ACHAB now coveted Naboth's Vineyard, that lay contiguous to his Palace of Jezreel, and offerd to purchaſe it fairly; which Naboth refuſing, as it was contrary to the Law of Moſes to part with the Inheritance of his Fathers, the King fell ſick and ſullen, and refuſd to eat; for the Conſtitution of his Kingdom allowd him not to take Men's Properties at his Pleaſure. But his Jezebel rouſd him from his Bed, with the Aſſurance of getting him the Vineyard; which ſhe accompliſhd, by ſuborning two Sons of Belial to ſwear Blaſphemy and Treaſon againſt Naboth, at an High-Day before the Nobles and Elders of his City, who were her Creatures, and who, by her Letters in ACHAB's Name, carried Naboth out of Town, ſtoned him to Death, forfeited his Heirs, and ſent the News to her: Then ſhe bid ACHAB go and take Poſſeſſion of it.

But God ſent Elijah to meet ACHAB in the Vineyard, ſaying, Thus ſaith Jehovah, Haſt thou killed and alſo taken Poſſeſſion? In the Place where the Dogs licked Naboth's Blood ſhall Dogs lick thy Blood, even thine! ACHAB replyd, Haſt thou found me, O mine Enemy? But Elijah ſaid, I have found thee; for thus ſaith Jehovah, becauſe thou haſt ſold thy ſelf to work Evil, behold I will bring Evil upon thee, will cut off thy Poſterity, and make thine Houſe like that of Jeroboam and Baaſha, and the Dogs ſhall eat Jezebel by the Wall of Jezreel; him that dieth of ACHAB in the City ſhall the Dogs eat, and him that dieth in the Field ſhall the Fowls of the Air eat!

Theſe awful Words made a deep Impreſſion in the King; for he rent his Cloaths, put Sackcloth upon his Fleſh, faſted, lay in Sackcloth, and went ſoftly. Upon which Jehovah ſaid to Elijah, Seeſt thou how ACHAB humbleth himſelf before me? therefore I will not bring the Evil in his Days, but in his Son's Days.

IX. ACHAZIAH, the eldeſt Son of Achab, is now by his Father made Partner in the Throne of Iſrael; for, 1 Kin. xxii. 51. it is ſaid, That ACHAZIAH, the Son of Achab, began to reign over Iſrael, in the 17*th Year of* Jehoſhaphat King of Judah, and that he reigned two Years; even while Achab livd; who thus advancd his Son, becauſe, being engagd in warlike Preparations againſt the Syrians, he might think it expedient to have his Heir in Poſſeſſion of the Throne at Samaria, while he himſelf took the Field.

In the 3d Year of the Peace between Iſrael and Syria, the War was renewd, and, being left of God, Achab followd the Advice of his falſe Prophets to his Ruin: Yet he perſuaded King Jehoſhaphat to come and join him. Accordingly.

Jehoſhaphat, having compleated his Levies, marchd his Army to Samaria, in order to have a ſolemn Interview with Achab, and to concert Meaſures for conducting the War againſt Benhadad, who was alſo ready to give them a warm Reception. Achab royally entertaind Jehoſhaphat, and propoſed to open the Campaign with the Siege of Ramoth-Gilead, (a City of Iſrael near Syria, either not deliverd by Benhadad according to Agreement, or lately taken by the Syrians) aſking Jehoſhaphat's Conſent, which he too readily granted, ſaying, I am as thou art, and my People as thy People, and we will be with thee in the War.

But good Jehoſhaphat deſird Achab to enquire firſt at the Word of Jehovah; upon which Achab aſſembled 400 of his Prophets, to whom he put the Queſtion, Shall I go up to Ramoth Gilead or not? who all anſwerd, Go up, for Jehovah ſhall deliver it into the Hands of the King. But Jehoſhaphat, juſtly ſuſpecting thoſe were falſe Prophets, honeſtly ſaid, Is there not beſides theſe a Prophet of Jehovah? And Achab replyd, There is yet one Man, Micajah the Son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of Jehovah; but I hate him, for he never propheſieth Good but Evil concerning me: And Jehoſhaphat ſaid, Let not the King ſay ſo! Then Achab ſent for Micajah, while the two Kings in their royal Robes ſat each on his Throne, in a void Place at the Gate of Samaria, and while Zedekiah, one of the falſe Prophets, put on Horns of Iron, ſaying, Thus ſaith Jehovah, with theſe ſhalt thou puſh the Syrians, till thou haſt conſumed them.

The Meſſenger told Micajah, that all the Prophets agreed in their Verdict, and deſird him to propheſy good Things alſo: But he replied, As Jehovah liveth, what Jehovah ſaith unto me, that will I ſpeak! And when Micajah came, he firſt banterd the falſe Prophets, anſwering the Queſtion as they had done; but when Achab ſaid, How many times ſhall I adjure thee in the Name of Jehovah, that thou tell me nothing but Truth? the Prophet ſeriouſly anſwerd, I ſaw all Iſrael ſcatterd upon the Hills as Sheep without a Shepherd, and Jehovah ſaid, Theſe have no Maſter, let them

When Jehoſhaphat returnd from Ramoth-Gilead to Jeruſalem in Peace, he was met by the Prophet Jehu, the Son of Hanani ſaying, Shouldſt thou help the Ungodly, and love them that hate Jehovah? therefore is Wrath upon thee from before Jehovah; nevertheleſs there are good things found in thee, in that thou haſt taken away the Groves out of the Land, and haſt prepared thine Heart to ſeek God. Yet after this, Jehoſhaphat maintaind his Friendſhip with the Family of Achab, and having made Ships at Solomon's old Harbour of Ezion-Geber on the Red Sea, to purſue the Indian Trade for Gold, Achaziah King of Iſrael deſird to be his Partner, and to ſend a Crew of Iſraelites with the Jews in thoſe Ships; which Jehoſhaphat firſt refus'd, (1 Kin. xxii. 49.) but ſoon after conſented; upon which the Prophet Eliezer ſaid to him, Becauſe thou haſt joined thyſelf with Achaziah, Jehovah hath broken thy Work: Accordingly, as thoſe Ships ſaild out of Harbour, God ſent a violent Storm that daſhd them all to pieces on the Rock near Ezion-Geber. Jehoſhaphat now viſited his Kingdom from Beerſhebah to Mount-Ephraim, and brought them back unto Jehovah, the God of their Fathers: He alſo ſet inferior Judges in every City, charging them, Take heed what ye do; for you judge not for Men but for Jehovah, who is with you in the Judgment, with whom there is no Reſpect of Perſons, nor taking of Gifts. And at Jeruſalem the King appointed an High Court of Appeals, made of learned Levites, of Prieſts, and of the chief Fathers of Iſrael, for hearing and determining the Controverſies that ſhould be returnd to Jeruſalem; to whom he gave a ſolemn Charge.	19	116	199	896	3108	555	79	1	return every Man to his Houſe in Peace! Then Achab ſaid to Jehoſhaphat, Said I not that he would propheſy no Good but Evil concerning me? To which Micajah ſmartly anſwerd, Here thou therefore the Word of Jehovah; I ſaw Jehovah ſitting on his Throne, and all the Hoſt of Heaven ſtanding by him on his right and left Hand; and Jehovah ſaid, Who ſhall deceive Achab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-Gilead? and one ſaid on this manner, and another ſaid on that manner: But there came forth a Spirit, who ſtanding before Jehovah ſaid, I will perſuade him. To whom Jehovah ſaid, Wherewith? And he anſwered, I will go forth and be a lying Spirit in the Mouth of all his Prophets: And Jehovah ſaid, Thou ſhalt perſuade him, and prevail alſo; go forth and do ſo. Now therefore behold Jehovah hath put a lying Spirit in the Mouth of all theſe thy Prophets, and Jehovah hath ſpoken Evil concerning thee. But Zedekiah, the falſe Prophet, ſmote Micajah on the Cheek, ſaying, Which way went the Spirit of Jehovah from me to ſpeak unto thee? And Micajah anſwerd, Behold thou ſhalt know in that Day, when thou ſhalt go into an inner Chamber to hide thyſelf. This plain Dealing ſo inraged King Achab, that he committed Micajah to Priſon, ſaying, Feed this Fellow with the Bread and Water of Affliction, until I return in Peace: But Micajah, not terrifyd, ſaid, If thou return at all in Peace, Jehovah hath not ſpoken by me! And when carryd off to Priſon, he cried aloud, Hearken, O People, every one of you! Jehoſhaphat, either movd by a miſtaken Notion of Honour, or becauſe Ramoth-Gilead was a City of Refuge that concernd the Jews as well as the Iſraelites, or excited by his Soldiers, that, having had no Action at home, longd to try their military Skill, marched along with Achab, contrary to the Warning of God, to Ramoth; where he narrowly eſcapd the Fate of Achab. At Ramoth they met the Syrian Army, covering the Town in good Order, whoſe King commanded his 32 Generals to fight neither againſt ſmall nor great, ſave only againſt the King of Iſrael. But Achab, perhaps afraid of ſuch a Deſign, diſrobed himſelf, and, in the Habit of a private Officer, drove his Chariot into the Battel, while Jehoſhaphat ſat in his Royal Robes; ſo that the Syrians, thinking he was Achab, were going to ſurround him, till he cried out, and ſignify'd, that he was not the King of Iſrael; when Jehovah helpd him, by moving the Syrians to retire from him in queſt of Achab: But tho' they found him not, he did not eſcape the Hand of God; for a Man drew a Bow at a venture, and ſmote Achab between the Joints of the Harneſs; therefore the King ſaid to his Charioteer, Turn thy Hand, and carry me out of the Hoſt, for I am wounded; being afraid of falling into the Hands of the Syrians: Yet he conceald his Hurt from his Army, that they might not loſe Couarge, and ſtaid in his Chariot, obſtinately maintaining the Fight, until Sun ſet, when he died of an Effuſion of Blood in the Midſt of his Chariot; the News of which made the chief Officers of Iſrael to ſound a Retreat, and, leaving to the Syrians the Field of Battel, they returnd home the ſhorteſt Way, brought Achab's Body to Samaria, where it was buried; and his bloody Chariot being waſhed in the Pool of Samaria, the Dogs licked up the Blood, according to God's Word by Elijah. ACHAZIAH, the wicked Son of wicked Achab, now reignd alone a few Months only; for, falling down thro' a Latteſs in his upper Chamber in Samaria, he fell ſick, and ſent Meſſengers to Baal-zebub, the Idol-God of Ekron in Philiſtia, Whether he ſhould recover of his Diſeaſe? But the Angel of Jehovah directed Elijah to meet thoſe Meſſengers on the Road, ſaying, Is it not becauſe there is no God in Iſrael that ye go to Ekron? therefore ſaith Jehovah, Thou ſhalt not come down from thy Bed, but ſhalt ſurely die: And Elijah departed. They returning told the King the Cauſe why they returnd ſo ſoon, deſcribing the Prophet as an hairy Man, with a Girdle of Leather about his Loins; whereby the King knew it was Elijah, and ſent a Captain of 50 Men to ſeek for him, and by force to bring him quickly to Samaria; and the Captain, finding him on the top of an Hill, haughtily ſaid, Come down quickly to the King, thou Man of God! To which Elijah anſwerd, If I be a Man of God, then let Fire come down from Heaven, and conſume thee and thy 50 Men; which forthwith was fulfilld: And the ſame Judgment fell upon another Captain and his 50 Men, that came on the ſame Errand. But the third Captain humbled himſelf, and beggd his Life, and the Life of his 50 Men; wherefore the Angel of Jehovah ſaid to Elijah, Go down with him, be not afraid of him: And when the Prophet came to the King, he denounced his Death as before. So ACHAZIAH died without Iſſue, and the ſame Year was ſucceeded by X. JORAM, or JEHORAM, his Brother, viz. in the end of the 18th Year of Jehoſhaphat, and the ſecond Year of the Lieutenancy or Viceroyſhip of Jehoram, the Son of Jehoſhaphat, (as in the other Column) and reignd 12 Years: So that his 1ſt Year is parallel with the 19th Year of Jehoſhaphat. He was not ſo wicked and idolatrous as his Parents; for he deſtroyd the Statue of Baal that Achab had made: Yet he retaind the Calves of Dan and Bethel, and cleavd unto the Sins of Jeroboam I. the Son of Nebat.
The Syrians, to be revenged of Jehoſhaphat, ſtirrd up the Moabites, the Ammonites, and the Meonites, or Mehunims of Mount-Seir, to invade Judah, who came about by the South Parts of the Dead Sea, and incamped at Hazazon-Tamar near Engedi, a vaſt confiderate Army; upon which Jehoſhaphat proclaimd a general Faſt, and in a great Congregation at Jeruſalem in the Temple, did moſt pathetically and powerfully pray to Jehovah, who inſpird Jehaziel the	20	117	200	895	3109	556	80	2

the Levite to ſtand up in the Congregation, and aſſure them in the Name of Jehovah, That, if they marched to morrow they ſhould find the Enemy at the Cliff of Ziz in the Valley of the Wilderneſs of Jeruel, that they ſhould have no occaſion to fight, but to ſtand ſtill and ſee the Salvation of God. Upon which the King and all the People bowd themſelves before God, and joind in ſolemn Praiſe. And ſo when they advanced in the Morning, ſinging God's Praiſes along the Road as far as Tekoa, Jehovah confounded the Counſels of the Enemy, who fell upon each other until none eſcap'd, and all of 'em lay dead in the Field. Then Jehoſhaphat and his Army came to take the Spoil, which was very rich, and ſo large that they could not gather it in three Days, nor could carry it all off the Field. On the 4th Day they muſterd in the Valley of Berachah, where they ſolemnly returnd God Thanks, and came in good Order to Jeruſalem, praiſing God along the Road. This Appearance of Jehovah in Behalf of Judah, ſtruck Terror into the neighbouring Lands, that Jehoſhaphat had reſt round about.

Jehoſhaphat, having agreed to aſſiſt Joram, King of Iſrael, againſt Moab, (as in the other Column) thought it expedient to advance his Son Jehoram from being Vice-Roy, to be Partner in his Throne, while he was in the Field with the Army: For, 2 Kin. viii. 16, &c. it is ſaid, that in the 5th Year of Joram, the Son of Achab. while Jehoſhaphat was King of Judah, Jehoram, the Son of Jehoſhaphat, began to reign, aged 32, and reigned 8 Years in Jeruſalem.

JEHOSHAPHAT, before he went to the War againſt Moab, made his Laſt Will, and gave to his ſix younger Sons great Preſents of Silver and Gold, with fenced Cities in Judah; but he gave the Kingdom to JEHORAM his firſt Born. But as ſoon as Jehoſhaphat had gone with the Army againſt Moab,

V. JEHORAM, at the Inſtigation of his wicked Queen Athaliah, the Daughter of Jezebel, ſlew all his Brethren and ſome of the Princes of his Kingdom, and never let his Father Jehoſhaphat mount the Throne again: For Athaliah governed him, as her Mother Jezebel had governed Achab; ſo that JEHORAM departed from God and Goodneſs, following the curſed Example of the Kings of Iſrael; for which he was reproved by Elijah in a Letter, ſent a little before that Prophet's Aſcenſion into Heaven, as in the other Column.

When King Meſha found the confederate Army was come to his Borders, he raiſed all the fighting Men of Moab, to put a Stop to their Career, and to give them Battel, in order to prevent their Advancing into the Heart of his Country. But the Confederates could not advance farther for want of Water; which made King JORAM ſay, Alas! that Jehovah hath called three Kings together, to deliver them into the Hands of Moab: But King Jehoſhaphat ſaid like himſelf, Is there not here a Prophet of Jehovah, that we may enquire of Jehovah by him? To which one of King Joram's Servants ſaid, Here is Eliſha, who poured Water on the Hands of Elijah; and Jehoſhaphat ſaid, The Word of Jehovah is with him: So he and King Joram, and the King of Edom, did not ſend for him, but went down to him in the Neighbourhood of the Camp.

When Eliſha ſaw them, he ſaid to King JORAM, What have I to do with thee? get thee to thy Father's and Mother's Prophets; and Joram inſiſting on the Neceſſity of preſent Relief for three Kings and their Army, Eliſha ſaid, As the Lord of Hoſts liveth, before whom I ſtand, ſurely, were it not that I regard the Preſence of Jehoſhaphat, the King of Judah, I would not look towards thee nor ſee thee: But now bring me a Minſtrel; and while the Minſtrel playd ſome Songs of Praiſe, the Hand of Jehovah came upon him, and he ſaid, Thus ſaith Jehovah, make this Valley full of Ditches; for tho' you ſhall have neither Wind nor Rain, yet that Valley ſhall be filled with Water for Man and Beaſt: Nay, this is but a ſmall thing, for Jehovah will alſo deliver the Moabites into your Hands; and you ſhall ſmite every fenced and choice City, ſhall fell every good Tree, ſtop all Springs and Wells, and mar every good Piece of Land with Stones. Accordingly,

Next Morning, at the Time of the Meat-Offering, Water came in abundance, not by the Way of Moab, but by the Way of Edom; ſo that the Country behind the confederate Camp was filled with Water, which, by the Reflection of the Sun, appeared to the Camp of Moab all red like Blood; eſpecially, that the Moabites could not ſuppoſe Water to come without Wind and Rain; therefore they ſaid, This is Blood! the Kings are ſurely ſlain, and the Confederates have ſmitten one another! Moab to the Spoil!

KINGS of ISRAEL.

Upon the Death of Achab, the Moabites having revolted from their Allegiance to the Crown of Iſrael, King Joram loſt a conſiderable Tribute; for Meſha King of Moab was wont to pay to the King of Iſrael 100000 Lambs, and 100000 Rams with the Wool.

But Joram, willing to recover his Dominion over Moab, raiſd an Army out of all Iſrael, and ſent to deſire Jehoſhaphat to join him in the War againſt Moab, which he agreed to, ſaying, I am as thou art, my People as thy People, and my Horſes as thy Horſes; becauſe Moab had been ſubdued by King David, and had lately engagd againſt Judah in the Quarrel of the Syrians.

So theſe two Kings and their Armies joind, and by Conſent marchd firſt to Idumea, where they were joind by the King of Edom, who was a Tributary of Jehoſhaphat; and having reſted there ſometime, theſe three Kings marched round the South Side of the Dead Sea ſeven Days, till they came to the Borders of Moab.

Mean while Elijah, the great Prophet, wrote a Letter to JEHORAM, King of Judah, ſaying, Thus ſaith Jehovah, the God of David thy Father, becauſe thou haſt not walked in the Ways of Jehoſhaphat thy Father, nor of Aſa thy Grandfather, but in the Way of the Kings of Iſrael; and haſt made Judah to follow the Whoredoms of the Houſe of Achab; and alſo haſt ſlain thy Brethren, who were better Men than thyſelf; Behold! with a great Plague will Jehovah ſmite thy People, thy Children, thy Wives, and all thy Goods; and thou ſhalt have great Sickneſs, by being diſeaſed in thy Bowels, until thy Bowels gradually fall out.

Immediately after this Letter was ſent to JEHORAM, King of Judah, from Gilgal, Elijah travelled thence with Eliſha to Bethel, and from thence back to Jericho, (at both which Places the Sons of the Prophets believed Elijah was to be tranſlated) and from thence to the Jordan, which ELIJAH ſmote with his Mantle, and the Waters were divided hither and thither; ſo that they two paſſed over on dry Ground. Elijah at every Place had deſired Eliſha to tarry there; but when he found that Eliſha would not leave him, as dreading to part with him for ever, Elijah, on the Eaſt Bank of the Jordan, ſaid to Eliſha, Ask what I ſhall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee: To which Eliſha ſaid, I pray thee let a double Portion of thy Spirit be upon me! And Elijah ſaid, Thou haſt asked an hard thing; yet, if thou ſee me when I am taken from thee, it ſhall be ſo unto thee; but if not, it ſhall not be ſo. But Eliſha did ſee him; for, as they walked along the Eaſt Plains of the Jordan converſing together, behold there appeared a Chariot and Horſes of Fire, and parted them aſunder, and Elijah went up by a Whirlewind into Heaven! And Eliſha, ſeeing Elijah's triumphal Aſcent, cry'd out, My Father, my Father, the Chariot of Iſrael, and the Horſemen thereof! and when he ſaw him no more, he rent his Cloaths for Grief; and having took up Elijah's Mantle that fell from him, Eliſha walkt to the Jordan, and ſmote the Waters, ſaying, Where is JEHOVAH the God of Elijah? Upon which the Waters parted hither and thither, ſo that Eliſha walkt over dry; whereby he knew that the Spirit of Elijah reſted on him; as the Sons of the Prophets at Jericho did ſoon perceive, when they beheld the Miracle and the Mantle; for which they bowed themſelves to the Ground before him.

ELISHA tarried a little Time at Jericho, where the Prophets ſent out 50 Men to ſearch for Elijah dead or alive; but in vain; For he was not, becauſe God took him! and where ELISHA, at the Requeſt of the Inhabitants, miraculouſly cured the Springs and the Ground. From thence he went to Bethel, and on the Road was mocked by a Pack of wicked Children, ſaying, Go up thou bald Head! But Eliſha having curſed them in the Name of Jehovah, two She-Bears came forth of a Wood, and tore 42 of 'em. From Bethel he walkt to Carmel, and from thence to Samaria; where he was directed to travel to the Confederate Camp in Moab, as in the other Column.

Eliſha ſoon left the Camp in Moab, and travelled into the Land of Iſrael that Year, where a Prophet's Widow complain'd to him of her Poverty, and that her Creditors threaten'd to take her Sons as Bondmen for their Father's Debt, having nothing left but one Pot of Oil: Upon

The Moabites then attackt the Confederates, who riſing from their Trenches gave the Moabites a warm Reception, a total Rout, and purſued them into the Heart of their Country, which they ruined exactly according to Eliſha's Prophecy, and beſieged King Meſha in his Capital Kir-Haraſeth, which he bravely defended; and when he ſaw himſelf almoſt reduced, and the City near taken by the Confederates, like a gallant Man, he made a Sally with 700 Men, deſigning to break thro' the Edomites, and to eſcape to the Mountains of Moab: But when repulſed back into the City, like a Man in deep Deſpair, he took his own eldeſt Son that ſhould have reigned in his ſtead, the Prince Royal of Moab, the darling of the Moabites, and offered him for a Burnt-Offering, not in the Temple of Chemoſh, his Idol-God, but on the Wall, to terrify the Beſiegers, and that they might ſee what deſperate Courſes he would take, rather than be taken Priſoner; and how dear he would ſell his Life, to exaſperate the Moabites againſt the Confederates, and to raiſe Indignation among the Jews and Edomites againſt the Iſraelites, for driving him to this Extremity, by not offering him honourable Terms of Capitulation. Nor was he diſapointed; for the Siege was raiſed, by reaſon of the great Indignation againſt Iſrael, and the Confederates returned to their Lands, abhorring to turn a brave Man diſtracted and deſperate.

But others think it was the King of Edom*'s eldeſt Son,* that Meſha in the Sally took Priſoner, and upon his Repulſe did ſacrifiſe him on the Wall, as intimated Amos ii. 1. which occaſioned the Indignation againſt Iſrael, and the Raiſing of the Siege.

King JEHOSHAPHAT, upon his Return with the Army from the Land of Moab, ſeems not to have been admitted into his Share of Government with his Son Jehoram, who, by Murder, Idolatry, Violence, and his enterpriſing Wife's Counſel, with the Aſſiſtance of his Brother in Law Joram, King of Iſrael, ſtrengthen'd himſelf, and had become abſolute. The Loſs of his Sons might diſpoſe Jehoſhaphat againſt joining in Goverment with their Murderer, and rather to chuſe a retired Life in the Temple or elſewhere, for lamenting his Loſſes and Follies, for having been too much engaged in the Quarrels of the Houſe of Achab, for marrying his Son to Achab's wicked Daughter Athaliah, and for advancing his Son to be his Partner. Nay, ſome think Jehoſhaphat is call'd the King of Iſrael, 2 Chron. xxi. 2. by way of Reproach, for his Affinity with Achab and his Family, and for taking more Care of that Kingdom than of his own.

which Eliſha directed her to borrow many empty Veſſels, and to fill them with Oil from that Pot; which ſhe and her Sons believing, did as Eliſha had ordered, and the Miracle was performed, whereby ſhe had Oil enough to pay her Husband's Debts, and to ſubſiſt her Family.

Eliſha travelling often through Shunam, a great Lady there fitted up a Room for him, and courteouſly entertained him as he paſſed, for being a holy Man of God. Her Kindneſs to God's Prophet was well rewarded with a Promiſe from God, that next Year ſhe ſhould have a Son, (for ſhe was Childleſs, and her Lord an old Man) and with Warning from the Prophet, of providing for herſelf and Family, againſt the then begun Famine, aſſuring her that it ſhould laſt ſeven Years in Iſrael.

The Shunamite Lady and her Lord, upon the Warning, travelled into Philiſtia, 2 Kin. viii. 2. where ſhe bore her Son, and ſtaid there till the Famine was near gone from Iſrael. But Eliſha went to Gilgal, and reſided there in a College of Prophets during the Dearth, where he miraculouſly cured the deadly Pottage; and having got a Preſent of 20 Barley-Loaves, and ſome full Ears of Corn in the Husk, ſent him from Baal-ſhaliſha, (a Rarity at that Time) Eliſha miraculouſly multiply'd them for the feeding of 100 Men; who did eat and left thereof. From thence he went to Samaria, when NAAMAN, the mighty General of Syria, who was a Leper, being inform'd by his Lady's Maid, an Iſraeliteſs Captive, that Eliſha could cure him, he came to King Joram at Samaria, with a Letter from the King of Syria, deſiring Joram to recover Naaman of his Leproſy; upon which Joram rent his Cloaths, ſaying to his Counſellors, Am I a God, to kill and to make alive! Wherefore ſee how the King of Syria ſeeketh a Quarrel againſt me. But Eliſha ſent to King Joram, ſaying, Wherefore haſt thou rent thy Cloaths? let him come now to me, and he ſhall know that there is a Prophet in Iſrael. When Naaman came in State to the Door of Eliſha, the Prophet ſent out to him, ſaying, Go and waſh in Jordan ſeven Times, and thy Fleſh ſhall come again unto thee, and thou ſhalt be clean. But Naaman was wroth, and went away, ſaying, Behold, I thought he will ſurely come out to me, and ſtand and call upon Jehovah his God, and ſtrike his Hand over the Place, and recover the Leper: Are not Abana and Pharpar, Rivers of Damaſcus, better than all the Waters of Iſrael? May I not waſh in them and be clean? So he turned and went away in a Rage. But his Servants wiſely ſaid to him, My Father, if the Prophet had bid thee do ſome great thing, wouldſt thou not have done it? How much rather then, when he only ſaith, Waſh and be clean. This convinced Naaman, who forthwith obeyed, and the Miracle was wrought in his Cleanſing; whereby Naaman was converted from his Idolatry to the true Religion: For he returned from Jordan to Eliſha, ſaying, Behold now I know that there is no God in all the Earth but in Iſrael! and offered a large Preſent to the Prophet, which Eliſha ſolemnly refuſed. Then Naaman requeſted as much Earth of Iſrael as two Mules could carry, for making an Altar in Syria, ſaying, For thy Servant will henceforth offer neither Burnt-Offering, nor other Sacrifice to other Gods, but unto Jehovah! For this thing may Jehovah pardon thy Servant, for that when my Maſter hath gone into the Houſe of Rimmon to worſhip there, and he hath leaned upon my Hand, that I have alſo bowed myſelf in the Houſe of Rimmon for my worſhipping there; may Jehovah pardon thy Servant for this thing! And Eliſha aſſured him of Pardon, by bidding him Go in Peace.

But Gehazi, the Prophet's Servant, being covetous, ran after Naaman all the Way without his Maſter's Knowledge, and got, by telling a Lie, two Talents of Silver, and two Changes of Raiment, which he hid in the Houſe; yet could not eſcape his Maſter's Notice, for when he came home, Eliſha ſaid, Whence comeſt thou, Gehazi? and he ſaying, Thy Servant went no whither, the Prophet ſaid, Went not mine Heart with thee, when Naaman turned again from his Chariot to meet thee? Is it a Time to receive Money, and Garments, and Oliveyards, and Vineyards, and Sheep, and Oxen, and Men-Servants, and Maid-Servants? The Leproſy therefore of Naaman ſhall cleave unto thee and unto thy Seed for ever! And he went out from his Preſence a Leper as white as Snow.

King JEHOSHAPHAT died this Year, no doubt, very diſconſolate, by beholding the Idolatry and Wickedneſs of the Houſe of Achab to prevail in his Houſe and Kingdom, and he was buried in the Royal Sepulchre of the City of David.	25|3	122	205	890	3114	561	85	7	From Samaria the Prophet return'd to Gilgal, where the Sons of the Prophets obtain'd his Conſent to inlarge their Building; and while they were cutting Timber for that End at the Banks of the Jordan, one of them dropt his Ax into the Water, which Eliſha miraculouſly made to ſwim, ſo that the Man receiv'd it again. From thence he went to Dothan; and This Year the King of Syria warred againſt Iſrael, and by Advice of his Counſellers he ſet Ambuſhments for intrapping the Iſraelites at a certain Place; but Eliſha ſent to King JORAM due Notice and Warning thereof, whereby Joram ſaved himſelf more than twice. This perplexed the King of Syria, and made him ſuſpect ſome of his Servants had betray'd his Councils to Joram: But one of 'em ſaid, None of us, my Lord, O King! but Eliſha the Prophet telleth the King of Iſrael the Words thou ſpeakeſt in thy Bed-Chamber. Wherefore the Syrian King ſent a ſtrong Detachment to beſiege Dothan, and to bring thence Eliſha to him. The Appearance of this Army frighten'd Eliſha's Servant, but not himſelf, who ſaid, Fear not, for they that be for us are more than the Enemy! And after Eliſha had pray'd, Jehovah opened his Servant's Eyes to behold the Mountain full of Horſes and Chariots of Fire round about Eliſha. When the Syrians came to Dothan, and demanded Eliſha to be deliver'd up to them, the Prophet pray'd, that God would ſmite them with Blindneſs; and the Syrians were ſo far blinded, that they knew neither Eliſha nor the Place where they were: So that Eliſha went out himſelf and told them, This is not the Way, neither is this the City; follow me, and I will bring you to the Man whom you ſeek: But he led that Army to Samaria, when again he pray'd, that God would open their Eyes; which being done, they were, no doubt, ſurprized to find themſelves in the Midſt of Samaria. Then King JORAM ſaid to Eliſha, My Father, ſhall I ſmite them? But Eliſha forbid it, ſaying, Wouldſt thou ſmite thoſe whom thou haſt taken captive, with thy Sword and with thy Bow? Set Bread and Water before them, that they may eat, and drink, and go to their Maſter. So JORAM made great Proviſion for them, and ſent them home; which frighten'd the Bands of Syria from their Ambuſhments and Inroads for a Time.
King JEHORAM, upon his Father's Death, reigned alone about 5 Years, and carried on his Idolatry and Wickedneſs, by the Counſel of his curſed Wife, whereby he highly provoked God to puniſh him; firſt by the Revolt of the Edomites this Year, who, hearing of Jehoſhaphat's Death, would no more be govern'd by a Deputy from Judah, but aſſerted their Independency, and made a King of their own, juſt 150 Years after David had ſubdued them, [Tab. 12.] Upon the News, King JEHORAM went forth with his Princes, and all his Chariots as far as Zair, and, marching in the Night, ſmote the Edomites that were attempting to ſurround him, and ſlew the Captains of their Chariots. Nevertheleſs the Edomites perſiſted firm in their Revolt, and were never ſince that ſubject to the Crown of Judah, according to the Prophecy of Father ISSAAC, Gen. xxvii. 40. The ſame Time did Libnah, a City of the Prieſts in Judah, revolt from Jehoram, and made themſelves a little Republick, under the Protection of ſome neighbouring Princes; becauſe he had forſaken Jehovah the God of his Fathers.	4	123	206	889	3115	562	86	8

JEHORAM, going on in the evil Counſels of curſed Jezebel and Athaliah, had erected High-Places in the Mountains of Judah, and cauſed the Inhabitants of Jeruſalem to commit Fornication; nay, by the uſual Methods of Tyrants, compelled Judah to thoſe Abominations: Therefore God next puniſhed him this Year, by raiſing up againſt him the Spirit of the Philiſtins on the Weſt, and of the Arabians near the Ethiopians on the South, who the ſame Time penetrated into the Heart of Judah, carried off his Wives and all his Subſtance found in his Palaces, ſlew all his Sons except the youngeſt, and ſo gave him Cauſe to repent of Murdering his Brethren, and of departing from the true God.	6	125	208	887	3117	564	88	10	eat him to Day, and we will eat my Son to morrow; but ſhe hath hid her Son! Upon which the King rent his Cloaths, and put Sackcloth within upon his Fleſh, and ſaid, God do ſo and more alſo to me, if the Head of Eliſha ſhall ſtand on him this Day. But Eliſha, ſitting in his Houſe with the Elders, ſaid to them, See ye how this Son of a Murderer hath ſent to take away mine Head? Look, when the Meſſenger cometh, ſhut the Door and keep him out; is not the Sound of his Maſter's Feet behind him? When Joram came, he found it not practicable to cut off Eliſha's Head, while ſurrounded and guarded by the Elders; yet Joram declared his Infidelity and Deſpair, ſaying to Eliſha, This Evil is of Jehovah; why ſhould I wait for Jehovah any longer? To which the Prophet ſaid, Thus ſaith Jehovah, to morrow about this time, a Meaſure of fine Flower for a Shekel, and two Meaſures of Barley for a Shekel in the Gate of Samaria! Then a Lord, on whoſe Hand the King lean'd, anſwer'd, Behold, if Jehovah would make Windows in Heaven, might this thing be! To whom the Prophet ſaid, Behold thou ſhalt ſee it with thine Eyes, but ſhalt not eat of it! This wonderful Prophecy was as wonderfully fulfill'd; for four leprous Men thruſt out from the Heart of the City, and forced to reſide near the Gate, ſaid one to another, Why ſit we here until we die! if we enter the City, we ſhall die of the Famine; and if we ſit ſtill here, we ſhall die alſo! now therefore let us fall into the Hoſt of the Syrians; for if they ſave us alive, we ſhall live, and if they kill us, we ſhall but die. Accordingly, they ventured out in the Twilight, (for the Guards might be glad to be rid of 'em) and, coming to the Skirts of the Syrian Camp, found no Man there: For Jehovah had made the Syrian Hoſt to hear the Noiſe of a great Army with Chariots and Horſes; which made them ſay, Lo, the King of Iſrael hath hir'd againſt us the Kings of the Hittites, and of the Egyptians, to come upon us! Wherefore the Syrians fled in the Twilight for their Life, leaving their Camp as it ſtood: So that the Lepers enter'd their Tents, did firſt eat and drink, and carried thence Gold, Silver and Raiment, which they hid; and then came to the Gate, call'd to the Porter, told the good News, which was ſoon carried to King JORAM, who aroſe in the Night, believing it to be only a Feint of the Syrians to decoy the People out of Town; yet was adviſ'd to ſend two Horſemen, who went after the Syrians as far as the Jordan, finding all the Way full of Garments and Veſſels, that the Syrians had thrown away in their haſty Flight. When the Spies return'd, then The People went out and ſpoil'd the Tents of the Syrians; ſo that a Meaſure of fine Flower was ſold for a Shekel, and two Meaſures of Barley for a Shekel: And the King having appointed the foreſaid unbelieving Lord, to have the Charge of the Gate, the People, mad for Hunger, regarded no Ceremony, but crouding out, they trod him to death in the Gate-Way, whereby the Word of JEHOVAH was fully accompliſh'd.
King JEHORAM was next puniſhed with a ſore Diſeaſe in his Bowels, according to the Prophecy in Elijah's Letter above mention'd, of which he was never cured: Therefore, being diſabled from Government, he appointed his youngeſt and only Son ACHAZIAH to be Viceroy; for, 2 Kin. ix. 29. it is written, And in the 11th Year of King Joram, the Son of Achab, began Achaziah to reign over Judah. But his Father being alive, and reigning but one Year, he muſt have been only Viceroy this Year; unleſs we reckon the 11th Year of Joram, the Son of Achab, from Achab's Death, as ſome do, and ſo it will agree with 2 Kin. viii 25. that mentions Achaziah's coming to the Throne in the 12th Year of Joram, viz. from Joram's beginning to reign, or from the beginning of Joram's whole Reign, which was only the 11th Year of Joram's ſole Reign after Achab's Death: Tho' that ſeems to be better ſtated, by allowing him to be made Viceroy this Year, and King next Year, as in the following Paragraphs.	7	126	209	886	3118	565	89	11	The next Year is the laſt of the Dearth and Scarcity in Iſrael; for the Harveſt was good, and the good Shunamite, with her Husband and Son, being return'd from Philiſtia, her Son, above 5 Years old, went out one Morning to his Father among the Reapers, complain'd of a violent Headach, was carried home to his Mother, and ſat on her Knees till Noon, when he died. She laid his dead Body on the Prophet's Bed in the old Chamber, and lockt the Door; deſir'd her Husband to ſpare a young Man to ride with her to the Prophet then at Mount Carmel, and importuned Eliſha to go with her to Shunam, where he miraculouſly raiſed the Boy from Death. Not long after this, the good Shunamite Lady and her Son went to Samaria, in order to petition King JORAM to have an Eſtate reſtored to her Family, that had been poſſeſſed by others during her Abſence in Philiſtia: She came opportunely while the King was deſiring Gehazi to recount the great Acts of Eliſha, and while Gehazi was telling how his Maſter had reſtored a dead Body to life, he ſhew'd the King the Shunamite and her Son: Upon which the King order'd her Eſtate to be reſtored. This Account of the Shunamite and her Son belongs to the next Year, or the 11th of Joram. This Year Eliſha travell'd to Damaſcus, where King Benhadad lay ſick, who ſent Hazael, his General, with a rich Preſent to enquire of Jehovah, by the Prophet, ſaying, Thy Son Benhadad, King of Syria, hath ſent me, ſaying, Shall I recover of this Diſeaſe? And Eliſha bid him ſay, Thou mayſt certainly recover; yet ſaid further to Hazael, Jehovah hath ſhewed me, that he ſhall ſurely die! Then the Prophet, ſettling his Countenance on Hazael, began to weep; and Hazael, being aſhamed, ſaid, Why weepeth my Lord? And he anſwer'd, Becauſe I know the Evil that thou wilt do unto the Children of Iſrael, their ſtrong Holds wilt thou ſet on fire, and their young Men wilt thou ſlay with the Sword, and wilt daſh their Children, and rip up their Women with Child! But Hazael ſaid, Is thy Servant a Dog, that he ſhould do this great thing? To which Eliſha reply'd, Jehovah hath ſhewed me that thou ſhalt be King over Syria. Thus the Order given to Elijah, for the Anointing of Hazael, is now executed by this Prophecy of Eliſha. So Hazael told the King, that the Prophet ſaid, He ſhould ſurely recover: But next Day he dipt a thick Cloth in Water, and ſpread it on the King's Face till he died; and then he reign'd in his ſtead, having the Command of the Army.

Continuation of TABLE XV.

KINGS of JUDAH.

King JEHORAM's Diſeaſe growing worſe and worſe, he continued in great Miſery, dying a thouſand Deaths, a wretched Monument of God's Vengeance for the two laſt Years of his Life, until all his Bowels fell out, who had no Bowels of Mercy to his Brethren, and he expired without being lamented, as he had liv'd without being deſir'd, and was buried inglorious in the City of David, but not in the Royal Sepulchres, in the beginning of this Year: And the Inhabitants of Jeruſalem crown'd

VI. ACHAZIAH, the only Son of Jehoram, the Son of Jehoſhaphat, the Son of Aſa, the Son of Abijah, the Son of Rehoboam, King of Judah, who reign'd only one Year, for, 2 Kin. viii. 25. 'tis written, In the 12*th Year of* Joram, the Son of Achab, King of Iſrael, did Achaziah, the Son of Jehoram, King of Judah, begin to reign.

He is call'd Azariah, 2 Chr. xxii. 6. and Jehoachaz, 2 Chron. xxi. 17. but a ſeeming Contradiction muſt be reconcil'd about his Age: For, 2 Kin. viii. 26. he is ſaid to be aged 22 when he came to the Throne; whereas, in 2 Chron. xxii. 2. he is ſaid to be aged 42. Now this is reconcil'd by the Original, which, in the ſaid Book of Chronicles, ſhould be thus tranſlated, viz. ACHAZIAH was the Son of the 42 Years, that is, of the Houſe of Omri; for, in that ſame Text, his Mother Athaliah is call'd the Daughter of Omri, tho' ſhe was really the Daughter of Achab, the Son of Omri; whereby we are directed to this Solution, viz. That King Achaziah was aged 22 when his Father died, according to Our Chronology; but that his Mother Athaliah, the Grand-Daughter of Omri, was aged 42, being born in the 3d Year of Omri's Reign. The like Difficulty ſhall be ſolved in its Place about Jehoiakim.

Joaſh, the youngeſt Son of Achaziah, was born this Year, who came to be King after his Mother Athaliah's 6 Years Uſurpation. See the following Table.

ACHAZIAH did Evil in the Sight of Jehovah, walking in the Ways of the Houſe of Achab; for his curſed Mother Athaliah with her Kindred were his principal Counſellors, eſpecially after his Father's Death, and his Acceſſion to the Throne, perſuading him to be as wicked as themſelves, and to join with his Uncle, King JORAM, in raiſing an Army, and to go with him to Ramoth-Gilead; from whence he return'd to Jeruſalem, when Joram was wounded and return'd to Jezreel.

After this, Eliſha ſent the young Prophet to Ramoth, to anoint Captain Jehu King of Iſrael, (as in the other Column) who executed God's Vengeance on Achaziah; for the King had gone to viſit his Uncle Joram at Jezreel, and went forth with him to meet Jehu, whereby he met his Deſtruction: For, when he ſaw his Uncle ſlain, he fled into Samaria, where he hid himſelf, (while Jehu marched to Jezreel, made Jezebel Dogs Meat, ſent to Samaria for the Heads of Achab's Children, and in his Way to Samaria ſlew 42 of Achaziah's Kinſmen, met Jonadab, who join'd him, as in the following Table.) And when he came to Samaria, Jehu made ſearch for Achaziah, who, being brought before him, Jehu condemn'd him to die as a Branch of the Houſe of Achab; yet did not ſlay him at Samaria, but order'd him to be carried with a Guard towards Gur near Ibleam, and there to be ſlain in his Chariot; from whence his Coachman drove him as far as Megiddo, where he died of his Wound; perhaps becauſe in thoſe Parts his Father Jehoram had ſlain his Brethren, the other Sons of King JEHOSHAPHAT. Thus the different Accounts of his Death, in 2 Kin. ix. 27, &c. and in 2 Chron. xxii. 8, 9. are eaſily reconcil'd: For, in the Book of Kings, it is only ſaid, That Jehu followed after Achaziah, as he fled by the Garden of Jezreel, and ſaid to his Men, Smite him alſo in the Chariot at the going up to Gur: But it is not ſaid, that Achaziah fled to Gur. And in Chronicles it is ſaid, That Achaziah fled only to Samaria, where he hid himſelf; till he was brought to Jehu, who order'd him to be carried to Gur, and there ſlain. And in Kings it is ſaid, That Achaziah fled from Gur to Megiddo before he died: From whence his Servants carried his dead Body to Jeruſalem, where they buried him in his Sepulchre with his Fathers in the City of David; becauſe he was the Grandſon of good JEHOSHAPHAT.

Thus ended the one Year of Achaziah, and the Twelfth Year of JORAM.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

King JORAM, in Confederacy with Achaziah, King of Judah, now rais'd an Army againſt Hazael, King of Syria, and beſieging Ramoth-Gilead, he took it in, and planted a ſtrong Garriſon in it: But he bought it dear; for in the Attack Joram was ſore wounded, which made him return home to his Palace of Jezreel in order to be cur'd of his Wounds, while King Achaziah return'd to Jeruſalem.

Soon after this, Eliſha ſent a young Prophet to the Garriſon of Ramoth-Gilead, who, according to Eliſha's Directions, took aſide Jehu, the Son of Jehoſhaphat, the Son of Nimſhi, from among the other Captains into an inner Chamber, and poured a Box of Oil on his Head, ſaying, Thus ſaith Jehovah, the God of Iſrael, I have anointed thee King over the People of Jehovah, even over Iſrael! and thou ſhalt ſmite the Houſe of Achab thy Maſter; that I may avenge the Blood of my Servants the Prophets, and of others my Servants, at the Hands of Jezebel: For the whole Houſe of Achab ſhall periſh, and I will cut off from Achab all his Offspring, and make his Houſe like that of Jeroboam and Baaſha; and the Dogs ſhall eat Jezebel in the Portion of Jezreel, and there ſhall be none to bury her! Upon which the young Prophet open'd the Door and fled, as Eliſha had directed him. Thus the Command, that God gave to Elijah, was fulfilled by Eliſha and this young Prophet.

When Captain Jehu return'd to the Guard-Room, the other Captains asked him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad Fellow to thee? To whom he ſaid, You know the Man and his Communication: But when they importuned him, he told them all that the Prophet had done and ſaid to him. Then they haſted and took every Man his Garment, and put them under him on the top of the Stairs, and blew with Trumpets, ſaying, Jehu is King! Even in the Place where Achab was ſlain, and Joram received his Wounds.

Thus Jehu conſpir'd againſt King JORAM, and forthwith put his Plot in Execution, getting the Conſent of the Army to keep all Intelligence from Joram; and, mounting a Chariot, he drove ſtrait to Jezreel, where Joram was recovering of his Wounds, and where Achaziah, King of Judah, was come to viſit Joram: So that they knew nothing of Jehu and his Troop, till the Centry, or Watchman of Jezreel, ſpied them at a little Diſtance, when Joram ſent an Horſeman to ask in the King's Name, Is it Peace? To whom Jehu ſaid, What haſt thou to do with Peace? turn thee behind me: And having dealt ſo with another Meſſenger, the Watchman told the King of it, ſaying further, And the Marching is like the Driving of Jehu, for he driveth furiouſly. Upon which

King JORAM and King ACHAZIAH mounted their Chariots, and going out againſt Jehu, they met him in Naboth's Vineyard and Fields near the Palace, and JORAM ſaid, Is it Peace Jehu? To which Jehu reply'd, What Peace, ſo long as the Whoredoms of thy Mother Jezebel, and her Witchcrafts are ſo many? Then Joram wrung his Hands and fled, ſaying, Treachery, O Achaziah! But he could not flee far, becauſe Jehu drew a Bow with his full Strength, and ſmote Joram between his Arms; ſo that the Arrow went out at his Heart, and he ſunk down in his Chariot. Then JEHU order'd Bidkar, his Captain, to caſt Joram's dead Body into the Field of Naboth, ſaying, For remember, when thou and I rode together after Achab his Father, that Jehovah laid this Burden upon him! And ſo JEHU juſtify'd his Conduct by the Prophecy of Elijah above-mention'd.

Hereabouts may be placed the Protection of Lycurgus, about 108 Years before the Firſt Olympiad.

KINGS of JUDAH.

King Achaziah being ſlain, by Order of Jehu, in the end of this Year, his Servants brought his dead Corpſe from Megiddo, where he died, to Jeruſalem, and buried it in the Royal Sepulchre. Then

VII. ATHALIAH, his Mother, uſurp'd the Throne of Judah, during 6 Years; for Jehu having ſlain 42 of her Grand-Children, the Sons of Achaziah's Brethren, (as in the other Column) ſhe took care to murder all the Children of her Son Achaziah, and all the Seed Royal, and took upon her the Government.

Only JEHOSHEBAH the Daughter of King Jehoram, the Siſter of Achaziah, and Wife of JEHOIADAH the High-Prieſt, was protected by the Dignity of her Husband, and, abhorring her Mother Athaliah's Practices, took care to ſnatch away privately Achaziah's youngeſt Son JOASH, from falling into the Hands of Athaliah's Cut-throats, and, with her Husband's Aſſiſtance, ſhe kept the Royal Infant and his Nurſe in a ſecret Chamber of the Temple, during the Uſurpation of Athaliah, without her Knowledge; and Athaliah, not finding him in the Palace, might think him cut off with the reſt, and would not readily ſeek for any of the Seed Royal in the Temple; for ſhe had no ordinary Buſineſs there, being a Worſhipper of Baal, and either would not chuſe to frequent the Temple, or would not be permitted to enter all its Apartments, by Jehoiadah and thoſe that guarded the Holy Place: But ſhe might be eaſy by the Report of her Aſſaſſins, that all the Seed Royal were ſlain, tho' they were her own Grand-Children! O curſed Daughter of a curſed Mother!

ATHALIAH was guilty of Whoredoms as well as of Idolatry, and muſt have had Children by another Man, even while her Husband King Jehoram liv'd; becauſe it is written, 2 Chron xxiv. 7. For the Sons of Athaliah, that wicked Woman, had broken up the Houſe of God, and alſo all the dedicated Things of the Houſe of Jehovah did they beſtow upon Baalim. Now it may be juſtly ſuppos'd, that they were Men grown, and that ſhe lov'd theſe her Baſtards better than her other Children, becauſe they were educated to her Mind; and ſo to them ſhe deſign'd to leave the Crown of Judah, when ſhe had cut off her other Offſpring that were of the Houſe of David.

She eſtabliſh'd the Idolatry of her Father and Mother in Judah, even in Jeruſalem, erecting a Temple for Baal near the Temple of JEHOVAH.

At length Jehoiadah the High-Prieſt communicated the Secret, of having the true Heir of the Crown in a ſafe Place of the Temple, to ſeveral great Men of his Confidence, and chief Men in the Military; who went throughout Judah, and gather'd the Levites and the chief Fathers of Iſrael, and met them at Jeruſalem to ſee young Joaſh, and to follow the Directions of Jehoiadah, in the beginning of the 7th Year after the Death of King Achaziah. When they had ſeen Joaſh, they readily enter'd into Covenant with Jehoiadah, who thus ſtrengthen'd himſelf for making the Reſtoration; and, having prepared the People, Jehoiadah aſſembled a great Congregation in the Temple, where they made a Covenant with the young King, and ſwore Allegiance to him.

And ſo on the next Sabbath, Jehoiadah, having deliver'd to the Captains the Spears, Bucklers and Shields, that King David had dedicated, (for the Defence of the Temple then intended) he armed all the Prieſts and Levites, and order'd one Part to attend at the Palace, another at the Gate of Sur, and a third at the Gate behind the Guard-Houſe as Porters, and another Part of 'em to be the King's Body-Guards, to compaſs him round in going out or coming in, and to ſlay any that ſhould dare to come within the Ranges, or to enter the Holy Place, except the Prieſts and Levites: But all the Courts of the Temple were fill'd with the People, the joyful Spectators of that glorious Revolution. When all things were in readineſs, Jehoiadah the High-Prieſt brought forth the Royal Infant,

KINGS of ISRAEL.

In the end of this Year, the Royal Family of ACHAB being extinguiſh'd by the Death of JORAM, ſlain by Jehu in the Field of Naboth at Jezreel,

X. JEHU became King of Iſrael by the Army, and reigned 28 Years.

When he came to the Palace of Jezreel, old Jezebel heard of it, painted her Face, tired her Hair, and look'd out at a Window, ſaying with Scorn to Jehu, Had Zimri Peace who ſlew his Maſter? But he, lifting up his warlike Face, ſaid, Who is on my Side? who? And, ſeeing two or three Eunuchs or Chamberlains, Jehu ſaid, Throw her down! And, having thrown her down head-long, ſome of her Blood was ſprinkled on the Wall and on the Horſes, and Jehu trod her under foot. Then King JEHU enter'd the Palace, and having refreſh'd himſelf, he ſaid, Go, view now this curſed Woman, and bury her; for ſhe is a King's Daughter? But when they went to bury her, they found no more of her than the Skull, and the Feet, and the Palms of her Hands; and returning told Jehu of it, who ſaid, This is the Fulfilling of the Word of Jehovah, ſpoken by Elijah, ſaying, In the Portion of Jezreel ſhall Dogs eat the Fleſh of Jezebel!

Then JEHU wrote to the Rulers, the Elders, and the Governours of Achab's 70 Sons at Samaria, adviſing them in Banter to ſet up one of thoſe Royal Sons, and fight for him: But, they being terrify'd, ſent their Anſwer, ſaying, We are thy Servants, and will do all that thou ſhalt bid us; we will not make any King: Do thou what is good in thine Eyes! To which he reply'd in a Letter, ſaying, If you be mine, come to me to morrow at Jezreel with the Heads of Achab's Sons. Accordingly they ſlew thoſe 70 Sons, and ſent their Heads in Baskets to Jezreel. JEHU order'd the Heads to be laid in two Heaps at the Palace-Gate, and ſaid to all the People, You be righteous! behold, I conſpir'd againſt my Maſter, and ſlew him; but who ſlew all theſe? Know now that nothing ſhall fail of the Word of Jehovah, ſpoken by Elijah. So JEHU ſlew all that remain'd of the Houſe of Achab in Jezreel, all his great Men, his Kinsfolks, and his Prieſts, until none remain'd.

JEHU left the Palace, and, marching to Samaria, met by the way 42 Kinſmen of Achaziah, King of Judah, (call'd his Brethren, being the Sons of his Brethren, for his proper Brethren had been ſlain) going to ſalute the Royal Family of Achab, and order'd them to be all ſlain, and thrown into a Pit.

Near Samaria JEHU met Jehonadab, the Son of Rechab, the Deſcendant of Jethro, Moſes's Father in Law, (ſee Tab. 11.) coming to join him, whom he took up in his Royal Chariot, ſaying, Come with me, and ſee my Zeal for Jehovah! This is that Jonadab, who made a Law for his Family, mention'd at length in Jer. xxxv. 1——11. He was a good Man and a zealous Enemy of Idolatry, of whom Jehu was fond.

When JEHU came to the City, he ſlew all that remain'd to Achab at Samaria, and, hearing that King Achaziah was hid there, he made ſearch for him, and condemn'd him to be ſlain, as in the other Column

Then, to ſhew to Jonadab his Zeal for Jehovah, JEHU ſubtilly ſaid to all the People, Achab ſerved Baal but a little, but Jehu ſhall ſerve him much! Now therefore call unto me all the Prophets, Prieſts and Servants of Baal, let none be wanting, for I have a great Sacrifice to offer to Baal; whoever is abſent ſhall not live. And, having proclaim'd a ſolemn Aſſembly for Baal, JEHU ſent thro' all Iſrael for the Worſhippers of that Idol, and every one of them came to Samaria, ſo that the large Temple of Baal was cram'd with them: But JEHU and Jonadab went into the Temple, and made ſtrict Search for any of the Servants of Jehovah, and none being found there, but only the Worſhippers of Baal, JEHU placed 80 Soldiers without to let none eſcape, and as ſoon as the Burnt-Offering was over, and they began their Muſick, he ſent in upon them a Band of

Soldiers

VIII. King JOASH, or JEHOASH, aged about 7 Years, put the Crown upon him, gave him the Teſtimony, anointed him, and made him King with the Conſent of the People, who clapt their Hands, ſaying, God ſave the King! And he reign'd 40 Years.

This Solemnity was well kept from the Knowledge of Athaliah, till ſhe heard at the Palace the Noiſe of the People running and praiſing the King; when ſhe went forthwith to the Temple, and walkt thro' the People, even within the Ranges; where ſeeing the Guards ſtanding on the right and left Side of the Temple, and young King JOASH ſtanding at his Pillar, at the Entry of the Holy Place, according to Cuſtom, with the Princes, and hearing the Singers and Trumpets perform their Parts, and all the People rejoice as with one Voice, without paying her the leaſt Homage, ſhe rent her Cloaths, and cry'd out, Treaſon, a Conſpiracy! But Jehoiadah order'd the Captains not to pollute the Temple with her Blood, but to lead her without the Ranges, and to ſlay all that would follow her: So when they brought her to the Horſe-Gate near the Palace, they ſlew her, the laſt Branch of the Houſe of Achab, King of Iſrael; and, no doubt, her wicked Baſtards periſh'd with her, for we read no more of them but as above-hinted

Jehoiadah then made the King, the Prieſts, the Princes, and the People, enter into a ſolemn Covenant to become the People of Jehovah, in Oppoſition to all other Gods; and, to ſhew their Sincerity, the People went forthwith and broke down the Temple of Baal, beat his Altars and Images to Pieces, and ſlew Mattan the High-Prieſt of Baal at the Altars.

Mean while Jehoiadah reſtored the Offices in God's Temple, according to the Diſtribution of David, with the Sacrifices and the other Parts of Divine Service, according to the Law of Moſes, that had been lately impair'd: And when the People return'd from deſtroying Baal's Temple, Jehoiadah, with the Captains, the Nobles, the Governours, and all the People, brought the King from the Temple through the High-Gate into the Palace Royal, and ſet him upon the Throne of the Kingdom; and all the Land rejoiced, and the City was quiet, after they had ſlain Athaliah with the Sword. This was a glorious Day in Jeruſalem.

King JOASH, under the Management of Jehoiadah, the good Regent, ruled well; and, even after he came to full Age, he did what was right before God all the Days of Jehoiadah's Life, following his good Inſtructions: Only the High-Places were not taken away; for in them the People ſtill ſacrifiſed and burnt Incenſe.

Jehoiadah, the Regent, obſerving that Iſrael and Judah had ſuffer'd great Miſchief by two curſed Queens, Jezebel and her Daughter Athaliah, provided two good Wives for his young King, the firſt of whom was Jehoaddan, a Lady of Jeruſalem, who bore to him

Amaziah this Year; for he was aged 25 Years when he ſucceeded his Father JOASH in the Throne, 2 Kin. xiv. 2. He was born when King Joaſh was aged 22.

JOASH, obſerving the Temple to be much out of Repair, (for Athaliah's Baſtard-Sons had demoliſh'd much of it, and had carry'd the dedicated Things to the Temple of Baalim) aſſembled the Prieſts and Levites, and commanded them to go throughout Judah, to gather Money of all Iſrael from Year to Year, and therewith to haſten the Reparations of that glorious Edifice. But when he ſaw that the Levites did not make haſt enough, JOASH call'd for old Jehoiadah, and the other Prieſts in the XIIth Jubilee Year,——— and chid them for not forwarding the good Work, and forbid them to receive any more Money; but order'd a Cheſt, with an Hole in its Lid, to be ſet beſide the Great Altar without the Door of the Holy Place; and made Proclamation throughout the Kingdom, for all People to bring thither the Collection, appointed by Moſes for the Tabernacle of Witneſs; which the Princes and wealthy willing People rejoiced at, and readily caſt into the Cheſt more than the Statute of Moſes requir'd.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

Soldiers that ſmote them all with the Edge of the Sword, brought forth their Images and burnt them, broke down the great Image of Baal and his Temple, which became a Draught-Houſe ever after. Thus JEHU deſtroy'd Baal out of Iſrael.

Wherefore Jehovah, by a Prophet, ſaid to JEHU, Becauſe thou haſt done well, in executing what is right in my Eyes, and haſt done unto the Houſe of Achab according to all that was in my Heart, thy Children of the fourth Generation ſhall ſit on the Throne of Iſrael! Which Promiſe was fulfill'd exactly; for his Son Jehoachaz, and his Son Jehoaſh, and his Son Jeroboam II. and his Son Zachariah, came ſucceſſively to be Kings of Iſrael.

But JEHU, no doubt, had obtained a more ample Promiſe, if he had took heed to walk in the Law of Jehovah, the God of Iſrael, with all his Heart: Whereas, tho' he had deſtroy'd Baal's Worſhip, Jehu carried on his Reformation no farther, and departed not from the Sins of Jeroboam, the Son of Nebat, but maintain'd and patroniz'd the Idolatry of the Golden Calves at Bethel and Dan all his Days. Therefore God ſent —

Hazael, King of Syria, againſt him, who ſmote them in all the Coaſts of Iſrael Eaſt of the Jordan, viz. the Reubenites, the Gadites, and Half Manaſſites, from Aroer near the Arnon even to Baſhan and Gilead: For in thoſe Days Jehovah began to cut Iſrael ſhort; but permitted Jehu to poſſeſs the Land of Iſrael Weſt of the Jordan.

So after JEHU had reign'd full 28 Years he died, and was buried among the Kings of Iſrael in Samaria, and was ſucceeded by

XI. JEHOACHAZ his Son, who reigned in all 17 Years; and he following alſo the Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, God puniſh'd him by ſending againſt him Hazael, the King of Syria, who, having already threſhed Gilead with Inſtruments of Iron, (Amos i. 3.) came now invading Iſrael Weſt of the Jordan, penetrated into the Heart of the Country, and ſecur'd his Paſſage thro' Iſrael even to Philiſtia, which he invaded, and, having took the ſtrong City of Gath, he became the Terror of all the neighbouring Nations: But in the Land of Iſrael, Hazael requir'd, until they finiſh'd the Repairs of the Temple; the King's Secretary and the High-Prieſt's Officer emptying the Cheſt every Day; and the King and Jehoiadah paying the Workmen by the Hands of faithful Men that were not call'd to Account; nor was any of the Money imploy'd for any other Uſe, until the Temple was put into its former State and Strength: But then they gave the Remainder of the Money to the King and Jehoiadah, whereof were made Veſſels for the Houſe of the Lord that were much wanted; tho' they were ſoon wanted again.

For Hazael, King of Syria, having ſubdued Iſrael and Philiſtia, and taken Gath, (as in the other Column) publiſh'd his Reſolution to beſiege Jeruſalem: Upon the News, King JOASH took all the hallow'd Things of the Temple, that he and his Fathers Achaziah, Jehoram and Jehoſhaphat had dedicated, and he took all the Gold found in the Temple and in the Palace, and ſent it all to Hazael, whereby the Syrian turn'd Northward from Jeruſalem to his Conqueſts in Iſrael.

But we may well ſuppoſe, that Jehoiadah, the good High-Prieſt, was dead; elſe he would have found Ways and Means to preſerve the precious Things of the Temple, and to prevent this ſcandalous Homage of King JOASH to the Syrian Tyrant: For it is written, 2 Chr. xxiv. 14, &c. That after the Veſſels of Gold and Silver were made for the Temple, They offer'd Burnt-Offerings there continually all the Days of Jehoiadah; who died, aged 130 Years, and was buried in the City of David, among the Kings, for the Good he had done.

After Jehoiadah's Death, the Princes of Judah (thoſe eſpecially that had retain'd their Idolatry in ſecret) came to King JOASH, and, having made flattering Obeyſance to him, prevail'd with him to hearken to their wicked Counſels; and ſo He and the Princes left the Temple of Jehovah, the God of their Fathers, and ſerved Groves and Idols; and God's Wrath came upon Judah and Jeruſalem for this their Treſpaſs.

Thus Judah, by the Example of their apoſtate King and Princes, became an idolatrous People; nay, obſtinate in their Treſpaſs: For, tho' God ſent ſeveral Prophets to bear their Teſtimony againſt them, and to reclaim them to Jehovah, they would not give ear.

When JOASH had reigned full 37 Years, in the beginning of this Year, his Nameſake Jehoaſh, or Joaſh, began to reign over Iſrael, as Partner firſt with his Father Jehoachaz.

And now, while the Kingdom of Iſrael begins to revive, Judah decays apace; for Joaſh and his Princes, having forſaken the true God, are forſaken of him, and left to their own Deluſions.

At length the Spirit of God came upon Zachariah the Prieſt, the Son of Jehoiadah, (called alſo Berachiah, Mat. xxiii. 35.) who ſtood above the People, and ſaid, Why tranſgreſs ye the Commandment of Jehovah? You cannot proſper, for, becauſe you have forſaken Jehovah, he hath forſaken you! Which faithful, ſolemn and ſeaſonable Warning, being, no doubt, often repeated, gave great Offence to that apoſtate People, who conſpired againſt him, and, at the Command of King JOASH, they ſton'd him to death in the Court of the Temple, between the Great Altar and the Holy Place; and, when expiring, the good Prieſt and Prophet ſaid, Jehovah look upon it, and require it! 2 Chron. xxiv. 21, 22.

burnt their ſtrong Holds, ſlew their young Men with the Sword, and their Infants with Daſhing, and ript up their Women with Child; according to the Prophecy of Eliſha: So that Jehoachaz could not ſtand before him, but fled from Place to Place during almoſt all his Reign; for Hazael ſorely oppreſſed Iſrael while he liv'd.

At length Hazael, King of Syria, after a long and triumphant Reign, died; yet Benhadad, his Son and Succeſſor, maintain'd his Father's Conqueſts, and oppreſs'd Iſrael after the ſame manner; tho' not long: For

King JEHOACHAZ, under his long Affliction, became ſo wiſe as to pray at laſt, not to the Calves of Dan and Bethel, but to Jehovah only, who hearken'd unto him, was gracious to Iſrael, and had Compaſſion on them; becauſe of his Covenant with Abraham, Iſaac and Jacob, and would not yet deſtroy them, by caſting them out of his Preſence: But gave to Iſrael a Saviour, tho' they were firſt ſorely reduc'd, being beat by the Syrians like Duſt by threſhing, and King Jehoachaz could muſter no more than 10 Chariots, 50 Horſemen, and 10000 Footmen; for Benhadad had deſtroy'd all the other military Men. The Saviour that God rais'd was

XII. JEHOASH, or JOASH, the Son of King Jehoachaz, who in the 16th Year of his Father's Reign, and the end of the 37th Year, or beginning of the 38th of the Reign of Joaſh, King of Judah, was advanc'd to be Partner with his Father in the Throne, and reigned 16 Years in Samaria with great Grandeur, to the Support and Comfort of his Father's latter Days.

This young King wiſely viſited Eliſha, then a dying, and wept over the Prophet's Face, ſaying, O my Father, my Father, the Chariots of Iſrael, and the Horſemen thereof! as Eliſha had ſaid of Elijah at his Rapture. The Prophet well rewarded the King's kind Viſit, bidding him take Bow and Arrows, and to put his Hand upon the Bow, and Eliſha, putting his Hands upon the King's Hands, bid him open the Window Eaſtward towards Syria, and ſhoot, ſaying, The Arrow of Jehovah's Deliverance, and the Arrow of Deliverance from Syria! for thou ſhalt ſmite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou haſt conſumed them! Then Eliſha bid the King take Arrows and ſmite on the Ground, and the King ſmote thrice, and ſtaid; which offended Eliſha, who ſaid to the King, Thou ſhouldſt have ſmote five or ſix times; for then hadſt thou ſmitten Syria, till thou hadſt conſumed it; whereas thou ſhalt ſmite Syria but thrice.

So the great Prophet Eliſha died, and was honourably buried in the Sepulchre of his Fathers at Abel-Meholah.

Then King Jehoaſh, raiſing his ſmall Forces, began to accompliſh the Prophecy of Eliſha, and beat the Syrian Army out of the Field the firſt Time.

Benhadad, King of Syria, now deſigning to give King JEHOASH a Diverſion, inſtigated the Moabites to raiſe ſome Bands of military Men, to invade and ſpoil the Land of Iſrael; and one of thoſe Bands, marching towards Abel-Meholah, diſturbed the People burying a Man, who therefore caſt the Corpſe haſtily into the Sepulchre of Eliſha; but when it touched the Bones of Eliſha, the Man reviv'd and ſtood upon his Feet, in the beginning of Jehoaſh's 2d Year.

But King Jehoaſh, having diſperſed the Bands of the Moabites, drew forth his Army againſt Benhadad, and obtain'd the ſecond Victory over the Syrians.

And

KINGS of JUDAH.

Thus King Joaſh remember'd not the Kindneſs of Jehoiadah, but ſlew his Son Zachariah, and by 2 Chron. xxiv. 25. it ſeems the King ſhed the Blood of ſeveral of Jehoiadah's Sons: But Jehovah did amply requite it.

For firſt Joaſh was grievouſly afflicted with ſore Diſeaſes, and at the end of the Year, God animated Benhadad to ſend a ſmall Army of Syrians againſt Judah and Jeruſalem, and Jehovah deliver'd into their Hands the great Army of Judah: Thus the Syrians executed God's Judgment againſt Joaſh; for they deſtroy'd all the Princes of the People, and carried off great Spoil to their King at Damaſcus, leaving King Joaſh under great Diſeaſes: So that, being unfit for Government,

X. AMAZIAH, his Son, was advanc'd to be his Partner in the Throne, in the ſame ſecond Year of Jehoaſh, King of Iſrael, 2 Kin. xiv. 1. But ſoon after the Syrians were gone home, two of JOASH's Servants conſpir'd againſt him, and ſlew him on his Bed; and the People buried him in the City of David, but not in the Royal Sepulchre.

Therefore, tho' Amaziah began to reign in the 39th Year of his Father, and in the 2d Year of Jehoaſh, King of Iſrael; yet the 29 Years of his Reign are not reckon'd from thence, but from the 40th Year of his Father, when he was juſt 25 Years old, 2 Kin. xiv. 2. and began to reign alone 29 Years; that is, 14 Years Contemporary with Jehoaſh, King of Iſrael, and 15 Years after the Death of Jehoaſh, 2 Kin. xiv. 17. which regulates the Commencement of his Reign, the laſt, or 40th Year of King Joaſh, being the firſt of King Amaziah.

This King, much like his Father, began well, but ended ill, and made much the ſame ſort of Exit: For he began doing what is right before Jehovah, tho' not with a perfect Heart; and, as ſoon as the Kingdom was eſtabliſh'd to him, King AMAZIAH ſlew the two Servants that had murder'd his Royal Father; but he ſlew not their Children, according to the Law of Moſes, Deut. xxiv. 16. Yet the High Places were not taken away, and in them the People ſtill ſacrifiſed and burnt Incenſe, as well as in the Temple.

AMAZIAH muſter'd all the fighting Men in his Kingdom from 20 Years old and above, and found them 300000 choice Men for War, fit to handle Shield and Spear, and made Colonels over Thouſands, and Captains over Hundreds, according to their Families.

King AMAZIAH, intending an Expedition againſt the Edomites, hir'd 100000 valiant Men of Iſrael, for 100 Talents of Silver: But by a Prophet he was diſſuaded from taking thoſe Auxiliaries with him, and rather to loſe his 100 Talents than provoke God to deſert him; and ſo the King ſent them back to Ephraim, who were therefore very angry, and, in their Return, they fell heavy on the Cities of Judah, kill'd 3000 People, and carried off great Spoil.

At laſt he marched his Army into Mount Seir, pitching in the Valley of Salt, and took the Rock Selah by Siege, (which he called Joktheel) ſlew 10000 Edomites, and caſt down 10000 more of 'em from the top of the Rock, where they were daſh'd to pieces.

But tho' AMAZIAH overcame the Edomites, he was overcome by their Idolatry; for, having brought home their Image-Gods, he bowed down before them, and burnt Incenſe to them; whereby he provoked the Anger of Jehovah, who ſent a Prophet, ſaying, Why haſt thou ſought after the Gods that could not deliver their own Worſhippers out of thy Hand? To which the King ſaid, Art thou a Member of the Privy Council? forbear; why ſhouldſt thou be ſmitten? So the Prophet forbore, but at parting ſaid, I know that God hath determined to deſtroy thee, becauſe thou haſt done this, and haſt not hearkened to my Counſel. Which Prophecy was ſoon accompliſh'd: For AMAZIAH, too elated by his Victory over the Edomites, ſent an inſolent Meſſage to Jehoaſh King of Iſrael, provoking him to Battel, ſaying, Come, let us look one another in the Face!

KINGS of ISRAEL.

And now JEHOACHAZ, having manag'd Affairs at home, while his Partner and Son King Jehoaſh purſued the War abroad, and having ſeen the Revival of his Kingdom, died in Peace this Year, and was buried in the Royal Sepulchre at Samaria, and left the ſole Government to his valiant and worthy Son.

But Benhadad was not ſo weaken'd yet, as to be unable to diſtreſs Judah and Jeruſalem by a Detachment of his Army; as in the other Column: Nay, the Syrians, having much recruited their Strength by the Spoils of Judah, raiſed a great Army againſt Iſrael, and incamped in the Plains of Aphek; where the valiant King Jehoaſh attack'd them, and gave them the third total Rout, (according to the Prophecy of dying Eliſha.)

So that the Syrians came no more into the Land of Iſrael, and King JEHOASH recover'd all the Cities, that Hazael and Benhadad took from his Father Jehoachaz, (but not what Hazael took from Jehu his Grandfather) and thus became the Saviour of Iſrael, delivering his People from the Oppreſſion of the Syrians, and making them dwell ſecurely in their Tents, as in former Times of Peace.

Nevertheleſs, they departed not from the Idolatry of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, but worſhipped ſtill before the Calves at Dan and Bethel, and in the Grove at Samaria; which cauſed their Extirpation at laſt.

Yet King JEHOASH reign'd in great Splendor, and his Kingdom revived and flouriſhed apace, his People encreaſing and becoming again a very warlike Nation: And for ſome Reaſons of State he advanc'd his Son JEROBOAM II. to be his Partner in the Throne, or to rule at Home, while his Father Jehoaſh proſecuted his Wars Abroad, or was imploy'd perhaps in fortifying his Kingdom round the Frontiers. But though the 41 Years of Jeroboam's Reign are only reckon'd from his Father's Death, or the Years of his ſole Reign; yet, becauſe it is written, 2 Kin. xv. i. That Azariah King of Judah began to reign in the 27th Year of this Jeroboam, we ſuppoſe, that Jeroboam was now made his Father's Partner, for adjuſting them 27 Years: Whereby the Interregnum, or Vacancy of the Throne of Iſrael upon the Death of Jeroboam, will be found to laſt only 11 Years and 6 Months; whereas they who allow not of Jeroboam's becoming now his Father's Partner, make the ſaid Interregnum to laſt 22 Years, which is rather too long: Nor is there any Abſurdity in this Allowance; for it only makes Jeroboam to have reign'd in all 52 Years, (as Azariah did in Judah) viz. 11 Years as Partner with his Father, not reckon'd in Scripture, and 41 Years after his Father's Death.

King JEHOASH, being provoked by King Amaziah's inſolent Meſſage, (as in the other Column) ſent him his Anſwer, The Thiſtle ſent to the Cedar in Lebanon, ſaying, Give thy Daughter which prov'd almoſt his Ruin (as in the other Column) having loſt his Honour and Wealth by loſing the Battel of Bethſhemeſh; for the Idols of Edom could not aſſiſt him, when Jehovah had abandon'd him to the Domination of Jehoaſh King of Iſrael, who made him his Tributary.

Yet under his Diſaſters he had ſome Comfort; for mean while his Queen Jecholiah bore to him

Uzziah, or Azariah, his Son; for he was aged 16 when his Father Amaziah died: And likewiſe he was deliver'd from his Homage by the Death of his Enemy Jehoaſh King of Iſrael, (as in the other Column) the ſame Year he was beat at Bethſhemeſh.

So that the 15th Year of Amaziah is the firſt Year of Jeroboam's ſole Reign.

But tho' Amaziah liv'd after the Death of Jehoaſh King of Iſrael 15 Years, he reign'd inglorious; nor did his Afflictions work any Reformation in him; but he continued a perverſe Idolater, and his Kingdom continued weak and poor; becauſe he turn'd away from following Jehovah.

At laſt, his People ſeeing Iſrael flouriſh, while they were miſerable, and imputing all their Miſfortunes to their weak and wicked King, conſpired againſt him at Jeruſalem; and Amaziah, diſcovering their Plot, fled to Lachiſh: But, before he could gather an Army, the Conſpirators purſued him, and ſlew him at Lachiſh; yet brought back his Corpſe, and buried him with his Fathers in the City of David: And, to ſhew their Love to the Royal Family, all the People of Judah met, and crowned his Son Azariah, or Uzziah, then 16 Years old.

XI. UZZIAH, or Azariah, the Son of Amaziah, aged 16, began to reign in the 16th Year of the ſole Reign of King Jeroboam II. or 27th Year of Jeroboam's beginning to reign, (as above hinted, and as in the other Column) and reigned 52 Years.

He did that which was right in the Sight of Jehovah, (as Amaziah his Father had done in the beginning of his Reign) being under the Influence of the Prophet Zachariah, who was well skill'd in the Viſions of God, and who taught the young King to ſeek unto Jehovah only, and to abhor Idolatry; and, as long as he ſought Jehovah, God made him to proſper: For King Uzziah imploy'd Jeiel the Scribe, and Maaſeiah the Ruler, to muſter the fighting Men of his Kingdom, and rais'd an Army of 307500, under their Chiefs 2600, commanded by Hananiah the General; and for them the King prepar'd the military Arms of thoſe Times, viz. Shields, Spears, Helmets, Habergeons, Bows, and Slings to caſt Stones.

He alſo rebuilt that Part of the Wall of Jeruſalem, which Jehoaſh King of Iſrael had demoliſh'd in the 14th Year of his Father Amaziah, and built ſtrong Towers at the Corner-Gate, at the Valley-Gate, and at the Turnings of the Wall, and fortify'd 'em, and got Engines invented by fine Artiſts, to be placed on the Towers and Bulwarks, to ſhoot Arrows and great Stones.

This King, loving Agriculture and Paſtorage, had many Huſbandmen, and alſo Vine-Dreſſers in the Mountains and fruitful Fields; and, having much Cattel, he built Towers in the Deſert for the Defence of his Flocks, and digged many Wells or Ciſterns for their Watering.

His firſt Attack was upon the Mehunims and Edomites, which ſeems to have been (2 Chron. xxvi. 2.) ſoon after the Burial of his Father; having beat 'em in the Field, he penetrated as far to my Son to Wiſe; but mean while a wild Beaſt paſſing by, trod down the Thiſtle! Thou haſt indeed ſmote Edom, and thine Heart hath lifted thee up; glory of that and tarry at home; for why ſhouldſt thou meddle to thy hurt, and fall, and Judah with thee?

But Amaziah, being left of God, would not liſten to this good Advice, and, having prepar'd his Army, march'd to Bethſhemeſh in Judah, where Jehoash met him with his Army; and, having view'd one another in the Front of their Battallions, they join'd Battel, in which the Iſraelites beat the Jews out of the Field; and Jehoaſh, having took Amaziah Priſoner, carried him from Bethſhemeſh to Jeruſalem; where Jehoaſh broke down 100 Cubits of the Wall, from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner-Gate, and ſeiz'd upon all the Gold, Silver and Veſſels of the Temple, and the Treaſure of the Palace; and having took ſome chief Perſons as Hoſtages for Amaziah's Homage, Tribute and good Behaviour, he left Amaziah in a poor Caſe at Jeruſalem, and return'd to Samaria. But he did not long enjoy this Triumph; for

Upon his Return he fell ſick, and died at the end of the Year, when they honourably buried him with his Fathers in Samaria; and his Son

XIII. JEROBOAM II. ſucceeded to reign alone during 41 Years, after he had reign'd with his Father Jehoaſh 11 Years, in all 52.

Eaſt Iſrael or the Tribes of Reuben, Gad and Half Manaſſeh had been brought under Bondage by Hazael, King of Syria, in King Jehu's Time, and were not deliver'd by valiant King Jehoaſh: And Jehovah ſaw the Affliction of Eaſt Iſrael (not of Weſt Iſrael that flouriſh'd then) that it was very bitter; for they had none ſhut up in a wall'd City, nor any Army left in the Field, nor any Saviour to help them: But upon their crying to Jehovah, their Fathers God, he ſent the Prophet Jonah, the Son of Amittai of Gath-Hepher, to aſſure them that he would not yet blot out the Name of Iſrael from under Heaven, and that King Jeroboam II. ſhould be their Saviour.

Therefore this politic, enterprizing, and warlike Prince, being encouraged by that Prophet, and having full Coffers by the Spoils of Judah, rais'd an Army, beat the Syrians, and recover'd all Eaſt Iſrael, viz. from the Entry of Hamath on the North to the Sea of the Plain on the South, or Lake of Sodom, whereby his Kingdom became as large as at the Iſraelites firſt Revolt from the Houſe of David under Jeroboam I.

So that the 16th Year of the ſole Reign of Joroboam II. is parallel to the 1ſt Year of Uzziah King of Judah, to which add the 11 Years of Jeroboam's reigning with his Father, and it will appear that Uzziah began to reign in the 27th Year after Jeroboam began to reign, as it is written 2 Kin. xv. 1.

King Jeroboam, having long ago recover'd all the Kingdom of Iſrael, begins now to ſecure his Kingdom on the North Eaſt, from the frequent Inroads of the Syrians, and their Confederates. Therefore, having no other Ground for War, he ſet up the Plea of Judah, viz. That Hamath and Damaſcus did antiently belong to David and Solomon; and ſo to War he goes, beat the Hamathites and Syrians, and reduced both thoſe Places to the Crown of Iſrael; for Judah was not able to reduce it; nor did they lie contiguous to Judah.

But tho' God had thus proſper'd Jeroboam II. he made no Reformation in Religion, but continued in the inveterate Idolatry of Jeroboam I.

This was the XIIIth Year of JUBILEE, celebrated under thoſe two flouriſhing Kings, Uzziah and Jeroboam II.

Now God ſent Prophets that ſhould teſtify againſt Iſrael and Judah, and conſign their Teſtimony to writing, as Parts of God's Written Word; for though there was a conſtant Succeſſion of Prophets, there was no Addition made to the Written Word ſince the Days of Solomon, till now, that Judah had been much corrupted in the late Reigns, eſpecially ſince the Murder of Zachariah the Prieſt and Prophet; and that the High Places were not yet removed out of Judah; and that the Iſraelites, for all their great Mercies, perſever'd in the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. Therefore now God ſent Prophets to denounce his Judgments, that ſhould conſign their Prophecies to Writing, as Hoſea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, and Iſaiah, who all began to propheſy in the Days of King UZZIAH, and committed their Prophecies in Writing to the Church of the Jews, as Parts of the Sacred Depoſite, the Written Word of God.	12	213	296	799	3205	652	176	27	God ſent Prophets to reclaim Iſrael from their Idolatry and Immorality, who conſign'd ſome of their Prophecies to writing, as Parts of God's Written Word.
Hoſea was the firſt of theſe Prophets; for his Book (Chap. i. 2.) is call'd The Beginning of the Word of Jehovah by Hoſea, who propheſied in the Days of Uzziah, Jotham, Achaz and Hezekiah, Kings of Judah, a long Time, and ſaw many of his Prophecies fulfill'd.	13							28	Iſrael perſevering in the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. for all their Deliverances and Mercies under JEROBOAM II. and proving ſtill obſtinate againſt all Admonitions by the Prophets, God puniſhed them, and alſo the Jews,

	15							30	The Second Judgment was by a great Famine, by Locuſts, Caterpillars and Canker-worms foretold by Joel, Chap. i. which he calls the Northern Army, becauſe they came from Hamath and Syria; and keeping in a Body devour'd all the Growth of the Ground till they reached the South, and were famiſh'd in the barren Ground near the Lake of Sodom. This moſt affected the Kingdom of Iſrael, and ſeems to have been removed at the Prayer of Amos, Chap. vii. 2, 3. But that Joel foretold the Famine before Amos, appears by Amos's complaining, Chap. iv. 6. That the Famine had not brought them to Repentance.
	16							31	The Third Judgment was by an extreme Drought for want of Rain, Amos iv. 7, 8.
The Kingdom of Macedonia is ſuppos'd to begin this Year, under CARANUS the firſt of the Heraclidae, 460 Years before ALEXANDER the Great invaded Aſia.	17							32	The Fourth Judgment was by Blaſting, and Mildew, and the Palmer-Worm, Ver. 9.
	18							33	The Fifth Judgment was by Peſtilence, after the manner of Egypt, Ver. 10. whereby their young Men and their Horſes were ſlain as effectually as by the Sword, and the Stink of their Camps came up into their Noſtrils.
	19							34	The Sixth Judgment was by Fire, which Joel bemoan'd the Proſpect of, Chap. i 19. Oh Jehovah, to thee will I cry; for the Fire hath devoured the Paſtures in the Wilderneſs, and the Flame hath burnt all the Trees of the Field! And Amos viii. 4. —— Behold Adonai Jehovah call'd to contend by Fire, and it devoured the great Deep, and did eat up a Part; the Rivers were dried up, and ſome of their Cities burnt down like Sodom and Gomorrah; (Chap. iv. 11.) which was remov'd by the Prayer of Amos, (Chap. vii. 5, 6.)
This Year of the Julian Period 3923, in the Feaſt of Pentecoſt, and 24th of June, happen'd an Eclipſe of the SUN about the Extent of ten Digits, which with other Eclipſes (that ſhall be mention'd in their Time) were foretold by the Prophet Amos, Chap. viii. 9. And it ſhall come to paſs in that Day, ſaith Adonai Jehovah, that I will cauſe the Sun to go down at Noon, and I will darken the Earth at clear Day. This happen'd 190 Years before the firſt Eclipſe foretold by Thales the Greek, who was the firſt Heathen that calculated Eclipſes.	20	221	304	791	3213	660	184	35	But tho' Iſrael was like a Firebrand pluckt out of the Burning, yet they return'd not from their Idolatry and Immorality unto Jehovah; therefore God ſent Amos to denounce The Seventh and final Judgment, Ch. vii. even their Extirpation, That God would make the High Places of Iſaac deſolate, and lay waſte the Sanctuaries of Iſrael, and riſe againſt the Houſe of Jeroboam II. with the Sword.
	21							36	Upon which Amaziah the idolatrous Prieſt of Bethel ſent to the King, ſaying, Amos hath conſpired againſt thee in the midſt of the Houſe of Iſrael, and the Land is not able to bear his Words: For he ſaith, Jeroboam ſhall die by the Sword, (which Amos did not ſay) and Iſrael ſhall be carried

King UZZIAH now might march his Army againſt the Philiſtins, whom he beat in the Field, took in their ſtrong Forts, diſmantled their three principal Cities, Gath, Jabneh and Aſhdod, and built Cities at pleaſure throughout Philiſtia, 2 Chron. xxvi. 6.	23								38	captive out of their Land. The King it ſeems gave Orders to baniſh the Prophet; for Amaziah ſaid to him, O thou Seer, go, flee to the Land of Judah, and propheſy there; but propheſy no more at Bethel; for it is the King's Chappel and Court! But Amos, having declared his Commiſſion from Jehovah, to leave his Flocks in Tekoa, and go to propheſy in Iſrael, at parting pronounced Amaziah's Doom, ſaying, Thus ſaith Jehovah, thy Wiſe ſhall be an Harlot in the City, and thy Children ſhall fall by the Sword, and thy Land ſhall be divided by Line, aud thou ſhalt die in a polluted Land, and Iſrael ſhall ſurely go into Captivity.
The Prophet Jonah is now ſent to preach Repentance to Pul King of Niniveh, and all the People of that great City, ſaying, Yet forty Days and Niniveh ſhall be overthrown: Upon which King Pul and all the People repented in Sackcloth; wherefore Jehovah did not then deſtroy them. But they, returning to their Idolatry and Immorality, were actually overthrown in forty Years, accounting a Day for a Year, under the Government of his effeminate Son Sardanapalus.	24								39
	26								41	We read no more of King JEROBOAM II. but that he ſlept with his Fathers, and was buried with the Kings of Iſrael in Samaria. But as this King brought the Kingdom of Iſrael to its higheſt Pitch of Grandeur; ſo from his Death, the Ruin of that Kingdom commenceth: For his Son ZACHARIAH not being of Age, and other great Men aiming at the Crown, and the People ſore gall'd by the late Plagues, not agreeing in a Succeſſor to the Throne, they fell into Anarchy: And ſo there was
The Prophet Obadiah lived in theſe Times; for he is not mention'd at and after the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem, and he foretels not the Captivity of Iſrael in Aſſyria, and of Judah in Babylon; but in Zareptah and Sepharad near the Zidonians, viz. Of a ſmall Captivity of Iſraelites and Jews by the Inroads of the Zidonians, who ſeem to have ſold their Captives to the Edomites, that treated them wretchedly; for which and for their former Inſults and Injuries, the Edomites are ſeverely threaten'd by this Prophet.	27	228	311	784	3220	667	191		1	An Interregnum, or vacant Throne, during 11 Years and 6 Months, which is neceſſary to Our Chronology, in order to bring in Zachariah to reign 6 Months in the 38th Year of Uzziah. This Year JOTHAM was born, the Son and Succeſſor of King UZZIAH, by his Queen Jeruſhah, the Daughter of Zadok; for he was aged 25 when Uzziah died, 2 Kin. xv. 33.	28								2	The Country of Iſrael is govern'd by Magiſtrates without a King, whereby Uzziah King of Judah could extend his Conqueſts a little Eaſtward; (as in the other Column) but the Syrians and Aſſyrians now proſper'd apace.
And now, while Iſrael had no King, we may ſuppoſe that King UZZIAH, being well ſtrengthen'd on the South and Weſt, by having conquer'd the Edomites and Philiſtins, began to extend his Arms towards the Eaſt; when Jehovah helped him againſt the Arabians in Baalzur; ſo that the Ammonites, afraid of a military Viſit from his victorious Troops, ſent Embaſſadors with rich Preſents to UZZIAH, 2 Chron. xxvi. 7, 8.	29								3

But before this Reckoning, the Grecian Hiſtory is fabulous and uncertain; for Hiſtory without Chronology is not worth much: Though yet we don't find, that the Olympiads were uſed in a general Reckoning till ſome hundred Years afterwards.

TABLE XVII.

The CHRONOLOGY of Iſrael and Judah, from the Slaughter of ZACHARIAH, King of Iſrael, to the Extirpation of that Kingdom, during 52 Years.

KINGS of JUDAH.

Now the Kingdom of Syria begins to decline, and that of Niniveh begins to flouriſh under its mighty King PUL the Great, who conquer'd all the little Kingdoms round him, and became the firſt Emperor of Aſſyria; for all the Aſſyrian Monarchs before him are fabulous, the large Country of Aſſyria having been divided into little Kingdoms, perhaps ever ſince the Death of Nimrod, that were never united under one Prince till now. This is the Nation without a Name that God threaten'd (Amos vi 14.) to raiſe up againſt the Houſe of Iſrael to afflict them from Hamath to the Deſert; whereby we find that they were not raiſed up, or were not a famous and formidable Nation in the Reign of Jeroboam II. King of Iſrael; but ſince that Prophecy God had rais'd up that Nation: And now their King Pul, having nothing to fear from the Country Eaſt of the Euphrates, began to invade the Country Weſt of that River; and having firſt humbled the Syrians and Hamathites, King PUL march'd his victorious Army to the Frontiers of Iſrael, (as in the other Colum.)

PUL ſeems to be the Father of his Succeſſor SARDAN-PUL, or Sardanapalus, as Merodach of Babylon, the Son of Baladan, is call'd Merodach-Baladan, Iſa. xxxix. 1. But Pul is variouſly call'd by the Antients, as Acracarnes, Ocrazapes, Cyndaraxes, Ana-Cyndaraxes.

And now the Aſſyrians having made a Way from Niniveh to Canaan, the Iſraelites are brought into a Dependance upon Aſſyria to their Extirpation; for which the Prophet (Hoſ. v. 13.) reproves them, ſaying, When Ephraim ſaw his Sickneſs, and Judah ſaw his Wound, then went Ephraim to the Aſſyrian, and ſent to King Jareb; another Name of King Pul, or of one of his Succeſſors: And the ſame Prophet (Hoſ. vii. 11. and viii. 9.) compares Ephraim to a ſilly Dove without Heart, and to a Wild Aſh, for the ſame impolitic Conduct.

ROMULUS and Remus born this Year, juſt 18 Years before the Founding of Rome.

Achaz, the Son of Prince Jotham, the Son of King UZZIAH, was born this Year; for he was aged 20 Years when he began to reign, 2 Kin. xvi. 2. But ſeeing Achaz reign'd only 16 Years, and that when he died his Son Hezekiah was aged 25 Years, according to this Chronology, Achaz, not born before this Year, could be no older than Eleven Years at moſt when Hezekiah was born: Therefore ſome, judging that Age too early for Marriage, have thought the Scripture intimated, that Achaz was 20 Years old, not when he himſelf began to reign, but when his Father Jotham began to reign. See the foregoing Table at the Year of the World 3226.

Now the great Prophet Iſaiah began to officiate and write, for he propheſied under Uzziah, Jotham, Achaz and Hezekiah, Kings of Judah; tho' he has left no more than his firſt Five Chapters belonging to this Reign; for Chap. vi. 1. In the Year that King Uzziah died, Iſaiah had the Viſion there mention'd. Perhaps he began in the Year that Achaz was born; and from thoſe Five Chapters we may ſee, that the People of Judah and Jeruſalem were very much degenerated; for Iſaiah complains, that they continued impenitent under all the Judgments of God; that, tho' they maintain'd the Externals of religious Worſhip, they had not demoliſh'd the High Places, but worſhipped the Idols of the Gentiles; that they declar'd their Sin like Sodom, and hid it not; that all ſorts of People were immoral, particularly the Women were vain, proud, immodeſt and profuſe, and had got ſo much the Aſcendant of the Men, that the Government was moſtly in their Hands; ſo that Children were their Oppreſſors, and Women ruled over them: For which God was provok'd to denounce

KINGS of ISRAEL.

King Zachariah being ſlain by Shallum, and the Race of JEHU extinct.

XV. SHALLUM, the Son of Jabeſh, forthwith uſurp'd the Throne in the firſt Month of this Year; but he reign'd no longer than one full Month: For Menachem, the Son of Gadi, the Head of another Party in Iſrael, came with his Forces from Tirzah to Samaria, where he ſlew King Shallum, 2 Kin. xv. 13, &c.

And becauſe the City Tiphſah open'd not the Gates to him in his Way to Samaria, he return'd and ſmote all the Inhabitants thereof, and of the Neighbourhood, ſtriking Terror by ripping up all the Women with Child.

But after Menachem had ſtruggled for the Crown about eleven Months, Pul King of Aſſyria, or of Niniveh, having made the Syrians tributary, and hearing of the confus'd State of Iſrael, marched his victorious Army from Syria to the Borders of Iſrael; when Menachem ſent to treat with him, and agreed to pay him 1000 Talents of Silver, on Condition that Pul ſhould aſſiſt him to mount the Throne of Iſrael. So Menachem having rais'd the Money from wealthy Men at 50 Shekels a Man, and Pul having eſtabliſh'd Menachem on the Throne, return'd home with his Money; and

XVI. MENACHEM began to reign during ten Years, viz. in the latter end of the 39th, or beginning of the 40th, Year of King UZZIAH, when an Eclipſe of the Sun happen'd almoſt 12 Digits, on the 8th of November, at the Feaſt of Tabernacles. This Year of the Julian Period 3944 another Eclipſe of the Sun happen'd more than 11 Digits, on the 5th of May, at the Feaſt of the Paſſover. Both which Eclipſes ſeem to have been foretold by the Prophet Amos, as remark'd in the foregoing Table.

King Pul being dead, his Son Sardanapalus this Year ſucceeded in the Imperial Throne of Aſſyria, and reigned at Niniveh 20 Years.

According to an Epitaph from Clitarchus quoted by Strabo, Atheneus and Arrianus, this King Sardanapalus built in one Day Anchialus and Tarſus, two Cities in Cilicia in Leſſer Aſia; the Conqueſts of his Father Pul extending ſo far Weſt.

When Menachem died, his Son

PEKAHIAH ſucceeded to the Crown, and reigned two Years as bad as his Father, following the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. and the Immoralities of former Reigns.

About this Time Halyattes the Elder began to reign in Lydia of Leſſer Aſia, during 14 Years, where Creſus afterwards reigned.

many ſore Judgments againſt them throughout the 5th Chapter, and particularly to threaten their Captivity.

King Uzziah in his old Age was too confident of his Power, and his Heart was lifted up to his Deſtruction; for he tranſgreſſed againſt Jehovah his God, by going into the Temple with a Deſign to burn Incenſe upon the Altar of Incenſe: But Azariah the High Prieſt, with 80 valiant Prieſts, followed him, and withſtood him, ſaying, It appertaineth not to thee, Uzziah, to burn Incenſe unto Jehovah, but to the Prieſts, the Sons of Aaron, that are conſecrated for the Work: Go out of the Sanctuary; for thou haſt treſpaſſed, neither ſhall it be for thy Honour from Jehovah! Then Uzziah was wroth at the Prieſts; but while he had a Cenſer in his Hand, attempting to burn Incenſe, and ſtanding by the Altar, God ſtruck him with Leproſy, which appear'd in his Forehead immediately; and the Prieſts thruſt him out, nay, he haſted out himſelf, becauſe Jehovah had ſmote him; nor was he ever cured of it, but dwelt in a ſeparate Houſe, as became a Leper, till he died, and never ſaw the Temple again. Therefore Jotham his Son was over the King's Houſe, judging the People of the Land during the laſt Year of Uzziah, 2 Chron. xxvi. 16, &c.

This Year the Prophet Iſaiah had the Viſion of God, as ſitting upon the Throne in the Temple, high and lifted up, and his Train filled the Temple; above it ſtood the Seraphim, each with ſix Wings, proclaiming to each other, Holy, Holy, Holy is the LORD of Hoſts, the whole Earth is full of his Glory! &c. Iſa. vi. Joh. xii. 40, 41.

This was in the Year that Uzziah, King of Judah, died, when Iſaiah received a Commiſſion to blind the Eyes of the Jews, and harden their Hearts until their Captivity; yet God promiſeth, that they ſhall not be extirpated like the Iſraelites, but that a Remnant ſhall return, as it happened.

The latter end of this Year King Uzziah died, and they buried him with his Fathers, not in the Royal Sepulchre, becauſe he was a Leper, but in the Field of the Royal Sepulchre of David. And

XI. JOTHAM, the Son of Uzziah, the Son of Amaziah, the Son of Joaſh, the Son of Achaziah, the Son of Jehoram, the Son of Jehoſhaphat, the Son of Aſa, the Son of Abijah, the Son of Rehoboam, began to reign alone, during 16 Years, in this XIVth Year of Jubilee—being now aged 25 Years, following the good Examples of his Father, and doing that which was right in the Sight of Jehovah; yet the High Places were not taken away, and the People ſacrifiſed and burnt Incenſe upon them: Yet

Jotham, though his Mother was the High Prieſt's Daughter, preſum'd not to enter the Temple, in order to burn Incenſe, as his Father did; but employ'd himſelf in Royal Works: For he rebuilt the High Gate between the Palace and the Temple; and on the Wall of Ophel he built much: Alſo he built Cities in the Mountains of Judah, and Caſtles and Towers in the Foreſts.

Jotham alſo rais'd an Army againſt the King of the Ammonites, and, having overcome him, he forced the Ammonites to pay him an 100 Talents of Silver, and 10000 Meaſures of Wheat, and 10000 Meaſures of Barley, annually, for three Years currant. Thus Jotham became a mighty King, becauſe he had eſtabliſh'd his Ways before Jehovah his God.

Hezekiah, the Son of Prince Achaz, the Son of King Jotham, is born; for when he came to the Throne he was aged 25 Years. But Achaz was only aged now 10 Years, if he was but 20 Years old when he came to the Throne; therefore 'tis more plauſible to ſuppoſe, that Achaz was aged 20 Years when his Father Jotham began to reign, as above obſerv'd.

KINGS of JUDAH.	Years of each Reign in JUDAH.	ERA of the TEMPLE.	ERA from King SAUL.	Before Christ.	A. M.	ERA of INGRESS	ERA of 390	OLYMPIADS.	Era of Rome.	Era of Nabonaſſar.	YEARS of each Reign in ISRAEL.	KINGS of ISRAEL.
Rome is now founded by Romulus at the Feaſt of Palilia, or on the Day obſerved by the Country Shepherds to the Honour of the Goddeſs Palis, on the 12th or 11th before the Calends of May (the 19th or 20th Day of April) of this Year; being a little before the Beginning of the VIIIth Olympiad, according to the Reckoning of the moſt antient Roman Author Fabius Victor, and the ſecular Games obſerved by the antient Romans: But Varro's Palilia are 5 Years older than thoſe of Fabius Victor; whereby ſome place the Founding of Rome 5 Years before This. But its Rival, Carthage, had been built by the Phenicians about 72 Years ago.	11	264	347	748	3256	703	228	VIII.1	1		12	But SARDANAPALUS, having committed the Command of his Army to his Queen's Brother Salemenus, the Conſpirators overcame him in two Battels, and deſtroyed all his Army almoſt, and beſieged Sardanapalus in Niniveh: Before the Siege, the King ſent his three Sons and two Daughters to Cotta, the Governour of Paphlagonia, with great Wealth; and, having ſent Poſts through all the Provinces of his Empire, he raiſed Men and gathered Neceſſaries for enduring the Siege, as Diod. Sic. relates, Lib. II.
The ERA of NABONASSAR, or Beleſis, now King of Chaldea, (ſee the other Column) begins at Noon of the 1ſt Day of the Egyptian Month Thoth, or on the 26th of February, of this Year; and of the Julian Period 3967, by the general Conſent of Aſtronomers. Its Years are all equal, each conſiſting of 365 Days without the odd Hours, whereby it has no Leap Year; and in the Space of 1461 Years, its New Years Day happens on every Day of the Year backward; for every 4th Year it goes back one Day, becauſe the Interculation is omitted: So that 1461 Nabonaſſarean Years do make juſt 1460 Julian Years. They are alſo call'd Egyptian Years, much uſed by Ptolemy, who brings them down to his own Time in the Reign of the Emperor Antoninus; and Centorinus continues them to his Time, Anno Dom. 238; and a Jewiſh Author mentions them An. Dom. 1191; and they are in the Alphonſin Tables An. Dom. 1252. Aſtronomers antiently made much Uſe of this Era, and its Agreement with Holy Writ makes it neceſſary for the Connection of ſacred and foreign Hiſtories; for without it we could not ſo well know the firſt Year of CYRUS, or End of the 70 Years Captivity, nor the Year of the Death of ALEXANDER the Great. Meles now reigns in Lydia during 12 Years. See Euſeb. Chron. and Herodot.	12	265	348	747	3257	704	229	2	2	1	13	In the third Year of the Siege of Niniveh, when the River, ſwelling by conſtant Rains, had overflowed part of the City, and overturned 20 Furlongs of the Wall, SARDANAPALUS erected a great Heap of Wood in his Palace, upon which he laid his precious Things; and, ſetting it on fire, burnt his Palace, and with it burnt himſelf, his Concubines and Eunuchs. Then the Conſpirators enter'd the City by the fallen Breach of the Wall, and proclaimed ARBACES King. Thus the Aſſyrian Empire was deſtroyed, after the beginning of Ninus I. 520 Years, according to Herodotus; though it prevailed not in the Weſt and South of Aſia till the Days of Pul and his Son Sardanapalus. ARBACES, now King of Aſſyria proper, is called by Strabo Ozbaces, and by Velleius Paterculus Pharnaces, by Ælianus Thilgamus, and in Holy Scripture Thilgath Pilneeſer and Tiglath Pileſer, who, for the better Omen, took to himſelf the Name of the firſt Founder of the Aſſyrian Monarchy, NINUS, as he was the Founder of this new Monarchy in the North, upon the Death of Sardanapalus, and reigned 19 Years. Some think his Name was Tiglath Puleſer, as if he was the Son of King PUL, and Brother of Sardanapalus.
The Prophet Micah began to officiate and write, and continued to propheſy in this Reign, and in the Reigns of Achaz and Hezekiah; for the Concluſion of his third Chapter is allotted to the Times of Hezekiah, Jer. xxvi. 18. Micah bewails the Extirpation of Iſrael now at hand, and the Captivity of Judah not far off.	13							3	3	2	14	Beleſus or Beleſis, the other Conſpirator, called by Agathias (in Dion and *Alex. ACHAZ was now aged 20 Years according to Our Chronology, (but if he was 20 Years old when his Father Jotham began to reign, he was now aged 36 Years) and reigned 16 Years. When the News came to Jeruſalem, that thoſe two Kings, Rezin and Pekah, were preparing to march againſt Judah, (as on the other Column) the Hearts of King ACHAZ and his People were moved like a Wood by the Wind, looking for ſudden and inevitable Ruin: But God ſent the Prophet Iſaiah to meet Achaz, at the end of the Conduit of the upper Pool, in the Highway of the Fullers Field, and to ſay, Take heed and be quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted at the two Tails of theſe ſmoaking Firebrands,	1	270	353	742	3262	709	234	3	7	6	18	Some think the Perſon called the Son of Tabeal was a noble Jew, that had revolted from King Jotham.

Firebrands, Rezin and Pekah; for that their Confederacy againſt Judah ſhall not proſper: Nay, that within 65 Years Ephraim ſhall be extirpated, and be no more a diſtinct Nation, Iſa. vii. 1--9. See the Accompliſhment at the Year of the World 3327.

Moreover Jehovah by the Prophet ſaid further to ACHAZ, Ask thee a Sign of thy Deliverance either in the Depth or in the Heighth! but Achaz having replied, I will not ask, neither will I tempt JEHOVAH; the Prophet ſaid, Hear ye now, O Houſe of David! Is it a ſmall thing for you to weary Men, but will ye weary my God alſo? therefore the Lord himſelf ſhall give you a Sign; behold a VIRGIN ſhall conceive, and bear a Son, and ſhe ſhall call his Name IMMANUEL, Iſa. vii. 10--14. This is the Promiſe of the Logos, or Word incarnated, the great Loganthropos, or Theanthropos, GOD-MAN, God with us, or dwelling in our Nature. This Promiſe, tho' not ſoon to be fulfill'd, was much for the preſent Purpoſe; becauſe in Immanuel all God's Promiſes are Yea and Amen, to be fulfilled in him, and for him, and upon his Account; and becauſe Judah, by a ſpecial Privilege, is called IMMANUEL's Land, (Iſa. viii. 8.) where Immanuel was to be born of the Houſe of David, according to the Fleſh; and (according to old Jacob's Prophecy) not before the Scepter ſhould depart from Judah. Wherefore this Promiſe of the Virgin's bearing Immanuel ſecured the Houſe of David, and the Jewiſh Nation, from the Fear of being extirpated with Iſrael in 65 Years Time.

Upon Iſaiah's pronouncing this Oracle, God orders him forthwith to foretel the imminent Fall of Rezin and Pekah; which he demonſtrates by pointing to his young Son then with him, viz Shear-Jashub, (ſignifying a Remnant ſhall return) ſaying to ACHAZ, Butter and Honey ſhall he eat; but before he is of Age, to refuſe the Evil and chuſe the Good, the Land, of Iſrael and Syria, that thou abhorreſt, ſhall be forſaken of both her Kings; Iſa. xii. 15, 16. Which Peophecy was ſoon accompliſhed, as in the Sequel on the other Column.

In the End of this ſame firſt Year of ACHAZ, Iſaiah's Wife having born to him another Son, Jehovah commanded him to call the Child Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz, ſignifying, In making haſte to the Spoil, he haſteneth to the Prey; for, ſaid God, Before the Child ſhall have Knowledge, to cry, My Father and my Mother, the Riches of Damaſcus and Spoil of Samaria ſhall be taken away, by the Servants of the King of Aſſyria, Iſa. viii. 1--5.

Thus the Prophet might well ſay, (Iſa. viii. 18.) Behold I and the Children, whom Jehovah hath given me, are for Signs and Wonders in Iſrael from Jehovah Sebaoth, who dwelleth in Mount Zion.

But King ACHAZ, tho' delivered from preſent Danger, (as on the other Column) was not thankful to his God, his Deliverer; nay, he became impious and immoral, and began to walk in the Ways of the Kings of Iſrael; and made alſo molten Images for Baalim, and burnt Incenſe in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom; and made ſome of his Children to paſs through the Fire in Sacrifice to Molech, after the Abominations of the Heathen, whom Jehovah had caſt out by the Iſraelites; he ſacrifiſed alſo and burnt Incenſe in the High Places, and on the Hills, and under every green Tree, 2 Chron. xxviii. 1--5. Wherefore Jehovah was provoked to ſend this Year the ſame Enemies againſt him, as on the other Column.

Mean while King REZIN, having refreſhed his Army at Damaſcus, (as on the other Column) marched them the ſhorteſt Way to the Red Sea, and took the Port of Elath, near Ezion-Geber, from King Achaz, (which Uzziah had recovered) expelled the Jews out of it, and planted it with Syrians, deſigning to ingroſs the Eaſt-India Trade, which Loſs the Jews never recovered 2 Kin. xvi. 16. Though the King of Syria did not long enjoy it, being ſlain next Year by Tiglath-Puleſer; (as on the other Column) only the Syrians in Elath became the Subjects of Tiglath-Puleſer, and carried on the Eaſt-India Trade, though it is not certain at what Place the Syrians fixed their principal Mart.

Nor did theſe Loſſes open the Eyes of King Achaz to return to the true God; but on the contrary, He ſacrifiſed unto the Gods of Damaſcus, which had ſmote him; ſaying, like a Fool, Becauſe the Gods of the Kings of Syria help them, I will ſacrifiſe to them, that they may help me! But they were the Ruin of him, and of all Iſrael, 2 Chron. xxviii. 23.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

After the Aſſurance of Deliverance and Safety from Extirpation that God afforded to King Achaz, as on the other Column,

REZIN King of Syria, and PEKAH King of Iſrael, in this ſame firſt Year of Achaz, marched their confederate Army againſt Jeruſalem, to which they laid Siege in vain; for God diſpirited the Beſiegers, and animated the Beſieged: And ſo the Siege was raiſed, according to the Word of Iſaiah; and the Son of Tabeal was diſappointed of his Hopes. But King Achaz being ungrateful to God, Jehovah permitted next Year

Rezin and Pekah to renew the War againſt Judah, who divided their Forces into three Bodies, the firſt commanded by King Rezin, the ſecond by King Pekah, and the third by Zichri, a mighty Man of Ephraim; and they invaded Judah in three different Parts at the ſame time.

Rezin having ravaged the Country, and taken many Captives, thought fit to return with his great Spoils to Damaſcus; and afterwards marched to the Red Sea, as on the other Column.

Pekak marched directly againſt King Achaz, who had raiſed a great Army, and made a good Stand againſt Pekah; but Achaz, encouraged by the Departure of Rezin to fight Pekah, was routed with a great Slaughter of 120000 in one Day, all valiant Men.

Zichri, upon this Defeat of Achaz, marched his Army to Jeruſalem, which he took; where he ſlew Maaſeiah, one of the Sons of Achaz; Azrikam, the Governour of the Palace; and Elkanah, that was next to the King.

King PEKAH and his General Zichri, having loaded their Army with Spoils, and taken 200000 Women and Children captive, returned to Samaria, deſigning to ſell thoſe Captives as Slaves; but were hindered by a certain Prophet called Oded, who went to meet the Army near Samaria, ſaying, Becauſe Jehovah, the God of your Fathers, was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your Hand, and ye have ſlain them in a Rage reaching up to Heaven! and now you deſign to ſell your Captives for Slaves: But are there not with you, even with you, Sins againſt Jehovah *your God? KINGS of JUDAH.

ACHAZ continuing impenitent, God permitted the Edomites to attack him on the South, who ſmote Judah, and carried away Captives; while the Philiſtins on the Weſt invaded the Cities of the Low Country, and of the South of Judah, taking Bethſhemeſh, Ajalon, Gederoth, Shocho, Timnah, and Gimzo, with their Villages, and dwelt there. Thus Jehovah brought Judah low becauſe of Achaz, who is called (2 Kin. xvi. 19.) the King of Iſrael; becauſe he lived like the wicked Kings of Iſrael, by tranſgreſſing ſore againſt Jehovah, and making Judah naked.

But Achaz would not be reclaimed from his evil Ways, by all theſe Judgments; nay, inſtead of returning to God, and truſting to him, he placed all his Confidence in an Arm of Fleſh, and had ſent Meſſengers to Tiglath-Puleſer, King of Aſſyria, (Arbaces, or NINUS Junior, above-mention'd) ſaying, I am thy Servant and thy Son; come up and ſave me out of the Hands of the Kings of Iſrael and Syria, who confederate againſt me! And Achaz having ſent much of the Silver and Gold that was found in the Temple, in the Royal Palace, and in the Palaces of his Princes, as a Preſent to Tiglath-Puleſer, the Aſſyrian King hearkened unto him; though not out of Friendſhip to Achaz, but with a View to add Syria and Paleſtine to his Empire, as on the other Column.

Here, or before this Time, all the Prophecies come in that concern the Ruin of Iſrael and Syria.

ACHAZ, though more diſtreſſed by his pretended Friend Tiglath-Puleſer, than by his open Enemies, (as on the other Column) yet found it expedient to overlook all Injuries, fearing otherwiſe to provoke the Aſſyrian to Wrath; and ſo carrying on the Compliment, he took a Journey to Damaſcus, and there paid his Homage to Tiglath-Puleſer, as to his Protector and Sovereign.

While Achaz was at Damaſcus, he ſaw an Altar in the Temple of the Idol Rimmon, which he was ſo pleaſed with, that he ſent to Urijah, the High Prieſt of Jeruſalem, the Faſhion and Pattern of it, according to all the Workmanſhip thereof; according to which Urijah made an Altar againſt the King's Return.

Thus all that ACHAZ got, by depending on Tiglath-Puleſer, was only a little Improvement in Idolatry, for which he had paid dear enough: For, inſtead of two little Enemies, the Kings of Iſrael and Syria, he had now to do with the grand Monarch of Aſſyria.

When King Achaz returned from Damaſcus to Jeruſalem, he removed the great Brazen Altar of Solomon out of its Place to the North Side of the Court, and ordered his great Altar of Damaſcus to be placed in its ſtead; upon which he ſeems to me therefore, and reſtore your Captives; for the fierce Wrath of Jehovah is upon you. Then certain Chiefs of Ephraim ſtood up againſt the Army, ſaying, Ye ſhall not bring in your Captives hither: For whereas we have offended againſt Jehovah already, ye intend to add more to our Sins and Treſpaſs; for our Treſpaſs is great, and there is fierce Wrath againſt Iſrael. Upon which the Army left the Captives and the Spoil to thoſe Princes, who cloathed the Captives out of the Spoil, arrayed them, and ſhod them, made them eat and drink, anointed them, put the Feeble upon Aſſes, and brought them all to Jericho, the City of Palm-Trees, to their Brethren, 2 Chron. xxviii. 6—15.

Tiglath-Puleſer, King of Aſſyria, in this 7th Year of his Reign, being bribed by Achaz, King of Judah, to diſtreſs the Syrians and Iſraelites, (as on the other Column) marched an Army againſt Damaſcus, and having took it, and ſlain Rezin, King of Syria, he added that Kingdom to his Empire; according to Iſaiah's Prophecy above-mention'd.

Thus the Kingdom of SYRIA, founded by Rezon in the Days of Solomon, ends in Rezin, after it had flouriſhed 250 Years during ten Generations, and with it fell the Kingdoms of Hamath and Arpad to the Aſſyrian Monarch.

Tiglath-Puleſer then marched againſt Pekah, and ſeized all that belonged to Iſrael Weſt of the Jordan, viz. the Tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Half Manaſſeh; and having forced the upper Parts of the Jordan, the Aſſyrian poſſeſſed himſelf alſo of all the Country of Galilee and Naphtali, or all the Northern Parts of Iſrael; whereby he got all the beſt Paſſes and Avenues into Paleſtine and Arabia.

Then Tiglath-Puleſer marched towards Jeruſalem, not to aſſiſt King Achaz in recovering the Cities taken lately by the Philiſtins, Edomites, and other Enemies of the Jews; but to extort more Preſents from Achaz, which Achaz raiſed by cutting in pieces the Veſſels of the Temple, and melting them: So when the Aſſyrian had got all he could, he returned to Damaſcus, and wintered there to refreſh his Army, where King Achaz came to pay his Homage, as on the other Column.

When Tiglath-Puleſer returned to Niniveh, he carrried off many Syrian Captives, and ſent them to Kir, a City in the Weſt Part of Media; according to the Prophecy of Amos, Ch. i. 4, 5. I will ſend a Fire into the Houſe of Hazael, which ſhall devour the Palaces of Benhadad; I will break alſo the Bar of Damaſcus, and cut off the Inhabitants of Aven; and him that holdeth the Scepter from the Houſe of Eden, and the People of Syria ſhall go into Captivity unto Kir, ſaith Jehovah! This was foretold in the Days of King Uzziah.

Tiglath-Puleſer alſo carried off his Iſraelite Captives, whom he ſent to Chalach, Chabor, Hara, and the River of Gozan in Media more Eaſtward, according to the Prophecy of Amos, Ch. v. 27. Therefore will I cauſe you to go into Captivity beyond Damaſcus; that is, into the Country beyond that into which the People of Damaſcus were to be carried captive, which is rendered by St. Stephen, (Acts vii. 43.) And I will carry you away beyond Babylon; which is very true; for even Kir was beyond Babylon, and the River Gozan was much farther Eaſtward.

And from hence 'tis plain, that Media was then ſubject to the Aſſyrian, and Tiglath-Puleſer, or Ninus Junior, and Arbaces were not two diſtinct Kings, (as Dr. Prideaux obſerves in correcting Archbiſhop Uſher) but one King that had thoſe ſeveral Names.

As for PEKAH, King of Iſrael, having loſt the largeſt Part of his Kingdom, he was reduced lower than he had reduced King Achaz; and, falling into Contempt, Hoſhea, the Son of Elah, conſpired againſt him, and ſlew him, (in this 20th Year after Jotham began to reign, viz. when his Father Uzziah became a Leper, 2 Kin. xv. 30.) Hoſhea hoping to be made King by Tiglath-Puleſer: But the Aſſyrian not yet concerning himſelf in that Affair, the Elders of Iſrael took upon them the Government at Samaria, during an Interregnum of nine Years.

have firſt offer'd and officiated as Prieſt himſelf, and then expreſly charged Urijah to make all the various ſorts of Offerings upon this new great Altar only; the King reſerving Solomon's Altar for him to enquire by: Nay, he alſo cut off the Borders of the Baſes, and removed the Laver from off them; took down the Sea from off the Oxen, and ſet it upon a Pavement of Stones; removed the Covert that had been built for the Sabbath, and made horrid Alterations in the Temple, according to his idolatrous Taſte: In all which Urijah was the King's moſt obedient Slave, 2 Kin. xvi. 10--18. Yet, being afraid of another unwelcome Viſit from the Aſſyrian King, he turned the Entry from the Palace to the Temple another Way.

But of all the Kings of Judah, Achaz was the greateſt Idolater; for amidſt all his Diſtreſſes he tranſgreſſed ſtill the more againſt Jehovah! This is that King Achaz, who, perceiving the better ſort of People grieved, that the Temple was polluted with the Altar of Damaſcus, and the worſe ſort of People to chuſe rather their High Places for Worſhip, firſt ſpoiled the Temple of all its Veſſels and precious things, and then ſhut up its Doors; inſtead of which he made him Altars in every Corner of Jeruſalem; and in all the Cities of Judah he made High Places, to burn Incenſe unto other Gods, and provoked to Anger Jehovah the God of his Fathers, 2 Chron. xxviii. 22--25.

The only good Action of Achaz recorded, was his making a new Sun-Dial; for Iſa. xxxviii. 8. we read that God gave a Sign of Hezekiah's Recovery, by bringing back the Shadow of the Sun 10 Degrees upon Achaz's Dial. Perhaps Achaz made it in the 1ſt Year of his Reign; but ſuppoſing he made it not till this Year, or even till the laſt Year of his Reign, it is the oldeſt Dial that we have upon Record in all the World: Nor can we ſuppoſe it to be the firſt at Jeruſalem; becauſe we find, that God's peculiar People calculated the Years of their Births and of publick Events from the Creation, before and after the Flood, even to a Month and a Day ſometimes, as appears by the Ages of the Patriarchs, the Year of the Flood, the Time of the Exodus of Moſes, the Iſraelites Travels through the Deſert, the Years of their Judges, the Founding of the Temple, the Ages and Reigns of their Kings, &c. Therefore we muſt conclude, they follow'd the Annual Revolution of the Sun, and the Lunar Months; but eſpecially after Moſes inſtituted their ſolemn Feaſts, fixed on certain Days of the Moon and of the Year, their New Moons and Full Moons, their Hours of Prayer and Sacrifice, and other religious Services, &c. So that they could not obſerve and preſerve their Religion without obſerving the Revolutions of the Sun and Moon, and their Eclipſes; which cannot be affirmed of any other Nation upon Earth. Therefore it may be warrantably ſuppoſed, that the Jews had their Sun-Dials before the Days of Achaz; nay, alſo had certain Tables of Eclipſes, and underſtood Aſtronomy better than any other People, more eſpecially from the Days of the wiſe and learned King Solomon.

But tho' Tiglath-Puleſer died this Year, God raiſed up Salmaneſer his Son to chaſtiſe wicked ACHAZ, who next Year marched againſt him: And ſo

King Achaz at laſt was depoſed by Salmaneſer the latter end of this Year, as on the other Column; for 'tis certain that the Aſſyrian marched to Jeruſalem, as appears from Iſa. x. 28, &c. where the Prophet ſays, He is come to Aiath, he is paſſed to Migron; at Michmaſh he hath laid up his Carriages; they are gone over the Paſſage, (or Frontier between Ephraim and Benjamin) they have taken up their Lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid, Gibeah of Saul is fled! Lift up thy Voice, O Daughter of Gallim! Cauſe it to be heard unto Laiſh, O poor Anathoth! Madmenah is removed, the Inhabitants of Gebim gather themſelves to flee: As yet ſhall he remain at Nob that Day; he ſhall ſhake his Hand againſt the Mount of the Daughter of Zion, the Hill of JERUSALEM!

Mean while Beleſis, or Baladan, or NABONASSAR, King of Chaldea, proved a wiſe and learned Prince, and ſet up his Throne in his new City of Babylon, which he built upon the Ruins of a Part of Nimrod's Works, hard by the old great Tower; for from the Days of Nimrod there is no mention made in Holy Scripture, nor in any other Book, of any Town call'd Babylon till now; and the Prophet Iſaiah is the firſt who mentions it, both its Riſe and its Ruin, Chap. xxiii. 13. Behold the Land of the Chaldeans; this People was not till the Aſſyrian founded it for them that dwell in the Wilderneſs; they ſet up the Towers thereof, they raiſed up the Palaces thereof: He brought it to Ruin! Which is thus paraphras'd by Sir John Marſham, "Behold Babylon, the "ſplendid Metropolis of the Chaldeans, the Inhabitants of that Town "not long ſince wander'd in Deſerts, without fixed Abodes, till Nabonaſſar the Aſſyrian brought thither Men that had dwelt in Tents, "fortify'd the Town, erected Caſtles, and built Palaces in it: Yet, "however magnificent this Town is, which the Aſſyrian founded, God ſhall put "it in Ruins!" And, as Sir John Marſham has further obſerv'd, Canon Chron. Secul. 17.

Ptolomy's Canon is only of the Aſſyrian and Median Kings, to whom the Perſian Kings immediately ſucceeded in his Catalogue. Indeed many great Authors have aſcribed the Building of Babylon, ſome to Semiramis, and ſome to Belus, or his Son: But the firſt ſort were impoſed upon by the Hiſtorian Cteſias, for which they are blamed by Beroſus; and Ariſtotle affirms he was not worthy to be believed. As for Belus, he only led a Colony of Philoſophers from Egypt into the Country of Babylonia, who came to be call'd Chaldees, but built no City call'd Babylon. Nor does Herodotus affirm, that Semiramis built the City, but only that ſhe adorned the Walls and Temples, and made great Heaps or Bulwarks in the Plains, which were wont to be overflow'd by the Euphrates; and ſome ſuppoſe her to be the Queen of Nabonaſſar, the true firſt Founder of the City of Babylon; about which let Hiſtorians contend: Only it is not clear, that from the Time Nimrod left Babel, and built Niniveh ſoon after the Diſperſion, there was no City call'd Babylon till now.

Myrſilus, or Gandaules, the laſt of the Heraclidæ, reigns in Lydia during ſeventeen Years.

NABONASSAR, or Beleſis, or Baladan, King of Chaldea, or Babylon, after he had reigned 14 Years, died; and was ſucceeded, not immediately by his Son Mardoc-Empadus, or Merodach-Baladan, but, according to Ptolemy's Cannon, by Nadius, or Nabius, who reign'd two Years, perhaps during the Minority of Mardoc-Empadus.

Syracuſe, a famous City in Sicily, was founded about this Time.

Chinzirus and Porus reign jointly at Babylon during 5 Years.

At the End of the Interregnum, or the 12th Year of Achaz's Reign in Judah, XX. HOSHEA at length prevailed to be King of Iſrael during nine Years.

Tiglath-Puleſer, or Ninus Junior, or Arbates, King of Aſſyria, died, after he had reigned 19 Years currant; and was ſucceeded by his Son Shalman-Aſſer, or Salmanaſar, or Salmaneſer, call'd by Tobit Enem-Eſſar, and by the Prophet Hoſea (Ch. x. 14.) Shalman, during 14 Years.

SALMANESER in this Year of his Reign firſt marched an Army North-Weſt againſt Beth-Arbel, or the Houſe of Arbela, (afterwards famous for Alexander's Victory over Darius) which he ſoon reduced; and then marched Southward into Paleſtine, ſubjected Samaria to his Dominion, and made King Hoſhea his Tributary and Vaſſal, according to the Prophecy of Hoſea, (Chap. x. 14, 15) who, upon the News of Shalman's ſpoiling Beth-Arbel in the Day of Battel, when the Mother was daſhed to pieces upon her Children, denounceth Iſrael's Ruin, ſaying, So ſhall Bethel do unto you, becauſe of your great Wickedneſs: In a Morning ſhall the King of Iſrael be utterly cut off! And though this laſt Part was not yet fulfilled, the firſt Part was this Year fulfilled,

KINGS of JUDAH.

Yet the Prophet in that Chapter expoſeth Salmaneſer's Haughtineſs, threatens his Pride, Blaſphemy and Oppreſſion with Deſtruction, and promiſeth to reſcue Judah from his Yoke; as it happen'd in the Reign of Hezekiah, who is ſaid to have rebelled againſt the Aſſyrian, (2 Kin. xviii. 7.) which alſo proves he had been his Vaſſal, even upon the Depoſition of Achaz; when, by Leave of Salmaneſer, Hezekiah began to rule, the latter End of this ſame third Year of Hoſhea, King of Iſrael, 2 Kin. xviii. 1. Thus

King HEZEKIAH's firſt Year is parallel with Hoſhea's 4th Year, and Achaz's 16th or laſt Year, when he was 25 Years old, and reigned 29 Years at Jeruſalem, 2 Kin. xviii. 2. for e. g. the 4th Year of Hezekiah is expreſly call'd the 7th Year of Hoſhea.

Achaz liv'd obſcure with only the Name of King, while HEZEKIAH had all the Adminiſtration in his Hand; and ſo could well diſpoſe the People and prepare Things for a Reformation, even while his Father liv'd.

But Achaz died this Year, and was buried in Zion Caſtle, tho' not in the Royal Sepulchre, as a mark of Infamy for his Wickedneſs. And ſo he reigned in all 16 Years currant only.

In the Year that Achaz died, Iſaiah received a Prophecy againſt the Philiſtins, that had unjuſtly poſſeſſed a Part of Achaz's Kingdom lately, Iſa. xiv. 28, &c. He had alſo the ſame time a Prophecy againſt the Moabites, Chap. xv. and xvi. concluding, Within three Years, as the Years of an Hirling, and the Glory of Moab ſhall be contemned, &c.

XIII. HEZEKIAH, now at Liberty, and reigning alone, Achaz being dead, did heartily ſet about a thorough Reformation, both in Church and State; beginning in this firſt Year of his Reign, towards the latter End, on New Year's Day, or 1ſt Day of the Month Abib, or Niſan; not the firſt Month of his Reign, but of the Year currant: For this New Years Day happen'd in the latter End of the firſt Year of Hezekiah's Reign, or after he had reigned about 10 Months. On the ſaid New Year's Day, the 21ſt of April, being the Sabbath Day, HEZEKIAH opened the Doors of the Temple, (which Achaz had ſhut up) order'd them to be repair'd, and brought in the Prieſts and Levites; exhorting them to ſanctify themſelves and the Temple, and to cleanſe it of all Filthineſs, which he preſſed in a pious Oration. They that ſame Day began, gather'd their Brethren together, and ſanctify'd themſelves in ſeven Days; and on the 8th Day, or 27th of April, the next Sabbath, they began to ſanctify the Temple, during eight Days; removing the Altar of Damaſcus, purging the Temple of all other Defilements, which they caſt into the Brook Kidron, and placing the holy Utenſils in their appointed Order. When we may ſuppoſe they found a Copy of Solomon's Proverbs, which the King order'd to be tranſcrib'd, Prov. xxv. 1.

Having finiſhed all theſe Purifications on the 16th Day of the firſt Month, or 6th of May, the next Day, or 7th of May, the King, with the Rulers of Jeruſalem, enter'd the Temple early in the Morning, with a Sin-Offering of

7 Rams
7 Lambs
} In all 28

Commanding the Prieſts, the Sons of Aaron, to offer them in Sacrifice to Jehovah for the Kingdom and the Temple, even for all Iſrael; and to make Attonement and Reconciliation, by ſprinkling the Blood of thoſe Sacrifices on the Altar. And the King having ſet the Prieſts in the Temple with the Trumpets, and the Levites with the Inſtruments of David, Cymbals, Pſalteries and Harps, (according to God's Appointment by David, Gad and Nathan the Prophets) they and the vocal Muſick began the Song of Jehovah, when the Burnt-Offering began, and continued until the Offerings were finiſhed, when the King and all preſent bowed themſelves and worſhipped; and the King and Princes order'd the Levites to conclude this Conſecration by ſinging Praiſe to Jehovah in the Words of David and Aſaph, no doubt, with the old Chorus, For his MERCY endureth for ever!

Then King HEZEKIAH ſaid, Now ye have conſecrated yourſelves to Jehovah, come near, and bring Sacrifices and Thank-Offerings into the Houſe of Jehovah: Accordingly, the People brought for

Burnt-Offerings { 70 Bullocks / 100 Rams / 200 Lambs. } And they brought alſo into the Temple, the conſecrated Things to be offer'd afterwards in Sacrifice, viz. { 600 Oxen / and / 3000 Sheep. }

But the Burnt Offerings, the Peace Offerings, and the Drink Offerings were ſo many, and the Prieſts ſo few who had ſanctify'd themſelves, that the Levites, who indeed had been more expeditious in their Purification, were call'd to aſſiſt them. And thus the Service of the Temple being again ſet in Order, though very ſuddenly, Hezekiah and all the People rejoiced, 2 Chron. xxix.

And becauſe the Paſſover could not be celebrated on the 14th Day of the firſt Month, for that the Prieſts, Levites and Temple were not ſanctify'd, the King, by the Advice of his Princes and of all the Congregation at Jeruſalem, order'd the Paſſover to be celebrated on the 14th of the ſecond Month, according to the Allowance of the Law of Moſes, (Numb. ix. 10, 11.) and ſent Letters by proper Meſſengers not only throughout his own Kingdom, but even throughout all the Land of Iſrael, ſaying, Ye Children of Iſrael, turn again unto Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Iſaac and Iſrael, and he will return to the Remnant of you that are ſaved from the Hands of the Aſſyrian King! and be not ſtiff-necked like your Fathers and Brethren, who treſpaſſed againſt God, and were therefore given up to Deſolation, as you ſee; but yield yourſelves unto Jehovah, and enter into his Sanctuary, which he hath ſanctified for ever, and ſerve Jehovah your God, that the Fierceneſs of his Wrath may turn away from you: For if you do, your Brethren and Children ſhall find Compaſſion before them that led them captive, and ſhall return to this Land, when Salmaneſer among other Spoils, carried off the Golden Calf from Bethel, that Jeroboam I. had erected there; the other Golden Calf at Dan having been carried off by Tiglath-Puleſer eleven Years ago: See Seder Olam, Chap. xxii.

In the latter End of this Year, SALMANESER marched to Jeruſalem, (as on the other Column) depoſed Achaz for not paying his Tribute, and ſet his Son Hezekiah upon the Throne of Judah, as his Vaſſal and Tributary, and returned to Aſſyria with great Spoils.

Jugeus, or Ilulæus, now reigns at Babylon during five Years.

SABACON the Ethiopian now invaded Egypt, and having taken captive Bocchoris, the King of that Land, he barbarouſly burnt him alive, and ſo became King of Egypt during 8 Years; call'd in Scripture So, and ſeems to be that cruel Lord and fierce King propheſied of, Iſaiah xix. 4.

for Jehovah your God is gracious and merciful, if you return unto him. But though many of the Iſraelites laughed the Meſſengers to ſcorn, and mocked them; yet many of them humbled themſelves, and came to Jeruſalem, where they join'd with the Jews in celebrating the Paſſover, which was the moſt ſolemn Paſſover that had been obſerved ſince the Days of Solomon, and the greateſt Congregation. They firſt removed the idolatrous Altars in Jeruſalem, and threw them into the Brook Kidron, and, on the 14th Day of the ſecond Month, they kill'd the Paſſover, and brought the Burnt Offerings into the Temple, the Levites aſſiſting the Prieſts; and tho' the Iſraelites were not ſanctify'd according to the Law of Moſes, yet the King allowed them to eat the Paſſover, and prayed for them, ſaying, May the good Jehovah pardon every one that prepareth his Heart to ſeek the God of his Fathers, though he be not cleanſed according to the Purification of the Sanctuary! And God hearken'd to his Prayer. And becauſe they had long neglected this Feſtival, they doubled the Time of obſerving it, even twice ſeven Days; and the King gave a 1000 Bullocks, and 7000 Sheep; and the Princes gave 1000 Bullocks, and 10000 Sheep, for Sacrifices, 2 Chron. xxx. When all was over, They went throughout the Kingdom of Judah, and brake down the Images, cut down the Groves, threw down the High-places and the Altars, and utterly deſtroy'd all the Monuments of Idolatry; nay, the Iſraelites did the ſame in their Return home, and made a thorough Reformation. And HEZEKIAH, having obſerved that many had made an Idol of the Brazen-Serpent of Moſes, by burning Incenſe to it, he order'd it to be broken in pieces, and, in Contempt, call'd it Nehuſhtan. The King alſo reſtored the Prieſts and Levites to their ſeveral Stations, Courſes and Offices, and took care of their Subſiſtance, by reviving the Law for the Firſt Fruits and Tythes.												HOSHEA, the laſt King of Iſrael, was better than all that reign'd before him; for tho' he was not reform'd from the Idolatry of Iſrael, and is therefore ſaid to have done Evil in the Sight of Jehovah; yet 'tis added, but not ſo as the Kings of Iſrael before him, 2 Kin. xvii. 2. And tho' he did not formally concur with King Hezekiah, in the Reformation mention'd on t'other Column, yet he was far from oppoſing it; for he removed the Guards from the Frontiers, that the former Kings of Iſrael had placed, to hinder their Subjects from going up to worſhip at Jeruſalem, and gave Leave to all that would to go up thither for Worſhip: Nay, he encouraged them to obey Hezekiah's Invitation to eat the Paſſover with him; and when his Subjects, that had been at the Paſſover, broke the Images, cut down the Groves, demoliſh'd the High-Places, and all other Monuments of Idolatry, in their Way home, throughout all the Kingdom of Samaria, King HOSHEA did not hinder them, nor ſo much as forbid them (which he could have done) but at leaſt conniv'd at it, and ſo far approv'd of their Zeal for Jehovah. See Seder Olam, ib.
In the 3d Month of the Jewiſh Eccleſiaſtical Year, or firſt of the 2d Year of the Reign of HEZEKIAH, the Firſt Fruits and Tenths began to be brought in, and were lodg'd in Heaps with the Prieſts; and in the 7th Month (when the Gathering of the Fruits of the whole Year was finiſh'd, Exod. xxiii. 16.) the Offerings of the Firſt Fruits and Tenths were compleated, and Hezekiah appointed proper Perſons to diſtribute the ſame, 2 Chron. xxxi.	2							3	23	22	5	King HOSHEA finding that Sabacon, or SO, the new King of Egypt, was a very powerful Prince, enter'd into Confederacy with him; hoping that So would aſſiſt him againſt Salmaneſer, whoſe Yoke Hoſhea was willing to ſhake off: Accordingly,
The Prophet Iſaiah now wrote his Prophecies in Chap. xviii. and xix. againſt Aſſyria the Scourge of Iſrael, and againſt Egypt the carnal Confidence of Iſrael.	3							4	24	23	6	HOSHEA this Year rebell'd againſt Salmaneſer, and paid him no more Tribute, nor acknowledg'd the Aſſyrian's Superiority, 2 Kin. xvii. 4. but ſadly found Egypt to be a broken Reed, not fit to be lean'd upon, as Zedekiah King of Judah found it afterwards.
HEZEKIAH now rais'd an Army while Salmaneſer was engag'd in the Siege of Samaria, and attackt the Philiſtins, recovering firſt all thoſe Cities that they had taken in Judah from his Father Achaz.	4	288	371	724	3280	727	252	XIV.1	25	24	7	Salmaneſer in the beginning of this Year, reſolving to be reveng'd of HOSHEA, marched an Army into Paleſtin; but he firſt ſubdued the Moabites, deſtroying their two chief Cities Arne and Kir-haraſeh, (according to the Prophecy of Iſaiah in the Year that Achaz died, above-mention'd on t'other Column) and fortified the Paſſages into Arabia.
And this Year HEZEKIAH march'd into Philiſtia, ſubduing all the Country, except the two ſtrong Cities of Gath and Gaza, 2 Kings xviii. 8. whereby Iſaiah's Prophecy above-mention'd (Chap. xiv. 28, &c.) was fulfill'd.	5							2	26	25	8	When Salmaneſer had thus ſecured himſelf from being diſturb'd by the Arabs, he marched his Army ſtreight to Samaria, and blockaded it for three Year currant, having his Army ſupply'd by the adjacent Countries, 2 Kin. xvii. 5.
The final Captivity of Iſrael happen'd in the 6th Year of HEZEKIAH, while that good King flouriſh'd, and became a Terror to all the Countries round him. And now the Tribe of Simeon, who had a very ſmall Border, being encreaſed in Numbers by their Brethren that fled from the Land of Iſrael, where they had been much employ'd as Scribes and Schoolmaſters, they muſter'd their Forces, and invaded the Country of the Amalekites that lay next to them about Gerar, whereby they inlarged their Borders.	6	290	373	722	3282	729	254	3	27	26	9	In the End of this 3d Year of the Siege Salmaneſer took in Samaria, put poor King HOSHEA in Chains, and ſhut him up in Priſon, till he died, at Niniveh; carried the greateſt Part of the Iſraelites captive into Aſſyria, and ſent them into Chalach, and Chabor, and Nehar-Gozan, and the other Cities of the Medes, whither Tiglath-Puleſer his Father had ſent the other captive Iſraelites, about eighteen Years ago. Thus ended the Kingdom of ISRAEL, after it had ſtood, from the Revolt of Jeroboam I. to the Captivity of HOSHEA, full 254 Years: Nor did they ever return as a Nation, nor were ever a diſtinct Kingdom any more.

The GENEALOGY of the Kings of Iſrael, from JEROBOAM the Firſt to HOSHEA the Laſt King.

N. B. The three Aſteriſms ⁂ ſignify the Beginning of a New Royal Family.

⁂ Nebat, a noble Ephraimite in the Days of King SOLOMON, had a Wife or a Concubine call'd Zervah, a Widow-woman, (1 Kin. xi. 26.) who bore to him

I. JEROBOAM, who became King of Iſrael A. M. 3030, by the Choice of the People, upon the Revolt of the Tribes from REHOBOAM, the Son of King SOLOMON, [Tab. 14.] His Wife N. N. He reigned 22 Years currant, and † A. M. 3051; was buried at Tirzah, and ſucceeded by

II. NADAB his Son, who began to reign before his Father died A. M. 3050, reigned 2 Years currant, till ſlain by his General Baaſha A. M. 3051, who gave his Body to the Dogs, and extirpated all the Race of Jeroboam. [Tab. 14.]

Abijah his young Son † without Iſſue A. M. 3034.

⁂ III. BAASHA, of Iſſachar, made King by the Army A. M. 3051, reigned at Tirzah 24 Years. His Wife N. N. He † A. M. 3074, buried at Tirzah, and ſucceeded by his Son

IV. ELAH, A. M. 3074, who reigned 2 Years currant, prov'd worſe than his Father, and was ſlain drunk by his General Zimri, who extirpated all the Family of Baaſha.

⁂ V. ZIMRI, King only for 7 Days till beſieged by Omri; when ZIMRI choſe to burn himſelf in the Palace of Tirzah, rather than be taken and ſlain by Omri.

⁂ VI. OMRI, the General of King Elah, upon the News of Elah's Fate, was proclaim'd King by the Army A. M. 3075, he deſtroy'd Zimri, and reigned at Tirzah 5 Years, till his Competitor King TIBNI died; and after Tibni's Death, OMRI reigned alone 7 Years currant, in all 12; made wicked Statutes, [Tab. 14.] built the Palace of Samaria, and made that his Metropolis. His Wife N. N. † A. M. 3086, and was buried in Samaria.

⁂ VII. TIBNI, made King by a Party of the People, over whom he reigned 5 Years, Contemporary with the firſt 5 Years of OMRI's Reign, till he † without Iſſue.

VIII. ACHAB, King A. M. 3086, reigned 22 Years currant. See his whole Story in Tab. 15. His Wife Jezebel. He was ſlain by the Syrians in the Battel of Ramoth Gilead, A. M. 3107.

IX. ACHAZIAH, made Copartner with his Father in the Throne A. M. 3106, reigned 2 Years currant while his Father liv'd, and after his Father's Death reign'd a few Months alone, till he died the ſame Year with his Father, of a Fall thro' the Lattice of his Chamber, without Iſſue A. M. 3107.

X. JORAM, or Jehoram, King upon the Death of his Brother Achaziah, began to reign in the Beginning of A. M. 3108, and reign'd 12 Years; not ſo great an Idolater as his Father and Brother, but maintain'd the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. His Wife N. N. Slain by JEHU, and his Body caſt into the Field of Naboth to be eaten by Dogs in the End of A. M. 3119, and all his Offſpring extirpated by Jehu his Succeſſor.

70 Sons ſlain by the Elders of Samaria, for fear of Jehu, 2 Kin. x.

Athaliah his Daughter, born A. M. 3077, was married to JEHORAM, who afterwards was King of Judah A. M. 3096. She was Queen Sovereign of Judah. See her Story, Tab. 16, and in the Genealogy of the Kings of Judah.

⁂ XI. JEHU, the Son of Jehoſhaphat, the Son of Nimſhi, anointed King of Iſrael by a young Prophet A. M. 3119; upon which the Garriſon at Ramoth Gilead proclaim'd him KING, with whom he march'd to Samaria, and deſtroy'd all the Houſe of Achab, [Tab. 16.] for which God promis'd that his Offſpring of the fourth Generation ſhould reign after him. He began to reign A. M. 3120, and reigned full 28 Years. His Wife N. N. Yet he departed not from the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. He † A. M. 3147, was buried in Samaria, and ſucceeded by

XII. JEHOACHAZ his Son, A. M. 3148, reign'd 17 Years currant. His Wife N. N. † in Peace A. M. 3164, buried with his Father JEHU. Succeeded by

XIII. JEHOASH, or Joaſh, his Son, who began to reign in the 16th Year of his Father's Reign A. M. 3163, and reigned 16 Years in Samaria; was a Friend of the Prophet Eliſha, who aſſured him of obtaining three great Victories over the Syrians, which he obtain'd, and reigned in great Splendor; and beat Amaziah King of Judah, the Year he died: [See Tab. 16] But the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. was not removed. His Wife N. N. He † A. M. 3178, and was buried with his Fathers. Succeeded by

XIV. JEROBOAM II. his Son, who had reign'd Partner with his Father eleven Years, and began to reign alone 41 Years A. M. 3179. He recover'd from the Syrians the Land of Iſrael that lay Eaſt of the Jordan, and poſſeſſed himſelf of Hamath and Damaſcus: [See Tab. 16.] His Wife N. N. He † A. M. 3219, and was buried with his Fathers. After his Death, there happen'd an Interregnum, or vacant Throne, of 11 Years and 6 Months: But at length he was ſucceeded by

XV. ZACHARIAH his Son A. M. 3231, the laſt of JEHU's Offſpring, ſlain by Shallum the Son of Jabeſh, after he had reign'd 6 Months, without Iſſue.

⁂ XVI. SHALLUM reigned A. M. 3232 during one Month only, being ſlain by Menachem the Son of Gadi, without Iſſue. Upon which happen'd an Interregnum of 11 Months.

⁂ XVII. MENACHEM began to reign A. M. 3233, and reigned 10 Years. His Wife N. N. He died A. M. 3242, buried with the Kings of Iſrael, and was ſucceeded by XVIII. PEKAHIAH his Son A. M. 3243, a Tributary of Sardanapalus, King of Aſſyria, reigned 2 Years, till he was ſlain by Pekah, the Son of Remaliah, without Iſſue.

⁂ XIX. PEKAH began to reign A. M. 3245, during 20 Years. [See Tab. 18.] Having loſt the largeſt Part of his Kingdom, that was taken by Tiglath-Puleſer, and carried Captive into Media A. M. 3265, he was ſlain by Hoſhea, the Son of Elah, the ſame Year of that firſt Captivity. After his Death there was an Interregnum of 9 Years. But at length

⁂ XX. HOSHEA came to be King A. M. 3275, became a Tributary of Salmaneſer King of Aſſyria, till he revolted; when Salmaneſer beſieged him in Samaria 3 Years, and, having took it in, the Aſſyrian bound HOSHEA in Chains, and ſent him Captive to Niniveh A. M. 3283, where he died, the laſt and beſt King of Iſrael. [See Tab. 17.]

TABLE XIX.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of JUDAH and their Contemporaries, from the Final Captivity of Iſrael to the Captivity of Judah, and the End of the 390 Years of EZEKIEL, during 136 Years.

KINGS of JUDAH.

The Final Captivity of ISRAEL happen'd after HEZEKIAH had reign'd ſix Years full, or in the 7th Year of his Reign.

This good King proſper'd in all his Undertakings; and, having conquer'd Philiſtia, (as in the foregoing Table) he fortify'd his Kingdom on all ſides, and rebell'd againſt Salmaneſer, refuſing to pay the Tribute that Achaz had paid; which was enough to provoke the proud Aſſyrian, fluſht with Succeſs, to march towards Jeruſalem, but that he had been long from home, wanted to ſee Niniveh, and ſettle his publick Affairs there; ſo that he affected not to attack Hezekiah till he was diſincumber'd of his Iſraelitiſh Captives, and of his great Spoils; tho' he was afterwards diverted from it alſo by his Tyrian War, as on the other Column below.

As for the Iſraelites they juſtly brought on their Captivity by fearful Sinning againſt Jehovah their God, who brought them out of Egypt, and had planted them in the Land of Canaan, by walking in the Statutes of the Heathen, and of their own Kings, who all followed the ill Example of Jeroboam I. by their ſecret Sins, and their High-places without Number; their Images and Groves on every High Hill, and under every Green Tree; by their molten Images, their two Golden Calves of Dan and Bethel, by ſerving Baal with an Altar, a Grove, and a Temple, and by worſhipping all the Hoſt of Heaven; by cauſing their Sons and Daughters to paſs thro' the Fire in Sacrifice to horrid Moloch; by uſing Divinations and Inchantments; by rejecting the Statutes and Covenant of Jehovah the God of their Fathers; by following the Vanities of the Nations round them, and by their woful and final Impenitence, obſtinately refuſing to liſten to all the ſolemn Admonitions of God's Prophets, that from time to time were ſent to reclaim them.

But ſtill there was a Remnant of the People left in the Land of Iſrael, (as will appear in the Story of King JOSIAH) who were moſt of 'em glean'd up afterwards by Eſerhaddon, King of Aſſyria and Babylon, A. M. 3327.

CONTEMPORARIES.

The Final Captivity of ISRAEL happen'd 254 Years after the Revolt of Jeroboam I. from the Houſe of DAVID.

This Year Mardoch-Empadus the Son of the great NABONASSAR, call'd in Holy Writ Merodach-Baladan the Son of Baladan, (which was one of the Names of Nabonaſſar, as Beleſis was another) began to reign at Babylon, tho' ſeveral other Princes had reign'd there from his Father's Death till now that he came to be of Age.

In this firſt Year of his Reign, on the 29th Day of Thoth the Egyptian Month, or 19th of our March, two Hours and a half before Midnight, happen'd an Eclipſe of the Moon at Babylon, the oldeſt remarked by Ptolemy in Magn. Syntax. lib. iv. cap. 6. which was made 120 Years before the firſt Eclipſe foretold by Thales.

This Eclipſe happen'd 19 Years after the firſt Captivity of Iſrael by Tiglath-Puleſer, and therefore ſome think the Babylonians learn'd to obſerve Eclipſes from ſome of the captive Iſraelites, whom Nabonaſſar, the old Confederate of Tiglath-Puleſer, had obtain'd to help to People his new City Babylon: For the Tribes of Iſrael, from the Exodus to the Death of SOLOMON during 516 Years, obſerving their Feaſts of New Moons and Full Moons inſtituted by MOSES, were led to obſerve the Lunar Eclipſes: And after the Partition of the Kingdom, tho' Jeroboam erected his Idolatry to keep the People from going up to Jeruſalem; yet he inſtituted Feaſts of New Moons and Full Moons, like thoſe of Moſes, to pleaſe the People; only they were not to be celebrated in the ſame Months, which continued till their final Captivity: So that we muſt allow the Iſraelites to have been as good Obſervers of Eclipſes as the Jews; and when they were carried Captive, they would readily oblige their new Lords, by communicating their Knowledge of Eclipſes to them, in order to be well eſteemed and better uſed by them.

That this Opinion is feaſible appears from what is ſaid by Pliny, lib. 7. cap. 56. where he tells us, That Epigenes, an Author much converſant in Chaldean Affairs, affirms the Chaldeans had made Celeſtial Obſervations of 730 Years. Now, it is generally computed, that Epigenes wrote in the ninth Year of the Chriſtian Era, in the latter End of Auguſtus's Reign, or, according to our Chronology, A M. 4013; from which if we ſubſtract 730, the Remainder is 3283, the very Year of the World when the ſaid firſt Eclipſe mention'd by Ptolemy happen'd at Babylon, An. Nabonaſſ. 27.

Pliny ſays further, that Beroſus, the Prieſt of Belus at Babylon, dedicated his Hiſtory of Chaldea to Antiochus Theos; wherein he mentions the Celeſtial Obſervations of 480 Years made at Babylon; but Antiochus began to reign A. M. 3743. An. Nabon. 486, and having reign'd 15 Years he died, viz. before Chriſt 246, A M. 3758, An. Nabon. 501: But if Beroſus wrote in this laſt Year of Antiochus, we muſt ſubſtract from A. M. 3758
The foreſaid Years 480

The Remainder is A. M. 3278, or An. Nabon. 21. which is juſt ſix Years before the ſaid firſt Obſervation at Babylon mention'd by Ptolemy, and 14 Years after the firſt Captivity of Iſrael by Tiglath-Puleſer.

But ſuppoſing Beroſus wrote in the Middle of Antiochus's Reign A. M. 3750, his foreſaid 480 Years reckon'd backward will commence at A. M. 3270, or An Nabon. 14, even the Year when Nabonaſſar died, and 6 Years after the ſaid firſt Captivity of Iſrael, and 13 Years only before the ſaid firſt Celeſtial Obſervation at Babylon. Hence it appears,

1. That the Obſervations of Eclipſes at Babylon, mention'd by Ptolemy, are the moſt antient that were known in the Days of King Antiochus Theos, and of Beroſus, who had a great Attachment to the Glory of his Country, and would have certainly mention'd older ones if he could.

2. That what Porphyrius mentions of Caliſthenes cannot be true, or is much to be doubted, viz. Caliſthenes ſaid, That before Babylon was taken by Alexander the Great, the Babylonians had made Celeſtial Obſervations of 1903 Years inſcribed on Columns: For this Account not only varies from that of Epigenes, Beroſus and Ptolemy, but carries the Thing too far back, even to the 115th Year after the Flood, when Nimrod was buſy in Building the Tower of Babel, and before the People were confounded and diſperſed, which is moſt improbable: Therefore either Caliſthenes was impos'd upon when at Babylon by ſome Boaſters of Antiquity; or elſe he did not rightly underſtand the Language, and the Numbers of the Chaldeans, which is moſt likely.

3. That NABONASSAR might have got ſome Iſraelite Captives from his Friend Tiglath-Puleſer, to help to fill his new City Babylon, in Time enough for them to teach the Babylonians how to obſerve Eclipſes, not only before the ſaid

KINGS of JUDAH.

King HEZEKIAH liv'd at eaſe, tho' the Army of Salmaneſer was in his Neighbourhood, in the Land of Tyre and Zidon; for the Aſſyrian had work enough there at the Siege of Tyre, which he left to the Conduct of his Generals, while he return'd to ſettle Affairs at Niniveh, (as on the other Column) and never more came into Paleſtin.

About this Time Iſaiah wrote. his Prophecy againſt Tyre, Chap. xxiii. foretelling their Deſtruction, which was accompliſh'd by Nebuchadnezzar afterwards.

HEZEKIAH defied Sennacherib's Demand of Homage and Tribute; and the ſame Year he fell ſick of a peſtilential Diſtemper, when God ſent him a Meſſage by Iſaiah, to ſet his Houſe in Order, and to prepare for Death: But God hearken'd to his Prayer, and ſent him another Meſſage by the ſame Prophet, promiſing to prolong his Life 15 Years, and to deliver him from the Aſſyrian then marching againſt him; for the Aſſurance of which God, at his Requeſt, gave him a miraculous Sign, making the Shadow of the Sun to go backward ten Degrees on Achaz's Dial, 2 Kin. xx.

That this happen'd in this 14th Year of his Reign appears, by ſubſtracting theſe 15 Years from the 29 Years of his Reign; though it is not placed in Scripture till after the Story of Sennacherib's Invaſion.

This good King, upon applying a Plaiſter of Figs to the Boil, recover'd in three Days, went up to the Temple to return God Thanks, and compos'd that ſublime Ode or Pſalm recorded Iſa. xxxviii.

Achaz's Dial was mention'd in Tab. 17. and the Degrees upon it ſeem to have been Lines for the Shadow of the Gnomon to ſignify the Hours; ſo that ten Degrees were ten Hours, by which this firſt Eclipſe mention'd by Ptolemy, but alſo before the foreſaid Reckoning of Beroſus commenced. See Flamſtedii Hiſt. Cœleſt. Vol. III. in Prolog. pag. 3–7.

Ptolemy ſays further, That, in this 2d Year of Mardoch-Empadus, two other Eclipſes of the Moon happen'd at Babylon; the one on the 18th Day of Thoth at Midnight, or our 9th of March; and the next after 176 Days, and 20 Hours and a half, on the 15th Day of Phamenoth, or 1ſt of September, 3 Hours and a half before Midnight.

Elulæus King of Tyre, perceiving the other Philiſtins reduced by King Hezekiah, had lately attempted to reduce the Gittites, or Men of Gath, lately revolted from him, under his Dominion; but they applying to Salmaneſer for Protection, the Aſſyrian marched a great Army againſt the Tyrians, when Zidon, Acon, and other Maritime Towns revolted from the Tyrians, came alſo under Salmaneſer's Protection, and furniſhed him with 60 Ships of War, and 800 Rowers: But the Tyrians with only 12 Ships of War beat them at Sea, took 500 Captives, acquir'd great Naval Glory, and were animated to endure a Siege.

When Salmaneſer had blokaded Tyre this Year, he order'd his Army to diſtreſs the beſieged by ſtopping their Aquæducts, and returned himſelf to Niniveh: But the Tyrians digged Wells, and bravely held out five Years.

King So, or Sabacon, the Ethiopian King of Egypt being dead, his Son

Sevechus reigned there in his ſtead during 14 Years, and ſeems to have been Sethon, the Prieſt of Vulcain, mention'd by Herodote.

Candaules King of Lydia being murder'd, at the Inſtigation of his Wife, by his Servant Gyges the Son of Daſcylus the Shepherd, the ſaid Gyges uſurped that Crown during 38 Years, the firſt of the Mermnadæ and Progenitor of Croeſus. Herodot. lib. i.

The Tyrians after a Siege of 5 Years were at length relieved by Salmaneſer's Death this Year, after he had reigned 14 Years, when his Son

Sennacherib ſucceeded, (Tobit i. 18.) and reigned about 8 Years. He is call'd Sargon by Iſaiah, Chap. xx. 1. and he is ſaid to be King both of the Aſſyrians and Arabians, (Herod. lib. ii.) becauſe he and his Fathers had conquer'd much of North Arabia.

Sennacherib, now ſettled in the Throne, ſent to demand of King Hezekiah that Homage and Tribute which his Father Achaz had paid to the Crown of Aſſyria; and, upon Hezekiah's Refuſal, denounced War againſt him, marched a vaſt Army into Paleſtin about the End of this Year, after Hezekiah's Recovery, (as on the other Column) took in ſeveral of the fenced Cities of Judah, laid Siege to Lachiſh, and threaten'd to attack Jeruſalem next; but he did not: For, 2 Chron. xxxii.

King HEZEKIAH repaired the Walls of Jeruſalem, fortify'd them with Towers, prepared Shields and Darts, and other fit Artillery for its Defence, inroll'd and marſhall'd the People fit for War under experienc'd Officers, ſtopt all the Wells round the City, and diverted the Brooks and Water-Courſes another Way, in order to diſtreſs the Enemy, and encourag'd the People with good Exhortations: He alſo enter'd into an Alliance with the King of Egypt, for their mutual Defence againſt the Aſſyrian; but God approved not of this Alliance, as appears from Iſa. xxx. and xxxi. as it imported a Diſtruſt in God, who was able and willing to defend them, would ruin the proud Aſſyrian, and would turn their Confidence in Egypt to their Shame, Reproach and Confuſion, as it ſoon happen'd.

Sennacherib, hearing of Hezekiah's vaſt Preparations, thought it fit to come to Terms; for Hezekiah was ſo faint-hearted at this Time as to ſend to Sennacherib at Lachiſh, ſaying, I have offended, return from me, and what thou putteſt on me I will bear. Upon which the Aſſyrian fined him in 300 Talents of Silver and 30 Talents of Gold, which Hezekiah raiſed from the Treaſures of the Temple and the Royal Palace; for he gave Sennacherib all the Silver found therein, and cut off the Gold from the Doors and Pillars of the Temple for Sennacherib, who gave Hezekiah ſome Reſpite.

KINGS of JUDAH.

Day was ten Hours longer than the ordinary Day, and the Night following was ſo much the ſhorter; not ſaid to be made by any retrograde Motion of the Sun, but only of the Shadow of the Sun upon the Dial, which might be effected by God's ſtopping the diurnal Motion of the Earth, and by other Methods unknown to Mankind; whereby the Sun and Moon, and the whole Celeſtial Frame ſeem'd to move back. This occaſion'd a wonderful Inequality in the Civil Day; but this Inequality was ſo temperated by the Divine Providence, that the conſtant and regular Motion of the Celeſtial Bodies received no Detriment thereby; as appears by the Three firſt Eclipſes mention'd by Ptolemy, ſpoken of above on the other Column: For their Calculation reckon'd backward from our Days exhibits the ſame Meaſure of Time noted by the Chaldeans, as if there never happen'd any ſuch retrograde Motion of the Sun's Shadow.

In this Year that Tartan came unto Aſhdod, (when Sargan, or Sennacherib the King of Aſſyria ſent him) and took it, did Jehovah command Iſaiah to caſt off his prophetical Habit, and to walk naked and bare-footed for 3 Years, for a Wonder upon Egypt and Ethiopia, Iſa. xx. ſaying, So ſhall the King of Aſſyria lead away the Egyptians Priſoners, and the Ethiopians Captives, Young and Old, naked and bare foot, even with uncover'd Buttocks, to the Shame of Egypt. Which was accompliſh'd during three Years after this; for now the Aſſyrian's War upon Egypt began. When Sennacherib was gone to Egypt, as on the other Column, Merodach-Baladan the Son of Baladan, (call'd by Ptolemy Mardoch-Empadus) King of Babylon, having heard of Hezekiah's miraculous Recovery, ſent Ambaſſadors with Preſents to congratulate him, to enquire into the Long Day that happen'd laſt Year by the Retrogradation of the Sun's Shadow on Achaz's Dial; (for the Babylonians were now buſy in their Aſtronomical Calculations, and fond of ſuch Enquiries) and alſo to make an Alliance with Hezekiah againſt the King of Aſſyria, whoſe growing Power was equally terrible to them both, Iſa. xxxix.

HEZEKIAH was glad to ſee them, and, perhaps willing to render his Friendſhip the more valuable, ſhew'd to thoſe Ambaſſadors all his Riches, Treaſures, Armoury, Stores, precious Things, and warlike Strength throughout all his Dominion, which he had ſtill remaining after what he had parted with to Sennacherib, and which was encreaſing daily; but not without Expreſſions of Vanity and Pride: Wherefore God ſent him a Rebuke by Iſaiah, ſaying, Behold the Days come, that all which is in thy Houſe, and what thy Fathers have laid up in Store to this Day, ſhall be carried to Babylon, nothing ſhall be left ſaith Jehovah! And thy Sons that ſhall iſſue from thee (though he had no Son yet) ſhall be carried captive, and they ſhall be Eunuchs in the Palace of the King of Babylon; or Servants of the Royal Houſhold there. Thus Hezekiah's Pride was humbled, and the good King ſubmitted to the Will of God, ſaying to Iſaiah, Good is the Word of Jehovah which thou haſt ſpoken! and was thankful that Peace and Truth ſhould be continued in his Days.

When the News came to Jeruſalem of the Devaſtations that Sennacherib made in Egypt, according to the Prophecy of Iſaiah above-mention'd, ſurely the other Words of Iſaiah, Chap. xx. 5, 6. were accompliſh'd concerning the Jews, ſaying, And they (the Jews) ſhall be afraid and aſhamed of Ethiopia their Expectation, and of Egypt their Glory; and the Inhabitants of this Country ſhall ſay in that Day, Behold ſuch is our Expectation, whither we flee for Help to be deliver'd from the King of Aſſyria! and how ſhall we eſcape?

Manaſſeh was born this Year to Hezekiah by Hephzibah his Queen; for he was 12 Years old when his Father died, and he began to reign, 2 Kin. xxi. 1.

When Sennacherib broke his Agreement with Hezekiah, and ſent his three chief Commanders from Lachiſh to Jeruſalem, viz. Tartan, Rabſaris, and Rabſhakeh, (as on the other Column) with a ſtrong Detachment, who ſtood near the Walls by the Conduit of the upper Pool in the Highway of the Fuller's Field; and having call'd to King HEZEKIAH, he ſent out Hilkiah the Steward of the Houſhold, and Shebnah the Secretary, and Joab, the Son of Aſaph, the Recorder.

Sennacherib, upon his Agreement with Hezekiah, left the Siege of Lachiſh, intending to invade Egypt; and to facilitate his Deſcent he ſent Tartan, one of his Generals, with a Detachment to take Aſhdod, or Azotus in Philiſtia; and, having thus open'd the beſt Paſſage for his Army, Sennacherib marched, not through the Deſert, but in the Merchants Road near the Seaſide, down upon Egypt.

Aſtacus, a City in Bithynia, was now founded. See Biblioth. Photii, pag. 374.

Sennacherib found Egypt an eaſy Prey; for Sevechus then King of Egypt was an impolitic Prince, had made himſelf the High Prieſt of Vulcain, and, being wretchedly addicted to Superſtition, he neglected the Office of a King, had taken away the Tenures of his Father's military Men, and disbanded them; ſo that he had only an Army of new-rais'd, undiſciplin'd People, that could make no Stand againſt Sennacherib's Veterans, who eaſily over-ran the Country, and did what they pleas'd; particularly they ruin'd the great City No-Ammon, or Thebes, famous for its hundred Gates, which was call'd by the Greeks Dioſpolis, or City of Jupiter, as No-Ammon by the Egyptians, for Ammon was the Egyptian Jupiter. This the Prophet Nahum ſpeaks of hiſtorically, Chap. iii. 8, 9, 10. when he ſpeaks prophetically of the Deſtruction of Niniveh.

Thus the Prophecy of Iſaiah on the other Column was accompliſh'd concerning Egypt. See Herodot. lib. ii.

Sennacherib, having gather'd many Captives and great Spoils throughout the Land of Egypt, thought of returning homeward; and, to ſecure his Paſſage into Egypt another time, reſolv'd to poſſeſs himſelf of the ſtrong City Peluſium, the Key and Entry of Egypt: But, after ſome time ſpent in that Siege, he was forced to break up and retire, becauſe Tirhakah, King of the Arabian Ethiopia, came with a great Army to the Relief of his Kinſman Sevechus, and Sennacherib durſt not abide his Coming; but marched off into Judea, and again laid Siege to Lachiſh, renewing the War upon Hezekiah notwithſtanding his former Agreement, and ſent a great Detachment of his Army againſt Jeruſalem, under the Command of Tartan, Rabſaris, and Rabſhakeh his chief Officers, as on the other Column: For

KINGS of JUDAH.

Rabſhakeh was the Speaker, who ſeems to have been either a Jewiſh Runagado, or a Captive Iſraelite; for he deliver'd his Meſſage in the Hebrew Tongue in the Hearing of the People on the Wall, hoping thereby to draw the People to a Revolt. Rabſhakeh banter'd Hezekiah's confiding in JEHOVAH, ſlighted and blaſphemed the God of Jeruſalem, ranking him with the God's of the Nations, whom his Maſter Sennacherib had ſubdued; call'd Hezekiah a Rebel, and the People Fools for believing him, and for truſting to Egypt a broken Reed, whereon if a Man lean, it will go into his Hand and pierce it, ſo is Pharaoh to all that truſt in him: And adviſed the People not to hearken to Hezekiah, &c. as may be ſeen at large Iſa. xxxvi. 2 Kin. xviii. 2 Chron. xxxii. But the People held their Peace, and anſwer'd him not a Word, as Hezekiah had adviſed them; and the Aſſyrians returned to their Maſter without effecting any thing.

Upon which King Hezekiah rent his Cloaths, cover'd himſelf with Sackcloth, went into the Temple, and ſent Eliakim and Shebnah, and the Elders of the Prieſts to the Prophet Iſaiah, deſiring him to pray to God in this Day of Trouble, Rebuke and Blaſphemy: And Iſaiah return'd from God with a very comfortable Meſſage to HEZEKIAH, aſſuring him that God would ſend a Blaſt upon Sennacherib, who ſhould hear a Rumour and return to his own Land, and there fall by the Sword; which was ſoon fulfilled as on the other Column.

When HEZEKIAH received Sennacherib's blaſphemous Letter, (as on the other Column) he carried it to the Temple and ſpread it before Jehovah, pouring out his Requeſts to God in a moſt earneſt and pathetical Prayer, mention'd Iſai. xxxvii. To which he received a moſt gracious Anſwer from God by Iſaiah elegantly expreſſed at large from Ver. 22, to Ver. 35. wherein God rebukes the Blaſphemy and Folly of Sennacherib, threatens his Deſtruction, to put a Hook in his Noſe, and a Bridle in his Lips, and turn him back by the Way he came; and aſſures Jeruſalem and Zion of Protection againſt the Aſſyrian, who ſhall not be allow'd to lay Siege to the Holy City for God's own ſake, (whom Sennacherib had blaſphem'd) and for his Servant David's ſake, and his choſen Remnant.

This anſwer to Hezekiah's Prayer was given while Sennacherib was on his March towards Jeruſalem, fluſh'd with Victory over Tirhakah; and next Night the Angel of Jehovah deſtroy'd the Aſſyrian Camp, (as on the other Column) 2 Kin xix. 35. Thus the Promiſe of God was ſoon fulfill'd, and God gave to Hezekiah an Aſſurance of his future Protection and Bleſſing, ſaying, And this ſhall be a Sign unto thee, ye ſhall eat this Year ſuch Things as grow of themſelves, and in the ſecond Year that which ſpringeth of the ſame; and in the third Year ſow ye, and reap, and plant Vineyards, and eat the Fruits therefore, 2 Kin. xix. 29. For the Aſſyrian Army had grub'd up the Country, and ſtopt the regular Courſe of Agriculture; and the ſecond Year was the Jubilee, when there could be no Sowing.

The XVth Year of JUBILEE, the moſt joyfully celebrated of any ſince the IXth Year of Jubilee, which began at the Dedication of Solomon's Temple; not only becauſe of the late great Deliverance of the Jews from Sennacherib, which they would thankfully remember, but alſo that now King HEZEKIAH and his People began to be very proſperous; and many this Year brought Offerings to Jehovah at Jeruſalem, not only from Judah and the Remnant of Iſrael, but even from other Countries, who made rich Preſents to Hezekiah; for he was magnified in the Sight of all Nations from thenceforth, 2 Chron. xxxii. 22, 23.

though in Iſa. xxxvi. 1, 2. it would ſeem that Rabſhakeh came in the 14th Year of Hezekiah, yet in 2 Chron. xxxii. 9. it is ſaid, After this did Sennacherib ſend his Servants to Jeruſalem; even after the firſt Threatning in the 14th Year of Hezekiah; and it is alſo diſtinguiſh'd from that in the 14th Year in 2 Kin. xviii. 17.

When Rabſhakeh and the others return'd to Sennacherib, they found he had decamped from Lachiſh, and had laid Siege to Libnah; where, hearing that Tirhakah was in full March, purſuing him as a flying Enemy, Sennacherib drew forth his Army from the Siege, marched to meet the Ethiopian, and gave Tirhakah a total Rout, according to the Prophecy of Iſaiah, Chap. xx.

But Sennacherib, before he marched from Libnah againſt Tirhakah, ſent Meſſengers to Hezekiah with a threatning blaſphemous Letter, ſaying, Let not the God in whom thou truſteſt deceive thee, ſaying, Jeruſalem ſhall not be given into the Hand of the King of Aſſyria! Behold thou haſt heard what the Kings of Aſſyria have done unto all Lands, by deſtroying them utterly, and ſhalt thou be delivered? Have the Gods of the Nations delivered them which my Father deſtroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the Children of Eden in Telaſſar? Where is the King of Hamath, and the King Arphad, and the King of the City of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivah? Iſa. xxxvii. 9—13.

Sennacherib having received an Anſwer of Defiance from Hezekiah, and having overthrown Tirhakah's Army, (tho' Tirhakah himſelf eſcap'd, and became afterwards King of Egypt) fluſht with Victory he march'd from the Field of Battel ſtreight towards Jeruſalem, deſigning to execute his Threatnings againſt Hezekiah; but never reached it:

For JEHOVAH, being highly provok'd by the Aſſyrian's Blaſphemy, ſent an Angel (the next Night after the gracious Anſwer to Hezekiah's Prayer on the other Column) who went out and ſmote, in the Camp of the Aſſyrians, all the mighty Men of Valour, with the Leaders and the Captains, in all 185000 Men; ſo that when Sennacherib and his Remnant aroſe early in the Morning, they found the Army almoſt all dead Corpſes. Upon which the Pride of Sennacherib was abaſed, and he was ſo terrified that he made all the Haſte he could out of Judea, after he had triumphed there and thereabouts four Years, and by the Way he came he returned with Shame to Niniveh, where he ended his Days inglorious, (according to the Prophecy on the other Column) and never recover'd the late dreadful Loſs of his Army; but fell into Contempt among his Subjects, and ſeveral Provinces revolted from him, eſpecially the Province of Media, the largeſt and richeſt of all his Empire: For, during his Abſence in Paleſtin, the Medes had ſhook off the Yoke of the Kings of Aſſyria, and had erected themſelves into a Democratical Government, (as Dr. Prideaux rightly obſerves, in which he corrects Archbiſhop Uſher) but not agreeing well in the Adminiſtration, and being afraid of Anarchy, they choſe their Arbitrator Dejoces to be their King next Year.

And ſo this Year Dejoces began to reign over Media at the City of Ekbatana, which he made his Capital, and reigned there 53 Years in great Proſperity; for he began to reign 150 Years before the Beginning of Cyrus,* that is, before Cyrus was made General of the Medes and Perſians. See A M. 3445 in the following Chronology; for by ſubſtracting from it ———150

The Remainder 3295, is the Year of the World, when Dejoces began to reign. Beſides, that this Epocha of the Median Kingdom is demonſtrated exact, by the Reigns of the Kings of Media mention'd by Herodotus; and by the Solar Eclipſe in the Days of Cyaxares, A. M. 3403, to be ſeen.

This ſame Year Mardoch-Empadus, or Merodach-Baladan, after reigning 12 Years, died, and Arkianus ſucceeded him as King of Babylon during 5 Years. See Ptol. in Reg Can.

The City Parion in the Mouth of the Helleſpont was now founded, or rather repair'd, by the Mileſians.

KINGS of JUDAH.

This Year the Jews began to ſow and reap and plant Vineyards, and to eat the Fruits thereof, being the Year after the Jubilee, according to the Promiſe in God's Anſwer to Hezekiah's Prayer above mentioned.

In the firſt Chapter of TOBIT, he ſays, now when Enemeſſar (or Salmaneſer) was dead, Sennacherib his Son reigned in his ſtead, whoſe Eſtate was ſo troubled that I could not go into Media, (viz. when the Medes were beginning to revolt from Sennacherib) and if I ſaw any of my Nation dead or caſt about the Walls of Niniveh, I buried him: and if the King Sennacherib had ſlain any when he was returned and fled from Judea, I buried them privately (for in his Wrath he killed many) for which being complained of I was ſought to be put Death, all my Goods were confiſcated, and I withdrew my ſelf for fear, with Anna my Wife, and my Son Tobias: but there paſſed not 55 Days before two of his Sons killed him, and they fled into the Mountains of Ararath (or Armenia) and Sarchedonus (or Eſerhaddon) reigned in his ſtead, Tob. i. 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21.

Hezekiah delivered from all his Fears, flouriſhed in his latter Days and made his Kingdom great. He much improved and embelliſhed Jeruſalem, fortified it anew, and built large Magazines and a new Aqueduct. He alſo imployed the Scribes to collate the Law and the other Holy Scriptures, and tranſcribe Copies of it; and alſo to gather into one Volume the Proverbs of Solomon.

So after he had reigned in great Proſperity about ten Years, he died this Year in the twenty ninth of his Reign, the ſame Year that Apronadius began to reign at Babylon, when all Judah and Jeruſalem did him Honour at his Death, and buried him in a moſt ſolemn Manner, in the innermoſt Room of the Royal Sepulchre of David, as their worthieſt King ſince David's Days, and his Coffin is to be ſeen to this Day; for the Royal Sepulchre ſtill remains. He was ſucceeded by his Son

XIV. Manaſſeh aged 12 Years, whoſe Mother was Hephzibah (2 K. xxi. 1.) and who reigned 55 Years in Jeruſalem. He fell into ill Hands during his Minority, that were Enemies to Hezekiah's Reformation, and educated their young King Manaſſeh in the greateſt Averſion to it, and in the worſt Principles and Practices; ſo that when he commenced a Man, he proved the greateſt Idolater, Debauchee, and Tyrant of all the Kings of either Judah or Iſrael: for he did more Evil in the Sight of Jehovah than Achab and Achaz both, following the Abominations of the Heathen, rebuilding the High Places that his Father had deſtroyed, rearing up Altars for Baal, made a Grove wherein he worſhiped all the hoſt of Heaven; and built idolatrous Altars in the two Courts of Jehovah's Temple, and ſet up in it a Model or Graven Image of his Grove. He alſo obſerved Times, uſed Inchantments, and dealt with familiar Spirits and Wizards; whereby he wrought much Wickedneſs, and ſeduced his People to do more Evil than the Nations did, whom God deſtroyed before

DEJOCES King of the Medes began to beautify and inlarge his Capital City Ekbatana, called in Ezra vi. 2. Achmetha, which is deſcribed in the firſt Chapter of Judith, where it is ſaid to be built by Arphaxad King of the Medes, who is the ſame with Dejoces; for all other Hiſtorians aſcribe it to Dejoces, whom the Greeks call the Founder of it.

As for SENNACHERIB, he could not bear his Loſſes patiently, but ſhewed his Rage by a tyrannical Adminiſtration, and his Revenge againſt the Jews and Iſraelites, ordering many of them every Day to be ſlain and caſt into the Streets; whereby his Government became ſo intolerable, that his two eldeſt Sons Adramelech and Sharezar, (perhaps afraid of being ſlain or ſacrificed by him) conſpired againſt him and ſlew him with the Sword, while he was worſhiping in the Temple of Nisroch his God at Niniveh, after he had reigned about 8 Years: nor were the People ſorry for him, but let the Parricides eſcape Northwards into the Land of Armenia, while they crowned his third Son, viz.

ESARCHADDON, or Eſerhaddon, or Aſſaraddin, who now began to reign at Niniveh over Aſſyria during near 39 Years.

Sevechus or Sethon King of Egypt, after he had reigned 14 Years, now died, and was ſucceeded in that Throne by his Kinſman, viz.

TIRHAKAH King of the Arabian Ethiopians, (lately defeated by Sennacherib) who began this Year to be King of Egypt, called Tarachus Æthiops * and reigned 18 Years, the third and laſt of the Ethiopian Royal Race in Egypt.

Arkianus King of Babylon after he had reigned ten Years, dying this Year without Iſſue; thereupon happened an Interregnum of two Years in the Kingdom of Babylon, See Ptol. Reg. Canon.

Belibus (or Belithus, or Belelus) after the two Years Interregnum, began to reign at Babylon during three Years complete, ibid.

Apronadius ſucceeded to be King of Babylon, and reigned there during 6 Years, ibid.

Upon the Death of Apronadius,
Regibelus came to be King of Babylon for one Year, ibid. after whom Meſeſſimordachus came to be King of Babylon during four Years, ibid.

Upon the Death of Meſeſſimordachus without Iſſue
An Interregnum followed at Babylon during 8 Years, ibid.
And Tirhakah King of Egypt dying this Year, after he had reigned there 18 Years
An Interregnum followed in Egypt during two Years, by not agreeing about the Succeſſion.

It is gathered from Herodotus (Lib. I. ch. 130.) that this Year, when the Interregnum at Babylon happened, Dejoces advanced the Empire of the Medes as far as the River Halys, viz. before the End of Aſtyages 128 Years.

fore the Children of Iſrael. Moreover Manaſſeh ſhed innocent Blood very much, till he had filled Jeruſalem from one End to another, and made one of his Sons paſs thro' the Fire to horrid Moloch.

God ſent his Prophets firſt to reclaim him and his People, and ſeeing they would not be reclaimed by Warnings, God ſent again his Prophets to threaten, that becauſe Manaſſeh had ſinned beyond the Amorites, and had made Judah to ſin with his Idols; therefore, ſaid Jehovah the God of Iſrael, behold I bring ſuch Evil upon Jeruſalem and Judah, that ſhall tingle the Ears of all that hear it; and I will ſtretch over Jeruſalem the Line of Samaria, and the Plummet of the Houſe of Achab, and wipe it like a Diſh turning it upſide down, and I will forſake the Remnant of mine Inheritance, and deliver them into the Hand of their Enemies; and they ſhall become a Prey and a Spoil to all their Enemies, &c. 2 K. xxi. 11. &c. accordingly God ſent againſt him

Eſerhaddon the Emperor of Aſſyria, (as on the other Column) whoſe Captains defeat Manaſſeh in the Field; and having hid himſelf among the Thorns, they found him, bound him in Fetters, and carried him to Babylon to Eſerhaddon, who put him in Priſon in this 23d Year of his Reign.

He humbled himſelf greatly before the God of his Fathers, and in his Affliction beſought Jehovah his God (2 Chron. xxxiii. 11, 12, 13.) praying unto him according, perhaps, to the Prayer recorded in the Apocrypha.

Upon which, God was entreated of him, heard his Supplication, and brought him again to Jeruſalem and to his Throne, in this ſame 23d Year of his Reign, by influencing Eſerhaddon to diſmiſs him upon Terms, as on the other Column.

And now Manaſſeh aboliſhed all Idolatry, revived the Reformation of Hezekiah, reſtored Eliakim (called alſo in Judith Joakim, which ſignifies the ſame with Eliakim) the High Prieſt to be firſt Miniſter of State in the Room of wicked Shebnah, who died in the Country of Babylon (according to Iſa. xxii. 15——25.) extended his Reformation over all his Kingdom, and reigned in Proſperity all the reſt of his Life, during 32 Years, which with 23 makes 55, the Total of his Reign.

CONTEMPORARIES.

After the Anarchy in Egypt, there followed the Dodecharchy, or the Ariſtrocratical Government of 12 Princes, who divided Egypt in 12 Parts, and by a Confederacy ruled together during 15 Years.

ESERHADDON King of Aſſyria took Advantage of the Anarchy at Babylon, and this Year after the Interregnum of 8 Years there, ſeized that City, and reduced that Kingdom to the old Empire of Aſſyria, and reigned over Babylon as well as Aſſyria during almoſt 13 Years, the Remainder of his Life, called by Ptolemy Aſſar Addinus, and by Ezra he is called the great and noble Aſnapper, Ez. iv. 10.

This Year Ardys the Son of Gyges began to reign over the Lydians during 49 Years.

Eſerhaddon in this fourth Year of his Reign over Babylon, now intent upon recovering what his Father Sennacherib had loſt in Paleſtine, marched a great Army into Syria and from thence to Samaria, and ſent into Captivity the Remains of Iſrael, whom Salmaneſer had left in the Land about 44 Years ago, and who being much encreaſed had now ſome Appearance of Ariſtrocratical Government, which Eſerhaddon would not permit; and therefore ſent them all into Aſſyria, except a few poor People who were left in the Land of Iſrael: for that ſome were left ſtill, appears from the Hiſtory of King Joſiah.

But that the Cities and Land of Iſrael might not be depopulated and deſolate, this wiſe Monarch ſent what People he could ſpare from his Eaſtern Provinces, upon whom he could depend, to fill the Land, even from Babylon and Cuthah, and Avah and Hamath, and Sepharvaim, 2 K. xvii. 24. which was ordered this Year only, but executed afterwards: And in Ezra, iv. 9, 10. they are called the Societies of the Dinaites, the Apharſathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharſites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Suſanchites, the Dehavites, the Elamites, and the reſt of the Nations whom the great and noble Aſnapper (or Eſerhaddon) brought over and ſet in the Cities of Samaria.

Eſerhaddon then ſent a Detachment of his Army againſt Judah, where his Captains overcame King Manaſſeh in the Field, who being forced after the Defeat to flee away, the Purſuers found him hid in a Thicket of Thorns, and ſent him bound in Chains to Babylon, 2 Chron. xxxiii. 11. where their Lord Eſerhaddon reſided after the Campaign was over. But Manaſſeh ſtaid not there long; for upon a Treaty he was taken out of Priſon in a few Months and ſent home, upon Condition of becoming a Tributary to the Emperor of Aſſyria and Babylon. See the other Column.

Thoſe Eaſtern Nations that had been lately ſettled in Paleſtine, among the ſmall Remains of Iſrael, being very immoral and idolatrous, not at all fearing Jehovah; God ſent among them Lyons that ſlew ſome of them, and frightned all the Inhabitants: and it being told to Eſerhaddon, that becauſe thoſe new Nations knew not the Manner of the God of the Land, he had ſent Lyons to ſlay them; the Emperor ordered ſaying, Carry thither one of the Prieſts whom ye brought from thence, and let him teach them the Manner of the God of the Land.

Accordingly one of the Captive Prieſts was ſent back (tho' we cannot fix the Year) and dwelt at Bethel, and taught them how they ſhould fear Jehovah, viz. according to the Rites of King Jeroboam I, no doubt erecting at Bethel a new Golden Calf. Nevertheleſs, every diſtinct Nation of thoſe new Inhabitants made Gods of their own, and placed them in the Houſes of the High Places, which the Samaritans or Iſraelites had formerly made; and ſo the Babylonians worſhiped their Idol Succoth-Benoth, the Cuthabites, Nergal the Hamathites Aſhima, the Avites Nibhaz and Tarlak, the Sepharvites burnt their Children in Fire to Adram-Melech and Anam-Melech; and they made of the meaner People Prieſts of the High Places, who offered Sacrifices there: ſo they feared Jehovah and ſerved their own Gods and their Graven Images, they and their Children and Grand-children, only aſſuming Jehovah into the Number of their many Gods, 2 K. xvii. 24——41.

And in this Polytheiſm, they continued till Sanballat built the Samaritan Temple on Mount Gerizzim, when many of the Jews joined them, and reclaimed them from this Idolatry to the Worſhip of Jehovah only.

Chalcedon or Calchedon, a City in the Mouth of Pontus was now founded. Euſeb. Chron.

There is little mentioned of MANASSEH after his Converſion, nor any Honour done him in ſacred Hiſtory, as a Puniſhment of his former ſcandalous Impiety: yet we may ſafely believe that he made a thorough Reformation both in Church and State, beginning it with the 24th Year of his Reign, upon his Return from Captivity, and in ſix or ſeven Years, until the Egyptian War began, Manaſſeh had Opportunity to carry on his publick Reformation a great Way; ſo that Religion and Virtue flouriſhed as much in the latter End of his Reign, as in the Reign of his Father HEZEKIAH.	28	304	341	424	780	671	3333	XXVII. 2	78	77	At the End of the 15 Years of the Dodecharchy in Egypt, the 12 Princes quarrelling, Eleven of them joined to expel the 12th, viz. Pſammitichus, who flying into the Fens near the Sea Coaſt, lurked there till he gathered to him ſome Arabian Freebooters, and the Pirates of Caria and Ionia, that with the Egyptians of his Party compoſed a conſiderable Army, with which he marched againſt the Eleven Princes, beat them out of the Field at the City Momemphis, ſlew ſome of them in Battel, and forced the reſt to fly into Lybia, ſeized the whole Kingdom and reigned the ſole Monarch of Egypt in great Proſperity during 54 Years. See Herodot. L. II. ch. 152, and 157.

Lib. I. and being ſettled in his Throne, he commenced a War againſt the Emperor of Aſſyria, about the Limits of their two Empires, that laſted many Years: for after Hezekiah died, Paleſtine was under the Egyptians till Eſerhaddon took Manaſſeh Priſoner, when the Aſſyrians joined it to their Empire, which thus reached to the Borders of Egypt for about 7 Years which the Egyptians could not well remedy while under their Ariſtocracy: but now PSAMMITICHUS reſolved to ſecure his Frontiers againſt ſo potent a Neighbour, and to poſſeſs himſelf of Paleſtine as a Barrier, which was the Bone of Contention. When he marched his Army thither, he found the Philiſtian City Aſhdod ſtopping his Way; for after General Tartan had taken it for his Maſter Sennacherib, the Aſſyrians thought it their Intereſt to fortify it much, and had ſtill poſſeſſed it for all the Defeat of Sennacherib in Judah. Therefore Pſammitichus having blokaded it, marched the reſt of his Army into the other Parts of Paleſtine. Upon which

MANASSEH being now the Tributary of Eſerhaddon, and getting the ſole and chief Command of Paleſtine, began to fortify every Place with Bullwarks and Garriſons, raiſed a good Army for the Defence of the Land againſt the Egyptians, and kept them from Inroads and from doing any conſiderable harm, except the carrying on of the Siege of Aſhdod, which was covered by the Egyptian Army.	31	307	344	427	783	668	3336	XXVIII. 1	81	80	Eſerhaddon died this Year, after he had reigned in great Proſperity 26 Years at Niniveh, and almoſt 13 Years more at Babylon, in all 39 Years currant, or 38 complete, and was ſucceeded by his Son SAOSDUCHINUS, who reigned over the united Empire during 20 Years, *Ptolem. He was ſucceeded by CYAXARES his Son, who reigned 40 Years. As ſoon as he was well fixed in his Throne,
King JOSIAH was now 16 Years old, and having been married to Zebudah Daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah, ſhe bore to him his eldeſt Son Eliakim, (called afterwards Jehoiakim) for he was 25 Years old when he came to the Throne, 2 K. xxiii. 36. KINGS of JUDAH.

We read no where that the SCYTHIANS, when they invaded Paleſtine, did any harm to Judah; God having protected his young Favourite's Kingdom, while he puniſhed the Gentiles: only when the Scythians returned from the Borders of Egypt, they took Bethſhean a City of Manaſſeh Weſt of the Jordan, and kept it while they continued in Aſia, which therefore was afterwards called Scythopolis or City of the Scythians.

King JOSIAH had another Wife, Hamutal the Daughter of Jeremiah a great Man at Libnah, and ſhe bore to him this Year his Son Shallum, afterwards called Jehoachaz (perhaps becauſe Shallum had been the Name of an unfortunate King of Iſrael) for he was about 23 Years old when his Father died, and when he was put upon the Throne, 2 K. xxiii. 33.

We read 1 Chron. iii. 15. that the Sons of JOSIAH were, the firſt-born Johanan, the ſecond Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum: whereby ſome have thought that Jehoachaz was the ſame with Johanan or the eldeſt; but it is impoſſible; becauſe when the People ſet him on the Throne, they anointed him, which was never done to the Firſt-born, and he was aged only 23, while his brother Jehoiakim was aged 25, and ſo muſt be older than Jehoachaz whoſe Name was firſt Shallum; for he is ſo call'd, Jer. xxii. 11, 12. compared with 2 K. xxiii. 33, 34. only we can't always account for the Order of Names in Scripture, the youngeſt ſometimes being the firſt mention'd: therefore, if Johanan was eldeſt, there is nothing more ſaid of him; and he might have died in his Minority; but if Shallum or Jehoachaz is mention'd laſt, it may be becauſe he was the moſt worthleſs: tho' I conceive their Order according to Birth was thus, 1 Jehoiakim, 2 Jehoachaz, 3 Zedekiah, 4 Johanan; but of Johanan we read no more.

King JOSIAH being further improv'd in the Knowledge of God and his Laws, began this Year to cleanſe Judah and Jeruſalem from the Relicts and Pollutions of Idolatry, or to perfect his Reformation; for he made a Progreſs throughout all the Land of Judah, and cauſed in his Preſence his Men to break down all the Altars and Groves of Baalim, and to cut in pieces the Sun-Images that were erected before them, with the carv'd and molten Images; and making Duſt of them, he ſtrew'd it upon the Graves of the Idolaters, and burnt the Bones of the deceas'd idolatrous Prieſts upon their Altars. Nay, having all the Land of Iſrael ſubject to him as the Tributary of Aſſyria, he did the ſame in Ephraim, and Manaſſeh, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali round about, and return'd to Jeruſalem in Triumph.

JEREMIAH the Prophet is now call'd to the prophetical Office, and Zephaniah too, Jer. i. 2. xxv. 3, 4, 5.

King JOSIAH having purged the Land of Idolatry, was intent upon repairing Solomon's Temple, for which he ſent proper Officers to receive the voluntary Contributions of all Judah and Benjamin, and of all the Remnant of the Iſraelites; who returning to Jeruſalem deliver'd the Money to the High Prieſt Hilkiah, and to the Overſeers of the Work, for paying the Artificers and Builders.

They defeated the Army of Cyaxares and diſpoſſeſſed him of all the Upper Aſia, where they triumphed 28 Years; enlarging their Conqueſts into Syria, even to the Borders of Egypt.

SADYATTES the Son of Ardys reigns in Lydia for 12 Years, Herod. Lib. I. c. 16.

The Thereans, after they had dwelt at Aziritum about 7 Years, travell'd to Iraſa and ſettled at the Fountain of APOLLO; where having built the City Cyrene, their General BATTUS reigned there 40 Years.

The SCYTHIANS that overcame Cyaxares found nothing to hinder their marching into Syria: but when they drew near to Egypt, King PSAMMITICHUS by Entreaties, Promiſes, and rich Preſents diverted them from invading his Country.

In their Return, the Scythians ſpoil'd the Temple of Venus at Askalon; for which the Philiſtines curs'd them, and gave out that thoſe Spoilers and their Offſpring were puniſh'd with Emrods; for ever ſince the Philiſtines were ſo puniſh'd for the ſake of the Ark of JEHOVAH, they thought it the uſual Puniſhment of Sacrilege.

Chiniladanus the Emperor of Aſſyria and Chaldea or Babylon, having made himſelf contemptible by Effeminacy and ill Government, Nabopolaſar his General took the Advantage of his Maſter's Indolence, and ſet up for himſelf by his Influence with the Army; and being by Birth a Babylonian, he made Intereſt to ſeize that Part of the Aſſyrian Empire. And ſo NABOPOLASAR the Father of NEBUCHADNEZZAR the Great, by ſome call'd Nebuchadnezzar the Firſt, began to reign King of Babylon during 21 Years. See Alex. Polyhiſt. in Euſeb. Chron. and Syncell. Thus ended the 22 Years currant of the Reign of Chiniladanus over Babylon, according to Ptolemy's Canon. But he or his Succeſſor reign'd ſtill at Niniveh, till it was deſtroy'd about 14 Years afterwards; as will appear in its Place.

KINGS of JUDAH.

While Hilkiah was ſurveying the Temple to ſee what Repairs were wanting, he found ſomewhere the authentic Copy of the PENTATEUCH, or Book of the Law of Moſes, which ought to have been kept on the Out-ſide of the Ark of the Covenant, where Moſes placed it, in the Sanctum Sanctorum; but it ſeems it was hid elſewhere in the Beginning of Manaſſeh's Reign, to preſerve it from the Iniquity of the Times Hilkiah ſent it by Shaphan the Scribe to the King, who order'd Shaphan to read to him ſome Part of it, which happen'd to be (as the Jewiſh Doctors ſay) the 28th Chapter of Deuteronomy, where God's Curſes are denounc'd againſt the People, and particularly againſt the Kings, if they kept not this Law.

JOSIAH, conſcious how juſtly his People had deſerv'd the Execution of thoſe Judgments threatned, and being fill'd with Fear, Conſternation, and Grief, rent his Clothes, and ſent Hilkiah and others to the Propheteſs Huldah that dwelt in the College, deſiring her to enquire of Jehovah concerning him and his People. They return'd with her Anſwer, viz. That becauſe of the Idolatry of Judah, the Curſes written in the Book were to be execuetd, even upon Jeruſalem and its Inhabitants; but that becauſe King Joſiah had humbled himſelf, he ſhould be gathered to the Grave in Peace before the Execution of the Judgments threatned.

Upon this the King ſummon'd a ſolemn Aſſembly in the Temple, where he caus'd the Law of God to be read to them, and then He and the People renewed the ſolemn Covenant of their Fathers, engaging to keep God's Statutes with all their Heart and Soul, as at full Length may be ſeen in 2 K. xxiii. 2 Chron. xxxiv.

From this ſolemn Renewing of the Covenant, we reckon the 30 Years mention'd, Ezek. I. 1. or that the Prophet commenc'd in his Office in the 30th Year after this Covenant: alſo the 40 Years of the Iniquity of Judah mention'd, Ezek. iv. 6. commence this Year too, as will appear at the Year of the World 3420.

It would ſeem that neither the King nor the High Prieſt had ever ſeen this Original Book of Moſes, nor any Copy of it; for it ſeems the Copies written by order of King Hezekiah, were loſt in the wicked Time of Manaſſeh's Reign, except perhaps a few in private Hands. But now by the Care of this good King, ſeveral Copies were writ of it, and of the other Holy Scriptures then extant; which were preſerved after the Captivity, and from which Ezra made his Collection.

Then this good King made another Progreſs thro' all the Land of Iſrael, to purge it of the Remains of Idolatry, (as is at length related in 2 K. xxiii.) particularly he burnt the High Place and the Grove that Jeroboam I King of Iſrael had erected at Bethel, and ſtampt the Altar to Duſt; but firſt polluted the Altar by burning the Bones of the adjacent Sepulchres upon it, according to the Word of Jehovah, by the Man of God, in preſence of King Jeroboam 350 Years ago, (page 25.) and JOSIAH finding the Sepulchre of that Jewiſh Prophet with an Inſcription upon it, hard by that of the Samaritan Prophet, he took Care that none ſhould moleſt their Bones. Thus, having alſo ſwept Samaria and all the Land of Iſrael clean of all the Dregs of Idolatry, and ſlain the idolatrous Prieſts, he returned to Jeruſalem, and

In the ſame 18th Year of Joſiah's Reign, towards the End of the Year on the 14th Day of the firſt Month of this Year of the World, reckoning from the Exodus of Moſes, the King celebrated the Paſſover as it is written, 2 K. xxiii. 21, 22, 23. 2 Chron. xxxv. 1—19. all Judah and all the Remnant of Iſrael being preſent at Jeruſalem. This was the moſt ſolemn Paſſover ever obſerved ſince the Days of Samuel the Prophet, beyond what was celebrated by any of the Kings; for beſides the willing Offerings of the Princes, King Joſiah gave of his own Subſtance to the People for the Paſſover Offerings——— 30000 Lambs and Kids

Necho's Way, and to give him Battel. But tho' Joſiah was warn'd by Necho to deſiſt from his Enterprize, (as on the other Column) yet, not believing that Necho ſpake from JEHOVAH with whom he was not acquainted, (for in that Text the Word God is only Elohim, which is us'd in Scripture to ſignify the falſe Gods, as well as the true God) but only from his own Egyptian Gods, whoſe Oracles indeed he might have conſulted; and Joſiah not hearkening to the Words of Necho from the Mouth of his Elohim, and thinking himſelf bound by his Fealty and Honour to the Crown of Aſſyria, to aſſiſt Nabopolaſar; nay, regarding Necho as a common and more dangerous Enemy, would not draw off nor turn his Face from him, but diſguis'd himſelf to fight in Perſon at the Head of his Army.

But in the Battel, the Jewiſh Army was totally routed by the Egyptians, and King JOSIAH receiv'd his Death's Wound from the Archers that ſhot at him, when he ſaid to his Servants, have me away for I am ſore wounded; who then took him out and put him into another Chariot, and brought him to Jeruſalem where he died, if he was not dead before; and was honourably buried in the Royal burying Ground in his own Sepulchre, among the Sepulchres of his Fathers, after he had reign'd 31 Years, aged 39. See 2 K. xxv. 30. compared with 2 Chron. xxxv. 24.

Many have affirm'd, that King JOSIAH was to blame in fighting againſt Necho, and in the Cauſe of Nabopolaſar; which they conclude, 1. From the Words of Necho's Meſſage on the other Column. 2. From the Apocryphal Book 1 Eſdras i. 28. viz. Howbeit, JOSIAH undertook to fight with Necho, not regarding the Words of the Prophet Jeremy ſpoken by the Mouth of the Lord! But the firſt Argument is ſufficiently anſwer'd above: nay, even tho' Necho had affirm'd that JEHOVAH had ſent him, as Sennacherib preſumed to ſay to Hezekiah, who believed him not; yet, Joſiah had no more Reaſon to believe him, than Hezekiah had to believe Sennacherib, as Dr. Prideaux well obſerves: No; Joſiah took it only as the vain boaſting of Necho.

As to the other Quotation from 1 Eſdras, it is not ſupported by any hint of Canonical Scripture; and that Book is ſo full of Fable that even the Church of Rome has not receiv'd it into their Canon; therefore we cannot believe that the Prophet Jeremiah ever brought a Meſſage from Jehovah againſt Joſiah's Undertaking. No; the good King was not out of the Way of his Duty.

I. Becauſe 2 Chron. xxxv. 24, 25. all Judah and Jeruſalem mourned for him, particularly Jeremiah the Prophet lamented for him, and all the ſinging Men and the ſinging Women ſpake of Joſiah in their Lamentations long afterwards, and made them an Ordinance in Iſrael; and behold they are written in the Lamentations, written by Jeremiah, not that in our Bible (for that relates only to the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem which was after Joſiah's Death) but that which periſh'd with other good Books in the Captivity: This general Mourning was ſo great and laſting, that it became a proverbial Phraſe to expreſs an extraordinary Sorrow; as Zech. xii. 11. the Prophet foretels a Mourning to happen as great as the Mourning of Hadad-Rimmon in the Valley of Megiddo! But ſuch Mourning, ſuch Lamentation had not been made for him, if he had died in Rebellion againſt the Word of Jehovah; for then he had not deſerved ſuch Regard to his Memory in after Ages as the Jews paid to it.

II. Becauſe He and his Father Ammon, and his Grandfather Manaſſeh, had been Tributaries to the Crown of Aſſyria, ever ſince Manaſſeh was releas'd from Captivity by the Emperor Eſerhaddon about 67 Years ago; and under that Crown they had alſo reign'd over all the Land of Iſrael as well as Judah: therefore JOSIAH was obliged by his Tenure and his Oath to fight againſt Necho, and all the Enemies of Nabopolaſar, who was by Conqueſt become his Liege Lord. Nay, God expreſly condemned Jehoiakim and Zedekiah, for breaking Faith with this ſame Nabopolaſar and his Son Nebuchadnezzar, as will be ſeen in its Place. But JOSIAH was better taught than to act againſt his Faith and Conſcience; For 2 K. xxiii. 25, 26, 27. like unto him was there no King before him, who turned to Jehovah with all his Heart, and with all his Soul, and with all his Might, according to all the Law of Moſes; neither after him aroſe there any like him! Notwithſtanding, Jehovah turn'd not from the Fierceneſs of his great Wrath, wherewith his Anger was kindled againſt Judah, becauſe of all the Provocations of Manaſſeh; and Jehovah having ſaid, I will remove Judah out of my Sight, as I have removed Iſrael, and will caſt off this City Jeruſalem, which I have choſen, and the Houſe of which I ſaid, my Name ſhall be there; therefore, as a Prelude to this threatened Cataſtrophe, Jehovah remov'd good King Joſiah at this Time, and in this Manner: tho' he died in Peace with God, not ſeeing the threatned Evil, as the Propheteſs Huldah had foretold. Upon which the People of the Land aſſembled and choſe for their King, not Jehoiakim the eldeſt Son of Joſiah, but JEHOACHAZ the 2d Son, formerly call'd Shallum, by the Intereſt of his Mother's Family very likely, and anointed him as King of Judah, aged 23; becauſe he was not the eldeſt Son, for the firſt-born was never anointed, 2 K. xx. 30, &c. 2 Chron. xxxiv. 1——5.

When NECHO drew near, he ſent Embaſſadors to JOSIAH, ſaying, what have I to do with Thee, Thou King of Judah? I come not againſt Thee this Day, but againſt the Houſe wherewith I have War; for God commanded me to make haſte: forbear Thee from medling with God, who is with me; that He deſtroy Thee not! 2 Chron. xxxv. 21. But JOSIAH not hearkening to the Words of Necho from the Mouth of his Elohim, or Egyptian Gods, a Battel enſued there, wherein NECHO was Conqueror, and defeating the Jewiſh Army, made his Way over the Jordan, and march'd ſtrait to Carchemiſh, a great City at the Euphrates, to which he laid Siege expecting the Babylonian Army.

But tho' Necho was a Stranger to JEHOVAH, and had only conſulted the Oracles of his Egyptian Elohim or Gods, in undertaking this Expedition, the Event prov'd that the Eternal over-rul'd thoſe Oracles, and the Spirit of Necho too, in Order to bring about his decreed Purpoſes: for NECHO indeed made haſte, advanc'd with great Expedition with a firm Belief of Victory, as if he had had a ſpecial Call from Jehovah; eſpecially after he overcame Joſiah in the Valley of Megiddo.

When Nabopolaſar came to the Relief of Carchemiſh, NECHO fluſh'd with Victory, beat the Babylonians out of the Field, and then ſoon made Carchemiſh to ſurrender to him, and ſecured it to himſelf with a ſtrong Garriſon or Detachment of his Army, as the Key of Aſſyria.

KINGS of JUDAH.

This King was not like his Father, but did what was Evil in the Sight of the Lord, as his more wicked Forefathers had done; and ſo could not proſper; becauſe of God's denounc'd Wrath, but for all his Anointing he was dethron'd in three Months by Pharoah Necho, as on the other Column, who ſent for him to Riblah in Syria, and carried him chain'd to Jeruſalem; where he ſaw Necho advance his elder Brother to the Throne, viz. Eliakim, whom Necho call'd JEHOIAKIM, made King when aged 25, (whereby it appears he was older than his Brother Jehoahaz alias Shallum, as alſo he had not the ſame Mother) tho' both thoſe Names ſignify much the ſame, viz. the Lord vindicates, or the Lord raiſeth up.

King Jehoiakim agreed to pay Homage to King NECHO, and an annual Tribute of 100 Talents of Silver, and a Talent of Gold, which he rais'd by a general Taxation amounting to about 52200 Pounds Sterling: upon which NECHO return'd to Egypt loaded with Spoils, and carried with him in Chains Jehoachaz or Shallum, who died there according to the Word of Jehovah by his Prophet Jeremiah, Ch. xxii. 10, 11. See alſo Ezek. xix. 4.

XVIII. JEHOIAKIM the Son of Joſiah, began this Year to reign as the Tributary of Egypt, and he reign'd eleven Years in Jeruſalem. He follow'd not the good Example of his Father, but, like his Brother, did what was Evil in the Sight of Jehovah, and let the People return to their old Idolatries and Immoralities: wherefore God ſent the Prophet Jeremiah firſt to the King's Palace, and in the King's Preſence exhorted him and his Servants to Repentance, by many Promiſes and Threatnings, Jer. xxii. 1——9. concluding ℣. 10. ſaying, Weep ye not for the Dead (King Joſiah) neither bemoan him; but weep ſore for him that goeth away; for he ſhall return no more, nor ſee his native Country: for thus ſaith Jehovah, concerning Shallum the Son of Joſiah King of Judah, who reign'd inſtead of Joſiah his Father, who went forth out of this Place; he ſhall not return hither any more, but he ſhall die in the Place whither they have led him Captive, and ſhall ſee this Land no more.

Then God ſent Jeremiah to ſtand in the Porch of the Temple, and to declare to all the People (who came from all Parts to worſhip God in the Feaſt of Tabernacles) that if they would repent and be reform'd, God would repent of the Evil denounc'd againſt them; but if not, that then God would execute his Threatnings againſt them, and make this Houſe like Shiloh, and this City a Curſe to all the Nations of the Earth! Upon which the wicked Prieſts and the falſe Prophets rais'd a Mob againſt him, in Order to put him to Death: but the Princes hearing of it, haſted from the Palace to the Temple, and reſcued him from the Hands of his Enemies; in which good Office Ahikam was principally concern'd, the Son of Shaphan, (and the Father of Gedaliah, who was afterwards made Governor of the Land under the Chaldeans) Jer. xxvi.

R But another Prophet, Urijah the Son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim, who came and propheſied after the ſame Manner, fared not ſo well; for King Jehoiachim ſought to ſlay him, and Urijah flying into Egypt, Jehoiachim ſent after him and brought him Priſoner to Jeruſalem, where he put the good Man to Death, Jer. xxvi. 20——23.

Habbakuk alſo and Zephaniah propheſied about this Time, threatning the ſame Deſolation to Judah and Jeruſalem, if they repented not, Hab. I. 1——11.

This Year Nebuchadnezzar being made Partner with his Father in the Throne, the Jews compute from hence the Years of his Reign, even from the End of the 3d Year of Jehoiakim: or that the 4th Year of Jehoiakim is the firſt of Nebuchadnezzar, Jer. xxv. 1. But the Babylonians begin his Reign upon his Father's Death two Years afterwards.

Jeremiah Ch. xlvi. foretells the two great Calamities of Egypt, the one to fall out next Year in the Battel of Carchemiſh, as on the other Column, and the other to fall out after the long Siege of Tyre as will appear in its Place.

The Rechabites, or the Offspring of JONADAB the Son of Rechab, who join'd with King JEHU in his Reformation and who made a Law in his Family, that none of them ſhould drink Wine for ever nor ſow Seed, nor Plant, nor poſſeſs Houſes, but ſhould always dwell in Tents; having ſtrictly obey'd their Father Jonadab's Inſtitutions for about 278 Years, (reckoning from the Beginning of Jehu's Reign) came now from the Paſture Grounds of Iſrael near the Jordan, to reſide in Jeruſalem for Shelter, becauſe of the Terror and Havock of the Babylonian and Syrian Troops under Nebuchadnezzar now on his March towards Paleſtine, Jer. xxxv. See the Deſcent of the RECHABITES, Table XI. under CALEB.

While King JEHOIAKIM was continuing impenitent, and ſecure alſo, under the Protection of the Egyptian Monarch, upon whom he depended more than upon God; the Prophet Jeremiah Ch. xxv. foretells the ſpeedy

After this, NECHO retir'd to Riblah in Syria, in Order to refreſh the reſt of his Army before they march'd back to Egypt; where hearing that Jehoachaz had aſſum'd the Royal Dignity without his Leave, ſent for him to Riblah, depos'd him and put him in Chains after he had reign'd only 3 Months: and when NECHO came on his Way towards Egypt, he ſtopt at Jeruſalem, where he exalted Eliakim the eldeſt Son of Joſiah to be King of Judah, changing his Name to Jehoiakim; and having taxed the Land of Iſrael, as on the other Column, he return'd to his own Kingdom glorious, with many Spoils and Trophies, carrying with him alſo Jehoachaz or Shallum, the captive King of Judah, bound in Chains, who never return'd but died in Egypt.

Nevertheleſs Pharoah NECHO did not triumph long; for NABOPOLASAR finding that upon the Loſs of Carchemiſh all Syria and Paleſtine had revolted to Necho, and finding himſelf too old and infirm for the Field of Battel, aſſum'd his Son Nebuchadnezzar into Partnerſhip, conferr'd on him Royal Dignity and the Command of the Army. So

King NEBUCHADNEZZAR having laſt Year levied a great Army, and marching to Carchemiſh, he met the Egyptian Army; and having overthrown them with a great Slaughter, he retook that City, Jer. xlvi. 1——12. where having refreſh'd himſelf a little, he march'd ſtraight with his Army into Syria; and having recover'd that Province, he had an eaſy Paſſage into Paleſtine, coming of Nebuchadnezzar againſt Jeruſalem, the 70 Years Captivity, the Cup of Trembling that was to be handed round the Nations, and the Puniſhment of the King of Babylon and the Chaldeans, after the Expiration of the ſaid 70 Years. And the Prophet proteſted againſt the Jews, that tho' he had propheſied and preached Repentance now 23 Years, viz. ever ſince the 13th Year of Joſiah's Reign (when he commenc'd Prophet) yet they had not hearkened to the Word of Jehovah, but ever ſince the Death of Joſiah had grown worſe and worſe.

Jeremiah being put into Priſon for his faithful and ſeaſonable Warnings, (Ch. xxxvi. 1——8.) ſent for Baruch the Son of Neriah his Diſciple, who wrote in a Roll from Jeremiah's Mouth, all the Propheces he had deliver'd againſt Iſrael, and Judah, and other Nations from the ſaid 13th Year of King Joſiah; which God commanded to be collected, and ſent Baruch to the Temple to read the Roll in the Hearing of all the People, then aſſembled at the great Faſt of the annual Atonement on the tenth Day of the 7th Month Tizri, (anſwering to our September) But the King and People alarm'd by the Invaſion of Nebuchadnezzar, did not at this Time ſhew their Diſpleaſure at Baruch and Jeremiah: tho' none of them were ſo affected by the Word of God, as good Baruch himſelf; for which God ſent an inſtructing and comforting Meſſage to him by Jeremiah, in Ch. xlv.

Theſe Predictions of Deſolation were ſoon confirm'd by the Siege of Jeruſalem in October, which Nebuchadnezzar after about a Month's Siege, took in on the 18th Day of the 9th Month Kiſleu, (as on the other Column) or in November, which Day the Jews ſtill obſerve as an annual Faſt; for that King JEHOIACHIM was then put in Chains, in Order to be carried to Babylon; and tho' upon Submiſſion reſtor'd, yet, became thus the Tributary of Nebuchadnezzar his Liege Lord.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR while at Jeruſalem, ſent to Babylon a great many of the Holy Veſſels of the Temple, which he order'd to be lodg'd in the Temple of Belus there, and made Enquiry for curious Architects, Artiſans, and others that might be uſeful at Babylon, and ſent them with vaſt Numbers of People Captives into Chaldea, ſo that this is the firſt Year of the Babyloniſh Captivity of the Jews, during 70 Years.

He gave alſo a particular Charge to Aſhpenez the Maſter of the Eunuchs, to chuſe from out of the Royal Family of Judah, and of the Noble Families, as many Male Children as were of hale Conſtitutions, fair Countenances and quick Parts, and to ſend them to Babylon, in Order to breed them to ſerve as Eunuchs in the Royal Palace there; among whom was the four Youths DANIEL, Hananiah, Miſhael, and Azariah, whom the Chaldeans call'd Belteſhazzar, SHADRACH, MESHECH, and ABED-NEGO, who were to be three Years educated in the Language and Learning of the Chaldeans, and then were to be admitted to ſtand and ſerve before the Emperor.

This is dated by Daniel (ch. I. 1.) in the 3d Year of Jehoiachim, becauſe he begins his Computation with Nebuchadnezzar's Command of the Army as his Father's Partner; tho' 'tis plain by the Premiſes, that This could not be till he had taken Jeruſalem in this 4th Year of Jehoiachim: therefore, this fourth Year of Jehoiachim, is the firſt of Daniel's Servitude, and of the 70 Years CAPTIVITY, Jer. xxv. 11. whereby, the Threatning of God to King HEZEKIAH 105 Years ago, began to be accompliſh'd. See page 55.

JEHOIAKIM had Cauſe enough to repent and reform; but on the contrary, after the Chaldeans were gone from Jeruſalem, he and the Jews grew worſe and worſe. The only Appearance of due Concern in them, was the Appointing a Faſt this Year kept on the 18th Day of the 9th Month Kiſleu; becauſe on that Day laſt Year the City was taken by Nebuchadnezzar, which has been ever ſince obſerv'd by the Jews.

During this Solemnity, God order'd Jeremiah to ſend Baruch again to the Temple, to read the Roll a ſecond Time in the Hearing of all Judah and Jeruſalem, which he did from a Window of the Chamber of Gemariah, near the Eaſt Gate of the Temple (the Room where the King's Council us'd to meet) to the People paſſing by below, with an audible Voice. Upon which Michaiah the Son of Gemariah then preſent, went and told the Princes at the Palace what he had heard, who forthwith ſent for Baruch and made him to read the Roll to them, at which they were not a little frightned, and order'd him to leave it with them, ſaying, Go hide Thee, Thou and Jeremiah, and let no Man know where you be! (for it ſeems Jeremiah had been releas'd from Priſon by the Chaldeans) and the Princes went in to the King and told him all that had happened: upon which the King ſent for the Roll, and when he had heard three or four Leaves of it read in the Winter Parlour, the King took it and cut it with a Penknife; and, tho' ſeveral of the Princes interceded with him not to deſtroy the Roll, he caſt it into the Fire where it was conſum'd, and ſent Meſſengers to ſeize Baruch and Jeremiah; but JEHOVAH hid them, Jer. xxxvi. 9——26. After this, God leſtine; and having laid Siege to Jeruſalem, he ſoon took it, as being then unprovided, on the 18th Day of the 9th Month Kiſleu (anſwering to November) when he put JEHOIAKIM in Chains in order to carry him to Babylon; but upon his humble Petition and fair Promiſes, and ſwearing Fealty, NEBUCHADNEZZAR releas'd and reſtor'd him, (knowing he could reduce him at Pleaſure) in order to be at Leiſure to proſecute his War againſt Pharaoh NECHO.

But before he left Jeruſalem, NEBUCHADNEZZAR ſent captive into Babylon vaſt Numbers of the Jews, as on the other Column.

And now great Numbers of the beſt of the People being ſent captive into Chaldea, with the Sons of the Royal Family and Nobility to be made Eunuchs and Servants of the Palace, the Veſſels of the holy Temple of Jeruſalem being ſent to the Temple of Bel or Belus at Babylon, King JEHOIAKIM firſt put in Chains and releas'd only as a Vaſſal or mean Tributary of Nebuchadnezzar, and the whole Land being brought under the Dominion of the Babylonians; 'tis plain that the 70 Years Captivity muſt now commence as was threatned by Jeremiah, ch. xxv. 11. in the Beginning of the 4th Year of Jehoiachim (as on the other Column) and which was executed about 6 Months afterwards in this ſame Year.

Now alſo the Scythians were expell'd out of the upper Aſia by the Medes, after they had poſſeſs'd the two Armenias, Cappadocia, Pontus, Colchis and Iberia for 28 Years paſt: for the Medes not being able to drive them out by Force, made Peace with them; and having invited the more noble Part of the Scythians to a great Feaſt, the Medes ſlew them when drunk, and then eaſily conquer'd the reſt; whereby CYAXARES recover'd all, and again extended his Borders Weſtward as far as the River Halys, Herodot. Lib. I.

And now Halyattes King of Lydia eſpouſing the Cauſe of ſome other Scythians, that had been much injur'd by the Medes, a War inſued between him and the Medes that laſted five Years.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR leaving Jeruſalem this Year, carried on his War againſt Pharaoh NECHO with ſuch good Succeſs, that he recover'd from him all Syria and Paleſtine, and God commanded Jeremiah to dictate the ſame Words to Baruch, who wrote them in a new Roll with many Additions, particularly with reſpect to Jehoiachim, JEHOVAH ſaid, Thou haſt burnt this Roll, ſaying, why haſt Thou written therein that the King of Babylon ſhal certainly come and deſtroy this Land, and ſhall cauſe to ceaſe from thence Man and Beaſt, therefore Jehoiachim ſhall have none to ſit upon the Throne of David, and his dead Body ſhall be caſt out in the Day to the Heat, and in the Night to the Froſt; and I will puniſh him and his Seed, and his Servants for their Iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the Inhabitants of Jeruſalem, and the Men of Judah, all the Evil I have denounc'd againſt them! But they hearkened not. About the ſame Time the Word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah concerning Jehoiachim mention'd, ch. xxii. 13——19. where it is ſaid, They ſhall not lament for him, ſaying, ah! my Brother! ah Lord, or ah his Glory! He ſhall be buried with the Burial of an Aſs, and caſt forth beyond the Gates of Jeruſalem!

DANIEL, and his three noble young Companions Shadrach, Meshech and Abed-Nego, from a Principle of their Moſaical Religion refus'd to be fed with the Royal Food of Babylon, as the other young Eunuchs were fed, but on plain Pulſe or Pottage; and yet at the Time of their Appearance at Court when their three Years of Education were near expir'd, they appear'd more plump and fair than the reſt, and more ſage and expert likewiſe in all Things requir'd of them, Dan. I. 1——20. for when NEBUCHADNEZZAR had in a Dream ſeen his great and magnificent Image (as on the other Column) and when either he would not or could not reveal his Dream, and yet demanded of his Magicians to rehearſe it, and to give him the Interpretation too, under the Pain of Death; and when none of them could offer to do it, God rais'd up young DANIEL, then aged about 22, to be a great Prophet, and by his Inſpiration to rehearſe the Dream, and to give its Interpretation too, Dan. ii. for which the Emperor advanc'd him to be the Chief Governor of the Magicians, and chief Ruler of the Princes and Province of Babylon, a privy Counſellor and a conſtant Courtier; whereby he had Capacity of promoting his Countrymen, particularly Shadrach, Meſhech, and Abed-Nego his intimate Companions, who were carry'd captive with him, who ſignaliz'd themſelves afterwards by their Conſtancy in not worſhiping the Golden Image in the Plains of Dura, (as will appear in its Place) and by Daniel's Influence They were now promoted to be Princes in Babylon under him.

This ſame Year King JEHOIAKIM, after being the Tributary of Babylon very near three full Years, rebell'd againſt NEBUCHADNEZZAR, refus'd his Tribute, and join'd with his old Friend Pharaoh NECHO againſt the Babylonian, 2 K. xxiv. 1.

Joſh. xv. 4.) and thus he reduc'd King Necho to keep within his antient Limits, 1 K. xxiv. 7.

But when Nebuchadnezzar was ready to enter Egypt about the End of this Year, the News came to him of the Death of his Father Nabopolaſar after he had reign'd 21 Years, according to Ptolemy's Canon, and was ſucceeded by his Son and Partner, even this ſame

NEBUCHADNEZZAR, who having reign'd jointly with his Father, at leaſt in the Army, theſe two Years paſt, began now to reign alone: and ſo leaving the Army in the South of Paleſtine, with a Charge to march to Babylon by the High-way as ſoon as they could with their Spoils, and the Egyptian, Phœnician, Jewiſh and Syrian Captives, he with a ſmall Retinue went off the ſhorteſt Way more Eaſterly thro' the Deſert ſtrait to Babylon, where he forthwith mounted his Imperial Throne.

This great Emperor fluſh'd with Victory, and reigning over all Chaldea, Aſſyria, Syria, Paleſtine and Part of Arabia, during 43 Years, began, in this firſt Year of his Reign alone, to grow exceeding great at home, and to imploy the Jewiſh, Phœnician, and Syrian Architects, whom he had brought to Babylon, in the beautifying, inlarging and fortifying of that great City, the Metropolis of the Empire ever ſince the Deſtruction of Niniveh; tho' the Work was not ſo very briskly carried on as after his Wars were over, which will appear in its Place.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR now had the Dream of the great Image of excellent Brightneſs and terrible Form, whoſe Head was of fine Gold, his Breaſt and Arms of Silver, his Belly and Thighs of Braſs, his Legs of Iron, and his Feet part of Iron and part of Clay, &c. Dan. II. 31, &c. which none could reveal and interpret but DANIEL, who was divinely inſpir'd for that Purpoſe, and prov'd an eminent Prophet, as on the other Column.

But Nebuchadnezzar being deeply engag'd at home, ſent to his Lieutenants of the Provinces in and about Paleſtine, to raiſe their Poſſe and join to diſtreſs Jehoiakim the Rebel, and his Kingdom. Accordingly great Bands of the Syrians on the North, of the Moabites and Ammonites on the Eaſt, and of the Arabians on the South, made perpetual Inroads upon Judah and great Havock, without controul; for NECHO did not aſſiſt him or perhaps could not ſpeedily.	9	374	411	494	850	601	3403	4	148	147	6	4	NEBUCHADNEZZAR not being at Leiſure to march againſt Jehoiakim, order'd his Lieutenants in and about Paleſtine to diſtreſs him. In the 6th Year of the War between the Medes and Lydians, with equal Succeſs on both Sides, there happen'd an Eclipſe of the SUN in time of Battel, which frightned both Armies who were ignorant of it, and thinking it ominous, deſiſted from fighting, and left the Matter in Debate to the Arbitration of Sienneſis King of Cilicia, and Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon, upon which a Peace was concluded; Halyattes King of Lydia giving his Daughter ARIENA in Marriage to Aſtyages the Son of Cyaxares King of Media. Yet this Eclipſe was calculated and foretold by Thales Mileſius to the Ionians, who was the firſt Grecian that could calculate Eclipſes; which is confirm'd by Eudemus in his Aſtronomical Hiſtory, by Pliny alſo and Clemens Alexandrinus: only they differ in the Time. But in the Lunæ-Solar Tables of Ptolemy, it is recorded to have happen'd in the Reign of Cyaxares in the 4th Year of the XLIVth Olympiad, and of Nabonaſſar 147th, on the 4th Day of the Egyptian Month Pachon, or 20th of our September, 3 Hours and 25 Minutes before Mid-Day. This Eclipſe was of 9 Digits, and laſted almoſt two Hours.
Pharaoh NECHO King of Egypt dying this Year (as on the other Column) JEHOIAKIM King of Judah was deſtitute of a Confederate; for all the Nations round him were tributary to the Babylonian, except Egypt; and if King Pſammis renew'd his Father's Alliance with Jehoiakim, yet he would firſt ſettle himſelf in the Throne and Government, before he would ſend an Army to the Relief of Jehoiakim; which the foreſaid Confederates well knowing, penetrated by concert, from all Quarters, as far as Jeruſalem, and there join'd in a great Army at the Blokade of that City, with a Party of the Chaldeans that commanded the Blokade, 2 K. xxiv. 2. and this Year they ſent 3023 Jews captive to Babylon, Jer. lii. 28.	10	375	412	495	851	600	3404	XLV. 1	149	148	7	5	The Phocaenſes ſail'd from Ionia and built Maſſilia now Marſeiles in the Liguſtine Sea or Gulph of Lyons, *Euſeb. At length JEHOIAKIM, during the Blokade, having made a Salley upon the Enemy, was taken Priſoner, ſlain with the Sword, and his dead Body was by them caſt into the High-way near one of the Gates, with all Marks of Diſgrace and Contempt, according to the Word of JEHOVAH by Jeremiah above mention'd, *viz. JEHOIAKIN, call'd alſo Jeconiah and Coniah, then aged 18 Years: but he prov'd like his Father an Enemy to Reformation, beginning his Reign with doing what was Evil in the Sight of JEHOVAH, in ſpite of all the Warnings of Jeremiah and the other Prophets; even tho' the Enemy was at the Gate, and God's Judgments were hanging over the Holy City. Wherefore God by Jeremiah denounc'd a ſevere Sentence againſt him, ch. xxii. 24. as I live, ſaith Jehovah, tho' Coniah the Son of Jehoiakim King of Judah, wore the Signet upon my Right Hand, yet would I pluck thee thence; and I will give thee into the Hand of them that ſeek thy Life, whoſe Face thou feareſt, even into the Hand of Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon.	11	376	413	496	852	599	3405	2	150	149	8	6	Cyaxares (call'd afterwards DARIUS the Mede) was this Year born to his Father Aſtyages (call'd afterwards AHASUERUS) by his Mother ARIENA, who was married laſt Year to Aſtyages; for when Belſhazzar King of Babylon was ſlain, this ſame DARIUS the Mede was about 62 Years old. Thus ſaith* Jehovah, write ye this Man childleſs, a Man that ſhall not proſper in his Days; for no Man of his Seed ſhall proſper ſitting upon the Throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah! (The Words alſo of ch. xxiii. ſeem to have been deliver'd at or near the ſame Time by Jeremiah) which bitter Sentence was ſignally and ſoon executed: for King JEHOIAKIN finding that Nebuchadnezzar had turn'd the Blokade into a regular Siege; that the City was begirt on all Sides by the Royal Army of the Chaldeans, now join'd with the Forces of the other Provinces; that the Jews without had been harraſs'd, plunder'd, and diſabled to afford him any Relief; that Pſammis King of Egypt was afraid of the Chaldeans; that the Jews within the City were divided and many of them ready to revolt upon the preaching of Jeremiah; and JEHOIAKIN alſo afraid of being either deliver'd up to the Enemy, or of being taken Priſoner at the taking of the City, made a Vertue of Neceſſity, and went forth to the Camp of the Beſiegers with his Mother, his Princes, Servants and Eunuchs, and ſurrender'd himſelf and them into the Hands of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, after he had reign'd in Jeruſalem three Months and ten Days.

By this Surrender JEHOIAKIN ſaved his Life and that of his Friends, but gain'd nothing more by it, for NEBUCHADNEZZAR put him and them all in Chains forthwith; and having enter'd Jeruſalem with his Army, he carried out thence all the Treaſures of the Holy Temple and Royal Palace, and cut in Pieces the Golden Veſſels of the Temple that King SOLOMON had made, and ſent them to Babylon with the captive King JEHOIAKIN, and his Mother, and his Wives, and Eunuchs, his Princes and mighty Men of Valour; even the Flower and choiceſt People of Jeruſalem, to the Number of —— 10000 Men beſides all the Craftſmen and Smiths; none remaining in the City, ſave the pooreſt Sort of the People of the Land.

S Among thoſe Captives was MORDECAI, a Prince of Benjamin of the Family of Kish, Eſther II. 5, 6. alſo EZEKIEL the Prophet the Son of Buzi of the Houſe of Aaron; for he calls This his Captivity, and in all his Prophecies he deduceth his Epocha from this Captivity, Ezek. I. 2, 3. xl. 1.

Jehoiakin being ſent off to Babylon, where he remain'd in Priſon all the Days of Nebuchadnezzar for 37 Years, and afterwards died in Chaldea, was ſucceeded by

MATTANIAH his Uncle, the Brother of Jehoiakim and the younger Son of King JOSIAH, whom Nebuchadnezzar ſet upon the tottering Throne of David as his Tributary and Vaſſal, who ſolemnly ſwore Allegiance or took an Oath of Fealty to that Grand Monarch; or a Covenant which he ſeal'd and ſign'd with his Hand: and as a Badge of Mattaniah's Vaſſalage, Nebuchadnezzar chang'd his Name to

Soon after Jehoiakin or Jeconiah was carried off to Babylon, JEREMIAH under the Viſion of the two Baskets of Figs, foreſaw and foretold the Reſtoration of thoſe Jews that were now in Chaldea, and the Ruin of Zedekiah, his Princes and his People by the Sword, the Famine and Peſtilence, and by ſcattering the Remainder into all the Kingdoms of the Earth with Reproach, Jer. xxiv. which were duly fulfill'd.

The ſame Year JEREMIAH propheſied concerning the Subjection and Exaltation of the Elamites: ch. xlix. 34——39. for Elam a Kingdom at the River Ulai, Eaſt of the River Tigris and South of Media, was conquer'd by Nebuchadnezzar and made a Province of the Chaldean Empire, Dan. viii. 1, 2. But afterwards the Elamites joining their Forces with the Medes under CYRUS, who was half Elamite half Mede, by killing Belshazzar, prevail'd over the Chaldeans; and Susan the chief City of ELAM became then the Metropolis of the new Persian Empire; for the Elamites from the glorious Days of Cyrus, were called PERSIANS, and not before.

CONTEMPORARIES.

Nebuchadnezzar on the Part of the Medes, having with Sienneſis King of Cilicia on the Part of the Lydians, made Peace between thoſe warlike Nations, and having ſettled their Boundaries and his own, and given the neceſſary Directions about the inlarging and beautifying of his Metropolis Babylon, and having ſettled all Affairs in the Eaſt; even while the Blokade of Jeruſalem was carry'd on, He march'd the grand Army of the Chaldeans thro' Syria, and having join'd the Army of his Lieutenants before Jeruſalem, chang'd the Blokade into a cloſe and regular Siege, ſtraitning the City on all Sides until JEHOIAKIN King of Jeruſalem ſurrender'd all to him, as on the other Column.

While the proud Babylonian triumphs in Judah, laying all below his Foot, treading on the Necks of Kings and Princes, little did he know that this very Year (or the laſt of King Jehoiakim) a Child was born, who in Time ſhould deſtroy and extinguiſh his Family; even CYRUS born to his Father Cambyſes King of Perſia, by Queen Mandane the Daughter of Aſtyages Prince Royal of Media: for he founded the Perſian Monarchy in the Death of Belſhazzar, the Grandſon of Nebuchadnezzar; and he reſtor'd the Jews to their City and Temple. He was propheſied of by Name above 130 Years before he was born, by Iſaiah ch. xliv. 28, 29. for there God ſaith of CYRUS, he is my Shepherd and ſhall perform all my Pleaſure; even ſaying to Jeruſalem, Thou ſhalt be built! and to the Temple, thy Foundation ſhall be laid! and ch. xlv. 1, &c. he is call'd God's anointed, and great Promiſes made to him; while none living knew who he was, or when he ſhould appear.

KINGS of JUDAH.

After Nebuchadnezzar's Departure from Jeruſalem to Babylon, King ZEDEKIAH began to cement his Kingdom and to bring his poor People under due Regulation and Government; which he ſoon effected; and he had been a flouriſhing Prince if he had not follow'd the ill Example of his Nephew Jeconiah, and of his two Brothers Jehoiakim and Jehoachaz, by doing what was Evil in the Sight of the Lord; not repenting and reforming, but growing worſe and worſe.

Therefore, when the Ambaſſadors of the Neighbouring Princes came to conſult with him, about the breaking of Nebuchadnezzar's Yoke from off their Necks (as on the other Column) God ſent Jeremiah with Bonds and Yokes upon his Neck to Zedekiah and thoſe Ambaſſadors, to preſent them with Yokes for their reſpective Royal Maſters; ſignifying, they ſhould ſay to their Maſters from "JEHOVAH the God of Hoſts, the God of Iſrael, that he had given the Earth and its Inhabitants to "Nebuchadnezzar his Servant, that all Nations ſhall ſerve him and his Son, and his Son's Son, "that the Nation who refuſe his Yoke, ſhall be conſum'd with the Sword, Famine and Peſtilence; "that therefore, they ſhould not hearken to their lying Prophets, Diviners, Dreamers, Inchanters "and Sorcerers, who ſay the contrary and lead them into a dreadful Snare; and that the Nations who "tamely come under Nebuchadnezzar's Yoke ſhall not be carried away captive, but remain in "their own Land in Peace." Jeremiah particularly adviſ'd King ZEDEKIAH "to follow this "Counſel ſent from Jehovah, and not to liſten to his falſe Prophets, who had preſum'd to ſay, "that the Holy Veſſels ſhould very ſoon be brought back to the Temple, and that the Yoke of Nebuchadnezzar ſhould be broken from off their Necks; for that thoſe Prophets had not Power with "God to prevent the remaining Veſſels and precious Things of the Temple, from being carried "off to Babylon, and from remaining there until the determin'd Time of Reduction, Jer. xxvii." This ſo affected Zedekiah, that he rejected the ſaid Propoſal of his neighbouring Princes, till the King of Egypt came into the Alliance; as will appear in its Place.

King ZEDEKIAH this Year ſent Elaſah the Son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the Son of Hilkiah, his Ambaſſadors to his Liege Lord NEBUCHADNEZZAR at Babylon; by whom Jeremiah ſent a Letter to the Elders, the Prieſts, the Prophets and People that had been carried captive into Chaldea, before and after King JECONIAH and the Queen, the Eunuchs, the Princes, the Nobility of Judah and Jeruſalem were carry'd off, with the Carpenters and Smiths; ſignifying from JEHOVAH Zebaoth the God of Iſrael, "that they ought to build, and plant, and marry, and live as formerly when in "Paleſtine, and ſeek the Peace of the Place of their Reſidence (for that in its Peace they ſhould "have Peace) and not liſten to the Dreams of their lying Prophets and Diviners, that made them "neglect their proper Intereſt with the vain Expectation of a ſpeedy Return; for that not before "70 Years Captivity are accompliſh'd, could they expect a Reduction; but that then they ſhould "certainly return to Jeruſalem according to God's faithful Promiſe: that they could expect no "Relief from Paleſtine; becauſe, God would certainly ſend after them into Captivity King ZEDEKIAH, and all his People that ſhould eſcape the Sword, Famine and Peſtilence, for their Sins unrepented of, Jer. xxix. 1——19. that God would appear againſt Ahab the Son of Kolaiah, and "Zedekiah the Son of Maaſeiah, two of the Captivity at Babylon to prove them falſe Prophets, "as on the other Column.

When Zephaniah the 2d Prieſt had read Shemaiah's Letter (as on the other Column) in the Hearing of Jeremiah, the Spirit of Jehovah came upon the Prophet, ordering Zephaniah to ſend to all in Captivity, ſignifying that Shemaiah, for being a lying Prophet and deceiving the honeſt People, ſhould be exemplarily puniſh'd and his Race extinguiſh'd, Jer. xxix. 30——32. and the ſame Time Jeremiah publiſh'd thoſe Propheſies of Chriſt and the Church in ch. xxx. and xxxi.

CONTEMPORARIES.

Towards the End of this Year, the Kings of the Edomites, Moabites, Ammonites, Tyrians, Sidonians, and of the other Neighbouring Nations ſent Ambaſſadors to congratulate ZEDEKIAH's Advancement, and to propoſe to enter with him into a League againſt Nebuchadnezzar, in order to keep him out of Paleſtine for the future, and to break his Yoke from off their Necks: but by the terrible Prophecy of Jeremiah, he was deter'd from it; as on the other Column.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR finding that Ahab the Son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah the Son of Maaſeiah at Babylon, had vainly pretended to be Prophets, and had fed the Jews in Chaldea with the vain Hopes of a ſpeedy Reſtoration; whereby the People were become an unprofitable Burden to the Emperor, by neglecting to build, plant, marry and live like other People; thoſe two falſe Prophets were brought before him, and being convicted alſo of lying in the Name of Jehovah, and of Adultery with their Neighbours Wives, he order'd them to be roaſted in the Fire before a Multitude of the Jews, according to the Prophecy, Jer. xxix. 20——23.

CRESUS the Son of Halyattes King of the Lydians, was born by Carica his Queen; for he was aged 35 Years when he began to reign, Herodot. Lib. I. See A. M. 3442.

Shemaiah the Nehelamite, or Dreamer, another Pretender to Prophecy among the Captives at Babylon, joining with thoſe other Jews that ſpoke as they wiſh'd about a ſpeedy Reduction, and were angry at Jeremiah's Letter; ſent, by the Return of the ſame Ambaſſadors, a Letter to Zephaniah the Son of Maaſeiah the ſecond Prieſt, and to all the Prieſts and People of Jeruſalem, complaining of Jeremiah's Letter and charging the Prieſt to reprove him, impriſon him, and put him in the Stocks: which Letter Zephaniah read in the Hearing of Jeremiah ch. xxix. 24——29.

KINGS of JUDAH.

In the 5th Month of this Year, Hananiah the Son of Azur of Gibeon, another falſe Prophet, met Jeremiah in the Temple and before the Prieſts and all the People propheſied, that God had broken the Yoke of the King of Babylon, and that within two full Years the Holy Veſſels would be brought back to Jeruſalem by King Jeconiah and all the Captives.

Jeremiah heartily wiſh'd his Words might be fulfill'd, but ſuſpended his Belief till the Event. Then Hananiah took the Wooden Yoke from Jeremiah's Neck and brake it, ſaying, even ſo will Jehovah break Nebuchadnezzar's Yoke from the Necks of all Nations in two full Years! and Jeremiah went away. But ſoon did the Word of Jehovah come unto him, ſignifying, that “ the next Yoke muſt be of Iron, which God will “ put upon the Neck of every Nation to ſerve Nebuchadnezzar; that “ JEHOVAH had not ſent Hananiah, and as an Evidence hereof that “ God ſhould remove him by Death this Year;” which was fulfill'd in the 7th Month when he died, Jer. xxviii.

This ſame 4th Year of Zedekiah, Jeremiah publiſh'd his Prophecies in ch. L. and LI. againſt Babylon and the Land of Chaldea, that it ſhould be ruin'd by the Medes, and Elamites or Perſians, and other Nations joining with them, while he comforts the Jews with the Promiſe of a peaceable Reſtoration.

King ZEDEKIAH, in this ſame 4th Year, either went himſelf to Babylon, or ſent his Chamberlain as his Ambaſſador, viz. Seraiah the Brother of Baruch and the Son of Neriah; and Jeremiah, having written all the Prophecies againſt Babylon in a little Book, gave it to Seraiah, charging him that he ſhould firſt read it upon the Banks of the Euphrates to thoſe of the Captivity, and then ſhould bind a Stone to it and caſt it into the Middle of that River; ſignifying, that as the Book and Stone did ſink, ſo ſhould Babylon ſink and never again riſe: this Prophecy began to be fulfill'd upon the Death of Belſhazzar, and has continued to be fulfill'd even to this Day, during 2268 Years, viz. from the Death of Belſhazzar to A. D. 1730.

Baruch is thought to have gone with his Brother Seraiah to Babylon, Baruch I.

King ZEDEKIAH this Year ſent Ambaſſadors to PHARAOH HOPHRA, or Apries King of Egypt, to make an Alliance with him and other neighbouring Princes againſt Nebuchadnezzar; and Hophra agreed to ſend him an Army of Cavalry and much People, to fight the Babylonians in Caſe of an Invaſion; for This is imported in Ezek. xvii. 15. which was reveal'd about that Time as on the other Column.

Cyaxares King of the Medes, after reigning 40 Years being now dead, was ſucceeded by his Son ASTYAGES, call'd Dan. ix. 1. Ahaſuerus, who reign'd over the Medes 35 Years, Herodot. Lib. I.

In the 30th Year after King JOSIAH renew'd the Solemn Covenant with all Iſrael, (which was done in the 18th Year of his Reign) or in this 5th Year of King Jeconiah's or Jehoiakin's Captivity, or of ZEDEKIAH's Reign, in the 4th Month and 5th Day of the Month, the Word of Jehovah came firſt expreſly unto EZEKIEL the Prieſt the Son of Buzi, while converſing with ſome of the other Captives by the River Chebar in Chaldea, Ezek. I. 1, 2, 3.

And the ſame Time God reveal'd to him the 390 YEARS of God's utmoſt Forbearance with the Houſe of Iſrael (that commence from the Death of SOLOMON or Partition of the Kingdom) and the 40 Years of God's Forbearance with the Houſe of Judah, (part of the ſaid 390 Years) that commence from the ſaid ſolemn Renewal of the Covenant in the 18th Year of King JOSIAH. Both which are together compleated in the Year of the laſt Captivity, and extreme Deſolation of the Jews and Iſraelites in the 4th Year after the Temple was burnt; as will appear in its Place, Ezek iv. v. vi. vii.

This ſame Year alſo Ezekiel in a Viſion or Trance, was carried to Jeruſalem, and ſhewn all the various Idolatries and Abominations committed by the Jews in the Holy City and the Temple itſelf; and the Puniſhments that God would certainly inflict upon them; with large Promiſes to thoſe of the Captivity that kept themſelves pure from ſuch Abominations; how that God would be their Sanctuary in a ſtrange Land, and reſtore them honourably in due Time, &c. all which the Prophet rehears'd to thoſe of the Captivity, Ezek. viii. ix. x. xi.

This Year alſo Pſammis King of Egypt dying after he had reign'd 6 Years, was ſucceeded by his Son Apries, call'd in Scripture PHARAOH HOPHRA, who reign'd 25 Years. He was terrible by Sea and Land, and brought great Spoils to Egypt from the Cyprians, Sydonians, and other Phœnicians whom he conquer'd; and became ſo elated that he was perſuaded no God could take his Kingdom from him: for which God afterwards threatens him, Ezek. xxix.

Ezekiel ſhew'd to thoſe of the Captivity by Signs and Words from Jehovah, that the Chaldeans ſhould ſoon take Jeruſalem, that ZEDEKIAH ſhould fly from the City by Night, ſhould be taken and his Eyes put out, ſhould be ſent in Chains to Babylon, where he ſhould die; that the Jews ſhould be carried captive and their Land made deſolate, Ezek. xii. when he had alſo the Revelations contain'd in the ſeven following Chapters. And from ch. xiv. 14. 20. it appears DANIEL aged about 32 Years, was now become ſo eminent in Holineſs, that he is rank'd with NOAH and JOB for Prevalency with God in Prayer, as one of the Three.

When the News came to Babylon of Zedekiah's Revolt NEBUCHADNEZZAR began to levy a great Army in order to reduce him, for all his Alliance with Egypt, and to chaſtiſe his Perfidy and Rebellion by Extirpation. Battus the Founder of the Kingdom of Cyrene dying after he had reign'd 40 Years, was ſucceeded by his Son Arceſilaus, who reign'd 16 Years, Herodot. Lib. IV.
The Chaldean Army, when they came into Paleſtine, took in all the Cities thereof in the Beginning of this Year, except Lachiſh, Azekah and Jeruſalem: upon which ZEDEKIAH and the Jews in Jeruſalem ſeem'd to be penitent; and being at leaſt afraid, were willing to reform, enter'd into a ſolemn Covenant, faithfully to obſerve the Laws of Jehovah; and in purſuance thereof, Proclamation was made in this Sabbatarian Year, that every Man ſhould let his Slaves go free, Male and Female, according to the Law of Moſes: which was accordingly done, Jer. xxxiv. 8, &c. On the 10th Day of Thebeth the 10th Month of this Year, (or third of January) NEBUCHADNEZZAR and all his vaſt Army pitch'd before Jeruſalem and environ'd it, blok'd it up on every Side, and began to raiſe Batteries againſt it, Joſeph. Antiq. Lib. X. cap. 10. 2 K. xxv. 1. Jer. xxxix. 1. therefore this Day is ſtill obſerv'd by the Jews as a Faſt Day. And ſoon after this, Jeremiah deliver'd that Prophecy to ZEDEKIAH, ch. xxxiv. 1——7. ſignifying, "that the King of Babylon ſhould burn Jeruſalem, that Zedekiah ſhould not eſcape, but be brought a Priſoner before NEBUCHADNEZZAR, who ſhould ſpeak to him in condemning him, "and whoſe Eyes he ſhould ſee (juſt before his own Eyes were put out) "and then be ſent to Babylon. Nevertheleſs, that ZEDEKIAH ſhould not "die by the Sword, but in Peace; and that many ſhould lament his Death, "and burn ſweet Odours at his Grave;" for which plain Dealing King ZEDEKIAH put the Prophet in Goal.	9	385	422	505	861	590	3414	3	159	158	17	15	NEBUCHADNEZZAR with an Army not only of Chaldeans, but of all the many Nations under his Dominion with all the Neceſſaries of a Siege march'd into Syria, growing as they march'd along, until they enter'd Paleſtine, where they began to be in Action: for he left the Ammonites, (who had alſo revolted) on his left Hand; and by the Advice of his Diviners, march'd ſtrait to the Head of the Jordan, and ſo into the Land of Iſrael, and laid Siege to Jeruſalem on the 10th Day of the 10th Month. On the ſame Day that Nebuchadnezzar began the Siege of Jeruſalem, came the Word of Jehovah to Ezekiel in Chaldea, bidding him to write the Name of this ſame Day; for that to Day the King of Babylon ſet himſelf againſt Jeruſalem, Ezek. xxiv. 1, 2. Then by the Type or Sign of a boiling Pot he foretells the Deſtruction of the Jewiſh Kingdom, and as another Sign, God remov'd his Wife by Death in the Evening of that Day, forbidding him to cry or mourn for her: ſo neither muſt the Jews in Chaldea mourn for Jeruſalem.
While Jeremiah was in Priſon and during the Siege, God ſignified to him, that Hanameel the Son of Shallum his Uncle, was coming to ſell him his Field at Anathoth (as the Prophet being the neareſt Kinſman had the beſt Right of Redemption) and that he muſt buy it. Accordingly, in the Court of the Priſon the Deeds of Purchaſe were ſign'd and ſealed in due Form of Law, the Prophet weighing to his Nephew 17 Shekles of Silver; and taking the Evidences, he gave them into the Cuſtody of Baruch before the Witneſſes, charging him to put them in an earthen Veſſel for their better Preſervation; concluding, for thus ſaith Jehovah Zebaoth the God of Iſrael, Houſes and Fields and Vineyards ſhall be poſſeſs'd again in this Land; which Promiſe is illuſtrated and extended in ch. xxxii. 1, &c. where it is ſaid to have happen'd in the 10th Year of ZEDEKIAH, which was the 18th Year of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, viz. according to the Jewiſh Era.	10	386	423	506	862	589	3415	4	160	159	18	16	PHARAOH HOPHRA came now from Egypt with a very great Army to the Relief of his Ally ZEDEKIAH King of Judah: and NEBUCHADNEZZAR hearing of his March, rais'd the Siege of Jeruſalem, and march'd with his bold Veterans ſtrait towards Egypt to give him Battel. KINGS of JUDAH.

Upon the Advance of the Egyptian Army, NEBUCHADNEZZAR raiſ'd the Siege in order to meet PHARAOH, (as on the other Column) when Jeremiah was taken out of Priſon; but He continued to contradiꝗ the falſe Prophets, who ſaid, that the Chaldeans would never return to renew the Siege: and the Jews believing only what they ſaid, forthwith broke their late Covenant of Reformation, and forced their Hebrew Slaves to return to their former Servitude, contrary to the Law of Moſes and common Juſtice: for which God by Jeremiah proclaim'd Liberty to the Sword, the Famine, and the Peſtilence to execute God's Wrath upon them, to their utter Deſtruction, Jer. xxxiv. 11, &c. Yet ZEDEKIAH ſeems to have had ſome more Regard for the Opinion of Jeremiah; and therefore ſent to him, ſaying, Pray now unto Jehovah our God for us; but the Prophet's Anſwer was to aſſure them in the Name of God, that PHARAOH's Army ſhould return to Egypt haſtily, ſhould not aſſiſt them, but deceive them like Cowards; and that the Chaldeans ſhould ſpeedily return to the Siege, ſhould take Jeruſalem and burn it, even tho' their Army were only wounded Men, Jer. xxxvii. 1——10.

Jeremiah being deſirous to avoid the Siege, attempted to retire to his native Place at Anathoth in Benjamin; but was ſeiz'd at the Gate by Irijah the Captain of the Guard, who charg'd the Prophet with being a Deſerter to the Chaldeans and brought him Priſoner to the Princes; and they believing the Captain, order'd Jeremiah to be chaſtis'd, and committed him to the Goal, that had been the Houſe of Jonathan the Scribe, Jer. xxxvii. 11——15.

The Siege of Jeruſalem was renew'd by Nebuchadnezzar about the 15th Day of the 3d Month of this 10th Year of ZEDEKIAH, for it laſted 390 Days, as may be gather'd from the Type of Ezekiel, ch. iv. v. vi. vii. or one Year and 25 Days.

King ZEDEKIAH now ſent for Jeremiah out of Priſon and ask'd him ſecretly, Is there any Word from Jehovah? Who anſwer'd, Yes; for Thou ſhall be deliver'd into the Hand of the King of Babylon! Then Jeremiah having pleaded not to be ſent back to the vile common Goal, fearing to die there, the King ſent him only to the Court of the Priſon; and order'd him a daily Allowance of Bread out of the Bakers Street until all the Bread in the City was ſpent, Jer. xxxvii. 17, &c.

ZEDEKIAH being ſore preſs'd by the Beſiegers, ſent Meſſengers to Jeremiah again to enquire of Jehovah about the Event of the War; who return'd a very terrible Anſwer, concluding that they who abode in the City ſhould periſh by the Sword, the Famine and Peſtilence; but that they who go out and ſurrender themſelves to the Beſiegers, ſhall find Quarter and get their Lives for a Prey, Jer. xxi. 1——10. And becauſe Jeremiah utter'd theſe things in the Hearing of all the People that flock'd to him in the Court of the Priſon, ſome of the Princes complain'd of him to the King, as of one that weaken'd the Hands of the Soldiers, and that was an Enemy to the City: to whom Zedekiah poorly reply'd, Behold he is in your Hands, for the King cannot do any thing againſt you! Then took they Jeremiah and caſt him into a Dungeon that was in the Court of the Priſon, letting him down with Cords till he ſunk in the Mire; where he muſt have periſh'd, if Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian one of the Eunuchs or chief Servants of the King's Court, had not prevail'd with the King to take him out, Jer. xxxviii. 1——13. for which good Office God afterwards ſent by Jeremiah to Ebed-Melech, a gracious Promiſe of being ſav'd and deliver'd from the common Calamity, Jer. xxxix. 15——18.

Then ZEDEKIAH again ſent for Jeremiah to meet him in the third Entry of the Temple, where the King ſecretly commanded him to be free with him; and the Prophet being afraid, the King ſecretly ſwore to him, that he would not put him to Death for any thing he ſhould ſay: upon which Jeremiah declar'd as before, the impending Ruin, and only added, that if ZEDEKIAH did go out and ſurrender himſelf to the King of Babylon's Princes (for NEBUCHADNEZZAR had gone to Riblah in Syria, as on the other Column) he would ſave himſelf and the City; otherwiſe he would ruin all. To which the King reply'd, I am afraid of the Jews that have deſerted to the Chaldeans, leſt they deliver me into their Hands, and they mock me. But tho' Jeremiah preſs'd him earneſtly to go out, the King would not do it, and deſir'd the Prophet to conceal their Diſcourſe, eſpecially, from the Princes, bidding him to tell them another thing, which he did when he came back to the Court of the Priſon, and never more ſaw King ZEDEKIAH, Jer. xxxviii. 14——&c.

But Pharaoh Hophra perceiving the Reſolution of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, and knowing him to be the great and expert Commander of a well appointed Army, began to fear the Event of a Battel, durſt not ſtay for him, and haſtily retir'd to fortify the Paſſages into Egypt, tho' ſome think he was firſt overthrown in Battel.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR hearing that Pharaoh had return'd home, did not march further after him, but return'd ſtrait to Jeruſalem and renew'd the Siege.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR having again begirt the City of Jeruſalem (as on the other Column) committed the Care of the Siege to his Princes, and went himſelf to Riblah in Syria, where he ſet up his Court, adminiſter'd Government and diverted himſelf.

Ezekiel on the 12th Day of the 10th Month of this 10th Year of Jehoiakin's Captivity, receiv'd a Prophecy from God againſt Pharaoh HOPHRA King of Egypt, for his baſe deſerting and deceiving of ZEDEKIAH, and for his Pride and Perfidy mention'd ch. xxix. and xxx. foretelling the Judgments that would be executed on him and his People, during 40 Years; and that tho' they ſhould be gather'd again, they ſhould only become a baſe People without a King of their own; which was fulfill'd ſoon, when Egypt became a Province of the Perſian Empire, and was afterwards ſubjeꝗed to the Macedonians, to the Romans, to the Mamalukes, and now to the Turks.

On the firſt Day of the firſt Month of the 11th Year of King Jehoiakin's Captivity, Ezekiel receiv'd the Prophecy againſt the Tyrians for their inſulting of Jeruſalem in the Day of Diſtreſs; ſhewing that they ſhould alſo be demoliſh'd by the ſame Nebuchadnezzar, ch. xxvi. xxvii. xxviii.

On the 7th Day of the firſt Month of the ſame Year, God reveal'd to Ezekiel the Prophecies againſt Egypt in ch. xxx. ỳ. 20——26.

At Length after 390 Days hard Siege, on the 9th Day of the 4th Month or 27th of July, the Famine raged in Jeruſalem, there was no more Bread for the People, and the City was broken up; when all the Princes of the King of Babylon came in and ſat in the Middle Gate, even Nargal-Sharezer, Shamgar-Nebo, Sar-Sechim, Rab-Saris, Rab-Mag, and the other Princes in great Splendor as conquering Chiefs. And when ZEDEKIAH look'd at them, He and all his valiant Men had no more Courage left, but fled out of the City by Night thro' the King's Garden, and the Gate between the two Walls, towards the Plains of Jericho, hoping to eſcape to the Ammonites; tho' he could not: for the Chaldean Horſemen purſued quickly after him, and before he reach'd to the Fords of the Jordan, they overtook him near Jericho, and having ſcatter'd his Followers, they took him Priſoner, and brought him, not back to Jeruſalem, but ſtrait to Riblah in Syria, and preſented him, as their Prey, to King NEBUCHADNEZZAR, who put him in Chains of Braſs and in Ward, until the Time of Trial, 2 K. xxv. 2, 3, 4. Jer. xxxix. 2, 3. lii. 5, 6, 7.

In the 5th Month and on the 7th Day of the Month, or 24th of Auguſt, came Nebuzaradan the Captain of Nebuchadnezzar's Life Guards, to Jeruſalem, who having took out all the Veſſels and the more valuable things of the Temple, and all the portable Spoil of the City that was left, did on the 10th Day of the Month ſet Fire to the CITY and TEMPLE, by his Maſter's Order, until all was conſum'd; and He demoliſh'd all the Palaces, Houſes, Walls, Fortreſſes and Towers thereof, till he reduc'd all to an utter Deſolation that remain'd ſo during 53 Years, till the Edict of CYRUS for its Rebuilding.

Thus by Calculation the City was burnt in the Year of Captivity 17 }
And the Decree of CYRUS for its being rebuilt after Years— 53 } in all 70 Years of Captivity.

The Temple and City were burnt by the Chaldeans on the 10th Day, being the Sabbath Day (and on the ſame Day of the Month and Year, it was burnt afterwards by the Romans, ſays Joſephus) or the Fire was kindled on the ſaid 10th Day of the 5th Month, which continued burning ſeveral Days no doubt. After the Foundation of the TEMPLE 424 Years 3 Months and 8 Days,

And after its ſolemn Dedication by SOLOMON 416 Years.

The Jews annually obſerve to this Day a Faſt in the 4th Month for the taking of Jeruſalem, and a Faſt in the 5th Month for the burning of the Temple; tho' from Zach. viii. 19. it appears they ought not to obſerve thoſe faſt Days.

When Nebuzaradan had ſpoil'd and deſtroy'd Jeruſalem, he carried the Chief Booty to his Maſter at Riblah, and all the People captive whom he found there, and thoſe that had deſerted before; leaving none but a few very poor People to be Vine-dreſſers and Husbandmen, over whom He ſet GEDALIAH the Son of Ahikam as Governor of the Land.

As for Jeremiah the Prophet, King NEBUCHADNEZZAR had, by Deſerters, heard enough of him not to neglect him, but to give particular Charge to Nebuzaradan to take him and look well to him, and to treat him as he himſelf ſhould direct: therefore, the Princes and Nebuzaradan forthwith took him out of Goal, and ſent him off chain'd with the other Captives in the Way to Riblah, only as far as Ramah in Benjamin, where Nebuzaradan ſaid to him, Jehovah thy God has pronounc'd this Evil upon this Place, and hath brought and done it as he foretold; becauſe you have ſinned againſt Jehovah, and have not obey'd his Voice; therefore, This thing is come upon you: and now, behold, I looſe Thee this Day from the Chains upon thine Hand! If Thou pleaſeſt to go with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well unto Thee; but if Thou don't reliſh it, let it alone: behold, all the Land is before Thee, whither it ſeemeth good and convenient for Thee to go, thither go; or, if you pleaſe, go to Gedaliah the Governor of the Cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the People, or go where you pleaſe: ſo Nebuzaradan having given the Prophet a certain Reward with Proviſions, Jeremiah choſe to retire to GEDALIAH (whoſe Father had been his Friend) who was charg'd to take care of him, Jer. xxxix. and xl.

GEDALIAH the Governor gladly and kindly receiv'd Jeremiah; and when the Jews that eſcap'd in the Plains of Jericho, or had hid themſelves in the Fields or in Foreign Lands, heard of Gedaliah's Preferment, They flock'd to him from all Parts, and upon his ſwearing to give them Protection, They ſetled again in the Land, and gather'd in a plentiful Harveſt of Summer Fruits; of whom the Chiefs were Ishmael the Son of Nethaniah, Johanan, and Jonathan the Son of Kareah and and others. But ISHMAEL being of the Royal Seed, deſign'd to make himſelf a King by the Aſſiſtance of BAALIS King of the Ammonites, who excited him to cut off Gedaliah: yet, when Johanan and the other Chiefs inform'd GEDALIAH of Iſhmael's treacherous Deſign, and offer'd to prevent it by cutting him off, Gedaliah, too indolent, would not believe it, nor permit them to ſlay Iſhmael: and ſo this wicked Man with his Followers, being invited to feaſt with the Governor, while the People were ſcatter'd in gathering their Fruits, roſe up againſt Gedaliah and ſlew him at his own Table, and all the Jews and Chaldeans preſent at Mizpah on the 30th Day of the 7th Month; and the next Day finding 80 Men going with Offering and Incenſe to the Ruins of the Temple, he ſlew 70 of them, the others purchaſing their Lives by their Stores. Then Iſhmael and his Men ſeiz'd the Daughters of King Zedekiah, and having got many of the People to join him, and captivated others, He departed thence to go over to the Ammonites for preſent Shelter and Supplies of military Men to execute his Project

But Johanan and other Captains hearing of the horrid Murder, aſſembled as many as he could, purſued them as far as Gibeon, retook all the Captives, and none eſcap'd but Iſhmael himſelf and eight of his Men, who went to Ammon.

The modern Jews do ſtill obſerve the 30th Day of the 7th Month as a Faſt, and it was obſerv'd during the Captivity, Zech. viii. 19.

After this Johanan and the Remnant of the Jews, fearing the Wrath of the Chaldeans, becauſe of the Murder of GEDALIAH, march'd from Mizpah towards Egypt; and in their Way at Bethlehem, deſir'd Jeremiah (whom they carried with them) to aſk God's Counſel about it, who after ten Days told them from God, that their Safety was in their ſtaying at home; for that then all would go well with them; but that if they went down to Egypt, They ſhould be deſtroy'd there by the Sword, the Famine, and the Peſtilence. But they would not obey the Word of God, told Jeremiah he had not that Word from God but from Baruch, and march'd ſtrait for Egypt with the King's Daughters, Jeremiah and Baruch and the Remnant of Iſrael, Men, Women and Children; where They ſetled firſt at Tahpanhes, and where Jeremiah was divinely inſpir'd to foretel the Deſtruction of Egypt, by that very NEBUCHADNEZZAR from whom thoſe Jews had fled, Jer. xl. xli. xlii. xliii. which was actually fulfill'd, as will appear in its Place.

keepers and the Eunuch that had been ſet over the Soldiers, and 7 Men that had been near ZEDEKIAH's Perſon, and the principal Scribe of the Hoſt or Muſter-Maſter, and 60 Country Gentlemen found in the City, in all 74 Perſons, who were all brought in Chains before NEBUCHADNEZZAR at Riblah. When they arriv'd there NEBUCHADNEZZAR in his Royal Robes mounted his Tribunal, and having arraign'd before him poor Zedekiah, and prov'd him guilty of Perfidy and Rebellion, condemn'd him to have his Eyes put out, to be bound in Fetters of Braſs, to be ſent captive into Chaldea, and there to remain in perpetual Impriſonment, a terrible Sentence! nay, to make his Puniſhment the more terrible, Nebuchadnezzar order'd all thoſe Jews, who had been brought out of Jeruſalem, Prieſts and Noblemen, and Zedekiah's young innocent Sons, to be ſlain in the Sight and Preſence of poor Zedekiah, (none being ſpar'd but the Deſerters) and then order'd that unhappy Prince's Eyes to be put out, that he might never ſee more; a dreadful Execution!

This might be done about the End of the 6th Month of the 11th Year of Zedekiah's Reign, and then King NEBUCHADNEZZAR and his Princes march'd from Riblah in Syria Eaſtward to Babylon, in great Triumph, with the captive Jews in Chains (among whom was JEHOZADAK the Son of Seraiah the High-Prieſt) and the captive King blinded; whereby the Prophecy was fulfill'd, Ezek. xii. 13.——I will bring him (Zedekiah) to Babylon, to the Land of the Chaldeans; yet ſhall he not ſee it, tho' he ſhall die there.

ZEDEKIAH perhaps was put into the ſame Priſon with his Nephew JEHOIAKIN, but is ſuppos'd, at the End of this Year, to have died of Grief and a great Penitent aged 32 Years; and thoſe of the Captivity much lamented him, having got leave to give him a noble Burial after the Rituals of the Jewiſh Royal Family, as Jeremiah had foretold.

We have no more certain Accounts of Jeremiah the afflicted, mourning Prophet: but ſome ſay he was ſton'd to Death by the Jews in Egypt; and others that Pharaoh Hophra ſlew him. Tho' the Time of Obadiah the Prophet is plac'd above in the Reign of UZZIAH King of Judah, page 43. Yet his Prophecy againſt the Edomites or Idumeans, ſeems to point forward to theſe Times alſo: but it is certain that the Prophecies againſt the Edomites in Jer. xlix. 7. Ezek. xxv. 12. Pſal. lxxix. and cxxxvii. relate all to theſe diſmal Times.	2	388	864	587	3417	XLVIII. 2	162	161	18	20	50	On the 5th Day of the 10th Month (25th January) of the 12th Year of JECONIAH'S Captivity, Ezekiel hearing, by one that eſcap'd from Jeruſalem, that the Holy City was deſtroy'd; foretold the utter Deſtruction of thoſe who ſtill remain'd in Judah, and alſo reproves the Hypocriſy of the Jews in Chaldea, ch. xxxiii. 21, &c. and On the firſt Day of the 12th Month of this Year, Ezekiel propheſied againſt Pharaoh Hophra, and alſo of the Deſolation of Egypt by the Hand of Nebuchadnezzar, ch. xxxii. 1, &c. NEBUCHADNEZZAR upon his Return to Babylon made that great Golden Image mention'd, Dan. iii. in height 60 Cubits and 6 Cubits broad, from the Spoils of the conquer'd Countries, and erected it viſible in the Plain of Dura near Babylon, where he did moſt ſolemnly dedicate it to the Honour of Bel or Belus his God, decreeing that all People ſhould fall down before it in religious Worſhip, and that they who refus'd or declin'd to obey this Decree, ſhould be caſt into a burning fiery Furnace. If the Deſign of the Princes was to ruin Daniel, for being then exalted above them, they attempted it by accuſing firſt Shadrach, Meshech, and Abed-Nego of Nonconformity to the Decree: when theſe three were brought before the King, they perſiſted firm in diſobeying his Orders; for which he order'd them to be thrown into the Furnace, where they were miraculouſly preſerv'd from the leaſt Hurt by Fire, and from whence the King call'd them to come forth; and being converted from that Idolatry, He made a new Decree with ſevere Penalties, that none ſhould ſpeak any thing amiſs againſt the GOD of Shadrach, Meſhech and Abed-Nego: whereby the Jews were greatly honour'd.
NEBUCHADNEZZAR came again into Syria, and about the End of this Year began to lay Siege to Tyre where ITHOBAL reign'd, who was a very rich, wiſe, and powerful Prince; but being too much elated and arrogant, and having encourag'd his People to inſult the poor Jews in time of their Deſolation, God juſtly brought upon him the ſame Rod of his Vengeance, the King of Babylon, who blokaded this great and opulent City for 13 Years.	3	389	865	586	3418	3	163	162	19	21	49	CYRUS now 12 Years old, had hitherto liv'd in Perſia with his Father Cambyſes the King; but this Year he travell'd into Media with his Mother Mandane, being ſent for by her Father Aſtyages King of Media.
While NEBUCHADNEZZAR carried on the Siege, he ſent his General Nebuzaradan with a Detachment to ſurvey the whole Land of Iſrael, and perhaps to avenge the Murder of Gedaliah: but finding none of the Murderers, he took all the People he found Priſoners: and next Year	4	390	866	585	3419	4	164	163	20	22	48
Nebuzaradan carried thoſe Priſoners Captive into Babylon, being in all only 745 Perſons; which was the laſt Captivity of the Jews by NEBUCHADNEZZAR, and the Completing of the threatn'd Deſolation: ſo that the Land was now entirely without Inhabitants, and all groteſque and wild, Jer. lii. 30. viz. in the 23d Year of Nebuchadnezzar according to the Jewiſh Reckoning, or 21ſt Year according to Ptolomy, or the Babyloniſh Reckoning.	5		867	584	3420	XLIX. 1	165	164	21	23	47

And now the Prophecy of Ezekiel was fulfill'd concerning the 390 Days or Years, ch. iv. 1, &c. for according to our Chronology, from the Defection of JEROBOAM, A. M. 3030. are juſt 390 Years to the Beginning of this Year 3420, the ſaid Year 3030 incluſive: or from the End of A. M. 3029, when SOLOMON died, to the End of A. M. 3419, are juſt the 390 Years of God's Forbearance of the Iſraelites; and the laſt 40 Years of the ſaid 390 Years, viz from the 18th Year of King JOSIAH (when the ſolemn Covenant was renew'd, A. M. 3380.) to this laſt Captivity are juſt the 40 Years of God's Forbearance of the Jews; which could not begin with Jeremiah's commencing Prophet in the 13th Year of JOSIAH; becauſe, even at the Sack of Jeruſalem he had been a Prophet 42 Years, which is 2 Years more than that Number. Beſides, Ezekiel would not have reckon'd the Time of his Miſſion from the ſaid 18th Year of JOSIAH (as certainly he does) but with a View to compute the ſaid 40 Years. Therefore, the 390 Years did not end with the Sack of Jeruſalem (as ſome think) that being a Calamity peculiar to Judah, and in which Iſrael had no immediate Concern; but with this laſt Captivity: for Nebuzaradan carried off Iſraelites and Jews promiſcuous Captives, and the whole Land of all Iſrael was laid utterly waſte, which was a common Calamity.

Mean while NEBUCHADNEZZAR return'd to his Army in Paleſtine and took in the City of Tyre, after his Army had lain round it Thirteen Years. But the Inhabitants wiſely withdrew their beſt Subſtance into a neighbouring Iſland, and built New Tyre; ſo that the Chaldeans getting no Booty worth while, their inrag'd King ſlew the few Tyrians he found and demoliſh'd the old City, the Siege of which is deſcrib'd by Ezekiel ch. xxvi. and King Ithobal being ſlain during the Siege, the Tyrians made BAAL their King in New Tyre, who reign'd ten Years.	26	16	402	573	3431	4	176	175	36	34	32	This Year alſo the Prophecies againſt Pharaoh HOPHRA, or Apries King of Egypt abovemention'd began to be fulfill'd: for the Cyrenians having taken from the Lybians a great Part of their Country (as above noted) the Lybians apply'd to APRIES for his Protection, with a full Surrender of themſelves and their Land to him: upon which Apries ſent an Army againſt the Cyrenians, who beat his Army in the Field with a great Slaughter, and left very few to eſcape to Egypt; which occaſion'd a great Revolt of the Egyptians from Apries. He ſent Amaſis a Miniſter of State to pacify the People; but while Amaſis was haranguing them, they put on his Head the Enſigns of Royalty and proclaim'd him King of Egypt. AMASIS accepted and increas'd the Revolt. Then APRIES ſent Paterbemis, another of his chief Men, to bring Amaſis to him a Priſoner; and becauſe he did not (which indeed he could not) Apries in a Rage caus'd the Noſe and Ears of Paterbemis to be cut off; the News of which unheard of Indignity to a Perſon of his Worth and Station, made all the People to join the Conſpirators, and APRIES was forc'd to flee into the upper Egypt near Ethiopia, where he had a Sort of Dominion for ſome Years, while AMASIS rul'd over the lower Egypt, Herodot. Lib. I. NEBUCHADNEZZAR this Year, after the Siege of Tyre, having no Enemy in Paleſtine, and hearing of the Rupture in Egypt, and the Diviſion of the Kingdom by Apries and Amaſis, and perhaps being invited by Amaſis; march'd his bold Veterans Southward and invaded Egypt.
	28	18	404	571	3433	2	178	177	34	36	4	NEBUCHADNEZZAR march'd thro' and conquer'd all the Land of Egypt, from Migdol at the Arabian Entry, to Syene at the Borders of Ethiopia, ſlaying all that ſtood in his Way and many that ſtood not (eſpecially the Jews, who fled thither after the Murder of Gedaliah; many of them being either ſlain or carried captive into Babylon, according to the Prophecy of Jeremiah; and the reſt fled out of Egypt, and wander'd till the Decree of CYRUS, when they return'd to Judea) and having drove Hophra or Apries out of Egypt, and diſtreſs'd the Country ſo much, that it did not recover itſelf in 40 Years, He appointed AMASIS to be his Deputy or Viceroy, loaded himſelf and his Army with great Spoils, and departed towards Paleſtine again.
DANIEL was now the Maſter of the Magicians, in greater Eſteem than any of the Jews, and became a great Favourite for his faithful Interpretation of Nebuchadnezzar's Dream, Dan. iv. accordingly At the End of 12 Months after he had that Dream, NEBUCHADNEZZAR, while walking in his Palace or elſe in his Hanging Gardens on the uppermoſt Terras, taking a large View of the whole City, began to triumph in his own Archievements, and boaſting of his Magnificence ſaid aloud, Is not this Great Babylon, that I have built for the Houſe of the Kingdom by the Might of my Power, and for the Honour of my Majeſty?	29	19	405	570	3434	3	179	178	33	37	35	NEBUCHADNEZZAR having now finiſh'd all his warlike Expeditions, return'd to Babylon, which he had much beautify'd and inlarg'd beyond Imagination, too large to be here deſcrib'd, as may be ſeen in many antient Hiſtories of thoſe Times: but while at reſt and quiet in his Palace, he had that wonderful Dream of the great Tree that was to be cut down, recorded with its Interpretation in Dan. ch. iv. Old Pharaoh HOPHRA, or Apries, now left his hiding Places and retir'd to the Mediterranean Sea Coaſt of Libya, where hiring an Army of Carians, Ionians and other Foreigners, march'd againſt AMASIS and gave him Battel at Memphis, in which Apries was beat and taken Priſoner; and being carried to the City of Sais, he was ſtrangled in his own Palace. Thus ended the Pride and Blaſphemy of Hophra, exactly according to the Prophecies againſt him by Jeremiah and Ezekiel; and ſo
	30	20	406	569	3435	4	180	179	32	38	36	AMASIS without Oppoſition reign'd King of Egypt 44 Years from the Death of Apries: This is the Amaſis ſo much celebrated by Plato in Timæo.

But while the Words were yet in his Mouth, a Voice fell from HEAVEN, ſaying, O King Nebuchadnezzar, to Thee it is ſpoken, the Kingdom is departed from Thee, and they ſhall drive Thee from Men, and thy Dwelling ſhall be with the Beaſts of the Field: They ſhall make Thee eat Graſs as Oxen, and Seven times ſhall paſs over Thee; until Thou ſhalt know that the moſt High ruleth in the Kingdom of Men, and giveth it to whomſoever He will! The ſame Hour the Thing was fulfill'd upon Nebuchadnezzar; for immediately He turn'd mad, and, loſing his Senſe and Reaſon, He was driven from among Men into the Fields among the Beaſts; where he did eat Graſs with the Oxen, and his Body was wet with the Dew of Heaven, till his Hairs were grown like Eagles Feathers, and his Nails like Birds Claws. Dan. IV.

Thus NEBUCHADNEZZAR, the greateſt and moſt magnificent Prince that reign'd before him, and few greater ſince, who had beat the Nations to Duſt and had triumph'd over the known World, was for his Pride and Blaſphemy, and other Sins, reduc'd to the abject State of a Beaſt without Senſe and Reaſon; until God's appointed Time according to the Viſion of the Great Tree.

During Nebuchadnezzar's ſeven Years Brutality, his Son Evil-Merodach is ſuppos'd to rule the Empire, but not well, being juſtly call'd Evil-Merodach, or fooliſh Merodach.

CONTEMPORARIES.

At the End of ſeven Years, NEBUCHADNEZZAR was reſtor'd, as Daniel expreſſeth it, ℣. 34, &c. At the End of the Days, I Nebuchadnezzar lift up mine Eyes unto Heaven, and my Underſtanding return'd unto me; and I bleſſed the moſt High, and prais'd and honour'd him who liveth for ever, whoſe Dominion is everlaſting, and his Kingdom from Generation to Generation; and all the Inhabitants of the Earth are reputed as nothing, and he doth according to his Will in the Army of Heaven and among the Inhabitants of the Earth, and none can ſtay his Hand or ſay unto him what doſt thou? At the ſame Time my Reaſon return'd unto me; and for the Glory of my Kingdom, mine Honour and Brightneſs return'd unto me; and my Counſellors and my Lords ſought unto me; and I was eſtabliſh'd again in my Kingdom; and excellent Majeſty was added unto me! Now I Nebuchadnezzar praiſe and extol and honour the King of Heaven, all whoſe Works are Truth, and his Ways Judgment, and thoſe that walk in Pride he is able to abaſe!

NEBUCHADNEZZAR upon his Reſtoration (according to the Jewiſh Traditions) put his Son Evil-Merodach, for his Male-adminiſtration, in the ſame Priſon with the captive King of Judah Jeconiah, where they contracted Friendſhip: but the GRAND MONARCH outlived not his Reſtoration above one Year, a good Man, a true Believer in the one only living and Eternal God, the God of Heaven, being converted both from his Pride and his Idolatry; and after he had reign'd in all 45 Years by the Jewiſh Reckoning, and 43 Years alone after his Father's Death, he died the End of this Year in Peace, and was ſucceeded by his Son EVIL-MERODACH taken out of Priſon, and now ſet upon his Father's Throne again, a little before the 25th Day of the 12th Month of the 37th Year of JECONIAH'S Captivity (or 15th of April) for Jer. lii. 31. it is ſaid, that then Evil-Merodach King of Babylon in the firſt Year of his Reign lifted up the Head of Jehoiakin (or Jeconiah) King of Judah, and brought him forth out of Priſon. He reign'd two Years.

Balpattes King of Lydia being dead after he had reign'd 57 Years, was ſucceeded by his Son CRŒSUS, who reign'd 14 Years.

Seeing it is ſaid Jer. lii. 33. That King Jehoiakin or JECONIAH was fed by the Emperor EVIL-MERODACH all the Days of his Life, it is generally concluded, that they both died this Year at the ſame Time, Jeconiah being, very likely, ſlain with the Emperor as a ſpecial Favourite of his, agreeable to the Prophecy againſt him, Jer. xxii. 30. Thus ſaith Jehovah, write you this Man childleſs, a Man that ſhall not proſper in his Days: for no Man of his Seed ſhall proſper ſitting upon the Throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah! but this Prophecy had not been fulfill'd if Jehoiakin (call'd ver. 28. CONIAH) had died in full Poſſeſſion of all that Proſperity and Splendor conferr'd upon him by Evil-Merodach: and whereas in the ſaid Prophecy he is denounc'd Childleſs, that is explain'd in the following Words. importing only that none of his Seed ſhall ever mount the Throne of David, but not that he ſhould have no Children; for we read (Mat. I. and alſo 1 Chron. iii. 17.) that SALATHIEL, the Head or Prince of the Captivity after him, was the Son of JECONIAH, being carried with him captive an Infant into Babylon, was there married and was the Father or Grandfather of ZERUBBABEL the Prince of the Reduction: But ſeeing SALATHIEL is alſo call'd the Son of NERI (Luc. III.) of the Branch of NATHAN the other Son of DAVID from whom Meſſiah is alſo deſcended; It is uſually thus reconcil'd, viz. NERI dying at Jeruſalem without Iſſue, young JECONIAH the Son of King Jehoiakim married his Widow according to the Law of Moſes, to raiſe up ſeed to Neri then his neareſt Kinſman, and the ſaid Widow of NERI bore to Jeconiah, SALATHIEL the Son of Jeconiah by Nature, and alſo the Son of Neri by Law or according to the Law of Moſes: for otherwiſe the Promiſe made to SOLOMON concerning the Meſſiah would be void.

CONTEMPORARIES.

All the Grecian Sages flock'd to the Court of CRESUS, and particularly Solon the Athenian Lawgiver or Philoſopher, to whom CRESUS expos'd all his immenſe Wealth, vainly expecting that Solon would pronounce him the happieſt of all Men: but upon Diſcourſe with the King, Solon plainly told him, that he could pronounce no Man happy while he liv'd, becauſe we cannot foreſee what Evil may happen before Death! which unexpected Reply made vain Creſus to neglect good SOLON tho' he minded him afterwards with a Witneſs.

Eſope alſo the famous Author of the Fables was ſent for by CRESUS, and this ſame Year going to Delphi poor Eſope wss unjuſtly condemn'd and thrown down a Rock, Herodot. Lib. II. cap. 134.

EVIL-MERODACH is reported (by Beroſus the Chaldean Hiſtorian and others) to have ſo wallow'd in Luſts, to be ſo given up to all Wickedneſs, that he became intollerable: therefore, a Conſpiracy was ſoon form'd againſt him by Neriglissar his Siſter's Husband, who put him to Death and reign'd in his ſtead.

Aſtyages King of Media died alſo this Year (Tobit xiv. 17.) after he had reign'd glorious 35 Years; and was ſucceeded by his Son

CYAXARES II. the Brother of Mandane the Mother of CYRUS, He is call'd by Daniel DARIUS the Mede, and reign'd at Ekbatana and at Bybylon both, in all 25 Years.

Solon about this Time, died in Cyprus aged 80 Years as may be gather'd from Plutarch and Laertius.

XVIII. JEHOIAKIM (so call'd by Pharaoh Necho King of Egypt, who set him on the Throne as his Tributary, his former Name being Eliakim) began to reign A. M. 3395. Nabonassar 139. being aged 25 Years, which shews he was older than Jehoachaz; for he was the Son of the first Wife. He reign'd xi Years.

In the 4th Year of his Reign (which was Nebuchadnezzar's first Year according to the Jewish Reckoning) NEBUCHADNEZZAR, having beat the Egyptian Army, retaken Carchemish and conquer'd all Syria and Palestine from the Hands of the Egyptian, he laid Siege to Jerusalem and took it, put Jehoiakim in Chains in order to send him Captive to Babylon, but releas'd him, and set him up afresh as his Tributary: and NEBUCHADNEZZAR having carried many of the Jews Captive with him to Babylon with many of the Holy Vessels of the Temple, the 70 Years Captivity begins this Year,

A. M. —— 3398 } Nabonassar 142
Before Christ—— 606 }

In the 7th Year of his Reign Jehoiakim rebell'd against NEBUCHADNEZZAR, and enter'd again under the Protection of his old Friend Pharaoh Necho, who yet did not assist him, for NEBUCHADNEZZAR sent to his Lieutenants in and about Palestine to raise their Posse, and distress Jehoiakim on all Quarters; which they did, sent many Jews captive to Babylon, and at last met together at Jerusalem and blokaded it.

JEHOIAKIM, during the Blokade, in a Salley was taken Prisoner, and slain with the Sword by the Besiegers, who cast his dead Body like a dead Ass, contemptuously in the High-way near one of the Gates (according to Jeremiah's Prophecy) in the 11th Year of his Reign aged 36 Years. A. M. 3405. before Christ 599. Nabonassar 149. His Wife Nehushta the Daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. Tab. XIX.

XX. ZEDEKIAH (so call'd by Nebuchadnezzar when he set him on the Throne, his former Name being Mattaniah) began to reign in the room of Jehoiakin by Virtue of a solemn Contract with Nebuchadnezzar as his Tributary A. M. 3406. Nabonassar 150. and reign'd 11 Years. In the 8th Year he broke his Contract with Nebuchadnezzar and rebell'd. In the 9th Year NUBUCHADNEZZAR besieg'd Jerusalem. In the 10th Year he rais'd the Siege to offer Battel to Pharaoh HOPHRA King of Egypt. In the 11th Year he renew'd the Siege, and by his Princes took in Jerusalem, and burnt it with the Temple while he stay'd at Riblah in Syria, whither ZEDEKIAH was brought Prisoner before him, who put out his Eyes and carried him in Chains to Babylon, where he died aged 32 A. M. 3416. before Christ 588. Nabonassar 160. in the 19th Year of the 70 Years Captivity, and in the 11th Year of Jeconiah's Captivity.

Johanan who is only nam'd; and is therefore suppos'd to have died in his Minority without Issue.

Several Sons slain by Nebuchadnezzar just before his Eyes were put out.

King JECONIAH or Jehoiakin being dead, the Jews in Chaldea paid voluntary Homage to his Son

SALATHIEL as Prince of the Captivity, who was the legal Son of NERI, of the Branch of NATHAN the Brother of SOLOMON, King Jeconiah having married the Widow of Neri as above obſerv'd, to raiſe up Seed to his Kinſman Neri (who died without Iſſue) according to the Law of Moſes; therefore, SALATHIEL was the natural Son of Jeconiah, and the legal Son of Neri, and thus the Promiſe made to SOLOMON concerning the Meſsiah was not defeated, and CHRIST is deſcended from him by natural Generation.

But tho' none of David's Offspring henceforward ever ſat upon the Throne of Judah; yet one of them was always honour'd by the Jews as a Prince with ſome Juriſdiction, as far as was conſiſtent with their Subjection to foreign Princes, from whom ſometimes a Ratification was obtain'd of the Authority of the ſaid Deſcendant of DAVID, as in the Caſe of Zerubbabel the Prince of the Captivity and Reduction. Nay, 'tis reported that the modern Jews keep up the Ceremonial ſtill, in order to anſwer the Chriſtians with reſpect to Jacob's Prophecy, affirming the Scepter is not departed from Judah, but is preſerv'd by this Head of the Captivity or Diſperſion; and that they have their Naſi or Prince of the Sanhedrim their Lawgiver from between the Feet of Judah or deſcended from him. But this is ignorant Obſtinacy; for they have loſt all their Genealogies, cannot prove themſelves to be Jews, and far leſs that any of them are of the Houſe of David.

But this ſame SALATHIEL is mention'd as the Captain of the People or Jews in Chaldea, 2 Eſdras v. 16. and the Apocryphal Author of that Book aſſerts, that Ezra or Eſdras had the Revelation mention'd in his Dialogue with the Angel Uriel at Babylon, in the 30th Year after the Ruin of the City of Jeruſalem, ch. iii. 1. But if SALATHIEL was then the Head of the Captivity, his Father Jeconiah muſt have been dead the Year before, according to our Chronology.

Upon the Death of Evil-Merodach

NERIGLISSAR his Siſter's Husband or the Son-in-law of Nebuchadnezzar, began to reign at Babylon, who reign'd 3 Years and 3 Months. He was a Man of Valour and forthwith prepar'd an Army againſt the Medes this Year.

CYAXARES King of Media hearing of the Babylonian's Preparation for War, began to prepare too, by raiſing an Army of Medes, and ſent to Perſia for his brave Nephew, viz.

CYRUS then 40 Years old; who with 30000 Perſians march'd into Media to the Relief of his Unkle, and this Year commence the 30 Years of CYRUS's Reign, beginning now to be King of the Soldiers while his Unkle was King of the State.

Neriglissar, upon the News of CYRUS's March into Media, ſent Ambaſſadors to CRESUS King of Lydia and to the Cappadocians, to both the Phrygians, to the Carians, Paphlagonians, Cilicians, Indians and other neighbouring Nations, to join with him againſt the Medes and Perſians the common Eunemy; and They form'd a great Confederacy for maintaining the Ballance of Power in Asia.

The King of Armenia, being a Tributary of the Crown of Media ever ſince he was conquer'd by Aſtyages, thought This a fit time to ſhake off the Yoke, and ſo refus'd to pay any more Tribute or to ſend his Quota of auxiliary Forces to CYAXARES againſt the Confederates. But CYRUS afraid that ſuch a Precedent might be ſoon follow'd by other Parts, invaded Armenia, under the Pretence of an Hunting-match, with a great Body of Horſe; and having ſurpris'd and overcome the Armenian King with his Son Tigranes, he made them Priſoners and ſo brought the Armenians to his Terms: upon which the captive King was reſtor'd, the Tribute and the Auxiliaries were promis'd, the Hills towards Chaldea were fortify'd and garriſon'd, and CYRUS return'd glorious to Media from this firſt Atchievement.

And now CYAXARES and CYRUS march'd their Army againſt NERIGLISSAR, CRESUS and the other Confederates, and beat them out of the Field; in which Battel NERIGLISSAR was ſlain, and CRESUS with the reſt eſcap'd by the Help of the Night. But the conquering CYRUS, by the Direction and Aſſiſtance of the Hyrcanians (who had then deſerted to him) purſu'd CRESUS, and next Day gave him a total Rout, and took all their Baggage except that of Creſus, which had been ſent off with his Women the Night before, and Creſus follow'd them as faſt as he could into his own Kingdom; leaving the Kings of the Cappadocians and Arabians to be put to Death by the Hyrcanians: but CYRUS ſpar'd the reſt, Xenoph. Lib. III. and IV.

Upon the Death of the wiſe and brave Neriglissar in the Beginning of his 4th Year, his fooliſh Son ſucceeded, viz.

LABOROSOARCHOD, the Grandſon of Nebuchadnezzar by his Mother, who reign'd only 9 Months or the Remainder of the 4th Year of Neriglíſſar, and is therefore not mention'd in Ptolomy's Canon.

Among his other Follies, he ſlew the only Son of Gobrias (a Governor of a Province) at Hunting, only becauſe the Youth darted better than he; and he order'd Gadates, another Governor, to be caſtrated, only becauſe one of his Concubines had prais'd him as an handſome Man: therefore, theſe two influenc'd their Provinces to join them in a Revolt to CYRUS, who forthwith took Poſſeſſion of thoſe Provinces, and beat Laborosoarchod's Army in the Province of Gadates: nay, tho' the Babylonians cut off the Caduſians a Detachment of the Medes, yet CYRUS forc'd Laborosoarchod to retreat to Babylon, before the Walls of which the Conqueror twice appear'd to provoke the Babylonians to Battel, or their King to a Duel, tho' in vain: therefore he march'd back towards Media, and having took ſome Fortreſſes on the Frontiers, he put his Army into Winter Quarters there, and ſent for CYAXARES to conſult about the next Campaign, Xenoph. Lib. V. and VI.

Laboroſoarchod being freed from CYRUS, as he thought, indulg'd himſelf in all his wicked and tyrannical Inclinations, till he became odious and intollerable to his own People, who conſpir'd againſt him and ſlew him in the ninth Month of his Reign. He was ſucceeded by

AFFAIRS of the Jews and others.

DANIEL had this Year the Viſion of the four Monarchies, and of the 5th Monarchy or the Meſſiah's Kingdom that was to follow them, Dan. vii.

DANIEL had now the Viſion of the Ram and He-goat, that prefigur'd the Fall of the Perſian Monarchy by ALEXANDER the Great, and foretold the Perſecution of the Jews by Antiochus Epiphanes King of Syria, Dan. viii. He had this Revelation at Shuſan in the Palace of Belſhazzar in that City, where he attended as a Miniſter of State. Whereby it appears that this Metropolis of Elam was then poſſeſs'd by the Babylonians.

But three Years afterwards Abradates the Vice-Roy of Shuſan revolted to CYRUS, and thenceforward it belong'd to the Empire of the Medes and Perſians; for the Elamites join'd the Medes in the Siege of Babylon as it was foretold, Iſa. xxi. 2. and now the Elamites recovering, by the Medes, their ancient Liberties that the Chaldeans had depriv'd them of, Elam was reſtor'd according to the Prophecy, Jer. xlix. 39. and the People of that and ſome neighbouring Provinces having been train'd of late by CYRUS to Horſeriding were from thence call'd PERSIANS. See Bochart. Phaleg. page 254.

About the End of this firſt Year of the 58th Olympiad the famous Thales Mileſius died, (as Laertius relates from Soſicrates) and Anaximander Mileſius now firſt obſerv'd the Obliquity of the Zodiak, as Pliny relates from others, Lib. I. cap. 8. tho' Plutarch intimates, that it was not unknown to his Maſter Thales, Lib. II. de placitis Philoſophorum, cap. 12.

Y

In the ſecond Year of this Olympiad, A. M. 3447. Anaximander Mileſius, aged 64 Years, died, as Laertius relates from the Chronicles of Apollodorus the Athenian; adding from the Hiſtory of Phavorinus, that Anaximander firſt invented the Gnomon, and ſet it up at Lacedemon to catch the Shadow, and made Horoſcopes to ſhew the Solſtices and Equinoxes: for theſe Dials were different from the Gnomons or Hour Dials.

But Pliny Lib. II. cap 76. ſays, that the Gnomon was invented by Anaximenes Mileſius, the Diſciple of Anaximander and his Succeſſor in the School of Thales, and, that he firſt ſet up an Horologe or Dial at Lacedemon. But Herodotus, Lib. II. cap. 109. affirms, that the Grecians learn'd the Pole and the Gnomon, and the 12 Parts of the Day from the Babylonians: and I have above alledg'd that the Babylonians learn'd their Aſtronomy or their calculating of Eclipſes firſt from the Iſraelitiſh Captives, and afterwards improv'd it from the Jewiſh Captives; for ACHAZ's Dial at Jeruſalem was near 200 Years older than this at Lacedemon: and that the Babylonians had it from the Iſraelites. See Tab. XVII. Page 49. and Tab. XIX. Page 53.

As for Pythagoras, when his Maſters Thales and Anaximander were dead, he travell'd into Egypt, as Thales had BELSHAZZAR call'd by Ptolemy Nabonadius, by Beroſus Nabonnedus, by Megaſthenes Nabonnidochus, by Herodotus Labynitus, and by Joſephus Naboandelus, who ſaith, He is the BELSHAZZAR of Daniel; for upon his Death, the Kingdom was tranſlated to the Medes and Perſians: he is call'd in Scripture the Son of Nebuchadnezzar, that is, his Grandſon; for he was too young to be his immediate Son, but was the Son of Evil-Merodach by his Queen Nitocris; whereby the Prophecy of Jeremiah (ch. xxxvii. 7.) was fulfill'd, that the Eaſtern Nations were to ſerve Nebuchadnezzar, and his Son and his Son's Son; and he was the laſt of the Race, a very indolent and wicked Prince: therefore, his Mother being an ingenious and manly Woman, took upon her the Adminiſtration in his Name during the 17 Years of his Reign; and being wiſely afraid of the enterpriſing Genius and growing Greatneſs of CYRUS, ſhe ſo well fortify'd Babylon within and without, that it was impregnable, and could not have been taken but by a Surprize, Herodot. Lib. I.

CYRUS and CYAXARES agreed at a Council of War in the Camp in the great Neriglіſſar's Tent, not to ravage the Country of the Chaldean Empire, but to take in all the Strong Holds and Cities they could, whereby they would inlarge their Empire; in which they were imploy'd the firſt ſeven Years of Belſhazzar.

Belshazzar, alarm'd by the Succeſſes of CYRUS, travell'd with much Treaſure to his Confederate, King CRESUS at Sardis in Lydia, where he hir'd a very numerous Army of Egyptians, Greeks and Thracians, and of all the Nations of Leſſer Aſia, and having appointed CRESUS to be their General, and ſent him to invade Media; he return'd to Babylon.

CYRUS by one of his Spies, knew all that paſs'd at Sardis, and ſeaſonably prepar'd to meet CRESUS, who got the great Army ready, and this Year march'd to the River Halys that divides Lydia from Media, which he paſs'd over without a Bridge by the Direction of Thales Mileſius, and march'd into Cappadocia; taking the City Pteria and waſting the Country. But before he could advance farther, CYRUS came up with him, gave him Battel and defeats that great Army; ſo that Creſus retreated with his Remains as well as he could to Sardis; where he forthwith diſmiſs'd his Auxiliaries, ordering them to return in the Spring; and ſent to all his Allies to raiſe more Forces for the next Year's War; not fearing his Want of 'em in the Winter: but he was miſtaken; for CYRUS had follow'd him into Lydia, juſt as he had diſmiſs'd his Auxiliaries.

CRESUS, however, got ready a good Army of his Lydian Horſemen, and encounter'd CYRUS in Battel, but CYRUS mounted many of his Foot upon Camels, and the Horſes of CRESUS not bearing the Smell of the Camels were ſoon diſorder'd; which forc'd the Lydians to quit them, and fought on Foot; but being overpower'd by CYRUS's Veterans, they fled to Sardis their Capital, where CYRUS forthwith ſhut them up in a cloſe Siege.

During the Siege, CYRUS celebrated the Funeral of Abradates Prince of Elam, and Panthea his Wife, who had lately revolted to him and had been ſlain in the laſt Battel, and made a ſtately Monument for them near the River Pactolus.

Creſus had ſent to his Allies for Succours, but before any could come CYRUS vigorouſly attack'd the City, and in 14 Days took it and Creſus in it, whom CYRUS condemn'd to be burnt alive. But while Creſus was ſet upon the Pile of Wood, and the Fire put under it for his Execution, He ſigh'd and cry'd aloud, Solon, Solon, Solon! and CYRUS ſending to know the Cauſe, had the whole Story related to him, how Creſus too late found his Miſtake in ſlighting that wiſe Man; for that in his own ſad Experience he found, no Man could be call'd happy before his Death! which had ſuch an Influence on CYRUS, that he forthwith order'd Creſus to be taken off the Pile, allow'd him an honourable Subſiſtence, made uſe of him as an intimate Friend and Counſellor all his Life; and at his Death recommended him to his Son CAMBYSES, to be his chief Adviſer.

Creſus now ſent his Fetters to Delphi complaining of being deceiv'd by the Oracle, that had encourag'd him at firſt to undertake this War, by ſaying, that he ſhould never be in Danger till a Mule reign'd over the Medes, and that he ſhould overthrow a great Empire if he paſs'd over the Halys: but the Heathen Prieſts anſwer'd him, that CYRUS was the Mule, and that Lydia was the Empire. Thus poor Creſus was deceiv'd.

advis'd him; and was recommended to AMASIS King of Egypt, by POLYCRATES King of the Samians, and abode there 22 Years among the Egyptian Prieſts, till CAMBYSES conquer'd Egypt. See more of him at A. M. 3479.

The Rumour of CYRUS's Approach, reach'd the Ears of the King and People of Babylon according to the Prophecy, Jer. li. 46. and leſt your Heart faint (ſpeaking to the captive Jews) and ye fear for the Rumour that ſhall be heard in the Land: a Rumour ſhall both come one Year, and after that a Rumour in another, and Violence in the Land; Ruler againſt Ruler.

By CYRUS's Siege of Babylon was fulfill'd the Prophecy in Jer. li. 27, &c. Set ye up a Standard in the Land, blow the Trumpet among the Nations, prepare the Nations againſt her, call againſt her the Kingdoms of Ararat, Minni and Aſhchenaz, appoint a Captain againſt her, cauſe the Horſes to come up as the rough Caterpillers; prepare againſt her the Nations with the Kings of the Medes (Cyaxares and Cyrus) the Captains thereof, and all the Rulers thereof, and all the Land of his Dominion. And the Land ſhall tremble and ſorrow; for every Purpoſe of Jehovah ſhall be perform'd againſt Babylon, to make the Land of Babylon a Deſolation without an Inhabitant: one Poſt ſhall run to meet another, and one Meſſenger to meet another, to ſhew the King of Babylon, that his City is taken at one end: and that the Paſſages are ſtopt, the Reeds burnt, and the Men of War affrighted. The Violence done to me, and to my Remnant, be upon Babylon, ſhall Zion ſay; and my Blood upon the Inhabitants of Chaldea, ſhall Jeruſalem ſay: therefore, thus ſaith Jehovah——I will dry up her Sea, and make her Springs dry——In their Heat I will make their Feaſts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice and ſleep, and never wake!

DANIEL's Account differs not from that of Herodotus and Xenophon; for ch. v. he acquaints us that BELSHAZZAR the King, made a Feaſt to a Thouſand of his Lords, his Wives and Concubines, and that he and they drank Wine in the golden and ſilver Veſſels, that had been carried out of the Temple of Jeruſalem by Nebuchadnezzar; and as they drank, they prais'd the Gods of Gold, and Silver, of Braſs and Iron, of Wood and of Stone. When the Candles were lighted, came forth Fingers of a Man's Hand, which wrote over againſt the Candleſtick upon the Plaiſter of the Wall! And the King ſeeing part of the Hand that wrote, his Countenance was chang'd, his Thoughts troubled him, the Joints of his Loins were looſed, and his Knees ſmote one againſt another! Upon which he cry'd aloud to bring in the Aſtrologers, the Chaldeans and Soothſayers, which requir'd ſome Time before they could be aſſembled. When the Wiſemen of Babylon came into the Banqueting Houſe, the KING ſaid to them, Whoſoever ſhall read this Writing, and ſhew me the Interpretation thereof, ſhall be cloath'd with Purple, and have a Chain of Gold about his Neck, and ſhall be the third Ruler in the Kingdom! But CYRUS continued in leſſer Aſia, till he had reduc'd all its Nations to his Obedience from the Egean Sea to the Euphrates; and march'd into Syria and Arabia and the upper Parts of great Aſia, conquering all before him: whereby many People left their old Habitations and travell'd into diſtant Parts, where they ſetled their Colonies in order to live at reſt from the Terror and Havock of the Medes; as may be ſeen in the Hiſtories of Herodote, Xenophon, Diodorus Siculus, Plutarch, Juſtin, &c.

CYRUS at length return'd into Aſſyria, leading his Army againſt BELSHAZZAR, ſtrait towards Babylon his Capital, the only Place unconquer'd or unſurrender'd; but his Motion was ſtopt by the River Gyndes that runs into the Tygris, where one of the ſacred White Horſes of the Medes periſh'd in attempting to croſs it. This vex'd CYRUS, and not being provided with Boats, he reſolutely imploy'd his Army to cut the River into 360 Parts, that it might be forded by Women without touching their Knees, as he had threatn'd; in which laborious undertaking he ſpent the whole Summer, Herodot. Lib. I. and V.

But next Year he reach'd to the High Walls of great Babylon with his whole Army of Medes and Perſians, and of many other Nations, when BELSHAZZAR encounter'd him in Battel, but was beat out of the Field by CYRUS, and the Babylonians fled ſtraight into the City.

This happen'd in the ninth Year after the taking of Sardis, and in the 16th Year of Belſhazzar, when CYRUS begirt the City, drawing a Line of Circumvallation broad and deep round the Walls.

The Siege prov'd the hardeſt Work he had undertaken ſince he left Perſia; for the Walls were high and impregnable, with a vaſt Number of arm'd Men to defend them, well furniſh'd with all Sorts of Stores for 20 Years, and they could have Bread from the void Ground within the Walls: therefore, they ſcoffed at CYRUS from the Top of the Walls for attempting to take an impregnable City. But ſtill he went on (confiding in his choſen Veterans, all reſolute like himſelf to ſubdue the whole World, and conquer all Difficulties) raiſing many watch Towers higher than the Walls, hoping ſo to take the Place by a general Aſſault. But not finding that practicable ſoon, he reſolv'd to ſtarve the Babylonians into a Surrender: and that he might not over fatigue his Army, he divided them into 12 Parts, and order'd Each part to watch and guard the Trenches a Month by turns. Yet

CYRUS had now ſpent near two Years without being nearer to his grand Purpoſe; and might have ſpent 20 Years more in vain, if Providence had not diſcover'd a fit Stratagem, and a fit Seaſon for executing it: for the Babylonians in his Army having inform'd him, that the great yearly Feſtival in the City was approaching, when the People ſpent the whole Night in Drink and Frolick; CYRUS rightly judg'd that Night a fit Seaſon to ſurpriſe them: accordingly, he ſent a Party of Men to the Head of the Canal, that leads from the River to the great Lake (that Queen NITOCRIS had built 420 Furlongs wide) and ſet Men to break the Banks or Dams between the Canal and the River at the Time appointed, in order to turn the whole Current of the River thro the Canal into the Lake, and alſo into the Trenches that were open'd to receive it: mean while he poſted one Body of Men under Gobrias cloſe to the Place where the River run into the City, and another great Body under Gadates at the oppoſite Side where the River runs out of the City, (for it run thro' the City) with orders to enter as ſoon as the River was fordable. So about Midnight the River being almoſt empty, both Parties enter'd by the Channel; and finding the Gates open leading down to the River (which at other Times were ſhut) thro' negligence, they aſcended into the City, and both the Bodies met at the Palace, according to Concert, and ſlew the Out-guards; the Noiſe of which cauſing thoſe within to open the Palace Gates, Gobrias and Gadates ruſh'd in upon them, and took the Palace; where they ſlew King BELSHAZZAR valiantly fighting for his Life, and all that were with him in Revenge of the Wrongs done to them by Laboroſoarchod; and upon Proclamation of Safety to all that would bring in their Arms, the whole City forthwith yielded to CYRUS the Conqueror, after a War of 21 Years from the Time he march'd out of Perſia to Media, with 30000 Men. Herodotus and Xenophon agree in this, nor do they differ from the Account of Daniel on the other Column.

Banqueting Houſe, the KING ſaid to them, Whoſoever ſhall read this Writing, and ſhew me the Interpretation thereof, ſhall be cloath'd with Purple, and have a Chain of Gold about his Neck, and ſhall be the third Ruler in the Kingdom! But after after ſome Time ſpent in vain to try to read the Writing, they gave it over as impoſſible: for the Words were not writ in Chaldaic Letters, but in the old Hebrew now call'd the Samaritan Character. But the News reaching the Apartment of NITOCRIS the Queen Mother (for the King's Wives were with him at the Feaſt) ſhe came into the Banqueting-Houſe, and finding the King and his Lords and Magicians all aſtoniſh'd, adviſ'd him to ſend for DANIEL, whom ſhe knew very well; for ſhe manag'd the Kingdom, and Daniel was a Miniſter of State under her, and did the King's Buſineſs in the Palace; but the indolent KING being only converſant with the Miniſters of his Pleaſures, had never minded Daniel, and knew him not, when after ſome Time he came in and ſtood before him: for the King ſaid, Art thou that Daniel of the Captivity of Judah? And having told him the Caſe, the King promiſ'd the Reward above mention'd, if he could read thoſe Words and ſhew their Meaning. Then DANIEL anſwer'd, Let thy Gifts be to thy ſelf, and give thy Rewards to another, yet I will read and interpret the Writing: and ſo Daniel having told him how God gave to his Father (or Grandfather) NEBUCHADNEZZAR a Kingdom, and Majeſty, and Glory, and Honour; and how God humbled him among the Beaſts for his Pride, till he knew that the moſt High God ruleth in the Kingdom of Men, and that he appointeth over it whomſoever he will, and Thou his Son, O Belſhazzar, haſt not humbled thine Heart, tho' Thou kneweſt all this, but haſt lifted up thine Heart againſt the Lord of Heaven, and they have brought the Veſſels of his Houſe before Thee, and Thou and thy Lords, thy Wives and thy Concubines have drunk Wine in them, and Thou haſt praiſ'd the Gods of Silver and Gold, of Braſs, Iron, Wood and Stone, which ſee not, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whoſe Hand thy Breath is, and whoſe are all thy Ways, haſt Thou not glorify'd! This is the Interpretation of thoſe Words, Mene, Mene, Tekel Upharſin, God hath number'd thy Kingdom and finiſh'd it! Thou art weigh'd in the Ballances and art found Wanting, thy Kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Perſians! Upon which the King commanded his Servants to clothe Daniel in Purple, and put a Chain of Gold about his Neck, and they ſolemnly proclaim'd him the Third Ruler in the Kingdom.

Now all theſe things would take up a good Part of the Night; and we may ſuppoſe that as ſoon as Daniel was proclaim'd in the Banqueting-Houſe the Third Ruler, it was near Midnight when Gobrias and Gadates paſs'd through the Channel, aſcended into the City, enter'd the Palace, and ſlew King BELSHAZZAR according to Herodotus and Xenophon; for Dan. V. 30, 31. In that Night was Belſhazzar King of the Chaldeans ſlain, and Darius the Median took the Kingdom, being about 62 Years old.

Thus ended the Race of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, and the Babylonian or Chaldean or Aſſyrian Empire, from the Death of Sardanapalus 209 Nabonaſſarian Years.

AFFAIRS of the JEWS.

No doubt the Jews met with good Uſage from CYAXARES and CYRUS becauſe of Daniel, whoſe Fame for Wiſdom had been long eſtabliſh'd, and was now heightned by his reading and expounding the Handwriting on the Wall, after all the Wiſe Men of Babylon had given it over; for the Event immediately happening, muſt ſoon reach the Ears of CYRUS, who therefore adviſ'd with Daniel at that Revolution in ſetling the Government, and agreed with CYAXARES to make him the firſt of the three Preſidents; becauſe of his Age, Wiſdom, and Experience, having been a chief Miniſter of State to the Kings of Babylon now full 65 Years: for his Exaltation is aſcrib'd to Cyaxares call'd Darius in Dan. vi. 1, &c. It pleaſ'd DARIUS to ſet over the whole Kingdom 120 Princes, and over them 3 PRESIDENTS, of whom DANIEL was the firſt; becauſe an excellent Spirit was in him, and the King reſolv'd to ſet him over the whole Realm, as on the other Column. But his Exaltation made the other Princes and Courtiers envious; and not finding Occaſion againſt him in his Adminiſtration of Government, they were reſolv'd to deſtroy him by laying a Snare for him: and King DARIUS or Cyaxares, being now alone at Babylon in the Abſence of CYRUS, (as on the other Column) They artfully prevail'd with him to ſign a writen Decree of their compoſing, to forbid all Men to pray either to God or Man for 30 Days, except to the King only, under the Penalty of being caſt into the Lions Den; and they knew conſcientious Daniel would diſobey it at all Hazards: for tho' he knew the Decree was made an unalterable Law, according to the Uſage of the Medes and Perſians, he went to Prayer with open Windows (which he us'd not to do) to his God three times a Day, looking toward Jeruſalem. When the Princes by their Spies found their Snare ſucceſsful, they accus'd him to the King, who labour'd to deliver him all Day till Sunſet, (for the King lov'd him) but in vain; for the Princes argued, that no Law eſtabliſh'd by the King of the Medes and Perſians could be diſpens'd with or alter'd: nay, when at Sunſet they prevail'd in Law to get Daniel in their Power, and to caſt him into the Lions Den, the King encourag'd Daniel, ſaying to him, Thy God, whom Thou ſerveſt continually, will deliver Thee! And, when the Great Stone was laid to the Mouth of the Den, and according to Law the King had ſeal'd it with his Signet, the King ſlept not, but faſted all Night, and early in the Morning went in haſte to the Lions Den, calling with a mournful Voice, O Daniel, Servant of the living God, is thy God, whom Thou ſerveſt continually, able to deliver Thee from the Lions? To which Daniel reply'd, O King live for ever! My God hath ſent his Angel, and hath ſhut the Lions Mouths, that they have not hurt me; for as much as before him Innocence was found in me, and alſo before Thee, O King, have I done no Hurt.

Then the King, exceeding glad, commanded to take Daniel out of the Den, and no manner of Hurt was found upon him; becauſe he believ'd in his God. Upon which the King firſt order'd Daniel's Accuſers with their Wives and Children to be caſt into the Den of Lions, who immediately devour'd them; and next

Upon the Death of Belſhazzar and all his Family CYAXARES King of Media, call'd by Daniel DARIUS the Mede, who had join'd his Nephew CYRUS in all his Wars, was forthwith proclaim'd King of Babylon; for tho' brave CYRUS had the beſt Title, he yielded the Poſt of Honour to his Unkle from dutiful Reſpect, being ſatisfy'd with his Empire over the Army, whereby the Adminiſtration was moſtly in his Hands (Xenoph. Lib. V.) and therefore Ptolemy mentions him as the immediate Succeſſor of Nabonadius or Belſhazzar, without naming Darius, aſſigning to him 9 Years Reign.

As ſoon as the new Government was ſetled at Babylon according to the Laws of the Medes and Perſians, CYAXARES return'd to Ekbatana to look after his ancient Kingdom of Media, and CYRUS travell'd into Perſia to viſit his Father and Mother then both alive; but not ſtaying long there, he travell'd to Ekbatana, where he was forthwith married in great State to the Daughter, and only Child of CYAXARES and his own firſt Couſin. But in order to finiſh his grand Undertaking of the Univerſal Monarchy, he ſoon left Media, and with his QUEEN and Father CYAXARES, came in great State and Splendor to Babylon, where they agreed to divide the whole Empire into 120 Provinces, over which they ſet thoſe as Governors, who had born the Burden of the War with them, over whom they ſet 3 Preſidents as the chief Miniſters of State, of whom Daniel was the Firſt. See the other Column. While this was doing by Cyaxares, next he wrote to all People, Nations and Languages in all the Earth, ſaying, Peace be multiply'd unto You! I make a Decree that in every Dominion of my Kingdom, Men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God and ſtedfaſt for ever; his Kingdom ſhall not be deſtroy'd, and his Dominion ſhall be unto the End! He delivers and reſcues and worketh Signs and Wonders in Heaven and in Earth, who hath deliver'd Daniel from the Power of the Lions. So that Daniel was the firſt Miniſter of State in the Reign of DARIUS or Cyaxares, and alſo in that of CYRUS his Succeſſor.

CYRUS having gather'd and muſter'd all his Forces, found them to conſiſt of 120000 Horſe, 2000 Sithed Chariots and 600000 Foot; and having well recruited his Garriſons, he left CYAXARES in Babylon, and march'd with the rest

Nor was Daniel negligent of his Nation in his exalted State; for towards the End of this firſt Year of DARIUS the Mede (or Cyaxares) Daniel underſtood by Books, that the 70 Years Captivity foretold by Jeremiah the Prophet were near expir'd; and therefore, firſt he thought it his Duty to be earneſt with God in ardent Prayer for the Pardon of the Sins of his People, and for their being reſtor'd to their own Land according to the Promiſe, Jer. xxix. 10. for thus ſaith Jehovah, that after 70 Years are accompliſh'd at Babylon, I will viſit you and perform my good Word towards you in cauſing you to return to this Place.

And ſo we may well ſuppoſe that in this ſecond Year of CYAXARES or Darius the Mede at Babylon, began the 70th Year of the Jewish Captivity, viz. of the first Captivity that began in the 4th Year of Jehoiakim.

The Subſtance of Daniel's Prayer is recorded in ch. ix. 1——19. And while he was at Prayer, God ſent the Angel GABRIEL to fly ſwiftly and touch him about the Time of the Evening Oblation, ſaying, O Daniel—— 70 Weeks are determin'd upon thy People and upon thy holy City, to finiſh the Tranſgreſſion, and to make an End of Sins, and to make Reconciliation for Iniquity, and to bring in everlaſting Righteouſneſs, and to ſeal up the Viſion and Prophecy, and to anoint the moſt Holy! Know therefore and underſtand, that from the going forth of the Commandment to reſtore and to build Jeruſalem unto the MESSIAH the Prince, ſhall be ſeven Weeks; and threeſcore and two Weeks the Street ſhall be built again, and the Wall, even in troublous Times; and after threeſcore and two Weeks ſhall MESSIAH be cut off, but not for himſelf: and the People of the Prince that ſhall come, ſhall deſtroy the City and the Sanctuary; and the End thereof ſhall be with a Flood, and unto the End of the War Deſolations are determin'd. And he ſhall confirm the Covenant with many for one Week; and in the Midſt (or one half) of the Week ſhall he cauſe the Sacrifice and the Oblation to ceaſe: and for the overſpreading of Abominations, he ſhall make it deſolate, even until the Conſummation, and That determin'd ſhall be pour'd upon the Deſolate, Dan. ix. 20———&c.

This Prophecy of the Era of 70 Weeks or 490 Years (allowing a Day for an Year according to the prophetical Stile) concerning the State of the Jews after the Captivity, untill the Death of MESSIAH the LORD JESUS CHRIST, is to commence from the going out of the Decree of ARTAXERXES Longimanus, to reſtore and build Jeruſalem by Ezra, (as will appear in its Place) and not from the firſt Decree of CYRUS; for Daniel knew not yet of CYRUS's Decree, nor does he mention what Decree, and has therefore left us to pitch upon that Decree, which anſwers to 490 Years before the cutting off of MESSIAH the Prince.

CYAXARES, or Darius the Mede, after he had reign'd 23 Years King of Media, and 2 Years King of Babylon, died much lamented. And

Kings of PERSIA and Affairs of the JEWS.

CYRUS the Emperor, upon his Return from Syria after the Death of Cyaxares, began this Year to reign alone; and no doubt, was much influenc'd by Prince Daniel in making the Decree for the Reſtoration of the Jews; for his Reputation being rais'd ſtill higher by his late miraculous Deliverance from the Lions Den, CYRUS continued to reſpect him as much as Cyaxares had done, Dan. vi. 28. and therefore, as Daniel had interceded with God by earneſt Prayer for the Reſtoration of the Jews, page 88. We may juſtly ſuppoſe he would intercede with CYRUS alſo, ſhewing him the Prophecies of Iſaiah, ch. xliv. 28. and xlv. 1, &c. wherein he was mention'd by name 130 Years before he was born, and 193 Years before this Time, to be the Reſtorer of the City and Temple, as Joſephus affirms; (Lib. II. cap. 1.) and it is intimated Ezra I. 2. and who was more fit than Daniel to ſhew to CYRUS thoſe Prophecies?

Beſides, CYRUS in his late Expedition, ſaw the miſerable Deſolation of Paleſtine, and might be diſpos'd to wiſh that once flouriſhing Country again inhabited; for it was a prudent Wiſh upon many Accounts; and as none were more fit to people it than its former Inhabitants, who had been led captive by Nebuchadnezzar in order to people his beloved Babylon; ſo CYRUS having no ſuch View, but rather on the contrary, diſregarding Babylon, might be induc'd thereby to ſend back the Jews. But whatever were his Motives, God influenc'd the grand CYRUS to publiſh his Decree in the 10th Month of his firſt Year, as recorded in 2 Chron. xxxvi. 22, 23. and in Ezra I. 1——4. Now in the firſt Year of CYRUS King of Perſia, (that the Word of Jehovah by the Mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfill'd) JEHOVAH ſtir'd up the Spirit of CYRUS King of Perſia; that he made a Proclamation throughout all his Kingdom, and put it alſo in Writing, ſaying, Thus ſaith CYRUS King of Perſia, JEHOVAH the God of Heaven hath given me all the Kingdoms of the Earth, and he hath charg'd me to build him an Houſe at Jeruſalem in Judah: who is there among you of all his People, his God be with him, and let him go up to Jeruſalem in Judah and build the Houſe of Jehovah the God of Iſrael, (HE IS THE GOD) which is in Jeruſalem: and whoſoever remaineth in any Place where he ſojourneth, let the Men of his Place help him with Silver, Gold, Goods and Beaſts, beſides the Free-will Offering for the Houſe of God that is in Jeruſalem!

Nor were theſe the greateſt Number, nor the wealthier Sort of Jews that now return'd; but the poorer Sort with a few wealthy People that had a Zeal for God and his Temple at Jeruſalem: for few of the Jews that had made good Settlements in charming Chaldea, and had gather'd much Wealth, thought it worth while to return to a forlorn and deſolate Country; therefore, at leaſt during the Perſian Monarchy, the Jews in Chaldea and thereabouts were far more numerous than thoſe in Paleſtine.

CYRUS alſo order'd all the Veſſels to be reſtor'd to the Jews, that Nebuchadnezzar had carried off from the Temple of Solomon, and had lodg'd in the Temple of Belus or Bel in Babylon, and which were fairly deliver'd up by Mithredath the Treaſurer to ZERUBBABEL the Prince, who brought them home to Jeruſalem, viz.

2901 were afterwards brought back by Ezra: for in Ezra I. 11. is the total Sum of all thoſe Veſſels, viz.

5400 not of all that Zerubbabel brought back, theſe being ſpecified in the foregoing Verſes.

Of the 24 Courſes of Prieſts, only four return'd, viz. Thoſe of Jedaiah, Immer, Paſhur (the Son of Malchijah) and Harim, who divided themſelves each into ſix Parts in order to keep up the Number of 24 Courſes as appointed by King DAVID.

CYRUS having publiſh'd his ſaid Decree in the 10th Month of the firſt Year of his ſole Reign or middle of November, ZERUBBABEL, no doubt, in a Month's Time took Journey with his good, religious, poor Jews, who had only 736 Horſes, 245 Mules, 435 Camels, and 6720 Aſſes, to carry them, their Women and Children, and all their Baggage: but they were under the Protection of GOD and Cyrus; and after eaſy Journeys, perhaps during four Months, (for Ezra afterwards led his Colony ſo long ch. vii. 8.) thro' Meſopotamia and Syria, they arriv'd ſafe at Jeruſalem in Niſan or April, the firſt Eccleſiaſtical Month of the Jews, for the 2d Month of next Year is ſaid to be in the 2d Year after their Return, Ezra iii. 8.

They ſoon diſpers'd themſelves according to their Tribes and Families to take Poſſeſſion of their ancient paternal Inheritances, to rebuild their Cities, and to cultivate their Lands that had lain unmanur'd ever ſince the Burning of Jeruſalem, and the Murder of Gedaliah, during full 52 Years, which is ſuppos'd to be the Number of the Sabbatical Years, neglected to be obſerv'd by the Jews in their former Proſperity, and which making 52 Weeks of Years, they amount to 364 Years, which deducted from this Year of the World, *viz. the Remainder is the Year of the World that coincides with the 16th of Jehoſhaphat, viz. —— 3105

See page 30 when we may ſuppoſe the Jews began to neglect the Obſervance of their Sabbatical Years, contrary to God's Law, and for which they had been puniſh'd by Exilement until the Land did enjoy her Sabbaths.

After they had ſpent ſix Months in Cultivation and Reparation, and had repair'd the Great Altar for Burnt-Offerings (Ezra iii. 6.) in the old Situation. They met in Tiſri the 7th Month at Jeruſalem (the firſt Month of their Civil Year) and on the firſt Day of the Month, or New-Years-Day, they ſolemniz'd the Feaſt of TRUMPETS: for tho' from Niſan or Abib all their Feſtivals were reckon'd, as the firſt Eccleſiaſtical Month ever ſince the Exodus; yet from this as their New-Years-Day all their Bills and Bonds, Acts and Contracts, Jubilees and Sabbatical Years are dated and computed. And having prepar'd for the Prieſts 100 Garments

The 10th Day was the Day of annual ATONEMENT according to the Law of Moſes, which the HIGH PRIEST perform'd for all the People of Iſrael in the beſt Manner he could without a Temple or Tabernacle.

Continuation of TABLE XXIII.

Kings of PERSIA and Affairs of the JEWS.

On the 15th Day began the Feaſt of TABERNACLES till the 22d incluſive. During which 22 Days the People ſtaid at Jeruſalem, doing what they could to reſtore the Temple and its Worſhip by Contributions, which in all amounted to about 75500 Pounds Sterling, viz. 61000 Drachms of Gold, and 5000 Minas of Silver; much of it, no doubt, being brought from the Jews in Chaldea: for even while the ſecond Temple ſtood, every Jew throughout the whole Earth paid every Year half a Shekel (or our eighteen Pence) for its Repairs and its Services.

Next, the Jews having gather'd Materials for the Rebuilding of the Temple, and imploy'd Workmen in the 2d Month of the 2d Year after their Return by an Order from God by the Mouth of Haggai the Prophet, ZERUBBABEL the Prince laid the Foundation attended with Jeſhuah the High Prieſt, and all the Aſſembly with great Solemnity; while the Prieſts in their Apparel with Trumpets, and the Levites the Sons of Aſaph with Cymbals, prais'd Jehovah after the Ordinance of David; ſinging the old Chorus, Give Thanks unto Jehovah; for he is good: for his Mercy endureth for ever towards Iſrael! And all the People made a great Shout. But the old Men, who had ſeen the Glory of the firſt Temple began ſoon to weep with a loud Voice, not expecting to ſee ſuch another; ſo that the Noiſe of the Weepers, and that of the Rejoicers, were blended and confounded, Ezra iii. 8, &c. indeed God intimates by the Prophet Haggai in the 21ſt Day of the 7th Month of this Year, (ch. ii.) that this new Temple was not to be compar'd with the former in external Glory, tho' of the ſame Dimenſions: but he comforts the Builders with the great Promiſe, that the Glory of this 2d Temple ſhould be greater than the Glory of the firſt, by the coming of MESSIAH the Deſire of all Nations into it. This is the firſt Sabbatical Year after the firſt Reduction, and after the Temple was founded.

The Samaritans now came to Jeruſalem, and ſaid to ZERUBBABEL and the Chiefs, Let us build with you; for we ſeek your God as ye do, and we do Sacrifice unto him, ſince the Days of Eſerhaddon King of Aſſur, who brought us up hither. But ZERUBBABEL and the Chiefs reply'd, ye have nothing to do with us to build an Houſe unto our God; but we ourſelves together will build unto Jehovah the God of Iſrael, as Cyrus King of Perſia hath commanded us! Ezra iv. 1, 2, 3. for the Jews knew them to be inſincere and malicious; and beſides, they told a Falſhood; for they did not worſhip as the Jews did, but only upon being infeſted by Lions, Eſerhaddon ſent them an Iſraelitiſh Prieſt, that taught them to worſhip the God of Iſrael after the Manner of Jeroboam I. while they alſo worſhip'd other Gods with him as may be ſeen page 58.

Upon which the Samaritans (call'd by Ezra, the People of the Land) were inrag'd and weaken'd the Hands of the Jews, moleſting them in their Building: nay, by underhand Dealings with the Servants of CYRUS, they hir'd Counſellors againſt the Jews in Paleſtine: and tho' they could not get the Decree revers'd, they very much retarded the Building by defeating its Force in many particulars all the remaining Days of CYRUS, Ezra iv. 4, 5, 6.

This was the Foundation of that implacable Enmity between the Jews and Samaritans, that was improv'd in after Times and is ſtill kept up by the modern Jews.

This Retarding of the 2d Temple ſeems to have been the Cauſe of DANIEL's Mourning, and Faſting, and Praying three full Weeks in the firſt Month of this Year; and when his Faſting was over on the 24th Day of the Month, DANIEL, at the River Hiddekel or Tigris had the Viſions concerning the Perſian, Grecian and Roman Empires, contain'd in his three laſt Chapters, with this Epilogue. But go thy Way till the End be, for thou ſhalt reſt and ſtand in the Lot at the End of the Days! From whence it may be well ſuppos'd he died ſoon after in the 73d Year of his Captivity, and the 91ſt of his Life, allowing he was 18 Years old when captivated firſt.

He died in Chaldea lamented by all, as the wiſeſt Counſellor and Prince, the fineſt Stateſman, the greateſt Prophet, the moſt learned Scholar, the moſt curoius Architect; and the moſt belov'd of God, in thoſe Times. But was juſtly lamented by the Jews in Paleſtine; for they loſt their beſt Friend in the Perſian Court, and after his Death, the Samaritans did the more readily ſucceed in their Deſigns againſt the Jews, and in diverting from them the Encouragements of Cyrus. Yet the Jews, as far as they were able of themſelves, carried on the Work, being aſſiſted by the Tyrians and Sidonians, as even SOLOMON had been in his Work, Ezra. iii. 7.

And thus they held on tho' at a ſlow Rate for many Years.

	6	6	5	217	218	LXII. 3	4183	513	3473	1817	1390	960	920	AMASIS King of Egypt now revolted from CYRUS, when a great Multitude of captive Egyptians return'd to their own Land, at the End of 40 Years after Nebuchadnezzar had carried them off, according to the Prophecy, Jer. xlvi. 26. Ezek. xxix. 11——16. an ancient Kingdom now reſtor'd to Part of its former Grandeur, and to its Independency in theſe laſt days of Amaſis, which it did not long enjoy. Upon occaſion of this Revolt The Tyrians got Preſidents over them that were Foreigners, HIROM'S 20 Years being ended, who is the laſt in the Catalogue of Joſephus of their Judges or Vice-roys that were Natives.
At length the great Benefactor of the Jews even CYRUS, aged 70 Years, died, after he was declar'd the Imperator of the Perſian and Median Army———— Years 30 ——after he had dethron'd Creſus King of Lydia———— 18 ——after he took Babylon———— 09 ——after he had reign'd alone upon the Death of DARIUS the Mede, 7 The Manner of his Death is diverſly related by antient Authors. For Herodotus, Juſtin and Valerius Maximus, affirm that CYRUS having march'd an Army of 200000 Men againſt THOMYRIS Queen of the Maſſagets or Scythians, he was defeated and ſlain in Battel, and that ſhe order'd his dead Body to be expos'd naked, and his Head to be cut off and thrown into a Veſſel full of human Blood, ſaying with Reproach, that ſhe now would ſatiate him with human Blood, who was before inſatiable. Diodorus Siculus, Lib. II. affirms, that he was taken alive and by THOMYRIS was order'd to be crucify'd. Cteſias, Lib. II. ſays, that CYRUS was wounded in the Thigh by a Dart from an Indian in a Battel againſt the Derbicans, (a people near the Hyrcanians) and died of his Wound on the third Day. John Malela of Antioch from a forg'd Writing of Pythagoras the Samian, affirms, that CYRUS was kill'd in a Sea Fight againſt the Samians. But Xenophon (Inſtit. Lib. 8.) relates that CYRUS died in his Bed of a gentle Death in Perſia, and on his Death-bed charg'd his Sons to bury him ſoon, but neither in Gold nor Silver nor in any other Thing but plain Earth; and ſhould invite the Perſians his old Companions to his Funeral, and treat them ſolemnly, which ſeems to be the true Account; for All the Writers of the Affairs of ALEXANDER the Great, as Curtius, Plutarch, Arianus agree that CYRUS was buried at Paſargada in Perſia: nay, Strabo (Lib. V. Geograph.) writes that ALEXANDER commanded Ariſtobulus to inſpect his Tomb, which had this Inſcription, O Man, I am CYRUS, who conſtituted the Empire of the PERSIANS and was King of ASIA: therefore don't envy me this Monument! and from Oneſicritus the ſaid Geographer ſubjoins another Inſcription, viz. Ενθαδ᾽ ἐγὼ κεῖμαι ΚΥΡΟΣ βασιλεὺς βασιλήων. CYRUS ego, Rex olim Regum, conditus hic ſum. I Cyrus, once the King of Kings, am buried here. But if he had periſh'd in Scythia, how could his Body be brought to be interr'd at Paſargada? Or how could he have left the whole Empire in profound Quiet, as he did to his Son and Succeſſor, viz.	7	7	6	218	219	LXII. 4	4184	530	3474	1818	1391	961	921	Some antient Authors tell us that CYRUS had ſent to AMASIS King of Egypt, for his Daughter to be one of his Wives, and that Amaſis deceiv'd him by ſending NITETIS the Daughter of old King APRIES or Pharaoh Hophra, who prudently conceal'd her true Parentage and for a Time paſs'd for the Daughter of Amaſis; untill ſhe had fully ſecur'd herſelf in CYRUS'S Affection by bearing ſeveral Sons to him, among whom was CAMBYSES; and then ſhe perſuaded CYRUS to revenge her Father's Wrongs upon Amaſis, who revolting alſo from CYRUS, had been ſeverely puniſh'd by him, if Death had not prevented it. But ſeeing Herodotus ſays, (Lib. II. cap. 1.) that Cambyſes's Mother was CASSANDANA; and ſeeing we have not ſo diſtinct an Account of the true Cauſe of the Egyptian War, we ſhall only conclude it was owing to the Revolt of Amaſis, who was now buſy in reſtoring the Glory of his Kindom, tho' in his old Age. And whatever Preparations CYRUS made for this War, 'tis certain that

The Samaritans, knowing this King to be of a different Temper from his Father, instead of opposing the Jews privately and craftily as formerly, now openly address Cambyses to put a Stop to their Buildings, Ezra iv.6. and in the Beginning of the Reign of Ahasuerus (the same with CAMBYSES) wrote they unto him an Accusation against the Inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. But tho' the King would not revoke his Father's Decree, yet, he otherwise discourag'd the Jews; so that the Work went on but slowly all his Reign.	2	9	8	220	221	2	4186	528	3476	1820	1393	963	923	In the second Year of his Reign, he made vast Preparations for a Descent upon Egypt, both by Sea and Land; engaging the Cyprians and Phenicians to help him with their Fleets, and the Greeks, Ionians and Eolians to recruit his great Army.
This was the second Sabbatical Year after the Reduction.	3	10	9	221	222	3	4187	527	3477	1821	1394	964	924	In this 3d Year of his Reign, CAMBYSES march'd his grand Army through Syria and Palestine towards Egypt; but he could not have march'd forward thro' the Desarts of Arabia, down to Egypt the shortest Way, for want of Water, if Phanes an Halicarnassean a chief Commander of some Grecian auxiliaries in Egypt, had not revolted from Amasis and fled to him in Palestine, and had not only reveal'd to him the Affairs of Amasis, but likewise the Nature of the Country: nay, he gave CAMBYSES the sound Advice to contract with an Arabian King to furnish his Army with Water, while marching thro' the dry Desart, which the Arabians brought by Camels to his Camp.
	4	11	10	222	223	4	4188	526	3478	1822	1395	965	925	And so in the 4th Year of his Reign, CAMBYSES made his Descent upon Egypt, and at the Borders had the News of the Death of King AMASIS, after he had reign'd 44 Years, and that he was succeeded by his Son, viz. PSAMMENITUS, call'd by Ctesias Amyrtaeus, who reign'd only 6 Months, and had got an Army ready to oppose the Invader. But CAMBYSES laid Siege to Pelusum the Key of Egypt, and finding the Garrison were all Egyptians, he order'd a great Number of Dogs and Cats, Sheep and Cows, and other Animals (accounted sacred by those Phanaticks) to be plac'd in the Front of the Assault; and so the Egyptians not daring to throw a Dart for fear of hurting their Gods, CAMBYSES's Men took the City without Opposition. By this Time PSAMMENITUS came up with his Army and fought a bloody Battel. Before the Engagement the Greeks of his Army, to be reveng'd on Phanes for his Revolt, slew his Children (whom he had left in Egypt) on the Front of the Army, and drank their Blood; which did so inrage the Persians, that they fought like Desperadoes, defeated the Egyptians, and cut most of them in pieces, while the Remains fled to Memphis, whither CAMBYSES pursu'd them, and sent an Herald by a Ship on the Nile to summon them to Surrender; and they having in a wild Rage tore him and his Crew to pieces, CAMBYSES laid close Siege to that City, soon took it and reveng'd their Death by hanging up ten principal Egyptians for each of those, among whom was the eldest Son of Psammenitus. CAMBYSES spar'd the King himself, and gave him an honourable Subsistence; but Psammenitus not contented, was forming Projects for the Recovery of his Crown: wherefore CAMBYSES order'd him to be put to Death by drinking Bull's Blood, and so All Egypt submitted to the Conqueror in the 5th Year of his Reign.
The Lybians, Cyrenians, and Barceans hearing of CAMBYSES's Success, sent Ambassadors with Presents to make their Submission to him. From Memphis he went to Sais the Place of the Royal Sepulchre, where he order'd the Body of Amasis to be taken out of the Grave, to be treated with many Indignities before him, and then to be burnt in the Fire; whereby it seems Amasis was the Cause of this War.	5	12	11	223	224	LXIV. 1	4189	525	3479	1823	1396	966	926
He design'd to subdue the Carthaginians, but let it alone; because the Phenicians would not assist him in ruining their Descendants. Then he sent Ambassadors with Presents into Ethiopia to spy the State and Strength of that Country, who were treated by the Ethiopians with much Contempt, and sent back with the Present only of the King of Ethiopia's Bow, who having bent it, bid them tell Cambyses not to make War against	6	13	12	224	225	LXIV. 2	4190	524	3480	1824	1397	967	927	Pythagoras had been now residing among the Egyptian Priests for 22 Years past, and had even been initiated in their sacred Rituals for which Cause he was circumcis'd: and being admitted into their sacred Places, He learn'd their mystical Philosophy, being taught especially by Sonchides the Saite, the Arch-Prophet of Egypt, (who had been Solon's Master before) the Doctrine of the Transmigration of departed Souls into the Body of some other Animal; and being train'd up in the Language and Letters of the Egyptians, He search'd the Ethiopians, till He could bend and unbend It as well as He; and that he ſhould thank the Gods for not inſpiring the Ethiopians with a Deſire of extending their Dominions.

When they return'd, None of the Perſians could bend and unbend It, only SMERDIS the King's Brother came within two Fingers breadth of it; for which the King was jealous and ſent him back to Perſia: and not capable to brook the Ethiopians's Meſſage, CAMBYSES forthwith order'd his grand Army to march into Ethiopia, without minding how they were to ſubſiſt; leaving his Greeks to keep the Egyptians in awe. On his March, he ſent from Thebes a Detachment of 50000 Men to deſtroy the Hammonians, and to burn the Temple of JUPITER HAMMON: but on their March half way they were overwhelm'd in one Day by the Sand blown over them. Mean while CAMBYSES march'd on againſt the Ethiopians as far as the Iſland Meroe in the Nile (which he ſo call'd from his Wife's Name, who was alſo his Siſter, as in the old Maps) till his Army had eaten up all their Beaſts, and were decimating their Men to be eaten for want of Proviſions: by which he began to be convinc'd of his Error; and ſo after great Loſs he march'd the Army back to Thebes and from thence to Memphis; where he found the People all in Mirth, becauſe their God Apis (call'd alſo Oſiris and Mnevis) had then appear'd among them, viz. a Black Bull with a Square Spot of White on his Forehead, with the Figure of an Eagle or Half-Moon on his Back, a double Liſt of Hair on his Tail and a Knot under his Tongue, which they worſhip'd in the Temple of Oſiris; and the laſt Bull being lately dead, They had hunted every where for another with thoſe Marks; and having at this Time found one, they were all glad and brought him into the Temple with Shouting. This Idolatry was ancient and ſeems to be the Original of the Golden Calf of Aaron and of King Jeroboam I.

But CAMBYSES being jealous that they triumph'd in his Miſfortunes, ſent for the Magiſtrates and put them to Death for telling a Lie, tho they told him the Truth; then ſent for the Prieſts, who told him the ſame; and then ſent for APIS their God; at the Sight of which being juſtly inrag'd, he run his Dagger into that God's Thigh, reproaching the Prieſts for their Stupidity in worſhiping a Brute, order'd them to be ſmartly whipt for their Prieſtcraft, and all Men to be ſlain who ſhould dare to rejoice for finding Apis, who was carry'd back to the Temple and died of his Wound.

CAMBYSES dreaming one Night that an Herald came to acquaint him that *Smerdis reign'd in a Throne reaching to Heaven, and he taking it for his own full Brother the other Son of CYRUS, whom he had ſent back to Perſia, ſent Prexaſpes after him into Perſia to put him to Death, which he did: and when upon the News of his Death his youngeſt Siſter Meroe lamented it, CAMBYSES gave her a Blow in the Belly that made her miſcarry and die: ſhe was the Wife alſo as well as the Siſter of CAMBYSES, who would have her right or wrong, after the Perſian Judges had told him, that tho' the Law of Perſia did not allow of ſuch a Marriage; yet It allow'd the King to do what he pleas'd, a cowardly Deciſion!

7 He alſo thruſt an Arrow thro' the Heart of his Favourite Prexaſpes's Son while drinking with him, only to ſhew his Skill at Arching; and next Day he caus'd 12 principal Perſians to be buried alive with their Heads downward, without any Fault alledg'd, to ſhew his Sovereignty: nay, He order'd Crœſus, once King of Lydia, to be ſlain, only for admoniſhing him friendly againſt thoſe Barbarities; but the Executioners delay'd it: yet, tho' CAMBYSES repented and was glad that Crœſus was alive, he put to Death thoſe that had diſobey'd his Command by ſaving him. He caus'd antient Sepulchres to be open'd, only that he might look upon the Dead: he enter'd the Temple of Vulcan, and ridicul'd his Statue, and entring the Temple of the Cabyrians, he caus'd the Images thereof to be burnt, burning alſo and deſtroying with Fire and Sword all the Egyptian Temples and Obelisks, Herodot. Lib. III. Strabo, Lib. XVII. Thus having reign'd at a wild monſtrous Rate three Years in Egypt,

8 CAMBYSES in the Beginning of the eighth Year of his Reign, left Egypt in order to return to Perſia, leaving Aryandes the Prefect or Governor of Egypt: but when he came into Syria, an Herald met him from Shuſan, who proclaim'd in the Army SMERDIS the Son of CYRUS King, and commanded all Men to obey him and not CAMBYSES. The Meaning of it is, CAMBYSES upon his March towards Egypt had left the chief Power of all Affairs in Perſia with one Patizithes a Magian, whoſe Brother's Name was Smerdis, and who reſembled the true SMERDIS very much; the Commentaries of the Prieſts of former Ages, and underſtood the Obſervations of innumerable Ages. But this inquiſitive Greek, Pythagoras, was now ſeiz'd by CAMBYSES and ſent to Babylon, there to flouriſh; where he came to converſe with the Magians and Chaldees, and ſome ſay with Ezekiel the Prophet, (but he was dead long before) only that He convers'd with the Babylonian JEWS, appears from his borrowing many Jewiſh Opinions to make up his Philoſophy. much; and Patizithes knowing the true SMERDIS had been murder'd, tho' few elſe knew it; and that CAMBYSES had become intollerable and hateful, plac'd his Brother in the Throne, giving out that he was SMERDIS the Son of CYRUS, and forthwith ſent Heralds to proclaim him in all Parts.

* Call'd by Herodotus SMERDIS, by Juſtin MERGIS, by Xenophon TANAXARES.

CAMBYSES by examining the Herald and Prexaſpes too, who ſlew his Brother, found it was only Smerdis the Magian; and immediately order'd the Army to march with all Expedition to puniſh the Uſurper: but as he mounted his Horſe for the March, his Sword falling out of his Scabbard, gave him a Wound in the Thigh of which he died a few Days after at a Place in Syria call'd EKBATANA, according to the deluſive Oracle of Butus in Egypt, which he had conſulted, which the King took for Ekbatana in Media: and when CAMBYSES found the Place was ſo call'd, and that he muſt die there, he call'd his noble Perſians to him, and acquainted them with the true State of the Caſe, that his Brother was certainly dead and that the Uſurper was only the Magian, exhorting them not to ſubmit to the Cheat, for that thereby the Sovereignty would be tranſlated from the Perſians to the Medes, the Magian being a Mede, but to ſet ſome noble Perſian in the Throne. And ſo he died after he had reign'd 7 Years and 5 Months, and the other ſeven Months of this Year are reckon'd to the falſe SMERDIS the Uſurper.

Egypt being conquer'd by CAMBYSES Emperor of Perſia, never more had a King of the Egyptian Race, but was rul'd by Kings of a foreign Extraction, even until this Day, according to the Prophecy of Ezekiel, ch. xxix. and xxx. above mention'd Page 73. and ſeeing Conſtantinus Manaſſes in his Annals, affirms, that Kingly Power and State had been ſucceſſively maintain'd in Egypt during full 1663 Years, if we deduct from *A. The CHRONOLOGY of the Egyptian KINGS.

The Egyptians Mythology has led their Hiſtorians into Fable, together with an Ambition of having their Nation eſteem'd the oldeſt and the Mother of other Nations. Therefore, from Syncellus we find they affirm'd, that firſt the GODS reign'd in Egypt and next the Half GODS, and then the Offspring of MENES or MITZRAIM.

	Years
1. Vulcan	724½ and 4 Days
2. Sol, or the Sun	86
3. Agathodaemon	56½ and 10 Days
4. Saturn	40½
5. Oſiris and Iſis	35
6. Unknown
7. Typhon	29
And they make the Total	969

Tho' the known particulars amount not to that Sum, but Manetho the Hiſtorian relates, that Vulcan reign'd 9000 Years, and others affirm, that Sol reign'd 30000 Years, and the other Gentry reign'd 3984 Years.

	Years

which with the Years of the Gods	969
make the Total	1184

And that from Oſiris and Iſis to ALEXANDER the Great, there elaps'd above 10000 Years, or, as others write, little leſs than 23000, All fabulous Mythology.

But MITZRAIM or Menes coming into Egypt, as above mention'd, became the firſt King; and his Offspring divided Egypt into four Kingdoms, viz.

1. THEBAIS. and 2. THIS, or the Kings of the Thebans and Thinitans in upper EGYPT.

3. MEMPHIS. and 4. HELIOPOLIS, or the Kings of lower EGYPT.

Their Names are dubious and Hiſtorians have aſſign'd ſome more, ſome leſs Time, but all too much; for they reign'd Contemporary no longer than till the HYC-SOS, or Shepherd Kings of Arabia broke in upon them, ſeiz'd Memphis and all the lower Egypt towards the Mediterranean, A. M. 1920. before Chriſt 2084; where they erected a Kingdom that laſted 260 Years, commencing after the Flood 264. after MITZRAIM came from Shinar to Egypt 104. and while his Offspring reign'd in upper Egypt, call'd by Eratoſthenes, the Theban Kings.

THEBAN Kings in upper Egypt, beſides former ones, (for whom we can find no Contemporaries) Eratoſthenes recites the following, viz.

Thinillus
Semphucrates
Chuther Taurus
Meuros

Anchunius Ochy
Peute Athyras

Stamenemus
Siſtoſichermes

* Call'd by Æſchylus MARDUS, by Cteſias SPENDADATES, by Juſtin ORAPASTES, and by Ezra ARTAXERXES.

3. SMERDIS * the Impoſtor being poſſeſs'd of the Throne, and the Perſian Chiefs believing that what CAMBYSES had ſaid at his Death, was only from hatred of his Brother the true SMERDIS, who, they thought, was ſtill alive, did quietly ſubmit to the King upon the Throne, as if he was the true SMERDIS: nor could they ſoon diſcover the Cheat, becauſe he never appear'd in publick (which was according to the Cuſtom of the great Eaſtern Monarchs) but tranſacted all by his Eunuchs or Miniſters of State.

To him the chief Samaritans ſent Letters againſt the Jews, petitioning that Jeruſalem and the Temple might not be rebuilt; for that it had been a rebellious City, and they had been Enemies to All Kings but their own; and if reſtor'd, They would pay no more Tribute to the Kings of Perſia, which would be an ill Example to the other Provinces, Ezra iv. 7—16.

Upon which ARTAXERXES Smerdis, being by Principle an Enemy of the Jews, ſent an Order to the Samaritans to cauſe the Jews to deſiſt from their Buildings; who forthwith came to Jeruſalem and put it in Execution: and ſo the Building of the Temple was retarded for about two Years, till the ſecond Year of the next King DARIUS Hyſtaſpes.

But SMERDIS was very indulgent to all his other Subjects, granting them Freedom from Taxes and military Services for three Years: and in order to rivet him in the Throne, He married ATOSSA the Daughter of CYRUS, and the Widow of her Brother CAMBYSES: for He had married her as well as Meroe his other Siſter.

But tho' theſe Arts tended to render him ſuſpected, He continued unknown, till OTANES a noble Perſian imploy'd his Daughter Phedyma (the favorite Concubine of SMERDIS) to ſearch for his Ears; and ſhe informing her Father that the Emperor had no Ears, the whole Fraud was detected; for OTANES and all the World knew that Smerdis the Brother of Patizithes had had his Ears cropt by order of CYRUS for ſome Crime. Therefore OTANES took to him Six other noble Perſians call'd by Herodotus, HYDARNES, MEGABYSUS, GOBRIAS, ASPATHINES, INTAPHERNES and DARIUS the Son of Hyſtaſpes the Prefect of Suſa; who without Delay enter'd the Palace and ſlew the Uſurper, and his Brother the Contriver of the Fraud, and bringing out their Heads to the People, the Princes declar'd the whole Impoſture. But the People were ſo inrag'd that They ſlew all of the Uſurper's Sect They could find that Day, and agreed to obſerve it as an annual Feſtival for many Years, calling it Magophonia or the Day of the Slaughter of the Magians, for that Sect then firſt got that Name from the Uſurper, whom the People call'd in Scorn Mige-Guſh or Cropt-Eard; and the Sect became ſo contemptible, that They had been extirpated, if they had not been afterwards reviv'd by the Reformation of Zoroaſtres. See more of the falſe SMERDIS and what happen'd in his Reign, in Herodotus, Lib. III. Juſtin. Lib. I. Cteſias, &c.

Mean while the ſaid 7 Princes on the ſixth Day, reſolv'd to eſtabliſh the Government as CYRUS had left it; but his Male Offspring being extinct, They agreed to meet on Horſeback next Morning, and that He whoſe Horſe ſhould neigh firſt, ſhould be the EMPEROR. But Darius got his Groom to tye a Mare to the Place where where they were to meet, and to make his Horſe cover the Mare the Night before; and ſo when they met next Morning at Sunriſing, DARIUS's Horſe remembring the Place where he had cover'd the Mare over Night, ran thither and loudly neigh'd: upon which the other Princes ſaluted him as their KING, and returning to the City, plac'd him in the Throne; call'd by Hiſtorians

4. DARIUS Hyſtaſpes, who in the Beginning of January (now the firſt Month with them) began his Reign of 36 Years and married firſt Atoſſa the Daughter of CYRUS, the Widow of her Brother CAMBYSES and of Smerdis the Magian; and next he married her Siſter ARTISTONA; and then PARMYS the Daughter of the true SMERDIS (in honour to Cyrus and to ſtrengthen his Title to the Crown of Perſia) and alſo PHEDYMA the Daughter of OTANES, who had diſcover'd the Cheat of the Magian: and by theſe Wives He had a great Iſſue of Sons and Daughters. But his firſt main Buſineſs was to ſettle the Government, and he readily granted high Honours and ſpecial Privileges to thoſe ſaid Perſian Princes, who were to be his hereditary chief Counſellors; and from this Time the Perſian Monarchs of this Line had always 7 prime Miniſters, as we read in Ezra vii. 14. and Eſth. I. 14.

DARIUS ſent, by Bagaeus, his Royal Orders to thoſe 1000 Perſian Soldiers that were the Life-Guards of Oroetes the bloody Governor of Sardis, to cut him off, and to bring his Effects to Suſa; which was done: and among the Slaves of Oroetes was brought Democedes the Crotonian Phyſician; who ſignaliz'd himſelf by curing the Emperor of a ſore Foot, after the Egyptian Phyſicians had in vain tortur'd him for 7 Days; upon which DARIUS and his Queens greatly enrich'd Doctor Democedes, advanc'd him to ſit at Table with him and gave him all poſſible Encouragement, only forbidding him ever to return to Greece: nay, tho' DARIUS could have hang'd the Egyptian Phyſicians, he pardon'd them. But Democedes wanted to ſee Greece the more that he was forbid; for having cur'd Queen ATOSSA of a ſore Breaſt, he got her to perſuade her Husband to march an Army againſt the Grecians, who not being raſh choſe rather to ſend 15 noble Perſians to attend Democedes in viewing all the maritime Places of Greece, and to bring him back ſafe to Suſa: but when He got to Croton his native Place, he married the Daughter of Milo the famous Wreſtler, and would not return to DARIUS. But hereby the Perſians firſt knew the Way to Greece.

Upon the Death of SMERDIS the Magian, his Decree againſt the Jews died with him; and becauſe they neglected to reſume the Work of the Temple, God ſmote the Land of Judah with Barrenneſs this Year: but on the firſt Day of the ſixth Month (about the Middle of Auguſt) in the ſecond Year of DARIUS, and the third Sabbatical Year after the Reduction, the Word of JEHOVAH by Haggai came to ZERUBBABEL the Governor of Judah, and to Jeſhuah the High Prieſt, to inform them of the Cauſe of this Judgment, to exhort them to renew the Work, and to comfort them in carrying it on: and ſo on the 24th Day of the ſame ſixth Month, they obey'd the Word of God in beginning to provide again all proper Materials for the Building: and on the 21ſt Day of the ſeventh Month (the Beginning of October) Haggai from God aſſur'd them of proſpering in the Work, and promis'd that the Glory of this Temple ſhould in Time exceed the Glory of the former, which was only accompliſh'd by the Preſence of the promis'd CHRIST in It; for in all other Reſpects It was vaſtly inferior. See Haggai I. and II.

In the EIGHTH Month, God ſent by Zechariah the Prophet to exhort the Jews to Repentance with many Promiſes; and on the 24th Day of the ninth Month (the Beginning of December) God ſent again by the Prophet Haggai to aſſure the Jews, that becauſe they had heartily renew'd the good Work, He would remove the Stroke of Barrenneſs, and ſend them Plenty: particularly, that It ſhould go well with ZERUBBABEL for his Zeal, Hag. II.

In the Beginning of the next Year, being the third Year of Darius according to the preſent Reckoning of the Perſians (who now began their Year with our January) but the ſecond according to the Jewiſh Reckoning (who counted now from Niſan about eleven Weeks after the other) the Samaritans hearing the Jews went on with the Temple, renew'd their malicious and ſubtle Practices to put another ſtop to it: and ſo they firſt complain'd to TATNAI the Prefect of Syria and Paleſline; ſuggeſting, that the Jews acted without Authority and againſt the Intereſt of the Crown.

Mean while on the 24th Day of the 11th Month (the Beginning of our February) God gave to Zechariah the Revelations contain'd from the 7th Verſe of Ch. I. to the 9th Verſe of Ch. vi. to ſhew God's Love to his returning People, and his Vengeance againſt their Perſecutors.

Upon the Remonſtrance of the Samaritans, TATNAI with Shetharboznai (the Governor of Samaria) came to Jeruſalem, ſurvey'd the Work, and demanded to know by what Authority they proceeded: but the Jews having produc'd a Copy of CYRUS's Decree, Tatnai peaceably retir'd, and only wrote to DARIUS the plain Matter of Fact, adviſing that Search might be made among the Archives, whether CYRUS granted ſuch a Decree.

Accordingly Search being made, the Original Decree of CYRUS was found among the Rolls at Ekbatana, and DARIUS being CYRUS's Son-in-law, confirm'd it by a Decree of his own, threatning, that whoever ſhould alter the ſame or hinder its due Execution, ſhould have his Houſe pull'd down, and ſhould be hang'd on a Gallows made of the Timber thereof. This new Decree was ſent to TATNAI and Shetharboznai to put it in full Execution, Ezra v. and vi.

Some Time muſt be allow'd for Tatnai to write, and for the Search to be made for the Original Decree of CYRUS, and for an Anſwer to be return'd with the new corroborating Decree of DARIUS: and therefore we cannot ſuppoſe this new Decree could be publiſh'd at Jeruſalem before this Year, viz. after the Burning of Jeruſalem and the Temple juſt 70 Years.

Thus as the firſt Captivity by Nebuchadnezzar began in the 4th Year of Jehoiakim, and ended after 70 Years by the Decree of CYRUS; ſo from the Captivity of Zedekiah, 18 Years after the firſt, to this Decree of DARIUS, viz. 18 Years after that of CYRUS, are juſt 70 Years. And ſo both ways the Prophecy of Jeremiah is accompliſh'd.

And now that the Jewiſh State was reſtor'd, and the Building of the Temple went on briſkly, the Jews in Babylon ſent Sharezzer and Regem-Melech to Jeruſalem to aſk the Prieſts, if they muſt obſerve ſtill thoſe four Faſts, which they had obſerv'd for 70 Years paſt, viz. 1. On the tenth Day of the tenth Month, when Nebuchadnezzar laid Siege to Jeruſalem in the 9th Year of Zedekiah, (2. K. xxv. 1. Jer. lii. 4.) 2. On the 9th Day of the 4th Month; becauſe on that Day the City was taken (2. K. xxv. 3, 4.) 3. On the tenth Day of the 5th Month; becauſe then the City and Temple were burnt, (Jer. lii. 12, &c.) 4. On the third Day of the 7th Month when Gedaliah was ſlain, (Jer. xli. 1, 2.) to which God gave Anſwer by Zechariah the Prophet mention'd ch. vii. and viii. Thus Ptolomy's Canon and the Scripture Chronology agree in making it juſt 70

Years from the 17th of Nebuchadnezzar (according to the Babyloniſh Reckoning or 19th according to the Jewiſh Reckoning) to this fourth Year of DARIUS Hyſtaſpes. But the modern Jews ſtill keep thoſe four Faſts, tho' not exactly on the ſame Days; becauſe their Calendar is alter'd by Rabbi Hillel, Anno Chriſti 360.

Pindar the ſamous Greek Poet was born this Year, if he was aged 40 Years about the Time of Xerxes's coming into Greece.

The Inhabitants of Babylon, not brooking the Neglect of the Perſian Monarchs who had made Suſa the Capital of the Empire, and taking the Advantage of the Revolutions in Perſia upon the Death of Cambyſes and the Slaughter of the Magians, began to revolt and ſet up a King of their own (as they had before revolted from the Aſſyrians and ſet up Nabopolaſar) in the Beginning of this Year.

But the Jews in that City knowing the many Predictions of God's Prophets againſt It, and being warn'd by Zechariah, ch. ii. 6——9. to remove from it; which Warning was brought to them laſt Year by Sharezer and Regem-Melech: and ſeeing the Babylonians run into Rebellion, they left it and retir'd to more ſecure Quarters before the Storm came on; which was not long a coming: for immediately DARIUS laid Siege to it during 20 Months.

When the Babylonians ſaw themſelves begirt by the Grand Royal Army, they deſperately and barbarouſly murder'd all uſeleſs Hands, Men, Women and Children, except only one Wife for one Man and a Maid Servant; whereby they themſelves fulfill'd the diſmal Prophecy againſt them, Iſa. xlvii. 9. But theſe two Things ſhall come to Thee in a Moment, in one Day, the Loſs of Children and Widowhood in their Perfection. At length Zopyrus one of the Perſian chief Officers, having cut off his Noſe and Ears and mangled his Body with Stripes, fled into the City as a Deſerter for ſuch cruel Uſage, and was by them ſo far truſted as to be made their General, and ſo betray'd the City into the Hands of his Maſter DARIUS, which otherwiſe was impregnable, becauſe of the Strength and Height of its Walls, its great ſtore of Proviſions and the large Ground within the Walls fit for cultivation.

But DARIUS beat down their 100 Gates, and lower'd their Walls from 200 Cubits to 50 Cubits, (for all Writers after Herodotus mention only 50 Cubits) ſlew 3000 of the moſt active Inhabitants in the Rebellion; and pardon'd the reſt, to whom he order'd 50000 Women to be ſent out of other Countries, becauſe they had ſlain their own Women and wanted to be recruited.

And thus the Puniſhment of Babylon kept pace with the Reſtoration of Jeruſalem, according to the Prophecy, Jer. xxv. 12, 13. for when the 70 Years Captivity from the 4th of Jehoiakim were ended, Babylon was taken and its King Belſhazar ſlain, and CYRUS made his Decree for the Reſtoration of Jeruſalem and the Temple: ſo when the 70 Years Captivity from the Burning of the Temple were expir'd, Babylon again is humbled by DARIUS Hyſtaſpes, while Jeruſalem and the Temple are rebuilt: whereas Babylon was never reſtor'd to its former Glory, but languiſh'd a while and at length ended in a perpetual Deſolation, according to the Prophecy of Jeremiah, fulfill'd to this Day.

In the 6th Year of DARIUS according to the Jewiſh Reckoning, and on the 3d Day of the 12th Month Adar, which anſwers to part of the 3d and 4th Month of the Babyloniſh Year beginning with January; and conſequently in the Beginning of the 7th Year of DARIUS after the Babyloniſh Reckoning; the ſecond Temple of Jeruſalem being finiſh'd, the Dedication of it was ſolemniz'd juſt 20 Years after it was founded by the Children of Iſrael, who offer'd 100 Bullocks, 200 Rams, 400 Lambs, and for a Sin Offering 12 He-goats for All Iſrael, according to the Number of the Tribes: which plainly ſhews, that ſome Iſraelites of each Tribe return'd with the Jews and Benjamites: but the reſt remain'd in Aſſyria and Chaldea, and in Time were loſt by being blended among the Nations.

In the next Month Niſan or firſt Eccleſiaſtical Month of the Jewiſh Year, on the 14th Day of the Month, the ſecond Temple being fitted for divine Service, the firſt Paſſover was ſolemniz'd according to the Law of Moſes by all the Children of Iſrael, with great Joy; for Jehovah had made them joyful, and turn'd the Heart of the King of Aſſyria unto them, Ezra vi. 22. (for Babylon the Capital of Aſſyria being reduc'd by DARIUS, He is juſtly call'd by Ezra the King of Aſſyria) and thus alſo from the laſt Captivity by Nebuzaradan at the End of the 390 Years of Ezekiel, Page 77. to this firſt Paſſover, are juſt 70 Years.

The Samaritans now refuſ'd to pay their Tribute into the Hands of the Jews, alledging, that the Emperor had ordain'd it only for the rebuilding of the Temple; and that being finiſh'd, they would pay it for the Future to the Emperor himſelf. Upon which ZERUBBABEL the Governor, with Mordecai and Ananias, two principal Men, travell'd this Year to Suſa, and complain'd to DARIUS, who forthwith ſent his Royal Order to his Officers at Samaria, ſtrictly charging them to pay their Tribute for the Uſe of the Temple of Jeruſalem as formerly; nor do we find any Conteſt about this Affair till the Days of Sanballat long afterwards. Joſeph. Antiq. Lib. XI. cap. 4.

After DARIUS had reduc'd Babylon, He intended to invade Scythia, and having this Year march'd an Army of 700000 Men to the Thraſian Boſphorus, which He paſs'd over by a Bridge of Boats, He conquer'd all Thrace, and from thence march'd to the Iſter or Danube, where he appointed his Fleet to meet him, which conſiſted of Grecians: and having croſs'd that River by a Bridge of Boats, He landed in that Scythia, which is now call'd Moldavia and Wallachia. But the Scythians led him a Dance for three Months thro' their Woods and Deſarts, till the Half of his Army was deſtroy'd by Counter-Marching and Fatigue; when he was glad to retreat with the other Half, which would have alſo periſh'd, if Heſtiaeus Prince of Miletus had not perſuaded the other Grecians to ſtay for him with their Ships, by whoſe Help He return'd to Thrace, where he left Megabyſus Governor, and repaſſing the Boſphorus, He winter'd at Sardis. This is the XIX JUBILEE.

Megabyſus having reduc'd all Thrace came to DARIUS at Sardis: and the Emperor having left his Brother Artaphernes Governor of Sardis, and Otanes Governor of Thrace, He return'd to Shuſan or Suſa about the End of this Year.

The Scythians in revenge croſs'd the Danube, and ravag'd Thrace as far as the Helleſpont, and drove Miltiades the Prince of the Thracian Cherſoneſus out of his Country; but on the Retreat of the Enemy, He return'd, Herodot. Lib. V.

DARIUS having built ſome Ships at Caſpatyrus on the upper Parts of the River Indus near the Aſiatic Scythia, gave the Command of that Fleet to Scylax a Grecian of Caryandria in Caria; and ſent him down the River, in order to diſcover India, who ſail'd into the Ocean, and ſteering Weſtward return'd thro' the Straits of Babel-Mandel into the Red Sea, and landed in the 30th Month at the ſame Place of Egypt, from whence PHARAOH Necho had formerly ſent a Fleet of Phenicians to ſail round the Coaſt of Africa (who turn'd the Cape of Good Hope, and coaſted to the Straits of Gibralter, and return'd thro' the Mediterranean to Egypt

KINGS of Perſia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

DARIUS finding he had been preſerv'd from periſhing in Scythia, by the Conduct of Heſtiacus Prince of Miletus (abovemention'd) ſent for him, and offer'd him what Reward He ſhould deſire; and he deſir'd the Edonian Myrcinus a Territory on the River Strymon in Thrace, in order to build a City there, which was granted him readily, and he had gone about his Undertaking; but by Advice of Megabyſes, the Emperor found it dangerous to his Intereſt, and therefore had artfully ſent for Heſtiacus to Sardis, and carried him into Perſia, pretending He wanted ſo able a Counſellor and ſo faithful a Friend. Upon which Heſtiacus had appointed Ariſtagoras his Deputy at Miletus.

In Naxus, the greateſt Iſland of the Cyclades, the Mob aroſe and baniſh'd the wealthieſt Inhabitants, who fled to Miletus, and begg'd the Aſſiſtance of Ariſtagoras to reſtore them; which he readily promiſ'd, tho' with a View to make himſelf Maſter of Naxus, or to oblige DARIUS with it. Therefore, He went to Sardis and communicated the Matter to Artaphernes, telling him, that by having Naxus, DARIUS would ſoon have all the Cyclades Iſlands, from whence they could ſafely ſail to Eubœa, an Iſland as big as Cyprus, and take it eaſily; whereby He would have an open Paſſage into Greece: for all which Service Ariſtagoras requir'd only 100 Ships.

This Propoſal pleaſ'd Artaphernes, and upon the Approbation of DARIUS, He ſent to Ariſtagoras 200 Ships under the Command of Megabates, a noble Perſian of the Achemenian or the Royal Family. But the haughty Perſian not brooking to be commanded by an Ionian (for by his Commiſſion he was to obey Ariſtagoras) a Diſſention aroſe, and Megabates in revenge to Ariſtagoras betray'd the Project to the Naxians, who being provided with all ſuitable Stores, the Perſians, after they had four Months beſieg'd the chief City, were forc'd to depart ſhamefully for want of Stores; the Blame whereof being laid upon Ariſtagoras by Megabates (who, to be ſure, was better heard and more believ'd than the other) Artaphernes demanded of Ariſtagoras all the Charges of the War. But not being able to pay it, He had no way to prevent his utter Ruin, but the deſperate Courſe of Revolting from DARIUS; to which he was alſo adviſ'd the ſame Time by a Letter from his Principal, Heſtiacus, who being weary of the Perſian Court, and longing to be at home, wiſh'd for a Rebellion in Ionia; that ſo he might prevail with DARIUS to ſend him to quaſh it; as it came to paſs: for Ariſtagoras being confirm'd by the Opinion of Heſtiacus, communicated his Deſign to the Chiefs of the Ionians, who all agreed to it, and ſo Preparations were made for putting it in Execution.

The Tyrians after Nebuchadnezzar had demoliſh'd their old City, (Page 79.) and they had gone to their new City in the Iſland, had continued in a ſervile and low Condition under a foreign Ruler or Governor during 70 Years, which being expir'd according to the Prophecy, (Iſa. xxiii. 15. 17.) They are this Year reſtor'd to their former Privileges, and allow'd to have a King of their own Nation, even until the Wars of ALEXANDER the Great; becauſe they were neceſſary to DARIUS's naval Forces againſt the Ionians; and being now Independent, they recover'd their ancient Glory by their large Traffick to all Parts, and again became the chief Mart of the Eaſt.

Ariſtagoras, to oblige the Ionians at this Juncture, reſtor'd the People to their ancient Liberty, and beginning firſt with himſelf, He aboliſh'd his own Authority and reinſtated the People in the Government, and forc'd all the other Tyrants or Princes of Ionia to do the ſame: whereby he united them, and being at the Head of the Confederacy, He declar'd open War againſt DARIUS this Year.

Ariſtagoras

See the Continuation.

Continuation of TABLE XXIII.

Kings of Perſia, the Jews and Contemporaries all together.

Ariſtagoras could not prevail with the Lacedemonians to join him in this War, but with the Athenians he did; becauſe He came to Athens when the People were inrag'd againſt the Perſians, for that Artaphernes had entertain'd Hippias their Exile, and had ſent them Word, that if they would be ſafe they muſt receive again Hippias for their Prince: therefore, they order'd 20 Ships for his Aſſiſtance: He got alſo 5 Ships from Eretria a City in the Iſland of Eubœa.

In the third Year of the War, the Ionians and their Confederates ſail'd to Epheſus, and landing they march'd and took Sardis, which accidentally was burnt down the Temple and all except the Caſtle, where Artaphernes defended himſelf, until ſufficient Forces of Perſians and Lydians came to relieve him, upon which the Ionians fled towards their Ships, but before they reach'd Epheſus, they were overtaken and overthrown with a great Slaughter. The Athenians went aboard and ſail'd home, nor could be ever perſuaded by Ariſtagoras to join him again. When Darius heard of the burning of Sardis, and that the Athenians were concern'd therein, He reſolv'd on a War againſt Greece, which afterwards was carried on for ſeveral Generations, until it ended in the utter Deſtruction of the Perſian Monarchy. This Year Anaxagoras the Philoſopher was born at Clazomenæ. See Diog. Laert.

The reſt of the Fleet ſail'd to the Helleſpont and Propontis, and reduc'd the Byzantines and moſt Grecian Cities thereabouts; and in their Return got the Carians and Cyprians to come into their Confederacy againſt Darius. Upon which the Perſians in Cilicia aboard a great Phenician Fleet ſail'd againſt Cyprus, but were defeated by the Ionian Fleet: tho' the Perſian Army having firſt landed, had conquer'd the Cyprians; ſo that the Ionians reap'd no Advantage of their Victory at Sea: for the whole Iſland was reduc'd to Darius, and in three Years the Cyprian Fleet came along with the Perſian Fleet againſt the Ionians, and help'd to ruin them.

Darius ſent three of his Sons-in-law, Dauriſes, Hymees and Otanes with an Army, who march'd three ſeveral Ways againſt the Revolters: the firſt two reduc'd the Carians, and the Cities of the Helleſpont and Propontis, and of all the Ilian Coaſt. But Artaphernes and Otanes attack'd the Enemy's Great Strength, took Clazomenæ in Ionia, and Cyma in Æolia, and oblig'd Ariſtagoras in Deſpair to leave Miletus, who getting a good Number aboard with him, ſail'd to the River Strymon in Thrace, and laid Siege to Myrcinus (the Place formerly given to Heſtiacus) where next Year He was ſlain and all his Army cut off.

Dauriſes overthrew the Carians in two Battels; but they drew him at laſt into an Ambuſh and cut him off with all his Army this Year.

Artaphernes and Otanes reſolv'd to reduce Miletus the Head Quarters of the Confederacy. Upon which the Ionians reſolv'd to have no Land Army, but to ſtrengthen their City for a long Siege, and to fight the Perſians only at Sea, and mann'd 353 Ships of War. Tho' the Perſian Fleet was double their Number, they were afraid of an Engagement till they had by Emiſſaries corrupted the Samians, Lesbians and others, who at the Beginning of the Battel deſerted and ſail'd home, and left the Ionians to be deſtroy'd. Upon which Defeat their belov'd Miletus was beſieg'd by Sea and Land, was ſoon taken and utterly demoliſh'd; in the ſixth Year of the War.

The Mileſians were captivated and were ſent to Darius, who ſent them to inhabit the City Ampha at the Mouth of the Tygris and Euphrates, where they join and run together into the Perſian Gulph, near the preſent City Balſora, where they continued a Grecian Colony for many Ages.

Aſter taking Miletus and reducing all the Carians, the Perſian Fleet (which conſiſted moſtly of Phenicians, Cyprians and Egyptians) took in Samos, Chius, Lesbus and the reſt of the Iſlands; while the Land Army conquer'd the Cities of the Continent, which they burnt with their Temples, made Eunuchs of their fineſt Boys, and ſent their Virgins into Perſia as Merchandize: As for Heſtiacus, He had lately deceiv'd DARIUS to ſend him to quell the Revolt in Ionia, and had been guilty of many Plots and open Rebellion from the Time He left Perſia: for when he arriv'd at Sardis, He drew ſeveral Perſians into a Plot; but fearing Artaphernes, he fled in the Night to the Iſland of Chius: but the Chians were at firſt jealous of him, and put him in Priſon till they were ſure he was an hearty Enemy to DARIUS; and then convoy'd him to Miletus: but the Mileſians having got Poſſeſſion of their Liberty by Ariſtagoras, would not hear of parting with it, nor let him come into their City; nay, having repuls'd him by Force, He return'd to Chius; from whence he ſent Word to the Ionians, that he had engag'd in the War to preſerve the Ionians from being tranſplanted into Phenicia, and the Phenicians into Ionia, as DARIUS had deſign'd: which was a political Lie; whereby the Ionians were influenc'd to hazard all. From Chius he ſail'd to Lesbus, where he got eight Ships of War, and ſail'd to Byzantium, where he turn'd Pyrate at the Boſphorus, and became very powerful. Fut hearing of the taking of Miletus, he left his Affairs to his Lieutenant, return'd to Chius and made himſelf Maſter of the Iſland: and from thence with a great Army of Ionians, he ſail'd to Thaſus an Iſland on the Thracian Coaſt, but ſoon left it to defend Lesbus againſt the Perſians; and from thence landing on the Continent to plunder the Country, his Army was beat by Harpagus a Perſian General, who took Heſtiacus Priſoner and ſent him to Sardis, where Artaphernes had him publickly crucify'd without conſulting DARIUS, leſt ſuch a dangerous Enemy ſhould have been pardon'd, as he well conjectur'd; for DARIUS was much griev'd when his Head came to him, and order'd it to be honourably buried; becauſe of his former Merit. He was the moſt able Politician of his Age, tho' not the moſt Fortunate.

Aſter the Land Armies and the Phenician Fleet in the Perſian Service had ſubdu'd all the Greek Iſlands on the Aſian Coaſt, Artaphernes ſent them to ſubdue thoſe on the European Coaſt. But when they reach'd as far as Tenedos, Miltiades the Prince of the Thracian Cherſoneſus would not ſtay their coming, but pack'd up his All on board five Ships, and ſail'd for Athens his native Place, only in the Way one of the Ships and his Son Metiochus the Commander was taken by the Phenicians, and being ſent to Suſa, DARIUS treated him generouſly, married him to a noble Perſian Lady, and gave him a ſuitable Eſtate; and he never return'd from Perſia. But his Father Miltiades got ſafe into Athens with his other four Ships, of whom I exhibit here the following Genealogy, DARIUS having recall'd his other Generals, now ſent another Son-in-law, Mardonius a noble Perſian to command in thoſe maritime Parts, to invade Greece and puniſh the Athenians and Eretrians for burning Sardis. He march'd from the Helleſpont thro' Thrace into Macedonia with an Army, where all the People ſubmitted to him: but not ſecuring his Camp well, the Thracians fell upon him in the Night, wounded him and ſlew a vaſt Number of his Men: ſo that he was diſabled, and quickly retir'd to the Coaſt to go aboard his Fleet, which he had order'd to take in Thaſus and to attend him; but he only found the Remains of it; for while doubling the Cape of Mount Athos (now call'd Capo Santo) 300 of their Ships were deſtroy'd by a Storm, and above 20000 of their Men. So Mardonius retreated into Aſia without gaining any Honour.

Next Year DARIUS to try which of the Grecians would ſubmit, ſent Heralds to demand Earth and Water, the Symbol of Submiſſion; and many Grecian Cities, dreading the Power of the Perſians, ſubmitted: but the Athenians and Lacedemonians in a Rage, flung the one Herald into a Well, and the other into a deep Pit, bidding them ſetch Earth and Water from thence; whereby They violated the Law of Nations, and afterwards repented of it.

When DARIUS heard of the ill Succeſs of Mardonius, he recall'd him, and ſent Datis a Median and Artaphernes a Perſian (the Son of Artaphernes late Governor of Sardis) to puniſh the Athenians and Eretrians for burning Sardis.

KINGS of Perſia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

And now the ſamous ZOROASTRES the Magian and his Sect flouriſh'd, He is call'd by the Perſians Zurduſht or Zaratuſh, the greateſt Impoſtor except MAHOMET that ever appear'd, and a very learned Man; whereas Mahomet was an ignorant Man.

Upon the Slaughter of the ſalſe Smerdis, and thoſe of his Sect, then firſt call'd Magians, their Religion was almoſt loſt at Court, where moſt People profeſs'd the Sabian Religion in Oppoſition to Smerdis: but the Magian being the old Religion of the Medes and Perſians, it was capable of a Revival by artful Zoroaſtres, by way of Reformation; for being a Jew and once a Servant of ſome Jewiſh Prophet, he was well ſkill'd in the Jewiſh Learning, and reform'd the old Magian Religion much after the Moſaical, firſt in Media, and then in Bactria, under the Protection of HYSTASPES the King's Father and the Governor, who had ſtill adher'd to the Way of the Magians, and erected the Great Fire-Temple for the Archimagus ZOROASTRES at Balch the Governor's Reſidence in Bactria. See Dr. Prideaux's hiſtorical Connexion. And now ZOROASTRES came from Balch to Suſa, the Court of DARIUS, this Year, where in Spite of the great Oppoſition of the principal Sabians, the other great Sect, he ſoon made DARIUS his Proſelyte, and his Sons too, with the Courtiers, the chief Nobility, the eminent Gentry and wealthy People; whereby, it became the Religion of the Empire, and ſo continued for many Ages, till it was much ſuppreſs'd by Mahometaniſm; but ſtill a Remnant of them are found among the Perſians, the Mogoliſtans and other Indian Nations, who have preſerv'd his Book that contains their Religion, which is by them rever'd as the Bible by the Chriſtians, or the AlKoran by the Mahometans. He call'd his Book Zendaveſta or Zend, ſignifying a Fire-Kindler, containing his Liturgy and other Parts of his Religion; which, he ſaid, he had from Heaven, and preſented it to DARIUS bound in 12 Volumes, each of 100 Skins of Vellom, the Perſians then uſing to write on Skins. The Book is preſerv'd ſtill in the old Perſian Language and Character, by tranſcribing a Copy of it to be kept in every Oratory and Fire-Temple among them, even to this Day. One of the greateſt Errors in it, was an Allowance of all Sorts of Inceſt, on purpoſe to gratify the Perſians, which prevail'd untill ALEXANDER the Great made a Law againſt it.

Datis and Artaphernes arrived on the Coaſt of Ionia this Year, and gathered an Army of 300000 Men and a Fleet of 600 Ships. They rendezvous'd their Fleet, with the Army aboard, at Samos, and ſailing to Naxus, burnt the chief City of the Naxians and all their Temples: And having reduced all the other Iſlands, They ſail'd to Eretria, took their chief City in ſeven Days, burnt it and captivated all they found. From thence They ſail'd to Attica, and by the Guidance of Hippias, the exil'd Prince of Athens, They drew up in the Plain of Marathon; where the brave MILTIADES met them at the Head of 10000 Athenians and 2000 Plateans, who with ſo ſmall a Force gave the Perſians a total Rout with the Slaughter of 6400 Men on the ſpot, among whom was Hippias, and the reſt fled to their Ships, and ſail'd back to Ionia with Diſgrace, having loſt in this Expedition 200000 Men: only they ſent the captive Eretrians to DARIUS, who ſent them to inhabit a Village in Ciſſia about a day's Journey from Suſa, whoſe Deſcendants were long after found there by Apollonius Tyaneus. On the 3d Day of Tibi, or 25th of our April of this Year, half an Hour before Midnight, an Eclipſe of the Moon was obſerv'd at Babylon, Ptol. Mag. Synt. Lib. IV. cap. 9.

DARIUS was not diſcouraged by the Defeat of his Generals, but rather excited to proſecute his Purpoſe againſt the Athenians even in Perſon, and ſent Orders through all his Provinces to arm the whole Empire for a Deſcent upon Greece. But after Three Years Preparation for this War

In the fourth Year Egypt revolted; which gave Darius a double Trouble: Yet he was reſolved to overcome both, by ſending a part of his Forces againſt Egypt, and to lead the other part himſelf againſt the Grecians.

After Zoroastres had eſtabliſh'd his Religion in Perſia, He return'd as Archimagus or Head of the Sect to Balch in Bactria, and reign'd in Spirituals as Darius did in Temporals thro' all the Empire, whereby ſome Authors have call'd him King of Bactria. But having endeavour'd to make a Proſelyte of Argaſp King of the Oriental Scythians, and ſtrengthen'd his Arguments with the Authority of Darius, Argaſp a zealous Sabian and hating Authority in arguing, invaded Bactria, defeated the Forces of Darius, ſlew Hystaspes and Zoroaſtres and the 80 Prieſts of his Grand Fire-Temple, and deſtroy'd all the Fire-Temples there, in the 35th Year of the Reign of Darius.

Darius was ſoon aveng'd of the Scythian, before he made his Retreat, by a great Slaughter, rebuilt the Fire-Temples, and became the Archimagus himſelf; tho' he enjoy'd not that Spiritual Dignity above one Year; and at his Death order'd it to be engraven on his Tomb, that he was the Maſter of the Magians or Head of the Church; and from hence forward the Perſian Monarchs were reckon'd to be of the Sacerdotal Tribe, and were initiated into the ſacred Order of the Magians before they were crown'd.

The Greeks eſteem'd Zoroastres as the great Maſter of all human and divine Knowledge; for he inſtructed the Prieſts of his Order in Phyſiology, Aſtronomy and other Mathematical Studies of the Indian Brachmans; whereby their Credit was advanc'd, when in time a learned Man and a Magian were equivalent Terms; till at length the Vulgar, by wrong Apprehenſions, thought them under the Influence of ſupernatural Powers, and call'd them Conjurers or Magicians, corruptly for Magians, whereas the true and eminent Magians were only fine Scholars.

When Pythagoras was ſent from Egypt captive to Babylon (as on Page 94. and 95.) he came acquainted with Zoroastres, and by him was inſtructed in many uſeful Parts of Knowledge, and fitted to ſet up for himſelf at the Head of a new Sect upon his Return to Greece; tho' he was not ſo pure as his Maſter, mixing the Doctrine of the Soul's Immortality with that of the Tranſmigration, which he had learn'd in Egypt.

But before Darius would take the Field, He ſetled the Succeſſion, according to Cuſtom; eſpecially, that a Controverſy happen'd between Artabaſanes (or Artemines or Ariamenes) his eldeſt Son by the Daughter of Gobrias, and Xerxes his eldeſt Son by Atoſſa the Daughter of the Grand Cyrus: the firſt pleaded his Right of Primogeniture; but Xerxes pleaded his Right by Deſcent from Cyrus the Founder of the Monarchy, and that tho' Artabaſanes was the eldeſt Son of Darius, yet, He was the eldeſt Son of the King, his firſt born after he became King, and produc'd a Precedent from the Lacedemonians, ſuggeſted to him by Demaratus the exil'd King of Lacedemonia, then reſiding at the Perſian Court: and his Mother Atossa having the whole Aſcendant of Darius, prevail'd with him to declare Xerxes his Succeſſor. This was the moſt amicable Conteſt for a Crown that was ever heard of: for the Brothers treated each other with all Decency and Affection the whole Time; nor after the Deciſion did Xerxes inſult or Artabaſanes repine, but chearfully wiſh'd his Brother Joy and ever faithfully adher'd to his Intereſt, till he died in his Service in the Grecian War.

KINGS of Perſia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together

How Leonidas King of the Spartans was ſlain in bravely defending the paſs of Thermopylæ againſt XERXES; how XERXES then enter'd the Country of the Athenians, who left their City and went all aboard their Fleet, ſecuring their Wives and Children in diſtant Cities out of his Reach; how the Grecian Fleet harraſs'd That of the Perſians; how Themiſtocles the Athenian General with only 300 Ships of War, defeated, took and deſtroy'd the Great Fleet of the Perſians at the Straits of Salamis, and forc'd the Remainder to ſhear off to the Aſian Coaſt, which forc'd XERXES to retreat in haſte to the Helleſpont, for fear the victorious Grecian Fleet ſhould obſtruct his Paſſage, and leaving Mardonius with 300000 Men to carry on the War in Greece, XERXES ſhamefully paſs'd over and winter'd at Sardis: How at the very ſame Time, the Carthaginians, who had invaded Sicily, were more wretchedly defeated by Gelo King of Sicily, &c. may be ſeen at length in the above cited Authors.

Mardonius winter'd in Theſſaly and Macedon; and early in the Spring march'd his Army into Bœotia; ſent Alexander I. King of Macedon with Propoſals of Accommodation to the Athenians; which They rejecting, He march'd into Attica, ſack'd Athens and ruin'd the Country. But the Athenians (who had fled as before) being join'd by the beſt Forces of all Greece at the Iſthmus of Corinth, Mardonius retreated to Bœotia and encamp'd by the River Æſopus, whither the Greeks amounting to 120000 Men march'd under the Command of Pauſanias King of Lacedæmon and Ariſtides the Athenian General; and near the City of Plataea gave Mardonius a total Rout, ſlew him and cut his Army of 350000 Men in Pieces, except Artabazus, who fearing the Event, eſcap'd in Time with 40000 under his Command to Byzantium, and from thence into Aſia.

In the Afternoon of the ſame Day that the Battel of Plataea was fought, the Perſian Fleet at Mycale on the Aſian Coaſt was deſtroy'd by the Grecian Fleet, commanded by Leotichides the other Lacedemonian King and Xantippus the Athenian, who were invited by the Ionians to deliver the Greek Cities of Aſia from the Perſian Yoke; and the Ionians revolting to the Grecians when landed, They beat the Remains of the Perſian Army, took the Rampart and burnt all their Ships.

Thus in about a Year, all XERXES's vaſt Army was deſtroy'd except the Troops of Artabazus, many of whom died of Diſeaſes, &c. after which the Perſians never came into Greece.

Upon theſe Defeats XERXES left Sardis, and in all haſte return'd to Perſia. But his vaſt Loſs in this unhappy Expedition was made up by the vaſt Spoils of the Grecian and Aſiatic Temples, which he had demoliſh'd, all except that of DIANA at Epheſus; and in his Return to Suſa He went to Babylon, where he ſpoil'd and deſtroy'd their Temples exactly as was foretold long ago in Iſa. xxi. 9. Jer. L. 2. and li. 44. 47. 52. and took away the Treaſures of many Ages. But XERXES pleaded it was all done from a Principle of Religion; for he was a Magian, had Oſtanes (then the Archimagus) as his Captain in the Army with him: but the Magians deteſting the worſhiping of God by Images, influenc'd him to demoliſh all the Idol Temples in his Way. Cicero de Legibus, Lib. II.

The Grecian Fleet ſail'd to the Helleſpont to demoliſh the Bridges of XERXES; but found They were gone by the Storms; only what Materials were found, They brought to Athens to be laid up as Monuments.

The Ionian Cities in Aſia now revolted from the Perſians, and maintain'd their Liberty by the Help of the Greeks.

KINGS of Perſia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

The Greeks having reſetled their Affairs, ſent Pauſanias the Lacedemonian King and Ariſtides the Athenian with a Fleet to Cyprus, where They beat the Perſian Garriſons out of the Grecian Cities, and reſtor'd them to their ancient Liberty, Diod. Lib. II. Plutarch. in Ariſtide. About this Time Aeſchylus the Tragedian flouriſh'd, Euſeb.

Mean while XERXES having at Sardis fallen in Love with the Wiſe of his full Brother Maſiſtes, and finding her Virtue impregnable, He next fell in Love with her Daughter Artayuta and gain'd her; which Hameſtris his Queen perceiving, and believing it all owing to the Mother's Contrivance (who was wholly innocent) begg'd of XERXES on his Birth-day to have that Lady in her Power, which XERXES, after a Struggle, baſely granted: and ſhe being ſeiz'd by the Guards, Hameſtris forthwith caus'd her Breaſts, Tongue, Noſe, Ears and Lips to be cut off and thrown to the Dogs before her Face; and then ſent her home thus mangled. When Maſiſtes came home, he immediately mov'd off with all his Family for Bactria, where he was Governor; but on the Road They were all cut off by a Party of Horſe ſent by XERXES; O cruel, barbarous Luſt and Murder, owing to Arbitrary Power in a ſingle Perſon! Herodot. Lib. IX. This ſame Queen Hameſtris another Time, caus'd 14 noble Perſian Boys to be buried alive as an Offering to the Infernal Gods; whereby it appears, that ſhe could not be Queen ESTHER the Jeweſs, as ſome very learned Men have thought from the Similitude of the Name.

After the Murder of Maſiſtes, XERXES appointed his ſecond Son Hyſtaſpes to be Governor of Bactria. The Grecian Fleet ſail'd from Cyprus to the Helleſpont and took in Byzantium, where Pauſanias treacherouſly ſent off the eminent Perſians there taken, pretending They had made their Eſcape; for by them he ſent a Propoſal to XERXES of betraying Greece to him, upon Condition of getting one of his Daughters in Marriage: and Pauſanias now affecting the Pomp and Tyranny of the Perſians, diſguſted his Lacedemonians, who call'd him home and publickly cenſur'd him, and put their Fleet under the Direction of the Athenians, who thus obtain'd the chief Command at Sea in all Greece for many Years.

Yet Pauſanias in a private Ship, without Commiſſion from the States, ſail'd to the Helleſpont, on pretence of fighting againſt the Perſians as a Voluntier; but really to be near Artabazus now made Governor of the Propontis on purpoſe to treat with him, which being diſcover'd, the Lacedemonians ſent for him home, impriſon'd him and put him to Death, Thucyd. Lib. I. Plutarch. in Ariſtide and Themiſtocle, Corn. Nep. in Pauſania.

Themiſtocles having been a great Inſtrument in raiſing the growing Grandeur of Athens, drew on him thereby the Rage of the Lacedemonians, who now accus'd him of being a Conſederate of Pauſanias in his Treaſon againſt Greece: but They could not prove it and he was acquitted. But next Year

Themiſtocles was baniſh'd Athens, not for any Crime, but by Oſtraciſm, or for ſecuring the publick Peace and Liberty: for thus overgrown Men were baniſh'd for a certain Time. See in the above cited Authors, how He retir'd to Argos, how the Lacedemonians accus'd him before the General Council of all Greece, and forc'd him to run his Country and to ſurrender himſelf at Suſa to XERXES; who firſt paid him 200 Talents as what he had ſet upon his Head, and gave him all Protection and Encouragement.

Mean while Cimon the brave Son of Miltiades ſailing from Athens with a Fleet, conquer'd Æione on the Strymon with other Parts of Thrace; and then the Iſland of Scyrus and Naxus. And next Year

Cimon ſail'd with 200 Ships to the Coaſts of Aſia, where he was join'd by 100 Sail of Allies, and took in all the Sea Coaſts of Caria and Lycia: then ſail'd to the Mouth of the River Eurymedon, where he took a great Perſian Fleet and 20000 Men aboard; and that ſame Day, landing his Men fluſh'd with Victory, he defeated a great Perſian Army aſhore that had been there muſter'd for ſome great Expedition: then ſail'd further and deſtroy'd 80 Ships in a Phenician Harbour, that were bound to join the Fleet in the Eurymedon; and ſo return'd glorious to Athens. And now Sophocles the Tragedian flouriſh'd, Euſeb.

Next Year he ſail'd to the Helleſpont, drove the Perſians out of the Thracian Cherſoneſus, and again ſubjected that Country to the Athenians; ſubdu'd Thrace and all the Countries as far as Macedon; and for not ſubduing that Kingdom too, He was, when return'd, try'd for his Life, and narrowly eſcap'd Condemnation.

And now XERXES quite daunted by a Series of Loſſes, gave over all Thoughts of the Grecian War, ſent no more Fleets and Armies into thoſe Parts, and gave himſelf wholly over to Luxury, Luſt and Eaſe; whereby he became contemptible; ſo that Artabanus the Captain of his Guards got Mithridates the Eunuch to aſſiſt him, enter'd the Royal Chamber and ſlew XERXES aſleep in Bed: then acquainted ARTAXERXES the King's youngeſt Son, that his elder Brother Darius had murder'd his Royal Father, who with the Help of Artabanus forthwith ſlew his Brother in juſt Revenge, as he thought: and his other Brother Hyſtaſpes, the next Heir, being in Bactria at the Head of his Government, ARTAXERXES was plac'd in the Throne by Artabanus, who deſign'd He ſhould be no longer King than till he had form'd a Party ſtrong enough to be King himſelf. But ARTAXERXES coming ſoon to the Knowledge of all by Megabyſes, (who had married one of his Siſters) he was beforehand with Artabanus and cut him off; after he had reign'd, according to Euſebius, 7 Months the latter Part of the 21ſt Year of XERXES. And ſo removing this grand Obſtacle,

6. ARTAXERXES, call'd by the Grecians Μακρόχειρ Longimanus or Longhanded, got peaceable Poſſeſſion of the Throne and reign'd 41 Years, call'd alſo AHASUERUS, the Huſband of Queen ESTHER the Jeweſs; as Dr. Prideaux has well prov'd. Yet the ſeven great Sons of Artabanus headed the ſtrong Party their Father had form'd, and drew into the Field; but ARTAXERXES defeated them and puniſh'd all concern'd in the Murder of his Father XERXES, particularly Mithridates who was boated, or put to Death between two Boats. When this was over, the King ſent an Army into Bactria againſt his Brother Hyſtaſpes, who fought a bloody Battel and maintain'd his Ground this Year.

But next Year ARTAXERXES rais'd the Grand Poſſe of the Empire, overthrew Hyſtaſpes and well ſetled his Government. See Cteſias, Diodorus Siculus, Plutarch, Strabo. After theſe Succeſſes ARTAXERXS Longimanus or AHASUERUS appointed a ſolemn Rejoicing at Shuſan or Suſa in Feaſtings and Shows during 180 Days; at the End of which He made a great Feaſt during ſeven Days for all his Princes and People; as his Queen VASHTI did in her Apartment for the Women. And here comes in the Hiſtory of the Book of Eſther: for VASHTI on the 7th Day refuſing to come to ſhew her Beauty before the King and his Princes, was degraded and divorc'd; and the King by Advice of his ſeven Counſellors made a ſtanding Law, that all Wives ſhould obey their Huſbands, and that every Man ſhould rule in his own Houſe; and Orders were given to gather the faireſt Virgins out of all the Provinces to Suſa; that from among them the King might chuſe another Queen.

Among them the fair Virgin HADASSAH the Couſin of Mordecai of the Tribe of Benjamin reſiding at Suſa was taken and committed to the Care of Hegai the Chamberlain, who had the Cuſtody of the Virgins: and after ſhe had been purify'd about 12 Months, ſhe was, among the firſt, brought into the King's Preſence, and ſo won his Heart that ſhe became his darling Concubine, but not Queen yet.

Heraclitus the Philoſopher now flouriſh'd.

KINGS of Perſia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

This Year the Egyptians revolted from the Crown of Perſis, and made Inarus Prince of the Lybians their KING, and got the Athenians to aſſiſt them.

ARTAXERXES ſent his Brother Archaemenides with an Army of 300000 Men againſt Egypt, who incamp'd on the Banks of the Nile. But the Athenians having deſtroy'd the Perſian Fleet, ſail'd up the Nile, landed their Forces with their General Charitimis, who join'd Inarus, overthrew the Perſian Army with a Slaughter of 100000 Men, among whom was Archæmenides himſelf, and the reſt fled to Memphis, but were purſu'd by Inarus, who took in two parts of that City, and blokaded the Perſians in the third call'd the White Wall, where They defended themſelves near three Years till they were reliev'd.

The King, inrag'd at the Athenians, endeavour'd in vain to bribe the Lacedemonians againſt them; and therefore He rais'd an Army and equipt a Fleet againſt them, and order'd Themiſtocles to take the Command thereof, and to chaſtiſe the Athenians: but rather than fight againſt his Country, and not knowing how to decline the Command, he invited his Friends together, ſacrific'd a Bull, drank a large Draught of his Blood, and ſo died, after he run his Country 13 Years, the Beginning of this Year, much about the Time that ARTAXERXES made a Decree to reſtore and ſettle the State and Church of the Jews, according to their own Laws, with which the next Table begins.

Continuation of TABLE XXIV.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Perſian Monarchs, of the Jews, and of their Contemporaries from the Beginning of Daniel's 70 Weeks, upon the firſt Decree of ARTAXERXES Longimanus, A. M. 3546. To the End of the firſt 7 Weeks of Daniel, or the End of the holy Scriptures of the old Teſtament, A. M. 3595. during 49 Years.

ARTAXERXES Longimanus.

THE Prophecy of Daniel's 70 Weeks or 490 Years is mention'd on Page 88. They now begin this Year and reach to the Death of MESSIAH the Prince, or the Crucifixion of our Lord JESUS CHRIST, which was in the Month Niſan in the Year of the Julian Period ——— 4746

From which deducting ——— 490

It follows that in the ſame Month Niſan, theſe Years began upon the Decree of ARTAXERXES to reſtore Jeruſalem, An. Per. Jul. 4256 for the executing of which Decree, the ſaid Emperor and his Counſellors gave an ample Commiſſion to Ezra the holy Prieſt and learned Scribe, the Grandſon of Seraiah the High Prieſt that was ſlain at Riblah by Nebuchadnezzar, Ezra vii. and this extraordinary Favour ſeems to be obtain'd by the Sollicitation of ESTHER the King's favourite Concubine; tho' ſhe was not yet made Queen, nor had avow'd her being a Jeweſs, by the Direction of her good Couſin Mordecai the Benjamite.

EZRA rendezvous'd at Babylon all the Jews, Benjamites and Iſraelites, that were willing to return to Paleſtine with him to the Number of 1754 Males, beſides the Heads of Families and the Women; with whom he began his Journey from Babylon on the firſt Day of the firſt Month Niſan, or about the Middle of March, and ſafely arriv'd at Jeruſalem on the firſt Day of the fifth Month, or in four Months: and having deliver'd up to the Temple the Offerings of the King and his Nobles and of the Jews and Iſraelites that did not return, amounting to 100 Talents of Gold, with 20 Golden Baſons worth 1000 Darics, with 650 Talents of Silver, and Silver Veſſels weighing 100 Talents; EZRA ſhew'd his Commiſſion to the King's Lieutenants in thoſe Parts; whereby he was impower'd to ſettle both the Church and State of the Jews according to the Law of Moſes, Ezra viii. and he began to execute it very faithfully during 13 Years, even till Nehemiah came with a new Commiſſion for the ſame Effect.

On the 10th Day of the tenth Month Tebeth, of the Jewiſh Year beginning with Niſan, or in our December at a ſolemn Feaſt, call'd ESTHER's Feaſt, the King put the Royal Diadem upon her Head, and proclaim'd her QUEEN in the Stead of Vaſhti in Preſence of his Princes; and in Honour to her releas'd the Provinces of Taxes, and gave great Preſents to all about him that ſolemn Day, Eſth. ii. The News of which would greatly encourage Ezra to carry on his Reformation.

EZRA this Year aſſembled all the Men of Iſrael at Jeruſalem, to make them part with their foreign Wives according to the Law of Moſes, Ezra ix. 10. and about this Time Bigthan and Teresh, two Eunuchs or Servants of the Door of the Palace of Suſa, conſpir'd againſt the Life of ARTAXERXES, being very likely the Favourites of the late Queen Vaſhti; and would have ſlain him, if Mordecai had not timely diſcover'd it and acquainted ESTHER with it, who in his Name acquainted the King; for which Attempt the two Traitors were crucify'd, and the Hiſtory of the whole Matter was enter'd on the publick Regiſters or Annals of the Kingdom, Eſth. ii.

Empedocles and Parmenides the Philoſophers now flouriſh'd, Euſeb. Chron.

Megabyſus this Year march'd an Army to Memphis, while Artabaſus Commander of the Perſian Fleet met him up the Nile, whereby the Perſians blokaded in the White Wall were reliev'd, and joining the freſh Army, Megabyſus defeated Inarus with a great Slaughter: but Inarus retreated with the Athenians to Biblus in the Iſland Proſopitis ſurrounded by the Nile, where the Athenian Ships drew up in a ſafe Creek, and were beſieg'd by the Perſians about 10 Months: but the reſt of the Egyptians ſubmitted, except Amyrtaeus, who reign'd many Years in the Fens, where the Perſians could not fight him. Zend flouriſh'd and Pherecydes the Hiſtorian, Euſeb.

At length the Perſians, by making many Channels, drain'd that Branch of the Nile where the Athenian Fleet lay, and made an open Paſſage to the Iſland; upon which Inarus and the Athenians capitulated, upon Condition of ſaving their Lives: but the far greater Part of the Athenians periſh'd in this Expedition; nay, and 50 Ships of War more that were ſent to the Relief of Biblus, ſailing up the Nile after the Capitulation, were ſhut in by the Perſian Fleet, and almoſt all deſtroy'd in this ſixth Year of the War, when Egypt was again reduc'd under the Perſian Yoke during all the Reign of ARTAXERXES, Thucyd. Lib. I. Cteſias, Diod.

Joachim the High Prieſt of the Jews being dead, was ſucceeded by his Son Eliaſhib this Year, during 40 Years, Chron. Alex. Neh. xii. 10. Joſeph. and now Haman the Amalekite, of the Offspring of AGAG King of the Amalekites in Saul's Time, became the chief Favorite and prime Miniſter of ARTAXERXES; and becauſe Mordecai the Jew (whoſe Religion taught him never to bow to Amalek) would not pay him the ſame Homage with the other Servants at Court, He reſolv'd to revenge the Affront on all the Jewiſh Nation; and for that Purpoſe on the firſt Day of Niſan the firſt Jewiſh Month, call'd together his Diviners, who by their Lots and Conjurations, found the 15th Day of the 12th Month Adar to be the moſt lucky Day for executing his Deſign; and having got the King's Grant or Decree, that that all the Jews, Men, Women and Children ſhould be that Day cut off throughout the Empire, he got the Scribes to write Copies of it, and on granted all he deſir'd without any Equivalent. Upon This Mordecai and all the Jews in Suſa mourn'd, and he engag'd his Couſin Queen ESTHER to intercede with the King for the reverſing of that cruel Decree; as is well narrated in the ſacred Book of Eſther: but the De- crees of the Perſians not being reverſable, all ſhe obtain'd was another Decree on the 23d Day of the 3d Month, to impower the Jews every where to cut off their Enemies that ſhould offer to execute Haman's Decree; Copies of which were ſent throughout all the Provinces.

Mean while Megabyſus having reduc'd all Egypt to ARTAXERXES (except the Fens where Amyrtaeus reign'd) He made Sartamas the Governor of Egypt and return'd to Suſa, carrying with him Inarus and his Grecian Priſoners, which the cruel Queen Mother Hameſtris demanded to be put to Death, for the Loſs of her Son Achæmenides; but the King would not yield, and confirm'd the Capitulation of Megabyſus.

When the 13th Day of Adar drew near, the Enemies of the Jews prepar'd to execute Haman's Decree; and the Jews prepar'd to execute
ESTHER's Decree: but the Governors, Rulers and other Officers of the Provinces, hearing that Haman had been hang'd on the Gallows 50
Cubits high, which he had erected for hanging Mordecai the Jew, that ESTHER was his Couſin, and that Mordecai was advanc'd in Haman's
Room to be the prime Miniſter; They countenanc'd the Jews, who ſlew on that Day 75000 of their Enemies throughout the Empire, and in Suſa 800 with the ten Sons of Haman, who were hung up on their Father's Gallows. And in Commemoration hereof, ESTHER and Mor- decai inſtituted an annual Faſt on the 13th of Adar, and an annual Feaſt on the 14th and 15th, which the Jews obſerve to this preſent time.
The Athenians ſent Cimon with 200 Sail againſt Cyprus, who took ſome Towns there, and ſent 60 of his Ships to the Aſſiſtance of Amyrtaeus in Egypt.

Cimon now fell upon Artabaſus, deſtroy'd many of his Ships, took 100 and purſu'd the reſt to the Phenician Coaſt, and on his Return he landed in Cilicia, and defeated Megabyſus with a great Slaughter of his numerous Army; and ſail'd back to Cyprus with a double Triumph.
ARTAXERXES weary of the War, made Peace with the Grecians, the Terms of which are recited by Diod. Lib. II. and Plutarch in Cim.
The Emperor being inceſſantly importun'd for five Years by his Mother Hameſtris to deliver up to her Inarus, and the Athenians, at length yielded; and the cruel Woman caus'd Inarus to be crucify'd, and the Heads of the reſt to be ſtruck off; without any Regard to publick Faith. Upon which Megabyſus, greatly offended, retir'd to Syria his Province where he rais'd an Army and rebell'd, Thucyd.
Cteſias.

ARTAXERXES ſent Oſiris at the Head of 200000 Men to ſuppreſs that Rebellion; but Megabyſus defeated him in Battel, wounded him and took him Priſoner and put all his Army to flight; yet at the Requeſt of ARTAXERXES he releas'd him and ſent him home; and next Year the Emperor ſent another Army thither commanded by Menaſtanes his Nephew, the Son of Artarius; who being totally routed by Megabyſus, the Emperor ſent his ſaid Brother Atarius, and his Siſter Amytis the Wife of Megabyſus, by whoſe Mediation the Difference was made up, Megabyſus was pardon'd and return'd in ſafety to Court. But the old Grudge in the King, upon the firſt ſlender Occaſion, ſhew'd itſelf moſt violently; for at Hunting, Megabyſus having in Zeal ſtruck at a Lyon ramping againſt the King, AR-
TAXERXES alledg'd It was Treaſon in him to ſtrike the Beaſt firſt or before him; and therefore order'd his Head to be ſtruck off; and his Wife Amytis and her Mother Hameſtris with much Difficulty prevail'd with the inrag'd abſolute King to get the Sentence chang'd to perpetual Baniſhment: and ſo he was ſent to Cyrta on the Red Sea, where he reſided about five Years.
Ezra continu'd till the End of this Year in the Government of Judah, reforming and ſetling the State and Church of the Jews according to the Law of Moſes, as may be ſeen at length well drawn forth in Dr. Prideaux's Connection.
Nehemiah the next Governor was one of the King's Cupbearers, a Native of Suſa, whoſe Forefathers were Inhabitants of Jeruſalem, which he calls the Place of his Father's Sepulchres; and he obtain'd a Commiſſion, by the Influence of Queen ESTHER, to be the Governor of Judah, and particularly to rebuild the Walls and Gates of Jeruſalem, which Nebuchadnezzar had demoliſh'd: ſo that tho' his Commiſſion did ſuperſede that of Ezra, yet under his Authority Ezra went on in his good Work as briſkly as before; becauſe Nehemiah tho' not ſo learned, was as hearty for the Reformation as Ezra. But how he rebuilt the Walls and Gates of Jeruſalem, like a good Architect, in about 52 Days with great Expedition; how he ſtruggled with falſe Prophets and Cowards within the City, and defended himſelf againſt San- ballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite, Geſhem the Arabian, the Samaritans, the Moabites, and all their Confederats the bitter and irreconcilable Enemies of this good Work, who expected to make a Prey of Judah, as formerly during the Captivity, if Jeruſalem ſhould not be fortify'd: how he eas'd the People of the exorbitant and illegal Burden of paying Uſury, about 12 per Cent. per Annum to their rich Brethren; how he ſetled the Government in the Hands of good Men, and then return'd to the King at Suſa according to Order; may be all ſeen in the Canonical Book call'd by his Name.

Nehemiah this next Year return'd with a new Commiſſion to Jeruſalem, and firſt ſet about the peopling of the City, obliging the great ones to build Houſes in it, whoſe Example was follow'd by other People; ſo that it ſoon recover'd its ancient Splendor; for ſome Time after this, Herodotus the Hiſtorian travell'd thro' Judah, and deſcribes it Lib. III. by the Name of Cadytis, comparing it to Sardis the great Metropolis of leſſer Aſia. 'Tis true his Hiſtory was approv'd at Athens the Year before, according to Euſebius; and Dionyſius Halicarnaſſæus, Pliny, Strabo and Diodorus Siculus mention his going this very Year (being the 310th Year of Rome according to the Varronian Reckonings, and 12 Years before the Peloponneſian War) with a Colony of Athenians into Italy to inhabit Thurium a City newly built where Sibaris formerly ſtood: from which it may ſeem, that he had finiſh'd his Travels for the compoſing of his Hiſtory. But it was only the firſt Draught of it that was approv'd at Athens the Year before, and it was not compleated till about 33 Years after; for Lib. VII. and IX. He mentions Affairs done in the ſecond and in the 19th Year of the Peloponneſian War about 33 Years after his Hiſtory was approv'd at Athens, when he was aged 39 Years only, tho' he liv'd 72 Years in all. For at Thurium he reviſ'd his Book, from which Pliny concludes that he compos'd it there: but from thence he travell'd into the Eaſt to enable him to complete it, and to gather Materials for another Book by him deſign'd about Aſſyria and Babylon, to which he refers in his firſt Book, tho' it is not extant; and in thoſe Travels he went thro' Judah and view'd Jeruſalem.

Nehemiah alſo purg'd the Jews of falſe Brethren, by reviſing and fixing their Genealogies, and order'd all Iſrael to come to Jeruſalem, and celebrate the Feaſt of Trumpets and the Feaſt of Tabernacles according to the Law of Moſes; which Law Ezra did then publickly read and explain to the People; and having now got many Copies of it tranſcrib'd, They ſent one to every City with a Levite to read and explain it to the Inhabitants at certain Times; for which end They ſoon erected Synagogues; for till now there were no ſuch Edifices. See Dr. Prideaux, ibid.

And now thro' all the known Earth there was profound Peace, as Diodorus Siculus affirms this Year. —— —— ——

Megabyſus now return'd from his Baniſhment, diſguis'd in the Habit of a Leper, to his Houſe at Suſa after five Years Abſence; and by the Interceſſion of his Wife was reconcil'd to ARTAXERXES, who receiv'd him again to his Table. The Samians and Mileſians began a War for the Town of Priene in Caria, to which they both had an equal Pretence; but the Samians refuſing to refer the Controverſy to the Athenians, theſe join'd the Mileſians and ſent Pericles with 40 Ships againſt Samos, which he ſoon reduc'd and changed their Government by Nobles into a popular Government. Thucyd. Diod. but after Pericles departed, the Nobles and their Party procur'd 700 Men from Piſſuthnes Governor of Sardis to join them and revive their Government; profeſſing themſelves the open Enemies of the Athenians: but theſe reduc'd them again by Pericles after a Siege of 9 Months. —— —— —— —— ——

Spartacus now became King of the Cimmerian Boſphorus in this 3d Year of Olympiad 85. Diod. —— —— —— ——

Seleucus ſucceeded Spartacus in the Kingdom of Boſphorus. —— —— —— —— —— ——

Nehemiah after he had govern'd Judah with great Honour, and at his own Coſt 21 Years, return'd this Year to the Perſian Court. Neh. and Meton the famous Athenian Aſtronomer, obſerv'd and fix'd the Summer Solſtice on the 21ſt Day of the Egyptian Month Phamenoth or 27th of June in the Morning: from which time the Greeks ever afterwards celebrated their Olympic Games, on the firſt full Moon after the 27th of June every fifth Year. And thus Meton invented and inſtituted the Cycle of the 19 Years, call'd Enneadecaeteris, which is the Circle of the MOON, beginning it on the 15th Day of July this Year, being the new Moon that firſt follow'd this Summer Solſtice, Ptolem. Mag. Synt. Lib. III. cap. 2. Diod. Sic.

This Cycle was us'd by the Chriſtians after the Council of Nice, in ſetling the time of Eaſter, and after them by the Jews in ſetling the time of their Paſſover.

The Peloponneſian War, between the Athenians and Lacedemonians, began the latter end of this Year, and laſted 27 Years, Thucyd.

Arceſilaus King of the Cyrenians was now by them ſlain, and They expell'd his Son: and ſo the Cyrenian Kingdom, after it had laſted 200 Years, is at an end. It had been rul'd by four of the Name of Battus, and four of the Name of Arceſilaus, alternatively ſucceeding each to other, Herodot. Lib. IV. cap. 163.

In the firſt Year of the Peloponneſian War, on the 3d of Auguſt at 5 a Clock after Noon, the SUN was eclipſ'd at Athens to ten Digits; ſo that the Stars were ſeen, Thucyd. Lib. II. Plutarch. in Pericle, Val. Max. Lib. VIII. cap. 2. and now three noble Hiſtorians flouriſh'd, viz. Hellanicus aged 65 Years, Herodotus aged 53, and Thucydides aged 40, Aul. Gell. Lib. XV. cap. 23. and Thucydides has given us an accurate Hiſtory of this War to the 21ſt Year of it.

About the ſame time a moſt horrid Peſtilence begun in Ethiopia, which overſpread all the known World. This Plague is mention'd by Thucydides, Lucretius, Hyppocrates the eminent Phyſician, who refus'd the great Offers of ARTAXERXES to come to Perſia, as his Townſmen in the Iſland Cos defy'd his Threatnings and would not deliver him up: but next Year the Plague reaching to Athens, Hippocrates went thither. —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— ——

Nehemiah having ſtaid at Suſa about five Years, obtain'd of the King to be ſent back to Jeruſalem with a new Commiſſion to reform many Abuſes which happen'd in his Abſence. See Prideaux: and about this Time Malachi propheſied; for he complains of ſome of theſe Abuſes. The firſt that Nehemiah reform'd was the Prophanation of the Temple; for Tobiah the Ammonite having married the Daughter of Shecaniah an eminent Jew, and having married his Son Johanan to the Daughter of Meſhullam, the Son of Berachiah another great Jew, held much Correſpondence at Jeruſalem, and in Nehemiah's Abſence, got Eliaſhib the High Prieſt to provide him Lodgings in the Temple, Neh. xiii. 4. but upon his Return, Nehemiah ejected Tobiah as an old inveterate Enemy, and ſetled the Affair of Matrimony among the Jews, oblig'd them to pay their Tithes punctually and to obſerve the Sabbath ſtrictly: and this Year Plato the Philoſopher was born.

In the firſt Year of the Peloponneſian War, the Plague again broke out at Athens; and much People being deſtroy'd by it, They made a Law for Bigamy or two Wives to every Man that would. Socrates the Philoſopher us'd firſt that Privilege then aged 43 Years, and was deſervedly plagu'd by a couple of vile Scolds, Athenæus, Lib. An Eclipſe of the SUN is mention'd by Thucydides, Lib. This is the XXIſt Year of JUBILEE, the laſt that the Prophets of the Old Teſtament ſaw; for we read of no Prophet after Malachi till JOHN the Baptiſt of whom he propheſied, Mal. iv. 5, 6. This JUBILEE was tranſacted in the 38th Year of Eliaſhib the High Prieſt the Father of Joiadah, the Father of Johanan, the Father of Jadduah or Jaddus, now an Infant and the Heir of the High Prieſthood; for he is mention'd Neb. xii. 22. as recorded in the Days of Eliaſhib among the Family of the High Prieſts; tho' Jadduah did not enter upon the Office till his Father Johanan died before Chriſt 342 about 73 Years after this Year. But after the Prophets, the Men of the Great SYNAGOGUE ſucceeded to direct the Jews, or the Sanhedrim.	9	122	121	333	334	2	4299	415	3589	1933	1506	1076	44
This Year Piſuthnes Governor of Lydia rebell'd againſt DARIUS, and ſet up for himſelf by the Help of the Greeks, but the King ſent Tiſſaphernes againſt him, who craftily drew the Greeks to his Side; upon which Piſuthnes ſurrender'd himſelf on promiſe of Pardon; but the King caſt him into Aſhes: tho' after his Death, his Son Amorgas continu'd in Arms about two Years till taken by the Peloponneſians and deliver'd to Tiſſaphernes, who put him to Death. DARIUS next put Artoxares to Death, the Chief of the Eunuchs for a Conſpiracy.	10	123	122	334	335	3	4300	414	3590	1934	1507	1077	45
But the greateſt Misfortune of DARIUS was the Revolt of Egypt this ſame Year, which he was never able to reduce; for Amyrtaeus the Saite finding the Egyptians weary of the Perſian Yoke, left his Fens, rais'd an Army, drove the Perſians out of the Country, and reign'd King of Egypt during ſix Years, Euſeb. Chron. Herodot. About this time alſo Diagoras the Melian was condemn'd at Athens for Atheiſm.
In this 19th Year of the Peloponneſian War, an Eclipſe of the MOON happen'd at Syracuſe on the 27th of Auguſt at ten a Clock after Noon; which ſo terrify'd Nicias the Athenian General, who was to draw off his Army from Syracuſe this Night, that ſlipping the Tide, he and his Army were cut off. And now ELIASHIB the High Prieſt of the Jews being dead after he had officiated 40 Years, he was ſuceeded by his Son Joiada this Year, who alſo officiated 40 Years.
Tiſſaphernes Governor of Lydia, and Pharnabazus of the Helleſpont, both crafty Men, made the beſt Advantage They could for their Maſter of the Peloponneſian War, ſometimes aiding the Athenians, and ſometimes the Lacedemonians; in order to keep a Ballance and to weaken both; till Cyrus came to be Governor of the Aſian Provinces.
In this 20th Year of the Peloponneſian War, it was carried on hotly, as may be ſeen in Thucyd. Lib. VIII. ——— ———	12	125	124	336	337	XCII. 1	4302	412	3592	1936	1509	1079	47
And next Year a League was made between the Lacedemonians and DARIUS: but the contending Grecians made ſtrange Havok upon each other both by Sea and Land, as Thucydides relates, whoſe curious Hiſtory ends here. See Diod. in An. 2. Olymp. 92. But while the Peloponneſian War was carried on,	13	126	125	337	338		4303	411	3593	1937	1510	1080	48

ARTAXERXES Longimanus.

And now the firſt ſeven WEEKS of Daniel's SEVENTY Weeks, end, being 49 Years; for the Reſtoration of the Church and State of the JEWS in Jeruſalem was completed by the laſt Act of Nehemiah's Reformation Ch. xiii. 23, &c. Juſt 49 Years after Ezra began it in the 7th Year of ARTAXERXES Longimanus. This Reformation was the Removal of all unlawful Marriages, which Corruption, after the mix'd Multitude had been expell'd, prevail'd among the People; nay, even in the ſacred Pontifical Houſe, which of all others ought to have been kept freeſt of impure Commixtures: for one of the Sons of Joiada the High Prieſt (call'd by Joſephus Manaſſeh) had married the Daughter of Sanballat the Horonite, whereby an ill Example was given. Therefore zealous NEHEMIAH exerted his utmoſt Power to reform this Enormity, and forc'd all the Jews, who had married ſtrange Wives, either to part with them or to depart the Country.

Upon which Manaſſeh unwilling to part with his Wife, departed with her to Samaria with all that were in his Circumſtances, and ſetled under the Protection of Sanballat his Father-in-law then Governor of theſe Parts. And DARIUS very likely coming into Paleſtine this Year, to give Directions for the War againſt the Egyptians, Sanballat obtain'd from him a Grant to build on Mount Gerizzim near Samaria a Temple like That of Jeruſalem, and to make Manaſſeh his Son-in-law the High Prieſt of it: They choſe that Mount, becauſe it had been long conſecrated by the Sacrifices and Altars of ABRAHAM and JACOB, and thought that God might be worſhip'd according to his own Moſaical Inſtitution, as well there as at Jeruſalem; for that Jeruſalem is never ſpoken of by Moſes, and is not the only Place in the Holy Land appointed for divine Service.

TABLE XXV.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Perſian MONARCHS, of the Jews, and of their CONTEMPORARIES from the 14th Year of DARIUS Nothus, A. M. 3594. To the Death of DARIUS Codomannus or the End of the PERSIAN Monarchy, or to the Beginning of the GRECIAN, A. M. 3674. during 80 Years.

DARIUS NOTHUS and ARTAXERXES Mnemon Kings of Perſia.

THE Temple of GERIZZIM or SAMARIA being founded by Sanballat, who made Manaſſeh the High Prieſt of it, Samaria now became the Aſylum of all Malecontent and refractory Jews, who, when call'd to Account, fled from Diſcipline to Samaria, where They found Reception: ſo that in time the greateſt Part of the Samaritans were made up of Jews; for the Cutheans and other Nations that had been planted there by Eſerhaddon, being now made Proſelytes to the Moſaical Religion, could not in ſome time be diſtinguiſh'd from the Jews; but being a mix'd People, were in general call'd Samaritans. But the Jews of Jeruſalem abhorr'd them more than the Heathen, curs'd them in the Name of Jehovah, would never eat nor drink, nor traffick, nor marry with them, and even declar'd They had no Portion in the Reſurrection of the Dead to eternal Life. This Oppoſition was known in the Time of Chriſt's Miniſtry, as we read in the Evangeliſts; for the Jews ſaid to Chriſt, Thou art a Samaritan and haſt a Devil!

When NEHEMIAH died, we know not: and after him, Judah had no peculiar Governor, but was annex'd to the Government of Syria, under whoſe Prefect the High Prieſt of Jeruſalem regulated all Affairs there. And now the Prophets and the Old Teſtament-Hiſtory are at an end, We muſt trace the Tranſactions of Providence thro' the Remains of other Hiſtories. About this time Sophocles died at Athens: and Dionyſius domineer'd in Sicily, Euſeb.

While DARIUS was engag'd in War againſt the Egyptians, the Medes revolted but were ſoon reduc'd. And

Next Year Amyrtaeus being dead, was ſucceeded in this new Throne of Egypt by NEPHERITES who reign'd 6 Years, ſays Euſebius, but Herodotus Lib. III. affirms, it was PAUSIRIS the Son of Amyrtæus, who ſucceeded by the Favour of the Perſians; which imports that the Perſians had again ſubdu'd Egypt and ſet up this Tributary King.

And now DARIUS, by the Influence of his Queen Paryſatis, ſent his younger Son Cyrus born by her, to Sardis as the ſupreme Governor of leſſer Aſia, tho' aged only about 16 Years, with a particular Charge to help the Lacedemonians againſt the Athenians; contrary to the wiſe Conduct of Tiſſaphernes, who was for keeping the Ballance between them.

Spartacus being dead, his Son Satyrus ſucceeded to be King of the Cimmerian Boſphorus, during 14 Years.

While Cyrus imprudently aſſiſts the Lacedemonians, and the Athenians grow weaker and weaker; an Eclipſe of the MOON is mention'd by Xenophon (Hellen. 1.) on the 15th of April about the third Hour after Sunſet; as is alſo prov'd by the Calculation of Aſtronomers.

CYRUS at Sardis put to Death two of his own Couſins, his Father's Siſter's Sons; only becauſe They did not wrap their Hands in their Sleeves at meeting him, as Men did when They met the King: upon complaint of their Parents, DARIUS recall'd him to Suſa, pretending Sickneſs and that he wanted to ſee him before he died. But before he took Journey, Cyrus gave ſuch large Sums to Lyſander the Lacedemonian General, as inabled him to pay, rig out and ſtrengthen his Fleet; whereby he gain'd the memorable Victory over the Athenians at the Goats River in the Helleſpont, and totally demoliſh'd the State of Athens: for They were not able to hinder him from ſubduing all their Cities and Countries, and at laſt Athens itſelf, which was this Year beſieged by the Lacedemonians. —— ——

The Athenians at laſt were forc'd to a Surrender, upon the hard Conditions of diſmantling their City, and giving up their Fleet; Alexius being then Archon at Athens, viz. on the 14th of April (according to Plutarch in the Life of Lyſander) whereby the Government of All Greece was veſted in the Lacedemonians, after They had contended for it, in a very ſharp War, full 27 Years, call'd the Peloponneſian War, curiouſly narrated by Thucydides and Xenophon. And ſoon after the End of this War

DARIUS Nothus died, after he had reign'd 19 Years and a few Months: for the End of that War and the Death of Darius happen'd in the Beginning of next Year, or in the firſt Year of his Succeſſor, viz.

10. ARTAXERXES Mnemon. Cyrus had reached Suſa before his Father's Death; and his fond Mother Paryſatis endeavour'd, tho' in vain, to get DARIUS to declare him Succeſſor; but he only got his former Government, the old King leaving the Crown to Arſaces his eldeſt Son, whom DARIUS adviſ'd on his Death-bed, to do all things juſt both towards God and Man! Arſaces took the Name of ARTAXERXES, and the Greeks call'd him MNEMON for his great Memory. He order'd Cyrus to be put to Death for conſpiring to murder him in the Temple of Paſargada, when he was to be inaugurated according to antient Cuſtom: but their Mother Paryſatis obtain'd his Pardon, and he was ſent to his Province; tho' he carried with him the ſame Ambition and traiterous Deſign. And this Year alſo the King was prevail'd upon by his Queen Statira to put Udiaſtes in her Power; and ſhe order'd his Tongue to be drawn out of his Neck till he died, for his having ſlain her Brother Teriteuchmes, as the whole tragical Story is related by Cteſias.

Xenophon Lib. II. Hellenicorum, informs us that this Year happen'd an Eclipſe of the SUN, which by Calculation of Aſtronomers muſt have been on the third of September in the Morning.

Alcibiades the brave Athenian General was unjuſtly put to Death, at the Requeſt of the Lacedemonians by Pharnabazus the Perſian Governor, who had come to him in order to go to Perſia, and to diſcover to the King the Deſigns of Cyrus againſt him, in employing ARTAXERXES Mnemon King of Perſia.

Clearchus the Lacedemonian to raiſe an Army of Greeks, on pretence to fight the Thracians, but really to dethrone ARTAXERXES: and in his Death ended all the Athenians Hopes of a Reſtauration.

Cyrus got over to him the Cities under Tiſſaphernes, wrote Letters againſt him to the King, and in ſhew to go to War againſt him, rais'd more Forces; nay, and got the Lacedemonians cunningly to order their Fleet to join that of his own, and to be directed by Tamus his Admiral.

About this time Iſocrates the Orator flouriſh'd, and Democritus the Philoſopher died, Euſeb.

CYRUS at laſt with 100000 Barbarians and 13000 valiant Greeks, paſs'd the Straits of Cilicia (which Sinneſis the King of Cilicia could not defend; becauſe Cyrus's Fleet diverted him) and bravely march'd to the Plains of Cunaxa in Babylon; and ARTAXERXES (being warn'd by Tiſſaphernes, who had gone to inform him of all) met him with an Army of 900000 Men, where the Matter came to a deciſive Battel, in which ARTAXERXES was wounded, but Cyrus was ſlain, juſt as the Greeks had almoſt got the Victory for him on the other Wing: but upon his Death the Perſians prevail'd; only the Greeks at ſuch a vaſt Diſtance from home, had no way of returning but by breaking thro' the Enemy and marching thro' their Country; which they reſolv'd upon next Day, and bravely accompliſh'd it thro' innumerable Difficulties, by the way of Paphlagonia; the longeſt and moſt famous Retreat that ever was made thro' an Enemy's Country, being 2325 Miles, till They got ſafe into Greece: as is deſcrib'd by Xenophon the Hiſtorian, who was alſo their General and conducted the whole Retreat; Clearchus having been cut off in the Beginning of this War. See Diod. in An. 4. Olymp. 94. Iſocrat. in Panegyrico.

ARTAXERXES rewarded Tiſſaphernes with the Government of Cyrus, and gave him his Daughter in Marriage: but the King did ill in letting his Mother Paryſatis cruelly torment to Death all that had any hand in the Death of her belov'd Cyrus: Nay, ſhe poiſon'd his dear Queen Statira, for an old Grudge, by poiſoning a Knife on one ſide, with which a rare Bird was cut in two at Supper; and that Part of the Fowl which touch'd the poiſon'd ſide of the Knife being given to Statira, ſhe died in a few Hours. 'Tis true, upon the Diſcovery, the King baniſh'd Paryſatis to Babylon; but in ſome Years he permitted her to return to Court, and ſhe never more croſs'd him in any thing, Cteſias, Plutarch. in Artax.

This Year Nepherites being dead, ACHORIS ſucceeded to be King of Egypt during 12 Years, Euſeb. call'd PSAMMITICHUS by Diod. Lib. XIV.

Tiſſaphernes now ſetled in his Government, began to bear hard upon the Grecian Cities in Aſia, who pray'd the Protection of the Lacedemonians; and They ſent Thimbro with an Army againſt Tiſſaphernes: but obſerving no Diſcipline and diſtreſſing thoſe he came to protect, He was recall'd and baniſh'd; and They ſent Dercyllidas the famous Ingineer, who prudently making Peace with Tiſſaphernes, march'd againſt Pharnabazus, took ſeveral Cities from him, forc'd him to a Peace upon good Terms and winter'd in Bithynia, Diod.

Conon, one of the Athenian Generals, had fled out of the Battel of the Goats River (when he ſaw the Cauſe loſt) with 9 Ships, ſent one to Athens with the bad News, and ſail'd with the reſt to Cyprus; where he was well entertain'd by EVAGORAS King of Salamin; with whom ARTAXERXES was then at Enmity, for having expell'd Abdymon the Perſian Governor of Salamin, and reigning in his ſtead. About this time, Conon, by his old Friend Cteſias, obtain'd Peace from ARTAXERXES for Evagoras. This Cteſias had been Phyſician to Cyrus, and after the Battel of Cunaxa, had cur'd ARTAXERXES of his Wounds, and was therefore retain'd at Court as chief Phyſician for 17 Years; during which time, having inform'd himſelf of the Hiſtories of thoſe Countries, he digeſted them into 23 Books; the ſix firſt containing an Account of the Empire of the Aſſyrians and Babylonians, from NINUS and SEMIRAMIS to the Grand CYRUS, and the other 17 Books were of the Perſian Affairs from the Beginning of CYRUS to the 3d Year of the 95th Olympiad, (which is the next Year) as Diodorus tells us it ended. He wrote alſo an Hiſtory of India: of both which we have only ſome Extracts written by Photius; in which Cteſias often contradicts Herodotus, and differs in ſome things from Xenophon: Ariſtotle and Plutarch count him fabulous; but Diodorus Siculus and Trogus Pompeius have follow'd him.

Socrates the famous Philoſopher now 70 Years old, was this Year put to Death by the Athenians for contemning their Gods, and died a Martyr to the Being of one God only: of which They afterwards repented and put to Death all his Proſecutors, Laert. in Socrat. Plato in Socrat. Diod. Lib. XIV. Stanley's Hiſtory of Philoſophy Part III.

Dercyllidas, after he had made a Truce with Pharnabazus, march'd his Army from Bithynia to the Thracian Cherſoneſus, where he built a Wall at the Iſthmus, which included Eleven Grecian Cities to ſecure them from the Inroads of the Thracian Free-Booters. But Pharnabazus went to Suſa and accus'd Tiſſaphernes for making a ſcandalous Peace with Dercyllidas, and adviſ'd the King to equip a great Fleet, and to give the Command of it to CONON the Athenian, in order to ſecure Aſia and to curb the Lacedemonians; which was order'd forthwith.

Dercyllidas, after he had reduc'd Atarna, march'd into Caria, where he was drove to great Straits by the joint Armies of Tiſſaphernes and Pharnabazus; but eſcap'd by the Cowardice of Tiſſaphernes, who rather choſe a Truce than a Battel, contrary to the Opinion of Pharnabazus.

One Herod a Syracuſian, being in Phenicia, obſerv'd the vaſt naval Preparations there, and went in the firſt Ship to Greece to inform the Lacedemonians, who immediately, by the Advice of Lyſander, ſent AGESILAUS one of their Kings to Epheſus, with 10000 Foot and 4000 Horſe; and took the Field, in order to make a Diverſion, before the Perſians knew of his Arrival: upon which Tiſſaphernes pray'd

a Truce

Continuation of TABLE XXV.

ARTAXERXES Mnemon King of Perſia.

a Truce and obtain'd it; tho' with a View only to gain time: for when he had got his Auxiliaries he broke the Truce, and threatn'd War againſt Ageſilaus, unleſs he forthwith departed. But Ageſilaus nothing daunted, march'd into Phrygia, and returning into Ionia with great Spoils winter'd at Epheſus.

The Lacedemonians now ſent to the King of Egypt (call'd by Diodorus NEPHEREUS the Succeſſor of Pſammitichus, who is ſaid to reign 6 Years, call'd by Juſtin and Oroſius HERCINION, but according to Euſebius it was ACHORIS) to ſollicite his Aid againſt the Perſians, who ſent them 100 Gallies and 600000 Buſhels of Corn: while Pharax the Lacedemonian Admiral with 120 Sail beſieged Conon, who had 40 Sail at Caunus in Caria: but the Perſian Army reliev'd him and forc'd Pharax to retire; and Conon getting a Fleet of 80 Ships ſail'd to the Doric Cherſoneſus, but was ſoon recall'd by the Rhodians, who being weary of the Inſolence of the Lacedemonians, drove them thence and came under his Protection; and the Ships with the Corn from Egypt, not knowing of it, put in at Rhodes and were all ſeiz'd by Conon, whereby that City and his Fleet were well ſtor'd; and 90 Ships from Phenicia joining him, He was able to do any thing if he had not been hinder'd by a Mutiny of his Soldiers for want of pay.

Mean while, AGESILAUS, finding the Horſe of Tiſſaphernes without the Foot, attack'd and beat them in Lydia, and became Maſter of the Field: and Conon going to Suſa and accuſing Tiſſaphernes of not remitting Money to pay his Soldiers, the King was ſo inrag'd that he ſent Tithrauſtes to take the Government of leſſer Aſia, and to ſend him the Head of Tiſſaphernes. Tithrauſtes offer'd to reſtore Liberty to the Grecian Cities in Aſia, and made Ageſilaus quiet by a Preſent of 30 Talents. The Lacedemonians now ſent him a new Commiſſion of Generaliſſimo by Sea and Land; and He made Piſander his Wife's Brother Admiral of the Fleet, while he himſelf march'd into Phrygia, and then into Paphlagonia, by the Invitation of Spithridates a Perſian Revolter, where he made a League with King COTYS; and returning into Phrygia he winter'd in the Palace of PHARNABAZUS at Daſcylium. But Tithrauſtes brib'd Thebes, Athens, Argus and Corinth and other Cities of Greece to confederate againſt the Lacedemonians, in order to draw Ageſilaus out of Aſia and furniſh him Work at home.

And ſo the Lacedemonians were oblig'd to ſend for Ageſilaus, while he had made Peace with Pharnabazus, and deſign'd to march into the Heart of the Perſian Empire; complaining at his Departure that the Perſian Darics had drove him thence, Plutarch. Xenoph.

But Conon returning with Money, equipt the Fleet, took Pharnabazus aboard, ſail'd to Cnidus, where he totally beat the Lacedemonian Fleet: in which Battel Piſander was ſlain and 50 Ships were taken, and by which the Empire of the Lacedemonians in thoſe Parts ended, Xenoph. for now Conon and Pharnabazus took in all the Cities of the Lacedemonians in the Iſles and Sea Coaſts of Aſia, except Seſtus and Abydus in the Helleſpont.

Next Year Conon and Pharnabazus ſail'd and took in the Iſland Melos, and from thence invaded Laconia the Country of the Lacedemonians, which They harraſs'd and ſpoil'd. But when Pharnabazus return'd home, Conon obtain'd of him 80 Ships and 50 Talents to go and rebuild the Walls of Athens, in order to its being again the Rival of Lacedemon; which he effected with great Dexterity and Expedition, and reſtor'd that City to its priſtine State, giving the Money among his fellow Citizens, and ſo became the ſecond Founder of Athens. Upon which the Lacedemonians ſent Antalcidas their Ambaſſador to Tiribazus the Perſian Governor at Sardis, while the Confederates ſent alſo their Ambaſſadors thither, among whom was Conon from Athens: Antalcidas offer'd to the King all the Grecian Cities of Aſia, which the others oppoſing, the Treaty was ineffectual. Therefore the Lacedemonians ſpitefully accus'd Conon of purloining the King's Money in building of Athens, and of deſigning to take Æolis and Ionia from the Perſians to be again Subject to Athens: which Tiribazus believing, clapt the brave CONON in Chains, went to Suſa and acquainted the King of it, who ſent for Conon and there put him to Death, a Martyr for his Country! Iſocrat. but Æmilius Probus and Dinon write that He eſcap'd and got home.

Satyrus being dead, LEUCUS his Son ſucceeded to be King of the Cimmerian Boſphorus, during 40 Years, Diod. in An. 4. Olymp. 96.

While Tiribazus was at Court, the King ſent Struthus to take Care of the Sea Coaſts of leſſer Aſia; where finding the Havok made by the Lacedemonians, he abhorr'd them, and ſo became a Friend of the Athenians: upon which the Lacedemonians ſent Thymbro into Aſia; but the Perſians cut him off and diſſipated his Forces. Then They ſent Dephridas and others, but to no Purpoſe; for They never proſper'd after the Battel of Cnidus: ſo that at laſt they were forc'd to give up all in Aſia by a Peace diſhonourable to Greece.

ARTAXERXES, being now almoſt free from the Grecian War, turn'd his whole Power againſt EVAGORAS King of Salamin, who had made himſelf Maſter of almoſt all Cyprus except the Amathuſians, the Solians and the Citians, whom ARTAXERXES aſſiſted with 50000 Talents, or 10000000 Millions Sterling, Iſocrat.

The Athenians being formerly oblig'd to EVAGORAS, and reſenting the Death of Conon, equip'd ten Ships of War, and ſent them to his Aſſiſtance under the Command of Philocrates; but They were all taken by the Lacedemonian Fleet at Rhodes: thus the Enemies of the Perſians deſtroy'd thoſe that were engaged againſt the Perſians, Xenoph.

ACHORIS ſucceeded Pſammitichus in the Kingdom of Egypt, and reign'd 13 Years according to Diodorus, Lib. XV. —— ——

But according to Euſebius this Year PSAMMITES ſucceeded Achoris for one Year, and NEPHERITES for four Months.

Plato is now acknowledg'd a Philoſopher.

ARTAXERXES Mnemon King of Perſia.

EVAGORAS drew the King of Egypt and the Barceans in Lybia, into his Alliance againſt the Perſians. Mean while

The Athenians again ſent another Fleet under Chabrias and many Land Forces to EVAGORAS, by whoſe Help he reduc'd the whole Iſland, and the Lacedemonians ſent Antalcidas to the Perſian Court to make Peace with ARTAXERXES, who readily accepted of the Terms, viz. That all the Grecian Cities in Aſia, with the Iſlands of Clazomenæ and Cyprus, ſhould belong to him; but that all the other Cities of Greece and the Iſlands ſhould be free and govern'd by their own Laws, except the Iſlands of Scyrus and Imbrus which were to be under the Athenians. This Peace, however diſhonourable to Greece, was comply'd with for a while, becauſe They had no Remedy. It was call'd the Peace of Antalcidas, and made in the ſame Year that Rome was taken by the Gauls, as Polybius, Trogus Pompeius, Diodorus and Strabo tell us, which according to our Chronology was 121 Years after the Flight of King Tarquinius Superbus from Rome, mention'd Page 104. and in the ſame Year that Nectanebis ſucceeded to be King of Egypt according to Euſebius, who reign'd 18 Years; tho' according to Diodorus, This was the 3d Year of ACHORIS.

And now the Athenians were forc'd to recal Chabrias, and ARTAXERXES ſent 300 Sail under Gaus, and 300000 Men under Orontes one of his Sons-in-law; and both under the Direction of Tiribazus as Generaliſſimo, againſt EVAGORAS: They landed in Cyprus; but tho' EVAGORAS foil'd them by Land, They beat him at laſt by Sea, and then ſhut him up in Salamin, which They beſieg'd; but he got out in the Night with ten Ships, and leaving his Son Protagoras in Salamin, he ſail'd to Egypt to engage King ACHORIS in his Cauſe: but failing of that Deſign, he return'd and enter'd Salamin in the Night.

EVAGORAS finding himſelf thus diſtreſs'd, offer'd to treat of Peace with Tiribazus, who would allow him no Terms, but to ſurrender all except Salamin, and to hold that of ARTAXERXES as a Servant of his Lord; tho' EVAGORAS was willing to hold it as a King under a King: and ſo refuſing thoſe Terms, the Siege was carried on by Sea and Land, till Orontes quarrell'd with Tiribazus, got the ſole Command and comply'd with the Terms of EVAGORAS, who thus became a Tributary of Artaxerxes. But Gaus the Son-in-law of Tiribazus now revolted, and carried away a great Part of the Fleet and Army to Greece; offering to join againſt the Perſians with the Lacedemonians, who readily accepted of the Offer, being now weary of the Peace of Antalcidas.

ARTAXERXES having thus finiſh'd the Cyprian War, now led an Army of 300000 Men againſt the Caduſians, where they had been ſtarv'd for want of Proviſions in that barren Country, but for the Art of Tiribazus (tho then no better than a Priſoner) who decoy'd the two Kings of that Country to ſubmit ſeparately to Artaxerxes; tho' he loſt a great many Men, among whom was the brave Camiſſares Governor of Leuco-Syria, to whoſe brave Son Datames the King gave his late Father's Government. Upon his Return to Suſa, the King gave Tiribazus a fair Hearing, who prov'd his Innocence, and Orontes was baniſh'd the Court.

The Admiral Gaus being treacherouſly ſlain, and his Succeſſor Tachas dying ſoon, the new Project of the Lacedemonians came to nothing; and They never more medled in the Affairs of Aſia.

A little Eclipſe of the MOON was obſerv'd at Babylon on the 26th of Thoth (or 23d of December) 5 Hours and an half after Midnight, Pharnoſtratus being Archon of Athens: and on the 24th of Phamenoth (or 18th of June) 5 Hours and an half before Midnight, another Eclipſe of the MOON was obſerv'd at Babylon. See Hipparchus in Ptolomæi Magna Syntaxi, Lib. IV. cap ult. but next Year, Evander being Archon of Athens, on the 16th of Thoth (or 12th of December) 2 Hours and an half before Midnight, a Third and Total Eclipſe of the MOON was obſerv'd at Babylon. Idem Ibidem.

ARTAXERXES was now at Leiſure to reſolve upon the reducing of the Egyptians, who had revolted from Perſia now 36 Years: Pharnabazus having the Care of this War, oblig'd the Athenians to recal Chabrias from the King of Egypt (who had got him to be his General) and to ſend Iphicrates to head the Perſian Army, who became famous for his Inſtructions in the military Art. But the Egyptian War did not begin yet.

This Year Mauſolus, the Son of Hecatomnus, ſucceeded his Father in the Kingdom of Caria, whoſe Wife was the famous Artemiſia, and reign'd 24 Years.

Archbiſhop Uſher and Doctor Prideaux affirm, that ACHORIS King of Egypt died this Year, and was ſucceeded by PSAMMUTHIS for one Year, and that next Year NEPHERITES the laſt of the Mendeſian Race ſucceeded PSAMMUTHIS four Months; and that after him NECTENEBIS, the firſt of the Sebennite Race, began to reign during 12 Years, for which Dr. Prideaux quotes Euſebius: whereas according to the Chronicle of Euſebius, This was the 13th Year of the Reign of NECTENEBIS, as above noted.

ARTAXERXES now confirm'd the Peace of Antalcidas, which all Greece comply'd with except the Thebans, who now deſign'd to rule over all Greece: and having got good Auxiliaries from Greece, He order'd a Rendezvous of his Army at Ace in Paleſtine (afterwards call'd Ptolemais and now Acon) viz. 200000 Perſians under Pharnabazus, and 20000 Greeks under Iphicrates; and his Fleet conſiſted of 300 Gallies, and 200 other Ships, beſides Victuallers and Tenders. And ſo the Army march'd to Peluſium, and the Fleet ſail'd along the Coaſt. But NECTENEBIS had ſo provided that City, that the Enemy could not come at it by Sea nor by Land. Then the Fleet ſail'd to the Mendeſian Mouth of the Nile, where They eaſily landed: upon which Iphicrates wiſely adviſ'd to order them to ſail up to Memphis, while he offer'd to attack it by Land; but Pharnabazus not having all his Army come up, and envying Iphicrates that Honour, would not conſent; and ſo this great and expenſive Expedition miſcarried: for NECTENEBIS gather'd ſufficient Forces to harraſs the Perſians till the Swelling of the Nile in its Seaſon prevented their Approach to Memphis, and having loſt a great Part of their Army, the Perſians were forc'd to retreat to Phenicia. But Iphicrates remembring Conon's Fate, went aboard of a Ship and got ſafe to Athens.

EVAGORAS King of Salamin was murder'd by one of his Eunuchs, and NICOCLES his Son ſucceeded in the Throne, the ſame for whom Iſocrates compos'd two of his Orations. And now Joiada the High Prieſt of Jeruſalem being dead, his Son
JOHANAN, call'd alſo Jonathan, ſucceeded him in that Office and held it 32 Years. —— —— —— ——	32	164	163	375	376		4	4341	373	3631	1975	1548	1118	86
The Thebans, not agreeing to the Peace of Antalcidas, fell upon the Lacedemonians whom They routed in the Battel of Leuctra, under the Direction of EPAMINONDAS, ſlaying Cleombrotus one of their Kings and 4000 Citizens of Lacedemon, the greateſt Loſs They had receiv'd in many Ages; for the Thebans purſuing their Victory came into Laconia and laid Siege to Lacedemon, which was difficultly preſerv'd from falling into their Hands.	34	166	165	377	378	CII.	2	4343	371	3633	1977	1550	1120	88
Upon which the Lacedemonians ſent Ageſilaus into Egypt, and Antalcidas to the Perſian Court to ſollicite Succours: but Antalcidas not ſucceeding, broke his Heart and ſtarv'd himſelf to Death, Plutarch in Ageſilao & Artaxerxe.	35	167	166	378	379		3	4344	370	3634	1978	1551	1121	89
However, ARTAXERXES ſent Philiſcus to compound the Differences of Greece, who finding the Thebans too high in their Demands ſent 2000 Auxiliaries to the Aſſiſtance of the Lacedemonians and ſo return'd.	36	168	167	379	380		4	4345	369	3635	1979	1552	1122	90
Nectenebis King of Egypt being Dead, was ſucceeded by Theo who reign'd 2 Years, Euſeb.
The Thebans ſent to ARTAXERXES their Ambaſſadors, as did alſo Athens and the other Cities of Greece, by whom the King ſent Letters, charging the Lacedemonians to let Meſſena be a free City, which was the Cauſe of their War with the Thebans: but when the Cities of Greece met by their Delegates, They would not comply with the King's Order; and ARTAXERXES could not at this time execute his Threatnings.	37	169	168	380	381	CIII.	1	4346	368	3636	1980	1553	1123	91

ARTAXERXES ſent another Embaſſy to the Greeks, whereby he prevail'd to make them ceaſe from War, tho' not to ſubſcribe to his Terms, Diod.	39	171	170	382	383		3	4348	366	3638	1982	1555	1125	93
About this time Jeſhuah the Brother of JOHANAN the High Prieſt of Jeruſalem, having obtain'd a Grant of the High Prieſthood from Bagozes the Perſian Governor of Syria and Phenicia, came with it to depoſe his Brother, and to take Poſſeſſion of the Office, which occaſion'd a Battel in the Inner Court of the Temple in which Johanan ſlew Jeſhuah, whereby the Holy Place was profaned. This drew Bagozes to Jeruſalem, who in ſpite of the Jews enter'd into the Holy Place, and finding the Fact to be true, He impos'd a Mulct on the Temple, to pay out of the publick Treaſury 50 Drachms for every Lamb ſacrifis'd, which might amount to above 2000 Pounds per Annum, which was exacted for about 7 Years while he was Governor, *Joſeph. This fell out in the XXIIth Year of JUBILEE.
EUDOXUS the Philoſopher now flouriſh'd with PLATO.
CLEARCHUS now treacherouſly obtain'd the Kingdom of Heraclea in Pontus, and cruelly reign'd there during 12 Years, viz.
A new War breaking out in Greece between the Arcadians and Æolians, the one Party was aſſiſted by the Thebans under EPAMINONDAS, and the other by the Lacedemonians and Athenians under AGESILAUS, which produc'd the famous Battel of Mantinea, where the Lacedemonians were defeated; but the Thebans loſt more by the Death of EPAMINONDAS; for with him expir'd the Vigour of their State that never after flouriſh'd. Upon which all the Grecian States came to a general Peace, and reſtor'd the Meſſenians to their Liberty.	42	174	173	385	386		2	4351	363	3641	1985	1558	1128	96
MITHRIDATES King of Pontus being dead, ARTAXERXES appointed Ariobarzanes Governor of Phrygia to mount the Throne, where he reign'd 26 Years, Diod.
Uſher and Prideaux agree, that after the Death of Nectanebus, TACHOS ſucceeded this Year in the Throne of Egypt, ſo call'd by Polyænus, Lib. VII. Stratagem: and Thamus by Ariſtotle, Lib. II. Oeconomic. and by Julius Africanus he is call'd TAOS and TEOS. See alſo Corn. Nep. Plutarch in Ageſilao, Diod. Lib. XV. and He is ſaid to reign two Years. But according to Euſebius, This is the 3d Year of King NECTANEBUS, as above noted. Thoſe other Hiſtorians relate how TACHOS got AGESILAUS, with an Army of Lacedemonians, to aſſiſt him againſt the Perſians; how Tachos deſpis'd Ageſilaus for his mean Appearance; for which he join'd with thoſe Egyptians that revolted from Tachos, and ſet up his Kinſman NECTANEBUS: how another Pretender got 100000 Men to aſſiſt him and ſhut up Nectanebus: how AGESILAUS by his Prudence and Valour went forth and defeated the Beſiegers, and having ſetled NECTANEBUS in the Throne, he ſet ſail for Lacedemon, but by contrary Winds was driven into Africa, where he died aged 84 Years. This Year Dionyſius the Son of CLEARCHUS King of Heraclea was born; for he liv'd 55 Years, Athenæus, Lib. And now the Sons of ARTAXERXES began to quarrel about the Succeſſion; for he had 115 Sons by his Concubines, and 3 by the Queen, viz. Darius, Ariaſpes and Ochus. ARTAXERXES declar'd DARIUS his Succeſſor, allow'd him the Name of King and the Royal Tiara, but joining with Tiribazus in a Conſpiracy to cut off his Father, he was diſcover'd and with all his Accomplices was cut off.	45	177	176	383	389	CV.	1	4354	360	3644	1988	1561	1131	99
ARIASPES was next Heir, but his Brother Ochus terrify'd him ſo by falſe Threatnings as if ſent by his Father, that the credulous Prince fearing to meet with his Brother Darius's Fate, poiſon'd himſelf to avoid it. And OCHUS having no Rival but ARSAMES, who, tho' the	46	178	177	389	390		2	4355	359	3645	1989	1562	1132	100

Ochus King of Perſia.

Son of a Concubine, was greatly belov'd of his Royal Father for his rare Endowments: therefore Ochus got Harpates the Son of Tiribazus to aſſaſſinate him. This Loſs added to the former, broke the old King's Heart and he died of Grief, aged 94 Years; and Ochus dealt with the Eunuchs to conceal his Father's Death about ten Months, acting in his Name and ſending a Decree to proclaim Ochus King and Succeſſor thro' all the Empire; when he publiſh'd his Father's Death, openly aſcended the Throne, and took the Name of Artaxerxes; but he is beſt known in Hiſtory by the Name of

II. Ochus, who ſoon found himſelf miſtaken; for immediately all the leſſer Aſia, Syria and Phenicia revolted; and if They had been true to one another, They had ruin'd the Perſian Empire; but Orontes and Rheomithres their Chiefs betray'd the others, and ſo this King ſoon was more firmly ſetled in the Throne than he deſerv'd; and to prevent any Rivals, he cruelly put to Death all the Royal Family, without Regard to Sex or Age or nearneſs of Blood, and all the Nobles that were not well affected towards him. See Cteſias, Plutarch in Artaxerxe,

About the Middle of Summer this Year, Alexander the Great was born at Pella in Macedonia to his Father King Philip: upon which the Magians at Epheſus cry'd out aſtoniſh'd, That this Day the great Plague and Deſtruction of Aſia was born. And on the ſame Day the Temple of Diana at Epheſus was burnt by one, only for the ſake of being talk'd of. It was the moſt glorious Building among the Heathens for curious Architecture, being reckon'd one of the ſeven Wonders of Art. Artabazus now revolted in leſſer Aſia, and was aſſiſted by the Athenians, and beat the King's Army; nay, after the Athenians deſerted him, the Thebans aſſiſted him to gain another Victory.

Leuco King of the Cimmerian Boſphorus being dead, his Son Spartacus ſucceeded during 5 Years, Diod. ad An. 3 Olymp. 106.

And now Mausolus King of Caria died, for which his Wife and Siſter too Artemisia mourn'd exceedingly, and built a Monument for him at Halicarnaſſus, that was reckon'd one of the ſeven Wonders of Art, from which all fine Monuments are ſtill call'd Mauſoleums.
She reign'd near three Years, till ſhe kill'd herſelf by Grief, and was ſucceeded by Idrieus her Brother, who had married Ada his Siſter.

The Sidonians and other Phenicians now revolted, by the Inſtigation of the King of Egypt, who ſent Mentor the Rhodian with 4000 Greeks, who drove the Perſians out of Phenicia. The Cyprians alſo revolted under Evagoras the Son of Nicocles, (who had been expell'd by his Unkle Protagoras from Salamin) and the 9 Kings of the 9 Cities of that Iſland. But Ochus being reſolv'd to reduce Egypt in Perſon, march'd an Army of 300000 Foot and 30000 Horſe towards Sydon the high Road to Egypt; upon which Mentor and Teunes
King of Sidon betray'd the City into his Hands: but the inrag'd People ſet Fire to their Houſes, and 40000 Men, beſides Women and Children, periſh'd in the Flames; and Ochus caus'd King Teunes to be put to Death. This terrible Overthrow of Sidon frightned the other Phenicians into a Submiſſion; but he took Jericho and captivated many Jews, whom he planted in Hyrcania on the Caſpian Sea. Ochus alſo redreſs'd the Grievances of the Cyprian Kings, and confirm'd them in their Tenures. And now being join'd by 10000 Greeks, Ochus march'd from Phenicia down to Egypt and encamp'd near Peluſium, which he beſieg'd by one Detachment, and by other two, He penetrated into Egypt, got the People to deſert Nectanebus their King, who gather'd all the Treaſure he could, fled to Ethiopia and was never more heard of; the laſt Egyptian that ever reign'd in Egypt. Here Manetho endeth his Commentaries of the Egyptian Affairs, an Epitome of which is preſerv'd in Syncellus.

Continuation of TABLE XXV.

Ochus and Arses King of Persia.

Ochus made Pherendates Governor of Egypt, and return'd in Triumph to Babylon loaded with Spoils and Glory; and rewarded well his Auxiliaries, eſpecially the brave Mentor, with many rich Preſents and the Government of leſſer Aſia, who had Intereſt enough to reconcile to Ochus his Brother Memnon and Artabazus his Brother-in-law, and brought them back to Court from Macedonia; whither They had fled to be ſhelter'd by King Philip the Father of Alexander the Great.

Plato the famous Head of the Old Academy of Philoſophers at Athens, died this Year, and was ſucceeded by Speuſippus, Laert. in Platone.

Ariſtotle upon his Maſter Plato's Death, went to Hermias King of Atarna in leſſer Aſia, married his Niece, and liv'd with him three Years; where he improv'd much by the Converſation of a learn'd Jew, Laert. in Ariſtot. Joſeph. Lib. I. contra Appion.

Ochus, now free from Wars, gave himſelf wholly up to Eaſe and Luxury, leaving all Management to Bogoas in upper Asia, and to Mentor in lower Asia, Diod.

Satyrus King of Heraclea in Pontus dying this Year, left all to Timotheus the eldeſt Son of Clearchus, who immediately made his Brother Dionysius his Partner, Memnon in Excerptis, cap. 3.

Mentor decoy'd Hermias King of Atarna into his Clutches, and ſent him Priſoner to the Perſian Court, where Ochus put him to Death. Upon which the two Philoſophers Ariſtotle and Xenocrates the Chalcedonian, fled out of the Reach of the Perſians; Ariſtotle retir'd to Mytelene, and from thence to the Court of Philip King of Macedon; where he became the Preceptor of Alexander the Great, now aged about 12 Years, where he ſtaid about 8 Years.

Idrieus King of Caria died, and was ſucceeded by his Wife and Siſter Ada, who rul'd four Years, Diod. ad An. 1. Olymp. 109.

Johanan the High Prieſt of Jeruſalem died, after he had rul'd 32 Years, and was ſucceeded by his Son Jadduah or Jaddus, who held it 20 Years.

Pexodarus the youngeſt Son of Hecatomnus, expell'd his Siſter Ada and became King of Caria, during five Years, and made Orontabates the Perſian his Partner, and gave him in Marriage his Daughter Ada, born by Aphneides a Cappadocian Lady, Philip King of Macedon now laid cloſe Siege to Perinthus, a City of Thrace at the Propontis; but it was reliev'd by the Perſians, which Alexander the Great afterwards pleaded, as one of the Cauſes of his invading Aſia in his Letter to Darius, Arrian. Lib. I.

At laſt Ochus after he had reign'd 21 Years, was poiſon'd by his Favourite Bagoas the Eunuch, the Governor of upper Aſia, an Egyptian by Birth; in Revenge of his Country's Ruin, and of Ochus's ſacrifiſing their God Apis to an Aſs, and dreſſing his Fleſh to be eaten by his Attendants: therefore, Bagoas having caus'd another Body inſtead of the King's to be ſolemnly buried, He cut the true Carcaſs of the King in Bits to be eaten by Cats; and made of his Bones Handles for Swords, Ptol. Can. Diod. Ælian Lib. VI. cap. 8.

And Bagoas murder'd all the Royal Seed, except the King's youngeſt Son Arses, whom he ſet on the Throne, Diod.

Timotheus King of Heraclea died with an excellent Character, and was honourably buried by his Brother and Succeſſor Dionysius Memnon in Excerpt. cap. 4.

12. Arses had only the Name of King; for Bagoas rul'd all. And this Year Philip King of Macedon having routed the Athenians and Thebans in the Battel of Chæronea, call'd an Aſſembly of the Grecian Cities and States at Corinth, where he caus'd himſelf to be choſen Captain General of all Greece, for a War againſt the Perſians, Diod. Juſtin.

Ariobarzanes, after he had reign'd in Pontus 26 Years, died: to whom Mithridates ſucceeded and reign'd 35 Years, Id. Ibid.

King Philip had ſent Parmenio, Amyntas and Attalus his three chief Captains, into Aſia, to begin the War againſt the Perſians, on the Pretence of reſtoring the Grecian Cities of Aſia to their Liberty, and was preparing to follow them with an Army, as ſoon as he had celebrated the Marriage of his Daughter Cleopatra with Alexander King of Epirus; but as he paſs'd in great Pomp to the Theatre to finiſh the Solemnity of the Marriage, he was publickly ſlain by Pauſanias a young Nobleman of his Guards, for not doing Juſtice on his Favourite Attalus, who had abus'd Pauſanias.

Bagoas fearing that Arses knew his Villanies, and would avenge him juſtly, was beforehand with the King and cut him off with all his Family, much about the time of King Philip's Death; for Diodorus makes the Death of Philip in this Year: when he was immediately ſucceeded in the Throne of Macedon, by his brave Son Alexander now juſt 20 Years old. And about the ſame time Bagoas the Eunuch plac'd in the Throne of Perſia Codomannus; who tho' not the Son of a King, yet of the Royal Family deſcended from Darius Nothus, whoſe Son Oſtanes (kill'd by King Ochus) had a Son call'd Arſanes, who having married Syſigambis his own Siſter, ſhe bore to him this Codomannus, who eſcap'd the uſual Slaughters of the Royal Family; was at firſt only Poſt-Maſter-General under King Ochus; but afterwards, for bravely ſlaying the Caduſian Champion in Combat, that had defy'd the whole Perſian Army, was by Ochus rewarded with the Government of Armenia; and by the Means of Bagoas now advanc'd to be Emperor of Perſia, taking to himſelf the Name of DARIUS CODOMANNUS the laſt King of Perſia.

13. DARIUS III. but Bagoas, not finding him for his Purpoſe, deſign'd to diſpatch him by a Cup of Poiſon; of which the King being inform'd, he caus'd Bagoas himſelf to drink it; and ſo he died unlamented, Plutarch. in Artax. Diod. Q. Curtius. This King was preparing for a War againſt the Greeks as King PHILIP died, and being a valiant Man, had reduc'd them under the Perſian Yoke, if God had not fore-ordain'd him to be the laſt Perſian MONARCH, and ALEXANDER to be Founder of the third univerſal Monarchy, againſt whom nothing could ſtand: for before DARIUS was ſcarce warm in his Throne,

ALEXANDER the 24th King of Macedon, call'd the General Council of all Greece to Corinth, where he got himſelf choſen his Father's Succeſſor as Imperator of the Army againſt Perſia, by all except the Lacedemonians: while he flew Northwards firſt to ſubdue the Illyrians and Triballians as far as the Danube, the Athenians, Thebans and other Greeks confederated againſt him; but when he return'd Conqueror, he got the Theſſalians to join him, paſs'd the Straits of Thermopylæ with his victorious Army, terrify'd the Athenians and others into a Submiſſion, laid Siege to Thebes, took it by Storm, utterly ruin'd it, ſlew 90000 Thebans, and ſold 30000 of them into Slavery. This terrible Execution terrify'd all Greece to meet in another General Council, and unanimouſly to chuſe him their Captain General, or Imperator of the Grecian Army againſt the Perſians, and having at Corinth viſited Diogenes the Cynic Philoſopher, he return'd home to raiſe a choſen Band of his truſty Macedonians: and if we can believe Joſephus, Lib. II. Antiq. cap. ult. ALEXANDER in a Dream ſaw the Appearance of the High Prieſt of Jeruſalem, who encourag'd him to march againſt the Perſians.

PEXODARUS King of Caria being dead, his Son-in-law ORONTOBATES ſucceeded in that Throne by the Aſſiſtance of DARIUS.

Ariſtotle having left his Pupil ALEXANDER, return'd to Athens and there introduc'd the Peripatetic Philoſophy; which he taught in the Lyceum for 12 Years.

ALEXANDER early in the Spring, march'd to Seſtus, where he paſs'd the Helleſpont, and march'd into Aſia with his little Army of 30000 Foot, and 5000 Horſe; with which he conquer'd all the Perſian Empire and India too: nay, he ſet forth with the ſmall Stock of 70 Talents, ſcarce enough to ſupport his Army a Month; but he depended upon Providence, and was not diſappointed; for in a few Days he gain'd a glorious Victory over the Perſian Army, tho' five times his Number, at the River Granicus; whereby he got Poſſeſſion of DARIUS's Treaſure at Sardis, and of all the Provinces of leſſer Aſia, where he ſpent the reſt of this Year.

DARIUS was adviſ'd by Memnon his beſt Officer to carry the War into Macedonia, and accordingly gave Memnon the Command of that Expedition, wherein he would have been join'd by the Lacedemonians and others that hated the growing Grandeur of ALEXANDER; but it was cruſht in the Bud by the Death of Memnon at the Siege of Mytelene, which was the Blaſting of that Deſign, and prov'd the Ruin of the Perſian Monarchy: For DARIUS having rendevous'd his Eaſtern Army at Babylon 600000 Men, and marched to meet the Enemy; ALEXANDER haſten'd thro' Cilicia to get Poſſeſſion of the Straits into Syria, where he waited for DARIUS, and where DARIUS, contrary to the Advice of his good Officers, and by the Advice of his empty Courtiers, fought ALEXANDER, but was totally routed by him at Iſſus in the Eaſt Parts of Cilicia, the Beginning of November: DARIUS himſelf eſcaped, but his Mother, Wife and Children were taken Priſoners in his Tent, and all his Bag and Baggage, with the Loſs of 100000 Men left dead upon the Field. The News reaching to Damaſcus, the Governour ſent to ALEXANDER to come and take Poſſeſſion of that City and of all in it; and ALEXANDER ſent Parmenio, who found there Darius's Treaſure and his moſt valuable Moveables, 329 of his Concubines, and a great many other Ladies, the Wives or Daughters of Perſian Nobles, whom he made all Captives: But one of 'em, the beautiful Barſena, the Widow of the valiant Memnon, at firſt ſight captivated ALEXANDER, who fell in Love with her, to whom ſhe bore afterwards a Son called HERCULES.

ALEXANDER having by this Victory ſecured all his former Acquiſitions behind him, and Syria before him, he could ſafely march along the Sea Coaſt into Phenicia, where the New Sidonians gladly ſubmitted to him. His Deſign was upon Egypt, but he was ſtopt at Tyre; for They would be at Peace with him, but not his Subjects: therefore he would try his military Skill in beſieging it: and tho' it was built upon a little Iſland, ever ſince the Days of Nebuchadnezzar; He carried on a Bank from the Continent to the Iſland half a Mile long in 7 Months Time, and ſo took the City, burnt it down to the Ground, ſlew 8000 in the Saccage, crucify'd 2000 Priſoners in revenge of their obſtinate tho' brave ſtanding out, and ſold 30000 for Slaves; tho' many of them were ſav'd by the Sidonians, and others eſcap'd to Carthage: but he planted it again with new Colonies from the Neighbourhood, in order to be eſteem'd the Founder of that City.

Joſephus, Lib. II. cap. 8. relates that ALEXANDER went next to Jeruſalem; but other Hiſtorians make no mention of it, and It ſeems to be a fabulous Tradition; for Jeruſalem lay not in his way from Tyre to Egypt: therefore I paſs it, and continue to ſpeak of his marching Strait to Gaza in Philiſtia, which he beſieg'd as the Key of the Road to Egypt, and which was bravely defended for two Months by Betis the Eunuch, and where ALEXANDER was twice dangerouſly wounded; for which he butcher'd 10000 of their Men, ſold the reſt of the Inhabitants into Slavery, and baſely order'd the brave Betis's Heels to be bored, and by a Cord to be tied to the Back of a Chariot, and ſo dragg'd round the City till he died.

From Gaza he march'd ſtrait for Egypt, and arriving at Peluſium, the Egyptians met him on the Borders, and readily ſubmitted to him in hatred of the haughty Perſians; nay, Mazaeus the Perſian Governor of Memphis open'd the Gates of that Capital to him; and to ſo without Bloodſhed he became Maſter of all Egypt. From thence he march'd Weſtward to the Temple of JUPITER HAMMON in Lybia; and in his way he order'd a new City to be built near the Iſland of Pharos on the Sea Coaſt, by Denocrates the famous Architect (who had rebuilt the Temple of DIANA at Epheſus) and call'd it ALEXANDRIA (call'd now by the Turks Scanderia) the Plan of which being drawn, He march'd along the Sands about 200 Engliſh Miles, where he and his Army had periſh'd for want of Water, if he had not been miraculouſly reliev'd by a Shower of Rain, till he came to the Temple; and having before brib'd the Prieſts, They pronounc'd him the Son of JUPITER HAMMON; which Title he aſſum'd ever after in all his Deeds and Decrees. In his Return he order'd his new City Alexandria to be well peopled, and ſo winter'd at Memphis.

Ptolemy the Aſtronomer, being a Native of Alexandria, begins the Reign of ALEXANDER the Great over the Eaſt from the Founding of Alexandria: but I have delay'd it till the Death of DARIUS Codomannus.

Having ſetled Egypt, ALEXANDER in the Spring haſtn'd Eaſtward to meet DARIUS. When he came into Paleſtine, and found the Samaritans had burnt his Favorite and Lieutenant Andromachus in his own Houſe, he order'd thoſe concern'd in it to be put to Death, drove the reſt out of Samaria, and planted it with a Colony of Macedonians: but the Samaritans ſetled at Shechem near Mount Gerezim, which now became the Metropolis of the Samaritan Sect. But he ſent the 8000 Samaritans in his Army to ſettle at Thebais in Egypt.

Having ſtay'd a little time at Tyre to ſettle his former Acquiſitions, he march'd to Thapſacus, where he croſs'd the Euphrates, directing his Courſe towards the Tigris in queſt of the Enemy. Mean while DARIUS, having three ſeveral times in vain ſollicited ALEXANDER for Peace (whoſe Terms were All or Nothing) prepar'd for another Battel, muſter'd his Army at Babylon much bigger than the former, and march'd towards Nineveh; whither ALEXANDER follow'd him with 50000 Men, and in October at the Village Gaugameh, within twelve Miles of Arbela the next City, totally vanquiſh'd the Perſian Army tho' 20 times bigger, even in an open Plain; whereby the Fate of the Perſian Empire was determin'd. DARIUS fled into Media to raiſe another Army, and ALEXANDER purſu'd him no farther than Arbela, where he miſs'd him, but got his Treaſure and Royal Equipage of great Value, and ſo return'd to his Camp; where having refreſh'd his Men, he march'd thence to Babylon, which with the Caſtle was readily ſurrender'd to him, where he got the greateſt Part of DARIUS's Treaſure: and having ſtaid 30 Days there, He march'd, with Victory by his ſide, to Suſa, which he took, and from thence to Perſepolis the Capital, which he gave up to be ſack'd by his Army, reſerving the Caſtle and Palace to himſelf, about the Middle of December, when the poor Inhabitants were butcher'd and barbarouſly us'd. From thence with a Detachment he rang'd over the Neighbourhood, which readily ſubmitted to him, and after 30 Days Ramble he return'd and winter'd in Perſepolis.

And now ALEXANDER gave himſelf up to Feaſting and Drinking with his chief Commanders, and their Miſſes; and in one of thoſe Revels, Thais, the Miſs of Ptolemy (who was afterward King of Egypt) prevail'd with the drunken Monarch ALEXANDER to ſet Fire to Perſepolis and the Palace, which was forthwith executed and burnt to the Ground, and which he repented of when he recover'd his Senſes, tho' too late. Mean while

K

DARIUS at Ekbatana gather'd his broken Forces, and rais'd others to join him; but ALEXANDER in the Spring marching into Media, made DARIUS firſt think of going into Bactria; but altering his Mind, DARIUS reſolv'd to try his Fate in another Battel with 40000 Men, that he had gather'd there. But while that King was preparing to meet ALEXANDER in the Field, Beſſus Governour of Bactria, and Nabarzanes a Perſian Nobleman, conſpir'd to ſeize the unfortunate Prince; and having put him in Chains, They ſhut him up in a cloſe Cart, and fled with him towards Bactria; deſigning either to purchaſe their Peace by delivering him up to Alexander, if he purſu'd after them; or if Alexander did not purſue them, then to kill DARIUS, to ſeize the Kingdom and to renew the War. ALEXANDER at Ekbatana finding DARIUS was gone Eight Days before, purſu'd hard after Him for Eleven Days together as far as Rages in Media; where he halted to refreſh his Army, and to ſettle the Affairs of Media, of which he made Oxidates a noble Perſian the Governor, and then march'd into Parthia; where hearing of DARIUS's unhappy Situation, he left the Body of the Army with Craterus, and with a Detachment he flew after DARIUS, with a View to reſcue him from thoſe Traitors: while He was advancing, They order'd DARIUS to Mount on Horſeback, for his more ſpeedy Flight with them; but he refuſing, They ſtabb'd him and left him a dying in his Cart, in which Condition he was found by the foremoſt of ALEXANDER's Men, but expir'd before ALEXANDER came up; who at the melancholy Sight of his Corps, could not forbear ſhedding Tears, caſt his Cloke over the Royal Body, order'd it to be wrapp'd up therein, and carry'd to his Mother Siſygambis at Suſa, to be buried by her with a Royal Funeral among the Kings of Perſia; and receiv'd Oxatres the Brother of DARIUS among his intimate Friends, and with him ended the great Perſian MONARCHY, which had laſted in its Luſtre from the firſt Year of CYRUS, *A. Continuation.

Thus from the Confuſion at Babel, A. M.	1810
To the Fall of SARDANAPALUS, or the firſt Year of Nabonaſſar, are Years	1446
Which added together, make the laſt Year of Sardanapalus, or A. M.	3256
For the Nabonaſſarian Era began, as on Page 46. A. M.	3257

But Scaliger in his Animadverſions on Euſebius's Chronicle, obſerves, that Euſebius has omitted four Kings whom others mention, and has added to ſome of theſe mention'd a Year or two.

So Juſtin mentions but the firſt four; becauſe the reſt have nothing recorded memorable of them: but the whole Series may be ſeen in Scaliger's Appendix to Euſebius.

King PUL is He to whom Jonah preach'd at Nineveh.

But tho' his Son SARDANAPALUS was deſtroy'd, the Monarchy was not, but only divided a while in Three, as in the following Catalogue.

Continuation of TABLE XXVI.

A Catalogue of the Kings of ASSYRIA after the Partition.

SARDANAPALUS having burnt himſelf in his Palace, the Beſiegers of Nineveh, viz. his Brother Arbaces and Beleſis divided the Empire, together with the People of the Province of Media, thus Kings of Nineveh or ASSYRIA Proper.

1. ARBACES call'd in Holy Writ TIGLATHPULESER, and the Brother of Sardanapalus ſucceeded to him at Nineveh, over all the Aſſyrian Empire except Chaldea and Media, A. M. 3257. the firſt Year of the Nabonaſſarian Era, before Chriſt 747. in the 12th Year of JOTHAM King of Judah; which is the firſt Year of his Reign.

2. SALMANESER reign'd at Nineveh	14 †	33
3. SENNACHERIB reign'd at Nineveh	08 †	41
4. ESERHADDON reign'd at Nineveh firſt 26		67
but finding the Chaldeans in Confuſion, He ſeiz'd Babylon, united the Crowns and reign'd over the united Kingdom. 13	39 †	80
5. SAOSDUCHINUS call'd Nabuchodonoſor reign'd at Nineveh	20 †	100
6. CHINILADANUS reign'd at Nineveh	22 †	122
7. Saracus reign'd at Nineveh	14 †	136

Kings of BABYLON or Chaldea.

1. BELESIS, call'd alſo NABONASSAR, the Aſſyrian General, the Founder of Babylon, and of the famous Aſtronomical ERA, call'd from his Name, the Nabonaſſarian; got for his Share the Country of Chaldea, of which he became King upon the Death of Sardanapalus, Contemporary with ARBACES, began to Reign A. M. 3257. An. Nabonaſſ. I.

10. MESESSIMORDACHUS reign'd at Babylon	04 †	59
⁂ Nabopolaſar the General of CHINILADANUS, a Babylonian, uſurp'd the Kingdom of Chaldea in the 22d Year of Chiniladanus, A. M. 3378. An. Nabonaſſar		122
He ſlew Saracus King of Nineveh, deſtroy'd that City, and ſeiz'd old Aſſyria Proper		136
8. NABOPOLASAR or Nebuchadnezzar I. having made BABYLON the Capital of the united Kingdom, reign'd there in all	21 †	143
9. NEBUCHADNEZZAR II. the GRAND Monarch, according to the Babyloniſh Reckoning, reign'd at Babylon	43 †	186
10. Evil Merodach reign'd at Babylon	02 †	188
11. Neriglisſar and 12. Loboroſoarchod both, one after t'other, reign'd at Babylon	04 †	19
13. BELLSHAZZAR reign'd at Babylon	17 †	20

So that the Race of NABOPOLASAR ended in this Year of the Nabonaſſarian Era 209 after He and they had reign'd at Babylon 87 Years.

And now began the Second or Perſian MONARCHY, tho' it is dated uſually two Years after the Death of Belſhazzar, during which two Years CYAXARES King of Media was the Univerſal Monarch: but when he died and without Male-Iſſue, He left all to his Nephew and Son-in-law the Grand CYRUS, who indeed as Imperator of the Army had conquer'd almoſt All; therefore from the Beginning of CYRUS, the Perſian Monarchy began, as in the Perſian Catalogue.

Kings of MEDIA.

This Country was one of the largeſt and beſt Provinces of the old Aſſyrian Empire, and upon the Death of Sardanapalus, the STATES met and became a Republick hating to ſubmit to ARBACES, againſt whoſe Kingdom They had ever an implacable Enmity, till at laſt They join'd with NABOPOLASAR to deſtroy his Capital and his Race. But after They had found it inconvenient to want a King, about 38 Years after the Death of Sardanapalus, They choſe the wiſe and brave DEJOCES to be their King, in the 6th Year of SENNACHERIB King of Aſſyria, and the 18th Year of HEZEKIAH King of Judah, Page 56. *A. TABLE XXVII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Sicyon, Argos, Athens, Corinth, Lacedemon and Latium according to Euſebius, with Synchroniſms and Contemporaries.

Euſebius governs his Chronicle by the Years from ABRAM's Birth, which he placeth in the 22d Year of EUROPS King of Sicyon, and after the Flood 294, or after Creation 1950, whereas I place it A. M. 2008, after Flood 352 or two Years after Noah's Death; whereby his Years of the World and after Flood, are generally 58 Years ſhort of ours: but his Years of ABRAM being exact, by adding to them 1950. before Abram, and then 58, the Produce will be exactly our Year of the World.

Kings of SICYON.
1. ÆGIALEUS from whom the Country was call'd Ægialea began to reign there according to Euſebius, A. M. 1877. Years after Flood———221 and reign'd——— 52		Thus according to Euſebius ÆGIALEUS began to reign 73 Years before Abram's Birth; for he reign'd 52 Years, and EUROPS had reign'd 21 Years before it, and 73 added to A. M. 1877. makes 1950, and 73 added to 221. makes 294. after Flood, when ABRAM was born according to Euſebius; but 58 added to 1950. makes A. M. 2008, and 58 added to 294. makes 352. after Flood, the true Year of ABRAM's Birth according to our Chronology.
2. EUROPS——reign'd 45
3. Telchinus——reign'd 20
4. Apis——reign'd 25		In his 12th Year, CRES firſt reign'd in Crete his native Country, ſo call'd after him. He was one of the Curetæ, that hid and nouriſh'd young JUPITER.
5. Thelxion——reign'd 52		In his 6th Year ABRAM aged 75 and left Charran, when the 430 Years of Peregrination began after Flood 369. A. M. 2025. but by adding to each 58,
6. Aegydrus——reign'd 34		It will be after Flood 427, and A. M. 2083. according to our Chronology.
7. Thurimachus reign'd 45	———In his 6th Year the Kings of ARGOS began, viz.	Anno Abrami 161. A. M. 2111. after Flood 455. or by adding 58, A. M. 2169. after Flood 513.
	Years
8. Leucippus——reign'd 53	1. INACHUS——reign'd 50	In his firſt Year JACOB was born, when his Father ISAAC was full 60 Years old, or 61, according to Euſebius.
9. Meſapus——reign'd 47	2. Phoroneus——reign'd 60	In his 26th Year a fine Virgin appear'd, whom the Greeks call'd MINERVA: and Ogyges built Eleuſina in Attica.
10. Eratus——reign'd 46	3. Apis———reign'd 35	In his 12th Year JOSEPH aged 30 ſtood firſt before PHARAOH, was exalted to the chief Station in Egypt, A. M. 2232, or adding 58 A. M. 2290.
11. Plemnaeus reign'd 48	4. Argus——reign'd 70	In his ſecond Year JACOB aged 147 died An. Abrami 307, and of Peregrination 232. In his 26th Year, Prometheus flouriſh'd, who, by reforming the Barbarians, made them Men that were like Brutes before. In his 56th Year, JOSEPH aged 110 died in Egypt, An. Abrami 361, and of Peregrination 286. Before Exodus 144.
12. Orthopolis reign'd 63	5. Criaſus——reign'd 54	In his firſt Year Callithyja the Daughter of Piranthus firſt exerted the Prieſtly Office at Argos. In his 4th Year Atlas the Brother of Prometheus was a famous Aſtronomer, and was therefore ſaid to ſupport the H[illegible]ens. In his 50th Year MOSES was born, viz. An. Abrami 425. Peregr. 350. Before Exodus 80, after Deſcent 135.
13. Marathus I. reign'd 30	6. Phorbas——reign'd 35	———In his 32d Year the Kings of ATHENS began, viz. An. Abrami 461. An. Peregrin. 386. before Exodus 44.

TABLE XXVIII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Third Monarchy, call'd the Kingdom of the Greeks, and of its Contemporaries, From the Death of DARIUS Codomannus the laſt Emperor of Perſia, A. M. 3674. To the Death of ANTIGONUS King of leſſer Aſia, A. M. 3703. during 29 Years.

ALEXANDER the Great.	Kings of Perſia and Macedon.	Years of the High Prieſts	Era of the 2d. TEMPLE.	Julian Period	ERA before Chriſt.	A. M.	OLYMPIADS.	Era of Nabonaſſar.	Era of Rome.	Era of 490 or of Daniel's 70 Weeks
ALEXANDER ſtill purſu'd after Beſſus the murdering Traitor, till He found he was gotten too far to be overtaken: and therefore he return'd to Parthia; and having regulated the Affairs of that Province and of his Army, He march'd into Hyrcania, which alſo yielded to him: alſo Nabarzanes ſurrender'd himſelf to the Conqueror with great Preſents, and obtain'd his Pardon, as did the Mardans, Arians, Drangians, Aracauſians and other Nations; over which he flew with Victory ſwifter than others could travel, and conquer'd them before They could get into a Poſture of Defence, according to the Deſcription of him in the Prophecy. Dan. vii. 6. viii. 5. from thence He march'd Northward ſtill, tho' in the Winter, conquering as far as Mount Caucaſus, where he founded a City which he call'd Alexandria, as he had call'd ſeveral others.											After the Murder of DARIUS, the Traitor Beſſus fled into Bactria, and proclaim'd himſelf King of Perſia by the Name of Artaxerxes; and Nabarzanes his Accomplice fled into Hyrcania. While ALEXANDER was among the Drangians, He diſcover'd a Plot againſt his Life, in which Philotas the Son of Parmenio was concern'd, who was therefore put to Death with all his Accomplices: and ALEXANDER believing either that Parmenio, his beſt General, and chief Confident, was in the Plot, or that he would revenge his Son's Death, ſent to Ekbatana (where he lay to guard the Treaſure) and order'd him to be put to Death.
This Year is reckon'd in Ptolemy's Canon the 3d Year of the Grecian Monarchy, viz. from the founding of Alexandria in Egypt, from which Ptolemy reckons; but from the Death of his Father PHILIP it was the 7th Year of his Reign over Macedon, and from the Death of DARIUS Codomannus, It was the firſt Year of his Empire over the Perſian Dominions; or the firſt Year of the Grecian Monarchy, when he truly commenc'd ALEXANDER the Great. In Sogdiana, ALEXANDER remounted his Cavalry, where the Sogdians, Dabans and Maſſagets gave him hard Work for a whole Year before they were conquer'd. This Country lay Eaſt of the Caſpian; the capital City of it was call'd Maracanda, a great City near ten Miles round (and now call'd Samarcand the Capital of the Usbek-Tartars) and took up his Winter Quarters at Nautaca.	1	13	207	4385	329	3675	CXII. 4	419	420	130	In the 13th Year of Jadduah High Prieſt of Jeruſalem, ALEXANDER early in the Spring march'd after Beſſus, and having driven him out of Bactria he ſetled that Province under his Obedience, and follow'd Beſſus into Sogdiana now call'd Cowareſmia, ſeparated from Bactria by the great River Oxus, where Beſſus deſtroy'd the Boats, and other Means of ALEXANDER's paſſing over. But when the Followers of Beſſus found that the Conqueror had ſurmounted that Difficulty, and was hotly purſuing them, They ſeiz'd Beſſus, and deliver'd him bound to ALEXANDER, who deliver'd him into the Power of Oxatres the Brother of DARIUS; who order'd him to be crucify'd where he murder'd his Royal Maſter. ALEXANDER while at Marcanda, in a drunken Rage, baſely murder'd Clitus one of his beſt Friends, after his Noſe and Ears were cut off; for which he afterwards blam'd himſelf.
While he lay there he married ROXANA the Daughter of Oxyathres a noble Perſian, the moſt beautiful and the moſt wicked Woman upon Earth: and he encourag'd his Macedonians to marry Perſian Ladies likewiſe. And here in cold Blood he put to Death Caliſthenes the Philoſopher, only for admoniſhing him againſt receiving divine Honours; tho' It was his Buſineſs to give him ſound Advice, having been ſent by Ariſtotle to attend him for that End.	2	14	208	4386	328	3676	CXIII. 1	420	421	131	ALEXANDER now projected his Expedition into India, only for the ſake of imitating Bacchus and Hercules the Sons of JUPITER; for he call'd himſelf the third Son of that imaginary God. And now he demanded divine Honours, and order'd All to addreſs him as the Perſian Monarchs had been addreſs'd. Having ſecur'd all behind him, and augmented his Army to 120000 Men, he ſpent this Year in ſubduing the Indians on this Side the River Indus, partly by Force, and partly by Submiſſion; but none pleas'd him ſo much as thoſe Nations that welcom'd him as the Third Son of JUPITER; and CLEOPHIS the beautiful Queen of the Aſſacans redeem'd her Kingdom by proſtituting her Body to ALEXANDER's Luſt, to whom ſhe bore a Son whom ſhe call'd ALEXANDER, who afterwards reign'd in thoſe Parts, the Father of a long Race of Kings, as Paulus Venetus relates.
Early in the Spring ALEXANDER paſs'd over the Indus by a Bridge of Boats, and the Kingdom of Taxiles readily ſubmitted to him; thro' which he march'd and croſs'd the Hydaſpes, when he came into the Kingdom of PORUS a valiant and powerful Prince, who with a great Army, ſoon gave him Battel; tho' after Eight Hours hard Work, PORUS's Army was routed, and he taken Priſoner. When ALEXANDER's Men would march with him no farther (as on the other Column) He erected on the Banks of the Hyphaſis twelve large Altars, for a Memorial of his having been there, and return'd to the Hydaſpes, founded the City Nicæa in the Field where he vanquiſh'd King PORUS, and another near it which he call'd Bucephala; becauſe his Horſe Bucephalus there died.	3	15	209	4387	327	3677	2	421	422	132	When PORUS was forcibly brought before ALEXANDER, his Magnanimity under his Misfortune ſo took with the Conqueror, that he generouſly reſtor'd him and augmented his Kingdom; for having paſs'd the River Aceſinis, that lay Eaſt of PORUS's Kingdom, ALEXANDER conquer'd the Country between that and the River Hydraotes, which he gave to the brave PORUS, and having croſs'd the Hydraotes he march'd to the Hyphaſis, intending to croſs it, in order to reach to the Ganges; but his Soldiers being weary of his Knight Errantry, He was oblig'd there to ſtop his Eaſtern Progreſs. When he return'd to the Hydaſpes, He order'd his Fleet to draw near him in order to ſail into the Indus, and to carry on his Conqueſts to the Ocean.

ALEXANDER the Great.

When return'd, He and his Army went aboard the Fleet, and when He came to the Ocean at the Mouth of the Indus, He landed his Men, ſetled his Indian Conqueſts, ſent Nearchus with the beſt Ships thro' the Ocean into the Perſian Gulph, with Orders to ſail up the Euphrates, and to meet him at Babylon, towards which Place he march'd over Land with his Army.

He return'd thro' the Southern Provinces of Perſia, march'd in Triumph thro' Carmania (now call'd Kerman) in imitation of Bacchus; where he puniſh'd with Death thoſe Officers of Provinces, that had oppreſs'd the People in his Abſence.

He march'd from thence to Paſargada, and then to Perſepolis, where he lamented his former drunken Folly in burning that fine City and Palace: and from thence to Suſa, and in his way thither he met Nearchus with the Fleet, upon whom he conferr'd great Honours, and offer'd Sacrifices to the Gods for his Succeſſes.

Having ſail'd (as on the other Column) from Suſa to Opis, He march'd over land from Opis to Ekbatana in Media, where Hepheſtion drank himſelf into a Fever and died; as many more had died of Drinking before by following the King's fooliſh Example. He mourn'd for his Favourite and gave him a ſolemn Funeral, and caus'd his Phyſician to be crucify'd; tho' it was well known that Hepheſtion would not obey the Doctor's Rules, and was his own Murderer.

ALEXANDER to divert his Grief, led his Army againſt the Coſſæans the Highlanders of MEDIA, who had never been conquer'd by the Perſians; but he conquer'd them in 40 Days: and then croſſing the Tigris He march'd to Babylon; where he gave Audience to many foreign Ambaſſadors, and ſent them all off well pleas'd, and where he ſtaid near a Year till he died, and where he projected great Deſigns, ſuch as, to ſend a Fleet from the Perſian Gulph round Africa to return thro' the Streights of Hercules Pillars, or Gibraltar; likewiſe a full Diſcovery of the Caſpian Sea and of the Nations round it: he projected alſo to conquer the Arabians and alſo the Carthaginians, and all the Nations as far as Hercules Pillars; for he was ambitious to imitate that Hero. He alſo deſign'd to make Babylon his Capital, for which end, he began to improve it, to repair the Damage of the River done by CYRUS, by filling up the Banks that had been broken down when CYRUS beſieg'd it; and alſo to rebuild the great TEMPLE of Belus, that had lain in Ruins ever ſince it was demoliſh'd by XERXES upon his Return from Greece: but he could not half remove the Rubbiſh, and perfected nothing; but only began his Works before he died, as on the other Column.

Seven Days after the Death of ALEXANDER the Great, his Followers agreed that ARIDÆUS, his baſtard Brother, ſhould be Emperor; and that if ROXANA, then 8 Months pregnant, ſhould bear a Son, He ſhould be conjunct Emperor, with Perdiccas the General to be Guardian; for Aridæus being a Fool, wanted it as much as an Infant, They chang'd his Name into that of

2. PHILIP: and from hence the Philippean Era commenc'd, which the Egyptians compute from the firſt Day of that Egyptian Year in which Alexander died, or from the firſt Day of their Thoth; which fell out on the 12th of our November, which Method is alſo follow'd by Ptolemy in his Canon contrary

When his Admiral Nearchus came with the Fleet, conſiſting of 2000 Veſſels, he put his Army on Board, ſail'd down the Hydaſpes into the Aceſinis and thro' that into the Indus; but in his Way found it hard to ſubdue the Oxidracians, and the Mallians, being forc'd to ſcail their Walls, and in the Attack was grieviouſly wounded. Then he ſail'd down the Indus into the Southern Ocean, conquering the Nations on both Sides of that River.

Nearchus having coaſted from the Indus to the Perſian Gulph, arriv'd at the Iſland of Harmuzia (now call'd Ormus) within 5 Days Journey of ALEXANDER, to whom He went and laid before him his Journal, his Diſcoveries and Obſervations, with which the King was delighted, and ſent him to ſail up the Euphrates and to meet him at Babylon, while he purſu'd his March.

When he came to Paſargada, He tortur'd the Magians to know, who had robb'd the Sepulchre of the Grand CYRUS in his Abſence, and unjuſtly put to Death Orſines the Governor, who was not guilty of it; but was accus'd ſpitefully by Bagoas the favourite Eunuch and Catamite of ALEXANDER; becauſe Orſines had ſlighted that vile Creature.

When he came to Suſa, ALEXANDER married STATIRA the eldeſt Daughter of DARIUS, and gave DRYPETIS the other Daughter to Hepheſtion his prime Favorite, and caus'd about an hundred of his chief Commanders to marry noble Perſian Ladies, with a View to unite the Nations: and having celebrated all theſe Nuptials together for five Days, He left his main Army to Heſheſtion's Care, and going aboard his Fleet at the Eulæus (call'd by Daniel Ulai) near Suſa, He ſail'd down into the Perſian Gulph, and from thence up the Tigris to the City Opis, where Hepheſtion met him with the Army; and where his Macedonians mutinied, being diſguſted at his favouring the Perſians ſo much: but he very wiſely cur'd them of their Diſcontent, and reconcil'd himſelf to them again. From Opis he march'd to Ekbatana, conquer'd the Coſſæans and came to Babylon (as on the other Column) where he ſpent his time, not in Royal and vertuous Amuſements; but in the immoral Pleaſures and Luxuries of the Place; eſpecially in Feaſting and Drinking; till at length like his late Favourite Hepheſtion, he drank himſelf into a Fever, the great Bowl, or Herculean Cup that held ſix Engliſh Quarts dropt from his Hands, and he fell down and died in a few Days: tho' ſome ſuſpected he had been poiſon'd: in the 33d Year of his Age, 13 Years after his Father King Philip was ſlain; 11 Years after he invaded Aſia, and ſix Years after DARIUS.

ALEXANDER'S Generals not agreeing to ſubmit to any one of themſelves agreed the rather upon ARIDÆUS, contented themſelves with the Name of Governors, till They thought fit to call themſelves Kings; as indeed They had Kingly Power from the Death of Alexander; for being ſent to their ſeveral Provinces, They all went to War againſt each other, till They were reduc'd at laſt to four; as will appear by the ſequel of this Table.

Siſygambis the Mother of DARIUS famiſh'd herſelf to Death for Grief at ALEXANDER'S Death, who had treated her as if ſhe had been his Mother. Roxana fearing that Queen STATIRA was with Child, took Care to have her and her Siſter murder'd and caſt into a Well, fearing leſt the Child of Statira ſhould prove a Competitor with her Child.

In the Diſtribution of the Governments

Eumenes, late Secretary of State to Alexander, got That of Cappadocia and Paphlagonia; and Perdiccas (to reward Eumenes for diſcovering the Deſigns of Leonnatus,

See the Continuation.

Continuation of TABLE XXVIII.

PHILIPPUS Arideſtus King of Macedon, and PTOLEMÆUS Lagi King of Egypt.

Contrary to his former Practice; for in all other Deſcents hitherto, he begins the Succeſſor's Reign at the Month Thoth following the Death of the Predeceſſor, whereas he begins now at the THOTH before the Death of ALEXANDER.

And this Year ROXANA was deliver'd of a Son call'd ALEXANDER, whoſe Name was join'd with PHILIP's Name in the Government; tho' They had no more than a Name, for ALEXANDER's chief Captains uſurp'd the Power; viz.

1. PTOLEMY the Son of Lagus, who obtain'd the Government of Egypt, where he rul'd and reign'd from the Death of ALEXANDER 40 Years, and in time ſubdu'd Lybia, Arabia, Paleſtine and Cœle-Syria. Therefore ſome Chronologers compute his firſt Year to be this very Year. But in the Canon of Ptolemy the Aſtronomer, the firſt Year of King PTOLEMY is 19 Years after the Death of ALEXANDER.
2. CASSANDER obtain'd Macedon and Greece.
3. LYSIMACHUS obtain'd Thrace and the Parts near the Helleſpont.
4. SELEUCUS obtain'd all the reſt of that vaſt Empire in Aſia.

But before They were ſetled in their new Kingdoms, They were involv'd in great Confuſions and bloody Wars, even until Alexander's other Captains were dead or deſtroy'd, viz,

5. Perdiccas the Guardian of the two nominal Kings
6. Nicanor. 7 Antipater. 8. Meleager. 9. Eumenes. 10. Laomedon. 11. Leonitus. 12 Pithon. 13. Philetas. 14 Craterus. 15. Menander. Who all endeavour'd to be Kings, but were ſwallow'd up of the firſt four, as will ſoon appear, according to the Prophecies of Daniel that foretold of FOUR HORNS ariſing out of the Macedonian Horn, when broken, viz. out of ALEXANDER the Great.

Next Spring Perdiccas having conferr'd on Eumenes the Government of Caria, Lycia and Phrygia, added to his former Employments, and made him captain General from the Helleſpont to Mount Taurus, march'd his Army thro' Paleſtine down to Egypt with the two Kings to countenance his Conduct; in order to defeat firſt his more formidable Enemy PTOLEMY, before he went againſt Antipater and Craterus in Greece.

But the Macedonians diſlik'd Perdiccas, and much affected Ptolemy, who by mild Government had got the Hearts of all Egypt; and Perdiccas in attempting to croſs the Nile near Memphis, having loſt 2000 of his Men by the Stream and the Crocodiles, his Army mutinied againſt him, and ſlew him in his Tent, two Days before the News came of Eumenes's Victory, as on the other Column.

PTOLEMY went over to the Camp, lamented for the Death of Craterus, join'd with them to declare Eumenes an Enemy to the Macedonian Empire, and to appoint Antipater and Antigonus to make War againſt him; refus'd the Guardianſhip of the Kings which he left to Pithon the General, and to one Aridaeus, who took Care of the Corps of ALEXANDER the Great, had brought it in great Solemnity from Babylon to Memphis, from whence It was carried to Alexandria and there depoſited.

PTOLEMY not prevailing with Laomedon, the Governor of Syria, Phenicia and Judea, to ſell him thoſe Provinces; ſent Nicanor with an Army againſt him, while he ſail'd with a Fleet to the Phenician Coaſt, and Nicanor having defeated Laomedon, and taken him Priſoner, PTOLEMY landed and laid Siege to Jeruſalem, the only Place that kept out againſt him, which he took on the Sabbath Day; becauſe the Jews would not fight on that Day: PTOLEMY carried 100000 Jews captive into Egypt; but afterwards finding They were truſty and Leonnatus, march'd an Army and the two Kings againſt Ariarathes King of the Cappadocians, defeat him in Battel, and having given Eumenes full Poſſeſſion, he took in Iſaurus and Laranda two Cities in Piſidia, and then winter'd in Cilicia; where he projected to put away or divorce his Wife Nicæa the Daughter of Antipater, and to marry Cleopatra the full Siſter of Alexander the Great, and the Widow of Alexander King of Epirus, who then reſided at Sardis in Lydia; to whom Perdiccas ſent Eumenes to propoſe it; whereby he deſign'd to gain a Title to the whole Empire.

Antigonus, diſcovering this Project, and that he was to be cut off in order to facilitate it, fled to Antipater and Craterus in Greece, who were Collegues in that Government; and clapping up a Peace with the Ætolians, They forthwith march'd to the Helleſpont to watch the Deſigns of Perdiccas; and got Ptolemy Governor of Egypt into their Confederacy.

Mean while Perdiccas ſent Eumenes into his Province to be ready to aſſiſt him, and charg'd him to look ſharp after Neoptolemus Governor of Armenia; for Perdiccas had reaſon to be jealous of him.

While Eumenes provided an Army, Antipater and Craterus invaded leſſer Aſia, endeavour'd in vain to perſuade Eumenes to join them and deſert Perdiccas; but got Alcetas the Brother of Perdiccas to be Neuter, and Neoptolemus to join them. But Eumenes firſt routed Neoptolemus, who eſcap'd only with 300 Horſe, with whom he join'd them and march'd with their Army into Cilicia, from whence Antipater ſent Craterus and Neoptolemus into Cappadocia againſt Eumenes: but he wiſely defeated their Army, and they both were ſlain in the Battel.

Upon the Death of Perdiccas, as on the other Column, Pithon and Aridaeus the two new Guardians of the two Kings, were wearied with the Importunities and Follies of Euridice the Wife of King Philip to have all under her Direction; and therefore when they led back the Army at Triparadiſus in Syria, they reſign'd the Charge, which the Army conferr'd on Antipater, who made a new Partition of the Governments, excluding the Party of Eumenes and Perdiccas, and conferring the Government of Babylon upon Seleucus: and Antipater having ſent Antigonus againſt Eumenes, He return'd into Macedonia, leaving his Son Caſſander with Antigonus.

This Year JADDUAH the High Prieſt of Jeruſalem being dead was ſucceeded by ONIAS his Son, who liv'd in that Station 21 Years.

Early next Spring Antigonus defeated Eumenes, who was deſerted in the Battel by Apollonides the General of his Horſe, and was afterwards beſieg'd at Nora a whole Year.

and ſteady People, He choſe 30000 of them to keep his beſt Garriſons; and having lately conquer'd Cyrene and Lybia, He planted many of them there, from whom came the Cyrenean Jews, of whom was afterwards Jaſon, who wrote the Hiſtory of the Maccabees, of which the 2d Book of Maccabees is an Abridgment.

ANTIPATER worn out with Age, died in Macedonia after he had appointed Polyſphercon, the oldeſt of Alexander's Generals alive, to be Guardian of the Kings, and Governor of Macedonia, at which CASSANDER his Son was highly offended, declar'd againſt the new Guardian, and engag'd PTOLEMY and ANTIGONUS on his ſide; tho' They aim'd at their own Intereſt therein.

Mean while Polyſphercon appointed Eumenes Captain General for the Kings, with Orders to Teutamus and Antigenes to join him with their Argyraſpides, or the Men with Silver Shields, old Macedonian Soldiers, that had got Silver Shields from ALEXANDER about 3000 Men, who join'd Eumenes in Cilicia where He winter'd.

Polyſphercon ſent Clitus with a Fleet to aſſiſt EUMENES, but ANTIGONUS's Fleet deſtroy'd it; upon which ANTIGONUS march'd a great Army againſt Eumenes, who wiſely and timely fled thro' Cœle-Syria, paſs'd the Euphrates and winter'd at Carrhæ in Meſopotamia, or Charran where ABRAM once liv'd, now call'd by the Turks Harran; famous once for being the prime Seat of the Sabians.

Eumenes while at Carrhæ ſent to Pithon Governor of Media, and to SELEUCUS Governor of Babylon to join him: but tho' They profeſs'd to like the Cauſe, They dreaded him and would not join him; having alſo Deſigns of their own, which his Wiſdom and Valour might blaſt.

ANTIGONUS purſu'd Eumenes into Meſopotamia, where, miſſing him, He was forc'd to winter, and where he concerted the Meaſures of the next Campaign with SELEUCUS and Pithon.

Mean while Olympias the Mother of ALEXANDER the Great, with King Alexander her Grandſon and Roxana his Mother, had fled from Macedon to Epirus for fear of ANTIPATER, and he being dead, They return'd, and getting Power into her Hands, ſhe put to Death poor King ARIDÆUS with Euridice his Wife, alſo Nicanor the Brother of Caſſander, and 100 more of his beſt Friends. And now ALEXANDER Ægus the Son of Roxana, about 7 Years old was King alone of the Macedonian Empire; to whom Ptolemy the Aſtronomer in his Canon reckons 12 Years, tho' he reign'd not above 7 Years, as will appear.

When the Army of EUMENES return'd from the Purſuit, and ſaw, that their Wives, and Children, and all their Baggage had been carried off, as on the other Column; They were madly inrag'd at EUMENES, bound him, ſold him to Antigonus, for redeeming of what they had loſt, and went all over to Antigonus: which abſolutely determin'd the War for him, and made him Maſter of all Aſia from the Helleſpont to the Indus. ANTIGONUS did ſoon put EUMENES to Death in Priſon; and thus periſh'd the wiſeſt of all the Generals of Alexander the Great.

ANTIGONUS now reform'd, as he pleas'd, the State of Aſia, put to Death Pithon Governor of Media, and Antigenes General of the Argyraſpides, whom he ſent Eaſtward into Arachoſia with Orders never to let them return.

ANTIGONUS upon the Death of Antipater, being left by him the Governor of all the leſſer Aſia, with 70000 Soldiers and 30 Elephants, now deſign'd to be Maſter of all the Empire: and having turn'd out Aridæus from his Government of Phrygia, and Clitus out of Lydia, and made other Reforms for his Purpoſe, He endeavour'd to decoy Eumenes to his Party, of whom he was moſt afraid. EUMENES being there ſupply'd with 20000 Men, took the Field in the Spring and ſtruck Terror into all his Enemies: and neither PTOLEMY nor ANTIGONUS could decoy the Argyraſpides from him with all their Arts; becauſe of his Prudence, and of his appearing for the Family of ALEXANDER: and ſo he march'd into Syria and Phenicia to diſpoſſeſs PTOLEMY; but chiefly to open a Correſpondence with Polyſphercon in Greece by Sea, which would have carried all, if it had been obtain'd. See the other Column.

XXIII^d^. Year of JUBILEE tranſacted under Onias the High Prieſt.

Eumenes being forc'd to flee to Carrhæ, as on the other Column, march'd now towards Babylon, and narrowly eſcap'd being over flooded by the Euphrates, SELEUCUS having cut its Banks. But SELEUCUS diſſembled with him and let him paſs thro' his Province to Suſa, from whence He ſent Meſſengers to all the Governors of the upper Aſia, who were found All together at the Head of an Army of 25000 Men, juſt after They had beaten Pithon Governor of Media out of the Field, and made him flee to Babylon for ſhelter: and They perceiving that ANTIGONUS was acting the ſame Part in lower Aſia, even putting Governors to Death in order to aggrandize himſelf; They readily join'd Eumenes, whereby He was a Match for ANTIGONUS.

In the Spring ANTIGONUS and Eumenes by Inſtinct march'd towards each other, both great Men: but tho' Eumenes was much hinder'd, by the Ambition and Pride of the Governors with him, from exerting himſelf; he manag'd them with great Prudence, beat Antigonus in two Encounters, and obtain'd the beſt Winter Quarters. During the Winter

ANTIGONUS thought to have ſurpriz'd Eumenes, but could not, and in the Spring theſe two great Generals join'd in a deciſive Battel, wherein EUMENES gain'd the Victory in the Field; but ANTIGONUS in his Retreat, by a Party carried off all the Baggage, Wives and Children out of Eumenes's Camp, before he was perceiv'd, becauſe of the great Duſt rais'd in that ſandy Field of Battel.

And now SELEUCUS fearing to meet with Pithon's Fate, as on the other Column, fled from Babylon to PTOLEMY in Egypt, whom he ſoon convinc'd of the formidable Power of Antigonus; and They wrote to LYSIMACHUS and CASSANDER, who join'd them.

ALEXANDER Ægus King of Macedon.	Era of Seleucus.	After the Death of Alexander.	Kings of Perſia and Macedon.	Years of the High Prieſts.	Era of the 2d TEMPLE.	Julian Period	ERA before Chriſt.	A. M.	OLYMPIADS.	Era of Nabonaſſar.	Era of Rome.	70 Weeks.
ANTIGONUS finding that PTOLEMY, LYSIMACHUS and CASSANDER had been influenc'd by SELEUCUS to confederate againſt him, ſoon return'd to Cilicia, and then march'd into Syria and Phenicia; in order to diſpoſſeſs PTOLEMY, and raiſe a naval Force: for Ptolemy had carried moſt of the Phenician Ships to Egypt. While he incamp'd on the Coaſt, SELEUCUS aboard 100 Sail of Ptolemy's Ships inſulted him; but he ſoon rigg'd out a ſuperiour Fleet before the End of the Year.		10	3	7	222	4400	314	3690	3	434	435	145	ANTIGONUS having order'd his Fleet to be got ready, left his Son Demetrius in Phenicia, and march'd himſelf into leſſer Aſia againſt Caſſander, whom he ſoon reduc'd to mean Terms: yet Caſſander repenting of them, held on to make a Diverſion, till PTOLEMY gain'd Ground upon Antigonus in Phenicia.
And now Andronicus the General of ANTIGONUS took in Tyre after a Siege of 18 Months.		11	4	8	223	4401	313	3691	4	435	436	146
PTOLEMY in his March into Phenicia was obſtructed at Gaza by Demetrius, where They fought a fierce Battel in which PTOLEMY gain'd a great Victory, ſlaying 5000 and taking 8000, and drove Demetrius out of all Phenicia and Cœle-Syria. From this retaking of Babylon by SELEUCUS Nicator, the famous Era of the SELEUCIDÆ begins.		12	5	9	224	4402	312	3692	CXVII. 1	436	437	147	Upon PTOLEMY's Succeſs in Phenicia, as on the other Column: He gave SELEUCUS 1000 Foot, and 300 Horſe, to go and recover his Government of Babylon; which he bravely did with ſo ſmall a Force; becauſe he had formerly exercis'd a very gentle Adminiſtration, while Antigonus's Adminiſtration was too ſevere: therefore, the People open'd their Gates to him, and came out to meet him with Joy; nay, and rais'd an Army for him, whereby he was enabled to go forth beyond the Tygris, and fight Nicanor Governor of Media, ſtorming his Camp in the Night upon which Nicanor with a few Friends fled to Antigonus, but the Body of his Army ſubmitted to SELEUCUS, who now took Poſſeſſion of Media, Suſiana and the neighbouring Parts, and eſtabliſh'd his Juriſdiction by the Goodneſs of his Government, and by his Clemency and Juſtice arriv'd from ſo ſmall a Beginning to be the greateſt of all the Succeſſors of ALEXANDER the Great, call'd therefore Nicator, or the Conqueror.
It was us'd all over the Eaſt by Heathens, Jews, Chriſtians and Mahometans, call'd by the Jews the Era of CONTRACTS; becauſe They us'd it in their Contracts and Civil Affairs, till about A. D. 1040. when They were drove out of the Eaſt and ſetled in Europe, and learn'd from the Chriſtian Chronologers to compute from the Creation or the Era of Anno Mundi; tho' it is not wholly diſus'd by them ſtill. The Arabs uſe it and call it Taric Dilcarnain, or the Era of the two Horn'd, and by ſome ignorantly call'd the Era of Alexander, tho' it began 12 Years after his Death; and was ſo call'd, not from the two Horns on the Coins of Alexander; but from thoſe on the Statues of SELEUCUS. It is call'd in the Books of the Maccabees, the Era of the Kingdom of the Greeks; and the firſt Book begins it from the Spring of this Year, but the ſecond Book from the following Autumn, as did the Syrians, Arabs and Jews, and all others except the Chaldeans, who begin it from the Spring of the next Year.	1												Mean while PTOLEMY becoming again Maſter of all Phenicia, Judea and Cœle-Syria, ſent his General Cilles to drive DEMETRIUS out of the upper Syria; but Cilles being careleſs in his Camp, was routed by Demetrius: upon the News of which Victory ANTIGONUS left Phrygia, march'd to join his Son in Syria, and made Ptolemy retreat down to Egypt, leaving his Conqueſts again to Antigonus, but carrying with him all the Riches and a great Number of the People, who choſe to go with him (becauſe of his good Government, and fearing the Severity of Antigonus) with whom Ptolemy peopled Alexandria. Among them was Hezekias, a moſt learn'd Jew, who inſtructed Hecatæus the Greek Hiſtorian in all the Affairs of the Jews, as mention'd by Euſeb. Præpar. Evang. Lib. IX. and by Joſeph. Antiq. Lib. I. cap 8. & cont. App. Lib. I. But
ANTIGONUS having recover'd Phenicia, Judea and Cœle-Syria, (as on the other Column) ſent Athenæus with an Army againſt the Nabathæan Arabs in Petra near Sinai; who firſt ſpoil'd them, but They purſu'd him and recover'd All. Then He ſent DEMETRIUS, but he could not prevail againſt them, and was forc'd to make a Peace; and then was ſent by his Father againſt SELEUCUS at Babylon, while the Father march'd againſt the Confederats to the Coaſt of leſſer Aſia, appointing a time for his Son's Return. SELEUCUS being in Media, DEMETRIUS met with no Oppoſition at Babylon; for Patrocles the Governor, and the People had deſerted it; only He took one of the Caſtles, the other holding out againſt him, till the time appointed for his Return: and ſo after he had plunder'd all the Provinces, whereby he alienated the People's Hearts, Demetrius return'd to his Father and SELEUCUS enter'd Babylon in great Pomp. And from this Year the Chaldeans begin the Era of SELEUCIDÆ, or of Contracts.	2	13	6	10	225	4403	311	3693	2	437	438	148	PTOLEMY and his Confederats endeavour'd to diſtreſs Antigonus in the Coaſt of leſſer Aſia, and laid Siege to Halycarnaſſus; until DEMETRIUS return'd from Babylon (as on the other Column) and rais'd the Siege: when by a Treaty of Partition, ANTIGONUS and the Confederats made a Peace, which was forthwith broken: for the growing Power of Antigonus was their Terror.
And now ALEXANDER Ægus near 14 Years old, and his Mother Roxana were murder'd by Order of Caſſander, in the Caſtle of Amphipolis, where he had kept them Priſoners: but Ptolemy the Aſtronomer's Canon reckons to him 5 Years more, even till the firſt Year of King PTOLEMY Soter in that Canon.	3	14	7	11	226	4404	310	3694	3	438	439	149	PTOLEMY took from Antigonus ſeveral Cities in Cilicia, which were by Demetrius retaken: only Ptolemy by cutting off Nicolas King of Paphos, ſecur'd Cyprus wholly to himſelf.

While he incamp'd on the Coaſt, SELEUCUS aboard 100 Sail of Ptolemy's Ships inſulted him; but he ſoon rigg'd out a ſuperiour Fleet before the End of the Year.		10	3	7	222	4400	314	3690	3	434	435	145	ANTIGONUS having order'd his Fleet to be got ready, left his Son Demetrius in Phenicia, and march'd himſelf into leſſer Aſia againſt Caſſander, whom he ſoon reduc'd to mean Terms: yet Caſſander repenting of them, held on to make a Diverſion, till PTOLEMY gain'd Ground upon Antigonus in Phenicia.
And now Andronicus the General of ANTIGONUS took in Tyre after a Siege of 18 Months.		11	4	8	223	4401	313	3691	4	435	436	146
PTOLEMY in his March into Phenicia was obſtructed at Gaza by Demetrius, where They fought a fierce Battel in which PTOLEMY gain'd a great Victory, ſlaying 5000 and taking 8000, and drove Demetrius out of all Phenicia and Cœle-Syria. From this retaking of Babylon by SELEUCUS Nicator, the famous Era of the SELEUCIDÆ begins. It was us'd all over the Eaſt by Heathens, Jews, Chriſtians and Mahometans, call'd by the Jews the Era of CONTRACTS; becauſe They us'd it in their Contracts and Civil Affairs, till about A. D. 1040. when They were drove out of the Eaſt and ſetled in Europe, and learn'd from the Chriſtian Chronologers to compute from the Creation or the Era of Anno Mundi; tho' it is not wholly diſus'd by them ſtill. The Arabs uſe it and call it Taric Dilcarnain, or the Era of the two Horn'd, and by ſome ignorantly call'd the Era of Alexander, tho' it began 12 Years after his Death; and was ſo call'd, not from the two Horns on the Coins of Alexander; but from thoſe on the Statues of SELEUCUS. It is call'd in the Books of the Maccabees, the Era of the Kingdom of the Greeks; and the firſt Book begins it from the Spring of this Year, but the ſecond Book from the following Autumn, as did the Syrians, Arabs and Jews, and all others except the Chaldeans, who begin it from the Spring of the next Year.	1	12	5	9	224	4402	312	3692	CXVII. 1	436	437	147	Upon PTOLEMY's Succeſs in Phenicia, as on the other Column: He gave SELEUCUS 1000 Foot, and 300 Horſe, to go and recover his Government of Babylon; which he bravely did with ſo ſmall a Force; becauſe he had formerly exercis'd a very gentle Adminiſtration, while Antigonus's Adminiſtration was too ſevere: therefore, the People open'd their Gates to him, and came out to meet him with Joy; nay, and rais'd an Army for him, whereby he was enabled to go forth beyond the Tygris, and fight Nicanor Governor of Media, ſtorming his Camp in the Night: upon which Nicanor with a few Friends fled to Antigonus, but the Body of his Army ſubmitted to SELEUCUS, who now took Poſſeſſion of Media, Suſiana and the neighbouring Parts, and eſtabliſh'd his Juriſdiction by the Goodneſs of his Government, and by his Clemency and Juſtice arriv'd from ſo ſmall a Beginning to be the greateſt of all the Succeſſors of ALEXANDER the Great, call'd therefore Nicator, or the Conqueror.
ANTIGONUS having recover'd Phenicia, Judea and Cœle-Syria, (as on the other Column) ſent Athenæus with an Army againſt the Nabathæan Arabs in Petra near Sinai; who firſt ſpoil'd them, but They purſu'd him and recover'd All. Then He ſent DEMETRIUS, but he could not prevail againſt them, and was forc'd to make a Peace; and then was ſent by his Father againſt SELEUCUS at Babylon, while the Father march'd againſt the Confederats to the Coaſt of leſſer Aſia, appointing a time for his Son's Return. SELEUCUS being in Media, DEMETRIUS met with no Oppoſition at Babylon; for Patrocles the Governor, and the People had deſerted it; only He took one of the Caſtles, the other holding out againſt him, till the time appointed for his Return: and ſo after he had plunder'd all the Provinces, whereby he alienated the People's Hearts, Demetrius return'd to his Father and SELEUCUS enter'd Babylon in great Pomp. And from this Year the Chaldeans begin the Era of SELEUCIDÆ, or of Contracts.	2	13	6	10	225	4403	311	3693	2	437	438	148	Mean while PTOLEMY becoming again Maſter of all Phenicia, Judea and Cœle-Syria, ſent his General Cilles to drive DEMETRIUS out of the upper Syria; but Cilles being careleſs in his Camp, was routed by Demetrius: upon the News of which Victory ANTIGONUS left Phrygia, march'd to join his Son in Syria, and made Ptolemy retreat down to Egypt, leaving his Conqueſts again to Antigonus, but carrying with him all the Riches and a great Number of the People, who choſe to go with him (becauſe of his good Government, and fearing the Severity of Antigonus) with whom Ptolemy peopled Alexandria. Among them was Hezekias, a moſt learn'd Jew, who inſtructed Hecatæus the Greek Hiſtorian in all the Affairs of the Jews, as mention'd by Euſeb. Præpar. Evang. Lib. IX. and by Joſeph. Antiq. Lib. I. cap. 8. & cont. App. Lib. I. But PTOLEMY and his Confederats endeavour'd to diſtreſs Antigonus in the Coaſt of leſſer Aſia, and laid Siege to Halycarnaſſus; until DEMETRIUS return'd from Babylon (as on the other Column) and rais'd the Siege: when by a Treaty of Partition, ANTIGONUS and the Confederats made a Peace, which was forthwith broken: for the growing Power of Antigonus was their Terror.
And now ALEXANDER Ægus near 14 Years old, and his Mother Roxana were murder'd by Order of Caſſander, in the Caſtle of Amphipolis, where he had kept them Priſoners: but Ptolemy the Aſtronomer's Canon reckons to him 5 Years more, even till the firſt Year of King PTOLEMY Soter in that Canon.	3	14	7	11	226	4404	310	3694	3	438	439	149	PTOLEMY took from Antigonus ſeveral Cities in Cilicia, which were by Demetrius retaken: only Ptolemy by cutting off Nicolas King of Paphos, ſecur'd Cyprus wholly to himſelf.

ALEXANDER Ægus King of Macedon.	Era of Seleucus.	After the Death of Alexander.	Kings of Macedon.	High Priests.	Era of the 2d TEMPLE.	Julian Period	before Chriſt.	A. M.	OLYMPIADS.	Era of Nabonaſſar.	Era of Rome.	Era of 70 Weeks.	Kings of Egypt.
Polyſpercon who rul'd in Peloponneſus pretended to revenge that Murder, and ſet up Hercules the Son of ALEXANDER by Barſina the fair Widow of Memnon; but CASSANDER complying with his Terms, induc'd him to cauſe Hercules and his Mother to be put to Death, as CASSANDER had ALEXANDER and Roxana; and ſo an end was put to the Race of ALEXANDER the Great.														And now Epicurus aged 32, began at Mitylene in Lesbos to broach his impious Philoſophy; as he did afterwards at Lampſachus in the Helleſpont, and then at Athens his native City, when aged 37, where he kept School in a Garden till he died, aged 63.
PTOLEMY now invaded Pamphylia, and Lycia, and other maritime Parts; and took from Antigonus the Cities of Phaſelis, Caunus, Mindus and others; and then ſail'd into the Ægean Sea, now call'd Archipelago.	4	15	8	12	227	4405	309	3695	4	439	440	150		About this time the Romans led their Colonies to diſtant Places: and Lyſimachia in Thrace was built, Euſeb.
Next Year he took in the Iſland of Andros, and from thence he ſail'd to Sicyon and Corinth, which he took Poſſeſſion of and of the neighbourhood: while here, PTOLEMY correſponded with CLEOPATRA the Siſter of Alexander the Great, and Widow of Alexander King of Epirus, reſiding at Sardis in Lydia; and perſuaded her to leave the Dominions of Antigonus, and to reſide in his Dominions: but on the Road ſhe was catch'd, brought back and privately put to Death by order of Antigonus, who afterwards put to Death the Women that murder'd her, and gave her a ſolemn Funeral in order to avoid the Infamy: but all the World blam'd him ſtill.	5	16	9	13	228	4406	308	3696	CXVIII. 1	440	441	151		Ophellas one of Alexander's Captains having ſeiz'd Lybia and Cyrene for himſelf, and revolted from PTOLEMY, was invited by Agathocles King of Sicily to join him againſt the Carthaginians, with a fair Promiſe of making him Maſter of all Africa. Ophellas rais'd 20000 effective Men; and after a long March, join'd the Army of Agathocles near Carthage: but Agathocles found Means to cut off Ophellas treacherouſly, that he might uſe the Lybian Army for his own Purpoſes.
	6	17	10	14	229	4407	307	3697	2	441	442	152		And this Year PTOLEMY, upon the Death of Ophellas, recover'd the Provinces of Cyrene and Lybia, which he added to his Kingdom of Egypt.
DEMETRIUS the Son of Antigonus came with an Army to Athens, and expell'd Demetrius Phalereus the good Governor, who retir'd to Caſſander. Demetrius the Conqueror finding at Athens EURIDICE the fair Widow of Ophellas, deſcended from Miltiades (who after her Husband's Death had retir'd to her native Place) fell in Love with her and married her.	7	18	11	15	230	4408	306	3698	3	442	443	153		ANTIGONUS ſent for his Son DEMETRIUS from Athens, and gave him the Command of a great Fleet and Army to go and take Cyprus from Ptolemy, where he landed: he took in Carpaſia and Urania, beat Menelaus the Brother of Ptolemy in the Field, and beſieg'd him in Salamine. This brought Ptolemy with a Fleet to the Relief of Cyprus: but DEMETRIUS beat him at Sea, and made him flee home with 8 Ships only: upon which the whole Iſland of Cyprus was conquer'd by DEMETRIUS.
DEMETRIUS having conquer'd Cyprus (as on the other Column) He and his Father ANTIGONUS proclaim'd themſelves Kings, wore each a Diadem and Royal Robes, and us'd the Royal Title in all their Deeds. And now SELEUCUS was grown mighty in the Eaſt; for having ſlain in Battel Nicanor, who had been ſent by Antigonus againſt him, He ſecur'd for himſelf Babylon, Aſſyria, Media, Perſia, Bactria, Hyrcania, and All to the River Indus that ALEXANDER had conquer'd before. PTOLEMY wrote to SELEUCUS, LYSIMACHUS and CASSANDER an Account of Antigonus's Baffle in his Attempt upon Egypt (as on the other Column) and having renew'd their League againſt that common Enemy, They all declar'd themſelves Kings, as ANTIGONUS had done laſt Year: and PLTOEMY being now firmly ſettled on the Throne of Egypt, Ptolemy the Aſtronomer in his Canon, begins his Reign with next Year. King SELEUCUS having ſecur'd himſelf in all the Countries from the Euphrates to the Indus, became very potent, and together with King CASSANDER of Macedon, and King LYSIMACHUS of Thrace join'd PTOLEMY Soter, the Son of Lagus King of Egypt againſt the Kings of leſſer Aſia, ANTIGONUS and his Son DEMETRIUS.	8	19	12	16	231	4409	305	3699	4	443	444	154		King ANTIGONUS in Purſuance of his Blow at Cyprus, march'd 100000 Men down to Egypt, while King DEMETRIUS ſail'd with a great Fleet to make a Deſcent: but PTOLEMY had well ſecur'd all the Mouths of the Nile, that Demetrius could not land, and all the Paſſes by Land, that ANTIGONUS could not enter Egypt, but hover'd on the Borders till he had loſt many thouſands by Deſertion and Death; and when his Proviſions were nigh ſpent, he return'd to Paleſtine with Diſgrace, and DEMETRIUS with his Fleet ſhatter'd by Storms.
SANDROCOTTUS an Indian of mean Birth, during the Conteſts of Alexander's Captains, had got Poſſeſſion of the Provinces beyond the Indus, upon the Aſſurance of delivering them from the Yoke of Foreigners.	9			17	232	4410	304	3700	CXIX. 1	444	445	155	1	King ANTIGONUS when return'd from Egypt into Syria, ſent King DEMETRIUS his Son with a Fleet and Army againſt the Iſle of Rhodes; for refuſing to aſſiſt him in his Wars againſt Ptolemy King of Egypt: but after a Year's time ſpent in the Siege of the capital City, Demetrius was forc'd to make Peace with the Rhodians; who for the Support They receiv'd in this War from PTOLEMY the Son of Lagus King of Egypt, call'd him Soter the Saviour, conſecrated to him a Grove with ſumptuous Work, call'd the Ptolemeum; and paid him divine Honours in this firſt Year of his Reign, according to the Canon of Ptolemy the Aſtronomer, tho' he truly reign'd from the Death of his Maſter ALEXANDER the Great.
SELEUCUS therefore now at Leiſure, march'd over the Indus with an Army againſt Sandrocottus, but Seleucus durſt not attack him: for he had 600000 Men in the Field, beſides Elephants in abundance; therefore, he made	10			18	233	4411	303	3701	2	445	446	156	2	DEMETRIUS now ſail'd into Greece, took Sicyon and Corinth from Ptolemy, and moſt other Places of Greece, preſſing hard Northwards towards Caſſander in Macedon, till he forc'd him to ſue for Peace. But made Peace with Sandrocottus, who gave him 500 Elephants for War, and he return'd Weſtward to make War againſt Antigonus.

Continuation of TABLE XXVIII.

ALEXANDER Ægus King of Macedon.

ANTIGONUS heard of the Invaſion of LYSIMACHUS, (as on the other Column) while celebrating ſolemn Games at Antigonia, a new City built by him in upper Syria; and having forthwith diſmiſs'd the People, he march'd over Mount Taurus into Cilicia, where he augmented his Forces, and haſten'd directly againſt Lyſimachus, who not being ſtrong enough, ſtood upon the Defenſive till SELEUCUS and PTOLEMY ſhould join him: for next Year

SELEUCUS march'd a great Army from Babylon to Cappadocia; upon the News of which ANTIGONUS ſent for DEMETRIUS from Greece, who arriving at Epheſus, recover'd that City with other Places which had revolted.

At length the Forces of SELEUCUS and LYSIMACHUS being join'd on the one Side, and thoſe of ANTIGONUS and DEMETRIUS on the other Side, They came to a Deciſion in the Battel of Ipſus in Phrygia; in which ANTIGONUS, aged about 84, being ſlain, and his Army routed, the Confederats gain'd a total Victory.

DEMETRIUS eſcap'd to Epheſus with 9000 Men only out of 90000, and went aboard his Fleet; but was never able to recover his Fathers's Dominions, ſhifting from Place to Place for 17 Years; till at laſt He died in Priſon under SELEUCUS, as will be accounted for.

Era of Seleucus.	High Prieſts.	Era of the 2d TEMPLE.	Era of 70 Weeks	Julian Period.	ERA before Chriſt.	A. M.	OLYMPIADS.	Era of Nabonaſſar.	Era of Rome.	Kings of Egypt.
12	20	335	158	4413	301	3703	4	447	448	4

But when he found Demetrius's Terms exorbitant, even a total and abſolute Reſignation to the Will of ANTIGONUS, CASSANDER conſulted LYSIMACHUS, and They ſent the Caſe to SELEUCUS and PTOLEMY; who being convinc'd of the Deſign of Antigonus and Demetrius to ſuppreſs all the Captains of ALEXANDER, and to uſurp the whole Empire, enter'd into a ſtrict Alliance with the other two, who began the War in the Helleſpont. LYSIMACHUS paſs'd into Aſia with a great Army, and reduc'd Phrygia, Lydia, Lycaonia; and moſt Parts from the Propontis to the River Meander were either ſubdu'd, or elſe revolted.

PTOLEMY, upon the March of ANTIGONUS out of Syria (as on the other Column) march'd out of Egypt with an Army, and recover'd Phenicia, Judea and Cœle-Syria, except Tyre and Sidon: but hearing a falſe Rumour of Antigonus's Victory over Seleucus and Lyſimachus, Ptolemy broke up the Siege of Sidon, and return'd to Egypt.

Now upon the Death of Antigonus in the Battel of Ipſus (as on the other Column) the Confederats made a New Partition of the Grecian Monarchy. PTOLEMY got Egypt, Lybia, Cyrene, Arabia, Phenicia, Judea and Cœle-Syria. CASSANDER got Greece and Macedon: LYSIMACHUS got Thrace and Bithynia, and the Parts near the Helleſpont, and Boſphorus; and SELEUCUS got All the reſt. Theſe are the 4 HORNS of the HE-GOAT, or the 4 Heads of the Leopard mention'd in the Prophecies of Daniel.

I have brought down the Years from the Death of ALEXANDER the Great only to 19 Years, or the Year when Antigonus, Demetrius, Ptolemy, Seleucus, Caſſander and Lyſimachus firſt aſſum'd the Title of King; and the next Year being the firſt Year of PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt (according to the Canon of Ptolemy the Aſtronomer) by adding to it 19, you have always the Total from the Death of ALEXANDER; and by adding 6 Years more, you have the Total from the Death of DARIUS Codomannus, or the Commencement of the Grecian Monarchy, according to our Computation; and by adding two Years more, you have the Commencement of the Grecian Monarchy, according to Ptolemy's Canon, who begins it upon ALEXANDER's founding of the City Alexandria in Egypt, two Years before the Death of DARIUS.

Some alſo compute the Reign of PTOLEMY Soter from the Death of ALEXANDER, which may be eaſily adjuſted by adding 19 to the firſt Year of his Reign: and tho' SELEUCUS's Reign ſhould begin the ſame Year with that of PTOLEMY Soter, it is uſually reckon'd to begin with the Era of Seleucus, when he retook Babylon.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Egypt, and Syria, and their Contemporaries, upon the Partition of the Grecian Monarchy, viz.
From the Death of ANTIGONUS, or 4th Year of PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt, or 12th Year of SELEUCUS King of Syria, A. M. 3703.
To the Death of PTOLEMY Euergetes King of Egypt, or firſt Year of ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria; during 79 Years.

THE Grecian Monarchy conſiſting of four Parts, according to the Prophecy of Daniel, ſuffer'd various Revolutions till it gave Place to the Roman Monarchy. Onias the High Prieſt of Jeruſalem being dead was ſucceeded by SIMON the Juſt his Son, who liv'd in that Office 9 Years. CASSANDER now reign'd in Peace King of Macedon, whoſe Wife was Theſſalonice the other Siſter of ALEXANDER the Great, who had bore to him three Sons, Philip, Antipater and Alexander. LYSIMACHUS King of Thrace now married Arſinoe Daughter of PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt, by Queen Eurydice; and married his Son Agathocles to Lyſandra the full Siſter of Arſinoe. Upon which Lyſimachus's firſt Queen Amaſtris (who had been the Widow of Dionyſius King of Heraclea) deſerted him, retir'd to their native City Heraclea, and built the City Amaſtris on the Euxin Coaſt.	5	1	236	159	4414	300	3704	CXX. 1	448	449	13	Upon the Death of ANTIGONUS, the four Confederats, viz. SELEUCUS, PTOLEMY, CASSANDER and LYSIMACHUS made a Partition of the Grecian Empire, fix'd their ſeveral Bounds, and made a League to which their Succeſſors appeal'd, as to their Original Charter, in all their Conteſts. SELEUCUS now founded the City of Antioch in upper Syria on the River Orontes, about 20 Miles from the Fall of that River into the Mediterranean, the Mid-way by Land between Conſtantinople and Alexandria in Egypt, about 700 Miles diſtant from each; ſo call'd from the Name of his Father and of his Son. He built other 16 Cities of the ſame Name, one of which is mention'd Act. iii. 14. but This on the Orontes became the Miſtreſs of the Eaſt. He built alſo in Syria the City of Seleucia, and Apamia ſo call'd from his Wife Apama the Daughter of Artabazus the Perſian; and the City of Laodicea from Laodice his Mother; all three near Antioch, from which the Country was call'd Tetrapolis, or the Country of four Cities, alſo call'd Seleucis. About 5 Miles from Antioch at Daphne SELEUCUS erected a Grove ten Miles in Compaſs, and in the Middle of it a Temple to APOLLO and DIANA; a lovely Place, but afterwards wholly devoted to Bacchus and Venus, and a Nurſery of Impiety.
About this time Megaſtenes flouriſh'd, who wrote an Hiſtory of India. He was the Confident of Seleucus, and having treated for his Maſter with Sandrocottus King of India above mention'd, He reſided there ſome time, and gather'd the Materials of his Hiſtory, which is now loſt except ſome Fragments in Joſephus and Euſebius, and ſome Quotations in other Authors: ſo that the Book publiſh'd by Annius of Viterbo under the Name of Metaſthenes (which he miſtook for Megaſthenes) in the 15th Century, is a mere Forgery.	6	2	237	160	4415	299	3705	2	449	450	14	SELEUCUS married the fair Stratonice Daughter of King Demetrius, which he had by Phila the Siſter of CASSANDER. Demetrius was glad of the Propoſal, and carried her with his whole Fleet from Greece; but firſt made a Deſcent upon Cilicia then held by Pliſtarchus the Brother of Caſſander, plunder'd his Treaſures which he carried aboard, and ſail'd thence to Oraſſus in Syria, where he met SELEUCUS; and there having celebrated the Nuptials, Demetrius ſail'd back to Cilicia, and conquer'd all that Country; whereby his Power in Aſia began to revive, having Poſſeſſion alſo of Cyprus, Tyre and Sidon.
CASSANDER having reign'd in Macedon 19 Years from his Father's Death, died this Year of a Dropſy, and his Son Philip died ſoon after, leaving that Crown to be conteſted for by the other two Sons Antipater and ALEXANDER. PYRRHUS King of Epirus having been kept out of his Kingdom by Neoptolemus the Uſurper, had follow'd Demetrius in all his Wars very young, till the Marriage of SELEUCUS with Stratonice; when Seleucus made Peace between PTOLEMY and Demetrius, and PYRRHUS was deliver'd as the Hoſtage of Demetrius, and carried by Ptolemy into Egypt; where behaving himſelf like a wiſe and brave Prince, Ptolemy gave him to Wife Antigone the Daughter of Berenice his beſt belov'd Wife. PTOLEMY's other Wife was Euridice the Daughter of ANTIPATER and Siſter of CASSANDER, who brought with her into Egypt this ſame Berenice as a Companion, the Widow of one Philip a noble Macedonian, who ſo captivated the Heart of Ptolemy, that he married her too and lov'd her beſt: and now Pyrrhus having married her Daughter, whom ſhe had born to her ſaid firſt Husband, ſhe prevail'd with Ptolemy to aſſiſt her Son-in-law in recovering his Kingdom.	7	3	238	161	4416	298	3706	3	450	451	15	SELEUCUS offer'd to buy Cilicia of Demetrius, who would not ſell it, which made Seleucus angry, and he demanded Tyre and Sidon as a Part of the Syrian Kingdom belonging to him; but Demetrius ſcorn'd the Demand, went and ſtrengthen'd thoſe Places with good Garriſons, and baffled the Deſigns of Seleucus.
	8	4	239	162	4417	297	3707	4	451	452	16	Now Macedon was all in Confuſion by the Conteſts of the Competitors for the Crown, the two Sons of Caſſander, who were increaſing their ſeparate Intereſts with the People.
	9	5	240	163	4418	296	3708	CXXI. 1	452	453	17	Demetrius from Tyre, either by himſelf or his Lieutenants, waſted the Country of the Samaritans, Euſeb. Chron. and after he had reduc'd the Meſſenians, he march'd to Athens.

Continuation of TABLE XXVIX.

PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt.

When PTOLEMY had conquer'd Cyprus and took in Salamine, (as on the other Column) he took Care of Demetrius's Mother, his Wife and Children then in Salamine, and ſent them to him without Ranſom, with all the Perſons and Effects that belong'd to them; nay, with ſeveral magnificent Preſents and great Marks of Honour.

'Tis moſt likely that now alſo Tyre and Sidon fell into the Hands of PTOLEMY; and that SELEUCUS now alſo took Cilicia from Demetrius; for theſe Transactions cannot be aſſign'd to a fitter time.

Upon Antipater's murdering his Mother (as on the other Column) Alexander his Brother call'd in Demetrius to revenge it; and before he reach'd the Borders, all Men deteſted and deſerted Antipater, who fled into Thrace alone, where he ſoon periſh'd. Alexander now rid of his Brother, contriv'd how to be rid of DEMETRIUS by cutting him off: but the King being inform'd of it, was beforehand and cut off Alexander at an Entertainment, juſt as Alexander had plotted to ſlay him; and ſo DEMETRIUS obtain'd the Crown of Macedon, where he reign'd 7 Years, till a croſs Turn of Fortune expell'd him; as will appear in its Place.

PTOLEMY King of Egypt, being an excellent Scholar, founded a Museum, or College of learned Men at Alexandria, for the Improvement of Learning; for which End He gather'd a Library of Books, that was daily increaſing at Brachium, a Place near that City, near the Palace; to which he was adviſ'd by Demetrius Phalereus the late learn'd Prince of Athens, who had been ejected by King DEMETRIUS, and had liv'd with CASSANDER till he died; and upon Antipater's murdering his Mother Theſſalonice, Phalerius thought it beſt to retire into Egypt, where PTOLEMY made him his prime Counſellor; and by whoſe Advice he built the Museum, and erected the ſaid Library.

SIMON the Juſt High Prieſt of Jeruſalem died this Year, and his Son Onias being an Infant, Simon was ſucceeded by his Brother Eleazar, who officiated 15 Years.

SIMON was the laſt of the 120 Elders, or Men of the Great Synagogue, who had begun to form themſelves at the Reduction from the Captivity with EZRA at their Head, for the reſtoring of the State and Church of the Jews, and for making a true Collection of the Holy Scriptures, which SIMON finiſh'd by adding to the Canon, the two Books of Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Eſther and Malachi.

The warlike Preparations of DEMETRIUS (as on the other Column) alarm'd PTOLEMY, SELEUCUS, LYSIMACHUS and PYRRHUS to confederate againſt him. And ſo while Lyſimachus invaded Macedon on the one ſide, Pyrrhus invaded it on the other ſide, and took the great City Berœa, where Demetrius's Soldiers had their Families and Effects; which made them all deſert to Pyrrhus, whom they made their King: but he reign'd only about 7 Months, for Lyſimachus took the Kingdom of Macedon, and reign'd about 5 Years there as well as in Thrace.

Demetrius having taken Miletus in leſſer Aſia (as on the other Column) invaded Caria and Lydia, where he recruited his Army, and took in Sardis: but

SELEUCUS Nicator King of Syria.

For the Athenians having alſo revolted from him, he beſieg'd them ſtraitly, and by a Famine They were forc'd to a Surrender. Having reſetled Athens, DEMETRIUS deſign'd to ſubdue the Lacedemonians, and beat them in two Battels: but as he was juſt upon aſſaulting the City of Lacedemon, he deſiſted and rais'd the Siege upon the News that LYSIMACHUS had invaded and taken his Territories and Cities in Aſia, and that PTOLEMY had ſubdu'd all Cyprus except Salamine, which he beſieg'd and ſoon took it, as on the other Column.

Antipater the eldeſt Son of CASSANDER perceiving his Mother Theſſalonice, to favour moſt his younger Brother Alexander, by her Intereſt with the People, was highly inrag'd, impiouſly fell upon her, and ſlew her with his own Hands, while ſhe begg'd her Life by ſhewing him her Breaſts that ſuckled him; tho' in vain: and as the Offspring of ALEXANDER the Great had been extirpated by the Murder of Alexander and Hercules his Sons; ſo now the Offspring of PHILIP his Father was extirpated in the Murder of Theſſalonice, and in the Death of her two Sons without Iſſue (as on the other Column) nay, Philip and ALEXANDER the Great his Son, and all their Relatives, died violent Deaths.

SELEUCUS now founded Seleucia on the Weſt Side of the Tigris, over againſt where Bagdad now ſtands on the Eaſt Side, which He made the Metropolis of his Provinces Eaſt of that River (as Antioch was of thoſe Weſt of that River) about 40 Miles South of old Babylon, which now was drain'd of its Inhabitants to people Seleucia, and became in ſome time a Deſolation even to this Day, according to the Prophecy, Iſa. xiii. 19——22.

This new City became exceeding great, and was by foreign Writers call'd Babylon, was afterwards the Palace of the Parthian Kings, and after that of the Perſian Kings, that held it till the Cities Cteſephon and Almadayen were built, which quite exhauſted Seleucia, which became a Deſolation as well as Babylon, till Abu Jaaſar Almanſur the Caliph, or Emperor of the Saracens began to reign A. D. 754. when nothing remain'd of it, but the Cell of a Chriſtian Monk call'd Dad, with a Garden call'd Bagdad, or the Garden of Dad; where Almanſur founded a new City to be the Capital of his Empire, A. D. 762. But it was ſoon tranſported to the other Side of the Tigris, where Bagdad now ſtands.

About this Time, ANTIOCHUS the Son of Seleucus fell ſick in Love of Queen STRATONICE his Mother-in-law, which Eraſiſtratus his Phyſician diſcover'd to Seleucus, who, to ſave his belov'd Son's Life, conſented to give him Stratonice in Marriage, and ſhe became the Wife of the Son, after ſhe had born Children in lawful Wedlock to the Father, who alſo crown'd them King and Queen of upper Aſia, and ſent them to rule there.

DEMETRIUS having ſetled his Affairs, as he thought, in Greece and Macedon, rais'd 100000 Men, and rigg'd out 500 Ships, in order to recover his Father's Dominions in Aſia.

Demetrius having loſt his Army (as on the other Column) fled alone privately to Greece; and having committed his Affairs then to the Care of Antigonus his Son, he rais'd 11000 Men, went aboard his Fleet, and ſail'd into Aſia to puſh his Fortune; but his Wife Phila the Siſter of CASSANDER poiſon'd herſelf for Grief of her Husband's Misfortunes.

But when he arriv'd at Miletus and had took it, he was there married to Ptolemaida the Daughter of PTOLEMY, brought to him by her Mother Queen but Agathocles the Son of LYSIMACHUS coming againſt him with a ſuperior Force, Demetrius quitted All and march'd Eaſtward, where he was diſtreſs'd for want of Proviſions; and a great Sickneſs among his Men; and becauſe Agathocles coaſted him all the Way, he attempted in vain to paſs Mount Taurus, for Agathocles had ſeiz'd the Paſſes; and therefore march'd backward to Tarſus in Cilicia, from whence he ſent to SELEUCUS for Subſiſtence for him and his remaining Forces, which was granted for ſome time: but Seleucus afraid of his vaſt Genius and military Skill, thought fit to cruſh him at once and march'd an Army againſt him.

SELEUCUS having got Demetrius in Priſon (as on the other Column) ſent him often kind Meſſages and a Promiſe of Releaſement as ſoon as ANTIOCHUS and STRATONICE ſhould come to his Court. But before they came, Demetrius, idle in Confinement, ſpent his Time in Eating, Drinking and Gaming, till fill'd with noxious Humours he contracted Sickneſs, and died in three Years, aged 54 Years.

PTOLEMY Soter the Son of Lagus having reign'd in Egypt from the Death of Alexander the Great, 39 Years, and from his taking the Title of King, 20 Years, and from the Death of Antigonus, 16 Years; was influenc'd by his ſecond Queen Berenice, his beſt belov'd Wife, to make his Son by her the Partner of his Throne, viz.

2. Ptolemy Philadelphus, in order to prevent Quarrels after his Death.

The Tower of Pharos at Alexandria, or the moſt famous Light-Houſe that ever was built, being one of the Seven Wonders of Art, begun by PTOLEMY Soter, was now finiſh'd by PTOLEMY Philadelphus, and by his Architects Soſtratus of Cnidus, and his Father Dexiphanes who built the Heptaſtadium, or Bank of 7 Furlongs, for joining the Iſland of Pharos to the Continent; while his Son rear'd the Tower.

PTOLEMY Soter at length died, aged 84 Years, accounted the wiſeſt and beſt of all his Race: and now none of ALEXANDER's Captains remain'd, but SELEUCUS and LYSIMACHUS, who, tho' about 80 Years old, made War upon each other, to the Deſtruction of them both. The Occaſion was that Arſinoe the Daughter of PTOLEMY Soter by Queen Berenice, and Queen of LYSIMACHUS, fearing that her Son-in-law Agathocles (who had married Lyſandra the Daughter of PTOLEMY Soter by Queen Euridice) by Ceraunus's Means ſhould be too ſtrong for her and her Children, when Lyſimachus ſhould die, influenc'd her Husband, by falſe Accuſations, to caſt him into Priſon, and there cut him off: upon which Agathocles's Widow Lyſandra, and her Children and Ceraunus fled to SELEUCUS.

SELEUCUS having ſlain Lyſimachus (as on the other Column) was the only ſurviving Captain of ALEXANDER the Great, and now ſeems to have acquir'd the Title of Nicator, or the Conqueror, tho' he had aſſum'd it before. But his Triumph laſted not long.

For as he was marching to take Poſſeſſion of Macedon, where he intended to paſs the Remainder of his Days, He was baſely murder'd by PTOLEMY Ceraunus at Argos near Lyſimachia: after he had reign'd from his retaking of Babylon 33 Years, and from his wearing a Crown 25 Years, but Ceraunus did not go long unpuniſh'd; for next Year

SELEUCUS Nicator King of Syria.

Queen Euridice his laſt Wife's Siſter: and Ptolemaida bore to him afterwards a Son call'd Demetrius, who in time became King of Cyrene.

Demetrius being reduc'd to great Straits (as on the other Column) and hearing at Tarſus that SELEUCUS was on his March againſt him, ſeiz'd ſome Forts in Mount Taurus, and again ſent to Seleucus requeſting leave to paſs into the Eaſt, and to ſeize ſome barbarous Country, where he might end his Days in Peace: but that Meſſage encreaſing the Jealouſy of Seleucus, he order'd him to be gone after two Months Winter Quarters. But Demetrius finding himſelf beſet by Agathocles and Seleucus, he fell upon Seleucus's Forces that guarded the Mountains, and got into Syria.

There he lay Sick 40 Days, and when recover'd he deſperately reſolv'd to Storm Seleucus's Camp in the Night; but his Deſign being diſcover'd, prov'd abortive; and at laſt being near ſtarv'd in the Woods, he was forced to ſurrender himſelf to Seleucus, who ſent him Priſoner to the Syrian Cherſoneſus. Upon which SELEUCUS join'd the leſſer Aſia to his Syrian Kingdom.

Upon the Promotion of PTOLEMY Philadelphus to his Father's Throne, his eldeſt Brother Ptolemy Ceraunus (born by the firſt Queen, Euridice the Daughter of Antipater and Siſter of Caſſander) fled to LYSIMACHUS, whoſe Son Agathocles had married Lyſandra the full Siſter of Ceraunus, and was very kindly receiv'd there.

A little before PTOLEMY Soter died, the Image of Jupiter was brought from Synope in Pontus to Rhacotis near Alexandria, which the Egyptians call'd Serapis, whom They now firſt worſhip'd and built a famous Temple for him call'd the Serapeum; at which a new Alexandrian Library was erected afterwards, when the Muſeum at Brachium was once fill'd with 400000 Manuſcripts. The Serapeum came to hold 300000 Volumes, in all 700000. The Brachium was burnt down in the Wars of JULIUS CÆSAR, and all its Volumes conſum'd; but the Serapeum remain'd unhurt, to which Cleopatra added 200000 Volumes of the Library of Pergamus given her by Antony; and it became as large and famous as the former, till It was burnt and deſtroy'd by the Saracens, A. D. 642.

PHILETÆRUS the Eunuch, the Governor of the City of Pergamus and Treaſurer of LYSIMACHUS, being griev'd for the Death of Agathocles, and finding Queen Arſinoe deſign'd to cut him off too; now revolted, and under the Protection of SELEUCUS he founded the Kingdom of Pergamus, where he reign'd 20 Years.

SELEUCUS having prepar'd an Army, march'd into leſſer Aſia, and took Sardis from Lyſimachus where his Treaſures lay.

LYSIMACHUS march'd an Army over the Helleſpont, and fought a Battel with Seleucus at Corupedion in Phrygia; wherein LYSIMACHUS was ſlain; whereby SELEUCUS got all the leſſer Aſia.

Ptolemy Ceraunus having murder'd SELEUCUS, as on the other Column, headed the Army and got himſelf declar'd the Succeſſor of LYSIMACHUS, King of Thrace and of Macedon, murder'd the two Sons of Arſinoe, and poorly baniſh'd her into Samothracia: but his Triumph was very ſhort, as on the other Column.

2. ANTIOCHUS

Continuation of TABLE XXIX.

PTOLEMY Philadelphus King of Egypt.

The Gauls invading Macedonia, defeated him in a Battel, took him Priſoner and tore him to Pieces, as he deſerv'd: upon which Soſthenes took the Kingdom, and reign'd 2 Years, having defeated the Gauls. But before he reign'd Meleager the Brother of Ceraunus reign'd two Months, till the People expell'd him and ſet up Antipater the Nephew of CASSANDER, who reign'd only 45 Days before Soſthenes.

Arſinoe the Widow of LYSIMACHUS now retir'd into Egypt, where her Brother PHILADELPHUS fell in Love with her, and marry'd her; having convicted his firſt Wife of a Plot againſt his Life, and baniſh'd her into upper Egypt: her Name was alſo Arſinoe the Daughter of LYSIMACHUS, who had born to him two Sons.

Brennus and Acichorius with their Gauls 152000 Foot, and 61200 Horſe, again invaded Macedon and defeated Soſthenes: but deſigning to conquer Greece, They were moſtly deſtroy'd, as related by Polybius, Lib. I.

But the Remainder of the Gauls under Leonorius and Lutharius paſs'd the Boſphorus and Helleſpont, and enter'd into the Service of Nicomedes King of Bithynia, by whoſe help he defeated Zipætes his Brother, and aſſign'd them the Country to dwell in, call'd by ſome Gallo-Græcia, and by others Galatia, and their Offspring were call'd Galatians. Soſthenes King of Macedon now died.

Eleazar the High Prieſt being dead, he was ſucceeded by Manaſſeh the Son of Jadduah the Unkle of Onias the Son of SIMON the Juſt, becauſe Onias was ſtill under Age.

This Year PHILADELPHUS King of Egypt caus'd the Pentateuch, or 5 Books of Moſes to be tranſlated into Greek, by the 72 Interpreters; as afterwards the reſt of the Books of the Old Teſtament were tranſlated, commonly call'd the Septuagint Bible.

ANTIGONUS artfully diſappointed the Gauls of his Treaſure and Furniture, by carrying it to the Woods. Upon which They return'd to their Ships; but on the Shore They were met with, and deſtroy'd with a great Slaughter; whereby the Credit of Antigonus was rais'd high. But the Gauls in Aſia laid all the Country Weſt of Taurus under Tribute, and Pyrrhus ſent into Greece and Aſia for Succours, but in vain

The ROMANS now ſent their Conſul Curius Dentatus with an Army againſt PYRRHUS, who ſlew 23000 of the Enemy drove, Pyrrhus to Tarentum, and at laſt after a ſix Years War forc'd him back to Epirus. Upon which PTOLEMY Philadelphus ſent Ambaſſadors to Rome to deſire their Friendſhip; which They were ſo pleas'd with, that next Year

They ſent Q. Fabius Gurges, Cn. Fabius Pictor, and Q. Ogulnius their Ambaſſadors to PTOLEMY in Egypt: as may be ſeen in Livy, Eutropius Val. Max. &c.

Upon the Death of PYRRHUS (as on the other Column) the Tarentin War ended, Philo having deliver'd the City Tarentum to the Romans.

Straton the Maſter of the Peripatetic School being dead, was ſucceeded by Lycon the Son of Aſtyanax, Laert.

ANTIOCHUS Soter King of Syria

2. ANTIOCHUS Soter the Son of SELEUCUS Nicator (by Apama the Daughter of Artabazus the Perſian) who had married STRATONICE his Mother-in-law, being poſſeſs'd of the Government ſucceeded to his Father, and reign'd 19 Years.

He forthwith ſent his General Patrocles with an Army into leſſer Aſia, who march'd againſt the Heracleans a Colony of the Greeks in Pontus on the Euxin Sea: but coming to a Treaty with that Commonwealth, He invaded Bithynia, where he and all his Army were by a Stratagem cut off.

ZIPÆTES was then King of Bithynia, who died for Joy of this Victory, aged 76; after he had reign'd 48 Years, and was ſucceeded by NICOMEDES his eldeſt Son, who murder'd two of his Brothers; but the third call'd Zipætes eſcap'd and made War againſt him. But Nicomedes being threatn'd by ANTIOCHUS alſo, invited the Gauls to his Aſſiſtance; which was the Occaſion of their firſt coming into leſſer Aſia.

Upon the Death of Soſthenes King of Macedon, (as on the other Column) ANTIOCHUS Soter claim'd that Kingdom: but ANTIGONUS Gonatas the Son of the Great Demetrius (who died in Confinement) having reign'd in Greece about ten Years, ever ſince his Father's unfortunate Expedition into Aſia, was at Hand and took Poſſeſſion of Macedon.

ANTIOCHUS rais'd an Army to diſpoſſeſs ANTIGONUS; and in his March quarrell'd with Nicomedes his Confederate; but They came to Terms: and becauſe ANTIGONUS married Phila the Daughter of STRATONICE by Seleucus, Antiochus quitted his Claim to Macedon, where ANTIGONUS reign'd 34 Years, and his Offspring long reign'd there till the laſt of them PERSEUS was conquer'd by Paulus Æmilius, when Macedon became a Province of Rome.

And now ANTIOCHUS march'd againſt the Gauls in Aſia, that had become great Oppreſſors of their Neighbours; and having routed them in Battel, ANTIOCHUS obtain'd the Name Soter the Saviour.

PYRRHUS, tho' baffled in Italy (as on the other Column) upon his Return, defeated ANTIGONUS Gonatas, and beat him out of all his Dominions.

PYRRHUS now deſign'd to conquer Greece and Aſia, and firſt march'd to Laconia, while Areus King of the Lacedemonians was abſent, and helping the Gortynians in Crete: but Acrotatus the Son of AREUS with the Women of Sparta defended that City till Areus return'd. Mean while ANTIGONUS recovers Macedon, and leads an Army into Peloponneſus, at the Return of Areus: and while PYRRHUS march'd to Argos, Oroeſus a brave Cretian in Areus's Army murder'd Ptolemy, the Son of Pyrrhus in Battel; and at Argos the valiant PYRRHUS was ſlain by a poor old Woman, upon which his Army diſpers'd, and ſo Antigonus recover'd All again.

PTOLEMY Philadelphus King of Egypt.

XXIVth Year of JUBILEE tranſacted under MANASSEH the High Prieſt.

MAGAS the Son of Queen Berenice, and of Philip the Macedonian her firſt Husband, and half Brother to PTOLEMY Philadelphus, had been made Lieutenant or Governor of Cyrene and Lybia upon the Death of Ophellas, and had married Apame the Daughter of ANTIOCHUS Soter: and having been long in that Government, deſign'd to make himſelf Maſter, not only of thoſe Provinces where he now reign'd, but even of all-Egypt; and having rebell'd, MAGAS march'd an Army towards Alexandria, but was call'd back on the Road to ſuppreſs the Marmarides that had revolted from him.

And Philadelphus having march'd a great Army to the Borders againſt him, was forc'd alſo to return, in order to ſuppreſs 4000 Gauls, who had conſpir'd to ſeize Egypt; but were ſeiz'd themſelves and put upon a barren Iſland in the Nile, till They were all ſtarv'd to Death.

Mithridates King of Pontus died after he had reign'd 36 Years, and was ſucceeded by ARIOBARZANES his Son.

Now began the firſt Punic or Sicilian War by the Romans againſt the Carthaginians, who had poſſeſs'd Sicily, which laſted 24 Years; and now the Romans firſt carried their Wars out of Italy, and firſt began to fight at Sea, when They took Syracuſe.

NICOMEDES King of Bithynia now built Nicomedia, that afterwards became the Seat of the Roman Emperors in the Eaſt.

The Romans beat the Carthaginians at Sea, and took from them an hundred Towns in Lybia, Euſeb.

Beroſus the Babylonian a Prieſt of Belus, who was a young Man in the Days of Alexander the Great, dedicated now his Hiſtory to ANTIOCHUS the third King after Alexander, of which we have only Fragments in Joſephus and Euſebius. Pliny ſaith It contain'd Aſtronomical Obſervations of 480 Years; which reckoning from the Commencement of the Nabonaſſarian Era, will end about 8 Years before this, when his Book was finiſh'd.

PTOLEMY Philadelphus now built Myos Hormus near Berenice at the Confines of Ethiopia on the Red-Sea; by which Means he drew all the Eaſt-India Trade from the Tyrians, and brought it to Alexandria that became the Staple of it; till the Portugueſe found the way by the Cape of Good Hope.

MAGAS King of Cyrene and Lybia made Peace with his Brother PTOLEMY Philadelphus, by marrying his only Child Berenice to Ptolemy's eldeſt Son, who was declar'd the Heir of Magas.

MAGAS dying, Apame his Queen not liking the Match, ſent to Macedon to Demetrius the Son of the late King DEMETRIUS by Ptolemaida, the Daughter of PTOLEMY Soter; He was half Brother of ANTIGONUS Gonatas: upon his Arrival Apame fell in Love with him, which made him neglect the Daughter, and behave himſelf inſolently. Therefore Berenice rais'd a Poſſe, and led them to the Door of her Mother's Bed-chamber, where They kill'd him in Bed with her. Then Berenice ſent

ANTIOCHUS Soter King of Syria.

ANTIGONUS King of Macedon now became formidable to all Greece; upon which the Athenians and Lacedemonians, and PTOLEMY Philadelphus confederated againſt him; but They did nothing material, nor could They hinder him from ſeizing Athens, in which he put a Garriſon.

Patroclus the Egyptian Admiral this Year, in his Return from Greece, found at Caunus the leud Poet and Sodomite Sodates, whom he caſt into the Sea, for reflecting on his Maſter the King of Egypt, upon his Marriage with Arſinoe his Siſter.

MAGAS engag'd his Father-in-law, ANTIOCHUS Soter, in his Deſign; which PHILADELPHUS being inform'd of, grievouſly diſtreſs'd the maritime Towns of Antiochus, and kept him from helping Magas, who therefore could not ſafely carry on his Project.

PHILETÆRUS Founder of the Kingdom of Pergamus now died, and being an Eunuch was ſucceeded by his Nephew EUMENES.

Antigonus of Socho died alſo, the Preſident of the Sanhedrim at Jeruſalem; in whoſe time the Sect of the Sadducees began by Sadoc one of his Scholars.

ANTIOCHUS Soter now deſign'd to ſeize on the Kingdom of Bithynia, but was bravely repuls'd by EUMENES in a Battel near Sardis; whereby he inlarg'd his Dominion.

ANTIOCHUS Soter upon his Return to Antioch, put to Death one of his Sons for a Conſpiracy in his Abſence, declar'd the other Son his Heir; viz. Antiochus born by STRATONICE; and ſoon after died, being ſucceeded by his ſaid Son, viz.

3. ANTIOCHUS Theos or the Divine, who now married Laodice his Siſter, the Daughter of his Father. He was call'd Theos by the Mileſians, for delivering them from the Tyranny of Timarchus, who being Ptolemy's Governor in Caria (for Ptolemy poſſeſs'd Caria, Cilicia, Lycia and Pamphilia) revolted and fix'd at Miletus.

I had forgot to remark that the Periods of Calippus began on the 28th of June, with the new Moon of the Summer Solſtice, that next inſu'd the Overthrow of DARIUS in the Battel near Arbela, An. Nabonaſſar. 418. the firſt Callippic Year: and it conſiſts of four of Meton's Cycles of 19 Years each, which make 76 Years for the Period.

The Philippean Years, mention'd by Ptolemy, Clemens Alexandrinus, Euſebius, Cenſorinus, Alphonſus, Albategnius and others, are of the ſame Form with the Years of Nabonaſſar, and computed from the Death of ALEXANDER the Great; and the Year of Nabonaſſar 425. is the firſt Philippean Year. See Page 138.

So that this Year, when King MAGAS of Lybia died, was the 74th Year of the firſt Period of Calippus, and the 67th Philippean Year. The Calippic Periods will ſhew the Years of the Grecian Monarchy from the Battel of Arbela, and the Philippean Years from the Death of Alexander.

In his Return He gave great Sacrifices to be offer'd in the Temple of Jeruſalem to JEHOVAH for his great Victories; and carried home great Spoils, among which 2500 Images, the Egyptian Idols that Cambyſes had carried away, which now PTOLEMY reſtor'd to their ancient Temples; for which the Egyptians call'd him Euergetes, or the Benefactor.

PLOLEMY finding that ANTIOCHUS was to join his Brother SELEUCUS with his Army, clapt up a Peace with Seleucus for ten Years, whereby Seleucus thought himſelf diſingag'd from his Contract with Antiochus, which produc'd a War between them, as on the other Column.

ANTIGONUS Gonatas, after he had reign'd in Greece 44 Years, and in Macedon 34, now died, aged 80 (as Medius and others ſay, or 83 as Porphyrie ſays (in Græc. Euſeb. Scal. Page 229) and was ſucceeded by his Son DEMETRIUS, who reign'd ten Years. He came to be poſſeſs'd of Cyrene and Lybia in Africa. Juſtin writes (Lib. to deſtroy poor Berenice and her young Son; and theſe two unfortunate fled to the Aſylum in Daphne, where they were beſieged and both murder'd.

4. SELEUCUS Callinicus upon his Acceſſion to the Throne, finding the Cities of leſſer Aſia had revolted from him, rigg'd out a great Fleet to reduce them; but he loſt all his Ships and Men in a violent Storm, none eſcaping but himſelf and a few of his Retinue. Upon which the revolted Cities began to pity him, and return'd to their Obedience.

SELEUCUS again poſſeſs'd of leſſer Aſia, rais'd an Army to recover the reſt of his Dominions from Ptolemy; but was totally beaten out of the Field by PTOLEMY, and narrowly eſcap'd to Antioch with a few Friends. Upon which he invited his Brother to join him, viz. ANTIOCHUS Hierax then aged 14, yet at the Head of an Army: he was call'd by ſome Hiſtorians King of Syria, as well as Seleucus was, and call'd Hierax or the Hawke for being of a rapacious Temper.

But tho' SELEUCUS had made Peace with PTOLEMY (as on the other Column) ANTIOCHUS continu'd his Preparations for War in order to be poſſeſs'd of leſſer Aſia as Seleucus had promis'd him: therefore the two royal Brothers came to a Battel near Ancyra, in which SELEUCUS was overthrown, and hardly eſcap'd Death: and the Gauls or Gallatians of ANTIOCHUS's Army hearing that Seleucus was ſlain, deſign'd to cut off their Maſter ANTIOCHUS in order to be Maſters of All: but ANTIOCHUS redeem'd his Life by giving them all his Treaſures.

ARSACES Tiridates now join'd Hyrcania to Parthia, and made a League with THEODOTUS II. King of Bactria (upon the Death of his Father) for mutual Defence againſt the Seleucidæ. But for all that, the two royal Brothers carried on their War againſt each other, which was carried at laſt into Meſopotamia, when the Battel at Babylon happen'd, in which (as Judas Maccabæus ſays, 2 Mac. viii. 20.) 8000 Babyloniſh Jews join'd with 4000 Macedonians under SELEUCUS, vanquiſh'd the Gallatians and ſlew 120000 of them; at length ANTIOCHUS was broken, fled with his Remains to Ariarathes King of Cappadocia, whoſe Daughter he had married, and who order'd him to be cut off: but Antiochus eſcap'd and fled to Egypt, where PTOLEMY kept him in Priſon ſeveral Years, till he broke Priſon, and in his Flight from Egypt he was ſlain by a Gang of Thieves.

that Office, who wrote the Catalogue of all the Theban Kings in Egypt, from MENES or MIZRAIM to the Trojan War, ſtill extant in Sincellus, Page 91, &c. which ſupplies the Defect of Manetho, whoſe Catalogue of the Theban Kings begins only where this ends.

Onias the High Prieſt of Jeruſalem, an old, covetous and inconſiderate Man, had neglected to pay the annual Tribute of 20 Talents to the King of Egypt his Superior: therefore PTOLEMY Euergetes ſent Athenion his Ambaſſador to demand the Arrears and punctual Payment for the Future.

Upon which Onias and the Jews ſent Joſeph the Son of Tobias, by the Siſter of Onias their Ambaſſador to PTOLEMY, who made up the Matter, and by that King was made the Farmer of the Crown's Revenues in Cœle-Syria, Phenicia and Judea, in which Office he continued 22 Years, Joſeph. Antiq. Lib. XII. cap. 4.

PTOLEMY having no Wars in the North, was at Leiſure to extend his Dominions Southward, making himſelf Maſter of both Coaſts of the Red-Sea down to the Streights into the Ocean; whereby he cultivated his Navigation and India Trade.

PTOLEMY Euergetes died this Year much lamented, and was the laſt good King of that Race. Some gave out that he was murder'd by his Son and Heir PTOLEMY Philopater. See the following Table.

This Year a violent Earthquake threw down the Walls of Rhodes, and the Houſes, and the great Coloſſus erected in the Mouth of the Harbour, one of the ſeven Wonders of Art, a Statue of Braſs 105 Foot high dedicated to the SUN, between whoſe Legs the Ships enter'd the Harbour. It was made by the ingenious Chares of Lindus, in 12 Years, and had ſtood 66 Years, and it lay in Ruins 894 Years, till Anno Domini 672; when MOAWIAS the ſixth Caliph of the Saracens ſold it for old Braſs to a Jew, who loaded 900 Camels with it.

SELEUCUS Callinicus King of Syria.

SELEUCUS now deliver'd from his Brother and well recruited, march'd an Army Eaſtward to reduce ARSACES; but he effected nothing, being ſoon call'd back to ſettle Commotions: but as ſoon as he could, He return'd againſt ARSACES, who beat him in a great Battel and took him Priſoner.

The Day of that Battel was long obſerv'd annually by the Parthians, as the firſt Day of their Freedom; and from thence ARSACES aſſum'd the Title of KING, and from him and his Brother all his Succeſſors took the Name of ARSACES.

SELEUCUS Callinicus tho' a Priſoner was handſomely maintain'd in Parthia till he died this Year of a Fall from his Horſe. Athen. and Juſtin. By his Wife Laodice (the Daughter of Andromachus his General) he left two Sons, Seleucus and Antiochus, and a Daughter, who was married to Mithridates King of Pontus, who got Phrygia for her Patrimony.

5. SELEUCUS Ceraunus being eldeſt, ſucceeded his Father in the Throne, and call'd himſelf Ceraunus the Thunderer, tho' he deſerv'd it not, for he could do nothing if he had not been ſupported by his Mother's Brother Achaeus, who got him an Army to march againſt ATTALUS King of Pergamus: but Seleucus could not diſpoſſeſs Attalus from his Conqueſts in leſſer Aſia; and growing contemptible in the Army, Nicanor and Apaturius two of his Generals poiſon'd him while he incamp'd in Phrygia. But Achaeus reveng'd the Murder by cutting off thoſe Traitors, and tho' he was invited by the Army to be King, he declin'd it and generouſly proclaim'd his other Nephew, viz.

6. ANTIOCHUS Magnus then aged 15, and educated at Babylon, from whence Achaeus ſent for him to Antioch, where he mounted the Throne of Syria, and reign'd 36 Years. Achaeus ſent one half of the Army under the Command of Epigenes to attend the King in Syria, and kept the other half to fight King ATTALUS in leſſer Aſia; and ſoon recover'd All that Attalus had taken from the Crown of Syria, reducing him to his old Borders again.

TABLE XXX.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Egypt, and Syria, and their Contemporaries, from the Death of PTOLEMY Euergetes King of Egypt, or the firſt Year of ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria, A. M. 3782. To the 15th Year of PTOLEMY Philometor King of Egypt, or the 10th Year of ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria, or the firſt Year of JUDAS Maccabaeus Prince of the Jews, A. M. 3838. during 56 Years.

PTOLEMY Philopator King of Egypt.

4. PTOLEMY Philopator, or a Lover of his Father, deſerv'd not that Name; for having poiſon'd his Father Euergetes, he thought it convenient next to cut off his Mother Berenice and Magas his only Brother; that ſo he might meet with no Controul or Check in the Purſuit of his Luſts and Tyranny, nay, becauſe Cleomenes the Spartan had adviſ'd againſt the Murder of Magas, he was caſt into Priſon, and when he got out, not being able to excite the Alexandrians to rebel and aſſert their Liberties, He and his Followers kill'd themſelves, rather than fall into the Hands of PHILOPATOR and his vile Favourite Soſibius. Cleomenes had been King of Sparta, but was driven out of Greece by ANTIGONUS King of Macedon, and had fled to the Egyptian Court in the Days of Euergetes, who us'd him well.

PTOLEMY married his own Siſter Arſinoe, but was more influenc'd by his Whore Agathoclea than by his Wife, and his Court became a Bawdy-houſe; for he was addicted to all Sorts of Luſt.

PTOLEMY miſinform'd, order'd Theodotus Governor of Cœle-Syria to come to Egypt and anſwer an heavy Accuſation againſt him, for not doing his Duty againſt ANTIOCHUS. But tho' Theodotus was acquitted upon a Hearing, he deſign'd to deſerve the Accuſation by leaving his Maſter and going over to Antiochus.

ACHÆUS having reſcu'd all the leſſer Aſia from ATTALUS King of Pergamus, became envy'd at the Syrian Court, where the Stateſmen forg'd Letters of Correſpondence between him and PTOLEMY Philopator; which Achæus hearing of, found it neceſſary to do now what he was falſly accus'd of; and ſo declar'd himſelf King of Aſia.

XXVth Year of JUBILEE. —— —— ——

PTOLEMY not being prepar'd to reſiſt ANTIOCHUS, offer'd a Truce for four Months, which was accepted: but at the Treaty neither Side would yield their Pretenſions to Cœle-Syria and Phenicia; therefore They renew'd the War next Year, when PTOLEMY made Nicolas an Etolian his General in thoſe Parts, and ſent Periganes with a Fleet to aſſiſt him, who fought Diognetus the Admiral of Antiochus, the ſame time that Nicolas fought at Land, and in Sight of each other; but it was a drawn Battel at Sea tho' not at Land, as on the other Column.

PTOLEMY now took the Field with 70000 Foot, 5000 Horſe, and 73 Elephants, and march'd to Raphia a Town near Gaza; where Antiochus met him with 62000 Foot, 6000 Horſe, and 102 Elephants: when they came to fight, Antiochus commanding his right Wing, routed Ptolemy's left Wing; but purſuing too far, his left Wing and main Body were intirely routed by

ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria.

ANTIOCHUS had ſent Molon and Alexander two Brothers into the Eaſt, the firſt to be Governor of Media, and the other of Perſia, but They both revolted and declar'd themſelves Kings: but tho' his wiſe General Epigenes adviſ'd ANTIOCHUS to march a great Army againſt thoſe Rebels in the Eaſt, yet Hermias his prime Favorite prevail'd to make him prepare firſt for the Recovery of Syria from PTOLEMY: and ſo he ſent his Generals Eaſtward, and he march'd into Cœle-Syria. But when he heard that They were routed by the Rebels, and ſaw how bravely he was reſiſted by the Egyptian Governor Theodotus an Etolian, who had well fortify'd the Mountains of Libanus and Antilibanus, ANTIOCHUS retreated and reſolv'd to march in Perſon againſt Molon and Alexander, as Epigenes had well adviſ'd (who was cut off this Year by a ſham Plot forg'd by Hermias in revenge of thwarting his Opinion) and even ſtrait march'd into Meſopotamia, where he join'd his other Forces and went into Winter Quarters. And ſo next Spring

ANTIOCHUS croſs'd the Tigris, and in a Battel totally routed Molon, who ſlew himſelf, as did Alexander alſo in Perſia upon the News of Molon's death, having firſt ſlain all his Family: and the King having reſetled thoſe Provinces, and made old ARTABAZES to ſubmit, who was King of the Aſtropatians Weſt of Media in the Country now call'd Georgia; and having privately cut off his dangerous Favourite Hermias, for his intolerable Inſolence, He return'd with his Army into Syria, where he winter'd. And in the Spring

ANTIOCHUS march'd againſt Seleucia on the Orontes, and having reduc'd it out of the Hands of the Egyptian Garriſon (that had held it ever ſince Euergetes came to the Relief of Berenice) He march'd into Cœle-Syria by the Invitation of Theodotus the Governor, who had declar'd for Antiochus, and put into his Hands Tyre, Ptolemais, and Damaſcus.

Nicolas Ptolemy's General having obſtructed the March of Antiochus at the Streights of Libanus near the Sea, was beat from his Poſts, and forc'd to retire to Sidon whither ANTIOCHUS follow'd him; but not being able to take it in ſoon, Antiochus march'd into Galilee, and from thence to Gilead as far as Rabbah or Philadelphia; which he took in, and all the Cities in thoſe Countries, and return'd to his Winter Quarters at Ptolemais.

ANTIOCHUS after he was beaten in the Battel of Raphia (as on the other Column) gather'd up his Remains, return'd to Antioch and left the Prize to PTOLEMY, who made a Progreſs thro'

PTOLEMY Philopator King of Egypt.

Ptolemy, before Antiochus return'd to their Aſſiſtance. This Battel was fought the ſame time that Hannibal vanquiſh'd Flaminius the Roman Conſul at the Lake of Thraſimenus in Hetruria, Polyb. When the ſecond Punic War began that laſted 17 Years.

Arſaces Tiridates King of Parthia died in Peace, after he had reign'd 37 Years, and was ſucceeded by his Son

3. Arſaces ARTABANUS, who reign'd 20 Years.

Had PTOLEMY purſu'd the Blow he might have done what he pleas'd in Aſia; but his exorbitant Love of Pleaſures made him gladly accept of ANTIOCHUS's Terms of Peace, as on the other Column: whereby the Egyptians were offended, and this Peace was the Foundation of a Rebellion afterwards in Egypt.

Upon his Return, PTOLEMY, being inrag'd at the Jews for not permitting him to enter into the holy Place of the Temple of Jeruſalem, (as on the other Column) began a moſt horrible Perſecution of the Jews in Egypt, and at laſt brought Elephants to deſtroy them before him and thouſands of Spectators; but God turn'd the Elephants upon the Spectators only; whereby the Jews were miraculouſly ſav'd, and PTOLEMY convinced of his Error, reſtor'd them to Liberty, Joſeph. Lib. II. cont. App. 3. Book of Maccabees.

And now the Egyptians rais'd a fierce War againſt their King PHILOPATOR, but that he maſter'd this Difficulty appears from his not loſing his Royal Dignity and Power, Polyb.

ARCHIMEDES was ſlain when MARCELLUS took Syracuſe, Livy.

LEVINIUS Prætor, brought the Ætolians and ATTALUS King of Pergamus into a League with the Roman Republick. And next Year the Romans ſent M. Attilius and Manius Acilius their Ambaſſadors to PTOLEMY King of Egypt.

PHILIP King of Macedon beat the Ætolians, ATTALUS King of Pergamus, and the Roman Auxiliaries.

Mean while PHILOPATOR was wholly addicted to his Luſts, and wholly govern'd by his Catamite Agathocles, and his Whore Agathoclea the Siſter of his Catamite, and little regarded Arſinoe, who was his Wife and Siſter too; nay, upon Arſinoe's frequent Complaints and Clamours, He order'd his prime Miniſter Soſibius to put her to Death, which was done by the Hand of one Philammon. Juſtin calls her EURIDICE, and Livy calls her CLEOPATRA, but the more exact Polybius calls her ARSINOE.

The People of Egypt were ſo inrag'd at their King's vile Conduct, that They met in a Grand Council, forc'd Soſibius to deliver up the King's Signet, the Badge of his Office, to Tlepolemus, who acted as prime Miniſter the Remainder of his Reign: but he was more a Soldier than a Stateſman, and came far ſhort of Soſibius in Craft and Application. But PTOLEMY Philopator now aged about 37 Years died, and was ſucceeded by his Son born by Arſinoe, viz.

5. PTOLEMY Epiphanes about 5 Years old, or the Illuſtrious.

Agathocles, and Agathoclea conceal'd Philopator's Death, till They had plunder'd the Palace and endeavour'd to excite the Macedonians to cut off Tlepolemus, and to make them Regents, but in vain; for all the People were inrag'd, took the young King from them, and plac'd him on the Throne in the publick Hypodrome, and put to Death That Catamite and Whore, and all their Kindred; while ſome Ladies by Stones and Clubs kill'd Philammon, for murdering their Royal Miſtreſs.

ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria.

thoſe Provinces; and among other Cities he viſited Jeruſalem, where he gave many Sacrifices to be offer'd in the Temple; but was angry becauſe Simon II. the High Prieſt forbid him to enter into the holy Place, and the Sanctum Sanctorum: for Onias his Father was dead.

ANTIOCHUS ſent Ambaſſadors to Ptolemy to ſue for Peace, offering to quit all Claim to Cœle-Syria, Judea and Phenicia, which PTOLEMY accepted and granted a Truce for one Year, and next Year a Peace was concluded.

ANTIOCHUS now at Peace with Ptolemy, join'd ATTALUS King of Pergamus, drove ACHÆUS out of the Field and ſhut him up in Sardis, where he beſieg'd him above a Year.

When Sardis was taken, ACHÆUS retir'd into the Caſtle, but was betray'd by a Cretan into the Hands of ANTIOCHUS, who forthwith beheaded him: and ſo the Aſian War was at an End, and Antiochus obtain'd all thoſe Provinces.

ANTIOCHUS having ſetled his Affairs in leſſer Aſia and Syria, and Arſaces ARTABANUS King of Parthia having ſeiz'd on Media

ANTIOCHUS march'd an Army againſt him, and reduced Media from him; next Year he drove ARSACES out of Parthia into Hyrcania, and next Year he took Syringis the Capital of Hyrcania. But ARSACES having rais'd 100000 Foot, and 20000 Horſe, was able to withſtand him; ſo that after many Conflicts

ANTIOCHUS made Peace with ARSACES, yielding to him Parthia and Hyrcania upon Condition He ſhould be his Confederate againſt his Enemies.

ANTIOCHUS then march'd againſt EUTHYDEMUS the new King of Bactria (who had vanquiſh'd and expell'd Theodotus, the Son of Theodotus the Founder of that Kingdom) but without good Succeſs.

ANTIOCHUS having only waſted his Army in Bactria was glad to make Peace with EUTHYDEMUS, own'd him as King of Bactria, gave his Daughter in Marriage to his Son; and then march'd over Mount Caucaſus into India, where having renew'd his League with King SOPHAGASENUS, he march'd into Arachoſia, and from thence into Drangiana, and then into Carmania where he winter'd; and next Year

He return'd thro' Perſia, Babylonia and Meſopotamia to Antioch in Triumph, after ſeven Years Abſence; and now takes the Name of Magnus the Great; for his great Succeſſes in this Expedition.

When the News came of Philopator's Death, ANTIOCHUS King of Syria, and PHILIP King of Macedon enter'd into a League to divide the Dominions of the Minor King of Egypt between them: Philip was to have Caria, Lybia, Cyrene and Egypt; and Antiochus the reſt. In Purſuance of which This Year

Continuation of TABLE XXX.

PTOLEMY Epiphanes King of Egypt.

The Carthaginians, alarm'd at the many Victories of Scipio the Roman General, imprudently recall'd their General Hannibal, after he had been 16 Years in Italy, to defend themſelves in Africa.

The Egyptian Court ſent an Embaſſy to Rome, to deſire that Commonwealth to be the Guardians of their Minor King againſt ANTIOCHUS King of Syria, and PHILIP King of Macedon.

Scipio having invaded Africa, overcame Hannibal, and put a glorious End to the ſecond Punic War.

And now the Romans ſent three Ambaſſadors to Antiochus and Philip, to let them know that They had taken the Guardianſhip of young PTOLEMY, and that They would make War upon All who ſhould moleſt their Pupil. And then M. Emilius Lepidus one of the Ambaſſadors went to Alexandria, regulated Egypt, and appointed Ariſtomenes an Acarnanian to be Regent, who forthwith ſent Scopas his General to raiſe 6000 ſtout Ætolians for recruiting the Army: and the Romans ſent Sulpitius Galba the Conſul with an Army and Fleet againſt PHILIP of Macedon, who had now deſtroy'd all the People of Abydus.

But tho' the Egyptians were beat out of Paleſtine (as on the other Column) ANTIOCHUS wanted to be at Peace with them; and therefore propos'd to marry his Daughter Cleopatra to young King PTOLEMY, and upon Marriage to reſtore Cœle-Syria and Paleſtine to the Crown of Egypt, or to allow him the half of the Revenues.

F. Quinctius Flaminius the Roman General (with his Confederats, King ATTALUS and the Rhodians) was waging War againſt PHILIP King of Macedon.

ATTALUS at Thebes harrangueing the Beotians too vehemently, fell down as dead, and was carried home to Pergamus, where he ſoon died aged 72 Years; having reign'd 44 Years, and left behind him four Sons, Eumenes, Attalus, Philetærus and Athenæus, and was ſucceeded by EUMENES the Founder of the famous Library at Pergamus.

The Romans routed Philip in the Battel of Cynocephalus ſlew 8000 of his Men, and took 5000 Priſoners; but fearing the Power of Antiochus coming into Thrace (as on the other Column) They made Peace with Philip.

Scopas in Egypt conſpir'd with his Ætolians to deſtroy the young King, and ſet up himſelf; but had not Courage to execute his Plot in time; and It being diſcover'd to Ariſtomenes the Regent, Scopas and his Accomplices were put to Death, and the reſt of the Ætolians were ſent home.

Artabanus I. King of Parthia being dead, was ſucceeded by Arſaces PHRIAPATIUS his Son, who reign'd 15 Years.

PTOLEMY Epiphanes now 14 Years old was according to the Uſage of Egypt, declar'd to be out of his Minority, the Government was put into his Hands, and his Anaclateria or Inthronization was celebrated with great Pomp.

ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria.

Year PHILIP made Peace with the Romans; and with PRUSIAS King of Bithynia, and ATTALUS King of Pergamus, Livy. And next Year

ANTIOCHUS march'd his Army into Cœle-Syria and Paleſtine: while PHILIP overcame the Rhodians in a Sea Fight; but next Year

PHILIP having unjuſtly invaded Pergamus without good Succeſs, was forc'd to retire, and was alſo miſerably beaten at Sea by the Rhodians, and the Fleet of King ATTALUS. But ANTIOCHUS conquer'd all Cœle-Syria and Paleſtine.

PHILIP greatly diſtreſs'd the City Abydus; and ATTALUS with the Rhodians ſent Ambaſſadors to Rome to complain of the Injuries done them by Philip.

The Athenians alſo, diſtreſs'd by King Philip, complain'd of him to the Romans, and to many other Powers; who declar'd War againſt him.

ANTIOCHUS having march'd an Army into leſſer Aſia againſt ATTALUS King of Pergamus, the Egyptians thought it a proper time to adviſe

Ariſtomenes the Regent of Egypt to ſend Scopas with an Army into Paleſtine, who took ſeveral Cities, reduced all Judea, put a Garriſon into the Caſtle of Jeruſalem, and return'd againſt Winter to Alexandria with great Spoils.

But ANTIOCHUS having made Peace with Attalus by the Mediation of the Romans, march'd into Paleſtine, totally routed Scopas at Paneas near the Fountains of the Jordan, drove him to Sidon with 10000 of his Men, beſieg'd them and famiſh'd them to a Surrender upon the ſole Condition of Life, and They return'd naked to Egypt. ANTIOCHUS finding the Jews hearty in his Intereſt gave them many Privileges.

ANTIOCHUS having ſecur'd All in Peace behind him, now went into leſſer Aſia aboard a great Fleet, and ſent an Army by Land under Ardyes and Mithrydates two of his Sons, and having taken the Aſiatic Cities that belong'd to the Crown of Egypt, he winter'd at Epheſus. But Smyrna and Lampſachus ſent to the Roman Army for Protection againſt Antiochus, who now march'd over the Helleſpont, ſeiz'd the Thracian Cherſoneſus, and was beginning to rebuild Lyſimachia to be the Capital of a new Kingdom he was to erect for Seleucus his ſecond Son. The Roman Ambaſſadors came and had Audience of him at Selymbria in Thrace; but They could not agree at all: and ANTIOCHUS hearing that PTOLEMY Epiphanes was dead, left his Son Seleucus with the Army at Lyſimachia, and ſail'd towards Egypt with a View to be Maſter of it; and in his Way hearing the Report was falſe, (as on the other Column) he ſteer'd towards Cyprus to ſeize that Iſland, but in vain; for all his Ships were loſt or ſcatter'd by a violent Storm, and he was glad to get any how to Antioch, where he winter'd.

Eratoſthenes the Librarian of Alexandria died, aged 82 Years, and was ſucceeded by Apollonius Rhodius in that Office. PTOLEMY Epiphanes was married to Cleopatra the Daughter of ANTIOCHUS Magnus at Raphia, who gave for her Dower the half of the Revenues of Cœle-Syria, and Paleſtine, and ANTIOCHUS on his Return to Antioch, married Antiochis another of his Daughters to ARIARATHES King of Cappadocia; and offer'd a third Daughter to EUMENES King of Pergamus, who would not accept of it, becauſe of his Attachment to the Romans.	11	2	342	265	4520	194	3810	3	554	555	61	130	119	29	ANTIOCHUS, perceiving the Jews to have great good Will towards him, ſent them kind Letters and many rich Preſents, granted many Immunities to the City and Temple of Jeruſalem, and brought 2000 Jewiſh Families out of Meſopotamia into Phrygia and Lydia, whom he truſted to keep that Country in Peace, Joſeph. Antiq. And now the Ætolians having ſent Thoas to invite him into Greece againſt the Romans, with the Aſſurance of being join'd by Philip of Macedon, Nabis of Lacedemonia, and other Princes and States; He refus'd the wiſe Counſel of Hannibal to carry the War into Italy, and march'd ſtrait into Greece with only 10000 Foot, and 500 Horſe, and there by Hannibal's Advice ſent for his Syrian Troops.

Manlius now the Pro-Conſul of Aſia, ſetled his Province in profound Peace, and having routed the Gauls or Galatians, that had been the common Diſturbers of the Country, gave them Laws and oblig'd them to keep within the Borders of Gallatia, and to make no more Excurſions upon their Neighbours.	17	8	348	271	4526	188	3816	CXLVIII. 1	560	561	67	136	125	35

ANTIOCHUS makes a ſecond Deſcent upon Egypt, gains another Victory on the Borders, took Peluſium and march'd into the Heart of the Country; and becauſe he had been merciful in the Field of Battel, the Egyptians yielded Memphis to him, and all except Alexandria: nay, PHILOMETOR himſelf came into his Hands, whom he treated with much Friendſhip, pretending to be his Guardian. But a falſe Rumour of Antiochus's Death in Egypt coming into Paleſtine, Jaſon came with 1000 Men to Jeruſalem, drove Menelaus into the Caſtle, join'd his old Party there and exercis'd great Cruelties on his Adverſaries. The News of this made ANTIOCHUS leave Egypt; and having taken Jeruſalem, he ſlew in three Days 40000 Perſons, and took as many Captives whom he ſold: nay, Menelaus conducted him into the Temple, and even into the Holy of Holies; and he defil'd the Altar of Burnt-Offerings by ſacrifiſing on it a Sow, with the Broth of which he order'd the Temple to be ſprinkled all over: and then leaving Philip a Phrygian Governor of Judea, and Andronicus Governor of Samaria, and wicked Menelaus at Jeruſalem, he return'd to Antioch with the Spoils of the City and Temple, which he gutted of all that was valuable, and which together with the Spoils of Egypt, amounted to an immenſe Treaſure. As for Jaſon, to be ſure, he durſt not ſtay the Approach, but fled back to the Ammonites; and wander'd a Vagabond till he died in Lacedemonia, without any Friend to bury him.
The Achæans and Rhodians, by a publick Decree, depriv'd King EUMENES of all the Honours paid him in the Cities of Peloponneſus: but his Brother Attalus prudently recover'd them. PHILOMETOR becoming contemptible by his yielding to ANTIOCHUS, the Alexandrians took his Brother PHYSCON and ſet him in the Throne; who call'd himſelf, PTOLEMY Euergetes II. The Senate of Rome ſent Q. Marcius Philippus the Conſul, againſt PERSEUS King of Macedon, Livy, Lib. XLIV. The Cydonians in Crete deſtroy'd the Apollonians, and fearing the Gortynians, They apply'd to King Eumenes for Aſſiſtance. Ambaſſadors came to Egypt from moſt of the Grecian States to mollify ANTIOCHUS, to reſtore Peace, but in vain: and after Antiochus was gone home, PHILOMETOR coming to ſee that Antiochus only pretended to be his Friend, in order to create War between him and PHISCON to weaken them both, agreed with his Brother, by the Mediation of their Siſter Cleopatra, that They ſhould jointly reign; and Peace being reſtor'd to Egypt, the two PTOLEMYES wiſely ſent for Auxiliaries from Greece, preparing for another Viſit from Antiochus, as on the other Columns.	1. 12	2	367	290	4545	169	3835	4	579	580	10	155	144	7	ANTIOCHUS this Year makes his third Deſcent upon Egypt, pretending to reſtore PHILOMETOR; and having beat the Alexandrians at Sea, he march'd his Army by Land ſtrait to that City, but could not take it in. PHYSCON and his Siſter CLEOPATRA ſent Ambaſſadors to Rome for Protection, while ANTIOCHUS ſeiz'd Peluſium as the Key of Egypt, and then return'd to Antioch. But heard that the two PTOLEMYES had blaſted his Deſign by agreeing. The Roman Legates ſent to ANTIOCHUS were C. Pompilius Lænas, C. Decimius and C. Hoſtilius, who left Rome on the 3d of the Nones of April.

EUMENES and the Rhodians too were ſuſpected at Rome, of not being hearty Enemies of Perſeus; but his Brother Attalus was not, nor was King PRUSIAS and the Pamphilians, &c. and yet PERSEUS had obtain'd Peace with ROME, if the Rhodians had not medled in it, Diod.

PERSEUS enter'd into a League againſt the Romans with GENTIUS King of the Illyrians, and They join'd to ſend Legates to the Rhodians; and alſo Perſeus ſent to Antiochus to warn him of his Danger if he did not aſſiſt him now againſt the Romans. PERSEUS prevail'd at Sea againſt the Confederats of the Romans.

And now the Legates of the Rhodians came to the Roman Camp in Macedonia to mediate a Peace, but were not well receiv'd and order'd to wait for an Anſwer 15 Days. Mean while

The two Armies met, and the Day before Battel C. Sulpitius Gallus a Tribune or Collonel of the ſecond Roman Legion (the firſt Roman Aſtronomer upon Record) came to the General L. ÆMILIUS PAULUS the Conſul, and had leave to acquaint the Soldiers, that the inſuing Night the MOON would be eclips'd above an Hour, and that They ſhould not look upon it as a forboding Wonder, but as the Effect of the Order of Nature that appears at ſtated times, which could be calculated and foretold, and therefore no Prodigy. So that accordingly

When the Eclipſe happen'd, the Romans were fortify'd againſt vain Conjectures; but the Macedonians not forwarn'd, look'd upon it as a ſad Prodigy portending the Fall of their Kingdom, and the Ruine of their Nation, Livy, Juſtin. Val Max. and Plutarch in Æmilio.

The next Day the Romans beat the Macedonians out of the Field, when PERSEUS fled with 500 Cretans to Amphipolis in Thrace, and from thence to Samothrace, where he ſlew Evander his old Friend, whereby his People were alienated from him, and went all over to the Romans; and Ion having baſely deliver'd up the Children of PERSEUS to Octavius the Prætor, PERSEUS having loſt alſo his Treaſure (by a falſe Cretan, who carried it off, and would not ſtay till Perſeus came aboard) He curs'd his Gods, and ſurrender'd himſelf and his eldeſt Son to Octavius: and ſo ended the Kingdom of Macedon, which now became a Roman Province. And the Romans declar'd the Macedonians free; and all the Kings and Cities thereabouts ſent their Congratulations to Rome upon the Defeat of Perſeus, who was carried to Rome, led thro' the Streets in a publick Triumph, and died there a Priſoner. Yet the Macedonian or Grecian Monarchy ſtill exiſted in the Kings of Egypt and Syria.

When Apollonius the General of ANTIOCHUS maſſacred the People of Jeruſalem, JUDAS Maccabaeus the 3d Son of MATTATHIAS fled to the Wilderneſs with a few Friends, and liv'd upon Herbs and Roots, and what the Mountains afforded: and Mattathias having ſlain Appelles (as on the other Column) fled with his Family and Friends to the Mountains and Deſerts, that were fill'd with zealous Jews; one Company of them of about 1000 Perſons were beſieg'd in a Cave by Philip the Phrygian,

ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria.

But within 4 Miles of the City he was met by the ſaid Roman Legates, who, in the Senate's Name, made him forthwith quit Egypt, and all his Pretenſions to Peluſium and Cyprus.

And now ANTIOCHUS inrag'd at this Baffle, reſolv'd to vent his Vengeance upon the Jews; and ſo in his Way home, he ſent Apollonius with 22000 Men to complete their Ruine; for on the next Sabbath Day He maſſacred all the Men of Jeruſalem that were found, and captivated the Women and Children to ſell them for Slaves: then They ſpoil'd the City and burnt down much of it, demoliſh'd the Walls, and with the Ruins built a ſtrong Fort in the City of David, call'd Mount Acra; in which they put a numerous Garriſon, where They lodg'd their Spoils, and made it an Arſenal or Magazine: It commanded the Temple, and the People not daring to go up to Worſhip, the Temple was deſerted, and the Remains of the Jews fled from Jeruſalem and left it in the Hands of Strangers. See the Books of Maccabees. This was done about Whitſuntide this Year, about 3 Years and 6 Months before Judas Maccabæus reſtor'd it, Joſeph. in Proem. Bell. Judaic. Lib. I. cap. 1.

ANTIOCHUS upon his Return to Antioch, being reſolv'd to extirpate the Religion and the Nation of the Jews, iſſued a Decree, that all Nations under him ſhould worſhip the ſame Gods, and in the ſame Manner; which the Heathen Nations at once complied with, and the Samaritans too, who now dedicated their Temple on Mount Gerizzim to the Grecian Jove, the Protector of Strangers, and renounc'd all kindred with the Jews. Nay, many of the Jews apoſtatiz'd and prov'd bitter Perſecutors of their faithful Brethren.

ANTIOCHUS ſent old Athenæus to execute his Decree in Judea, who imploy'd the Syrian Soldiers to convert the Jews to the King's Religion, and brought the Heathen Worſhip into the Temple, which They dedicated to Jupiter Olympias, whoſe Image They ſet up upon the Altar of Burnt-Offering, and rear'd another Altar for ſacrificing to it; with many other Abominations mention'd in 1 Mac. i. and ii. and 2 Mac. iv. Joſeph. Antiq. Lib. XII.

Apelles one of the perſecuting Officers came to Modin, to force the People there to Conformity, and eſpecially perſuaded Mattathias to it (a Prieſt of the Courſe of Joarib, 1 Chron. xxiv. 7. or deſcended from him) who was the Son of John, the Son of Simon, the Son of Aſmonaeus; from whom the Family was call'd Aſmonaeans.

MATTATHIAS had five Sons equally zealous with him for the Law of God, viz.

1. Johanan call'd Kaddis. 3. JUDAS call'd Maccabaeus.
2. Simon call'd Thaſſi. 4. Eleazar call'd Avaran.
5. Jonathan call'd Apphus.

But MATTATHIAS with a loud Voice before all the People refus'd the Offers of Appelles, and defy'd the Command of the King, ſlew likewiſe old Phineas, a Jewiſh Apoſtate at his worſhiping of the King's Gods, and then ſlew Appelles and his Attendants.

who cut them all off on the Sabbath Day; becauſe they would not fight on that Day, which Mattathias and his Followers hearing of, came to a Reſolution that the Law of the Sabbath ſhould be diſpenſed with in ſuch a Caſe of Neceſſity, and gave Notice of it through the Deſerts, that They ſhould fight on the Sabbath Day; for elſe They had been all deſtroyed in the ſame Manner.

ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria.

ANTIOCHUS hearing his Commands were diſobeyed, came into Judea, and exerciſed great Cruelties on the diſobedient Jews wherever he found them; particularly he martyr'd old Eleazar a principal Scribe, and the brave Mother with her Seven Sons, as it is recorded in 2 Mac. VI. and VII.

Mean while Mattathias lay cloſe in the Faſtneſſes of the Mountains with his Company, and many reſorted to him, particularly the Aſidæans or Chaſidim, valiant Men, zealous for the Law: At Length he ſallied forth with his little Army, and going round the Cities of Judah, he cut off the Apoſtates and Perſecutors that he found, circumciſed the Children, pulled down the Heathen Altars, reſtored the true Worſhip as far as he could, recovered from the Heathen ſeveral Copies of the Law, cauſed it to be read in the Synagogues, and now firſt introduced the Reading of the Prophets, as well as the Books of Moſes in Publick.

EUMENES King of Pergamus was oppreſſed by the Galatians, but relieved by the Mediation of the Romans.

The Rhodians alſo were a little reconciled to the Romans.

But MATTATHIAS worn out by Age and Fatigue, died in the 146th Year of the Era of Seleucus, 1 Mac. ii. 70. Before his Death he called to him his Five Sons, exhorted them to Courage and Conſtancy in the good Cauſe, appointed his third Son Judas Maccabaeus to be their General, and Simon his ſecond Son to be their Counſellor, and dying, They buried him at Modin in the Sepulchre of his Fathers, with great Lamentations: Tho' the Loſs was well made up in Judas Maccabaeus.

TABLE XXXI.

The Chronology of the Kings of Egypt and Syria, of the Romans, Jews, and other Contemporaries, from the firſt Year of Judas Maccabaeus the Prince of the Jews, which is the 15th Year of Ptolemy Philometor King of Egypt, and the 10th Year of Antiochus Epiphanes King of Syria. To the Death of Ptolemy Physcon King of Egypt, during 50 Years.

Ptolomy Philometor King of Egypt.
Antiochus Epiphanes King of Syria.
Judas Maccabaeus Prince of the Jews.

JUDAS Maccabaeus now the General of the Jews, raiſed a little Army of brave zealous Men, and ſet up his Standard with this Hebrew Motto, from Exod. xv. 11. viz. Mi Camo-ka Baelim Jehovah, Who is like unto Thee among the Gods, O Jehovah! not in Words at Length, but in the initial Letters, which made the artificial Word Maccabi; and hence by Hiſtorians all They were called Maccabees who were engaged in this Cauſe, and who had ſuffered 50 Years before this Time, and who afterwards ſuffered for aſſerting the Law of God. He began to fortify the Cities of Judea, and to complete the Reformations that his Father had begun, ſlew Apollonius the Governor of Samaria in Battel, and Seron the Deputy of Cœle Syria in another Battel.

The News of which diverted Antiochus from his fooliſh Feſtivals at Daphne, who raiſed a very great Army to extirpate the whole Nation of the Jews: But finding his Treaſury exhauſted by his Profuſeneſs, he left one Part of his Army with Lyſias, a Nobleman to whom he committed the Education of his Son; and with the other Part marched into the Eaſt to ſubdue Artaxias King of Armenia, and to gather the Arrears of Taxes to fill his Treaſury.

Prusias King of Bithynia, with his Son Nicomedes came to Rome, where he was royally entertained, and congratulated the Senate upon their conquering Perseus King of Macedon, and Gentius King of Illyria, Livy Lib. 45. but the Senate would not let Eumenes King of Pergamus come to Rome for politic Reaſons.

Aemilius Paulus having ſubdued all Macedonia, did celebrate Games at Amphipolis on the Strymon; which Antiochus hearing of, endeavoured to rival him with Games at Daphne near Antioch, deſcribed by Polybius, Lib. 31.

The Senate ſent Tiberius Gracchus to Antiochus, who entertained him nobly, and declared his Conſtancy in his Friendſhip with the Romans.

Pytho the Ambaſſador of King Prusias, and others from the Grecian Cities, came to Rome complaining of King Eumenes.

The Romans allowed the Rhodians their Friendſhip, while Antiochus march'd into the Eaſt.

Lyſias, by Advice of Ptolemy Macron the Governor, ſent into Judea Nicanor and Gorgias, with 40000 Foot and 7000 Horſe, to extirpate the Jewiſh Nation; but Judas Maccabæus with only 3000 Men attackt them in the Night at Emmaus, and obtain'd a complete Victory. Then he croſſed the Jordan, and in a great Battel ſlew 20000 Men of the Army that Timotheus the Governor of thoſe Parts, and Bacchides had raiſed againſt him; whereby the Jews were inriched with Spoils, and full furniſhed with Inſtruments of War.

Lyſias inraged, marched a choſen Army of 60000 Foot and 5000 Horſe into Judea: But Judas met him at Bethſura, between Jeruſalem and Hebron with 10000 Men, and beat him out of the Field, ſlew 5000 Syrians, put all the reſt to Flight, and forced Lyſias to retreat with his baffled Army to Antioch.

Eumenes King of Pergamus ſent Attalus and Athenaeus his Brothers to Rome, who vindicated him before the Senate, of all the Crimes he had been accuſed of. Yet the Senate ſtill ſuſpecting him, ſent Sulpitius Gallus into Aſia to make Enquiry, who imprudently gave Leave to all the Grecian Cities, to come and accuſe Eumenes publickly at Sardis.

Then Judas marched to Jeruſalem, expell'd the Heathen, reſtored the City and Temple within and without, to their former Glory, with all Expedition, purged the Temple of all the Profanations of the Heathen, and inſtituted a Feaſt of Dedication for the Altar, and other new holy Things, which was obſerved on the 27th Day of Kiſleu for Eight Days, about the Winter Solſtice, beginning the very ſame Day on which Three Years before it had been profaned, juſt Three Years and Six Months after Apollonius had made the City and Temple deſolate, and in this Second Year of the Rule and Command of Judas Maccabaeus, after his Father's Death.

He could not ſoon take in Mount Acra, or the Caſtle built by Apollonius on Mount Sion; but he ſkreen'd the Temple and thoſe that enter'd it, from the Sallies of thoſe in the Caſtle, by a great Wall and Towers; and fortified Bethſura as a Barrier againſt the Edomites or Idumeans, that during the Babyloniſh Captivity had been drove out of old Idumea by the Nabatheans, and had there ſettled in the South of Judah, during its Deſolation.

Mean while Antiochus was beaten off ſhamefully from the rich Temple of Diana at Elymais, when attempting to plunder it, and retiring to Ekbatana, he received Accounts of his Loſſes in Judea, and of the growing Greatneſs of Maccabaeus, upon which he he haſtned homeward to extirpate the Jews, but died on the Road at Tabæ, in the Mountains of Parætacene, in the Province of Babylon, in great Pain, and of a loathſome Diſeaſe, yet owning the Juſtice of God for his perſecuting the Jews: And was ſucceeded by his young Son, viz.

9. ANTIOCHUS Eupator about Nine Years old, under the Regency of Lyſias. Mean while JUDAS Maccabæus hearing the neighbouring Nations had confederated to extirpate the Jews, marched his Army firſt againſt the Edomites, and ſlew 20000 of them in Acrabattene; and again of the Edomites of Bean he ſlew above 20000. Then marching againſt the Ammonites, he took the City Jaazar and her Villages, and returned to Jeruſalem. Upon which Timotheus the Governor marched a great Army into Judea: But JUDAS diſcomfited him, and ſlew 20500 Foot, and 600 Horſe, near Gazara in Ephraim, whither Timotheus fled, and JUDAS purſuing him took the Place, and ſlew him with his Brother Chareas, and Apollophenes one of his Leaders. Then JUDAS with his Brother Jonathan marched into Gilead, where he beat the Enemy in every Encounter, deſtroyed their Forts, and reſcued the Jews from Oppreſſion: While his Brother Simon was as ſucceſsful in Galilee. But another Army of the Jews were defeated by Gorgias, with the Loſs of 2000 Men. Simon brought all the Jews out of Galilee, to inhabit the deſolate Places of Judea.

DEMETRIUS the Son of Seleucus Philopator, reſiding at Rome, and aged now 23 Years, petition'd the Senate to be reſtored to his Father's Kingdom, as the Son of the elder Brother of Epiphanes: But the Senate thought him too long bred up at Rome for their Purpoſe; and therefore decreed to confirm EUPATOR in the Throne.

Lyſias highly inraged at the Succeſſes of the Maccabees, raiſed an Army of 80000 Men, and 80 Elephants, and marching into Judea laid Siege to Bethſura: But there JUDAS fell upon him, ſlew 11000 Foot, and 1600 Horſe, and put the reſt to Flight. This made Lyſias hearken to Terms of Peace, to reſcind the cruel Decree of Epiphanes, and to allow the Jews to live every where according to their own Law.

This Peace was made in the 148th Year of the ERA of Seleucus, according to the Stile of Chaldæa, or the 149th Year, according to the Stile of Syria, which did not end till about Three Months after the Beginning of the Julian Year, before Chriſt 163, which is parallel to the Year of Seleucus 150.

But as ſoon as Lyſias returned to Antioch, the Neighbours broke the Peace. Therefore JUDAS firſt burnt the Shipping of Joppa and Jamnia, for having drown'd 200 Jews. Then being again called to help the Jews in Gilead againſt Timotheus, the Son of the former Timotheus, JUDAS marched thither, ſubdued in his Way the Nomad, or wandering Arabs, took the City Caſpis, and deſtroyed it, left Doſitheus and Soſipater with a Detachment to take in the fenced Cities of Tob, who effected it, and ſlew 10000 Men that garriſoned them; while he himſelf with the main Army overtook Timotheus near Carnion, at Raphon on the Jabbock, incamped with 120000 Foot, and 2500 Horſe. But JUDAS not afraid of Numbers, attack'd and beat him, with the Slaughter of 30000 Men, and many of them flying to Carnion, JUDAS beſieged and took it, burnt the Temple of Atargatis their Goddeſs, and all that had ſhelter'd themſelves in it, and deſtroy'd that City, ſlaying in it 25000 Men more, and brought all the Iſraelites out of Gilead, to innabit the deſolate Places of Judea; and in his Return took Ephron by Storm, ſlew 25000 Men there, and having raſed the City, he marched over the Bellies of the ſlain, repaſſed the Jordan; and returning to Jeruſalem at Pentecoſt in great Triumph, and with many Spoils, he and his Men went up to the Temple to thank God for theſe Victories, obtain'd without the Loſs of one Man.

Then JUDAS obtain'd a Victory over Gorgias near Odollam; and marching againſt the Edomites, ſmote Hebron their Capital: and marching into Philiſtia ſmote Azotus or Aſhdod, and deſtroy'd their Temples and Altars, and return'd with great Spoils; when he laid Siege to the Caſtle of Acra on Mount Sion: during which Eupator, with his Tutor Lyſias, marched into Judea with 100000 Foot, 20000 Horſe, 300 armed Chariots, and 32 Elephants, and laid Siege to Bethſura: but tho' JUDAS beat him in Skirmiſhes, in which his Brother Eleazar was ſlain, yet the King's Army took in Bethſura by Surrender, upon Terms of Safety to their Perſons; and then laid Siege to the Sanctuary of Jeruſalem, which had been alſo taken for want of Proviſions, if Lyſias had not been called away to reſcue Antioch from one Philip who had ſeized it, as the Tutor of the young King appointed by Epiphanes deceas'd; and ſo Peace being made upon honourable Terms, the King was admitted within the Sanctuary; but ſeeing the Strength of its Fortifications, he order'd them to be all demoliſh'd, contrary to the Articles he had ſworn to; and then marched off towards Syria. Menelaus the wicked High Prieſt, attended the King on the March, in Hopes of regaining his old Station; but Lyſias believing him to be the Author of all theſe unfortunate Wars, got him condemn'd to be caſt headlong into a Tower of Aſhes, where he juſtly periſhed; and the Office of High Prieſt was given to Alcimus or Jacimus, one as wicked as the former: upon which Onias, the Son of ONIAS III. whoſe Right it was, fled from Antioch to the Court of PTOLEMY Philometor in Egypt. EUPATOR and Lyſias defeated Philip, and ſlew him.

Joſephus

See the Continuation.

Continuation of TABLE XXXI.

PTOLEMY Philometor King of Egypt.
ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria.
JUDAS Maccabaeus Prince of the Jews, and JONATHAN.

Joſephus begins this Year, the Era of the Maccabees, or the Principality or Kingdom of the Aſmonaeans, which laſted 126 Years: but it may be ſaid as well to begin with the firſt Year of JUDAS Maccabæus, and ſo it laſted 129 Years, even till HEROD took in Jeruſalem and ANTIGONUS, the laſt of the Aſmonæani was cut off, before Chriſt 37.

PHYSCON now expell'd PHILOMETOR from his Share in the Throne of Egypt: upon which PHILOMETOR travell'd to Rome in mean Habit, and a few Attendants, where the Senate cloathed and entertained him like a King, and ſent him back with Quintus and Canuleius their Ambaſſadors, who compounded the Matter between the Brothers, aſſigning to PHYSCON Lybia and Cyrene, and to PHILOMETOR Egypt and Cyprus.

The Senate ſent Octavius, Lucretius, and Aurelius, their Ambaſſadors to Antioch, to reduce EUPATOR's Fleet and Elephants, to the Number agreed to by ANTIOCHUS Magnus, after the Battel of Sipylus; upon which the People roſe and murder'd Octavius, (he had been Conſul, and was the Progenitor of Octavius AUGUSTUS the Emperor) but Lyſias ſent Ambaſſadors to excuſe it at Rome.

DEMETRIUS the Son of King SELEUCUS Philopator, laid hold of this Occaſion, and by Advice of Polybius the Hiſtorian, ſtole away from Rome by Sea, landed at Tripolis in Syria; and giving out that he was ſent by the Senate, the Syrians forthwith deſerted EUPATOR, and the Soldiers delivered him and Lyſias to DEMETRIUS, who put them to Death; and ſo

10. DEMETRIUS Soter, or the Saviour, began to reign, who was ſo called by the Babylonians, for delivering them from the Tyranny of Timarchus and Heraclides, two Favourites of the late King Epiphanes. Alcimus and the apoſtate Jews, craftily influenced DEMETRIUS to ſend Bacchides, Governor of Meſopotamia, into Judea with an Army, who confirm'd Alcimus in his Office, and deſtroy'd many Jews whom They had decoy'd into their Power. But when Bacchides return'd, JUDAS took the Field, revenged thoſe Wrongs, and drove Alcimus away to Antioch, where again he influenced DEMETRIUS to ſend another Army under Nicanor: but Nicanor knowing to his Coſt the Prowefs of JUDAS, made Peace with him, and convers'd friendly with him, till Alcimus influenced the King not to ratify the Articles, and to order Nicanor to renew the War.

Mean while PTOLEMY Phyſcon went to Rome, and courted Cornelia the Mother of the Gracchi, to be his Queen; but ſhe ſcorn'd it, as being the Daughter of Scipio Africanus: but he prevail'd with the Senate to get Cyprus annex'd to his Kingdom; tho' Philometor did not conſent, for which he was declared to be no more the Ally of the Romans.

Nicanor marched to Jeruſalem, endeavoured in vain to decoy JUDAS into his Power, who ſlew 5000 of Nicanor's Men at Capharſalama. Then Nicanor return'd to Jeruſalem, threatned to burn the Temple, and blaſphem'd the God of Iſrael; but left it in order to meet JUDAS, who ſlew him in Battel, and all his 35000 Men, on the 13th Day of the Month Adar, which is commemorated by the Jews to this Day.

Hipparchus of Nicæa in Bithynia, the famous Aſtronomer, obſerved this Year the autumnal Æquinox, Ptol. Lib. 3. Cap. 2.

JUDAS ſent Jaſon and Eupolemus his Ambaſſadors to Rome, who obtain'd a Decree of the Senate to declare the Jews their Allies, and a Letter requiring DEMETRIUS to deſiſt from moleſting them, as their Friends; but before the Ambaſſadors return'd, JUDAS Maccabaeus was dead: for mean while DEMETRIUS had ſent Bacchides and Alcimus with a great Army into Judea, and JUDAS having raſhly attack'd him with only 800 Men, was overpower'd and ſlain in Battel. JONATHAN and Simon his Brothers carried off his dead Body, and buried it in his Father's Sepulchre. And now the apoſtate Jews joining the Syrians, a greater Perſecution followed than what was ever heard of before; which made the oppreſſed to flock to

2. JONATHAN, whom They made their Captain. He and Simon, and their new Forces, incamped near the Jordan: but their Brother John was ſlain by the Arabs, and Bacchides drove JONATHAN and his Men over the Jordan, and return'd to Jeruſalem to fortify Mount Acra. Here ends the Hiſtory of the Second Book of Maccabees.

Alcimus now dying of a violent Palſy, Bacchides return'd to Antioch, being recall'd by DEMETRIUS, who had now received the Senate's Letter, and ſo the Land had reſt for two Years: for DEMETRIUS courted the Friendſhip of the Romans, and obtain'd it: And next Year

He ſent a large and rich Crown of Gold to Rome by Menochares, with Thanks for his good Uſage while an Hoſtage there.

DEMETRIUS aſſiſted Holophernes, the pretended elder Brother of ARIARATHES, to recover the Kingdom of Cappadocia. EUMENES King of Pergamus dying, after he had reigned 38 Years, left it to his Brother ATTALUS, who reigned 26 Years; with a Proviſo that his Son, then a Minor, ſhould ſucceed him. ATTALUS married Stratonice, the Siſter of ARIARATHES, the Widow of his Brother EUMENES, and generouſly adopted his ſaid Nephew her Son.

DEMETRIUS was again influenced to ſend Bacchides with an Army into Judea, who beſieged Simon in Bethbaſi, while JONATHAN harraſs'd the Beſiegers in Skirmiſhes, till Bacchides was weary of the War, and made Peace with Jonathan, and departed, promiſing never to return. Upon which JONATHAN ſet up his Government at Michmaſh, nine Miles North of Jeruſalem, and reformed the Church and State of the Jews. 1 Mac. IX.

ARIARATHES

See the Continuation.

Continuation of TABLE XXXI.

PTOLEMY Philometor King of Egypt.
DEMETRIUS Soter King of Syria, and ALEXANDER Balas.
JONATHAN Prince of the Jews.

ARIARATHES came to Rome, where the Senate decreed He ſhould jointly reign with his Brother Horophernes, but ATTALUS King of Pergamus expell'd Horophernes, and reſtor'd ARIARATHES: Horophernes retired to Antioch, with a great Sum of Money that he had lodg'd with the Priennians, who were ſingularly juſt to him.

PHYSCON being wounded by ſome of his oppreſſed Lybian Subjects, went to Rome to complain of PHILOMETOR as the Cauſe of it: upon which the Senate would not hear Philometor's Ambaſſadors, but ſent them away, and ſent their own Ambaſſadors to give PHYSCON Poſſeſſion of Cyprus: and next year

PHYSCON getting an Army, invaded that Iſland, but was beaten by PHILOMETOR and taken Priſoner, nay pardon'd alſo, and honourably reſtor'd to his Lybian Kingdom. Thus the War ended between them. PHILOMETOR left Archias Governor of Cyprus, who bargain'd with DEMETRIUS to deliver up the Iſland to the Syrians; but being diſcover'd, He hang'd himſelf to eſcape Puniſhment.

DEMETRIUS being now a conſtant Drunkard, neglected his Government, and the People conſpired againſt him, being ſupported in it by PHILOMETOR, ATTALUS and ARIARATHES, who imploy'd Heraclides (the late Treaſurer of Babylon) to ſuborn one Balas a mean Rhodian Youth, as the Son of ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes, who was forthwith own'd as ſuch by thoſe three Kings. Then Heraclides carried him to Rome, with Laodice the true Daughter of Epiphanes; where the Senate own'd him, decreed to aſſiſt him, and ſent him to Syria, while ATTALUS the Son of the late King Eumenes, and Demetrius the Son of King DEMETRIUS Soter were at Rome.

Balas having got Forces, ſeiz'd Ptolemais in Paleſtine, where he ſet up his Throne, under the Name of Alexander the Son of Epiphanes King of Syria. This made DEMETRIUS rouſe himſelf and court the Friendſhip of Jonathan the Prince of the Jews, whom he conſtituted his General in Judea, who now releas'd the Hoſtages that Bacchides had put in Mount Acra, rebuilt forthwith the Wall round the Temple, and ſetled at Jeruſalem: on the other hand, Alexander ſent him a Crown of Gold, a Purple Robe, and a Commiſſion to be High Prieſt; and tho' DEMETRIUS offer'd him twice as much, JONATHAN now declar'd for Alexander, and getting the Peoples Conſent on the Feaſt of Tabernacles next, He put on the Pontifical Robe, and officiated as High Prieſt, the Office being vacant about Seven Years after the Death of Alcimus: which Office was heritably poſſeſſed by his Family of the Aſmonaeans, till HEROD ſubjected it to arbitrary Will and Pleaſure.

Both the Syrian Kings came into the Field, and DEMETRIUS had the Advantage in the firſt Battel; but Alexander being well recruited by his powerful Allies, DEMETRIUS ſent his two Sons, Demetrius and Antiochus, to Cnidus to the Care of a Friend, in caſe Fortune ſhould not favour him.

About this Time one Andriſcus of Adramitium in Myſia, as mean a young Fellow as Alexander Balas, pretended to be the Son of PERSEUS late King of Macedon, taking the Name of Philip, and applying to DEMETRIUS he ſent him Priſoner to Rome: but the Senate deſpiſing him, he made his Eſcape into Macedon, and raiſed there a War that coſt the Romans much Blood and Treaſure.

At length the Syrian Kings came to a deciſive Battel, in which DEMETRIUS was overcome and ſlain: and ſo

II. ALEXANDER Balas obtain'd the whole Syrian Empire, married Cleopatra the Daughter of PTOLEMY PHILOMETOR King of Egypt, at Ptolemais, where theſe two Kings met at the Wedding; and JONATHAN was invited, where BALAS clothed him in Purple, and highly honoured him among the firſt of his Princes.

Onias the Prieſt, the Son of Onias III. of the right Line of Joſedek, who fled to Egypt when Alcimus was made High Prieſt, having by his Wiſdom and Bravery obtain'd the higheſt Poſt both in the Court and Army of Egypt, obtain'd alſo a Licence to build a Temple for the Egyptian Jews near Heliopolis, like that of Jeruſalem, and to build there a City call'd Onion from his Name; where he officiated as High Prieſt, and had the ſame Order and Worſhip as at Jeruſalem. This Temple a little after the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem, was deſtroy'd by the Command of VESPASIAN, after It had ſtood 222 Years.

This Year began the Third Punic War, wherein MITHRIDATES Euergetes, the firſt King of Pontus that had Friendſhip with Rome, ſupply'd the Romans with Ships againſt the Carthaginians. Manlius the Conſul commanded the Army, and the other Conſul Cenſorinus the Fleet, with private Inſtructions to deſtroy Carthage.

Andriſcus the Pretender found Means to be poſſeſs'd of all Macedonia, defeating Juventius the Roman Prætor, and proclaim'd himſelf King; and would have ſeiz'd on Theſſaly, if the Achæans had not helped the Romans.

Nicomedes the Son of PRUSIAS, King of Bithynia, fearing his Father deſign'd to cut him off, left Rome, where he had been educated, and by the Help of ATTALUS King of Pergamus, made War upon his Father.

ALEXANDER Balas giving himſelf wholly up to vile Pleaſures, left the Adminiſtration to his Favourite Ammonius, who prov'd an inſolent Tyrant, and murder'd Queen Laodice the Siſter of the late King DEMETRIUS the Widow of PERSEUS late King of Macedon; he murder'd alſo Antigonus the Son of Demetrius, who had been left in Syria, when his two Brothers Demetrius and

Continuation of TABLE XXXI.

PTOLEMY Philometor King of Egypt, and PHYSCON.
BALAS King of Syria, and DEMETRIUS Nicator.
JONATHAN Prince of the Jews.

Antiochus were ſent off to Cnidus; whereby he made himſelf and his King odious. Demetrius, the Son of Demetrius hearing of it, landed in Cilicia with a Band of Cretans, and there getting a great Army, took Poſſeſſion of that Country, and got Apollonius the Governor of Coele Syria to declare for him, who aſſembled a great Army at Jamnia, and challeng'd JONATHAN to fight him. But JONATHAN came and took Joppa in ſight of his Army, and then beat him out of the Field, purſuing him to Azotus, which Jonathan took, and deſtroy'd the Temple of Dagon there, and return'd to Jeruſalem loaded with the Spoils of that Country. Upon which BALAS ſent him a golden Buckle, the Enſign of one of the Royal Family, and gave him the City of Ecron with its Territory.

The Romans trifled with PRUSIAS, and therefore he ſhelter'd himſelf in the Temple of Jove in Nicomedia, but in vain; for his Son Nicomedes and Attalus ſent Men that ſlew him there. Metellus the Prætor marching into Macedonia, totally routed the Pretender Andriſcus, who flying to Byzes Prince of Thrace, was by him deliver'd up to Metellus.

P. Cornelius Scipio the Roman Conſul went to Sea with the Roman Ships and thoſe ſent by MITHRIDATES King of Pontus, and beat the Carthaginian Fleet under the Walls of Carthage.

Alexander BALAS called in his Father in Law Ptolemy Philometor to his Aſſiſtance, who march'd an Army into Paleſtine, receiv'd JONATHAN kindly, and came to Ptolemais; where finding that Ammonius had laid a Plot to murder him, Philometor march'd to Seleucia on the Orontes, to demand the Traitor: but BALAS refuſing to deliver Ammonius, PHILOMETOR concluded him a Party in the Plot, took his Daughter from him and gave her to Demetrius, with a Reſolution to reſtore him to his Father's Throne: upon which the Antiochians roſe in a Tumult and ſlew Ammonius, open'd their Gates to PHILOMETOR and offer'd him the Kingdom, which he refuſed, but got them to receive DEMETRIUS, whom They placed on the Throne.

This brought BALAS from Cilicia to a Battel near Antioch, where he was totally routed, and fled with 500 Horſe to Zabdiel an Arabian Prince, where he was forthwith ſlain, and his Head ſent to PHILOMETOR, who yet did not triumph long; for being ſore wounded in the late Battel, he died in a few Days after.

This Year alſo Carthage was taken, and deſtroy'd by SCIPIO Africanus junior, after a three Years War, call'd the Third Punic War, while Cn. Lentulus and L. Mummius were Conſuls: and Mummius this ſame Year being ſent to finiſh the Achæan War, took the Command of the Army in Greece from Metellus, defeated the Achæans at the Iſthmus, and in three Days march'd into Corinth, which he burnt and deſtroy'd; and the Braſs there being melted in the Burning with other Metals, the Mixture made the famous Corinthian Braſs. Here ends the Hiſtory of Polybius, with the Commonwealth of Achaea, that was made up of ſeveral States, who were all become ſubject to the Commonwealth of ROME.

12. DEMETRIUS called himſelf Nicator the Conqueror, and had full Poſſeſſion of his Father's Throne: but the Succeſſion in Egypt was not ſoon ſetled; for Cleopatra the Siſter and Widow of PHILOMETOR, ſet up her young Son, while others declar'd for PHYSCON who now came to Alexandria. ONIAS the High Prieſt raiſed an Army of Jews, for the Son of Philometor; and by the Mediation of Thermus the Roman Ambaſſador, PHYSCON agreed to marry Cleopatra, to reign while he lived, and to leave the Crown at Death to her Son by Philometor: but on the nuptial Day, Phyſcon murder'd the Son in his Mother's Arms; and as he began, ſo he went on with Murders all his Reign.

7. PHYSCON again called himſelf Ptolemy Euergetes II. and this was the firſt Year of his ſole Reign in Egypt.

DEMETRIUS acted as fooliſhly in Syria, by the Influence of his inſolent Favourite Laſthenes; for He order'd the Egyptian Garriſons in Phenicia to be murder'd, whereby the other Egyptian Soldiers in his Pay, that had ſet him upon the Throne, return'd home in Diſguſt: nay he disbanded all his Veterans, except the Cretans and a few other Mercenaries. He came to Ptolemais, and there ſummoned Jonathan before him, who by his rich Preſents was confirm'd in his Office, and got three Toparchies added to his Government, and for 300 Talents got the whole Land freed from Taxes. Jonathan ſtrongly beſieged Mount Acra, but in vain, therefore he ſent to DEMETRIUS at Antioch, to pray him to withdraw that Garriſon; which the King promiſed, upon Condition that Jonathan would ſend him ſome Forces againſt his mutineering Antiochians: Jonathan ſent thither 3000 Men, who ſlew about 100000 People, and having reduced the Antiochians, They return'd with Spoils. But DEMETRIUS thinking he had no more Uſe for Jonathan, broke all his Bargains with him, and went on killing, confiſcating, and baniſhing his Subjects, till his whole Kingdom was ready to revolt.

Diodotus call'd Tryphon, one of Alexander Balas's Officers, obſerving the ill Situation of Demetrius, prevail'd with Zabdiel the Arabian Prince, to give him Antiochus the Infant Son of Balas, and brought him into Syria, ſoon got an Army for him, beat Demetrius in the Field, came to Antioch, and ſet him in his Father's Throne, calling him

PHYSCON was now inaugurated at Memphis, where Cleopatra his Siſter and Wife bore to him a Son, call'd Memphites.

Continuation of TABLE XXXI.

PTOLEMY Phyſcon King of Egypt.
DEMETRIUS Nicator King of Syria, and ANTIOCHUS Sidetes.
Simon Prince of the Jews.

Jonathan was invited to join Antiochus, got all his former Privileges confirm'd, with an Addirion of new ones, and of a 4th Toparchy; and he raiſed a great Army that ſecured the Country as far as Damaſcus, defeated the Forces of Demetrius in Galilee, while Simon took in Bethſura. JONATHAN alſo renew'd his League with the Romans and Lacedemonians, and reduced all round him to the Obedience of ANTIOCHUS, fortify'd Jeruſalem and all Judea, and built a ſtrong Wall before Mount ACRA, whereby that Garriſon was blokaded. But Tryphon not liking Jonathan, as not fit for his Deſigns, decoy'd him from his Army to Ptolemais, and ſoon after murder'd him at Baſcama in Gilead.

3. SIMON his Brother took upon him the Command and kept Tryphon from relieving Mount Acra that was ſtill blokaded, ſent for the Bones of Jonathan, and buried them in his Father's Sepulchre at Modin; over which he erected an high and famous Monument of white Marble, one of the fineſt Pieces of Architecture in the World.

14. TRYPHON having murder'd young Antiochus, declares himſelf King of Syria, ſent to Rome to be own'd by the Senate; but in vain; while They honourably receiv'd Simon's Ambaſſadors, and renew'd the League with the Jews.

Sarpedon one of Demetrius's Captains was beaten out of the Field by TRYPHON's Men near Ptolemais; while DEMETRIUS at Laodicea was glutting himſelf in all vile Pleaſures. However Simon ſent to Demetrius, who gave him all he had bargain'd with Jonathan, and alſo made him a Sovereign Prince: upon which SIMON made a Progreſs thro' the Land, and fortify'd Bethſura as a Magazine, and Joppa as a Sea Port for Jeruſalem's Trade, and Gazara which he planted with Jews, and where he built a Palace. And now in the 170 Year of Saleucus, the Jews being freed from the Yoke of the Gentiles, no longer dated their Inſtruments and Contracts by the ERA of Seleucus, or Syrian Kings, but by the Years of their King and High Prieſt SIMON, and his Succeſſors, 1 Mac. xiii. 35.——42. Joſeph. Lib. xiii. Cap. 11.

At length the Garriſon of Mount Acra in the City of DAVID, by the long Blokade wanting Proviſions, did ſurrender the Fort, and march'd out of Judea; after It had been a dreadful Thorn in their Side, ever ſince It was built in the Time of ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes: and that no Enemy for the future might lodge there, SIMON demoliſh'd and levell'd the Hill equal with the Mount of the Temple, which he now fortify'd, and built a Palace on it: and perceiving his Son JOHN (afterwards call'd Hyrcanus) to be a valiant Man, he made him his General, and ſent him to reſide at Gazara. This Year Antiochus (call'd Grypus) was born to DEMETRIUS, by his Queen Cleopatra the Daughter of PTOLEMY Philometor; for he lived 45 Years.

MITHRIDATES I. King of Parthia, having conquer'd all from the Indus to the Euphrates, the Macedonian Race in the Eaſt, earneſtly invited DEMETRIUS to come and deliver them from the Tyranny of the Parthians. He raiſed an Army, paſſed over the Euphrates, was ſoon join'd by the Elymæans, Perſians, and Bactrians, and beat the Parthians in many Conflicts; till by Propoſals of Peace, the Parthians drew him into a Snare, cut off all his Army, and took him Priſoner. MITHRIDATES firſt carried him for a Show in Chains round his Provinces; but then he ſtruck off his Chains, allow'd him a Royal Maintenance in Hyrcania, and gave him Rhodaguna his Daughter in Marriage; where he lived as well as a captive Prince could hope for, till the Reign of Phrahates the Son of MITHRIDATES. And thus the Parthian Kingdom was eſtabliſh'd, and greatly extended.

And now in a general Aſſembly of Elders, Prieſts, and People at Jeruſalem, on the 18th Day of Elul this Year, the Jews unanimouſly conferr'd on SIMON and his Heirs the princely Dignity, and the High Prieſthood, by a publick Deed engraven on Tables of Braſs, repoſited in the Treaſury of the Temple, and a Copy of it was hung up in the Porch.

While Demetrius was thus a Captive in Parthia,

Cleopatra his Queen ſhelter'd herſelf in Seleucia on the Orontes, to whom many of TRYPHON's Soldiers deſerted, becauſe of his cruel Temper diſcover'd only ſince the Captivity of Demetrius: but ſtill fearing Tryphon, CLEOPATRA hearing Demetrius was married in Parthia, offers the Crown and herſelf in Marriage to her Husband's Brother Antiochus then at Rhodes, who accepted of it: and ſo

15. ANTIOCHUS Sidetes, or the Hunter, declares himſelf King of Syria, wrote a kind Letter to SIMON confirming all former Grants, and owning his Sovereignty in Judea, 1 Mac. xv, and the Beginning of this next Year He landed in Syria, married Cleopatra, and march'd againſt TRYPHON, whoſe Soldiers daily deſerted to Antiochus, till his Army was increas'd to 120000 Foot, and 8000 Horſe. Therefore Tryphon retreated to Dora near Ptolemais in Phenicia, where ANTIOCHUS beſieg'd him; but he eſcap'd by Sea, came to Orthoſia, and from thence to Apamia his native City, where he was taken and put to Death.

SIMON the High Prieſt, and Prince of the Jews, having ſent his Ambaſſadors with a rich Preſent to Rome, was recogniz'd as ſuch by the Senate, who order'd L. Cornelius Piſa the Conſul, to write Letters to Ptolemy King of Egypt, Attalus King of Pergamus, Ariarathes King of Greece and Leſſer Aſia, to acquaint them that the Jews were their Allies, and under their Protection.

But the Letters not being directed to ANTIOCHUS, He broke his Covenant with SIMON, demanded the Reſtitution of Gazara, Joppa, and Mount Acra or Fort of Jeruſalem, and ſent his General Cendebæus with an Army againſt SIMON.

Continuation of TABLE XXXI.

PTOLEMY Phyſcon King of Egypt.
ANTIOCHUS Sidetes King of Syria.
SIMON Prince of the Jews, and JOHN Hyrcanus.

SIMON forthwith rais'd 20000 Men, and gave the Command to his Sons Judas and John, who beat Cendebæus out of the Field, clear'd that Country of the Syrians, and return'd in Triumph to Jeruſalem.

PTOLEMY Phyſcon, a vitious, cruel and fooliſh Prince, would have loſt his Kingdom, but for his wiſe Miniſter Hierax an Antiochian: and Attalus King of Pergamus being dead, was ſucceeded by his Nephew ATTALUS Philometor, the Son of Eumenes by Stratonice the Daughter of Ariarathes King of Cappadocia, who prov'd a Monſter of Cruelty and egregious Folly.

But ANTIOCHUS Sidetes having ſlain Tryphon, ſettled his Kingdom, and began to recover what had been loſt in the late Diſtractions; while Attalus left his Throne and turn'd Gardener; and while Phyſcon's Cruelties diſpoſed the Alexandrians to leave their Houſes, and tranſport themſelves into Greece and Leſſer Aſia, where They revived all Sorts of Learning that had been almoſt extinguiſh'd there, ever ſince ALEXANDER the Great, and had been quite loſt, but for PTOLEMY Soter and Philadelphus, who patroniz'd it by the College and Library of Alexandria; which City now was drain'd of learned Men, and fill'd with Foreigners from all Parts. Mean while the Senate ſent Publius SCIPIO Africanus junior, Spurius Mummius, and L. Metellus, to Egypt, Syria, Aſia, and Greece, to inſpect all Affairs in thoſe Parts. And this Year MITHRIDATES Euergetes King of Pontus, had a Son born call'd afterwards MITHRIDATES the Great, and Dionyſius or Bacchus, and Eupator. He was born at Sinope, which he made his Capital, (Appian. in Mithrid. Strabo Lib. 12.) when a great Comet appear'd, mention'd by Seneca Lib. 7. cap. 15. Natur. Quæſt. for Mithridates lived 72 Years.

MITHRIDATES the wiſe and valiant King of Parthia, after he had conquer'd all from the Ganges to the Euphrates, and made a fine Body of Laws from a Collection of the beſt Laws he found in thoſe Countries, for the Government of his large Empire, died in a glorious old Age, having reigned 37 Years, and was ſucceeded by his Son

7. Arſaces PHRAHATES II. who reign'd 9 Years.

SIMON with two of his Sons Judas and Mattathias, made a Progreſs thro' the Land, and coming to Jericho were invited to an Entertainment by PTOLEMY the Son of Abubus, who had married his Daughter, and were by him there murder'd, at the Inſtigation of King Antiochus, who had promis'd that Government to Ptolemy. But

4. JOHN his Son, call'd afterwards Hyrcanus, hearing of it, drew forth his Army at Gazara, and cut off all Ptolemy's Army that came to ſeize him; and coming to Jeruſalem, was declared High Prieſt and Prince of the Jews, while Ptolemy ſent to Antiochus, and fled to Zeno Cotyla the Tyrant of Philadelphia, or the ancient Rabbah of the Ammonites. Here ends the Hiſtory of the firſt Book of Maccabees, which indeed ſhould be call'd the ſecond Book.

ANTIOCHUS march'd an Army into Judea, drove Hyrcanus out of the Field and ſhut him up in Jeruſalem, where he beſieg'd him till the Feaſt of Tabernacles, when ANTIOCHUS gave him a Truce, and ſent him in Beaſts for Sacrifices and Terms of Peace, viz. that Jeruſalem ſhould be diſmantled, and a Tribute paid for Joppa and other Places out of Judea, and 500 Talents in Lieu of Mount Acra; which HYRCANUS gladly accepted of, being reduced to the laſt Extremity; and it was owing to the Generoſity of ANTIOCHUS, that the whole Jewiſh Nation was not cut off.

This Year Matthias Aphlias, a Prieſt of the Courſe of Joarib, married a Daughter of JONATHAN, late Prince of the Jews, who bore to him Matthias Curtus, the Father of Joſephus, the Father of Matthias, the Father of JOSEPHUS the Hiſtorian, who was born in the firſt Year of CALIGULA, Anno Domini 37.

The Slaves in ſeveral Parts of the Roman Empire made Inſurrections, eſpecially in Sicily, where Eunus a Syrian Slave ſet up for a Conjurer, and rais'd an Army of Slaves, who crown'd him their King, and call'd him Antiochus. This Rebellion was left to the Care of C. Fulvius the Conſul, while SCIPIO Africanus the other Conſul, march'd his Army to the War of Numantium in Spain.

Attalus the fooliſh King of Pergamus, now took a Fancy to be a Founder; but while he laboured in melting Braſs in hot Weather, he fell into a Fever, of which he died in ſeven Days; leaving a laſt Will, wherein he bequeathed all his Goods to the People of Rome; by virtue whereof They ſeiz'd his Kingdom as his Goods, and made it a Roman Province. Eudemus a Pergamenian brought to Rome the Teſtament of Attalus, his Royal Crown and Purple.

But Ariſtonicus the Brother of Attalus and Son of Eumenes by his Concubine, declared the Will was falſe and forg'd, rais'd an Army, and took Poſſeſſion of the Kingdom. Againſt him the free Cities aſſiſted the Romans, as did alſo Nicomedes King of Bithynia, Ariarathes of Cappadocia, Plymaenes of Paphlagonia, and Mithridates of Pontus.

This is the 38th Year of Ptolemy Euergetes II. or PHYSCON, from the Time he began to reign jointly with his Brother Philometor, viz. in the 11th Year of Philometor: and this Year Jeſus the Son of Sirach, came from Jeruſalem to Egypt, and tranſlated from the Hebrew into Greek his Grandfather Jeſus's Book, call'd Eccleſiaſticus. See the ſecond Prologue of that Book.

P. Rupilius the Conſul defeated the Rebels in Sicily, and glorioſly finiſh'd the firſt Servil War.

P. Licinius Craſſus the Conſul and High Prieſt of ROME, commanded the Army againſt Ariſtonicus in Aſia, while ANTIOCHUS Sidetes, pretending to reſcue his Brother Demetrius Nicator from Captivity, march'd an Army of above 80000 Men againſt PHRAATES King of Parthia, whom he overcame in three Battels, and reduc'd Phraates to his Parthian Limits: and JOHN the Prince of the Jews, at the Head of a Jewiſh Body of Men in the Syrian Army, being chiefly concern'd in beating the Hyrcanians, obtain'd the Name of Hyrcanus, and leaving ANTIOCHUS triumphing in the Eaſt, He return'd to Jeruſalem with Glory at the End of the Year. But the reſt of the Army winter'd in the Eaſt; and there being about 300000 idle People, beſides the military Men, They were forced to diſperſe at great Diſtances for Subſiſtence; of which the oppreſſed Inhabitants taking the Advantage, join'd the Parthians, and by Concert, They cut off the Syrians all in one Day, before They could draw together, and ſlew ANTIOCHUS himſelf. Mean while PHRAATES had releas'd DEMETRIUS, and ſent him to Syria to regain his Kingdom, in order to divert Antiochus from the Eaſt; and upon obtaining this Victory, PHRAATES ſent a Body of Horſe after DEMETRIUS to bring him back; but	15	5	405	328	4583	131	3873	2	617	618	48	193	182	10
DEMETRIUS made haſte home, and recover'd his Kingdom after ten Years Captivity; and ſo This is the firſt Year of the ſecond Reign of DEMETRIUS Nicator King of Syria. PHRAATES put the Body of Antiochus into a Silver Coffin, and honourably ſent it to Syria to be buried; and finding among the Captives one of his Daughters, PHRAATES married her: but he was diverted from marching into Syria, as he deſign'd, by a Scythian Army he had hired to come to his Aſſiſtance, who would not return without their Hire; and he was forced to ſtay at home to defend his own Country againſt them. Craſſus being totally routed by Ariſtonicus, and taken Priſoner, provok'd his Keeper to kill him, that he might not ſurvive the Diſgrace: but M. Perperna the Conſul came ſuddenly into Aſia with a freſh Army, found Ariſtonicus unprovided, defeated him, beſieg'd him in Stratonice, took him Priſoner, and brought him to Rome in Chains, where he was led in the Triumph of Manius Aquilius the Proconſul of Aſia, four Years after this, and was then order'd by the Senate to be ſtrangled in Priſon. JOHN Hyrcanus took the Advantage of the Loſſes and Diviſions of Syria, to enlarge his Dominions, and make himſelf independent; and never more was He or any of his Race ſubject to the Syrian Kings. He now took in Shechem, and deſtroy'd the Samaritans Temple on Mount Gerizzim, after it had ſtood 279 Years, from its being founded by Sanballat, Page 120. But They have kept an Altar ſtill there even to this Day. Mean while Ptolemy Phyſcon, having divorced Cleopatra his Wife and Philometor's Widow and Siſter of them both, He married Cleopatra her Daughter by Philometor, exercis'd unheard of Cruelties, cauſed his bloody Mercenaries to cut off the Youth of Alexandria: but the injur'd People roſe in a general Tumult, burnt his Palace, and made him flee to Cyprus with his new Cleopatra and his Son Memphitis; while the People put the Government into the Hands of Cleopatra the divorced Wife.	16	6	406	329	4584	130	3874	3	618	619	49	194	183	1
PHYSCON at Cyprus ſent for his Son the Governor of Cyrene, and put him to Death; for fear that the Alexandrians ſhould make him the King of Egypt in his Stead: upon hearing which, the Alexandrians inrag'd, demoliſh'd all his Statues: but PHYSCON believing it was done by Order of CLEOPATRA the Queen; in revenge of her, He caus'd his and her Son Memphitis to be ſlain, and his Body in Pieces put into a Box, and ſent to his Mother CLEOPATRA, to be preſented to her among the Diſhes of Entertainment, on her approaching Birth-Day; which being done, it turn'd the Feſtival into Mourning, fill'd all People with Deteſtation of the Royal Murderer, and an Army was rais'd under Marſyas the Queen's General. HYRCANUS having conquer'd the Edomites, or Idumæans, made them all Proſelytes of Righteouſneſs to the Jewiſh Religion; whereby They were incorporated into the Jewiſh Nation, and their Name at laſt was ſwallow'd up in the Name of Jews, about Anno Domini 100.	17	7	407	330	4585	129	3875	4	619	620	50	195	184	2
PHYSCON ſent his General Hegelochus with an Army againſt the Alexandrians; He beat Marſyas, took him Priſoner, and ſent him to Phyſcon; who now weary of his Cruelties, let Marſyas go unhurt. CLEOPATRA ſent to her Son in Law DEMETRIUS Nicator King of Syria, (who had married her eldeſt Daughter by Philometor) to come and take the Crown of Egypt; which he accepted of, and forthwith laid Siege to Peluſium. HYRCANUS ſent Ambaſſadors to Rome, where the Senate readily renew'd the League with the Jews, own'd them to be independent of Syria, and aſſur'd them of Aſſiſtance, if any Enemy ſhould attack them. PHRAATES having fooliſhly imploy'd the Grecian Mercenaries taken from Antiochus, They, at joining Battel, went over to the Scythians, and help'd them to overthrow the Parthians with a great Slaughter, wherein PHRAATES himſelf was cut off, and was ſucceeded by his Uncle, viz.	18	8	408	331	4586	128	3876	CLXIII. 1	620	621	51	196	185	3
8. Arſaces ARTABANUS II. who reign'd three Years. See Vaillant's Arſacidarum Imperium. ———————— Jannaeus the Son of HYRCANUS was this Year born: and Hyrcanus ſent again his Ambaſſadors, to thank the Senate for their Decree of laſt Year, and ſent them a Golden Cup and Shield worth 50000 Gold Pieces.	19	9	409	332	4587	127	3877	2	621	622	52	197	186	4

Continuation of TABLE XXXI.

PTOLOMY Phyſcon King of Egypt.
DEMETRIUS Nicator King of Syria, and ZEBINA and GRYPUS.
JOHN Hyrcanus Prince of the Jews.

While DEMETRIUS was warring in Egypt, the Antiochians and others revolted from him; which made him leave Egypt: upon which CLEOPATRA having none to protect her againſt PHYSCON, put all her Treaſure on Shipboard, and fled by Sea to Ptolemais in Phenicia, to her eldeſt Daughter Cleopatra Queen of Syria, which Daughter had been firſt the Wife of Alexander BALAS, next of DEMETRIUS Nicator, next of ANTIOCHUS Sidetes, and now of DEMETRIUS again. Upon the News of her Flight, PHYSCON return'd to Alexandria without Oppoſition, reaſſum'd the Government, and ſet up an Impoſtor againſt DEMETRIUS, call'd Alexander Zebina, the Son of an Alexandrian Broker, but feigning to be the Son of Alexander BALAS; and as ſuch, PHYSCON ſent this Pretender with an Army into Syria, where Multitudes join'd him without examining his Title, not caring who was King if They could only get rid of Demetrius, who now brought his Army into Coele-Syria, where he was vanquiſh'd by Zebina, in a Battel near Damaſcus, and fled to his Wife at Ptolemais: but ſhe reſenting his marrying of Rhodaguna, ſhut the Gates upon him; and flying to Tyre, he was there ſlain, by Direction, as is thought, of his Wife Cleopatra, who reign'd at Ptolemais, while

16. ZEBINA reign'd in Syria, who made a ſtrict Alliance with the Jews, and HYRCANUS wiſely made Advantage of theſe Diviſions of Syria: and in this 188th Year of the Era of SELEUCUS, the Jews of Jeruſalem ſent to the Jews of Egypt, Letters deſiring them to obſerve the Feaſt of reforming or repurging the Temple on the 25th Day of the Month Kiſleu, as They did.

Dorylaus being ſent by MITHRIDATES Euergetes King of Pontus, to levy Soldiers in Crete, was made the General of the Cnoſſians there, againſt the Gortynians, and ſoon and ſucceſsfully finiſh'd that War.

Artabauns King of Parthia, being ſlain by the Scythians in War, was ſucceeded by 9. Arſaces MITHRIDATES II. his Son, who reign'd 37 Years.

17. SELEUCUS the eldeſt Son of Demetrius Nicator, now about 20 Years old, put on a Crown, and reign'd in a Part of Syria one Year, till his Mother Cleopatra got him in her Power, and with her own Hands thruſt a Dart thro' him, and ſlew him; for ſhe fear'd he would revenge his Father's Death upon her.

ZEBINA ſhew'd himſelf a generous Prince in pardoning ſome Revolters after he had taken them.

MITHRIDATES Euergetes King of Pontus and Leſſer Armenia, being ſlain by the Treachery of his Domeſtics, was ſucceded by his Son MITHRIDATES Eupator 12 Years old; for he liv'd 72 Years, and reign'd 60 Years. Eutrop. As a great Comet appear'd at his Birth, ſo another at his Acceſſion to the Throne, that ſhin'd Night and Day for 70 Days, as if it was going to ſet the Heavens on Fire; it tranſcended the Sun in Splendor; its Tail cover'd a fourth Part of the Heavens, or 45 Degrees of the upper Hemiſphere, and was four Hours in riſing, and as long in ſetting. Juſtin.

Queen CLEOPATRA ſent for Antiochus, her ſecond Son by Demetrius, now near 20 Years old, then at Athens for his Education; and on his Arrival, ſhe proclaim'd him King of Syria, tho' ſhe deſign'd he ſhould not have much more than the Name of King, and ſhe was to govern all: and ſo

18. ANTIOCHUS Grypus or hook Noſe, call'd by Joſephus Philometor, call'd himſelf in his Coins Epiphanes, began to reign this Year; while ZEBINA refuſing to hold his Crown in Homage of PHYSCON who ſet him up, provoked Phyſcon to pull him down: for agreeing with his Niece Queen CLEOPATRA, Phyſcon gave his Daughter Tryphæna in Marriage to Grypus; and now

PHYSCON ſent an Army into Syria to aſſert the Claim of GRYPUS; upon which a Battel inſued, wherein Zebina being routed, fled to Antioch; and being drove from thence by the Mob, He wander'd from Place to Place, till he was taken and put to Death. Some ſay he was kill'd in Battel, and others that he poiſon'd himſelf.

This is the XXVII Year of JUBILEE, celebrated by JOHN Hyrcanus at Jeruſalem.

In Italy the famous Opimian Wine, ſo much mention'd by the Poets, was now made, and ſo call'd from L. Opimius the Conſul this Year. Some of it was preſerv'd 200 Years.

Queen Cleopatra finding her Son GRYPUS capable of Government, and herſelf eclipſed by him, prepar'd a Cup of Poiſon which ſhe offer'd him cunningly; but he being forewarn'd, forced her to drink it up herſelf: and ſo there's an End of the Plague of Syria, a curſed Woman, yet the Wife of three Kings of Syria, and the Mother of four.

PTOLEMY Phyſcon the moſt vitious and cruel King of Egypt, now died, leaving three Sons: to the eldeſt APION, born by a Concubine, he left by Will the Kingdom of Cyrene and Lybia, and that of Egypt and Cyprus he bequeath'd to Cleopatra his Wife and Niece, and her two Sons by him, Lathyrus and Alexander, with a Power in her to chuſe which of them ſhe pleaſed to be her Partner in the Throne: ſhe would have had Alexander the youngeſt; but the People obliged her to recall the eldeſt from Cyprus, and He became King, call'd, by Athenæus and Pauſanias, Philometor, and at his Inauguration he call'd himſelf Soter: but in Hiſtory he is beſt known by the Name of LATHYRUS or Lathurus, that is, the Pea, having perhaps a Wart or Excreſcence like a Pea on his Face.

TABLE XXXII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Egypt and Syria, and their Contemporaries, from the Death of PTOLEMY Phyſcon King of Egypt, or the 7th Year of ANTIOCHUS Grypus King of Syria, and the 19th Year of JOHN Hy canus Prince of Judea. To the total Expulſion of the Seleucidæ, when POMPEY made Syria a Roman Province; and to the firſt Year of PTOLEMY Auletes King of Egypt, and the firſt Year of ARISTOBULUS King of Judea, containing 51 Years.

Ptolemy LATHYRUS King of Egypt, and ALEXANDER.
Antiochus GRYPUS King of Syria, and Antiochus CYZICENUS King of Damaſcus.
JOHN HYRCANUS Prince of Judea.

8. CLEOPATRA the Widow of PTOLEMY Phyſcon, did not reign alone; for

9. PTOLEMY Soter or LATHYRUS, was this Year proclaim'd King of Egypt: but before his Mother CLEOPATRA allow'd him to reign, ſhe made him to divorce his beloved Wife and Siſter Cleopatra, and to marry his younger Siſter Selene. Juſtin.

GRYPUS was preparing for a War againſt the Jews, but was prevented by an Inſurrection at home by Antiochus Cyzicenus his half Brother, the Son of his Mother Cleopatra, by Antiochus SIDETES, whom ſhe had ſent to Cyzicus, a City on the Propontis in leſſer Myſia, to be educated by Craterus a faithful Eunuch, from which he was call'd Cyzicenus; and hearing that GRYPUS deſign'd to poiſon him, He arm'd in his own Defence, openly aſſerted his Right to the Crown, and having ſeiz'd Part of the Syrian Kingdom,

1. ANTIOCHUS Cyzicenus is reckon'd to begin his Reign this Year as King of Damaſcus.

Cleopatra whom LATHYRUS had divorc'd, went to Cyprus, rais'd an Army there, and march'd to the Aſſiſtance of CYZICENUS, who forthwith married her: and ſo the two Brothers join'd Battel, in which Cyzicenus was defeated, and fled to Antioch, where he left his Wife, and went to recruit his Army. But GRYPUS took the Place, and his Wife Tryphaena, contrary to his Proteſtations, got Soldiers to go into the Temple where Cleopatra had ſhelter'd herſelf, and there to ſlay her, tho' ſhe was her own full Siſter. Mean while ALEXANDER the younger Brother of Lathyrus, is ſent to be King of Cyprus by his Mother Cleopatra Queen of Egypt.

CYZICENUS having recruited his Army, fought another Battel, and having beat GRYPUS out of the Field, drove him out of Syria, and made him flee to Aſpendus in Pamphilia: and having found Triphæna, Cyzicenus put her to Death as ſhe deſerv'd.

Hyrcanus was born to Alexander Jannaeus the Son of John Hyrcanus by his Wife Salina call'd alſo Alexandra.

GRYPUS return'd with an Army, and recovering Syria, agreed to a Partition of the Empire with his Brother CYZICENUS, who now ſet up his Throne at Damaſcus, reigning over Coele-Syria and Phenicia, while GRYPUS at Antioch reign'd over the reſt.

John HYRCANUS ſent two of his Sons Ariſtobulus and Antigonus to lay Siege to Samaria; and Cyzicenus coming to raiſe the Siege with a great Army, was routed by the two Brothers, and purſued as far as Scythopolis.

CYZICENUS having receiv'd 6000 Auxiliaries from LATHYRUS King of Egypt, again attempted to relieve Samaria, but in vain; for he durſt not venture a Battel, and retiring to Tripoli, left Callimander and Epicrates his Generals to purſue the War: but the firſt was cut off with all his Party, and Epicrates for a Sum of Money deliver'd Scythopolis and all the Neighbourhood to HYRCANUS, who forced Samaria to a Surrender, which he raſed to the Ground; and now became one of the moſt conſiderable Princes in his Day, and enjoy'd the Remainder of his Time in Peace, from foreign Wars.

The People of Seleucia in Syria near Antioch, having made themſelves independent, began to compute their Times from this Year.

The Phariſees unjuſtly affirming, that the Mother of HYRCANUS was a Captive taken in War, and that therefore He was not fit to be High Prieſt; He deſerted their Party, and encouraged the Sadducees; whereby he loſt the Affections of the Populace who were moſtly Phariſees.

HYRCANUS died this Year, leaving five Sons, viz. Ariſtobulus, Antigonus, Alexander, Abſolom, and another whoſe Name is not mention'd. Joſeph. Antiq. Lib. xiii. 19. xiv. 8. And

Lathyrus having offended his Mother CLEOPATRA, by ſending 6000 Auxiliaries againſt the Jews her Friends, ſhe falſely accuſed him of attempting to kill her, and rais'd a general Uproar of the Alexandrians againſt him, that made him flee by Sea for his Life, when ſhe took from him his Wife Selene, who had bore to him two Sons, ſent for her Son ALEXANDER King of Cyprus, and made him her Partner as King of Egypt, and forc'd Lathyrus to be content with Cyprus in his Room: and ſo

10. Ptolemy ALEXANDER I. reign'd with his Mother CLEOPATRA, tho' the Years of his and her Reign are aſſign'd to LATHYRUS, who now reign'd in Cyprus near 19 Years, and afterwards reign'd alone in Egypt.

5. ARISTOBULUS, call'd alſo Judas and Philellen, for his Intimacy with the Greeks, did ſucceed his Father, and immediately began to wear a Diadem as a King, the firſt that had this Title after the Babyloniſh Captivity. He ſtarved to Death his Mother in Priſon

Ptolemy ALEXANDER I. King of Egypt, and LATHYRUS at Cyprus.
Antiochus GRYPUS King of Syria, and Antiochus CYZICENUS King of Damaſcus.
ARISTOBULUS I. Prince of Judea, and ALEXANDER Jannaeus.

Priſon for claiming a Share in the Kingdom, and impriſon'd his three younger Brothers, but at firſt allow'd his Brother Antigonus a Share in the Government.

Then He march'd againſt the Ituræans, a Part of Cœle Syriz, North Eaſt from the Land of Iſrael, between the Half Tribe of Manaſſeh and the Territories of Damaſcus; ſo call'd from Itur one of Iſhmael's Sons, call'd Jetur in the Engliſh Bible; and the Country is ſometimes call'd Auronitis: and having conquer'd the Ituræans, He forced them to become Proſelytes to the Jewiſh Religion, and to be incorporated with his Nation, (in like Manner as HYRCANUS had forced the Idumæans) and return'd to Jeruſalem, leaving Antigonus to finiſh the War: but when Antigonus return'd in Triumph to Jeruſalem, Aristobulus was influenced by his Queen Salome and her Party, to concur in the Murder of Antigonus; as related at large by Joſeph. Antiq. Lib. xiii. cap. 19. and Bell. Jud. Lib. i. cap. 3. But Aristobulus, then ſick, began ſoon to repent of it, and his Conſcience terrifying him for the Murder of his Mother and Brother, his Diſeaſe was increas'd to a vomiting of Blood, of which he died in an Agony of Remorſe. Then Salome releas'd the three Brothers from Priſon, and

6. ALEXANDR Jannaeus the eldeſt took the Kingdom, who forthwith cauſed his Brother next to him (whoſe Name is not mention'd) to be put to Death for a Plot, but he ſpared Abſalom for being a quiet Man.

While the two Brothers, GRYPUS and CYZICENUS were harraſſing each other in War, Tyre, Sidon, Ptolemais, Gaza, and other Cities reſumed their Liberty; and little Tyrants took Poſſeſſion of other Cities, as Theodorus of Gadara, and Amathus beyond the Jordan, and Zoilus of Dora, and Stratons Tower. And this Year

Cneius POMPEIUS Magnus, and Marcus Tullius CICERO were born.

Alexander Jannaeus having ſettled his Government, march'd an Army and laid Siege to Ptolemais, but LATHYRUS coming from Cyprus into Phenicia with 30000 Men, oblig'd him to raiſe the Siege. Jannaeus craftily promiſed to pay LATHYRUS 400 Talents of Silver, if Lathyrus would deliver to him Zoilus and his Towers: but Lathyrus finding Jannaeus was underhand exciting Cleopatra Queen of Egypt to ſend an Army into Phenicia, Lathyrus broke with him and reſolv'd to be his Enemy.

Accordingly Lathyrus laid Siege to Ptolemais, and with the reſt of his Army march'd againſt Jannaeus, who met him with 50000 Men at Aſophus near the Jordan, where a fierce Battel was fought, in which Jannæus was vanquiſh'd with the Loſs of 30000, and muſt have been utterly ruin'd if Cleopatra had not come to his Relief next Year.

MARIUS the Conſul going againſt the Cimbrians in Gallia, deſir'd Nicomedes King of Bithynia to ſend him Auxiliaries; but the King ſent Word that moſt of the Bithynians were ſcatter'd abroad in Slavery, by the Roman Publicans or Tax Gatherers: upon which the Senate decreed that none of the Friends of Rome ſhould be made Slaves in any Province. The Neglect of duly executing this Decree in Sicily, produced the Second Servil War there.

The People of Aſcalon obtaining Independency, began to compute their Times from this Year.

CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt rais'd an Army under the Command of her two Favorites Chelkias and Ananias (Sons of that Onias who built the Jewiſh Temple in Egypt) and going aboard her Fleet with them, ſhe landed in Phenicia, forced LATHYRUS to raiſe the Siege of Ptolemais, and to flee into Cœle Syria; and while ſhe beſieg'd Ptolemais, Chelkias purſu'd Lathyrus, but loſt his Life in the Expedition; which being thereby defeated, LATHYRUS wheel'd about and march'd ſtraight to Egypt, hoping to find that Country unprovided: but he was miſtaken; for

The Forces that CLEOPATRA had left there, kept him in Play till a Detachment came from her Army to their Aſſiſtance; and ſo LATHYRUS was forced to retire and take Winter Quarters at Gaza. This is the firſt Year of the 4th Period of Calippus.

Mean while CLEOPATRA took in Ptolemais, where Alexander Jannaeus waited on her with rich Preſents, and returning to Jeruſalem he recruited his Army, and march'd over the Jordan to the Siege of Gadara, which he took: and Syria was much haraſs'd by the Jews and Arabians.

L. Licinius Lucullus was ſent by the Senate with an Army into Sicily to proſecute the Servil War, and Antony (the Grandfather of M. Antony the Triumvir) finiſh'd the Pyratical War of the Cicilians.

LATHYRUS return'd to Cyprus, and CLEOPATRA to Egypt, where She hearing that Lathyrus was treating with CYZICENUS at Damaſcus, to aſſiſt him in another Deſcent upon Egypt, She gave her Daughter Selene, (whom ſhe had taken from Lathyrus) to GRYPUS in Marriage, with large Sums of Money, and many auxiliary Troops to enable him to fight Cyzicenus; ſo that Cyzicenus could not aſſiſt Lathyrus. Her other Son ALEXANDER could hardly be perſuaded to reign with her, becauſe of her Ambition and Cruelty.

Continuation of TABLE XXXII.

Ptolemy ALEXANDER I. King of Egypt, and LATHYRUS at Cyprus.
Antiochus GRYPUS and SELEUCUS Kings of Syria, and Antiochus CYZICENUS King of Damaſcus.
ALEXANDER JANNÆUS Prince of Judea.

MARIUS the Conſul finiſh'd the Cymbrian War, and utterly deſtroy'd them. They came from Cymbrica Cherſoneſus or the Country of Jutland, Sleſwick and Holſtein, in great Numbers of valiant Men, and had penetrated into Italy, threatning Rome with utter Deſtruction: wherefore MARIUS is reckon'd the Third Founder of Rome, as ROMULUS and CAMILLUS were the two former. And whereas formerly the Romans uſed four Enſigns, viz. the Minataur, Horſe, Wolf, and Bear; MARIUS aboliſh'd them, and firſt conſecrated the Eagle to be the only Roman Standard at the Head of every Legion. When thoſe Cymbrians left their Country, the Aſae from between the Euxin and Caſpian march'd thither, and took Poſſeſſion of it, from whom the ANGLES deſcended, who with the lower Saxons came into Britain about A. D. 450. and call'd their Part of the Iſland England, or Land of the Angles. Hickeſii Theſaur.

Alexander Jannaeus next took in Amathus, where he got the Treaſure of Theodorus the Son of Zeno Cotylas Prince of Philadelphia: but on his Return Theodorus beat him in the Field, recover'd his Treaſure, took all Jannæus's Baggage, and ſlew 10000 of his Men: ſo that Jannæus return'd with Loſs and Diſgrace to Jeruſalem, where the Phariſees made the People hate him.

Yet finding Phenicia was now defenceleſs, Jannaeus march'd and took in Raphia and Anthedon, whereby he block'd up Gaza.

Aquilius the Pro-Conſul finiſh'd the Second Servil War in Sicily, in which more than an hundred Myriads of Slaves periſh'd in four Years Time.

MITHRIDATES King of Pontus endeavour'd by his Legats to corrupt the Senate of Rome with large Sums of Money; but Saturninus a Tribune of the People prevented it, by raiſing the Mob againſt them: yet the Senate found Means to cut him off as an Incendiary this ſame Year.

MARIUS now the ſixth Time Conſul, obtain'd to baniſh Q. Metellus Numidicus, who went to Rhodes where he became a cloſe Student: but after two Years, his Son Metellus humbling himſelf to the People, by Prayers and Tears obtain'd his Father's being recall'd.

Upon which MARIUS was highly offended, and ſail'd into Cappadocia and Galatia, where he was honourably receiv'd by MITHRIDATES King of Pontus, and excited him to a War againſt the Romans.

Jannaeus having laid Siege to Gaza laſt Year, it was bravely defended by Apollodotes, till this Year Lyſimachus his own Brother, thro' Envy, ſlew him and ſurrender'd the City to Jannæus, who kill'd, plunder'd, and raz'd the City, tho' with great Loſs of his Men; for the Gazeans fought to the laſt Man.

Antiochus GRYPUS King of Syria, was this Year murder'd by Heracleon his Servant in the 45th Year of his Life, leaving five Sons, viz. 1. Seleucus. 2. Antiochus, and 3. Philip Twins, theſe Three were born by Tryphæna the Daughter of Phyſcon King of Egypt, 4. Demetrius Euchærus, 5. Antiochus Dionyſius: who all attempted to reign in their Turns.

19. Seleucus ſucceeded his Father; tho' CYZICENUS mean while ſeiz'd Antioch, ——

Ptolemy Apion the Baſtard Son of Phyſcon, dying without Iſſue, left his Kingdom of Cyrene and Lybia by Teſtament or laſt Will to the Romans; who not accepting of it, but reſtoring Liberty to the Cities, occaſion'd the Riſe of many Tyrants, and much Calamity to the People, till the Country was afterwards reduced to a Roman Province.

Pharnaces the Son of MITHRIDATES Eupator King of Pontus was born, who lived 50 Years.

Tigranes the Son of TIGRANES King of Armenia, an Hoſtage in Parthia when his Father died, was releas'd by Arſaces MITHRIDATES II. King of Parthia, and honourably ſent home to ſucceed his Father; for which the Parthians received a Part of Armenia: for he had reign'd 25 Years before he join'd with Mithridates King of Pontus againſt the Romans, Plut. in Lucull.

Alexander Jannaeus while officiating at the Altar in the Feaſt of Tabernacles, as High Prieſt, was pelted with Citrons by the Phariſees, calling him Slave, harping on the old falſe Story of Hyrcanus's Mother being a Slave: upon which he fell upon them with his Soldiers, and ſlew 6000 of them.

Jannaeus now march'd againſt and beat the Arabians, and made the People of Moab and Gilead tributary. ——

SELEUCUS march'd againſt CYZICENUS, beat him in a Battel near Antioch, and took him Priſoner: upon which Cyzicenus kill'd himſelf, (ſays Porphyr.) or was kill'd by Seleucus (ſays Joſeph.) who now became Maſter of Antioch and of all Syria; but could not long keep it all: for Cyzicenus was ſucceeded by his Son.

2. Antiochus EUSEBES or Pious, who eſcaping out of Antioch, was crown'd at Aradus as King of Damaſcus; and aſpiring at the whole Empire of Syria, raiſed an Army, beat Seleucus out of the Field, and made him flee to Mopſueſtia; where the People inrag'd at his Exactions, roſe in a Mob and burnt him in his Houſe.

Ptolemy ALEXANDER I. King of Egypt, and LATHYRUS at Cyprus.
PHILIP King of Syria, and Antiochus EUSEBES King of Damaſcus, and Demetrius EUCHÆRUS.
ALEXANDER JANNÆUS Prince of Judea.

Q. Mutius Scaevola having laſt Year laid down his Office of Proconſul of Aſia, and his Legate Pub. Rutilius Rufus one of the beſt Men that ever lived, being unjuſtly condemn'd by the Roman Knights for Bribery, retired from Rome, and was honourably receiv'd in Aſia by all the noble and the learn'd this Year.

Antiochus and Philip the Twins, raiſed an Army and raſed Mopſueſtia to the Ground: but on their Return They were beaten by EUSEBES near the Orontes, where Antiochus was drown'd; but Philip made a ſafe Retreat and ſoon recruited his Army.

Jannaeus again march'd againſt Amathus; but Theodorus the Son of Zeno Cotylas, carried off his Treaſure, and let him take the City, which he raſed to the Ground. Mean while

20. PHILIP, having a good Army, was now King of Syria, and

EUSEBES married Selene the Widow of GRYPUS, which offended Lathyrus her firſt Husband, who therefore ſet up Demetrius Euchaerus the fourth Son of GRYPUS, as King of Damaſcus. This was contriving while Philip and Euſebes were in the Field againſt each other, and could not hinder it. At length They came to a deciſive Battel, in which Euſebes was routed, and forced to flee into Parthia for Safety, leaving the Prize to King PHILIP, who agreed that his Brother

3. Demetrius EUCHÆRUS ſhould be King of Damaſcus: and ſo They had all Syria between them. Mean while ——

Jannaeus having laſt Year loſt all his Army on the Eaſt Side of the Lake of Geneſareth, in a Conflict with Obedas an Arabian Prince, the Jews rebelled againſt him; and this Year a civil War in Judea began that laſted Six Years.

MITHRIDATES Eupator King of Pontus, upon the Death of ARIARATHES King of Cappadocia, murder'd the two Sons of Ariarathes, tho' They were his Nephews born by Queen Laodice his own Siſter, and ſeiz'd on that Kingdom, making his own younger Son Ariarathes, a Minor, King of Cappadocia, and one Gordius his Tutor. Upon which NICOMEDES King of Bithynia fearing Mithridates ſhould grow too powerful, ſuborn'd a Youth to call himſelf the Third Son of the late ARIARATHES, and gaining Laodice to own him, ſent him with her to Rome, to put in his Claim to that Kingdom. The Senate condemn'd his Claim, and that of Mithridates too, decreeing that the Cappadocians ſhould become a free People: but They would not be free, and declaring They muſt have a King, the Senate order'd them to chuſe whom They liked beſt; and They electing ARIOBARZANES a noble Cappadocian, L. Cornelius Sylla was order'd to go from Cilicia to put him in quiet Poſſeſſion; but not long: for MITHRIDATES reſolving to be reveng'd on the Romans, enter'd into a League with TIGRANES King of Armenia, to whom he gave his Daughter Cleopatra in Marriage; and TIGRANES forthwith expell'd Ariobarzanes, and brought back Ariarathes to reign in Cappadocia.

Arſaces MITHRIDATES II. King of Parthia, ſent Orobazus a Parthian Prince to Sylla to make Friendſhip with the Romans; which was the firſt Intercourſe between thoſe Nations.

NICOMEDES Philopator King of Bithynia dying, MITHRIDATES King of Pontus ſeiz'd that Kingdom, to the Excluſion of Nicomedes the Son of the deceas'd. Upon which the Senate of Rome decreed the Reſtoration of the two deprived Kings Ariobarzanes and Nicomedes, and ſent Manius Aquilius and Marcus Altinius to ſee it executed.

This King of Pontus had greatly inlarg'd his Dominions in Leſſer Aſia, and beſides Tigranes, had got moſt of his Neighbours to promiſe him Aſſiſtance againſt the Romans, had 25 Nations under his Dominion, and a very great Army and Fleet; yet he permitted NICOMEDES, now reſtored, to invade his Country, and carry off great Spoils; nay ſent Pelopidas his Orator to Rome to complain of it to the Senate, and to the Roman Generals in Aſia, but in vain; for They both threatned him, and order'd his Legate forthwith to depart; which was what he wanted: for he artfully delay'd the War till he ſhould be highly provok'd.

At length the Romans in Aſia began the firſt Mithridatic War, forming three Armies of 40000 each, the firſt under Caſſius, ſecond under Aquilius, and the third under Oppius, without waiting for Orders from Rome.

Neoptolemus and Archelaus, with a Detachment of Mithridates's Army, firſt overthrew Nicomedes with a great Slaughter, and made him flee into Paphlagonia: then MITHRIDATES march'd againſt Aquilius, gave him a total Rout, and made him flee to Pergamus. MITHRIDATES having generouſly ſent home all his Priſoners to their own People, gain'd the Favour of all the great Cities and Iſlands for his Bravery and Humanity, and all of them declar'd for him as the common Savior of Aſia, except Rhodes: and Nicomedes retiring to Italy, MITHRIDATES ſeiz'd all Bithynia, enter'd Phrygia with a great Army, where he lay in the Bed of ALEXANDER the Great, and over-ran the Roman Provinces, as far as Caria and Lycia, which he ſubdued, and Pamphilia too as far as Ionia, and beat Phylaemenes King of Paphlagonia out of his Country, for being a Friend of the Romans: The Athenians ſent Athenio the Philoſopher their Ambaſſador to him: He got the Laodiceans, near the River Lycus, to deliver up to him Oppius the Proconſul of Pamphilia, whom he carried about in Triumph as a Show: the Mityleneans alſo deliver'd up Aquilius to him, whom he ſet bound upon an Aſs, and forced him to proclaim to the People, I am Aquilius the Author of the War; and after many Cruelties he cauſed melted Gold to be poured hot into their Mouths at Pergamus. And ſo he conquer'd all before him in thoſe Parts in one Year.

PTOLEMY Lathyrus King of Egypt.
PHILIP King of Syria. DEMETRIUS Euchaerus, and ANTIOCHUS Dionyſius Kings of Damaſcus.
ALEXANDER JANNÆUS Prince of Judea.

CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt deſigning to reign alone, plotted the Death of ALEXANDER; which coming to his Knowledge, He prevented it by cutting her off: yet the People of Alexandria could not bear the Fact, and having baniſh'd him, ſent to Cyprus for LATHYRUS, who now reign'd in Egypt till he died.

Alexander Jannaeus during his civil Wars had ſo inraged the People, that They ſent for DEMETRIUS King of Damaſcus, who came into Judea with 40000 Foot, and 3000 Horſe, fought Jannaeus, gave him a total Overthrow, and forced him with his Remains to flee to the Mountains, where he had been utterly ruin'd, if 6000 of his Subjects had not relented and join'd him. Upon which Demetrius fearing They would all follow that Example, wiſely left Judea, and march'd into Syria againſt his Brother PHILIP, took Antioch, and beſieg'd Philip in Berrhæa, (now Aleppo) but STRATON Prince of that Place, got Zizus an Arabian King, and Mithridates a Parthian Commander, to march to the Relief of PHILIP; and They having vanquiſh'd Demetrius, and took him Priſoner, ſent him for a Preſent to MITHRIDATES II. King of Parthia, where he ſoon died.

Upon the Retreat of Demetrius Euchaerus, Jannæus got an Army and defeated his Rebels in every Conflict; yet could bring them to no Terms.

King Alexander of Egypt had got ſome Ships, but was beat by the Egyptian Admiral Tyrrhus, and fled with his Wife and Daughter to Myra in Lycia; from whence he made this Year a Deſcent upon Cyprus, but was beat and ſlain by Admiral Chaerea, after he had reign'd over Cyprus 26 Years, and over Egypt 19 Years: and ſo this next Year may be reckon'd the firſt Year of King LATHYRUS alone, who reign'd 7 Years more. Tho' all the Years are aſſign'd to him from his Father's Death.

MITHRIDATES King of Pontus prevail'd with all Governors and Magiſtrates of Cities in Leſſer Aſia, to cut off by a Maſſacre, in one appointed Day, 80000 Romans and Italians, in a cruel Manner, ſome ſay double the Number, tho' many of them eſcap'd, (eſpecially the honeſt Rutilius Rufus in Diſguiſe) and were ſhelter'd at Rhodes.

MITHRIDATES invaded the Iſland Coos, where he got a vaſt Treaſure that CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt had ſent thither with Alexander her Grandſon, the Son of her Son ALEXANDER her Partner, when ſhe warred againſt LATHYRUS in Phenicia, to be a Reſerve againſt all Events. He alſo found 800 Talents lodg'd there by the Jews. But He generouſly took Care of young Alexander the Egyptian Prince, and gave him Education. Then he attack'd Rhodes with his Fleet, but was beat off with Loſs and Diſgrace by the Rhodians. But being Maſter of Aſia, He ſent Archelaus with 120000 Men into Greece, who ſet up his head Quarters at Athens, and brought moſt of the States of Greece into his Maſter's Intereſt. He ſent one of his Sons to govern his ancient Kingdom of Pontus, and ſent the other, Ariarathes, to ſubdue Thrace and Macedon, while Archelaus ſubdued all the Iſlands and Sea Coaſts.

In this Situation, SYLLA ſent from Rome, found Matters upon his Arrival in Greece; who firſt laid Siege to Athens. ——.

Mithridates II. King of Parthia dying, was ſucceeded by the Son of Phraates I. viz.

10. Arſaces MNASKIRES, who reign'd 11 Years. Antiochus EUSEBES having been ſent back into Syria by the Parthians, ſeiz'd ſome Part of the Syrian Kingdom: but while PHILIP was imploy'd in the North againſt Euſebes, his Brother

4. Antiochus DIONYSIUS the youngeſt Son of Grypus ſeiz'd Damaſcus, and reign'd King of Cœle Syria three Years.

Jannaeus came to a deciſive Battel with his Subjects, gave them a total Rout, and cloſely beſieg'd the Remains of them in Bethome. And having taken the Place next Year,

He carried 800 of them to Jeruſalem, and crucified them all together in one Day, ſlaying their Wives and Children before their Faces, while They hung bleeding on the Croſſes, and while He with his Wives and Concubines at an Entertainment beheld the horrid Scene. Thus ended the Six Years War of the Jews.

Sylla ſent to Rhodes for a Fleet, and about the End of this Year took in Athens, and ſlew Ariſtio the Tyrant of it. Magneſia the only City of Aſia that adher'd to the Romans, ſtood out bravely againſt Mithridates. The Rhodians not daring to ſend Ships to Sylla, becauſe Mithridates was Maſter of the Seas, adviſ'd Lucullus (that came from Sylla) to ſail privately to Syria, Egypt, and Lybia, where he might pick up a good Fleet to join them. Lucullus came to Cyrene, and gave them Laws fit for a Republick; then came to Alexandria, where LATHYRUS royally entertain'd him, and ſent him off with a Fleet to Cyprus, where, and at ſeveral other Places he gather'd a good Fleet, and ſail'd ſafe to Rhodes. Mean while Cinna the Conſul ſent his Collegue Valerius Flaccus with two Legions into Aſia, to aſſiſt Sylla if he was true to the Senate, if not, to fight him: Flaccus not being a great Soldier took Fimbria with him an expert Soldier.

But tho' MITHRIDATES had ſent into Greece Archelaus with 120000 Men, and Taxiles with 110000, and Dorylaus with 80000, in all 310000 Men; yet Sylla with only 15000 Roman Foot, and 1500 Horſe, vanquiſh'd them in three Battels, ſlew 160000 of them, and forced the reſt to flee out of Greece. MITHRIDATES frighted at Sylla's Succeſs, raiſed a new Army and cut off all he ſuſpected to be his ſecret Enemies, diſtreſs'd the Chians by Zenobius, whom the Epheſians intrapt, and cut him off, and fortify'd their City againſt Mithridates, as did alſo many other Cities. But he ſent his Favourite Dorylaus (the Son of Philætrus the Brother of Dorylaus Tacticus) and Archelaus with 90000 Men againſt Sylla, who met them at Orchomenus, and firſt ſlew 15000 of them, and in the next Battel 20000, beſides 20000 that were drown'd in a Lake, and as many drove and kill'd in the Water, which was ſtain'd with their Blood. Archelaus by a Ship got to Chalcis, and Sylla, having ſpoil'd Boeotia, winter'd in Theſſaly, expecting Lucullus with a Fleet; but not yet hearing of him, Sylla tamper'd with Archelaus, who betray'd his Maſter's Fleet into the Hands of Sylla.							3919
Fimbria having excited the Soldiers to mutiny againſt their General Flaccus, was diſmiſs'd in Bithynia, and ſent home to Rome; but in his Way at Byzantium he gain'd the Soldiers there to his Side, and with them he repaſs'd the Helleſpont, purſued Flaccus, who fled privately to Nicomedia, where Fimbria took him hid in a Well, cut off his Head, threw it into the Sea, and left the Trunk of the Body unburied. And now the beſt People of Aſia were maſſacred by Fimbria and Mithridates, whoſe Son Mithridates fought Fimbria, and made him retreat: but Fimbria ſoon afterwards croſt a River, and finding Mithridates's Army aſleep, deſtroy'd moſt of them; but the Prince eſcap'd with the Horſemen to his Father at Pergamus, from whence Fimbria made that King flee to Patana, where he blokaded him by Land; but wanting Ships, and Lucullus in the neighbouring Seas, refuſing, from a Pique, to ſend him any of his Fleet, MITHRIDATES eſcap'd by Sea to Mitylene, who otherwiſe muſt have been taken. But Fimbria did not uſe People well, deſtroying their Cities and Temples. MITHRIDATES, terrify'd by his late Danger and his many Loſſes, ſent Archelaus to Sylla to make Peace on any Terms, which were, that He ſhould reſtore Bithynia to King NICOMEDES, Cappadocia to ARIOBARZANES, and the reſt to the Romans, paying them 3000 Talents for the Charge of the War, and yielding to them 70 of his capital Ships: which Mithridates accepted of; and ſo an End was put to the firſt Mithridatic War; which SYLLA would not have conſented to, but that many of the Senators had fled from Rome to his Camp, aſſuring him that a Civil War was like to break out in Italy, which made his Return very neceſſary. SYLLA then march'd againſt Fimbria, demanding him to give up his uſurped Command; which he refuſing, Sylla prepar'd to attack him: and Fimbria finding his Soldiers to deſert him, fled to Pergamus, where he ſtab'd himſelf dead. While Antiochus DIONYSIUS was warring againſt ARETAS King of Arabia Petræa, his Brother PHILIP ſeiz'd Damaſcus, by the Help of Mileſius the Captain of the Caſtle; but not rewarding him, Mileſius ſhut the Gates upon Philip, when abroad for his Diverſion, and reſtor'd it to DIONYSIUS, who made another Expedition againſt ARETAS, marching through Judea into Arabia, where he was ſlain, and all his Men cut off. Upon which 5. ARETAS was choſen King by the People of Damaſcus, in Oppoſition to Ptolemy, the Son of Mennæus Prince of Chalcis, who ſet up for it. ARETAS overcame Jannaeus in a Battel near Addida, but forthwith made Peace with him. SYLLA having reſtor'd NICOMEDES and ARIOBARZANES, and ſettled Aſia, and ſeverely fined the rebel Cities, return'd to Italy, and brought with him ALEXANDER the Son of Alexander late King of Egypt: but Rutilius Rufus would not return. And ſo leaving Murena and Lucullus in Aſia, SYLLA ſail'd from Epheſus, and when he came to Athens ſeiz'd the Library of Apellico, where were the Works of Ariſtotle, and brought them to Rome.	32	21	451	374	4629	85		4	663	664	18	239	228	8	3
JANNÆUS march'd over the Jordan, and reduced many Places that had revolted from him. —————— MITHRIDATES return'd to his ancient Kingdom, and reduced many little Nations that had revolted, beginning with the Colchians, who, to prevent War, deſir'd his Son Mithridates to be their King: this made the Father jealous, and cut off the Son. And Archelaus being afraid, fled to Murena, and excited him to renew the War againſt MITHRIDATES, call'd the ſecond Mithridatic War.	33	22	452	375	4630	84	3920	CLXXIV.1	664	665	19	240	229	9	1
The Syrians quite tired with the Race of SELEUCUS, depoſed them all at once from the Throne, and choſe 21. TIGRANES King of Armenia, who came and took Poſſeſſion of the Syrian Kingdom. Upon which Euſebes retir'd to Mount Taurus, where he lived obſcure till he died: but SELENE his Queen retain'd Ptolemais and ſome Parts of Phenicia and Coele Syria, where ſhe reign'd many Years, and royally educated her two Sons, Antiochus Aſiaticus and Seleucus Cybioſactes, Sons of Euſebes. cut off by TIGRANES: and ARETAS ſeems to have return'd to Petræa, not being able to maintain Damaſcus againſt Tigranes; for we read of him afterwards only there. TIGRANES is ſaid to have reign'd King of Syria 18 Years, till POMPEY made it a Roman Province, tho' he only reign'd 14 Years, as will appear by the Sequel. MITHRIDATES ſent Ambaſſadors to SYLLA and the Senate, complaining of Murena, and both endeavour'd in vain to get the Heracleenſians to join them; for They would be neuter. Murena croſs'd the Halys, and over-ran 400 Towns of Mithridates, who would not ſtir till his Legates return'd from Rome: and ſo Murena return'd to Phrygia and Galatia loaded with Spoils: but he ſoon return'd to the War, and in a great Battel was totally routed by MITHRIDATES, and forced to flee back to Phrygia: upon which all Cappadocia revolted to Mithridates. ALEXANDER Jannaeus in his late Expedition, having inlarg'd his Conqueſts beyond the Jordan, became this Year Maſter of the Valley of Antiochus, and the ſtrong Fort of Gamala; and carried the Prince of it, one Demetrius, Priſoner with him to Jeruſalem, where JANNÆUS was received with great Joy, after he had been abſent three Years. And now enjoying full Peace, Jannaeus gave himſelf up to Luxury and Drunkenneſs that gave him a Quartan Ague. SYLLA created Dictator, made at Rome a glorious Triumph over Mithridates, and ſent Gabinius into Aſia, to cauſe Murena to ceaſe from War. And ſo ended the ſecond Mithridatic War: but the Romans did not ſign the Articles till he reſign'd Cappadocia to Ariobarzanes. SYLLA having recall'd Murena from Aſia, ſent thither M. Thermus.	35	24	454	377	4632	82	3922	3	666	667	21	242	231	2
Ptolemy LATHYRUS took Thebes in upper Egypt, after a Siege of three Years, and quite ruin'd that famous Place: but upon his Return to Alexandria he died, having reign'd ten Years with his Mother in Egypt, eighteen in Cyprus, and eight alone in Egypt, after his Mother's Death, and was ſucceeded by 12. CLEOPATRA his Daughter, and only legitimate Child, who reign'd about ſix Months: Her proper Name was Berenice; but all the royal Females of Egypt were call'd Cleopatra, as all the Males were call'd Ptolemy. MITHRIDATES now ſubdued the Cimmerian Boſphorus, and made his Son MACHARES King of it: while Murena triumph'd at Rome for his Victories in Aſia; and C. JULIUS Caeſar now bore Arms under Thermus in Aſia, who gave him a Crown of Oak at the ſacking of Mitylene. SYLLA now ſent ALEXANDER into Egypt, the Son of Ptolemy Alexander the Matricide, to claim the Crown as the male Heir of Phyſcon; and the Alexandrians, willing to pleaſe All, adviſ'd ALEXANDER to marry their Queen CLEOPATRA; which he did, but in 19 Days he murder'd her: and ſo	36	25	455	378	4633	81	3923	4	667	668	22	243	232	3

Alexander JANNÆUS, tho' labouring ſtill under his Quartan Ague, march'd an Army over the Jordan againſt Ragaba, a Caſtle of the Geraſens, where he died, leaving two Sons, Hyrcanus and Ariſtobulus, but leaving the Government in the Hands of his Queen 7. ALEXANDRA; who, by her dying Huſband's Advice, reconcil'd the Phariſees to herſelf, and thereby reign'd in Peace, called by ſome Salina.	2	27	457	380	4635	79	3925	2	669	670	24	245	234	5
She took in Ragaba, and returning to Jeruſalem, ſhe made her eldeſt Son Hyrcanus the High Prieſt, he being then about 33 Years old; but ſhe put all the civil Adminiſtration into the Hands of the Phariſees, who got her to revoke the Decree of John Hyrcanus, againſt their Traditions which were now reſtor'd and propagated. SYLLA the Dictator now died, when Cicero ſail'd from Athens into Aſia in queſt of Rhetoric, and JULIUS Caeſar leaving Cilicia, haſten'd to Rome. MITHRIDATES, upon Sylla's Death, excited his Son in Law TIGRANES King of Syria and Armenia to invade Cappadocia, whence he carried 300000 People to inhabit his new City Tigranocerta in Armenia, between Iberia and Zeugma at the Euphrates; beſides the many thouſands he brought thither from all Parts.	3	1	458	381	4636	78	3926	3	670	671	25	246	235	6
ALEXANDRA to prevent another civil War, was oblig'd to allow the Phariſees grievouſly to oppreſs all that were not of their Sect. Continuation of TABLE XXXII.

PTOLEMY Alexander II. King of Egypt.
TIGRANES King of Syria and Armenia.
ALEXANDRA Princeſs of Judea.

NICOMEDES King of Bithynia dying, left the Romans his Heirs, who made it a Roman Province; and APION twenty Years ago having left them his Kingdom of Cyrene and Lybia, They now made that a Roman Province too.

Upon which MITHRIDATES made great Preparations to renew the War with the Romans, and ſo the Third Mithridatic War began, that laſted near 12 Years: for MITHRIDATES now ſeiz'd Bithynia and Paphlagonia; and moſt of the Roman Provinces in Aſia revolted to him, in order to be deliver'd from the exorbitant Exactions of the Roman Publicans and Uſurers.

JULIUS Caeſar now aged about 25 Years, left his Studies at Rhodes and came into Aſia, where he began firſt to ſignalize himſelf in keeping the Cities firm to the Roman Intereſt.

Lucius LUCULLUS and Marcus COTTA the Conſuls, were ſent from Rome to manage this War. Cotta arriving firſt, being more ambitious than ſkilful in War, attack'd MITHRIDATES, but was overcome with great Loſs at Chalcedon, and the Roman Fleet was deſtroy'd: then MITHRIDATES laid Siege to Cyzicus (a ſtrong City on the Propontis, and the Key of Aſia) with 300000 Men, in ten Camps by Land, and 400 Ships by Sea: but

LUCULLUS ſoon marching his Army, incamp'd by him, and without a Battel, by obſtructing his Supplies, and by falling on his Foragers and Detachments, MITHRIDATES was ſo diſtreſs'd that he was forced to raiſe the Siege, after he had loſt the greateſt
Part of his Army.

SELENE Queen of Ptolemais, ſent her two Sons Antiochus and Seleucus to Rome, to ſollicit her being made Queen of Egypt as Siſter to Lathyrus; but after two Years They were poorly ſent back to her, for the Senate receiving vaſt Sums from Alexander, confirm'd him in the Poſſeſſion.

In this XXVIII Year of JUBILEE Herod the Great was born; for he was 25 Years old, when he was firſt made Governor of Galilee before Chriſt 47, his Father was Antipas a noble Idumæan, and his Mother Grypus a noble Arabian. Antipas called himſelf Antipater, and his Father Antipas had been Governor of Idumæa under Alexander Jannaeus, and by Religion a Jew, as all the Idumæans now were.

Mean while MITHRIDATES having fled to Nicomedia, and from thence by Sea into Pontus, LUCULLUS fell upon the Remains of his Fleet, and 10000 of his beſt Men cut them off at Tenedos and Lemnus, where he took three of his Generals, viz. 1. Marcus Marius a Roman Senator, (who had been ſent by Sertorius from Spain to the Aſſiſtance of Mithridates) whom LUCULLUS did forthwith put to Death. 2. Alexander of Paphlagonia, whom Lucullus reſerv'd for his Triumph; and 3. Dionyſius a Eunuch, who poiſon'd himſelf.

LUCULLUS having cleared the Sea Coaſts, next reduced Bithynia and Paphlagonia, and then march'd into Pontus, where he found MITHRIDATES had loſt moſt of his Fleet and Army, by Tempeſts in the Euxin, and was now raiſing new Forces, and had ſent for Aſſiſtance to Tigranes, Arſaces, the Scythians, and other Nations; but to no good Purpoſe.

MITHRIDATES raiſing another Army at home, took the Field; and LUCULLUS leaving Murena to carry on the Sieges of Amiſus and Eupatoria, march'd with the reſt of the Army to give him Battel. LUCULLUS was beat in the two firſt Conflicts, but in the Third He gave MITHRIDATES a total Rout, who fled in Haſte with 2000 Horſe into Armenia, to pray the Protection and Aſſiſtance of TIGRANES, who, tho' his Son in Law, would not vouchſafe to ſpeak to him for 20 Months. And ſo all Pontus yielded to the Romans. MITHRIDATES in his Flight ſent Bacchides the Eunuch to Pharnacia, where his virgin Siſters Roxana and Statira, his Wives BERENICE and MONIMA, and his Concubines reſided, and order'd him to ſlay them out of Hand. They readily poiſon'd themſelves, or offer'd their innocent, lovely Throats to be ſtrangled: but his Siſter Nyſſa was taken and ſaved by LUCULLUS:
while Cotta beſieged Heraclea, and made Friendſhip with the neighbouring Nations.

But Marcus Antonius the Prætor (the Father of the Triumvir) making a Deſcent upon Crete for their aſſiſting Mithridates, was miſerably beat at Sea, and died of Grief.

Ptolemy the Son of Mennæus Prince of Chalcis, at the Foot of Mount Libanus, being a troubleſome Neighbour, ALEXANDRA Queen of Judea ſent her younger Son Ariſtobulus with an Army to ſuppreſs him, and ſeize Damaſcus; the laſt he did, but not the firſt, being more intent upon making a Party for himſelf in the Army, in order to mount the Throne upon her Death.

Queen SELENE, upon the Return of her Sons from Rome without Succeſs, endeavour'd to ſeduce the Cities of Syria, and to regain the Syrian Empire: but King TIGRANES prevented it by marching 500000 Men, and beſieging her in Ptolemais, where he took her Priſoner, and at Seleucia in Meſopotamia, in his Way home to Armenia, he cauſed her to be put to Death. She had been the Wife of three Kings, firſt of her Brother LATHYRUS, next of GRYPUS, and then of EUSEBES.

While TIGRANES was at Ptolemais, ALEXANDRA ſent Preſents to him, as juſtly afraid of him; for if the Progreſs of the Roman Army had not called him back, he had been Maſter of all Paleſtine.

LUCULLUS having taken Amiſus and Eupatoria, return'd to the Province of Aſia, which he clear'd of the Oppreſſions of PTOLEMY Alexander II. King of Egypt.

TIGRANES and ANTIOCHUS Asiaticus King of Syria.
ARISTOBULUS II. Prince of Judea.

Publicans and Uſurers; for which and other good Offices They inſtituted the Lucullian Games, annually celebrated for ſeveral Years after.

When TIGRANES return'd from Ptolemais to Antioch, LUCULLUS ſent Clodius his Wife's Brother with a Letter to him, demanding Mithridates to be deliver'd to him, or that War ſhould be declar'd againſt him. Tigranes was highly offended at the Freedom of Clodius's Speech, and at Lucullus's directing only to King Tigranes without ſtiling him the King of Kings, (a Title he much affected; becauſe he kept ſome petty Kings, he had captivated, as his Servants and Lackeys) therefore He refuſed to deliver Mithridates, and wrote only to Lucullus, without ſtiling him the Imperator of the Army; and ſo Clodius declar'd War. Upon which LUCULLUS having ſetled Pontus, and left Sornatius with 6000 Men there, He march'd with only 12000 Foot and 3000 Horſe thro' Cappadocia to the Euphrates, which he croſs'd in the midſt of Winter, and continued his March to the Tigris, which having croſs'd, He march'd directly to Tigranocerta a little further, and came to the Doors of TIGRANES (lately return'd from Syria) before the Tyrant heard of his March; for none durſt tell him, having ſlain one for that Boldneſs before, and had ſlain Zarbienus King of the Gordienians, with his Wife and Children, for being ſuſpected to correſpond with Lucullus.

A little before the March of Lucullus, ALEXANDRA Queen of Judea died, aged 73. SALOME the Widow of Ariſtobulus, the elder Brother of Jannæus being alſo call'd Alexandra, ſome have thought thoſe two the one and the ſame Perſon, as if ſhe had been firſt the Widow of Ariſtobulus, and then the Wife of Jannæus; but Hyrcanus, the eldeſt Son of Jannæus, being born by her about five Years before the Death of Ariſtobulus, proves the contrary. When ſhe died the Phariſees ſet up their Friend

8. HYRCANUS II. the eldeſt Son of Jannæus to be King and High Prieſt: but Ariſtobulus his Brother got his Father's Friends together, and the beſt military Men, the Enemies of the Phariſees; and at their Head, He beat Hyrcanus out of the Field near Jericho, and forced him to reſign thoſe Offices, and to be ſatisfy'd with the Station of a private Gentleman, after he had reign'd only three Months: and ſo

9. ARISTOBULUS II. was King of Judea, and High Prieſt of Jeruſalem for ſix Years, till depoſed by Pompey. ————

TIGRANES had, upon his Return, admitted MITHRIDATES to a Conference; the Reſult of which was, that Mithridates with 10000 Horſe was ſent into Pontus to raiſe a new Army for the Aſſiſtance of Tigranes againſt Lucullus: but the Roman Eagles being at the Gate unexpected, Tigranes left Tigranocerta, and rendevouz'd his Forces at Mount Taurus 360000 Men, and marching to the Relief of Tigranocerta, LUCULLUS left a few Men with Murena at the Siege, and with the reſt about 11000 met TIGRANES, and gave them a total Rout, tho' twenty Times more numerous: nay the Romans never fought at ſuch Diſadvantage, nor ever obtain'd a more glorious Victory.

TIGRANES narrowly eſcaped, and in his Flight met MITHRIDATES coming to his Relief, to whom Tigranes left the ordering of the War, who wrote to the Parthians and others for Aſſiſtance; and Tigranes called his Lieutenant Megadates out of Syria with all his Forces to ſtrengthen him at this Pinch: upon which Evacuation

22. ANTIOCHUS Aſiaticus the eldeſt Son of Antiochus Euſebes by Queen Selene, the next Heir of the Seleucidæ, took Poſſeſſion of ſome Parts of the Syrian Kingdom, where he reign'd four Years in Peace.

Mean while LUCULLUS return'd to the Siege of Tigranocerta, and took it, where he found 8000 Talents of coin'd Money; ſent all the preſs'd Inhabitants gladly home to their own ſeveral native Countries, and reduced that monſtrous City to a Village. But had LUCULLUS rather purſu'd Tigranes, he might either have catch'd him, or prevented his recruiting, and at once finiſh'd the War, as the Romans thought at Rome; for which They reſolv'd to recall him, but not yet.

Sinatrockes King of Parthia being dead, was ſucceeded by his Son

12. Arſaces PHRAHATES III. who reign'd nine Years. ————

Mithridates and Tigranes ſent to Phrahates for Aſſiſtance, as did alſo Lucullus: but he promis'd fair to both, and help'd neither.

But by recalling Megadates his Lieutenant, with the Army out of Syria, and by other Means, TIGRANES and MITHRIDATES got an Army of 70000 choice Men, exerciſed in the Roman Way, and took the Field, reſolving to incamp well, and wear out Lucullus without a Battel: but LUCULLUS perceiving their Deſign, march'd ſtraight to beſiege Artaxata, the old Metropolis of Armenia, where Tigranes's Wives, Children and Treaſure were. This made Tigranes decamp, and gaining four Days March, poſted himſelf on the River Arſamia to hinder the Paſſage of Lucullus, where It came to a Battel; Mithridates, terrified at the Sight of the Roman Legions, baſely fled out of the Field, and let LUCULLUS obtain another glorious Victory. Lucullus would have march'd to take Artaxata, which would have finiſh'd the War; but the Winter coming on, his Soldiers would not follow him ſo far North: therefore he march'd Southward over Mount Taurus into Meſopotamia, and took from the Parthians the ſtrong City Niſibis, where he winter'd, and where Clodius his Wife's Brother, began to foment a Mutiny in his Army againſt him.

Yet Lucullus, with Difficulty, prevail'd with his mutinous Army to march into Pontus againſt Mithridates; but too late: for MITHRIDATES had vanquiſh'd Fabius, and obtain'd a glorious Victory over Triarius. But the Romans would not fight any more under Lucullus, who was forced to keep in Camp while MITHRIDATES recover'd Pontus, and TIGRANES ranged at large in Cappadocia, but next Year

POMPEY came with a new Commiſſion, to whom Lucullus deliver'd the Army, and return'd to Rome, leaving Pompey to reap the Laurels of his Victories. LUCULLUS brought to Rome a great Number of Books, of which he made a fine Library for the Uſe of the Learned. JULIUS CÆSAR now Quæſtor in Spain, aged 34 Years, groan'd at the Sight of Alexander the Great's Statue in the Temple of Hercules at Gades; for that he was ſo old and had done nothing like Alexander.

Pompey firſt drew PHRAHATES into a Confederacy with him, and offer'd Peace to Mithridates, whoſe Men would not permit him to accept of it, and who diſtreſs'd Pompey by Delays, forcing him for want of Proviſions to march into leſſer Armenia, and purſu'd him thither; till POMPEY, by a Night's March, turn'd and ſurpriz'd Mithridates with a ſudden Attack, ſlew moſt of his Army, and made him flee Northward for Safety: then POMPEY having order'd in the Place of Battel, a City to be built called Nicopolis, or the City of Victory, he march'd ſtraight againſt TIGRANES in the greater Armenia, who was then at War with Tigranes his own Son, by Cleopatra the Daughter of Mithridates: for this Son, after the Father had cut off his two elder Brothers for ſlight Cauſes, fled to Parthia, married a Daughter of PHRAHATES, and now return'd with an Army to beſiege Artaxata; but being routed by the Father, and hearing of Mithridates's Defeat, the Son caſt himſelf into Pompey's Hands, who receiv'd him kindly, and by his Guidance, Pompey march'd ſtraight to Artaxata. But old Tigranes not being able to withſtand him, came to the Roman Camp, took off his Crown, and fell proſtrate at POMPEY's Feet, who raiſed him, put on his Crown, and ſet him on his right Hand, and his Son on his left Hand; and having order'd the Father to pay 6000 Talents for the Charge of the War, and to reſign all his Conqueſts on this Side the Euphrates, POMPEY reſtor'd him to his ancient Kingdom, and decreed the Son to reign in two Provinces of it till the Father's Death; which the old King thankfully accepted of: but the Son refuſing, and being detected of tampering with the Armenian Nobility and the Parthians, to renew the War, POMPEY made him Priſoner, and reſerv'd him for his Triumph.

Thus ended the Syrian Kingdom conquer'd by the Romans, and reſign'd by TIGRANES, after it had ſtood 247 Years, according to the Era of Contracts or of Seleucus. What came of Antiochus Aſiaticus and his Brother, the laſt of the Seleucidæ, is mention'd in the following Tables.

1. Antiochus Cyzicenus the Son of Sidetes by Cleopatra, began to reign in the 10th Year of Grypus, married 1. Cleopatra another divorced Wife of Lathyrus King of Egypt. 2. Cleopatra her Siſter, by whom he left a Son Antiochus Euſebes or Pious. Cyzicenus was defeated in Battel, and cut off by Seleucus the Son of Grypus, in the 3d Year of Seleucus's Reign, in the 18th Year of Cyzicenus.	—	—	—	—	—	——	3890	114	199	21	3910
Antiochus Grypus was murder'd by the Treachery of Heracleon his Servant, and left five Sons, 1. Seleucus. 2. Antiochus. 3. Philip. 4. Demetrius Euchærus. 5. Antiochus Dionyſius.
20. Seleucus the Son of Grypus defeated Cyzicenus, took him Priſoner, and cut him off in the 3d Year of his Reign, was burnt in his Houſe without Iſſue.	3908	96	217	04	3911
2. Antiochus Euſebes the Son of Cyzicenus, vanquiſh'd Seleucus in Battel, and forced him to flee to Mopſueſtia, where he was burnt in his Houſe by the inraged People. Eusebes married Selene the Widow of Grypus, but was vanquiſh'd by Philip the Son of Grypus, and forced to flee into Parthia for Safety, where he ſtaid ſome Years.	—	—	—	—	—	——	3911	93	220	02
21. Philip the Son of Grypus was now King of Syria, but left no Iſſue.	3912	92	221	09	3920
3. Demetrius Eucharus the Son of Grypus, by the Help of Lathyrus then King of Cyprus, and by the Conſent of his Brother Philip, became King of Damaſcus: was vanquiſh'd and ſent Priſoner into Parthia, where he ſoon died.	—	—	—	—	—	——	3913	91	222	04	3916
4. Antiochus Dionyſius the youngeſt Son of Grypus, became King of Damaſcus, was ſlain in Arabia. But tho' Eusebes had return'd from Parthia, and had ſeiz'd ſome Parts of Syria, yet the People choſe	—	—	—	—	—	——	3917	87	226	03	3919

23. Selene the Queen of Eusebes reign'd at Ptolemais, where ſhe gave her two Sons by him a Royal Education, viz. Antiochus Aſiaticus, and Seleucus Cybioſactes, during the firſt 14 Years of Tigranes: but at laſt Tigranes came and conquer'd her, and put her to Death. But He never more return'd into Syria, having Buſineſs enough in the Eaſt and North with the Romans. Therefore
24. Antiochus Aſiaticus the Son of Eusebes took Poſſeſſion of ſome Parts of Syria, during the four laſt Years aſſign'd to Tigranes: but was depoſed by Pompey, who reduced all Syria to be a Roman Province, as conquer'd from Tigranes, without any Regard to the Race of the Seleucidæ that now became extinct, or dwindled into a private Family. Yet ſtill the Macedonian or Grecian Monarchy exiſted in the Kingdom of Egypt.						Tigranes was depoſed, and Aſiaticus laid aſide by Pompey——	3938	66	247	when Syria became a Roman Province, in the 4th Year of Arsaces Phrahates III. King of Parthia.

IT was called firſt Cronia, then Theſſalis, and afterwards Mariandine, ſays Pliny, Lib. V. Cap. 32. But Appian in Mithrid. ſays, that the Greeks thought the Thracians who fought at Troy under Rheſus, after he was loſt, retired to the Mouth of the Pontus, not far from Thrace, and wanting Ships, remained there, calling the Country Bebricia: that a Colony of them afterwards paſſed over to the Country above Byzantium, near the River Bithya, and afterwards by a Famine, were forced to return to Bebricia, and changed its Name to Bithynia, ſo called from the ſaid River Bithya: that others affirmed Bithis or Bithynus, the Son of Jove and Thrace, firſt reign'd here, from whom the Country had its Name. But Strabo Lib. XII. ſays, that the firſt Inhabitants were Myſians and called Bithynians, from a Colony of the Thracians called Thynians, who travelled thither: for Claud. 2. in Eutrop. ſings, Thyni Thraces erant, quæ nunc Bithynia fertur.
1. DOEDALSUS ſo called by Strabo, and called by Memnon DYDALSUS, is reckoned the firſt King of Bithynia, in the 22d Year of Artaxerxes Mnemon King of Perſia, began But according to the Varronian Account of the Founding of Rome, Anno Urbis Conditæ 371. There is nothing more ſaid of him, but that the Athenians gave him the City Aſtacus, which he beautified, but by ſome is ſuppoſed to have reigned five Years, his Wife *N. 3. BIAS, He defeated Caranus (called by Memnon Calantus) one of ALEXANDER's Generals, after the Battel of Granicus, and then kept the Macedonians from invading Bithynia, in the 44th Year of his Reign, viz. And died in Peace, aged 76 Years, his Wife N. N.	3676	—	328	421	—	47	—	3722
4. ZIPOETES called by Diodorus ZIBYTES, began to reign in the ſecond Year of ALEXANDER the Great, after the Death of DARIUS, had various Conflicts with Lyſimachus and Seleucus, two of Alexander's Succeſſors; maintained his Ground againſt all his Enemies, reigned glorious, and died in Peace, aged 76 Years, his Wife N. N. who bore to him four Sons, Nicomedes, Zipoetes, and two more. Hereby may be corrected what is ſaid of the King of Bithynia, Page 148.	3723	—	281	468	—	36	—	3758
5. NICOMEDES I. began in the 4th Year of Ptolemy Philadelphus King of Egypt, and 32d Year of Seleucus Nicator King of Syria, He aſſiſted Antigonus Gonatas in taking Poſſeſſion of Macedon. He ſlew two of his Brothers, but his Brother Zipoetes took Poſſeſſion of the Thracian Thynia, and being alſo threatned by Antiochus Soter King of Syria, in Revenge for the Loſs of his Army lately in Bithynia, NICOMEDES invited the Gauls from Bizantium (whither They had retired after the Defeat of their General Brennus) to come to his Aſſiſtance, who were afterwards called Galatians, and by their Help he overcame Zipoetes, and confirmed his Kingdom, viz. He married firſt Ditizeles a noble Phrygian, who bore to him his Son and Succeſſor Zelas. When ſhe died, He married Etazeta, who bore to him a Son Zibates, and ſeveral other Children. She got her Son in Law Zelas baniſhed the Court, who fled to the Court of Armenia, while NICOMEDES declared his Children by Etazeta his Heirs, leaving Ptolemy Euergetes King of Egypt, and Antigonus Gonatas King of Macedon, their Curators or Truſtees; and died in Peace. He built the famous City Nicomedia.	3726	—	278	471	—		—

6. ZELAS or Zeilas, upon his Father's Death returned from Armenia with an Army to Bithynia, where he found Etazeta his Mother in Law was married to his Father's Brother Zipoetes, who in Defence of her Children got the Command of the Army from the Curators, and kept ZELAS from the Throne about three Years; till Eumenes King of Pergamus died, the grand Adverſary of ZELAS, in the 4th Year of Olymp. 134. when ZELAS got peaceable Poſſeſſion, and his Brother Zibates fled into Macedonia. But in the Flower of his Age he was inſnared, and ſlain by the Gauls his Neighbours; his Wife N. N.	3775	—	229	520	—	43	—	3817
7. PRUSIAS I. aged about 13 Years at his Father's Death, began to reign in the 16th Year of Ptolemy Euergetes King of Egypt. He beat the Gauls in many Battels, and fully revenged his Father's Murder upon them, and delivered all the Neighbourhood of the Helleſpont from the Terror of them. He alſo brought the Byzantians and Rhodians to Terms, upon the Death of his Uncle Zibetes, in his Expedition from Macedonia againſt him. He join'd Philip King of Macedon, againſt the Etolians, who were ſupported by Attalus King of Pergamus and the Romans; till by his Mediation, Philip gave Peace to the Etolians Anno of Rome 544. and then by Philip's Help he defeated the Chians, and deſtroyed their City Cius, and reſtored it with the Name of Pruſiades. He was wounded at the Siege of Heraclea, from whence he was called Claudus, or the Halting. He declined the Confederacy of Antiochus Magnus King of Syria, for that of the Romans, being influenced by the Letters of the two Scipios; and died in Peace the ſame Year that Antiochus Magnus died; his Wife Apama Daughter of Philip King of Macedonia. Vaillant ſays, He reign'd 40 Years, but by his own Chronology he reign'd 43 Years.	3818	—	186	563	—	37	—	3854
8. PRUSIAS II. called Venator, or the Hunter, began to reign in the firſt Year of Seleucus Philopator King of Syria, and 19th Year of Ptolemy Epiphanes King of Egypt. Hannibal not reſiding ſafely in Crete, retired to PRUSIAS, whom he excited to make War upon Eumenes King of Pergamus, who beat PRUSIAS out of the Field; but by the Cunning of Hannibal, PRUSIAS beat Eumenes out of the Sea. Eumenes having ſent his Brother Athenæus to Rome his			See the Continuation.

	Hannibal was buried at Libyſſa near his Houſe, according to an Oracle which he always miſunderſtood of Lybiſſa in Africa. Prusias interceded with the Romans for giving Peace to Perſeus King of Macedon, but in vain; and after Perſeus was overthrown, Prusias went with great Magnificence to Rome, and congratulated the Romans upon their Conqueſt of Perſeus and of Gentius King of the Illyrians, where he was royally entertained 30 Days, and he left his Son Nicomedes to be there educated: but They deſpiſed the King for his abject Spirit, humbling himſelf to the Senate below the Dignity of a Prince. When he return'd, He made War upon Attalus King of Pergamus, who was ſupported by the Romans, and They at laſt reconciled theſe two Kings. He ſent Menas to Rome to murder his Son Nicomedes; but Menas with 2000 Bithynians join'd Nicomedes in Italy, and ſailed to Attalus, who gladly received the young Prince, and demanded for him ſome Part of the Kingdom at preſent. But Prusias having reply'd, he would ſhortly give his Son the Kingdom of Pergamus, Attalus and Nicomedes invaded Bithynia, to whom the People flock'd, till Prusias had none he could truſt but 500 Thracians, with whom he ſhut himſelf up in the Caſtle of Nicea, till he ſent to Rome; and the Romans trifling in their Mediation, he went to Nicomedia, where the Inhabitants betray'd him into the Hands of Nicomedes, who, with Attalus, ordered Prusias to be ſlain, while ſheltering himſelf at Jove's Altar. His Wife 1. Apame, the other Daughter of Philip King of Macedonia, and Siſter of King Perſeus, who bore to him his Son Nicomedes. 2. *N. 9. NICOMEDES II.	Epiphanes began to reign in the 33^d Year of Ptolemy Philometor King of Egypt, and 3^d Year of Alexander Balas King of Syria, made no great Wars, only contended with Mithridates the Great, King of Pontus, about the Kingdom of Cappadocia, which the Romans preſerved from them both. At laſt he was murder'd by his Son Socrates Chreſtus, who fled to Mithridates. His Wife 1. Laodice, the Siſter of Mithridates, and Widow of Ariarathes King of Cappadocia. 2. Nuſa famous for Dancing, who bore to him his Son Nicomedes; ſhe is called alſo Conſinge.	3855	—	149	600	—	57	—	3911

	But the Romans had not quiet Poſſeſſion of this Province, till Pompey reduced Tigranes King of Armenia and Syria, and made all the Syrian Empire a Roman Province. When the Kingdom of Pontus and that of Bithynia was made one Province. ————	3938	—	66	683

TABLE XXXV.

The Chronology of the Kings of Egypt and Judea, and of the Roman Republick, with their Contemporaries. From the laſt Year of Ptolemy Alexander II. King of Egypt, or the firſt Year of Pompey in Aſia, to the Battel of Pharſalia, containing 18 Years.

Pompey the Roman General in Aſia.
Ptolemy Auletes King of Egypt. Arſaces Phrahates III. King of Parthia.
Aristobulus II. King of Judea.

Pompey having in his March againſt Mithridates laſt Year, conquer'd the Albanians between the Caſpian and the Euxin, (where he winter'd) early this Year ſubdued the Iberians their Neighbours, (who had never been conquer'd before) and the Colchians, whoſe King Olthaces he reſerved for his Triumph. But Mithridates marching Northward round the Euxin, got into the Cimmerian Boſphorus, (now Crim Tartary) where he had placed his Son Machares as King, who ſlew himſelf for fear of falling into his Father's Hands; becauſe he was at Peace with the Romans. Pompey not being able to follow him, marched Southward, ſubdued Darius King of Media, and Antiochus King of Commagena; and having by Scaurus reduced Cœle Syria, and by Gabinius all the Country towards the Tigris, He return'd to Damaſcus, dethroned poor Antiochus Aſiaticus, and made all the Syrian Empire a Roman Province. Mean while

The Alexandrians having rebelled againſt Alexander their King, expelled him, and choſe

13. Ptolemy Auletes or the Piper, the Baſtard Son of Lathyrus, called Dionyſius Neos, or the New Bacchus, a weak effeminate Prince. Alexander went and appealed to Pompey, who not medling in it, as not in his Commiſſion, Alexander retired to Tyre, and there died. He is not mentioned by Ptolemy the Aſtronomer among the Kings of Egypt; for in his Chronological Canon he begins the Reign of Auletes from the Death of Lathyrus, tho' from Cicero and Sueton it appears, that Alexander reign'd 15 Years from the Death of Lathyrus: but perhaps, as his Brother Ptolemy, another Baſtard Son of Lathyrus, was from his Father's Death poſſeſſed of Cyprus, ſo Auletes might be of ſome Parts of Egypt, till the Expulſion of Alexander.

Antipater the Father of Herod, the Idumean, excited Hyrcanus to renew the War againſt his Brother Aristobulus, got Aretas King of Petræa to join him with 50000 Men, who, with the Jews of Hyrcanus's Party, defeated Ariſtobulus, and beſieged him in the Mount of the Temple: but by Ariſtobulus's Promiſes to Scaurus and Gabinius, theſe Roman Generals forced Aretas to retire, whom Ariſtobulus purſued, and beat him at Papyrion with a great Slaughter, in which many of Hyrcanus's Party fell, particularly Cæphalion the Brother of Antipater.

While Pompey lay at Damaſcus he was attended by 12 Kings, beſides Ambaſſadors from all Parts, particularly from Phrahates III. King of Parthia, whom Pompey offended, by not calling him in his Letter the King of Kings, and by ſending Gabinius to ſeize the Country of the Gordyenians, that had formerly belonged to Tigranes. The Egyptians ſent him a Crown of Gold worth 4000 Pieces, and the Jews ſent him a Vine of Gold worth 400 Talents. From thence He marched into Pontus, and took in New Caſtle, where he found the Treaſure of Mithridates, and his private Memoirs, and his medicinal Commentaries; for he was an excellent Phyſician, and diſcovered the Medicine called Mithridate after him, even to this Day. And having ſettled all thoſe Countries, and ſtation'd the Roman Navy, ſo as to prevent Mithridates from getting Supplies of Proviſions, Pompey return'd to ſettle the new Province of Syria, with a View of extending his Conqueſts to the Red Sea, as he had before extended them to the Atlantic Ocean in Africa and Spain, and lately to the Caſpian Sea. He ſummon'd before him thoſe petty Kings that had ſet up themſelves upon the Declenſion of the Syrian Empire; ſome of whom he put to Death for their Cruelty, Others he deprived, and made the reſt Tributaries, particularly Ptolemy the Son of Mennæus, Prince of Chalcis, who preſented Pompey with 1000 Talents. At Damaſcus Antipater appear'd from Hyrcanus, and Nicodemus from Aristobulus, each praying Pompey's Patronage, who order'd the Two Royal Brothers to appear before him: but before They could come, Pompey left Syria, and marched again into Pontus to provide againſt the Deſigns of Mithridates; who having offer'd to hold his Kingdom as a Vaſſal or Tributary of the Romans, as Tigranes held his, was rejected, unleſs he would come to Pompey in Perſon as Tigranes had done; which Mithridates ſcorning to do, prepared for a vigorous War, and reſolved to march his Army thro' the Eaſt Parts of Europe, and then over the Alps into Italy to aſſault the Romans, like Hannibal, at their own Doors: but the Length and Dangers of that propoſed March frightned his military Men into a Revolt, and They made his Son Pharnaces their King, who would not let his Father eſcape elſewhere: therefore the old King afraid of his Son's making Peace with Pompey, by delivering him up, and mortally abhorring to be led in Triumph at Rome, poiſon'd and ſtabb'd himſelf, after he had lived 72 Years, and reign'd 60 Years, the wiſeſt, braveſt Prince that ever warred againſt the Romans; of great Learning, Reſolution, Activity, and of an unconquerable Spirit; but withal ambitious, cruel and luſtful, as Hiſtorians have characteriſed him. Thus ended the Third Mithridatic War.

Phrahates III. King of Parthia, now warred ſucceſsfully againſt Tigranes King of Armenia; nor did Pompey concern himſelf in it, being afraid to march thither: and ſo They two amicably agreed in Oppoſition to the Romans the common Enemy.

Aretas King of Arabia Petræa having invaded Syria, Pompey return'd to Damaſcus to oppoſe him, where Hyrcanus and Ariſtobulus appear'd before him, to make good their ſeveral Pretenſions; and Pompey promiſed to come to Jeruſalem, there to decide the Controverſy: but Ariſtobulus ſuſpecting Sentence would go againſt him, return'd in an Huff, and prepar'd for War. Then Pompey marched againſt Aretas, who ſubmitting upon Terms, Pompey return'd from Petræa thro' Judea, forced Ariſtobulus to deliver up his Caſtles, who fled to Jeruſalem.

Continuation of TABLE XXXV.

Pompey the Roman General in Aſia.
Ptolemy Auletes King of Egypt. Phrahates III. and Mithridates III. Kings of Parthia.
Hyrcanus II. King of Judea.

Jeruſalem, and again prepared for War, and Pompey marched after him, pitching his Camp at Jericho, where Meſſengers brought him the News of the Death of Mithridates, and that Pharnaces his Son ſubmitted himſelf and his Country to the Roman Common-wealth.

Then Pompey marched towards Jeruſalem, when Ariſtobulus came forth and ſurrender'd himſelf, promiſing a Sum of Money; but when Gabinius went with a Detachment to receive it, he found the Gates ſhut, and the People from the Walls declared They would not ſtand to the Agreement: whereon Pompey clapt Ariſtobulus in Chains, and marched to Jeruſalem, was let in by the Party of Hyrcanus, while the Party of Ariſtobulus retired to the Fort called the Mount of the Temple, where They were beſieged three Months; but It was taken at laſt, and 12000 of them cut off; when Ariſtobulus was depoſed, and Hyrcanus II. was reſtored.

Dr. Prideaux ſays, That the Temple was taken in about our Midſummer, on the Day which the Jews kept as a ſolemn Faſt for the taking of Jeruſalem, and the Temple by Nebuchadnezzar. But Archbiſhop Uſher ſays, It was taken in the 3d civil Month Kiſleu, and 28th Day anſwering to our 20th Day of December, when the Faſt was kept for Jehoiakim's burning Jeremiah's Roll, and on the Jewiſh weekly Sabbath, on the ſame Day that Nebuchadnezzar firſt took in Jeruſalem and the Temple of Solomon, and put Jehoiakim in Chains, 543 Years ago, or in the 79th Year after the Jews were freed from the Yoke of the Gentiles: for that was Anno Seleuci 170. A. M. 3861. when Simon the Aſmonæan became a Sovereign; for no longer were the Jews an independent People. See Page 167.

Pompey with ſeveral Romans went thro' all the Temple, even into the Holy of Holies, which the Jews grievouſly reſented. Tho' he took none of the 2000 Talents of Money repoſited there, and order'd the Temple to be cleanſed, and reſtored the divine Service as formerly: but he demoliſhed the Walls of Jeruſalem, made Hyrcanus a Tributary of Rome, but would not allow him to wear a Diadem, nor extend his Borders beyond Old Judea, adding all the reſt to the New Province of Syria, of which he made Scaurus the Preſident.

The People of Philadelphia (the old Rabbah of the Ammonites) now began their Epocha. And this Year Catilin's Conſpiracy broke out at Rome, as related by Saluſt.

This Year Octavius Auguſtus Cæſar was born (to his Father Octavius by his Mother Julia, the Siſter of Julius Cæsar) on the 9th before the Kalends of October, Cicero and Antonius being Conſuls. And Lucullus made his Triumph at laſt with univerſal Applauſe.

Pompey leaving Syria, came to Amiſus in Pontus; whither Pharnaces ſent to him the Body of his Father Mithridates with many Gifts; and Pompey generouſly order'd the Body to be buried at Sinope, in the Royal Sepulchre with great Solemnity: and having granted to Pharnaces the Kingdom of Boſphorus, and declared him an Ally of Rome, he carried off immenſe Treaſures from Pontus, and marched to Epheſus where he wintered. Mean while Scaurus was ingaged in War with Aretas, and had been ſtarved in Arabia, but for the Aſſiſtance of Hyrcanus; which made Scaurus, by the Mediation of Antipater, give good Terms of Peace to Aretas; and then Scaurus left that Province to his Succeſſor Marcius Philippus. And Pompey in the Spring ſetting ſail from Epheſus, arrived at Brunduſium, and came to Rome, where, upon the Recital of his mighty Conqueſts, the Senate decreed his Triumph, which he deferred till his Birth Day next Year, when aged 45 Years.

And now Pompey the Great had the greateſt Triumph that ever was before at Rome, for two Days together in great Pomp and Glory, leading in Triumph Ariſtobulus King of Judea, and his Son Antigonus, Olthaces King of Colchos, Tigranes the Son of Tigranes King of Armenia, with five Sons and two Daughters of Mithridates King of Pontus, and above 300 more of noble Captives, of whom he put none to Death, and ſent them all home, except Tigranes and Ariſtobulus.

Phrahates III. King of Parthia was murdered by his two Sons Mithridates and Orodes, and was ſucceeded by

13. Arſaces Mithridates III. his Son, who reign'd ſeven Years, at leaſt ſeven Years elapſed before his Death, and this Year he renewed the War in Armenia.

Diodorus Siculus the famous Greek Hiſtorian now flouriſhed; for he brought his Hiſtory to this Year, and lived afterwards to the Middle of the Reign of Auguſtus.

Ptolemy the eldeſt Son of Auletes King of Egypt was born; for he was but 13 Years old, when Pompey fled to him out of the Battel of Pharſalia; but his Siſter Cleopatra was older.

Lucullus, Cato, Metellus, and others, raiſed a great Party in the Senate againſt Pompey, who was forced to apply for Shelter to the Tribunes of the People, till Julius Cæsar came to Rome to obtain the Conſular Dignity, with whom Pompey and Crassus made a Triumvirate, confederated by Oath, and ingroſſed the whole Power of the Commonwealth, till by their Contentions and Wars the old Conſtitution was changed. Lentulus Marcellinus was ſent to ſucceed Marcius Philippus in the Government of Syria, and next Year

Julius Cæsar was made Conſul, who confirmed all the Acts of Pompey, made a Cypher of his Collegue Bibulus, raiſed vaſt Sums from foreign Princes and States, for admitting them into Alliance with Rome, and by a Decree of the People he obtained for his Province at the End of the Year, all Gallia and Illyricum, during five Years, with four Legions, which was the Beginning of his great Power, and where he begins his Commentaries.

Orodes the Brother of Mithridates King of Parthia, raiſed Sedition, but was beaten, and fled out of the Country.

Clodius having renounced his Nobility, or Patrician Order, and now become a Tribune of the People, obtained of them to decree to the Conſul Gabinius, the Province of Syria and the Country Eaſt of it, and to the other Conſul Piſo the Grecian Countries, and another Decree for ſeizing the Kingdom of Cyprus, and depoſing PTOLEMY its King, the Baſtard Son of Lathyrus and Brother of AULETES, who had reigned there from the Death of Lathyrus, tho' he was an Ally of Rome; but he had formerly neglected Clodius, and was become very rich: And ALEXANDER late King of Egypt and Cyprus, when he died at Tyre, having made the Romans his Heirs, Clodius made the People think it a ſufficient Ground of that unjuſt Decree; and he got them to ſend CATO the juſteſt Man in Rome to execute it, who being gone upon that Expedition, Clodius got them to baniſh CICERO from Rome and Italy, only becauſe, while Conſul, he had put to Death ſome of Catilin's Conſpirators, by Order of the Senate, without a Trial before the People; tho' truly becauſe CICERO had given his Evidence againſt Clodius in a late Trial. CATO ſent from Rhodes to PTOLEMY, adviſing him to reſign, promiſing him the High Prieſthood of VENUS at Paphos; but he rather choſe to poiſon himſelf, and left all his vaſt Treaſure to be ſeized by CATO, who brought it honeſtly to Rome next Year. Clodius alſo releaſed young TIGRANES, and ſent him off in Spite to POMPEY. MITHRIDATES King of Parthia was expelled for his Cruelty, and ORODES recalled. PTOLEMY Auletes refuſing to demand Cyprus, to be reſtored to the Crown of Egypt, the Alexandrians baniſhed him, and ſet upon his Throne his Daughter	8	6	478	401	4656	58	3946	3	45	266	690	691	3
14. Berenice, who married firſt SELEUCUS Cybioſactes the Brother of ANTIOCHUS Aſiaticus, the laſt Branch of the Seleucidae, and next a-Kin to the Crown of Egypt, by their Mother Selene; but being ſoon weary of him, ſhe put him to Death: and his Brother ANTIOCHUS Aſiaticus dying laſt Year, the whole Race of Seleucidae was extinct. Then ſhe married ARCHELAUS High Prieſt of Comana in Pontus, the Son of Archelaus that had deſerted from Mithridates to the Romans. But AULETES, contrary to CATO's Advice at Rhodes, went to Rome to ſollicit his Reſtoration, tho' without Succeſs; and then retired to the Temple of Diana at Epheſus Alexander the eldeſt Son of Ariſtobulus, having made his Eſcape from POMPEY in his Way to Rome, now raiſed 10000 Foot, and 1500 Horſe in Judea, and ſeized ſeveral ſtrong Places, upon which HYRCANUS ſent to Gabinius now in Syria, who, with Mark Antony his General of Horſe, (afterwards the famous Triumvir of Rome) came into Judea, beat Alexander out of the Field, and beſieged him in Alexandrium: but by the artful Mediation of his Mother, Alexander obtained his Pardon, delivering the Fort to Gabinius, who raſed it. Then Gabinius marched to Jeruſalem, reſtored HYRCANUS to the High Prieſthood, but reduced the civil Government to an Ariſtocracy, erecting five Courts or Sanhedrims, each with ſovereign independent Power, viz. at Jeruſalem, Jericho, Gadara, Amathus, and Sepphoris, which he made the Capitals of five petty Provinces: This he did to pleaſe the People, that ever ſince the Tyranny of Alexander Jannæus, had been weary of Monarchy. Towards the End of this Year ARISTOBULUS and his Son Antigonus eſcaped from Rome, raiſed an Army in Judea, and rebuilt Alexandrium; but Gabinius ſent Siſenna his Son with Antony and Servilius, who defeated ARISTOBULUS in the Field, took him and Antigonus in Machærus, and ſent them back to Rome. But Gabinius having wrote to the Senate, that he had promiſed to the Wife of Ariſtobulus the Releaſe of her Children, They were accordingly diſmiſſed, and Ariſtobulus only kept Priſoner at Rome. Mithridates the nominal King of Parthia, being beat out of Media by his Brother King ORODES, fled to Gabinius, and perſuaded him by the Proſpect of great Spoil, to invade Parthia: but	9. 1.	7	479	402	4657	57	3947	4	267	267	691	692	4
Gabinius on his March was overtaken by AULETES with Letters from POMPEY; and Auletes offering him 10000 Talents for his Reſtoration, Gabinius deſerted MITHRIDATES, and by Advice of Mark Antony marched from the Euphrates thro' Paleſtin ſtraight to Egypt. MITHRIDATES got ſome Arabians to aſſiſt him in ſeizing Seleucia near Babylon, where ORODES long beſieged him. CICERO was recalled from his Baniſhment. Mark Antony General of the Horſe, marched before with a Detachment to ſecure the Paſſes, and took Peluſium the Key of Egypt; upon which Gabinius followed with the grand Army, and marched into the Heart of Egypt in the Middle of Winter, when the Nile was loweſt.	10.2.	8	480	403	4658	56	3948	CLXXXI. 1	47	268	692	693	5
King ARCHELAUS oppoſed the Invaders all he could in many Conflicts, till his effeminate Egyptians were beaten by the valiant Romans, and He was ſlain in Battel fighting like an Hero, whoſe Body was royally buried by his old Friend Mark Antony. Thus Egypt was ſoon reduced, and AULETES again mounted his Throne, put his Daughter Queen Berenice to Death, and moſt of the rich Men of her Party, that by confiſcating their Effects he might raiſe the 10000 Talents for Gabinius, who was obliged to return quick into Syria, then infeſted by Thieves and Freebooters in his Abſence. In his Way he fought a bloody Battel with Alexander the Son of ARISTOBULUS near Mount Tabor, who brought 30000 Men into the Field, but was vanquiſhed with the Loſs of 10000. Then Gabinius marched againſt the Nabatheans, and having overcome them, he returned to Syria, to prepare for his Return to Rome. FOR POMPEY and Craſſus, this Year Conſuls, had obtained a new unheard of Decree of the Roman People, that POMPEY ſhould have Spain and Africa for his Conſular Province, during five Years, and Craſſus ſhould have Syria and the Eaſt for the ſame Time, with full Authority to	11.3.	9	481	404	4659	55	3949	2	48	269	693	694	6 to imploy what Forces They pleaſed, and to make War againſt whom They pleaſed, without waiting for any Orders or Directions from the Senate or People of Rome. And Gabinius was recalled. The News of which made Cæsar think of his returning from his Wars in Gallia and Britain.

Craſſus having ſignified his Reſolution of making War upon the Parthians, the Tribunes of the People were much againſt it; and ſeeing They could not reverſe their Decree, nor limit it, becauſe of the military Forces he had raiſed, They followed him on his March out of Rome with dreadful Curſes; and he proſpered accordingly.

When He came into Syria he began to ſatiate his Covetouſneſs, by marching to Jeruſalem, in order to ſeize the Riches of the Temple, and took the Bar of Gold, which Eleazar the Treaſurer gave him on his Oath that he would take no more; but not regarding his Oath, he ranſackt the Temple, and took out of it to the Value of 10000 Talents, above two Millions Sterling. Being thus furniſhed with Money, Craſſus marched his Army over the Euphrates againſt the Parthians, who expected no War, having given no Provocation; and They being unprovided, He over-ran a great Part of Meſopotamia, till Winter obliged him to go into Quarters; during which the long Siege of Seleucia being over, and Mithridates having ſurrendered himſelf to his Brother Orodes, who put him to Death, and

14. Arſaces Orodes, now the ſole King of Parthia, during 17 Years, having gather'd a conſiderable Army, ſent to Craſſus to know the Reaſon of the War; and receiving no ſatisfactory Anſwer, he divided his Army, marching at the Head of one Half towards Armenia, whereby he diverted King Artabazes (the Son of old Tigranes) from ſending Succours to Craſſus; and ſent the other Half under his General Surenas into Meſopotamia: but Craſſus infatuated, would neither follow the Advice of Artabazes, to march thro' Armenia into Parthia, nor of Caſſius his Queſtor, (afterwards one of the Murderers of Julius Cæsar) to march to Seleucia along the Banks of the Euphrates, but ſuffer'd himſelf to be decoy'd into the Plains of Meſopotamia, by the Craft of Agbarus an Arabian Prince, who was ſent by Surenas to deceive him; where the Parthian Horſe had Room to act their Part: and ſo in the Month of June near Carrhae, (the old Charran of the Scripture) Surenas fell upon him, and routed the whole Roman Army with a great Slaughter, in which the Son of Craſſus was ſlain: the reſt fled to Carrhæ, and Craſſus endeavouring to make his Retreat from thence, was overtaken by Surenas, and ſlain with many other noble Romans, the ſevereſt Blow ſince the Battel of Cannae; for 20000 Romans were ſlain, and 10000 taken Priſoners. But Caſſius at the Head of 500 Horſe, made a gallant Retreat from Carrhæ into Syria, where he gather'd thoſe that had privately eſcaped, and was thereby enabled to defend that Province.

Artabazes finding Craſſus was poſting to his Deſtruction, wiſely made Peace with Orodes, and gave one of his Siſters to Pacorus the Son of Orodes in Marriage; and while the Nuptials were celebrating, a Meſſenger from Surenas brought the Head and right Hand of Craſſus, when Orodes in Mockery, order'd melted Gold to be poured into its Mouth. But Orodes envious of Surenas's Glory, and jealous of his Power, ſoon put him to Death, of whom there is a glorious Account given by Plutarch in Craſſo.

And now Craſſus being cut off, the whole Power of Rome was in the Hands of Cæsar and Pompey; but Pompey being averſe to have any Collegue or Equal to him, and Cæſar abhorring a Superior, the Foundation of the ſubſequent civil Wars was laid.

Nec quemquam jam ferre poteſt, Cæsar*ve* priorem Pompeius*que* parem——————————Lucan Lib. I.

And now Cæsar having ſubdued moſt of all Gallia, invaded Britain this Year in Autumn the firſt Time, but made no Settlement: yet the Credit of his Conqueſts and new Diſcoveries greatly animated his Party at Rome. But

This next Year Cæsar returned from Gallia, and made a ſecond Deſcent upon Britain, defeated Cassibelan and ſeveral other Britannic Princes, whom he made Tributaries: and taking with him ſeveral Hoſtages, He left the Iſland, and returned to Gallia; and having ſettled and garriſoned that Country, he marched the Flower of his brave truſty Veterans into Italy, in order by their Help to puſh his grand Deſign, which, by the Death of Crassus became ripe for Execution.

The Parthians invaded Syria with a ſmall Army, but were bravely repulſed by Caſſius; and when They retired, Caſſius ſettled Affairs at Tyre, took Tarichæa on the South Side of the Genneſareth, made Slaves of all there found, for being of the Faction of Ariſtobulus, but put to Death their Head Pitholaus: and having forced Alexander the Son of Ariſtobulus to Terms of Peace, He marched to the Euphrates to oppoſe the Parthians.

Marcellus and Sulpitius being Conſuls, the Romans renew'd their League offenſive and defenſive with the Rhodians. Cicero was ſent to govern Cilicia, and Bibulus got Syria, tho' not going ſoon thither, Caſſius continued there, and Orodes ſent his Son Pacorus, with his General Oſaces, and a great Army into Syria, and beſieged Caſſius in Antioch. Cicero hearing by Antiochus King of Commagena, of the Diſtreſs of Caſſius, came ſeaſonably to his Relief, tho' not ſo far as Antioch, and cut off a great Detachment of the Parthian Horſe in Cilicia, and forced them to raiſe the Siege: then They ſat down before Antigonia, but Caſſius drew his Forces from Antioch, and drawing the Parthians into an Ambuſh, gave them a total Rout with great Slaughter, in which Orſaces was ſlain, and the reſt run home; yet having recruited, They return'd and winter'd in Cyrrheſtica, a Diſtrict in the North of Syria. Mean while Bibulus arriving, Caſſius reſign'd the Government, and return'd to Rome.

CICERO hearing the Parthians had left Antioch, marched againſt the Inhabitants of Mount Amanus, who were ſubject to no Government, and ſubdued them: then he ſubdued the Eleuthero-Cilices, or Free Cilicians, that pretended They had never been conquer'd: upon which he was ſaluted Imperator by his Army, and for which, upon his Return, he was offer'd a Triumph, but waved it, becauſe of the civil Wars then breaking out, before which, on the 7th March this Year, had happened an Eclipſe of the Sun of 10½ Digits.

PTOLEMY Auletes dying laſt Year, left by Will his Crown to his eldeſt Son and eldeſt Daughter, ordering them to be married according to the Uſage of the Egyptian Royal Family, viz.

14. PTOLEMY DIONYSIUS.
15. CLEOPATRA his Siſter.

This was the handſome fair CLEOPATRA, famous afterwards for her Amours with Mark Antony the Roman Triumvir: ſhe was now aged 17 Years.

The Parthians return'd and block'd up Bibulus in Antioch, who, inſtead of ſallying upon the Enemy, had ſent Agents to Ordonopantes a noble Parthian, diſguſted by ORODES, to riſe in Rebellion; upon which the Parthian Army was called home, and Syria was delivered from War.

When Bibulus and CICERO return'd to Rome, They found the Differences between CÆSAR and POMPEY ſo great, that the Sword could only decide them; and had each got their Parties formed: for CÆSAR would not obey the Senate's Decree, to lay down his Arms, and diſmiſs his Legions then about him, but with them paſt the Rubicon contrary to the Decree; whereby he openly declar'd War, took in the Cities in his Way, and firmly marched towards Rome: upon which POMPEY with his Party haſted to Brunduſium, whither CÆSAR purſued him, but could not hinder his Paſſage over to Epirus: for POMPEY on the 3d of January ſailed thence to the other Side of the Adriatic; and CÆSAR having in 60 Days reduced all Italy, came to Rome, comforted the People with fair Promiſes, releaſed ARISTOBULUS, and ſent him home with two Legions to oppoſe POMPEY: but on his Way he was poiſon'd by Pompey's Party; and POMPEY ſent to Q. Metellus Scipio, then Proconſul of Syria, who brought Alexander the Son of Ariſtobulus to a formal Trial at Antioch, and after Sentence cauſed his Head to be cut off with an Axe.

From Rome CÆSAR marched thro' Gallia into Spain, the Province of POMPEY; which having reduced, He return'd to Rome at the autumnal Equinox, was elected Conſul with Iſauricus for the Year enſuing, marched to Brunduſium, ſailed over the Adriatic with 7 Legions, and leaves the reſt to be brought over by Mark Antony.

The Antiochian Era begins on the 24th of September this Year.

POMPEY had raiſed a great Army and Fleet out of Greece and Aſia, and in the Spring CÆSAR being reinforced by the Arrival of Antony with the reſt of the Army, theſe two great Men incamped againſt each other at Dyrrachium, (now Durazzo) where POMPEY gave CÆSAR a great Defeat, and had utterly undone him, had he ſeen his Advantage, and purſued it; for CÆSAR was much diſtreſſed for want of a Fleet, which POMPEY had, and was thereby well ſupply'd. But CÆSAR having paſs'd the Night without Sleep, grievouſly perplexed in his Mind, marched next Morning into Greece, in order to decoy POMPEY after him, or elſe to attack Scipio his Father in Law, who had raiſed a good Army in Aſia, and had come as far as Macedonia, in order to join POMPEY, who marched the ſhorteſt Way after CÆSAR, and join'd Scipio, while Calvinus join'd CÆSAR with a little Army, and both at length met in the Plains of Pharſalia in Theſſaly, where the Empire of Rome was decided in a fierce Battel: for tho' CÆSAR had only 22000 Foot, and 1000 Horſe, and POMPEY had 45000 Foot, and 5000 Horſe, yet CÆSAR's Veterans ſoon broke them, (by the ſpecial Help of Mark Antony his Lieutenant) ſlew 15000, took 24000 Priſoners, and ſcatter'd the reſt, that were gather'd up by Pompey's Friends, CATO and CICERO at Dyrrachium, who with Scipio and young Pompey ſailed into Africa.

POMPEY fled in Diſguiſe by Sea to Mytelene, and finding no Shelter to be expected in Aſia, nor in Syria, nor in Parthia, He got ſome Ships in Cilicia, and 2000 Men, and 60 Roman Senators that eſcaped out of the Battel, and with them he ſailed towards Egypt. But there Matters were in Confuſion; for PTOLEMY had expelled his Siſter CLEOPATRA, who had raiſed an Army of Syrians and Phenicians for her Reſtoration, incamping near Peluſium, and PTOLEMY nearer the Shore incamped with an Army to oppoſe her.

POMPEY ſent to PTOLEMY for Protection; but being a Minor, his Tutor Pothinus, with Achillas his General, decoy'd POMPEY aſhore in a Boat, and cut off his Head in the 59th Year of his Age, in Sight of his Wife Cornelia, and his younger Son Sextus, who eſcaped to Tyre, and thence to Cyprus, and thence to Africa; but the reſt of the Ships were taken by the Egyptian Gallies, and all on board were ſlain, particularly Lucius Lentulus the laſt Year's Conſul, who was the chief Promoter of the War, by rejecting CÆSAR's Propoſals of Peace.

TABLE XXXVI.

The CHRONOLOGY of Cæſar, Brutus, Caſſius, Octavianus, Antony, CLEOPATRA, and others, from the Battel of Pharſalia, To the End of the Maccabees, or the firſt Year of HEROD the Great, King of Judea, during 11 Years.

JULIUS CÆSAR the Roman Dictator and Imperator.
Arſaces ORODES King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
HYRCANUS II. King and High Prieſt of Judea.

CÆSAR after the Battel of Pharſalia, leaving his Army in Greece and Leſſer Aſia, (where Caſſius yielded up his Fleet to him, and obtained his Pardon) went aboard ſome Ships with 800 Horſe, and 3200 Foot, purſued POMPEY into Eyypt, and arrived at Alexandria juſt upon the News of POMPEY's Death, where he was preſented with his Head, at which he wept, and order'd it to be honourably buried. CLEOPATRA came to CÆSAR tied up in Bedding carried on a Servant's Back, for fear of being diſcover'd, and ſtopt by PTOLEMY there: ſhe lay with CÆSAR all Night, (and afterwards bore to him a Son called Caeſarion) and next Morning He eſpouſed her Cauſe, preſſing PTOLEMY to receive her upon her own Terms. PTOLEMY raiſed the Mob, which CÆSAR with Difficulty appeaſed, and, as the Roman Dictator, order'd, according to AULETES's Will, that They ſhould reign jointly in Egypt, and their Brother and their Siſter Arſinoe in Cyprus: but Pothinus got Achillas to bring the Army to Alexandria againſt CÆSAR, who defending himſelf well, They projected to ſeize his Fleet at Anchor; but CÆSAR ſeized the Tower of Pharos, and burnt the Egyptian Fleet, the Fire of which inflamed the Houſes near the Shore, burnt down Bruchium, and the glorious Library there, the Collection of many Ages, containing 400000 Volumes in Manuſcript.

Mean while the Senate made CÆSAR Conſul for five Years, Dictator for one Year, and Tribune for Life.

CÆSAR having thus ſecured the Port, next fortified that Part of the City where he lay, ſtill detained the King in his Quarters, and cauſed Pothinus to be put to Death for writing to Achillas to puſh on the War.

Ganimede another Eunuch juſtly fearing the ſame Fate, fled with his Pupil Arſinoe to the Army, got the Soldiers to cut off Achillas, as if he had betray'd the Fleet, took the ſupreme Command upon him, and diſtreſſed CÆSAR much by ſpoiling all the freſh Water in Alexandria, thro' the Conduits to the Nile, which made CÆSAR have Recourſe to deep Springs. And hearing that the Legion ſent by Calvinus was arrived in Lybia, CÆSAR ſailed thither; and Ganimede ſent the Egyptian Fleet to intercept him on his Return, which produced a Sea Fight; but CÆSAR conquer'd, and ſafely brought his Legion of Veterans into the Port of Alexandria. Ganimede gather'd another Fleet from all the Mouths of the Nile, fought again, and was again beat by CÆSAR; but in Purſuit of that Victory, landing at Pharos, and attempting to take the Town in that Iſland, and the Mole, CÆSAR was beaten off with the Loſs of above 800 Men; nay finding the Ship in which he attempted to eſcape, ready to ſink by the Crowd got into it, CÆSAR threw himſelf into the Sea, and ſwam to his next Ship in the Port, ſwiming with one Hand, and carrying ſome valuable Papers in the other.

After this Loſs, CÆSAR was perſuaded to allow King PTOLEMY to go to his Army on a Promiſe of Peace; but then They preſſed the War with more Vigour, and by their Fleet ſtopt all Succours from him by Sea, till Cæſar's Fleet beat them off. At length Mithridates of Pergamus, arrived at the Borders of Egypt with a Syrian Army, raiſed by the Help of Antipater the Idumæan, who commanded under him, and who firſt mounted the Walls of Peluſium, which They took by Storm, and from thence marching into the Province of Onion, Antipater got all the Jews there to come over to Cæſar's Party, as did alſo the People of Memphis: when Mithridates marched into Delta, he was oppoſed by a Detachment of Ptolemy's Army in a Battel, but by the Valour of Antipater he gain'd a great Victory: upon which PTOLEMY marched againſt them with his whole Army, and CÆSAR ſoon join'd them, and in another Battel CÆSAR gain'd a compleat Victory; when PTOLEMY endeavouring to eſcape in a Boat, was drown'd in the Nile.

CÆSAR returning in Triumph to Alexandria about the Middle of January, ſettled the Kingdom under his Miſtreſs CLEOPATRA, and her ſurviving Brother, then only eleven Years old: yet her Charms detained him there till the End of April. Nay He would not have left her ſo ſoon, but that he heard how PHARNACES King of the Cimmerian Boſphorus, (who had took the Advantage of the Roman civil Wars, to recover his Father's Dominions in Aſia) had defeated Calvinus, and had Poſſeſſion of Pontus, Bithynia, and Cappadocia, and was preparing to march into the Province of proper Aſia. Therefore CÆSAR left Egypt, carrying Arſinoe his Captive, came into Syria, rejected the Remonſtrances of Antigonus the Son of Ariſtobulus, aboliſh'd the Ariſtocracy eſtabliſh'd by Gabinius, decreed the High Prieſthood and the Principality of Judea to HYRCANUS and his Heirs, and appointed under him Antipater to be Procurator of Judea, who by his Wiſdom and Proweſs had made himſelf neceſſary to all Roman Governors, and to whom CÆSAR ow'd his Deliverance from Egypt; Antipater had by his Wife Cyprus four Sons now Men, viz. 1. Phaſaelus. 2. HEROD. 3. Joſeph. 4. Pheroras, and a Daughter Salome.

CÆSAR having made Sextus Cæſar his Kinſman the Preſident of Syria, haſtned northward againſt PHARNACES, and in his Way depoſed Archelaus (the Son of ARCHELAUS late King of Egypt) from the High Prieſthood of Comana in Cappadocia, and ordained it for Nicomedes a noble Bithynian. When he came near Pontus, Dejotarus the Tetrarch of Gallo Grecia, threw off his Royal Attire, and in the Habit of a Criminal begged his Pardon for being in Pompey's Army; which CÆSAR granted, and reſtored him to his Royal Habit and Dignity, only he took Leſſer Armenia from him, and gave it to ARIOBARZANES King of Cappadocia.

JULIUS CÆSAR the Roman Dictator and Imperator.
Arſaces ORODES King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
HYRCANUS II. King and High Prieſt of Judea.

PHARNACES ſent him Ambaſſadors, promiſed to leave all his Conqueſts, and to cultivate good Friendſhip: but tho' CÆSAR ſpoke fair to them, he marched quick towards the Camp of Pharnaces, and ſaying to himſelf, Ergo jam non dabit poenas Patricida? Shall not that Murderer of his Father be now puniſhed? Without refreſhing his Army, He fell on forthwith, and gave PHARNACES a total Rout at Mount Scotius (where his Father Mithridates defeated Triarius the Roman General) as CÆSAR wrote of it to his Friend, Veni, Vidi, Vici, I came, I ſaw, I overcame. PHARNACES return'd home to Boſphorus with only 1000 Men: but ASANDER his Lieutenant getting him in his Power, put him to Death, and reign'd in his Stead: but CÆSAR had decreed that Kingdom to Mithridates of Pergamus, (who afterwards loſt his Life in endeavouring to diſpoſſeſs the Uſurper Aſander) the Son of MITHRIDATES the Great by a Concubine. Then CÆSAR having ſettled all Affairs in thoſe Parts, went through Greece to ROME, where he was made Dictator for the Year inſuing. Mean while Antipater having ſettled the Civil Government of Judea under HYRCANUS, exactly as before the Innovation made by Gabinius, appointed his eldeſt Son Phaſael to be Governor of Jeruſalem, and Herod his ſecond Son to be Governor of Galilee, then aged 25 Years, who defeated and put to Death a Gang of Thieves that infeſted his Neighbourhood, for which he was ſummon'd before the Sanhedrim, and had been condemn'd, if HYRCANUS had not adviſed him to withdraw in the Night; and coming to Damaſcus he obtained the Protection of Sextus Cæſar, and let the Sanhedrim know he was no more ſubject to them: nay for a Sum of Money he obtained of Sextus the Government of Cœle-Syria, where next Year he raiſed an Army, marched into Judea, and would have cut off HYRCANUS and the Sanhedrim, if Antipater and Phaſael had not interpoſed, and got him to return.

CÆSAR having ſailed into Africa the latter End of laſt Year, rendevouz'd his Forces about the Middle of January this Year, and forthwith marched againſt CATO, Scipio, and JUBA King of Mauritania, who were at the Head of Pompey's Party; and in the Beginning of February gave them a total Overthrow; after which CATO ſlew himſelf at Utica. JUBA and Petreius killed each other in Deſpair, Africanus, Sylla, and Scipio were taken by Sitius and killed, and CÆSAR having ſettled that Province, and ordered Carthage to be rebuilt, he returned to Rome, and ordered Corinth to be rebuilt, which were both filled with Roman Colonies, juſt an hundred Years after They had been demoliſhed.

At Rome CÆSAR triumphed four Days, 1. over Gaul. 2. over Egypt when Arſinoe was led in Triumph, but afterwards diſmiſſed into Aſia. 3. over PHARNACES with the Motto Veni, Vidi, Vici. And 4. over JUBA, inſtead of whom his young Son Juba, then a Lad, was led in Triumph, and was educated at Rome, where he became a very learned Man. Mean while

In Syria Cecilius Baſſus a Roman Knight, who had fled out of the Battel of Pharſalia to Tyre, having artfully got Conſpirators and a little Army, gave out that CÆSAR was ſlain in Africa, and took the Field as the appointed Governor of Syria; but tho' he was beaten by Sextus Cæſar, he found Means to get Sextus murdered, and the Army to declare for him, except a few that marched into Cilicia under Antiſtius Vetus, who being aſſiſted by thoſe of the Cæſarian Party, and Auxiliaries from Antipater, drove Baſſus out of the Field, and blokaded him in Apamia.

CÆSAR having been long High Prieſt of Rome, now reformed the Roman Calendar, by forming his Julian Year, in which he was aſſiſted by Soſigenes an Aſtronomer of Alexandria, and Flavius a Roman Scribe. He aboliſhed the Lunar Year of 355 Days, and introduced the Solar Year of 365 Days and ſix Hours, with a Leap Year, as we have it ſtill, and was every where uſed till A. D. 1582 Pope GREGORY XIII. finding that the firſt of January had been fixed by CÆSAR to the Winter Solſtice, and that his Year was eleven Minutes longer than the natural Solar Year, and that theſe Minutes make one Day in 130 Years, or that in every 130 Years the firſt of January in the Julian Calendar over-runs the Winter Solſtice one whole Day; propoſed a New Stile, called from him the Gregorian, (as the Old Stile is called the Julian) which now begins eleven Days before the Old Stile, and is now obſerved in moſt Parts of Chriſtendom, except in the Dominions of the King of Great Britain. But CÆSAR in reducing this Year was obliged to make it of 445 Days by Intercalations, which was therefore called the long Year of Confuſion. But all being reduced into Order

CÆSAR on New Year's Day, the Calends of January, of the firſt Julian Year, began his 4th Conſulſhip; and ſoon after paſſing into Spain, defeated Pompey's Party in the Battel of Munda, ſlaying Cneius, Pompey's eldeſt Son, with Labienus and Attus Varus: and having ſettled that Province he returned to Rome in October, made a Triumph, iſſued out an Act of Oblivion, or general Pardon, for all that had oppoſed him, was made Conſul for ten Years, perpetual Dictator and Cenſor, was ſtiled the Savior and Father of his Country, and was ſaluted Imperator, got the ſole Command of Men and Money, and all Magiſtrates were made ſubject to him; whereby the whole Power and Authority of the Roman Republick was veſted in him; and thus without the Name he truly became the Sovereign Prince or EMPEROR of Rome. Mean while CÆSAR ſent Statius Murcus to be Preſident of Syria with three Legions, who joined Antiſtius, and again ſhut up Baſſus in Apamia, till he was joined by ſome Arabians and Parthians, when he forced the Cæſarians to quit the Siege.

Continuation of TABLE XXXVI.

JULIUS CÆSAR Imperator. Octavianus, Antony, and Lepidus Triumvirs.
Brutus and Caſſius. Arſaces ORODES King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
HYRCANUS II. King and High Prieſt of Judea.

CÆSAR on New Year's Day enter'd upon his fifth and laſt Conſulſhip, when, upon the Requeſt of Hyrcanus, he allowed the Walls of Jeruſalem to be rebuilt, and Antipater forthwith began to fortify it as ſtrong as ever. The Senate now in Honour to CÆSAR changed the Name of the Month Quintilis into Julius. Mark ANTONY was Conſul with him, but CÆSAR ſoon reſigned his own Conſulſhip to Dolabella, (the Husband of Tullia, the Daughter of Cicero) becauſe he deſigned a War againſt the Parthians to revenge the Battel of Carrhae, and to open a Way thro' Hyrcania into Scythia, and from thence thro' Germany into Gaul, and from thence home to Rome: but he never began that grand Undertaking; for

The Senators being offended at his Ambition and growing Pride, and being grieved for the Loſs of their good old Conſtitution, look'd upon him as a Tyrant, and the great Enemy of Rome's Liberty: therefore 60 of them conſpired to kill him, tho' moſt of them had been made by him. CÆSAR perceiving he laboured under Envy, determined to leave Rome on the 4th of March;

But BRUTUS and CASSIUS, both Prætors, and others at the Head of the Conſpirators, on the Ides, or 15th of March, having decoy'd CÆSAR to the Senate Houſe (notwithſtanding his and his Wife Calpurnia's horrible Dreams, and the Warning of Spurina the Conjurer) upon Pretence of doing him more Honours; and as ſoon as he was ſeated, began to fall upon him, and by 23 Wounds kill'd him, while he ſunk down in Pompey's Court at the Foot of POMPEY's Statue, in the 56th Year of his Age, in the 5th Year after he was firſt created Dictator, in the 4th Year after the Battel of Pharſalia, in the ſecond Julian Year, or of his perpetual Dictatorſhip, after he had fought 50 Battels without miſſing of Succeſs in any of them, except at Dyrrachium, and once at the Pharos of Alexandria; and after having ſlain in theſe Battels no leſs than 1192000 Men. Many ſaw him attackt, but none aſſiſted him, and there his Body lay for ſome Time untouched by Friend or Servant, and unlamented; tho' one of the moſt learned, artful and brave Commanders that ever liv'd.

Mark ANTONY the other Conſul with CÆSAR, at the Head of the Cæſarians, at CÆSAR's Funeral harrang'd the People againſt the Murderers, that They all left Rome, and ANTONY governed all, till OCTAVIUS, then about 19 Years old, came thither from Apollonia on the Grecian Side of the Adriatic, whither CÆSAR had ſent him ſix Months before to prepare the Army, and to march with him into Parthia. He pleaded his Adoption by CÆSAR, and now changed his Name into Caius Julius Cæſar OCTAVIANUS, had the Soldiers flocking to him, and enter'd Rome with a numberleſs Number of Roman People, about the End of April. He ſoon obliged ANTONY to leave Rome, who marched into Gallia Ciſalpina, to diſpoſſeſs Decimus Brutus of that Province, while Marcus BRUTUS ſeized Greece and Macedonia, and CASSIUS ſeized Cilicia, Syria, and the Eaſt, all preparing for hot War.

CLEOPATRA cut off her Brother and Husband Ptolemy by Poiſon, then aged 15 Years, and reigned alone.

When Hirtius and Panſa had begun their Conſulſhip on New Year's Day, ANTONY was declared a publick Enemy by the Senate, for beſieging Decimus Brutus in Mutina, (now Modena) where OCTAVIANUS and both the Conſuls came to the Relief of Brutus, defeated ANTONY in a fierce Battel, who fled over the Alps. The two Conſuls being ſlain, OCTAVIANUS got the ſole Command of the Army; and ANTONY was joined by Lepidus and his Army in Gallia Tranſalpina.

CASSIUS mean while arriving in Syria, before Dolabella (who had been ſent thither by JULIUS CÆSAR) found Murcus and Criſpus at the Siege of Apamia, who join'd him forthwith, and Baſſus with his Soldiers too; ſo that CASSIUS got eight Legions, and all Syria ſubmitted to him.

He then marched into Phenicia, where he found Allienus with four Legions ſent from CLEOPATRA to Dolabella, whom he forced to join him. To ſubſiſt theſe 12 Legions CASSIUS raiſed Contributions in Phenicia, while Dolabella was doing the ſame in proper Aſia. Dolabella took Tarſus, and being repulſed from Antioch, reſided at Laodicea, where CASSIUS beſieged him by Land, and Murcus by Sea, till Dolabella cauſed his Servant to cut off his Head, and Marſus killed himſelf; whereby that City came into the Hands of CASSIUS. Mean while Malichus an eminent Jew poiſon'd Antipater, and ſeized the Government of Jeruſalem; but HEROD got Leave from CASSIUS to cut off his Father's Murderer.

The Senate at length hearing of CASSIUS and BRUTUS, were influenced by CICERO to commit all Things in Greece and Aſia to their Care, and to refuſe a Triumph to OCTAVIANUS for the Battel of Mutina. OCTAVIANUS fearing that Pompey's Party muſt prevail, wrote to Mark ANTONY and Lepidus, who now made a New Triumvirate: OCTAVIANUS now married Claudia the Daughter of Fulvia by Clodius deceas'd, which Fulvia was now the Wife of Antony. OCTAVIANUS by his military Force was now made Conſul, being ſcarce 20 Years old, on the 19th of Auguſt, and Q. Pedius was his Collegue, who made a Law to condemn all the Murderers of CÆSAR, tho' abſent; one of whom, Decimus Brutus endeavouring to eſcape to Marcus BRUTUS, was betray'd by Sequanus, and his Head ſent to ANTONY. Nay the Senate decreed that OCTAVIANUS ſhould have a Power of raiſing Forces at his Pleaſure, ſhould have the chief Command of Rome, and to govern it according to his his Pleaſure, without Regard to the old Laws: and therefore many reckon this Year the firſt of AUGUSTUS, aſſigning thus to him in all 56 Years; tho' he got not the Name of AUGUSTUS till five Years after the Battel of Actium, and after that Battel he reign'd as Emperor 44 Years.

While BRUTUS was marching from Macedonia to Aſia for more Recruits, the Triumvirs met privately near Bononia, and having divided the Roman Empire among them, They marched to Rome, where a Law was made to give them the Care of the Republick for five Years with Conſular Power, in which Office They commenced on the 5th before the Calends of December. Cicero left Rome upon their Approach; but was purſued by the Emiſſaries of ANTONY, who ſlew him, and brought his Head and Hands to be erected on the Roſtrum.

The Triumvirs having proſcribed 300 Senators, and 2000 Knights of Pompey's Party, from whoſe Families They raiſed great Sums; and having made great Levies, OCTAVIANUS laid down his Conſulſhip to Ventidius, and leaving Lepidus at Rome, OCTAVIANUS and ANTONY ſailed over the Adriatic, marching againſt BRUTUS with 40 Legions. Upon the News, BRUTUS ſent to CASSIUS, who leaving his Nephew with one Legion in Syria, marched with the reſt to Smyrna, where he join'd BRUTUS, and forthwith ſubdued the Rhodians by Sea and Land, while BRUTUS ſubdued the Lycians; whereby all from Macedonia to the Euphrates was in their Poſſeſſion, but not long.

For as They marched over the Helleſpont with 100000 Men, to fight OCTAVIANUS and ANTONY, Theſe with a greater Army met them near Philippi in Macedonia, where the Cauſe was decided by two terrible Battels; in the firſt, CASSIUS was beaten out of the Field, and retiring to an Eminence ſaw BRUTUS retreat, upon which CASSIUS killed himſelf: and in 20 Days in the ſecond Battel BRUTUS was defeated, and then killed himſelf too, both with their own Swords with which They had killed CÆSAR. See Plutarch, Appian, Dion, and other Hiſtorians.

OCTAVIANUS returned to Rome to oppoſe Sextus Pompeius in Sicily; and Mark ANTONY marched into Aſia to reduce the Eaſtern Provinces, and raiſe Contributions for the Army.

Mean while, after CASSIUS left Syria laſt Year, the Faction of Malichus roſe in Arms, to revenge his Death upon the Sons of Antipater, and got HYRCANUS in their Intereſt, but without good Succeſs; for Herod and Phaſael by the Help of Fabius the Roman Governor of Damaſcus, defeated their Deſigns: and Herod propoſing to marry Mariamne the Grand-daughter of Hyrcanus, They became Friends.

But this Year the ſuppreſſed Faction got at their Head Antigonus the Son of King ARISTOBULUS II. who claimed the Government by hereditary Right, being alſo aſſiſted by Marion King of Tyre, out of Hatred to Herod, by Fabius, for a large Sum of Money, and by Ptolemy the Son of Mennæus Prince of Chalcis, who had married Alexandra the Siſter of Antigonus: but HEROD overthrew them all, and enter'd Jeruſalem in Triumph.

Nay when the Faction complained to ANTONY, he would not hear them; becauſe Herod bribed him well, and alſo ANTONY remember'd the Favours done him formerly by Antipater: but ANTONY at the Requeſt of Hyrcanus, reſtored to the Jews all the Lands taken from them by CASSIUS, and all the Jewiſh Slaves were ſet free. While ANTONY lay at Tarſus

CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt, came to him upon his Summons, and ſo charm'd him by her Wit and Beauty, that he became her Slave as long as he lived, which prov'd his Ruin and her's too in the End. She prevail'd with him to cauſe her Siſter Arſinoe, then reſiding in Leſſer Aſia, to be put to Death. When he came into Syria he depoſed the little Kings or Tyrants that CASSIUS had made; and after the Jews had an Hearing, ANTONY made Herod and Phaſael both Tetrarchs, and committed to them all the Affairs of Judea. Palmyra, called Tadmore in Scripture, built by Solomon, about 127 Miles Eaſtward of Damaſcus, within a Day's Journey of the Euphrates, now again called Tadmore, and only famous for its magnificent Ruins, being then a rich Place, ANTONY ſent all his Horſe to take the Plunder of it for their Pay: but the Palmyrians hearing of it, carried their Families and Riches over the Euphrates, till the Romans returned, and coming under the Protection of the Parthians, partly occaſioned the ſecond Parthian War.

CLEOPATRA left ANTONY at Tyre; but he leaving Plancus in Leſſer Aſia, and Saxa in Syria his Lieutenants, made haſte after her to Egypt, where he ſpent the Winter with her in Love and Folly.

Mean while the Tyrants depoſed by ANTONY, the People of Syria and Phenicia grievouſly oppreſſed by Taxes, and the Palmyrians, all invited the Parthians to paſs the Euphrates with an Army, under Pacorus the King's Son, and Labienus a Roman General of Pompey's Party, who dividing their Forces, Pacorus ſubdued all Syria and Phenicia except Tyre, while Labienus defeated and ſlew Saxa in Cilicia, drove Plancus out of Leſſer Aſia, and ſubdued All to the Helleſpont and the Egean Sea. Nay at Rome, ANTONY's Wife Fulvia a Virago, and his Brother Lucius, raiſed Tumults againſt OCTAVIANUS, who forthwith divorced her Daughter Claudia, and the Breach came to open War. Lucius was beſieged in Peruſia, and when OCTAVIANUS had took the Place, he baniſhed him and Fulvia out of Italy. Octavianus, Antony, and Lepidus Triumvirs.
Ventidius the Roman General in Aſia. Arſaces ORODES King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
ANTIGONUS King and High Prieſt of Judea.

This News rouſed Mark ANTONY from his Lethargy of Love; he ſailed into Italy, where hearing that Fulvia was dead at Sicyon, he was well adviſed to make up all Differences by marrying Octavia the Siſter of OCTAVIANUS, and the Widow of Marcellus: upon which the Triumvirs made a new Partition, Lepidus got Africa, OCTAVIANUS got Spain, Gaul, Sardinia, Dalmatia, and ANTONY got the Eaſtern Provinces, to whom the Parthian War was committed; while OCTAVIANUS had the Charge of the Silician War againſt Sextus Pompeius, and Italy was common to all the Three.

Mean while Pacorus ſent a Detachment againſt Jeruſalem, who got Phaſael and HYRCANUS in their Power, made Herod flee from thence, and made

10. ANTIGONUS King of Judea, who cauſed HYRCANUS's Ears to be cut off, in order to incapacitate him for being High Prieſt, and They carried him a Priſoner into the Eaſt; while Phaſael killed himſelf, and Herod had no nearer Shelter than Egypt, from whence he ſailed to Rome, where he apply'd to ANTONY to get ARISTOBULUS (the Brother of his betrothed Wife Mariamne and Grandſon of Hyrcanus) declared King of Judea, and he to act under him, as his Father Antipater had acted under Hyrcanus.

But ANTONY did more for him, having prevailed with OCTAVIANUS and the Senate, to make HEROD King of Judea, in Conſideration of his Father's great Services to JULIUS CÆSAR in Egypt, and that it was convenient for carrying on the Parthian War. HEROD the Edomite had the Royal Dignity of Judea conferred on him, by the unanimous Suffrage of the Senate; and between OCTAVIANUS and ANTONY was conducted into the Capitol, where he was ſolemnly inaugurated, and the Decree recorded: which being all over in ſeven Days, He returned to his Ships at Brunduſium, and ſailed to Ptolemais, where he landed Three Months after he had fled from Jeruſalem.

Aſinius Pollio and Domitius Calvinus being Conſuls, the Son of Pollio was born, upon whoſe Birth Virgil compoſed his 4th Eclog about the Golden Age.

ANTONY ſent Ventidius with an Army againſt the Parthians, who ſoon made Labienus retreat out of Leſſer Aſia to Mount Taurus, where he waited to be relieved by the Parthians; and They preſuming to fight Ventidius before They join'd Labienus, were miſerably overthrown by him: upon which Labienus's Soldiers deſerted, and he fled in Diſguiſe, till diſcovered and put to Death. Ventidius having thus recover'd all Cilicia, marched to Mount Amanus, and gain'd another great Victory over the Parthians, whereby he recover'd all Syria, which Pacorus left, and with all his remaining Forces return'd to Parthia. Mean while

King HEROD raiſed the Siege of Maſſada, where his Brother Joſeph and all his Friends were ſhelter'd, was aſſiſted by Ventidius in reducing Joppa, and in the Saccage of Jericho, when the Romans went into Winter Quarters: but HEROD kept the Field with his Men, and having ſent Joſeph to ſecure Idumæa, and ſettled his Family at Samaria, He marched into Galilee, reduced all there to his Obedience, and cleared the Country of Thieves or free Booters.

ANTONY at Athens with his new Wife Octavia, hearing of Ventidius's two great Victories, paſſed from thence into Aſia; but before he arrived, Ventidius gained a Third Victory greater than the former two, in Cyrrheſtian Syria, on the ſame Day in June that CRASSUS was defeated at Carrhae, ſlaying near 30000 of the beſt Parthians, with their General Pacorus the King's Son. Ventidius fearing to offend ANTONY, purſued not his Victory, but marched only againſt ANTIOCHUS King of Commagena, and while he beſieged him in Samoſata his Capital, ANTONY arrived, received the Army from him, and ſent him to Rome, where VENTIDIUS, who at firſt had been led in the Triumph of Strabo the Father of POMPEY, when a Child, now triumph'd with univerſal Applauſe, the firſt and laſt that ever triumphed over the Parthians.

HEROD attackt Jeruſalem; but not being duly aſſiſted by the Romans, He left Joſeph to command in Judea, and marched to the Aſſiſtance of ANTONY at the Siege of Samoſata, where ANTIOCHUS offered 1000 Talents for his Peace, which Antony rejecting, made him and his People deſperate; ſo that Antony was at length glad to accept of the Third Part, and move off; and leaving the Government and the Army to the Care of Soſius, ſailed to Athens, and from thence to Brunduſium; where not finding OCTAVIANUS as he expected, He ſet ſail for Alexandria, and winter'd with Cleopatra after the old Manner.

Mean while Joſeph was beaten and ſlain by the Antigonians near Jericho, and many in Galilee and Idumæa revolted from HEROD; who upon his Return ſoon reduced Galilee, but was defeated and wounded by the Antigonians near Jericho: yet getting more Forces, HEROD marched againſt Pappus the General of ANTIGONUS, defeated him in Battel and ſlew him; when HEROD's Men went into Winter Quarters.

Calvinus having reduced Spain under the Power of OCTAVIANUS, the Spaniards began their Era from the Calends of January of this Year.

Octavianus, Antony, and Lepidus Triumvirs.
Arſaces ORODES King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
ANTIGONUS King and High Prieſt of Judea.

Early in the Spring, ANTONY ſailed from Alexandria to Athens, took aboard his Wife Octavia, and with 300 Ships landed at Tarentum, offering with that Naval Force to aſſiſt OCTAVIANUS againſt Sextus Pompeius in Sicily: but OCTAVIANUS not accepting his Offer thro' Jealouſy, They had for that and other Matters openly quarrelled, if Octavia had not made them Friends again. And now the Triumvirs by their own Authority, continued themſelves in their Office for other five Years to come. Then ANTONY, committing Octavia and his Children to the Care of OCTAVIANUS in Italy, returned into Syria.

OCTAVIANUS having divorced his Wife Scribonia for her ill Temper (who had bore to him his Daughter JULIA) now married Livia Druſilla (the Daughter of Livius Druſus, who had ſlain himſelf after the Battel of Philippi) firſt the Wife of Tiberius Nero (to whom ſhe bore Tiberius Cæſar the Succeſſor of AUGUSTUS) who being of Fulvia's Faction fled from Italy; but after the Pacification, returned with his ſaid Wife Livia and Son Tiberius; and OCTAVIANUS falling in Love with her, the Husband yielded her to him, and ſhe became the Wife of OCTAVIANUS, tho' then big with Child; for in three Months ſhe bore her Son Druſus to his Father the ſaid Tiberius Nero, and Tiberius dying ſoon after, the ſaid Druſus and his elder Brother Tiberius were educated by OCTAVIANUS: and LIVIA tho' ſhe bore to him no Children, continued his Wife all his Days, and commanded his Affections to the laſt.

CLEOPATRA now erected a new Library at Alexandria, upon the old Foundation, to which ANTONY is ſaid to have beſtowed the famous Library of Pergamus, that conſiſted of 200000 Volumes. Mean while HEROD with a great Army laid Siege to Jeruſalem, and while that was carried on, He went to Samaria and conſummated his Marriage with Mariamne, (whom he had betrothed four Years before) the Daughter of Alexander the Son of King ARISTOBULUS; her Mother was Alexandra the Daughter of King HYRCANUS II. Upon HEROD's Return to the Siege, Soſius with an Army join'd him; ſo that now no leſs than eleven Legions, and 6000 Horſe, beſides the Syrian Auxiliaries were puſhing on the Siege. The beſieged made a deſperate Reſiſtance, and held it out ſix Months; but They were not ſo well skilled in the Art of War as the Romans; and therefore It was taken by Soſius and HEROD on the Calends of January, in this Year of the Julian Period 4677, or on Saturday the 28th Day of Kiſleu, (the Third Month of their Civil Year) on which the Jews formerly kept the ſolemn Faſt for Jehoiakim's burning the Roll of Jeremiah, on the ſame Day that firſt Nebuchadnezzar took it from Jehoiakim 570 Years ago, and on which alſo POMPEY took in the Temple, 26 Years before. See Page 187. When Vipſanius Agrippa, and Caninius Gallus enter'd on their Conſulſhip at Rome; and which is alſo reckoned the firſt Year of King HEROD's Reign, two Years after he was created King, who reign'd in all 36 Years, and from this Time 34 Years.

13. ONIAS III. began in the 28th Year of ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria, when Hannibal came to Antiochus for Protection.	3809	195	341	264	118	—	20	—	3828
In his 3d Year ANTIOCHUS married his Daughter Cleopatra to PTOLEMY Epiphanes King of Egypt, and for Dower gave Epiphanes the Half of the Revenues of Cœle-Syria and Paleſtine; whereby the Crown of Egypt were in Part repoſſeſſed of that Country.	3811	193	343	266	120
In his 9th Year Joſeph the Collector of the Revenue, ſent his youngeſt Son Hyrcanus to Egypt, to congratulate the high Birth of Philometor the Son of PTOLEMY Epiphanes by Cleopatra; and Hyrcanus, ſupplanting his Father, became the Collector. Antiochus Magnus was ſlain at Elymais.	3817	187	349	272	126
In his 10th Year SELEUCUS Philopator King of Syria began to reign.	3818	186	350	273	127
In his 20th Year Simon the elder Brother of Hyrcanus the Collector, ſucceeding to his Father Joſeph as Protector of the Temple, quarrelled with ONIAS for ſecuring in the Temple the Treaſure of Hyrcanus, and informed the King of Syria of it; who ſent his Treaſurer Heliodorus to ſeize it, and bring it to Antioch; but God prevented it in a ſtrange Manner, 2 Mac. iii. and iv. and Simon's Party having committed Murder and Violence, ONIAS went to Antioch to complain thereof to King SELEUCUS Philopator, who had took the Advantage of PTOLEMY Philometor's Minority, to expell the Egyptians out of Cœle-Syria and Paleſtine, and had the ſole Poſſeſſion of that Country. But King SELEUCUS died this Year, while ONIAS was at Antioch, and was ſucceeded by his Brother	3828	176	360	283	137
ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria, who forthwith depoſed ONIAS, confined him to dwell at Antioch, and ſold the High Prieſthood for 360 Talents to his Brother Jaſus, who called himſelf	3829	175	361	284	138
14. JASON, He was an Apoſtate, and began in the 21ſt Year of ONIAS III. and firſt of King ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes, and ruled three Years.	—	—	—	—	—	—	03	—	3831
In his ſecond Year he introduced Heathen Rites, and ſent Offerings to Hercules of Tyre.	3830	174	362	285	139
15. MENELAUS, another Apoſtate, the Son of Simon II. and Brother of Onias III. and of Jaſon, being ſent by JASON as his Ambaſſador to King Antiochus, ſupplanted him, and for 300 Talents more, bought the High Prieſthood of that King, who ſoon made Jaſon to flee to the Ammonites for Shelter. MENELAUS began in the 24th Year of Onias III. then reſiding at Antioch. MENELAUS made his Brother	3832	172	364	287	141	—	06	—	3837
16. LYSIMACHUS, another Apoſtate, his Partner or Deputy, who in the ſecond Year of their joint Rule, was ſlain at Jeruſalem by an Inſurrection of the People, for carrying out of the Temple the golden Veſſels which were ſold at Tyre, to raiſe Money for MENELAUS then at Antioch, which Menelaus had contracted to pay to King ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes, who being then at ſome Diſtance from Antioch	3833	171	365	288	142
Menelaus bribed Andronicus the King's Favourite to put to Death his good Brother ONIAS III. becauſe he was an Eye-ſore to him, and had rebuked him for that Sacrilege. But the King when returned to Antioch, upon the Addreſs of all Sorts of People, ordered Andronicus to be put to Death in the ſame Place where he had murdered ONIAS, even at Daphne, whither Onias had fled to be ſheltered in the Aſylum, and from which Andronicus had by fair Promiſes decoy'd him.
While King ANTIOCHUS lay at Tyre, Three Delegates of the Sanhedrim came there, and proved heavy Allegations againſt Menelaus: but the crafty Prieſt bribed one Ptolemy Macron the King's Favourite, to intercede for him; whereby he eſcaped, and alſo got the three honeſt Delegates put to Death.	3834	170	366	289	143
This is the firſt Year of MENELAUS alone, the Year after the Death of ONIAS III. who had officiated 20 Years at Jeruſalem, and in the 5th Year of his Reſidence at Antioch, was murdered by Andronicus.
While ANTIOCHUS was warring in Egypt, Jaſon hearing that he was dead there, came with 1000 Ammonites to Jeruſalem, and joining his Party, took the City, drove Menelaus into the Caſtle, and ſlew all his Enemies he could find. Upon which the Syrians thinking it a general Revolt, ANTIOCHUS returned from Egypt, took in Jeruſalem, ſlew 40000 People there, and ſold as many for Slaves, and was conducted by Menelaus into the Temple, the Holy Place, and even the Holy of Holies: nay he ſacrificed a Sow upon the Altar of Burnt-Offering, polluted the Temple, and ſpoiled it and the City of all the valuable Things he found therein, which he carried to Antioch; leaving Philip a Phrygian as Governor of Judea, and MENELAUS as High Prieſt. 2 Mac. v.
Jaſon upon the King's Approach had fled back to the Ammonites, and afterwards was forced to flee from thence to Egypt, and from thence to Lacedemonia, where he died, hated of all Men, without a Friend to bury him.
King ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes having been baffled in Egypt, by the Mediation of the Romans, vented his Revenge upon the Jews: for He ſent Apollonius with a Detachment of 22000 Men to Jeruſalem, who on the Sabbath Day ſlew all the Men Jews he could find, made the Women and Children Captives, burnt the City in many Places, pulled down the Walls; and with the Ruins He built the ſtrong Caſtle of Acra in the City of DAVID that commanded the Temple: ſo that now for three Years and an half, there was none permitted to worſhip in the Temple, till it was reſtored by JUDAS Maccabaeus.	3836	168	368	291	145
ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes, now reſolved to extirpate the whole Jewiſh Nation, began that ſevere Perſecution mentioned Page 160. and 161. upon which Mattathias the Aſmonæan Prieſt took up Arms, till he died.

In the 7th Year of Menelaus, or the 5th Year after the Murder of ONIAS III. Menelaus was expelled: for 17. JUDAS Maccabaeus having conquer'd the Syrians, reſtored Jeruſalem and the Temple with a New Dedication, and being a Prieſt of the Courſe of Joarib, he muſt have officiated as High Prieſt for the Time, for we read of none other.	3838	166	370	293	147	—	06	—	3843
In his 2d Year ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes was ſlain in the Eaſt.
In his 3d Year ANTIOCHUS Eupator his young Son began to reign, under the Tuition of Lyſias.	3840	164	372	295	149
In his 4th Year JUDAS brought Lyſias to Terms of Peace; and when Lyſias returned with his young King to Antioch, He ordered wicked Menelaus to be put to Death, as the Author of all thoſe unfortunate Wars, and conferred the Office of High Prieſt on another Apoſtate Prieſt, but not of the old Family of Joſedech, viz.
18. ALCIMUS or Jacimus, who began in the fifth Year of JUDAS Maccabæus, and firſt of DEMETRIUS Soter King of Syria, who ſtole from Rome by Sea, cut off Eupator and Lyſias, and ſent Bacchides with an Army to inveſt ALCIMUS at Jeruſalem.	3842	162	374	297	151
But upon the Return of Bacchides to Syria, JUDAS Maccabæus marched round the Country, and drove Alcimus again away to Antioch, where, by Preſents, he excited the King to renew the War, and to ſend Nicanor with an Army to Jeruſalem, who threatned to burn the Temple if They did not deliver up to him Judas Maccabæus:	3843	161	375	298	152
But JUDAS marched up and ſlew Nicanor in Battel: and the ſame Year Bacchides coming to revenge it, ſlew JUDAS in Battel, and reſtored ALCIMUS to his Office, who forthwith began to innovate the Religion of the Jews, to make them come nearer to the Greeks; and pulled down the Wall of Partition in the Temple that had been built by Order of the Prophets Haggai and Zechariah; that ſo the Gentiles might paſs into the Inner Court as well as the Jews. But while It was a doing he died, when the Jews elected

In his 2d Year SIMON made the Heathen ſurrender the ſtrong Fort of Mount Acra in Jeruſalem, which he demoliſhed with the Mount, after it had ſtood 27 Years.	3862	142	394	317	171	2
In his 3d Year the Elders, Prieſts and People, in a ſolemn Aſſembly at Jeruſalem, confirmed the Royal Dignity and the High Prieſthood to SIMON and his Heirs.	3863	141	395	318	172	3
In his 4th Year ANTIOCHUS Sidetes began to reign, (Demetrius being a Priſoner in Parthia) whoſe General was defeated by Judas and John the Sons of SIMON.	3864	140	396	319	173	4
In his 5th Year SIDETES quarrelled with SIMON, but Judas and John his Sons defeated the Army of Sidetes.	3865	139	397	320	174	5
In his 8th and laſt Year SIMON and two of his Sons, Judas and Mattathias, were baſely murdered at Jericho, at an Entertainment, by his Son in Law Ptolemy the Son of Abubus.	3868	136	400	323	177	8
4. JOHN Hyrcanus I. began to reign and officiate in the 6th Year of ANTIOCHUS Sidetes King of Syria, who forthwith beſieged Jeruſalem, and could have extirpated the whole Jewiſh Nation; but He generouſly made Peace with HYRCANUS, upon the Terms of diſmantling Jeruſalem, paying 500 Talents for demoliſhing Mount Acra, and an yearly Tribute for Joppa, and other Places out of Judea.	3869	135	401	324	178	9	29	3897
This Year alſo Matthias Aphlias a Prieſt of the Courſe of Joarib, married a Daughter of JONATHAN late High Prieſt and Prince of Judea. See the Genealogical Table of the ASMONÆANS.
In his 4th Year Jeſus the Son of Sirach went from Jeruſalem to Egypt, and there tranſlated, from Hebrew into Greek, his Grandfather Jeſus's Book called Eccleſiaſticus. See the ſecond Prologue of that Book in the Apocrypha.	3872	132	404	327	181	12
In his 5th Year he got the Name of Hyrcanus for fighting bravely againſt the Hyrcanians, as the Auxiliary of ANTIOCHUS Sidetes.	3873	131	405	328	182	13
In his 6th Year ANTIOCHUS Sidetes being ſlain in Battel by the Parthians, DEMETRIUS Nicator got home, and began again to reign in Syria.	3874	130	406	329	183	14
When JOHN Hyrcanus ſhook off the Syrian Yoke, inlarged his Dominion, took in Shechem, and deſtroyed the Samaritan Temple on Mount Gerizzim after it ſtood 279 Years.
In his 7th Year JOHN Hyrcanus conquered the Edomites or Idumæans, and made them full Proſelytes to the Jewiſh Religion.	3875	129	407	330	184	15
In his 9th Year Alexander Jannæus the Son of JOHN Hyrcanus was born.	3877	127	409	332	186	17
In his 13th Year ANTIOCHUS Grypus King of Syria began to reign.	3881	123	413	336	190	21
His 15th Year was the XXVII. Year of JUBILEE celebrated by him at Jeruſalem.	3883	121	415	338	192	23
In his 20th Year Ptolemy Phyſcon being dead, his Son LATHYRUS King of Egypt began to reign.	3888	116	420	343	197	28

In his 27th Year He took in Samaria and raſed it, having before defeated King Cyzicenus, and became a very great Prince, now freed from War.	3895	109	427	350	204	35
In his 28th Year the Phariſees having unjuſtly affirmed that JOHN Hyrcanus's Mother was a foreign Captive; and therefore that He was not fit to be High Prieſt, He deſerted their Party and encouraged the Sadducees.
In his 29th and laſt Year JOHN Hyrcanus died, leaving five Sons, viz. 1. Ariſtobulus. 2. Antigonus. 3. Alexander Jannæus. 4. N. N. 5. Abſolom.	3897	107	429	352	206	37
5. ARISTOBULUS I. called Judas, and alſo Philellen for his Intimacy with the Greeks, began to reign and officiate in the 18th Year of GRYPUS King of Syria; was the firſt after the Captivity that wore a Diadem, and took the Title of King. He ſtarved his Mother in Priſon, conquered the Ituræans, and made them full Proſelytes to the Jewiſh Religion: But was influenced by his Queen Salome to concur in the Murder of his gallant Brother Antigonus, and died in an Agony of Remorſe, and vomiting Blood. He was ſucceeded by his Brother	3898	106	430	353	207	38	01	3898
6. ALEXANDER Jannaeus, who began to reign and officiate as King and High Prieſt of Judea, in the 19th Year of King GRYPUS. He put to Death his Brother N. N. for a Plot.	3899	105	431	354	208	39	27	3925
In his ſecond Year He was ſeverely beat out of the Field by LATHYRUS then King of Cyprus, at Aſophus near the Jordan, with the Loſs of 30000 Men, and had been totally ruined if CLEOPATRA had not relieved him next Year from Egypt.	3900	104	432	355	209	40
In his 10th Year, Grypus being dead, his Son SELEUCUS King of Syria began to reign, and next Year JANNÆUS was pelted at the Altar with Citrons by the Phariſees in the Feaſt of Tabernacles, calling him Slave, harping on the old falſe Story of JONN Hyrcanus's Mother being a Slave at firſt; for which JANNÆUS fell upon them with his Soldiers, and ſlew 6000 of them.	3908	96	440	363	217	48
In his 12th Year JANNÆUS made the People of Gilead and Moab his Tributaries.	3910	94	442	365	219	50
In his 14th Year PHILIP the Son of Grypus began to reign in Syria, and JANNÆUS loſt all his Army at the Genneſareth, fighting againſt Obedas an Arabian King.	3912	92	444	367	221	52
In his 15th Year the Civil Wars of the JEWS began, that laſted 6 Years.	3913	91	445	368	222	53

In his 17th Year the firſt Mithridatic War began.	3915	89	447	370	224	55
In his 19th Year JANNÆUS totally routed his rebellious Subjects, and In his 20th Year He crucified 800 of them at once, at Jeruſalem, in one Day; ſlaying their Wives and Children before their Eyes, while They hung bleeding on the Croſs; and while he with his Wives and Concubines at a Banquet beheld the horrid Scene.	3918	86	450	373	227	58
In his 24th Year JANNÆUS having ſettled his Kingdom, and much inlarged it beyond the Jordan, after three Years, returned to Jeruſalem in Triumph:	3922	82	454	377	231	62
and after many Years conſtant Wars foreign and civil, he enjoy'd profound Peace, turned luxurious, catched a Quartan Ague that held him three Years till he died of it, in the 5th Year of TIGRANES King of Syria.	3925	79	457	380	234	65
Leaving two Sons, 1. Hyrcanus. 2. Ariſtobulus. But leaving the Government in the Hands of their Mother and his Wife, 7. ALEXANDRA the worthy Queen, who forthwith made her eldeſt Son the High Prieſt, viz. HYRCANUS II. the ſixth High Prieſt of this Race. She began to reign, and He to officiate in the 6th Year of TIGRANES King of Syria; when Sylla the Dictator died, and Cicero ſailed from Athens into Aſia, in queſt of Rhetoric. She reign'd in Peace by pleaſing the Phariſees.	3926	78	458	381	235	66	—	9	—	3934
In her 4th Year the Third Mithridatic War began.	3929	75	461	384	238	69
In her 6th Year LUCULLUS the wiſe Hero, beat King MITHRIDATES without a Battel.	3931	73	463	386	240	71
In her 7th Year She and her Son Hyrcanus the High Prieſt, celebrated the XXVIII Year of JUBILEE at Jeruſalem.	3932	72	464	387	241	72
In her 9th and laſt Year TIGRANES captivated Queen SELENE at Ptolemais, and ſoon after put her to Death. ALEXANDRA ſent him Preſents; and if the Succeſs of the Roman Arms had not called him home, He had conquer'd all Paleſtine; and a little before the March of LUCULLUS againſt him, ſhe died aged 73.	3934	70	466	389	243	74
HYRCANUS reign'd for three Months; till ejected or deprived by his Brother 8. ARISTOBULUS II. who began to reign and officiate the Year that LUCULLUS with 11000 Romans defeated King TIGRANES with 360000 Men, and took in Tigranocerta his new Capital.	3935	69	467	390	244	75	—	6	—	3940
In his 2d Year LUCULLUS gained another glorious Victory over TIGRANES.	3936	68	468	391	245	76
In his 4th Year POMPEY came into Aſia, and took the Command from Lucullus, when TIGRANES ſubmitted to POMPEY, who made Syria a Roman Province. And here ends the Era of Seleucus.	3938	66	470	393	247	77
In his 5th Year PTOLEMY Auletes King of Egypt began to reign.	3939	65	471	394	—	78
In his 6th Year POMPEY heard the Controverſy of Hyrcanus and Ariſtobulus: and MITHRIDATES the Great, King of Pontus, ſlew himſelf. See the Chronology.	3940	64	472	395	—	79
The JEWS now ſubject to the Romans.
In his 7th Year, which is alſo reckon'd the firſt Year of HYRCANUS's Reign, POMPEY marched into Judea, made Ariſtobulus and his two Sons his Priſoners, took in Jeruſalem and the Temple, enter'd into the Holy of Holies, but took nothing thence; and having repaired the Temple, and reſtored the divine Service in it as formerly, and pulled down the Walls of Jeruſalem, He brought the Jews again under the Yoke of the Gentiles, after They had been Independent full 79 Years, viz. from the firſt Year of SIMON. And Ariſtobulus being depoſed 9. HYRCANUS II. his Brother was by POMPEY reſtored to the Throne and High Prieſthood, as a Tributary of Rome, tho' without a Diadem, nor extending his Borders beyond Old Judea; for POMPEY added the reſt of the Almonaean Kingdom to the New Province of Syria, the ſame Year that AUGUSTUS CÆSAR was born.	3941	63	473	396	—	—	—	24	—	3964
In his 3d Year POMPEY made his pompous Triumph at Rome, when, among others, ARISTOBULUS II. and his Son Antigonus were led before him.	3943	61	475	398	—
In his 4th Year Diodorus Siculus the Hiſtorian flouriſhed, and JULIUS CÆSAR, POMPEY, and CRASSUS made a Triumvirate.	3944	60	476	399
In his 5th Year JULIUS CÆSAR was firſt made Conſul.	3945	59	477	400
In his 6th Year CATO conquer'd Cyprus.	3946	58	478	401
In his 7th Year Alexander the eldeſt Son of ARISTOBULUS II. who had made his Eſcape from POMPEY in his Way to Rome, now raiſed 10000 Foot, and 1500 Horſe in Judea, and ſeized many Places, till Gabinius and his Lieutenant Mark Antony reduced him, and gave him Peace upon begging Pardon and delivering up his Forts.	3947	57	479	402
In the ſame Year GABINIUS reduced the Civil Government of Judea into an Ariſtocracy. See Page 188. Towards the End of this Year, ARISTOBULUS II. and his Son Antigonus eſcaped from Rome, but were catched in Judea by Mark Antony, and ſent back

In his 9th Year Alexander the Son of Ariſtobulus raiſed 30000 Men, and fought Gabinius in Judea on his Return from Egypt: but Gabinius routed him, and ſlew 10000 of his Men.	3949	55	481	404
In his 10th Year Craſſus in his March againſt the Parthians, robbed the Temple of Jeruſalem of a Bar of Gold and 10000 Talents: but was next Year ſlain at Charrae.	3950	54	482	405
In his 12th Year Caſſius deſtroy'd all the Friends of Ariſtobulus, near the Lake of Genneſareth, and reduced Alexander his Son to Terms of Peace.	3952	52	484	407
In his 13th Year Auletes being dead, Cleopatra his lovely Daughter, Queen of Egypt began to reign.	3953	51	485	408
In his 14th Year Julius Cæsar croſſed the Rubicon, and began the Roman civil Wars.	3954	50	486	409
In his 15th Year Cæsar releaſed Ariſtobulus II. at Rome, and ſent him with two Legions to oppoſe Pompey; but on his Way He was poiſon'd by Pompey's Party: and Metellus Scipio, Pompey's Father in Law, Pro Conſul of Syria, brought Alexander the Son of Ariſtobulus to a formal Trial at Antioch, and cut off his Head with an Axe.	3955	49	487	410
In his 16th Year Cæsar defeated Pompey in the Battel of Pharſalia.	3956	48	488	411
In his 17th Year Cæsar on his Return from Egypt thro' Paleſtine, rejected the Remonſtrances of Antigonus the Son of Ariſtobulus II. aboliſhed the Ariſtocracy made by Gabinius, decreed the High Prieſthood and the Principality of Judea to Hyrcanus II. and his Heirs, and appointed under him Antipater the Idumæan to be Procurator of Judea, who had by his Wife Cyprus four Sons, viz. 1. Phaſaelus. 2. Herod. 3. Joſeph. 4. Pheroras, and a Daughter Salome. Antipater ſettled the Civil Government of Judea, exactly as before the Innovations of Gabinius, appointed his eldeſt Son Phaſael Governor of Jeruſalem, and his ſecond Son Herod Governor of Galilee, who ſoon ſignalized himſelf in ſuppreſſing the free Booters of Galilee, deſpiſed the Authority of the Sanhedrim, and got to be Governor of Cœle-Syria.	3957	47	489	412
In his 18th Year Cæsar made his famous Triumph at Rome four Days, and as High Prieſt of Rome he reformed the Roman Calendar.	3958	46	490	413
In his 20th Year Cæsar, at the Requeſt which Hyrcanus ſent to Rome, obtained a Decree of the Senate for the repairing of the Walls of Jeruſalem, which Antipater forthwith executed, after They had been pulled down by Pompey 20 Years ago. This Year Cæsar was murdered at the Foot of Pompey's Statue.	3960	44	492	415
In his 21ſt Year Malichus the eminent Jew poiſon'd Antipater the Idumæan, tho' Antipater had twice ſaved him from being put to Death by Caſſius and Murcus: but Caſſius gave Herod Leave to revenge his Father's Death, who ſlew Malichus at Tyre.	3961	43	493	416
In his 22d Year Brutus and Caſſius were beaten in the Battel of Philippi, by Octavianus and Mark Antony. Mean while The Faction of Malichus at Jeruſalem, roſe in Arms to revenge his Death, and got Hyrcanus in their Intereſt; but Phaſael defeated them, and the Sons of Antipater were reconciled to Hyrcanus by a Propoſal of Marriage between Herod and Mariamne. The ſuppreſſed Party of the Jews gather'd next under Antigonus the ſurviving Son of Ariſtobulus II. but Herod came into Judea, beat them out of the Field, and returned to Jeruſalem in Triumph.	3962	42	494	417
In his 23d Year Antony now came to Syria, rejected the Remonſtrances of the Jews againſt Phaſael and Herod, for the good Offices of their Father Antipater, and at the Requeſt of Hyrcanus, Antony reſtored to the Jews the Lands that Caſſius had taken from them, and ſet free the Jewiſh Slaves whom Caſſius had ſold; and made Phaſael and Herod both Tetrarchs.	3963	41	495	418
In his 24th Year Lyſianias Prince of Chalcis, whoſe Father Ptolemy, lately deceas'd, had married Alexandra the Siſter of Antigonus, got Pacorus the Son of Orodes King of Parthia, (who with an Army had conquer'd Syria, and now invaded Judea) to ſend a Party to join Antigonus, who was to give Pacorus 1000 Talents, and 500 Jewiſh Virgins, when reſtored to his Father's Throne. Antigonus got his Army into Jeruſalem, where a civil War enſued; but being worſted, He took Shelter in the Temple, while Phaſael and Herod maintained the Palace. But Antigonus propoſed to refer their Differences to Pacorus's Cupbearer, lying without the Walls with a few hundred Men, who being admitted within the City, perſuaded Phaſael (contrary to Herod's Advice) to go to Barzapharnes the Governor of Syria under Pacorus, promiſing that he would ſettle all Matters to his Content, and took Hyrcanus with him. Barzapharnes uſed them kindly, till the Time he thought the Cupbearer was returned to Jeruſalem, and had ſeized Herod; and then he put them both in Chains. But Herod having good Intelligence, and fearing the worſt, got off with all his Family and Effects before the Cupbearer returned, bravely fought his Way to Maſſada, a ſtrong Fort on the Lake Aſphaltites, where he lodged his Women, and not finding Shelter in Petræa, he travelled down to Egypt, where he heard of Phaſael's Death: for mean while the Parthians having plundered Jeruſalem, ſet upon the Throne, and in the Office of High Prieſt. 10. Antigonus the Son of Ariſtobulus II. and They delivered up to him Hyrcanus and Phaſael in Chains. Phaſael knowing his Death was determined, prevented the Executioner	3964	40	496	419

Executioner by beating out his Brains againſt the Priſon Wall; but ANTIGONUS only cut off the Ears of Hyrcanus, to render him for ever incapable of officiating as High Prieſt; and then returned him to the Parthians, who carried him into the Eaſt with them, when forced out of Syria by the brave Ventidius this ſame very Year, ANTIGONUS reign'd and officiated.

Mean while Herod ſailed from Alexandria to Rome, where he acquainted ANTONY with what had happened in Judea, and requeſted him to dethrone ANTIGONUS, and inthrone ARISTOBULUS the Brother of Mariamne and Son of Alexander, the eldeſt Son of ARISTOBULUS II. and to make him Procurator under young ARISTOBULUS, as his Father Antipater had been under HYRCANUS.

HEROD created King of Judea at Rome.

But ANTONY did more for him than he expected, for he got OCTAVIANUS to aſſiſt him, in recommending him to the Senate, who unanimouſly voted him KING of Judea, and declared Antigonus an Enemy to Rome. HEROD was conducted to the Capitol by the Conſuls and Magiſtrates, between OCTAVIANUS and ANTONY, where the Decree was lodged among the publick Records, and he was ſolemnly inaugurated according to the Roman Uſage; when All was over at Rome in Seven Days, this new created King returned to his Ships at Brunduſium, and landed at Ptolemais in Phenicia, about three Months after he fled from Jeruſalem.

HEROD ſoon raiſed an Army, and by the Help of Ventidius, recovered Galilee and Joppa, relieved Maſſada, took in Beſſa, appeared before the Walls of Jeruſalem, and ſacked Jericho.

In the 2ᵈ Year of ANTIGONUS, the Antigonians ſlew Joſeph the Brother of HEROD, near Jericho, in Battel; and in another Battel wounded HEROD: but in a third Battel HEROD gave the Antigonians a total Rout, and ſlew Pappus their General.

In his 3ᵈ Year HEROD and Soſius the Roman General, laid Siege to Jeruſalem, with eleven Legions, and 6000 Horſe, beſides the Syrian Auxiliaries; and after ſix Months deſperate Reſiſtance, the City was taken on the Calends or firſt Day of January, in the Year of the Julian Period 4677. See Page 196. When Antigonus ſurrendered himſelf to Soſius, who ſent him in Chains to ANTONY at Antioch.

Here ends the Reign of the ASMONÆANS, that had laſted from the Beginning of the Government of JUDAS Maccabaeus, 129 Years.

The only Remains of that Family was old HYRCANUS, and the two Children of Alexander the Son of ARISTOBULUS II. viz. Ariſtobulus and his Siſter Mariamne, all three cut off by King HEROD afterwards. See the Genealogical Table of the ASMONÆANS.

King Herod, having by the Help of Soſius the Lieutenant of Mark Antony, taken Jeruſalem the Beginning of this Year of the Julian Period, the Romans filled the City with Blood, and would have laid it waſte, if Herod had not redeem'd it by a Sum of Money given to Soſius and his Army. Among the other pious Spectators of theſe doleful Times, were Zachariah the Prieſt, and his Wife Elizabeth, (deſcended from the Relicts of David's Royal Race, Heli and Joseph) and Anna the Propheteſs, and righteous Simeon who had been aſſured from God, that he ſhould not die before He ſaw the promiſed Messiah.

As for Antigonus, He proſtrated himſelf at the Feet of Soſius for Compaſſion, who ſcorned him for his abject Submiſſion, and ſent him Priſoner to Antony now come to Antioch. Antony would have reſerved him for his Triumph, but that the Jews would not own Herod for their King while Antigonus was alive; and Herod, by a great Sum bribed Antony to arraign this laſt Aſmonaean Prince before a Court, which formally condemned him to be tied to a Stake or Croſs, to be whipt ſeverely by the Lictor's Rods, and to have his Head ſtruck off with an Axe, the firſt King ſo executed by the Romans.

And now the Sceptre is departed from Judah, and the Law giver from between his Feet, when the Romans gave them Laws, and put the Sword and Sceptre in the Hands of an Idumæan, King Herod.

Herod put to Death all the Counſellors of the great Sanhedrim, except Pollio and Sameas, becauſe They had always adviſed the Jews to ſurrender and ſubmit to him.

The Jewiſh Writers call them Hillel and Shammai, the moſt eminent of their Miſhnical Doctors, from Simon the juſt to Rabbi Judah Hackadoſh; thus Simon the juſt deliver'd their Traditions to 1. Antigonus of Socho: and He to 2. Joſes Ben Joezer, and Joſeph Ben Jochanan: and Theſe to 3. Joſhuah Ben Perachiah, and Nathan the Arbelite: and Theſe to 4. Simeon Ben Shetach, and Jehudah Ben Tabbai: and Theſe to 5. Shemaiah and Abtalion: and Theſe to 6. Hillel and Shammai. This Pollio or Hillel became the Naſi or Preſident of the new Sanhedrim, and Sameas or Shammai the Vice Preſident, and They were the chief Teachers in their Schools of Divinity. Hillel was a Benjamite, but by his Mother deſcended from Shephatiah the Son of King David, by Abital his Wife, and was the moſt eminent Preſident ſince Simon the juſt; He bred up 1000 Schollars, of whom the moſt eminent was Jonathan Ben Uziel, the Author of the Chaldee Paraphraſe upon the Prophets, whoſe Contemporary Onkelos made a Caldee Paraphraſe upon the Law. Hillel was born in Babylonia, and at 40 Years old came to Jeruſalem, and after 40 Years more became the Preſident, in which Office he lived 40 Years more, and was very happy in his Offspring, for They held that Office from Father to Son to the Tenth Generation, thus, 1. 3. Gamaliel I. the Preſident of the Sanhedrim, when the Apoſtles were called before the Council, and was the Maſter of St. Paul, who lived till the 18th Year before the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem.
4. Simeon II. the Preſident, who periſhed in the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem.
5. Gamaliel II. the Preſident, after the Diſperſion of the Jews from Jeruſalem through the Earth.

PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
HEROD the Great King of Judea.

ORODES King of Parthia had turned melancholly for the Loſs of his brave Son Pacorus, ſlain in Battel by VENTIDIUS, See Page 195. and when recover'd, He fell into a Dropſy, when he began to be perplexed, which of his other 30 Sons He ſhould name his Succeſſor; but unhappily determin'd himſelf by Seniority, appointing PHRAHATES the eldeſt and the worſt: for firſt when he got Power, he put to Death thoſe of his Brothers that were born by a Daughter of ANTIOCHUS Euſebes King of Damaſcus; and finding his Father offended, he next gave him Hemlock; and finding that inſtead of poiſoning him, the Hemlock had cured ORODES of his Dropſy, the Parricide cauſed his Royal Father to be ſtifled to Death a Bed; and ſo this wicked Son

15. Arſaces PHRAHATES IV. began to reign alone, during near 41 Years, when He put to Death all the reſt of his Brothers, and many of the Nobility, nay and his own Son a fine Youth, fearing the inraged Nobility would ſet him upon the Throne: upon which many of them fled into Syria, particularly Monaeſes, who prompted ANTONY to War againſt Phrahates.

HEROD, upon the Death of Antigonus, ſent to Babylonia for Ananelus an obſcure Prieſt, but of the Pontifical Family, and made him High Prieſt, becauſe his Meanneſs would keep him from interfeering with the Regal Power.

Yet the Parthian Tyrant ſoon releas'd HYRCANUS from his Chains at Seleucia on the Euphrates, and allow'd him to live at full Liberty among the Jews in thoſe Parts, who were more numerous than in Judea, who honour'd him as their King and High Prieſt, and ſupply'd him with a Royal Maintenance. Mean while Canidius, ANTONY's General having vanquiſh'd the Albanians and Iberians, and carried Victory with him as far as Mount Caucaſus, made his Maſter's Name terrible; while he was wholly inſlaved to CLEOPATRA, now again with him in Syria, and who influenced him to put many noble Syrians to Death, that ſhe might get their forfeited Eſtates; particularly Lyſanias the Son of PTOLEMY Mennæus Prince of Chalcis and Ituræa, on a falſe Accuſation.

ANTONY, by the Help of Monæſes was framing the Parthian War, till Monæſes was recalled by PHRAHATES: and when ANTONY with 100000 Men could not force the Paſſes over the Euphrates into Parthia, He marched to the left over Mount Taurus into Armenia, by Advice of ARTABAZES King of Armenia, who had quarrelled with ARTAVASDES King of Media, and got ANTONY to invade Media in his Way to Parthia: yet tho' Artabazes did not conduct him the ſhorteſt Way, but over the Mountains and far about, ANTONY would not go into Winter Quarters on the Borders of Media, as he ſhould have done; but leaving Statianus with 10000 Men to guard his heavy Carriages, ANTONY marched forward with his main Army 300 Miles, and laid Siege to Phraata (or Praeſpa) the Capital of Media, tho' without his Train of Artillery: which the Median and Parthian Army perceiving, marched by him, and deſtroy'd Statianus with all his Men and Carriages. Then They harraſſed him till he was forced to raiſe the Siege, and march back with great Difficulty and continual Dangers; yet he repulſed the Enemy 18 Times in a March of 300 Miles in 27 Days, and made a glorious Retreat to the Borders of Armenia, tho' with great Loſs of Men, by the Hardſhips of that Winter Campaign, more than by the Sword of the Enemy: nor would He go into Winter Quarters there, but marched over the Snow a long Way to Antioch, where he brought back not above a Third Part of his Army, having loſt twice as many Men as CRASSUS, tho' the War was not ſo diſgraceful. Mean while OCTAVIANUS and Lepidus had reduced Sicily, and deprived Sextus Pompeius of all but ſeven Ships, aboard which he fled into Aſia; and Lepidus having arrogated the Succeſs of that War to himſelf, would have ſeized on Sicily: but OCTAVIANUS having influenced the Army to deſert Lepidus, forced him to beg his Life upon Condition of retiring to Circei, a ſmall Maritime Town of the Latins, where he ended his Days as a private Gentleman. Upon which the Roman Empire was divided between ANTONY, who had all Eaſt of the Adriatick, and OCTAVIANUS, who had all Weſt of it.

CLEOPATRA came again to ANTONY at Leucecome near Sidon, and carried him with her down to Egypt, where They ſpent their Time after the old wicked Manner.

Ariſtobulus the Brother of Mariamne, being the Son of Alexander, the Son of King ARISTOBULUS II. his Mother Alexandra the Daughter of King HYRCANUS II. importuned CLEOPATRA and Dellius, one of Antony's Favourites, to prevail with King HEROD to depoſe Ananelus, and to make her Son the High Prieſt; and HEROD being alſo teaz'd by his beloved Wife Mariamne, the Siſter of the ſaid Ariſtobulus, at laſt, for Peace Sake, conſented to make ARISTOBULUS High Prieſt, tho' only 17 Years old. But HEROD finding that He and Alexandra had been privately invited by CLEOPATRA to viſit her in Egypt, with Deſign to get into ANTONY's Favour, in order to recover the Regal Authority, and were attempting to get thither by a Stratagem; diſcover'd and prevented it: yet ARISTOBULUS being a mighty handſome Youth, well becoming the Pontifical Robes, admired by all the People at the Feaſt of Tabernacles, and beloved as the only male Heir of the Aſmonaean Royal Race, the Tyrant HEROD decoy'd him to Jericho; and while bathing in a Fiſh-Pond with ſome of Herod's Attendants, They drown'd him there, as if done in Play or Sport. But tho' HEROD laboured to get it ſo believ'd, ſhed many Tears for him, and gave him a ſplendid Funeral; yet all People believ'd him a Mock Mourner, and the prime Cauſe of his Death.

HEROD had by fair Promiſes lately decoy'd HYRCANUS from Babylonia, who alſo long'd to be at home; but tho'
HEROD highly honour'd him, calling him Father, and giving him the chief Seat at Feaſts, yet would not reſtore him to the High Prieſthood, on Pretence that his Ears were cut off; and therefore made Ananelus High Prieſt again.
PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia having robbed ARTAVASDES King of Media, of his juſt Part of the Spoil taken laſt
Year from Statianus, the Mede ſent an Embaſſy to ANTONY offering to join him againſt the Parthians, who were alſo embroil'd with Commotions and Rebellions at home, cauſed by the cruel Tyranny of their King. But tho' ANTONY gladly accepted of the Offer, he had not Reſolution to leave CLEOPATRA till needs muſt, and ſo took not Occaſion by the Forelock; elſe He had ruin'd the Parthian Kingdom at once. Nay when He had come to Syria to prepare for his March againſt the Parthians, CLEOPATRA in Egypt hearing that his Wife Octavia was come to Athens in her Way to him, and fearing ſhe would regain her Husband's Love, feign'd herſelf ſick of Love to him, and ſent for him to cure her of that Languiſhment, pretending ſhe could not live without a Sight of him: upon which He fooliſhly return'd to Alexandria, laid aſide his Median Expedition, ſent Orders to Octavia to ſtay at Athens, and ſquander'd a whole Year in Adultery with CLEOPATRA, as formerly. Mean while Sextus Pompeius had liv'd quiet at Lesbus among the Mitylenians, till he heard of ANTONY's Baffle in Media; when Sextus paſſed over to the Continent of Aſia, raiſed a little Army, and made ſeveral deſperate Puſhes for the reſtoring of his Fortunes, till he was defeated and taken by Titius, one of ANTONY's Lieutenants, who put him to Death, contrary to Antony's Orders; for which Titius was abhorred by all the Romans. After this, none mention'd the Parties of Pompey and Caeſar, but of ANTONY and OCTAVIANUS.
Alexandra by Letters acquainted CLEOPATRA with the Murder of her Son, and CLEOPATRA prevail'd with ANTONY, now both come into Syria, to cite HEROD before him and anſwer to the Charge, who by fair Words and great Preſents mollify'd ANTONY, and defeated his Enemies. But ANTONY perceiving CLEOPATRA more wanted HEROD's Kingdom than any Thing elſe, gratify'd her Avarice by giving her Cœle-Syria inſtead of Judea. But if HEROD had been cut off by ANTONY, he had left the Kingdom to his Uncle Joſeph, whom he order'd, in that Caſe, to cut off Mariamne, that Antony might not enjoy her; which being imprudently told to Mariamne by Joſeph, ſhe and her Mother were very angry: and upon HEROD's Return in Grandeur, Salome his Siſter, and Wife of her Uncle Joſeph, for being deſpiſed by Mariamne, contrived her Ruin; and at firſt ſhe filled HEROD's Head with Jealouſy of Mariamne, as too familiar with Joſeph, which HEROD was ſoon convinced was falſe and groundleſs, begg'd her Pardon, and expreſſed extraordinary Love to her: but upon her intimating to him that he could not love her who had order'd her to be murder'd in caſe he ſhould die, HEROD's Jealouſy returned with Increaſe, was like to have ſtabb'd her, forthwith order'd Joſeph to be put to Death without an Hearing, and lockt up Alexandra in Chains, as the Spring of all Miſchief in his Family. Mean while CLEOPATRA being as covetous as luſtful, had obtain'd from ANTONY all Cyrene, Cyprus, Ituræa, Phenicia, and Cœle-Syria, with a great Part of Cilicia and Crete, and uſed all her Wiles to get HEROD's Kingdom, by having him cut off, and MALCHUS King of Arabia too: but tho' ANTONY would not obey her in This, He quieted her by giving her that Part of Malchus's Kingdom that lies next to Egypt, and the Balſam Gardens of Jericho from Herod's Kingdom.
ANTONY in his March to Armenia, took CLEOPATRA with him as far as the Euphrates; and in her Return ſhe came to Jeruſalem, where ſhe was very ſplendidly entertain'd by HEROD, with whom ſhe pretended to be in Love, but could not draw him into her Snare; nay it made him deteſt her more, and he would have cut her off, if he had not been afraid of Antony's Reſentments: therefore he convey'd her to her Borders, and went to give Orders for the fortifying of Maſſada, as a Place of Retreat. Mean while ANTONY having, by ſolemn Oaths of ſafe Conduct, treacherouſly decoy'd ARTABAZES King of Armenia into his Camp, forthwith clapt him in Chains. Upon which the Armenians crown'd his eldeſt Son ARTAXIAS, and raiſed an Army to revenge the Perfidy: but ANTONY beat their Army, drove ARTAXIAS into Parthia for Shelter, and reduced all Armenia, contracted a Marriage for Alexander, one of his Sons by Cleopatra, with the Daughter of ARTAVASDES King of Media; and leaving the Groſs of his Army in Armenia (by whoſe Help ARTAVASDES defeated PHRAHATES in a great Battel)
ANTONY return'd with the reſt, and enter'd Alexandria in a triumphal Chariot, cauſing the Prey of Armenia with King
ARTABAZES, his Wife and Children, and other Priſoners, all in Chains, to be carried and led before him as in Roman

PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
HEROD the Great King of Judea.

Triumphs, and as at Rome the Proceſſion ended at the Temple of Jupiter Capitolinus, ſo here it ended at the Perſon of CLEOPATRA, ſeated on a golden Throne, placed on a Scaffold overlaid with Silver: but the royal Priſoners ſcorn'd to kneel down to her, tho' preſſed to it.

A little after this, ANTONY feaſted the Alexandrians, and having called them into the Gymnaſium, He from a Throne and Scaffold, as above deſcribed, (and CLEOPATRA by him on another) harrangued them, and declared Caeſarion, the Son of Cleopatra by JULIUS CÆSAR, to be King of Egypt and Cyprus in Conjunction with his Mother: and having two Sons and a Daughter by Cleopatra, He gave to Alexander his eldeſt, all the Countries from the Euphrates to India, when They ſhould be conquer'd: to his Daughter Cleopatra (the twin of Alexander) he gave Cyrene and Lybia; and to his other Son Ptolemy Philadelphus he gave all the Countries from the Euphrates to the Helleſpont, and proclaimed each of them King of Kings, calling alſo CLEOPATRA Iſis, and himſelf Oſiris, or the Goddeſs and the God of Egypt; nay from this Time They both wore the Habits of Heathen Deities. Strange Madneſs in ſo great a Man!

ANTONY early in the Spring, marched againſt the Parthians as far as the Araxes; but he went no farther: for there he was well informed that OCTAVIANUS at Rome, had accuſed him in ſeveral Speeches, both to the Senate and the People, of all his ſcandalous, perfidious, unjuſt, and tyrannical Actions, of bringing a Diſgrace upon the Roman Name; particularly of his maletreating Octavia for the Sake of a covetous Whore, of declaring CLEOPATRA to have been lawfully married to JULIUS CÆSAR, and Caeſarion to be Julius's lawful Son in Oppoſition to him OCTAVIANUS, who claimed the Inheritance as the adopted Son; and of many other Particulars, to which ANTONY by his Letters and his Agents recriminated as faſt. But the true Cauſe of this Breach was, that neither of them could be ſatisfy'd with one Half of the Roman Conqueſts, each would have all, and ſo agreed to throw the Dye of War for it. Therefore ANTONY forthwith ſent Canidius with 16 Legions into Leſſer Aſia, and having renewed his League with the King of Media, marched after him, and join'd Canidius at Epheſus, and CLEOPATRA with him, whom his Friends adviſed to ſend back to Alexandria: but ſhe pleaded her furniſhing 20000 Talents for the War, as a Reaſon for her being preſent in it; tho' her own main Reaſon was her fear of ANTONY's being reconciled to Octavia upon the Concluſion of the War, whereby ſhe muſt loſe him. From Epheſus he ſailed to Samos, and then to Athens, where he ſpent his Time in pompous Luxury and Madneſs with CLEOPATRA; yet omitted not to make great Preparations by Sea and Land for the inſuing War; while OCTAVIANUS did the ſame, and both Parties apply'd to their Friends for Aſſiſtance.

Soſius and Aenobarbus, the Conſuls this Year, declared for ANTONY, and with ſeveral other Senators, left Rome, and repaired to him in Greece; and OCTAVIANUS made Proclamation, that all who pleaſed might freely go after them; whereby the City was rid of Antony's Party: upon which ANTONY, by Advice of his own Senate, declared War againſt OCTAVIANUS, and ſent a Bill of Divorce to Octavia: and if ANTONY had now marched towards Italy he had gain'd his Point; for OCTAVIANUS was not prepared to encounter him; but he indulged his Pleaſures with CLEOPATRA at Samos and Athens, and delay'd to begin Action till next Year, which prov'd his Ruin: for many of his Friends deſerted him, particularly Plancus and Titius, who being privy to all his Secrets, diſcloſed them to Octavianus, and inform'd him that ANTONY's mad Will was lodged with the Veſtal Virgins at Rome, in Favour of CLEOPATRA and her Children, to the Damage and Diſhonour of the Roman State; which Will OCTAVIANUS ſeiz'd, and read it to the People, whereby all their Hearts were alienated from ANTONY. Mean while

HEROD having prepared an Army, ANTONY ſent to him to march againſt Malchus King of Petræa, for refuſing to pay his Tribute to CLEOPATRA, and obtain'd a great Victory over him; but when They fought next, at Cona in Cœle-Syria, Athenion CLEOPATRA's General, out of Hatred to HEROD, join'd MALCHUS in the Battel, and overthrew HEROD, who narrowly eſcap'd. Mean while PHRAHATES laid hold of the Opportunity of the Romans civil Wars to invade Media, reſtored ARTAXIAS to his Kingdom of Armenia, and ſeized Media from King ARTAVASDES.

OCTAVIANUS declared War, not againſt ANTONY, for politic Reaſons, but againſt CLEOPATRA; rendezvouſed his Army at Brunduſium, of 80000 Foot, and 12000 Horſe, and his Fleet of 250 Ships of War; while ANTONY advanced to Corcyra, on the other Side of the Adriatic, with an Army of 100000 Foot, and 12000 Horſe, and 500 Ships of War: but the Winter prevented Action: only in the Spring M. Agrippa, ſent by OCTAVIANUS with a Squadron, ſeized many Ships coming loaded from Egypt and Aſia, with Proviſions for Antony.

Antony and Octavianus, } Partners of the Roman Power.

Phrahates IV. King of Parthia.
Cleopatra Queen of Egypt.
Herod the Great King of Judea.

Octavianus tranſported his Army from Brunduſium to Epirus; and many of Antony's Friends deſerting him, becauſe of Cleopatra, Antony diſtruſtful of the reſt, reſolved to come to a ſpeedy Deciſion of the grand Cauſe of univerſal Empire; and Octavianus being as eager for it, the Battel of Actium ſoon happened. It is a ſmall City on the South Side of the Ambracian Gulph in Epirus, where Antony incamped, and Octavianus incamped on the other Side, and their Fleets in the Mouth of the Gulph were ſtation'd near them, and within a Mile of each other. Canidius at the Head of Antony's Army wiſely adviſed him to march into Thrace and Macedon, and try his Fortune in a Land Battel; but Cleopatra prevailed with him to try it in a Sea Fight. Accordingly on the 2^{d} of September the Fleets engaged, and Victory was dubious for ſome Time, till Cleopatra affrighted, fled out of the Battel with 60 tall Ships of War to Peloponneſus, and Antony giving all for loſt, fled in a Ship after her, leaving the Victory compleat for Octavianus.

Antony came up with Cleopatra, and with her ſailed to Tanærus very melancholy and ſurly, yet in three Days ſhe conquer'd him again, and they cohabited as before. From thence Antony ſent to Canidius to lead the Army thro' Macedon into Aſia, where he deſign'd to renew the War: Canidius marched ſeven Days, till overtaken by Octavianus, he fled by Night to Antony; and next Day the Army went all over to Octavianus, except the Auxiliaries, who went home. Mean while

The great Earthquake happening in Judea, that deſtroyed about 30000 People in the Ruins of their Houſes, Herod ſent to the Arabians for Peace; but They thinking him quite ruin'd, ſlew his Ambaſſadors, and invaded the Land. Upon which Herod marched his Army (who had not ſuffered by the Earthquake, as the Arabians thought) over the Jordan, and having deſtroy'd the Arabians there, forced them in their Turn to ſue for Peace, and Herod return'd in Triumph to Jeruſalem.

From Tanærus Cleopatra ſailed to Alexandria, and got in by putting Crowns on her Ships, as if ſhe had returned with Victory, and forthwith put to Death thoſe of the Nobility that ſhe diſtruſted: but Antony ſailed to Lybia, where he found Scarpus his General, and all his Army had revolted to Octavianus's Side: upon which he was difficultly kept from ſlaying himſelf.

Then He came to Alexandria, where he found Cleopatra engaged in ordering her Ships to be carried over the Iſthmus of 70 Miles into the Red Sea, to join her Fleet there, aboard which ſhe would put her Treaſure, and ſail to ſome new Habitation, rather than fall into the Hands of Octavianus: but the Arabians at the Inſtigation of Quintus Didius, (who had ſeized Syria for Octavianus) burnt her Ships in the Red Sea, and broke her Deſign. Antony went not to the Palace, but ſhut himſelf up in a private Houſe near the Pharos full of Melancholy; but Cleopatra ſoon decoy'd him to the Palace, where They revelled after the old mad Rate. Mean while Octavianus, having ſettled the Affairs of Greece and Leſſer Aſia, repair'd to Samos and winter'd there, but not long: for in the Midſt of Winter He was forced to ſail into Italy, to pacify his Soldiers that were going to mutiny for want of Pay; and in 30 Days he returned, before Antony and Cleopatra knew of his Departure, and prepared for an early Expedition againſt them.

Herod King of Judea prepared to meet Octavianus on the Way, in order to be reconciled to him: for Herod had faithfully adher'd to Antony, to whom, when returned to Egypt, Herod ſent a ſpecial Meſſenger, adviſing Antony to kill Cleopatra, and with her Treaſure to raiſe a new Army, promiſing his faithful Aſſiſtance. But when Herod found his Advice neglected, and ſaw Antony on the Brink of final Deſtruction, he lodged his charming Mariamne, and Alexandra her Mother in the Caſtle of Alexandrium, with a ſtrong Garriſon under Joſeph and Sohemus, ſent his Mother, Siſter, and Kindred to the ſtrong Fort of Maſſada; and that he and his Family might have no Competitor, He put to Death good old Hyrcanus II. aged 80 Years, for a ſham Plot of correſponding with the Arabians; then committed the Government to his Brother Pheroras, ordering him to aſſume the Royal Dignity, in caſe he miſcarried in his Application to Octavianus, and to put Mariamne and her Mother to Death; and then went in Magnificence to meet Octavianus at Rhodes; where laying aſide his Diadem, yet otherwiſe royally apparelled, he frankly owned all he had done for "his good Friend Antony; and "now Antony was loſt, He offer'd the ſame Friendſhip and Fidelity to Octavianus, if he would "accept of it. This frank and heroical Openneſs ſo pleaſed Octavianus, that he as frankly accepted of Herod's Offer, allowed him to put on his Diadem, and confirmed him in the Kingdom: and after They had concerted Meaſures for the Deſcent upon Egypt, Herod return'd with great Joy; but it was much dampt by the Grief and Melancholy of his beloved Mariamne, to whom Sohemus had blab'd Herod's Deſign of having her cut off if he had miſcarried; which made her ſhew an Averſion to Herod.

The End of the Grecian Monarchy.

OCTAVIANUS from Rhodes paſſed thro' Leſſer ASIA, Syria, and Phenicia down to Egypt: HEROD met him at Ptolemais, preſented him with 800 Talents, and furniſh'd his Army with Neceſſaries till They arrived in Egypt. Mean while

ANTONY and CLEOPATRA ſent frequent Ambaſſadors to OCTAVIANUS to ſue for Peace on very low Terms, who ſent no Anſwer to ANTONY, but gave good Hopes to CLEOPATRA, deſigning to have her Perſon to be led in his Triumph; and tho' his Agents could not perſuade her to kill ANTONY, They prevailed with her to betray him in every Step, till ſhe drove him to kill himſelf. For while he went to ſecure Peritonium the Weſt Key of Egypt, ſhe order'd Peluſium the Eaſt Key to ſurrender to the Romans without one Blow; and ANTONY finding Cornelius Gallus from Lybia, had ſeiz'd Peritonium for OCTAVIANUS, was forced to return with the Loſs of his Squadron of Ships; and hearing the Romans had got Peluſium, ANTONY haſtned to defend Alexandria, routed the Enemies Horſe at firſt, till the Roman Foot advanced, who drove him back into the City with great Loſs, and blokaded him. Next Morning early, ANTONY went to the Harbour to get the Fleet ready, and to ſail to Spain, where he might renew the War: but before his Face, his Fleet drew up and join'd the Roman Fleet; and when he return'd from the Harbour into the City, found all his Forces, Horſe and Foot, had alſo deſerted; and perceived too late that all theſe Misfortunes were owing to the Treachery of CLEOPATRA, who being juſtly afraid of him, fled to a ſtrong Tower ſhe had built near the Temple of Iſis, as her ſpecial Treaſury, and being there ſhut up with a Eunuch and two Maids, cauſed it to be reported that ſhe was dead there. Upon the News of her Death ANTONY fell upon his Sword, and gave himſelf a mortal Wound; but ſoon hearing that CLEOPATRA was ſtill alive, he got himſelf carried to her Tower, where ſhe and her two Maids drew him up by Ropes, and ſo the Great MARK Antony died in the Arms of CLEOPATRA his Beloved, on the firſt of Auguſt, Eleven Months after the Battel of Actium. As for Madam, ſhe ſoon falling into the Power of OCTAVIANUS, and hearing he was in a few Days to ſend her to Rome to be led in his Triumph, ſhe got an Aſp to bite her, and died lethargic, about the 29th of Auguſt, aged 39 Years; a Woman of great Parts, could ſpeak many Languages, very beautiful, very artful; but amorous, avaritious, proud and falſe; who firſt and laſt made the valiant and wiſe ANTONY weak and fooliſh enough, to the Ruin of them both.

Here ends the Third or Grecian MONARCHY, which had laſted from the founding of Alexandria 302 Years, according to Ptolemy's Canon.
Or from the Death of DARIUS Codomannus, when ALEXANDER the Great reign'd alone, It had laſted 300 Years.
And This laſt Branch of the GRECIAN Monarchy, the Kingdom of Egypt, had laſted
From the Death of ALEXANDER the Great, when it was founded by PTOLEMY Soter the Son of Lagus,
To the Death of this Queen CLEOPATRA in a lineal Succeſſion, during ———— 294 Years, according to the Philippic Period.
When It was made a Roman Province, and ſo continued for 670 Years, till taken from the Romans by the Saracens, Anno Domini 641.
And this Year is alſo the firſt of Auguſtus, or of the Roman EMPIRE.

TABLE XL.

A CHRONOLOGICAL Catalogue of the Grecian KINGS of Egypt, or the PTOLEMEYS, till Egypt became a Roman Province.

	Began to reign.					reign'd Years.	Died A. M.
	A. M.	Before Chriſt.	Philippic Period.	Era of Nabonaſſar.
Upon the Death of ALEXANDER the Great, the Grecian EMPIRE was partition'd among his Generals. And thus, 1. PTOLEMY Soter the Son of Lagus ſeiz'd the Government of Egypt, and ruled there from the Death of ALEXANDER 39 Years: ſo that this brave and wiſe Soldier had ROYAL Power before he wore a Crown 19 Years, beginning at ALEXANDER's Death.	3681	323	1	425	——	19
But according to the Chronological Canon of PTOLEMY the Aſtronomer, he only began to reign, when, after the Example of ANTIGONUS the new King of Aſia, He and SELEUCUS, and CASSANDER and LYSIMACHUS, began to wear a Diadem and Royal Robes, viz.	3700	304	20	444	——	20	3721
Soter married firſt Euridice the Siſter of CASSANDER King of Macedon, who bore to him 1. Ptolemy Ceraunus, cut to Pieces by the Gauls, and 2. Meleager expelled from Macedon. See Page 148. 3. Lyſandra, Wife of Agathocles, the Son of LYSIMACHUS King of Thrace. 4. Ptolemaida, the laſt Wife of DEMETRIUS King of Macedon.
Soter married next Berenice, the Widow of one Philip a noble Macedonian, (to whom ſhe had born MAGAS, afterwards King of Lybia, and Antigone the Wife of PYRRHUS King of Epirus) and who bore to Soter 1. Ptolemy Philadelphus. 2. Arſinoe Wife firſt of LYSIMACHUS King of Thrace, and next, the Wife of Philadelphus. PTOLEMY Soter aged 84 Years died in Peace, the beſt of all his Race.
2. PTOLEMY Philadelphus was made Partner in the Throne near two Years before Soter's Death; married firſt Arſinoe, Daughter of LYSIMACHUS King of Thrace, who bore to him 1. Ptolemy Euergetes. 2. Lyſimachus, afterwards put to Death by his Brother Euergetes without Iſſue. 3. Berenice Wife of ANTIOCHUS Theos King of Syria: but Philadelphus divorced his firſt Wife, and Married next his own Siſter Arſinoe, the Widow of the ſame LYSIMACHUS; and tho' ſhe bore to him no Child, he was ſo inamour'd with her Beauty and Wiſdom, that, for her Death, He died of Grief, aged 63 Years. Page 150.	3720	284	40	464	——	38	3757
3. PTOLEMY Euergetes I. married Berenice the Daughter of MAGAS King of Lybia, who bore to him 1. Ptolemy Philopator. 2. Magas, put to Death by his Brother without Iſſue. 3. Arſinoe. They ſay he was murder'd by his Son and Succeſſor, viz.	3758	246	78	502	——	25	3782
4. PTOLEMY Philopator, who having alſo murder'd his Mother and only Brother, marry'd Arſinoe his only Siſter, whom he put to Death for grumbling at his Whoredom and Sodomy; and he died, aged 37 Years, leaving an only Son, viz. Page 154.	3783	221	103	527	——	17	3799
5. PTOLEMY Epiphanes began to reign at 5 Years old, under the Guardianſhip of the Roman Senate, married Cleopatra Daughter of ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria, who bore to him 1. Philometor. 2. Phyſcon. 3. Cleopatra, the Wife of both her Brothers, He was poiſon'd. Page 157.	3800	204	120	544	——	24	3823
6. PTOLEMY Philometor began to reign at 6 Years old, under the Guardianſhip of his Mother Cleopatra, who died in the 7th Year of her Son's Reign. In his 12th Year the Alexandrians made his Brother King, but by the Mediation of Cleopatra their Siſter,	3824	180	144	568	——	11
PTOLEMY Phyſcon, and his Brother PHILOMETOR reign'd as Partners (till PHYSCON expell'd Philometor) during ſeven Years, beginning	3835	169	155	579	——	07
But the Romans, as Arbitrators, appointed { PHILOMETOR to reign over Egypt and Cyprus, and PHYSCON over Cyrene and Lybia. } where each reign'd 17 Years.	3842	162	162	586	——	17	3858
Till PHILOMETOR died of his Wounds receiv'd in Battel. Page 166. And the whole 35 Years are aſſign'd to him in Ptolemy's Canon. PHILOMETOR married his own Siſter Cleopatra, who bore to him 1. Ptolemy, murder'd by his Uncle PHYSCON. 2. Cleopatra the Wife of three Kings of Syria, firſt of ALEXANDER Balas, next of DEMETRIUS Nicator, and then of ANTIOCHUS Sidetes. She died of the Poiſon ſhe had prepared for her Son King Grypus, who made her drink it. Page 170. 3. Another Cleopatra the Third Wife of her Uncle PHYSCON.
PHYSCON had a Wife and a Son while King of Lybia, but ſhe died, and he cut off his Son by her. Page 169. The Royal Daughters of Egypt came about this Time to be called, every one, CLEOPATRA, as every Son was called PTOLEMY.
Upon the Death of Philometor 7. PTOLEMY Phyſcon, who had called himſelf Euergetes II. now reign'd alone King of Egypt, upon his marrying CLEOPATRA the Widow of Philometor, and Siſter of them both, who bore to him a Son Memphitis, murder'd by his Father, Page 169. but being weary of her, he divorced her, and married the ſecond Daughter of Philometor, Cleopatra his own Niece; and after He had reign'd 17 Years in Egypt, the Alexandrians expell'd him for his Cruelties, when he fled to Cyprus with his new Cleopatra, and Son Memphitis, and when the People ſet upon the Throne of Egypt	3859	145	179	603	——	17
8. CLEOPATRA I. the divorced Wife of Phyſcon, who reign'd Queen Sovereign there while he reign'd in Cyprus.	3875	129	195	619	——	03
But PHYSCON becoming too powerful for Queen CLEOPATRA, ſhe put all her Treaſure on Ship Board, and ſail'd to Ptolemais in Phenicia to reſide there with her eldeſt Daughter CLEOPATRA, the Wife now of DEMETRIUS Nicator King of Syria. Upon which PHYSCON return'd to Alexandria without Oppoſition, and reign'd there till he died the common Death of Men: 29 Years are aſſign'd to him in Ptolemy's Canon.	3878	126	198	622	——	09	3887
CLEOPATRA his Third Wife and Niece, bore to him 1. Ptolemy Lathyrus. 2. Ptolemy Alexander. 3. Tryphaena, the Wife of GRYPUS King of Syria, ſlain by CYZICENUS King of Damaſcus. Page 172. 4. Cleopatra the Wife firſt of her Brother Lathyrus, and next of

She was captivated and ſlain by King Tigranes. Page 179. And by a Concubine Physcon had his Son Ptolemy Apion, to whom he left by Will the Kingdom of Cyrene and Lybia, who dying without Iſſue, left that Kingdom by Will to the Roman *Republick, A. Physcon by Will left Egypt and Cyprus to his Niece and Widow Cleopatra, with a Power in her to chuſe either of her Sons to be her Partner: and tho' ſhe deſign'd it for Alexander, the People prevail'd with her to chuſe her eldeſt Son, viz.

	Began to reign.

9. Ptolemy Lathyrus, who called himſelf Soter, 10. Cleopatra II. his Mother and Partner. She by her Authority forc'd him to divorce his Wife and eldeſt Siſter Cleopatra, and to marry his younger Siſter Selene; and the Queen made her younger Son Alexander King of Cyprus. After Lathyrus had reign'd ten Years with his Mother, ſhe found Means to make him run his Country, and ſent for her Son the King of Cyprus, viz.	3888	116	208	632	10
11. Ptolemy Alexander I. who reign'd as his Mother's Partner in Egypt, while Lathyrus reign'd King of Cyprus. Till for plotting his Death Alexander put her to Death, after ſhe had reign'd 28 Years, that is, 10 Years with Lathyrus, and 18 Years with Alexander I.	3898	106	218	642	18	3915
But the Alexandrians being inraged at King Alexander for that Fact, expell'd him; and getting a few Ships, He was ſlain in making a Deſcent upon Cyprus, the ſame Year he kill'd his Mother: and the People forthwith ſent to Cyprus and reſtored the elder Brother, viz.
Lathyrus, who now reign'd alone in Egypt, till he died the common Death of Men; but by Ptolemy the Aſtronomer, the whole 36 Years from the Death of King Physcon are aſſign'd to King Lathyrus.	3916	88	236	660	08	3923
Lathyrus by a Concubine had two Sons, 1. Ptolemy King of Cyprus, who kill'd himſelf when Cato beſieged him. 2. Ptolemy Auletes. N. N. the Wife of Ptolemy Lathyrus (after he had loſt Selene) bore to him a Daughter Cleopatra Berenice, his only legitimate Child, whom the Alexandrians forthwith ſet upon her deceas'd Father's Throne. N. N. the Wife of Ptolemy Alexander I. bore to him a Son Alexander, educated firſt at Coos, next under Mithridates the Great King of Pontus, and then under Sylla at Rome, who ſent him upon the Death of Lathyrus, to claim his Right of Succeſſion to the Crown of Egypt: and the Egyptians afraid of Sylla, allow'd his Claim, and having join'd the two Royal Couſins in Marriage, They reign'd together, viz.
12. Cleopatra III. call'd Berenice 13. Ptolemy Alexander II. She had reign'd Six Months before his Arrival, but in Nineteen Days after Marriage He ſlew her, and reign'd alone, till the People being weary of his Government expell'd him; nor would the Romans reſtore him, and retiring to Tyre he ſoon died there without Iſſue. Upon his Expulſion the Alexandrians call'd to the Throne one of the two Baſtard Sons of Lathyrus, viz.	3924	80	244	668	15	3938
14. Ptolemy Auletes, who reign'd under the Protection of the Romans: for when the Egyptians expell'd him, Gabinius came and reſtor'd him. And becauſe Ptolemy the Aſtronomer in his Chronological Canon, takes no Notice of Alexander II. (tho' mention'd by Cicero and Suetonius) and begins the Reign of Auletes from the Death of his Father Lathyrus, It is concluded that as his Brother got Cyprus immediately on his Father's Death, ſo Auletes reign'd in ſome Part of the Egyptian Empire, while Alexander reign'd at Alexandria.	3939	65	259	683	14	3952
His Wife N. N. bore to him 1. Cleopatra. 2. Arſinoe led in the Triumphs of Julius Cæsar, and afterwards put to Death by Mark Antony, at the Inſtigation of Cleopatra her Siſter. 3. Ptolemy Dionyſius drown'd in the Nile. 4 Another Ptolemy, ſlain afterwards by Order of his Siſter Cleopatra. Auletes at his Death made a Will, whereby he committed his Children to the Care of the Roman Republick, and left his Crown to his eldeſt Son and eldeſt Daughter, whom he order'd to be married together, according to the ancient Uſage of that Royal Family: and ſo
15. Ptolomy Dionyſius and 16. Cleopatra IV. He began to reign very young, and ſhe not above 17 Years old: nor were They ever married together, for when he grew up, he refuſed to marry her, rais'd an Army, and would have dethron'd her, if Julius Cæsar had not come to her Relief, juſt after the Battel of Pharſalia, Cæsar defeated Ptolemy, who was drown'd in the Flight, after he had reign'd from his Father's Death four Years.	3953	51	273	697	04	3956
Cleopatra the lovely Queen, now reign'd alone by the Countenance and Authority of Julius Cæsar, who often lay with her while he ſtaid at Alexandria, and to whom ſhe bore a Son called Caeſarion, ſlain by Order of Augustus, ſoon after his Mother's Death.	3957	47	277	701	18	3974
Cleopatra came to Mark Antony at Tarſus in Cilicia, and ſo charm'd him with her Wit and Beauty, that he never came from under her amorous Chains, till They were both ruin'd together: for when Augustus overcame them in Egypt, Antony ſtab'd himſelf, and expired in her Arms, and ſhe kill'd herſelf by a Viper, both for fear of being led in Triumph by Augustus, after ſhe had reign'd with her eldeſt Brother 4 Years, and alone 18 Years, in all 22 Years.	3963	41	283	706
Augustus took Care of all her Children by Antony, and reduced Egypt to the Form of a Roman Province. This Year is alſo the firſt of Augustus, or of the Roman Empire.	3974	30	294	718

In his 6th Year the Temple of Delus was founded by Eryſichthon the Son of Cecrops, Anno Abrami 522. In his 12th Year Lacedæmon was built by Lacedaemon the Son of Semela, or rather Meſſene. In his 13th Year Erichthonius the Son of Vulcan and Minerva, began to reign at Athens. In his 16th Year Rameſſes, called by Joſephus Armais, and by others Aegyptus, began to reign in Egypt, (according to Euſebius) from whom that Country was firſt called Egypt.	2539 1465
In his 21ſt Year He founded the City Dardanum near the Ægean Coaſt, and finiſh'd it; while Danaus reign'd at Argos, from whence the People were called Dardani.	2544 1460
3. ERICHTHONIUS, married Aſtyoche, began in the third Year of JOSHUAH, after the Death of Moſes, while another of that Name reign'd at Athens. This King of TROY is celebrated by Homer for great Wealth.	2555 1449	—	65	—	2619
In his 15th Year PHOENIX and CADMUS the Sons of Agenor, coming from Thebes in Egypt into Syria, reign'd at Tyre and Sidon, according to Euſebius, or in the 17th Year of JOSHUAH; and from Phoenix the Country was called Phoenicia.	2569 1435
In his 25th Year Jupiter raviſh'd Europa the Daughter of Phoenix. She was afterwards married to Aſterius King of Crete, and bore to him (or elſe to Jupiter) Minoe, Rhadamanthus and Sarpedon.	2579 1425
In his 40th Year Agenor ſent his Son Cadmus into Greece, in queſt of Europa his Niece, whom Jupiter had ſtole away in the Shape of a Bull, that is, in a Cretan Ship called Taurus, the Bull: but Cadmus deſpairing to find her, ſettled in Bœotia with his Men, and built the City Thebes, where he taught the Greeks to write, having brought with him Letters, or a writing Alphabet from Phoenicia. And his Daughter Semele was afterwards the Mother of Dionyſus, or Liber Pater or Bacchus. Euſeb. at the Year of Abram 587.	2594 1410

In his 42d Year (or the 654th Year of Abram) King TROSS, and his Son Ilus made War upon Tantalus.	2661 1343
In his 56th Year (or the 668th Year of Abram) Sicyon began to reign, from whom the Ægialeans were call'd Sicyonians. Also Pelops the Son of Tantalus the Phrygian coming into Greece, overcame King Oenomeus at Elis in a Chariot Conteſt, whereby he won and married Hippodamia that King's Daughter, and alſo his Kingdom by Bargain; and call'd the Country of Cherſoneſus after his Name Peloponneſus. He is ſaid firſt to have inſtituted Olympic Games, having overcome King Oenomeus 552. Years, before the firſt Olympiad, which begins Anno Mundi 3228.	2675 1329
In his 58th Year Janus ſailed with a Colony from Greece into Italy, and founded there the Kingdom of the Aborigines.	2677 1327
In his 63d and laſt Year (or 675th of Abram) Bellerophon a Phrygian of the Corinthian Race, got a Ship whoſe Name or Enſign was Pegaſus, or the winged Horſe, and turn'd Pyrate.	2682 1322
5. ILUS, married N. N. In the Champain Country of Troas, he built the City Ilium, ſo call'd from him, and began to reign in the 6th Year of EHUD the Judge of Iſrael, or the 676th Year of Abram.	2683 1321	40	2722
In his 7th Year Ion the Polemarchos, that is, the Captain General or Imperator of the War, now call'd the Athenians Iones after his Name.
In his 10th Year, according to Euſebius, Perſeus overcame the Gorgons, and returned to Greece with the Head of Meduſa, and transform'd his Grandfather Acriſius into a Stone, tho' that Story ſhould be put later; for Acriſius his Grandfather began to reign only 12 Years before This, according to Euſebius, viz. in the 674th Year of Abram.	2692 1312

	Began to reign A. M. and Bef. Christ together.	reign'd Years.	Died A. M.
In his 30th Year the Kingdom of the Argives ended, after it had ſtood 544 Years; for Perſeus after he had, not willingly, ſlain his Grandfather Acriſius, left Argos, and tranſlated the Kingdom to Mycenae.	2712 1292
In his 36th Year Deborah and Barak routed Jabin King of the Canaanites, and began to judge and rule the People of Iſrael.	2718 1286
6. LAOMEDON married N. N. and began in the 6th Year of DEBORAH and Barak (or in the 716th Year of Abram) He built the ſtrong Walls of TROY, and the Treaſuries of Neptune and Apollo: and the ſame Year the Temple of Eleuſina was built, Euſeb.	2723 1281
In his 22d Year the Fables concerning Daedalus the Statuary, come in: Anno Abrami 737. Euſeb.
In his 29th Year, or Anno Abrami 744. the City Tyre was built 240 Years before the Founding of SOLOMON's Temple, yet Joſh. xix. 29. Tyre is mention'd as a ſtrong City.	2751 1253
In his 32d Year Anno Abrami 747. Orpheus the Thracian became famous, and Muſæus the Son of Eumolpus was his Maſter, ſome ſay his Diſciple.
In his 41ſt Year Anno Abrami 756. Atreus and Thyeſtes, the Sons of Pelops by Hippodamia, began to reign at Mycenæ. Thyeſtes committed Adultery with the Wife of Atreus, who therefore ſlew the Sons of Thyeſtes, and dreſſed them to be eaten at Supper. Pauſan. hence came the Proverb of Thyeſtes's Supper. And theſe two royal Brothers liv'd always at Variance, and divided the Kingdom of Peloponneſus.	2763 1241
In his 44th and laſt Year, LAOMEDON was invaded and ſlain by Hercules. Diodorus Siculus ſays that Hercules kill'd Laomedon in his Return from Colchis with the other Argonauts, and ſet his Son Priam upon the Throne. JUNO had influenced Euriſtheus King of Mycenæ to order Hercules to go and deſtroy divers Monſters, ſhe hoping he might be kill'd by ſome of them: for ſhe hated Hercules, becauſe he was the Baſtard of Jupiter by Alcmena. Homer. This gave Occaſion to the Fable of Hercules's 12 Labours.	2766 1238
7. PRIAMUS the Son of Laomedon, began to reign in the 3d Year of GIDEON the Judge of Iſrael, Anno Abrami 760. PRIAM married Hecuba, who bore to him Paris and Hector.	2767 1237	53	2819
Tithonus the Son of LAOMEDON led an Army from Troy into the Eaſtern Parts of Aſia, as far as Ethiopia; whence roſe the Fable of Memnon's being the Son of Aurora, becauſe he liv'd in the Eaſt: He afterwards aided the Trojans till ſlain by Achilles.
In his 9th Year Anno Abrami 768. Hercules finiſh'd his Labours and Battels, having ſlain Anteus Terraefilius, or Son of Earth.	2775 1229
In the 13th Year of Priam, the Wars of the Lapithæ againſt the Centaurs or Theſſalian Horſemen come in.
In the 17th Year of Priam, the Fable of Androgeus at Athens, and the Fable of the Minotaur and Theſeus come in.
In his 24th Year Anno Abrami 783. Theſeus the Son of Ægeus began to reign at Athens. Now the Fable of Proſerpina comes in; for it muſt have happened in his Time, as Scaliger juſtly obſerves: ſhe was ſtole away by Aidoneus or Pluto, or Orcus King of the Moloſſi, whoſe great Dog Cerberus devoured Pirithous, that had accompanied Theſeus to bring back his Wife; and Cerberus would have devoured Theſeus too, if Hercules had not ſeaſonably come to ſave him; on which account They feign'd Theſeus to have been brought back from Hell. Euſeb. tho' Euſebius placeth it too high at the Year of Abram 620. So Euſebius at Abram's Year 786. relates, that Theſeus ſtole Helena; whereas, as Scaliger animadverts, He ſtole her in his Father's Time, or before he was King. But Diodorus Siculus affirms the Rape of Proſerpina was in Sicily. See Table 42. in the Reign of Picus.	2790 1214
In his 25th Year Theſeus fought againſt the Thebans, and taught the Athenians to reſide in one City.
In his 27th Year Androgeus was murder'd at Athens.
In his 33d Year Anno Abrami 792. and 35th Year of Gideon, about 20 Years before the Fall of TROY, (according to Scaliger in his Notes upon Euſebius, at the Year of Abram 756.) the ARGONAUTS or They that ſailed in the great Ship Argos, began their Expedition from Iolcus in Theſſaly to Colchis, in order to conquer that Country, and fetch away the Golden Fleece that had been brought thither by Phryxus, about 159 Years ago. The Captains aboard the Argos were 54. of whom the Chief were Hercules, Jaſon, Caſtor, and Pollux, Telamon, Orpheus, Peleus, Atlantes, Typhis, Lynceus, Admetus, Iphitus, Iphiclus, Periclimenes, Actorides, Aglaus, Iphidamas, Meleager, Augias, Menoetius, Eurition, Oileus, Amphion, &c. who are often mention'd in the old Stories of the Greeks, and ſome of them were deified afterwards by the Poets. But They had many other Veſſels with them to carry their Soldiers; for Chiefs cannot fight without Men.	2799 1205
PRIAM having eſtabliſh'd his Kingdom, which conſiſted of nine large Principalities, began to expoſtulate with the Greeks about the War that Hercules had ſome Time ago made againſt the Trojans; and finding no Redreſs, He ſent his Son Paris into Greece to take a fraudulent Revenge upon them, who ſtole away thence the beautiful Helena, Wife of MENELAUS King at Lacedæmon. Upon which AGAMEMNON King at Micenae, the Brother of Menelaus, excited the Greeks to confederate againſt the Trojans.
In his 42d Year, Anno Abrami 801. King Minos made his Laws.

2. SATURN, being expell'd from Crete by his Son Jupiter, fled into Italy with a Colony of Cretans, who mixing with the others, got SATURN to be King of the Aborigines, In the 9th Year of EHUD the Judge of Iſrael, and the 5th Year of ILUS King of Troy.
Saturn is ſaid to have civilized the People, taught them Agriculture, and coin'd Money, &c. Some think they were firſt call'd Latins from Latendo or lurking; for that Saturn lay there hid. —— 2706 / 1298 — 41 — 2746

3. PICUS, married N. N. began to reign in the 9th Year of Iſrael's Servitude under JABIN King of the Canaanites, and the 24th of ILUS King of Troy. —— 2747 / 1257 — 42 — 2788

Diodorus Siculus affirms, that the Rape of Proſerpine was in Sicily, which is computed by us to have been in the 24th Year of King Picus.

4. FAUNUS, married Lavinia, who was with Child to HERCULES before ſhe was married to Faunus; which Child was Latinus, the Succeſſor of Faunus and his reputed Son. Faunus began to reign in the 30th Year of DEBORAH's Rule over Iſrael, and 25th Year of LAOMEDON King of Troy. In his Reign Siculus, the Son of an Italian petty King call'd Italus, led a Colony into the Iſland Trinacria, (or three corner'd Iſland) and after him It was call'd Sicily; but before that It was call'd Sicania. Diod.
In his 19th Year GIDEON began to rule over Iſrael, and to reſcue them from the Midianites. —— 2766 / 1238
In his 20th Year Evander forſaking his Country of Arcadia in Greece, came into Italy with a good Colony that mixed with the Aborigines, 60 Years before Aeneas began to reign there. Dionyſ. viz. in the laſt Year of LAOMEDON King of Troy. —— 2771 / 1233
In his 25th Year Hercules waged War in Italy, 55 Years before Aeneas began to reign there, viz. in the 5th Year of PRIAM King of Troy. Dionyſ. And Hercules left ſeveral of his Followers with the Aborigines. —— 2789 / 1215 — 36 — 2824

5. LATINUS, married N. N. began to reign in the 25th Year of GIDEON the Judge of Iſrael, and 23d Year of PRIAM King of Troy. —— 2799 / 1205
In his 10th Year, or 33d Year of PRIAM King of Troy, the Argonauts made their famous Expedition from Greece to Colchis for the Golden Fleece. See the foregoing Table. —— 2809 / 1195
In his 20th Year, or 43d Year of PRIAM King of Troy, the confederated Greeks beſieged Troy. —— 2819 / 1185
In his 30th Year, or 53d and laſt Year of King PRIAM, Troy was taken and burnt by the Greeks, when ÆNEAS left that Country in queſt of a new Settlement. —— 2822 / 1182
In his 33d Year, or about three Years after the Fall of Troy, ÆNEAS at laſt came into Italy, and ſoon became a King upon the Death of LATINUS. —— 148

The III. Government in Italy, or the Trojan Royal Race deſcended from

Began to reign A. M. and Bef. Chriſt together. | reign'd Years. | Died A. M.

In Valeſius's Fragments of Diod. Sic. it is ſaid, that when Troy was taken, ÆNEAS, with a Band of his Fellow-Citizens, defended bravely one Part of that City, till the Greeks gave them Leave to depart in Safety, with as much of their Goods as each could carry: accordingly all of them carried off Gold and Silver, and other precious Things portable; except ÆNEAS, who only carried off his own old Father Anchiſes upon his Shoulders: upon which the wondering Greeks generouſly allow'd him to carry off likewiſe what Goods he pleas'd: but ÆNEAS only choſe his Houſhold Gods; which made the Greeks admire him ſtill more, and gave him Leave to go with his Trojans to what Place he pleas'd.

TROS King of Troy, the Father of

1. Ilus King of Troy.

Laomedon King of Troy.

Priam King of Troy.
See Table XLI.

2. ASSARACUS, a tributary King at Dardanum, under his Brother Ilus.

Prince CAPYS his Son and Succeſſor.

Prince ANCHISES who married VENUS.

Which happen'd, —— A. M. — 2819
Before Chriſt, — 1185

ÆNEAS travell'd from Place to Place, till He came to Latium the Kingdom of the Aborigines, in the 33^{d} Year of old King LATINUS, in the 3^{d} Year after the Fall of Troy, attended with 1200 truſty Trojans; where He was honourably entertain'd by LATINUS, who gave him his only Child Lavinia in Marriage, (his firſt Wife Creuſa being dead) and at his Death left the Kingdom to ÆNEAS his Son in Law. —— A. M. — 2822
Before Chriſt, — 1182

The Death of LATINUS happen'd A. M. 2824
Before Chriſt, 1180 after which commenced the Trojan Race, or

The new Kingdom of the Latins from ÆNEAS to ROMULUS during 429 Years.

ÆNEAS had been engaged in a War with Turnus King of the Rutuli, (their Neighbours) who had formerly made Pretenſions to Lavinia; but after he had ſlain Turnus, ÆNEAS getting quiet Poſſeſſion of the Kingdom of LATINUS, began to reign over the Aborigines in the 8th Year after the Fall of TROY, and 3^{d} Year after LATINUS's Death. 2827 / 1177 — 05 — 1831
In the 20th Year of TOLAH the Judge of Iſrael, Anno Abrami 820.
Before the firſt Olympiad 400 Years.

King ÆNEAS began ſoon to build the City Lavinium in Honour of his Queen, about 6 Miles Eaſt of Laurentum, where he kept his Court; and obliged all his Subjects, both Trojans and Aborigines to be called Latins, in Honour of his Father in Law. But engaging in a War with Mezentius a King of the Hetrurians, He was ſlain after a ſhort Reign of five Years; tho' ſome ſay not above 3 or 4 Years: yet ſo well belov'd, that his Subjects deified him, and dedicated a Chapel to him under the Title of Jupiter Indiges.

2. ASCANIUS, the Son of Aeneas by Creuſa his firſt Wife, was born at TROY, and began to reign at Lavinium in the 2^{d} Year of JAIR the Judge of Iſrael. Table VIII. But Lavinia being left big with Child by Aeneas, and being afraid of ASCANIUS, fled to the Woods, and was there deliver'd of a Son, who from thence was call'd SILVIUS. Thirty Years after the Founding of Lavinium, ASCANIUS left it to his Mother in Law and her Son Silvius, and founded Alba Longa about 12 Miles Northward, which he made his Royal Seat during the Remainder of his Reign. 2832 / 1172 — 38 — 2869

ASCANIUS had a Son call'd JULUS (from whom deſcended the famous Roman Family of the Julii) who contended for his Father's Crown; but the People judging it to belong to LATINUS's Race, preferr'd before him the poſthumous Son of ÆNEAS by Lavinia: yet JULUS got the High Prieſthood, which was kept in his Family till the Days of Julius Caeſar, as ſome think: and ſo

3. SILVIUS Poſthumus married N. N. began to reign at Alba in the 18th Year of ELI's Rule at Shiloh, the Year before JEPHTHAH defeated the Ammonites, and rul'd in Eaſt Iſrael. 2870 / 1134 — 29 — 2898
And from him his Succeſſors were Each call'd SILVIUS.
In his 27th Year the Kingdom of Sicyon ended, after it had ſtood 962 Years. After the Fall of TROY 77 Years.

4. ÆNEAS Silvius married N. N. began to reign in the 7th Year of SAMUEL's Rule over North and Weſt Iſrael, and in the 6th Year of ABDON's Rule over Eaſt Iſrael, after the Fall of TROY 80 Years: when (according to Diod.) the Heraclidae return'd to Peloponneſus, ejecting the Offspring of Oreſtes; and two Branches of the Heraclidae reign'd in that Country till the Time of PTOLEMY Euergetes King of Egypt, while a Third reign'd at Corinth: for 2899 / 1105 — 30 — 2928
In his 25th Year EURISTHEUS King of Lacedæmon, and ALETES King of Corinth founded their ſeveral Kingdoms, and began to reign after the Fall of TROY 104 Years. 2923 / 1081

5. LATINUS Silvius married N. N. began to reign in the 20th Year of SAUL King of Iſrael, or after his firſt anointing, when DAVID was Ten Years old. —————— 2929 / 1075 — 51 — 2979
In his 22^{d} Year Cuma was built in Italy, after the Fall of TROY 131 Years. Scal. on Euſeb.

13. AVENTINUS Silvius married N. N. began in the 28th Year of JOASH King of Judah, and 6th Year of JEHOACHAZ the Son of Jehu, King of Iſrael.	3153 851	37	3189
In his 12th Year Zechariah the Son of Jehoiadah the Prieſt, was, by order of JOASH King of Judah, ſtoned to Death in the Temple of Jeruſalem, for giving ſeaſonable Warnings againſt their Apoſtacy: and next Year King JOASH was murder'd a Bed by his Servants.	3164 840
AVENTINIUS was buried in Mount Aventin, ſo call'd from him, one of the 7 Hills of Rome.
14. PROCAS Silvius, call'd Palatinus, married N. N. began in the 26th Year of AMAZIAH King of Judah, and 12th Year of JEROBOAM II. King of Iſrael, the Year before CHARANUS the firſt King of Macedon founded that Kingdom. Page 130.	3190 814	23	3212
In his 5th Year PUL King of Aſſyria began to reign at Niniveh, the Father of Sardanapalus, and of his Succeſſor ARBACES. See Page 130 and 131. This is alſo the firſt Year of UZZIAH King of Judah, and 16th of JEROBOAM II. King of Iſrael.	3194 810
In his 18th Year ARDYSUS I. deſcended from the Heraclidae, King of Lydia in Leſſer Aſia, began to reign, after the proper Heraclidae Kings had reign'd there 426 Years.	3207 797
15. AMULIUS Silvius, the youngeſt Son of Procas, getting Poſſeſſion of the publick Treaſure, ſeiz'd the Kingdom, and excluded his elder Brother Numitor, or as ſome ſay, depoſed him from the Throne after he had reign'd a few Months, and forced him to live privately all his Reign.	3213 791	42	3254
In the 20th Year of UZZIAH King of Judah, and 35th of JEROBOAM II. King of Iſrael, AMULIUS took care, firſt to cauſe Lauſus the Son of Numitor to be ſlain at a pretended Hunting, and then to ſhut up Rhea the Daughter of Numitor, as a Veſtal Virgin, to prevent her having Iſſue.
In his 5th Year Jonah the Prophet preached at Niniveh, in the 24th Year of King PUL, and of UZZIAH King of Judah, juſt 40 Years before Niniveh was deſtroy'd in the Death of SARDANAPALUS.	3217 787
His 16th Year is the firſt Year of the firſt Olympiad, the 35th Year of UZZIAH King of Judah, and of PUL King of Niniveh; when Coræbus won the Prize. Page 43. After the Fall of TROY 408 Years.	3228 776
In his 20th Year, PUL King of Niniveh conquer'd all the little Sovereignties of the Country of Aſſyria, and became the firſt Emperor in certain Hiſtory, made the Syrians tributary, marched to the Borders of Iſrael; and for 1000 Talents of Silver, PUL erected Menachem on the Throne of Iſrael. Page 44.	3232 772
In his 24th Year King PUL being dead, after he had reign'd 42 Years, his eldeſt Son SARDANAPALUS began to reign, during 20 Years, in the 43d Year of UZZIAH King of Judah.	3236 768
In his 26th Year He found his Niece Rhea the Veſtal in the Grove of Mars, privately fetching Water thence, and raviſh'd her, not ſo much to ſatisfy his Luſt, as to carry on his grand Deſign againſt the Offspring of Numitor; for ſhe becoming pregnant, was next Year deliver'd of her Twin Sons, viz.	3238 766
ROMULUS and REMUS born.	3239 765
And ſhe, to put the better Face upon it, gave out that the God Mars had come in Thunder and Lightning, and had raviſh'd her in his own Grove. But AMULIUS got her condemn'd, according to Law, to be buried alive, or perpetual Impriſonment, and order'd the Twin Infants to be thrown into the River Tiber, where They were wonderfully preſerved from being drown'd, and were found at the Bank by Fauſtulus the King's Herdſman; and They were ſuckled by his Wife Laurentia, who for her infamous Life was call'd Lupa or Wolf: and hence aroſe the Fable of their being ſuckled by a Wolf.
In his 33d Year AUTOMENES died, the laſt of the Corinthian Kings call'd the Bacchidae, but call'd firſt Heraclidae, with whom that Kingdom ended, after They had reign'd from ALETES the firſt King, in all 323 Years: after the Fall of TROY 426 Years.	3245 759
In his 35th Year ALCAMENES died, the laſt of the Lacedæmonian Kings, who were call'd Heraclidae, after the Fall of TROY 428 Years, after They had reign'd from EURISTHEUS, in all 325 Years.	3247 757
In his 40th Year Hezekiah was born, the Son of Prince Achaz, the Son of JOTHAM, King of Judah, in the 7th Year of Jotham's Reign.	3252 752
In his 42d and laſt Year, ROMULUS and REMUS, now 16 Years old, prov'd more cunning and couragious than thoſe of ſo mean an Education; and quarrelling with the King's Herdſmen, REMUS in the Conteſt was taken and brought Priſoner to the King: and Fauſtulus having then diſcover'd to ROMULUS his high Birth and hard Uſage, ROMULUS got together ſome Hundreds of Herdſmen, with Robbers and Thieves, made Way for REMUS to reſcue himſelf, and both join'd to ſlay King AMULIUS their own very Father; and forthwith ſet in his Throne again their Mother's Father NUMITOR.	3254 750
This Year the 17th of SARDANAPALUS, He was conſpired againſt by his own Brother Arbaces Governor of Media, and Beleſis Governor of Chaldea, who beſieged him in his Capital Niniveh near three Years.
16. NUMITOR the laſt King of the Latins, began to reign at Alba in the 10th Year of JOTHAM King of Judah, and reign'd one Year before his Grandſon ROMULUS founded ROME: but he reign'd at Alba many Years after that, and ſupported his Grandſon in his new Erection of ROME, and at Death left his Kingdom to ROMULUS.	3255 749	01
Thus the Kingdom of the Latins laſted from the firſt Year of the Reign of ÆNEAS, to the Founding of ROME, in all		429 Years.

TABLE XLIV.

The IV. Government in Italy, or the Roman Kings from the Founding of Rome by ROMULUS.

ROMULUS and REMUS being 18 Years old, were ambitious to build a City in the Place where They had been educated among the Herdſmen, upon the River Tiber, about 14 Miles North-weſt of Alba, by NUMITOR'S Approbation and Aſſiſtance. But They could not agree about the particular Spot of Ground; ROMULUS chuſing the Mount Palatin, and REMUS the Mount Aventin: and both contending for Preeminence, their Parties fought for it, and REMUS was ſlain in Battel. Some ſay that ROMULUS was provoked much by REMUS, particularly by leaping over his New Wall in Contempt of its lowneſs. And now

1. ROMULUS being the ſole Commander, and proclaim'd King, laid alſo the Foundation of the Kingdom. The City was founded at the Feaſt of Palilia, or on the Day obſerved by the Country Shepherds, to the Honour of the Goddeſs Palis, on the 12th before the Calends of May, (or 19th of April) in the Year of the Julian Period 3966. in the 4th Year of the VII. Olympiad, or a little before the Beginning of the VIII. Olympiad, according to the ſecular Games obſerved by the Romans, and the Reckoning of Fabius Pictor the moſt ancient Roman Author.

In the Year after Noah's Flood,	1600
In the Year of Abram,	1249
In the Year after the Exodus of Moſes,	744

Before the Death of ALEXANDER the Great,	424
Before the Battel of Pharſalia,	700

But according to Varro's Account, the Palilia began five Years before; and therefore many Authors reckon the Era of URBS CONDITA, or the Founding of ROME, to commence five Years ſooner. But when we read any Author that reckons from the Varronian Palilia, we may always reduce it to the Fabian Palilia, by ſubſtracting five Years; or may add five Years to the Fabian Account to make it agree with the Varronian: Tho' I think, with Archbiſhop USHER, that the Fabian Account is true and accurate, and have accordingly followed it in all the Chronology.

In his 2d Year, or the 2d Year of Rome, SARDANAPALUS King of Niniveh, after he had reign'd 20 Years, being ſore preſs'd by his Brother Arbaces or TIGLATHPULEZER, and Beleſis or NABONASSAR, in a Siege of near three Years; and finding no Hope of Relief, ſet fire to his Palace, and was burnt with his Concubines and Eunuchs, and all his Wealth. The Confederates divided his large Empire between them. viz.

{ NABONASSAR became King of Chaldea during 14 Years. He built the City Babylon.

This is the firſt Year of his famous Aſtronomical Era, call'd from him the Era of NABONASSAR, who reign'd ———

This Era began with the 12th Year of JOTHAM King of Judah, who reign'd in all 16 Years.

But the States of Media, that had alſo belong'd to Sardanapalus, form'd themſelves into an Ariſtocracy for about 38 Years.

ROMULUS began his Kingdom with only 3000 Foot, and 300 Horſemen, till he ſet up an Aſylum or Sanctuary for all Malefactors and Malecontents; whereby he drew vaſt Numbers from all the Neighbourhood, whom he divided into three Parts or Tribes, like our Wards, and Each of theſe into ten Curiæ or Pariſhes, and Each Curia into ten Decuriæ. He appointed a General Aſſembly call'd Comitia Curiata, and divided the People into Patricians or Nobles, and Plebeians or Commons, and inroll'd a 100 Patricians to be his Council or Senate, call'd Patres conſcripti, and appointed a particular Magiſtrate over the City call'd Præfectus urbis; and having formed the Conſtitution of KING, Senate and People, he choſe 300 Celeres or active Youths for his Life-Guard, with Centurions or Captains of Hundreds, and Tribunes or Colonels, and 12 Lictors or Serjeants to puniſh Offenders, and execute his Commands, who went before him with Bundles of Rods call'd Faſces, and alſo Axes, to ſignify the different Puniſhments. He made a Feſtival to decoy the Women of the Neighbourhood, and at it ſeiz'd on 683 Virgins for Wives to his Men; which occaſion'd a War; but ROMULUS conquer'd his Enemies, and united them to his Kingdom, and made the firſt Roman Triumph.

ROMULUS founded Rome in the Year of: Urbs Condita, or Era of Rome.	Romulus.	Jotham King of Judah.	Pekah King of Iſrael.	Sardanapalus King of Aſſyria.	Bocchoris King of Egypt.	A. M. and Bef. Chriſt		According to Euſebius reign'd Years.		Died or Depoſed A. M.

NUMA Pompilius this same Year died in Peace, aged 80 Years, and was buried with Honour in a Stone Coffin under the Hill Janiculum, with his 12 Books in Greek and Latin, (which were found 400 Years afterwards, and burnt by Order of the Senate, who thought those ancient Mysteries unfit for the Populace) after he had compleated in a peaceful Reign what Romulus had begun in War and Bloodshed: for he disbanded the Celeres Guards, built the Temple of Janus, and to the two Flamens or High Priests of Jupiter and Mars, he added a third of Quirinus or Romulus, gave great Privileges to the Vestal Virgins, instituted the Salii or Shield Beaters, and the Feciales or Heralds. He made many good Laws, cultivated the rough Temper of the Romans, and reform'd the Year, dividing it into 12 Months, that was before but of 10 Months. His Religion was much like That of Pithagoras afterwards, and he forbad the Use of Images in Worship, which prevail'd at Rome for 170 Years after him.
3. TULLUS Hostilius was created King of the Romans by the Senate, and the Consent of the People, the Grandson of the famous Hostilius, who in the Days of Romulus bravely defended the Citadel against the Sabines.	80	1	30		12	42	2	3335 669	32	3366

Continuation of TABLE XLIV.

I forgot to put in the OLYMPIADS at the Beginning of this Table, before the Sheet was caſt off, but now I overtake it thus,

1. ROMULUS founded Rome after the firſt Olympiad 29 Years, or,
2. NUMA Pompilius began to reign,
3. TULLUS Hoſtilius began to reign.

But all the Remainder of the Reign of TULLUS was conſumed in a lingering War with the Latines, till he and all his Family periſh'd by Lightning, or rather by a Conſpiracy.

Marcius I. a Senator, who was ſent to invite NUMA to be King.

King NUMA

Pompilia Wife of

Marcius II. a Senator.

4. ANCUS Marcius, call'd Ancus from his crooked Arm, was choſen by the Senate and the People to be King of the Romans: married N. N.

CYAXARES I. the Son of Phraortes King of Media, began to reign at Ekbatana.

Nabopolaſſar a Babylonian, the General of Chiniladanus, finding his Maſter indolent, revolted and uſurped the Kingdom of Chaldæa, in the 22ᵈ Year of Chiniladanus, Anno Nabonaſſari 122.

Nabopolaſſar, call'd by ſome Nebuchadnezzar I. the Father of Nebuchadnezzar the Great, began to reign over Chaldæa at Babylon his native City and Metropolis. While Chiniladanus reign'd at Niniveh: tho' ſome think he was now ſlain; becauſe one Saracus is mention'd to have reign'd 14 Years before the Fall of Niniveh: but others think It is only another Name of Chiniladanus.

Necus, call'd Pharaoh Necho, the Son of Pſammitis King of Egypt, began to reign.

ANCUS Marcius firſt triumphed over the Latines, and next over the Fidenates, the Veientes, the Volſci, and the Sabines: was much of the Temper of his Grandfather King Numa; greatly increas'd the City, extended his Dominion to the Sea Side, and at the Mouth of the Tiber built the City Oſtia. He liv'd and died in Splendor, leaving two Sons Minors, viz. Ancus and N. N. to the Care of Lucius Tarquinius, whoſe Father was

Damaratus a rich Merchant of Corinth, who fled out of Greece from the Rage of War, and ſettled in Tarquinia, a Place of Hetruria, where he married a noble Matron, who bore to him a Son call'd

Lucumo, who being neglected in his native Country, for being the Son of a Foreigner, his high Spirit could not brook it; but ſelling his Poſſeſſions, came to Rome with all his Wealth, his Wife Tanaquil, and his Followers, about the Middle of Ancus's Reign; ANCUS made him free of Rome, and a Senator too, for offering all his Subſtance to ſupport the publick Good, like a brave Soldier and a wiſe Counſellor; and by his Liberality he became the Darling of the Populace; for whoſe Sake he changed his Name to that of a Roman Sound, viz. from Lucumo to Lucius, adding Tarquinius from the Place of his Birth: This Hetrurian or Corinthian, had Ambition and Influence enough to be choſen King. And ſo

5. LUCIUS Tarquinius Priſcus, began to reign King of the Romans, when, to gain the common Peoples Favour, he added to the Senate 100 Plebeians, call'd Patres minorum gentium, or Senators of leſſer Families, or of a lower Rank.

Nabopolaſſar King of Babylon, having, ſome Time ago, married his eldeſt Son Nebuchadnezzar to Amitis the Daughter of Prince Aſtyages the Son of CYAXARES King of Media, got the Medes readily to join him in laying Siege to Niniveh, and took it, ſlaying Saracus the King, (or Chiniladanus under another Name, as ſome think) and to gratify the Medes, He utterly deſtroy'd that ancient City; whereby Babylon became the Metropolis of the whole Aſſyrian Empire, which was now all ſubject to King Nabopolaſſar.

JOSIAH the good King of Judah, being ſlain in the Battel of Megiddo, by Pharaoh Necho King of Egypt.

Jehoachaz his ſecond Son reign'd at Jeruſalem about three Months, till depoſed and captivated by King Necho, who ſet up Jehoiakim the eldeſt Son of King Joſiah, who began to reign,

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the Great, the Son of Nabopolaſſar King of Aſſyria and Chaldæa, began to reign in the Army, as his Father's Partner, according to the Jewiſh Reckoning;

For This is the firſt Year of the firſt 70 Years Captivity mention'd by Jeremiah, when King Nebuchadnezzar firſt took in Jeruſalem, made Jehoiakim his Vaſſal, and ſent many Captives to Babylon.

Nabopolaſſar his Father died at Babylon this Year,

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the Great, King of Aſſyria and Chaldæa, began to reign alone at Babylon, according to Ptolemy's Canon.

Servius Tullius, according to Promiſe, ſoon divided the Crown Lands among the poorer People; He inlarged the City, taking in the Three other Hills to the four former, viz. the Quirinal, the Viminal, and the Eſquiline, and divided the Citizens according to their Wealth into Six Claſſes, Ranks, or Orders, and 193 Centuries, with the Aſſembly of Comitia Centuriata, who rais'd Money for the War, by a Cenſus or Tax, or Valuation; and He firſt ſtampt Money with the Image of a Sheep, whence it was call'd Pecunia. TULLIUS alſo inſtituted the Roman Luſtrum (a luendo from playing) to be celebrated at the End of every five Years; when, on a certain Day after the Cenſus was made, the Citizens met in Armour in the Campus Martius, in their proper Claſs or Century, and by ſolemn Sacrifices the City was luſtrated or expiated. This began in the 12th Year of his Reign, when the Number of free Citizens were 84700: and he increas'd their Number by making Slaves free (call'd Manumitting) for their Money or Merit. He likewiſe divided the Territory into 26 Tribes, made many inferior Magiſtrates, and many good Laws, reduced the Hetrurians to Terms, built two Temples to Fortune, and intended at laſt to have laid down his Office, and to reſtore the People to abſolute Liberty. He married his two Daughters to Tarquin's two Grandſons, Lucius and Aruns: Lucius was fierce, but his Wife was mild; and Aruns was mild, but his Wife was fierce; therefore Lucius agreed with his Brother's Wife to diſpatch their Spouſes, and to be married together: which being done, Lucius uſurped the Throne of his Grandfather, and ſlew good old TULLIUS, the beſt of all the Roman Kings!	205	34	45	26	12	16	LIX.	1

TARQUINIUS Superbus, a bloody Tyrant, ſlew all that he ſuſpected, among whom was Marcus Junius, deſcended from one of ÆNEAS's Companions, and who had married Tarquina the Daughter of TARQUINIUS Priſcus, ſhe bore to him *N. TARQUINIUS Superbus obtain'd his firſt Triumph over the Sabines, whom he ſubdu'd, and his ſecond Triumph over the Volſci. He conquer'd the Gabii by the Artifice of his Son Sextus. He made a League with the Æqui, and renew'd the League with the Hetrurians. He revived his Grandfather's Deſign of building the triple Temple to Jupiter, Juno, and Minerva, on the Tarpeian Mount, and in digging for a Foundation found the Head of one Tolus, whence It was call'd Capitol, the moſt ſtately Edifice of Rome. He bought from a ſtrange Woman the Three Books of the Sibylline Oracles, (who had burnt the other Six, becauſe he would not give her Price for them) and committed them to the Care of two Noblemen.

Continuation of TABLE XLIV.

At length while he beſieged Ardea the Metropolis of the Rutuli, his Son Sextus raviſh'd Lucretia the Wife of Tarquinius Collatinus, the Son of Egerius, the Nephew of PRISCUS: ſhe ſent for her Husband and her Father Lucretius, who came from the Army attended with Publius Valerius, and Lucius Junius Brutus; and having requeſted them to revenge her Wrong, ſhe ſtabb'd herſelf before them. Upon which Brutus threw off his Mask of Simplicity, and preſſing them to join him, ſoon ſhut the City Gates, aſſembled the Senate, and by a ſolemn Speech influenced them to demoliſh Kingly Government, and to baniſh King TARQUIN with all his Family for ever; which was confirmed by the People, and agreed to by the Army: ſo that TARQUIN having neither City nor Army on his Side, fled to Hetruria for Shelter.

ROME now had its Dominion extended over moſt of old Latium, and moſt of the Sabines Country, a great Part of Hetruria, particularly the Country of the Veientes, the Cæretanes, and the Tarquinii, with ſome ſmall Parts of the Volſci and Æqui: but its whole Territory was not above 40 Miles long, and 30 broad.

But the City was become very large and populous, with many magnificent Structures that portended its future Grandeur.

The ROMANS agreed to the Scheme of Government propoſed by Lucius Junius Brutus, the Founder of the Commonwealth, viz. by a Senate, and two annual Consuls that had Regal Power and Royal Robes, Ornaments and Enſigns: and the Senate and People of Rome choſe after the Example of the Archons of Athens Lucius Junius Brutus and Lucius Tarquinius Collatinus, but this laſt favouring the Party of the Tarquins too much, laid down, and Valerius Poplicola was choſen in his Room. } the two firſt Conſuls, while Egypt was ſubject to the Perſian Kings, and Greece flouriſh'd under ſeveral Kings, and powerful Commonwealths, and while Dacia, Illyricum, Germany, Gaul, Spain, Britain, and moſt other Parts were under many petty Kings, whoſe Hiſtory is fabulous or unknown. This was in the 14th Year of Darius Hyſtaſpes King of Perſia, After the Founding of Carthage by Queen Dido the Tyrian, about 362 Years.	241	1	14	29	LXVIII. 1.	3496 508	—		—
Junius Brutus executed his two Sons for joining with other Conſpirators to reſtore King Tarquin, and was next Year ſlain himſelf by Aruns the Son of Tarquin, in a Duel before the Armies, but he ſlew Aruns alſo; when	242	2	15	30	2
Poplicola beat the Hetrurian Army that came to reſtore Tarquin, and for which he had a moſt ſolemn Triumph; was call'd Poplicola for his Popularity, and for making Laws in favour of the People. This Year the Capitol was finiſh'd, and dedicated ſolemnly by M. Horatius the other Conſul, and the firſt League made with the Carthaginians.
Porsenna an Hetrurian or Tuſcan King, in behalf of Tarquin, beſieged Rome, and had taken it, but for the Valour of Horatius Cocles. Poplicola drew out and beat Porſenna; but the Siege was carried on till Mutius Scaevola attempting, in vain, to kill Porſenna, became acquainted with him, and got him to offer Peace upon the Romans reſtoring the Lands of the Veientes; which Poplicola accepted.	243 244	3 4	16 17	31 32	3 4
The Sabines were defeated with the Loſs of 13000 Men by M. Valerius the Conſul, Brother of Poplicola.	245	5	18	33	LXIX. 1	3500 504	—		—
The Sabines and Latines confederated againſt Rome; when Appius Claudius an eminent Sabine deſerted his Nation, and ſettled at Rome with 5000 Families of his Followers. He was made a Roman Senator, and became the Root of the Claudii. The Sabine Army advancing to Fidenæ, Poplicola now again Conſul defeated them; but ſoon after his Triumph he died, and was buried at the publick Charge; becauſe He was poor, and much lamented for his Generoſity, Courage and Wiſdom.	246 247	6 7	19 20	34 35	2 3
The Sabines this Year came again and beſieged Rome, but were totally routed by the Conſuls Menenius and Poſthumius. And next Year Caſſius and Virginius the Conſuls defeated the Sabines, killing 10300, and taking 4000 Priſoners, upon which they ſued for Peace.	248	8	21	36	4
Tarquin, by the Means of Mamilius Octavius, got the Latines to declare War againſt Rome, and the City Fidenæ to revolt; which the Romans forthwith blokaded. Tarquin alſo ſent Emiſſaries to bribe the poorer Sort of People in Rome into a Revolt for his Reſtoration: but Sulpitius the Conſul diſcover'd it, and cut off the Conſpirators; while Fidenæ was yielded to Largius Flavius.	249 250	9 10	22 23	37 38	LXX. 1 2	3504 500	—		—
The 24 Latine Cities, concern'd for the Loſs of Fidenæ, declared War againſt Rome; and the Roman Senate being diſtreſs'd, becauſe the Poor and the Debtors refuſed to liſt themſelves in the Army, till their Debts were remitted by a Decree, were forced to create a ſupreme Officer call'd Dictator, Magiſter Populi, and Praetor Maximus, with whom They lodged abſolute Power during Six Months only.
The firſt Dictator was made 5 Years before the Tribunes of the People.
Lartius Largius Flavius, who choſe Sp. Caſſius for his Lieutenant or Maſter of Horſe, and appearing with 24 Rods and Axes carried before him, ſtopp'd the Murmurs of the People, who fearing to loſe their Freedom, inliſted themſelves to the Number of 150700. Flavius, dealing privately with the Latines, obtained a Truce for one Year, and at the End of Six Months laid down his Office.	251	11	24	39	3	3506 498
After the Year of Truce, both Armies took the Field: the Latines were 40000 Foot, and 3000 Horſe, under the Command of Titus and Sextus, the two Sons of Tarquin, and Mamilius: The Romans were 24000 Foot, and 1000 Horſe, commanded by the Dictator Poſthumius, Ebutius his Maſter of Horſe, and Virginius the Conſul: They fought a bloody Battel, in which the Romans were Conquerors, ſlaying three fourths of the Enemy, with Mamilius and Sextus. Upon which the Volſci retired, the Latines humbly ſued for Peace, and old King Tarquin abandon'd by the Sabines, Hetrurians, and Latines, retired to Ariſtodemus Prince of Cuma in Campania, where he died, aged 90 Years: and Posthumius laid down his Office of Dictator, after the War was finiſh'd.	253	13	26	41	LXXI. 1	3508 496
The Courts of Juſtice being open again, the Proceſſes againſt Debtors revived, which created a Mutiny among the poor People in the City, and in the Army too. Servilius the Conſul was for accommodating it, but the other Conſul Appius was much againſt it; until the Army revolted at Mons Sacer, 3 Miles North of Rome, where the inraged Commons came out and join'd them, and would have overturn'd the Government, if the Senate had not wiſely condeſcended to treat with the People by the Mediation of Menenius the Patrician, who by his Prudence brought them to Temper: only the People by this this Revolt, obtain'd Leave from the Senate to chuſe certain Guardians of their Rights, call'd the Tribunes of the People, at the Comitia Centuriata; who were a Curb to the Senate, and made the ſubſequent Government a Mixture of Ariſtocracy and Democracy.

The firſt TRIBUNES of the People were made 42 Years before the Decemviri.

They were five, viz. Lucius Junius Brutus, Sicinius Bellulus, the two Licinii, and Icilius Ruga; They and their Succeſſors, while in Office, were conſtantly to reſide at Rome, and be unanimous in their Determinations. The Commons choſe alſo two Ædiles to aſſiſt their Tribunes: and then They frankly inliſted themſelves under the Conſul Poſthumius againſt the Volſci: They firſt took from them two Towns, and laid Siege to their Capital Corioli, which Caius Marcius a valiant Patrician bravely took in, and was thence call'd Coriolanus; and then joining Poſthumius, he was the chief Cauſe of gaining an intire Victory over the Volſci, who now ſued for Peace; and the League with the Latines was alſo renew'd.

A Famine at Rome caus'd the People to be diſcontented, eſpecially that Coriolanus had advis'd the Senate to keep up the Price of the Corn brought from Sicily, in order to puniſh the Inſolence of the Commons: upon which the Tribunes of the People ſent their Ædiles to ſeize him, tried him before the People, and condemn'd him to perpetual Baniſhment; the firſt Patrician baniſh'd by the Commons. This was the ſame Year that Miltiades beat the Perſians in the Battel of Marathon.

Coriolanus went to Antium among the Volſci, was protected by Tullus Attius there, till the Volſci form'd a Pretence for War againſt the Romans, and made him their General; and he made ſtrange Havock of the Towns belonging to the Romans and Latines, diſtreſs'd Lavinium, and pitched within five Miles of Rome, when the Senate and People offer'd to reſtore him; but he ſcorn'd it, unleſs the Volſci had their Towns and Lands reſtored, and made free of Rome as the Latines were. They ſent to him next the Prieſts and Augurs, and all the Religious; but They could not prevail. Then They ſent his Mother Veturia, his Wife Volumnia, his two Children, Valeria the Siſter of Poplicola, and many fine Ladies; and after great Importunity, Coriolanus cried out, O Mother you have gain'd the Victory, moſt fortunate to my Country, but moſt deſtructive to my ſelf: for upon his Return, Tullus, thro' Envy, got him cut to Pieces untry'd, tho' much lamented by the Body of the Volſci, and the Roman Women mourn'd for him 10 Months, who for ſaving their Country had a Temple built for them, dedicated to Woman's Fortune. Upon his Death

The Conſul Aquilius overthrew the Hernici, and the other Conſul Sicinius overthrew the Volſci, among whom fell the ſaid Tullus their General: and next Year

Conſul Virginius defeated the Æqui, and the other Conſul Caſſius reduced the Volſci to ſue for Peace, who granted them to be free of Rome like the Latines.

About this Time ARTABAZUS the eldeſt Son of Darius Hyſtaſpes (by his firſt Wife Amiſa the Daughter of Gabrias) got from his Father the Regal Government of Pontus; when XERXES, Darius's eldeſt Son by Atoſſa the Daughter of CYRUS, got the Succeſſion to the Empire. This ARTABAZUS the firſt King of Pontus, was the Progenitor of MITHRIDATES the Great.

About the ſame Time the Government of Cappadocia was erected into a Kingdom, under the Son of Anapha one of the Peers of Perſia, who ſlew Smerdis the Magus.

This Year Darius Hyſtaſpes dying, his Son XERXES King of Perſia, the Grandſon of CYRUS by his Mother Atoſſa, began to reign,

Caſſius Conſul the 3^{d} Time, had a View to Sovereignty, recounting in a Speech to the People his many Services to the State, and inſinuating the Reaſonableneſs of their continuing the ſole Government in his Hands: and in order to gain the People's Favour, He propos'd to divide the conquer'd Countries, and other publick Grounds among the meaner Sort, and brought in the Latines and Hernici to a Share thereof with the old Romans; which ruin'd his Project: for the old Romans influenced the Senate to publiſh a Reſolution for dividing the Lands among the Commons, but excluding all new Allies and Aſſociats, as having no Reaſon to expect a Share of what was gain'd before their Times.

This was the famous Agrarian Law, that afterwards created much Diſturbance; but at preſent the Promiſe of it appeas'd the People, and ruin'd Caſſius: for next Year

The Quæſtors ſet him a Day to be try'd before the People, for aiming at Sovereignty or Tyranny; when all his Services, his fine Orations, the Interceſſion of all his Friends and Clients in Mourning, could not prevent his Condemnation; and he was publickly thrown down the Tarpeian Rock! Such was the Enmity of the Romans to Monarchy!

But the Commons ſoon lamented his Loſs, when They could not get the Senate to put the Agrarian Law in Execution; and for five Years running, Rome was in Confuſion by the Quarrels of the Tribunes, urging to execute that Law, and of the Conſuls declining it.

XERXES march'd into Greece with about five Millions of People to conquer it, but was ſhamefully beat at the Paſs of Thermopylæ, and Straits of Salamis this Year; and next Year his General Mardonius was totally routed by the Greeks in the Battel of Plataea.

This Year the Veientes, and other Hetrurians overcame the Conſul Virginius, and would have ruin'd him if Fabius the other Conſul had not ſeaſonably come to his Relief: but upon the Romans Retreat, the Veientes marched to the Walls of Rome, while the City was contending about the Agrarian Law; till the Family of the Fabii undertook to defend the Frontiers at their own Coſt, and fortified Cremera.

Æmilius the Conſul beat the Veientes and their Allies, but gave them Terms of Peace, and made a League with them ſo diſadvantagious to Rome, that the Senate deny'd him a Triumph; which made him take Part with the Commons.

The Veientes decoy'd the Fabii out of Cremera, and by an Ambuſh cut them all off, except one Lad, from whom deſcended Fabius Maximus: then the Veientes defeated the Conſul Menenius, routed his Camp, and marched to Mount Janiculus, within two Miles of Rome; but were a little repulſed by Horatius the other Conſul, tho' not diſlodged till next Year, when

The Conſuls Virginius and Servilius raiſing Levies, by appeaſing the poor People with Corn, drew out againſt the Enemy, paſſed the River in the Night, and gave them a total Rout. Then Menenius was fin'd for letting the brave Fabii be cut off. And in two Years The Mean while Xerxes being ſlain aſleep in Bed, by Artabanus and Mithridates his Servants, in the 21ſt Year of his Reign,

ARTAXERXES Longimanus his youngeſt Son, King of Perſia began to reign.	285	45	1	73	LXXIX. 1	3540 464	—	41	—	3580
After the Romans had took Antium from the Volſci (a Sea-port 28 Miles South Eaſt of Rome) and had reduced them, with the Æqui and Sabines, to Terms of Peace (tho' amidſt their own Broils, and one Year under a grievous Plague) the Conſuls Volumnius and Camerinus, with the young Patricians, oppoſed the Tribunes that attempted a Law to allow all Citizens an equal Share in the Adminiſtration, and to chuſe ten Men to write Laws. But during theſe Convulſions	288	48	4	76	4
Herdonius a Sabine with 4000 Men ſeiz'd the Capitol, getting the Slaves to join them upon a Proſpect of Liberty; and the Tribunes getting the Populace to refuſe to take Arms, Valerius the Conſul promis'd upon Oath to ſatiſfy their Demands when the War was ended: and ſo by their Aſſiſtance he retook the Capitol by Storm, but loſt his Life in the Action.	289	49	5	77	LXXX. 1	3544 463
The Tribunes required Claudius the other Conſul, to perform the Oath of his deceas'd Collegue; but he ſaid, He could do nothing without another Conſul: then the Comitia choſe Quintius Cincinnatus, (the Father of Cæſo, lately run his Country for oppoſing the Tribunes) whom the Meſſengers found at his Plow, and having ſaluted him as Conſul, clothed him with Purple, and carried before him the Enſigns of Magiſtracy, He left his poor little Field with Regret, and marched to Rome; where he ruled with ſo much good Conduct, that the Tribunes ſaw no Need of new Laws; and when he had finiſh'd his Year, he return'd to his Plow. Yet next Year the Æqui and Volſci revolted under Gracchus Clælius, who blokaded the Roman Army; therefore	290	50	6	78	2
QUINTIUS Cincinnatus was again taken from his Plow, and made DICTATOR, who in 14 Days fell upon Clælius, drove him to his Intrenchments, reduced his whole Army to yield at Diſcretion, and made them all paſs under the Jugum (three Spears ſet up like a Gallows) in Sign of Servitude, and Corbio was deliver'd up: for which QUINTIUS obtain'd a more magnificent Triumph than any before him: but he refuſed the Senate's Offer of Lands, Plunder, &c. and again return'd to his Plow.	291	51	7	79	3	3546 458
This 7th Year of ARTAXERXES Longimanus, is the firſt Year of Daniel's 70 Weeks, or 490 Years, reaching to the Death of Meſſiah the Prince; when alſo the King, (call'd in holy Scripture Ahaſhuerus) put the Royal Diadem on the Head of ESTHER.
When the Sabines and Æqui retook Corbio, the Senate could not raiſe an Army, till they promiſed to the People to increaſe the Number of Tribnnes to Ten; but the Senate made a Proviſo, that They ſhould not chuſe the ſame Tribunes twice. Then an Army was rais'd that reduced their Enemies.	292	52	8	80	4
But theſe Ten Tribunes ſoon became inſolent, aſſembling the Senate by their own Authority, and requiring Mount Aventine, then waſte, for the People to build on; which the Senate granted, hoping it would ſatiſfy them; and the City was thereby much increas'd. But next Year	293	53	9	81	LXXXI. 1	3548 457
The Commons renew'd their Demand of executing the Agrarian Law, which produced Heats and Blows, nay the Tribunes ſet a Day to try the Conſuls before the People; which They dropt as a dangerous Expedient: yet in a general Aſſembly convocated by the Tribunes, Siccius Dentatus a brave military Tribune or Colonel, mov'd for the Agrarian Law with much Eloquence; but the Patricians by their Prudence defeated now that Deſign, which was alſo diverted by the March of the Æqui as far as Tuſculum; againſt whom	294	54	10	82	2
The Conſuls led forth the Army, and obtain'd a notable Victory over the Enemy, particularly owing to the gallant Siccius Dentatus, who was put upon the forlorn Hope with a Deſign to have him ſlain: but he avenged himſelf by preventing their Triumph: and next Year

Siccius being choſen a Tribune of the People, got a Law paſs'd in the Comitia Centuriata, that all Magiſtrates ſhould have Power to puniſh thoſe who violated their Authority, (which before was the ſole Privilege of Conſuls) but not by any higher Fine than 2 Oxen or 30 Sheep.	295	55	11	83	3
And now the People being pleas'd and more moderate, the whole Body of Rome ſent Poſthumius, Sulpicius, and Manlius to Athens in great State, to bring from thence a Set of wholeſome Laws, for ſettling the Government and preventing Feuds.	296	56	12	84	4
This Year a great Famine and a grievous Plague did great Damage to the City, —————————— When the Ambaſſadors return'd from Greece, the Tribunes prevail'd that Ten chief Senators ſhould be elected as Law Makers with abſolute Power for one Year without Appeal, and that all other Magiſtracies ſhould be made void till renew'd according to the Laws.	297	57	13	85	LXXXII. 1	3552 452

They agreed that only one of them at one Time ſhould have the Conſular Enſigns, to which They were to ſucceed by Turns during the Year: and from the Laws brought from Greece, and their own Uſages, They formed Roman Laws ingraven upon Ten Tables of Braſs, approved by the Senate and People, and hung up in the Forum. Theſe govern'd well: but the next Set of Decemviri did not, viz.
1. Appius, the moſt cunning and popular of them, got himſelf and his Friends next choſen. 2. Fabius a former Conſul. 3. Cornelius. 4. Servilius. 5. Minutius. 6. Antonius. 7. Rabulius, all Patricians; and 8. Petilius. 9. Duellius. 10. Oppius, three Plebeians, who made an Appearance with Regal Enſigns, and with Axes as well as Rods. They ſwore to be unanimous, and to do all Things by virtue of their own Power, without regarding the Senate or People: They became both Legiſlators and Judges, put many Citizens to Death, confiſcated others unjuſtly by ſuborning Accuſers, corrupted the City, and forced many to run their Country.
Yet They added Two Tables of Laws, which made up the Twelve Tables often mention'd by Roman Authors; and This required the frequent Interpretation of the Learned; which oral Law was afterwards call'd the Civil Law: and beſides They had Actiones Juris or Law Caſes.	299	59	15	87	3
The Sabines and Æqui deſigning to invade the Roman Territories, the Decemviri were forced to call a Senate, where They were bravely oppoſed by Valerius the Grandſon of Poplicola, and Marcus Horatius the Grandſon of Poplicola's Collegue, and Claudius the Uncle of Appius, and Siccius Dentatus the Roman Achilles, and by the Body of the People; becauſe of their Tyranny. But Appius rais'd an Army, got the brave Dentatus murder'd, forced Claudius and many more to run their Country; till attempting to abuſe the Daughter of Virginius a Plebeian Soldier, the Army revolted, and the People demanded the Reſtoration of their old Government, which was readily granted by the Senate: and ſo farewell Decemviri, who govern'd not full three Years; for	300	60	16	88	4
Valerius and Horatius were made Conſuls during the Remainder of this Year; who got a Law made, that the Laws enacted in the Comitia Tributa, ſhould have the ſame Force with the Laws made in the Comitia Centuriata; which was much to the Advantage of the People.
The Tribunes now call'd the Decemviri to account; but Appius was found dead in Priſon, and Oppius kill'd himſelf in Priſon, and the other Eight baniſh'd themſelves. The Conſuls defeated the Enemy, but the Senate deny'd them their juſt Triumph: therefore the Conſuls with the Tribunes got a Law made to impower the People to grant a Triumph.	301	61	17	89	LXXXIII. 1	3556 448
The War againſt the Volſci and Æqui could not be vigorouſly managed; becauſe of the conſtant Diſputes between the Senate and People, till the Enemy had ravaged the Country to the Walls of Rome; when the People, conſulting the common Safety, liſted under the Conſuls Quintius and Furius, who obtain'd a ſignal Victory. This Year Nehemiah rebuilt the Walls of Jeruſalem.	304	64	20	92	4
The Commons forced the Senate, while the Enemy was in the Field, to paſs two Laws in their Favour, the one was to permit the Marriages of Patricians with Plebeians, and the other that Six Governors ſhould be choſen with Conſular Power, Three Patricians and Three Plebeians, to be called Military Tribunes, to let the Senate and People know whether They would chuſe that or the old Government by Conſuls, yet the People choſe only three Patricians for their Military Tribunes.	305	65	21	93	LXXXIV. 1	3560 444

TABLE XLVI.

The CHRONOLOGY of the ROMAN Republick, from the Creation of Military TRIBUNES, To the Burning of ROME by the Gauls, containing 54 Years.

	U. C.	Era of the Roman Republick.	Kings of Persia.	Era of the Persian Monarchy	OLYMPIADS.	A. M. and Bef. Christ		reign'd Years.		Died or Deposed.
Diodorus Siculus says, that this Year (viz. U. C. Varronian 311.) there was profound Peace thro' all the known Earth. The first Military TRIBUNES ruled only two Months, being forced to lay down their Office by Advice of the Augurs, and Semprónius and Papirius were chosen Consuls.	306	66	22	94	2
Geganius and Quintius the next Consuls, to ease themselves, got new Magistrates elected from the Patrician Order, call'd Censors instituted now. Semprónius and Papirius were the two first Censors, created for five Years, or one Lustrum, to make the Census or Poll Money: but afterwards They became publick Inspectors of Men's Manners, and call'd Magistri Morum, and degraded Senators and Knights for Misdemeanors. This Year Geganius beat the Volsci, and reliev'd the Ardeans, who accepted of a Roman Colony to re-people their City.	307	67	23	95	3
The Athenians sent Pericles against Samos, who changed their Aristocracy into a Democracy.	309	69	25	97	LXXXV, 1	3564 440
Sp. Maelius a rich Knight, affecting Popularity as the Way to Sovereignty, headed the Mob: upon which the Senate had Recourse to a DICTATOR, and chose Quinctius Cincinnatus again, now 80 Years old, who made Servilius Ahala his Master of Horse. Maelius refusing to appear before the Dictator, Ahala kill'd him in the Forum. The Tribunes of the People being inraged at this, got the People again to chuse	310	70	26	98	2
Three Military Tribunes all Patricians for one Year.	311	71	27	99	3
But next Year Consuls were again chosen, who being hard press'd by TOLUMNIUS King of the Veientes, were forced to create Mamercus Aemilius the DICTATOR to manage the War, who made young Quinctius Cincinnatus his Master of Horse. The Dictator obtain'd a signal Victory, and Cornelius Cossus a Colonel slew Tolumnius with his own Hand in the Battel, for which he obtain'd Opima Spolia, the Royal Spoils that none had obtain'd since the Reign of ROMULUS. And Æmilius obtain'd a solemn Triumph.	312 313	72 73	28 29	100 101	4 LXXXVI. 1	 3568 436
While a Plague raged in Rome, the Fidenates and Veientes distress'd the Romans, and forced them to chuse another DICTATOR, Servilius Priscus, who made Aebutius Elva his Master of Horse; the Dictator repulsed the Enemy and re-took Fidenæ. The Veientes making great Preparations, and sending to all their Neighbours for Succours to destroy Rome,	314	74	30	102	2
The Romans chose another DICTATOR, Aemilius, the same as before, who chose Posthumius Tubertus for his Master of Horse. But the Veientes getting no Auxiliaries, the Dictator had no Business in the Field; and during his Time he got the Censorship reduced to 18 Months, and then laid down his Office. The Censors in Revenge, having removed him out of his Tribe, the People were inraged, and chose again	315	75	31	103	3
Military Tribunes all Patricians, who ruled two Years.	316	76	32	104	4
This next Year Meton the Athenian Astronomer made his Cycle of 19 Years. While at Rome the Wars with the Volsci and Æqui made the Senate again bring in Consuls Six Years.	317	77	33	105	LXXXVII. 1	3572 432
The Peloponnesian War that lasted 27 Years now began. Thucyd. But at Rome while the Tribunes of the People were vexatious, Posthumius Tubero was made DICTATOR, who made Julius Vopiscus his Master of Horse; and the Dictator having successfully finish'd the War, laid down his Office.	318	78	34	106	2
Malachi the last Prophet of the Old Testament flourish'd about this Time, when Nehemiah return'd from Susa with a new Commission to reform Jerusalem.	321	81	37	109	LXXXVIII. 1	3576 428
The Office of Consuls continued, till the Commons would again have Military Tribunes, now increas'd to four Patricians, who ruled 4 Years.	322	82	38	110	2
This Year Fidenæ again revolted to the Veientes, and Three of these Military Tribunes commanding the Army, gave contrary Orders, put the Romans into Confusion, and made them flee before the Enemy; whereby the City all in Consternation had Recourse to their former DICTATOR, Aemilius, who made Cossus his Master of Horse; and having overthrown the Veientes, and re-taken and plunder'd Fidenæ, Aemilius laid down his Office after he had held it but 17 Days.	323	83	39	111	3
Artaxerxes Longimanus died in the 3d Month of his 41st Year, and was succeeded by XERXES his only Son by Queen Esther, who reign'd only 45 Days, till he was murder'd by his Bastard Brother SOGDIANUS, who reign'd 6 Months and 15 Days, till he was dethroned and put to Death by DARIUS	325	85	41	113	LXXXIX. 1	3580 424

This Year the War with the Volſci, and the Abſence of the Military Tribunes gave the Senate an Opportunity again to bring in Conſuls, tho' much oppoſed by the Tribunes of the People, who next Year got the People to chuſe again	327	87	2	115		3
Military Tribunes for one Year,	328	88	3	116		4
And the Senate next Year made Conſuls again: but at the End of this Year ſuch a Contention aroſe about two Quaeſtors or Treaſurers, whom the Commons would have to be of their Body, that the Roman State ſeem'd to be diſſolv'd, till Papirius took upon him the Office of INTERREX, and calling a Senate prevail'd again to admit of Military Tribunes, who ruled Six Years,	329	89	4	117	XC.	1.	3584 420
Papirius alſo mov'd that Four Quæſtors be choſen, Patricians or Plebeians, as the People in their Comitia pleas'd: but both Conſular Tribunes and Quæſtors were ſtill all Patricians.	330	90	5	118 119		2 3
The Slaves conſpired to fire the City, and ſeize the Capitol; but the Plot was timely diſcover'd.	331	91	6
While the Æqui join'd the Men of Lavicum to diſtreſs the Roman Republick, the Military or Conſular Tribunes quarrell'd for Superiority; but the Senate created a ſecond Time Servilius Priſcus DICTATOR, who made his Son Axilla his Maſter of Horſe: and Servilius having forthwith bravely attackt and repulſed the Enemy, laid down his Office in Eight Days.	333	93	8	121	XCI.	1	3588 416

AMYRTÆUS the Saite having drove the Perſians out of Egypt, began to reign there during 6 Years.	336	96	11	124		4
Old Contentions that revived between the Patricians and Plebeians about the Agrarian Law again diſſolved the Government, till Fabius took upon him to be INTERREX, and again brought in Conſuls, who ruled five Years, tho' the Commons much oppos'd it.	337	97	12	125	XCII.	1	3592 412
In this 20th Year of the Peloponneſian War, the Athenians and Lacedæmonians fought with great Fury.	339	99	14	127		3
This is the laſt Year of the firſt 7 Weeks of Daniel's 70 Weeks, or the 49th Year of the 490 Years.	340	100	15	128		4
The Æqui and Volſci ſtrengthen'd by Auxiliaries, having much diſtreſs'd the Roman Territory, and the Commons refuſing to inliſt themſelves, the Senate again conſented to ſet up three of the Quaeſtors of their Rank, the firſt Plebeian Quæſtors; and alſo to allow again of Military TRIBUNES, who ruled 16 Years,	341	101	16	129	XCIII.	1	3596 408
But They not being ſucceſsful in War, another DICTATOR was choſen, the brave Cornelius Coſſus, who made Servilius Ahala his Maſter of Horſe, overthrew the Enemy in Battel, waſted their Country, and return'd in Triumph. AMYRTÆUS being dead, was ſucceeded by NEPHERITES I. who now began to reign in Egypt during Six Years.	343	103	18	131		3
The Romans brought home much Plunder from Anxur or Terracina a Volſcian City; and the Senate decreed to pay the Army with Braſs Money, which was the firſt Time that Roman Soldiers receiv'd publick Pay. And now the Volſci ſued for Peace, the Patricians and Plebeians were much reconciled, the Roman Territory was increas'd, hot War was proclaim'd againſt the Veientes, and their Capital Veii the Rival of Rome, was blokaded, from which the Romans were reſolved never to depart Summer and Winter, till They had ruin'd it; and lay before it ten Years.	344	104	19	132		4
The Commons now got the Number of the Military TRIBUNES increas'd to Six, as at firſt deſign'd, but no Plebeian was yet elected. Lyſander General of the Lacedemonians, having laſt Year beat the Athenians at the Goat's River in the Helleſpont, laid Siege to Athens this Year, and having diſmantl'd and ruin'd it, the Lacedæmonians glorioſly finiſh'd the Peloponneſian War: a little after, within the ſame Year Darius Nothus died, and his eldeſt Son	345	105	1	133	XCIV.	1	3600 404	—	46	—	3645

Alcibiades the brave Athenian General, was unjuſtly put to Death by Pharnabazus.	347	107	3	135		3
Nepherites being dead, ACHORIS King of Egypt began to reign during 12 Years. Iſocrates the Orator flouriſh'd, and Democritus the Philoſopher died. Now Cyrus the younger Brother of Artaxerxes Mnemon, marched to dethrone his Brother thro' Leſſer Aſia and the Straits of Cilicia, to the Plains of Cunaxa in Chaldea, where he was ſlain in Battel; and from whence the excellent Hiſtorian and brave General Xenophon made his glorious Retreat at the Head of 13000 Greeks.	348	108	4	136		4
The Plebeians publiſh'd the Agrarian Law among themſelves, but not in the Senate; and this Year They firſt prevail'd to get a Commoner, Licinius Calvus, to be choſen one of the Military TRIBUNES.	349	109	5	137	XCV.	1	3604 400
Cteſias the Phyſician of Cyrus now flouriſh'd in the Court of Artaxerxes Mnemon during 17 Years: where he wrote his Hiſtory, and Socrates the Philoſopher, aged 70 Years, died a Martyr at Athens, to the Being of one God and no more.	350	110	6	138		2

ROMAN Republick.

The Siege of Veii was ſtill carried on, but with various Succeſs, and under divers Commanders; the Beſiegers being aided by the Faliſci, one of the 12 Nations of Hetruria, and the Romans were diverted by the Volſci. In the Third Year of the Siege the valiant Furius Camillus was made one of the Cenſors, and two Years after he was made a Military TRIBUNE, and again three Years after, or in the 8th Year of the Siege, when he repulſed the Faliſci and Capenates; and in the tenth and laſt Year of the Siege, Camillus being made DICTATOR, made Cornelius Scipio his Maſter of Horſe, totally routed the Confederates of the Veientes, undermin'd that great City, thro' which his Soldiers enter'd it, and took it, which enriched the Romans: and Camillus triumphed ſolemnly in a Chariot drawn by four Milk White Steeds, which offended the Romans, as what They thought too ſacred for a Triumph.

Camillus prudently imploy'd the Commons, and kept them from going to ſettle at Veii; whereby many of them were again offended.

Camillus not having performed his Vow of dedicating the Tenths of the Spoils to Apollo, the Prieſts cunningly put him in Mind of it: ſo that after the Soldiers had expended their Shares of the Spiol, They were forced upon Oath to reſtore the Tenths to Apollo; and becauſe They were poor, and there was little Money in Rome, the Ladies parted with their Jewels and Ornaments to enable them; for which the Senate decreed, that for the future They ſhould have the Honour of funeral Orations; but many of the Commons were thus a third Time offended by Camillus.

This Year Conon beat the Lacedæmonians at Sea, in the Battel of Cnidus.

The Commons grew more turbulent, moving again for a Separation from the Patricians, but the War with the Faliſci prevented it: but Camillus as Military Tribune led forth the Army, beſieged Falerii their Capital, and for diſcouraging the Treachery of a Schoolmaſter that offer'd to deliver up the Sons of the Nobility and Magiſtrates, the People ſurrender'd to that generous Roman, who only fin'd them, and receiv'd them and all the Faliſci into Friendſhip. But his Soldiers expecting Plunder, were highly diſguſted, and reſolv'd to ruine him.

This Year Conon rebuilt Athens; and the Senate of Rome prevail'd to chuſe again Conſuls, who rul'd two Years.

The Lacedæmonians were forced to make Peace with the Perſians upon diſhonourable Terms.

This Year Conſuls ruled at Rome, after the Military Tribunes had ruled about 16 Years. But next Year

The Romans would again have Military TRIBUNES, when the Tribunes of the People again mov'd for a Separation from the Patricians, and being ſharply oppoſed by Camillus, They impeached him of Frauds in the Plunder of the late War; but he perceiving the Mob were reſolved to condemn him, left the City, wiſhing They might ſtand in need of him; which ſoon came about: for

This Year alſo the Gauls, call'd Senones, inhabiting the Country now call'd Lombardy, wanting a larger Country for their Numbers, marched under their King BRENNUS into Hetruria, beſieged Cluſium a City in Alliance with Rome; and upon juſt Provocation marched towards Rome itſelf, and defeated the Romans at the River Allia. ROME was all in Conſternation and Confuſion, and was abandon'd by moſt of the Citizens, except a few that fortify'd themſelves in the Capitol, and the old Senators that cloathed themſelves in their moſt gorgeous Attire, and ſitting in their Ivory Chairs in the Forum, waited there to die by the Gauls; who entering the City ſlew them all, and every Roman They found, plunder'd the City, burnt it down to the Ground, and laid Siege to the Capitol.

TABLE XLVII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the ROMAN Republick, from the Burning of Rome by the Gauls, To the 15th Year of their Wars with the SAMNITES, and the End of the PERSIAN Monarchy, containing 60 Years.

ROME lying in Aſhes, the Senators maſſacred, and the Capitol beſieged, the diſperſed Romans began to repent of their maletreating the great CAMILLUS, who living privately at Ardea, began to relent, and pity his Country's Wrongs; and exciting the Ardeans to Arms, He cut off a Party of the Gauls, without leaving one to carry the Tidings: upon which the Romans at Veii ſent to him to take upon him the Command; but he declin'd it, except thoſe in the Capitol, the true viſible Remains of ROME, ſhould impower him; and Pontius Cominius, by a Stratagem, got himſelf into the Capitol, and from thence brought an Order for him to be DICTATOR, who made Valerius Potitius his Maſter of Horſe, and with an Army of 40000 Men marched againſt the Gauls.

Mean while, the Gauls diſcovering the Footſteps of Cominius, King BRENNUS order'd a choſen Band in the Night to climb up the ſame Way, and take the Capitol by Surprize; which They would have done, if They had not been diſcover'd by the Gagling of Geeſe, when Manlius, a brave Patrician, and others joining him, tumbled the Gauls down the Rock, none eſcaping.

Yet the Romans for want of Proviſions, were forced to capitulate, agreeing to pay a thouſand Pound Weight of Gold to BRENNUS, upon which He would forthwith return home. But while the Gold was weighing, and Brennus inſulting with Væ Victis, CAMILLUS arriv'd with a choice Party, and took it out of the Scales, telling the Gauls, that it was the Cuſtom of the Romans to deliver their Country with Iron, and not with Gold, and as DICTATOR he annull'd the Contract: upon This both Sides took to Arms, and fought a bloody Battel, wherein CAMILLUS gave Brennus a total Rout, and cloſely purſuing his Victory, ſoon clear'd the Roman Territories of the Gauls.

Thus in Seven Months ROME was unexpectedly burnt by the Gauls,
And They as unexpectedly deſtroy'd by CAMILLUS, who made a glorious Triumph as a Second ROMULUS.

Achoris being dead, PSAMMITICHUS or Pſammites King of Egypt reign'd this laſt Year, and next Year NEPHERITES II. reign'd 4 Months, when NECTENEBIS began to reign during 18 Years. Euſeb.

CAMILLUS was obliged to hold the Office of DICTATOR a whole Year, in order to keep the People from ſettling at Veii, and to perſuade them to rebuild the venerable and lofty Seat of their glorious Anceſtors; which was done in a Hurry, and the City wanted much of its former Beauty.

When CAMILLUS had ſerved as DICTATOR a whole Year,
Military TRIBUNES again were choſen, who ruled about 12 Years, till the Anarchy, ———

But They were ſoon blockt up by a Confederacy of the Volſci, Æqui, and Hetrurians, till CAMILLUS a third Time DICTATOR, with Servilius Ahala his Maſter of Horſe defeated them.

CAMILLUS as Military Tribune defeated the Hetrurians again, with the Hernici and Latines; and this Year three Tribes were added, which made the whole Number 25. The War renew'd with the Volſci made the Romans chuſe another DICTATOR, Cornelius Coſſus with Quintius Capitolinus his Maſter of Horſe, who ſoon return'd in Triumph, and put Manlius in Priſon for affecting Popularity, with a View to Sovereignty, but ſoon releas'd him, becauſe of the Clamours of the People: But Manlius growing more inſolent, was condemn'd and thrown down the Tarpeian Rock, tho' he had lately ſaved the Capitol! ſo jealous was ROME of her Liberty, that no Merit could atone for an Attempt upon it.

This Year DOEDALSUS founded the Kingdom of Bithynia, and reign'd at Aſtacus five Years.

CAMILLUS again choſen Military Tribune, marched againſt the Volſci; and when his Collegue Lucius was defeated, CAMILLUS roſe from his ſick Bed, rallied upon the Enemy, and gave them a total Rout.

Rome being in Convulſions by the Quarrels of Debtors and Creditors, the Men of Præneſte, a Town of Latium, ravaged the Country to the Walls of Rome. But QUINCTIUS CINCINNATUS the DICTATOR, with Sempronius Atratinus his Maſter of Horſe, defeated them, and took their City, with Eight Towns its Dependants, in 20 Days, and laid down his Office.

Fabius Ambuſtus a Tribune, having married one Daughter to a Patrician, and another to Licinius Stolo a Plebeian, and the latter being uneaſy at her Husband's wanting equal Honour, Fabius adviſed with his Son in Law Stolo and L. Seſtius, about a Law to make one Conſul a Plebeian. Stolo and Seſtius being made Tribunes of the People, created ſuch Animoſities in the City, that from this Year about five Years running, no ſupreme Magiſtrates were choſen, and none acting but the Tribunes of the People and the Ædiles, Rome was in Anarchy: Mean while ARTAXERXES Mnemon King of Perſia fail'd in his Deſcent upon Egypt: and Evagoras King of Salamin in Crete being murder'd, his Son NICOCLES began to reign, the ſame for whom Iſocrates wrote two of his Orations.

The Thebans not agreeing to the Peace of Antalcidas, prepared to attack the Lacædemonians, and beat them next Year in the Battel of Leuctra: when the Romans again choſe ——— Military Tribunes, who ruled 7 Years, ——— But

But the Conteſts being ſtill kept up, the Senate made CAMILLUS a 4th Time DICTATOR, who, with Æmilius Mamercinus his Maſter of Horſe, brought both Parties to a better Temper.	380	140	21	36	168		4
NECTENEBIS King of Egypt being dead, was ſucceeded by THEO, who reign'd two Years.
But CAMILLUS finding the People outragious, ſoon laid down his Office; when They choſe another DICTATOR, MANLIUS Capitolinus, who choſe Licinius Stolo his Maſter of Horſe, the firſt Plebeian that ever obtain'd that Honour, who had been the Occaſion of theſe Confuſions, and now preferr'd a Law, That no Man ſhould poſſeſs above 500 Acres of Land.	381	141	22	37	169	CIII.	1	3636 368
Amidſt theſe Contentions about the Conſulſhip, the Alarm came of the Gauls, marching from the Adriatic towards Rome; which made them all unite in the common Safety; nay they made a Law, That all Men, even the Prieſts, ſhould carry Arms againſt the Gauls, tho' at other Times exempted.
THEO King of Egypt being dead, NECTANEBUS ſucceeded, who reign'd 18 Years.	382	142	23	38	170		2
The Romans unanimouſly choſe CAMILLUS the 5th Time DICTATOR, who, with Quinctius Cincinnatus his Maſter of Horſe, furniſh'd his Men with light Iron Helmets, made them bind their wooden Targets round with Braſs, and taught them to fence, and to receive the Enemies heavy Blows without Hurt; whereby He overthrew the Gauls at the River Anio; and the Romans now deſpis'd them as much as They had fear'd them before.	383	143	24	39	171		3
But the brave and wiſe CAMILLUS had a ſharper Fight with the People, who forced him and the Senate to conſent to a Law, That Conſuls ſhould be revived, and that one of them ſhould be a Plebeian: and the Patricians obtain'd a Prætor out of their Body, or a Deputy Conſul, for the Adminiſtration of Juſtice in Cauſes both Civil and Criminal, or the Chief Judge: They alſo obtain'd two Ædiles Curules, ſo call'd from their Ivory Chair, or Cella Curulis; They were Magiſtrates, and had more Authority than the Ædiles of the Commons, and eſpecially took Care of publick Games, were Licenſers of Tragedies, Comedies, and other Writings: and when Generals return'd from War, They deliver'd the Prize of Corn and Proviſions to the Ædiles Curules, and the Priſoners to the Prætor, and the Money to the Quæſtor.	384	144	25	40	172		4
Thus an End was put to Military Tribunes, And Conſuls revived at ROME;
Now the People were reconciled to the Senate, and a Temple built to Concord, as CAMILLUS had vow'd. But another Alarm from the Gauls and the Hernici, made the Senate comply with the Commons, That every other Year the Curule Ædiles ſhould be choſen out of the Commons. But afterwards They were choſen promiſcuouſly.	385	145	26	41	173	CIV.	1	3640 364
The Plague raged at Rome, and ſwept away vaſt Numbers, among whom was the glorious CAMILLUS.	386	146	27	42	174		2
The Romans to appeaſe their Gods, fooliſhly brought in Stage Players from Hetruria; and Hiſter in the Hetrurian Language ſignifying a Player, thence came the Roman Word Hiſtrio, about 40 Years after the Death of the Greek Comedians Sophocles and Euripides.	387	147	28	43	175		3
The Plague ſtill raging, and ſome old People affirming, That a former Plague was ſtaid, by the Dictator's driving a Nail, the Senate forthwith made MANLIUS Capitolinus DICTATOR, who made Pinarius Netta his Maſter of Horſe; and with great Ceremony and Superſtition, drove a Nail on the right Side of Jupiter's Temple in the Capitol.
The Ground in the Forum cleaving to a vaſt Depth by an Earthquake, M. Curtius a brave young Soldier, rode arm'd into the Gulph with great Solemnity, that by being ſwallow'd up, he might purchaſe the Deliverance of his Country, according to the Declaration of their Gods, or rather of their Prieſts; for their Gods could not ſpeak.
Genucius the Plebeian Conſul being ſlain, and his Army being routed by the Hernici, the Senate created CLAUDIUS Croſſanus DICTATOR, who made Cornelius Scipio his Maſter of Horſe, and repulſed the Enemy.	388	148	29	44	176		4
The Gauls in vaſt Numbers marching within 3 Miles of Rome, the Romans choſe QUINTIUS Pennus DICTATOR, who made CORNELIUS Maluginenſis his Maſter of Horſe; when a Gigantic Champion of the Gauls, ſtept forth between the Armies, and challenged any Roman to fight him; but T. Manlius, a brave Youth, ſtept forth and ſlew him, and took away his Torques or Golden Chain, and from thence call'd Torquatus: upon which the Gauls diſcouraged, at Night retreated to the Triburtius in Latium, where, with the Heruici, They much damaged the Roman Territories; till	389	149	30	45	177	CV.	1	3644 360
SERVILIUS Ahala was choſen DICTATOR, who made Quintius Capitolinus his Maſter of Horſe, and ſoon quell'd the Gauls.	390	150	31	46	178		2
Artaxerxes Mnemon King of Perſia being dead, was ſucceeded by his Son, DARIUS OCHUS, who began to reign this Year;	391	151	32	1	179		3	3646 358	—	21	—	3666
When the Romans made Peace with the Latines, and from them had good Auxiliaries. But the Gauls Preparations made the Senate to create SULPITIUS Peticus DICTATOR, who made Valerius Poplicola his Maſter of Horſe; when two new Tribes were added, in all now 27.	392	152	33	2	180		4
ALEXANDER the Great was born at Pella in Macedonia, and the Temple of Diana at Epheſus was burnt on his Birth Day.	393	153	34	3	181	CVI.	1	3648 356

ROMAN Republick.	U. C.	Era of the Roman Republick.	Era of Rome burnt.	Kings of Perſia.	Era of the Perſian Monarchy	OLYMPIADS.		A. M. and Bef. Chriſt	reign'd Years.	Died or Depoſed.
The whole Body of the Hetrurians took up Arms againſt Rome, when the Romans choſe a Plebeian, Marcius Rutilus Dictator, who made a Plebeian, Plautius Proculus his Maſter of Horſe; and having beat the Enemy, he triumph'd; tho' not with the Senate's Conſent.	394	154	35	4	182		2
The Patricians join'd to take away the Conſulſhip from the Commons; which occaſion'd many Heats and Diſturbances for three Years.	395	155	36	5	183		3
Mausolus King of Caria being dead, his Siſter and Widow the mournful Artemisia began to reign; and built for him at Halicarnaſſus a Monument of the choiceſt Architecture, accounted one of the ſeven Wonders of Art.	396	156	37	6	184		4
The Incurſions of the Hetrurians made the Romans chuſe Manlius Torquatus Dictator, who made Cornelius Coſſus his Maſter of Horſe, and terrify'd the Enemy into Peace: But the Senate was forced to allow again of a Plebeian Conſul, and to pay the poor People's Debts out of the Treaſury. And ſo all was quiet at Rome: only a falſe Rumour of the Hetrurians uniting againſt Rome, made the Romans chuſe	397	157	38	7	185	CVII.	1	3652 352
Caius Julius Dictator, who made L. Aemilius his Maſter of Horſe; but left all to the new Conſuls, two Patricians, who beat the Tarquinii and Faliſci. Yet this Peace in Rome laſted not long; for Marcius Rutilus the late Plebeian Dictator, rais'd new Quarrels by contending to be made one of the Cenſors: but tho' the Senate, to oppoſe him, choſe M. Fabius Dictator, who made Q. Servilius his Maſter of Horſe; yet the Plebeians prevail'd, and Rutilus was made a Cenſor, the firſt Plebeian in that Office.	398	158	39	8	186		2
	399	159	40	9	187		3
Ochus King of Perſia marched into Egypt, where the People revolted to him from King Nectanebus, who fled into Ethiopia, and was never more heard of, the laſt Egyptian that ever reign'd in Egypt: for now Egypt is again a Province of Perſia.
The Romans obtain'd a great Victory over the Gauls; but one of the Conſuls being wounded, and the other ſick, the Senate made Furius Camillus Dictator, who made Cornelius Scipio his Maſter of Horſe, and call'd the Comitia for a new Election of Conſuls, when he was choſen Conſul for the Year enſuing; and leading a brave Army againſt the Gauls, a Gigantic and pompous Gaul came forth and challeng'd any Roman to fight him, but he was bravely ſlain by M. Valerius a young Colonel, who, becauſe a Corvus or Crow aſſiſted him in the Duel, was call'd Corvinus, and his Offspring Corvini. This diſpirited the Gauls, and the Romans gave them a total Rout.	400	160	41	10	188		4
Manlius Torquatus was choſen Dictator for a new Election of Conſuls, who made Cornelius Coſſus his Maſter of Horſe; and Valerius Corvus, tho' only 23 Years old, was choſen a Conſul for his great Merit.	401	161	42	11	189	CVIII.	1	3656 348
And now Rome at Concord, and deliver'd from foreign War, ſettled their Colonies, and concluded a League with the Carthaginians, who had ſent Ambaſſadors to deſire it.
The Arunci, a People beyond the Volſci, invading the Roman Territories, Furius Camillus was made Dictator a 2d Time, who made Manlius Capitolinus his Maſter of Horſe, and routed the Enemy in one Battel. This Year Ariſtotle was invited to the Court of Philip King of Macedon, and became the Preceptor of Alexander the Great, then about 12 Years old.	404	164	45	14	192		4
A Temple was dedicated to Juno Moneta on the Capitol Hill; and ſoon after, ſeveral Prodigies frightned the Romans to create Valerius Poplicola Dictator, who made Fabius Ambuſtus his Maſter of Horſe, and conſtituted certain Feaſts and Holy Days for appeaſing the Gods, and for diverting the Judgments threatned, by Proceſſions and ſolemn Prayers. The Ædiles alſo ſmartly puniſh'd the Uſurers of Rome.	405	165	46	15	193	CIX.	1	3660 344
And now the Roman Territory was increas'd more than double the Extent of what it was at the Expulſion of the Roman Kings, comprehending all old Latium, and the Countries of the Volſci, Æqui, Rutili, Hernici, and Arunci, with moſt of Sabina, and a good Part of Hetraria: tho' hitherto their Wars were only Defenſive, at leaſt not begun without juſt Provocations, and all nigh home in their own Neighbourhood.
But now increaſing in Power, the Romans began their Wars with The Samnites, a warlike People, above 100 Miles South Eaſt of Rome, inhabiting a great Part of what is now call'd the Kingdom of Naples, having then ſeven other Nations their Dependents, viz. the Picentes, Veſtini, Marrucini, Frentini, Peligni, Marſi, and Hirpini.
The Samnites had quarrell'd with the Sidicini their Neighbours, who apply'd to their Neighbours the Campanians for Succour; and the Campanians being an effeminate People, ſent to Rome for Aid, imploring it with Tears, and giving up their Country to the Protection of the Romans; and the Samnites ſcorning the Mediation of the Romans, the Senate ſent their Conſuls Valerius and Cornelius, each with a diſtinct Army, the one to Capua, and the other to Samnium, and both were victorious, having ſlain, after an obſtinate Reſiſtance, above 30000 Samnites, and both triumphed when Decius a Collonel under Cornelius, was highly honour'd for his great Bravery.	406	166	47	16	194		2
The Romans ſent Garriſons into Campania; but the Roman Soldiers were ſo corrupted by the Delicacies of Capua, that They form'd a Deſign of cutting off the Inhabitants, and taking the Town to Themſelves; but when it was diſcover'd, They being afraid of Puniſhment, gather'd in a great Number and marched ſtrait to Rome in open Rebellion. This made the Senate forthwith create Valerius Corvus Dictator, who made Aemilius Mamercinus his Maſter of Horſe; but the Rebels out of Fear yielded themſelves, and were pardon'd. The ſame Year the Samnites ſued for Peace, and obtain'd it, the Sidicini being left to their Mercy. Soon after	407	167	48	17	195		3
The Samnites deſired the Romans to command the Latines and Campanians not to aſſiſt the Sidicini; and theſe being affronted, that the Romans would not deny They had Authority over them, revolted. Therefore the two Conſuls Manlius Torquatus and Decius Mus, marched an Army to chaſtiſe the Latines; and finding by certain Dreams and Prognoſtications, That the General on one Side, and the Army on the other, were to be deſtroy'd, the Conſuls agreed by Oath, That in what Part the Roman Army ſhould be diſtreſs'd, the General of that Part ſhould devote himſelf to the Gods, and die for his Country! And a ſtrict Charge was given, that no Man upon Pain of Death ſhould fight without Orders. Accordingly

The Latines in the Battel preſſing hard upon the Romans under Decius, he ruſh'd into the midſt of the Enemy, and loſt his Life, but won the Battel. Jaddua or Jaddus the Highprieſt of Jeruſalem, began this Year to officiate, and held it 20 Years.
The People of Antium and Ardea making Incurſions into the Roman Territories, Manlius being ſick, nam'd Papyrius Craſſus for Dictator, who made Pappyrius Curſor his Maſter of Horſe, and kept the Field ſome Months in the Enemies Country; but without Action.	409	169	50	19	197	CX.	1	3664 340
The Conſuls Aemilius and Publius again overthrew the Latines; but the Senate to get rid of them both, choſe a Dictator, and Aemilius having the Faſces that Month, named his Collegue Publius Philo, the ſecond Plebeian Dictator, who made Junius Brutus his Maſter of Horſe; and in Hatred to the Nobility made three remarkable Laws, 1. That the Plebiſcita ſhould obligate all Ranks of Citizens. 2. That the Laws enacted in the Centuriata Comitia, ſhould be paſs'd or own'd by the Senate, before They were voted by the People. 3. That one of the Cenſors ſhould always certainly be a Plebeian.	410	170	51	20	198		2
The Conſuls Furius Camillus and C. Maenius order'd Pedum to be taken by Storm, and purſued the Victory in the Conqueſt of all Latium, ſent a new Colony to Antium, forbid that People to uſe Navigation, took their long Ships from them, ſome of which They brought to the Arſenal, and burnt others; but with their Roſtra or Beaks the Gallery or Pulpit in the Forum was adorn'd, which from thence was call'd Roſtrum.	411	171	52	21	199		3
Ochus King of Perſia was poiſon'd by his Favourite Bagoas the Eunuch, who alſo murder'd all the royal Seed, except Arses the King's youngeſt Son, who now began to reign under the Tuition of Bagoas, who rul'd all, ———	412	172	53	1	200		4	3667 337	—	2	—	3668
And this ſame Year Publius Philo was made Prætor, the firſt Plebeian in that Office.
Philip King of Macedon being made Captain General of all Greece, deſign'd to make War upon the Perſians.
The Sidicini overcame the Arunci, who were neglected by the Romans till too late: but at length Valerius Corvus now the 4th Time Conſul beat the Sidicini, and took the City Cales, where he planted a Colony of 2500 Romans.	413	173	54	2	201	CXI.	1	3668 336
Philip King of Macedon being murder'd by Pauſanias, was ſucceeded by his Son Alexander the Great.

This Year while the Roman Conſuls were abroad in Action, the Senate created Æmilius Mamercinus Dictator, who made Publius Philo his Maſter of Horſe.
Alexander the Great invaded Aſia, and won the Battel of Granicus againſt the Perſians. ———	415	175	56	2	203		3
Alexander gave Darius a total Rout in the Battel of Iſſus in Syria. ———	416	176	57	3	204		4
Alexander took in Tyre and Gaza, and invaded Egypt, went to the Temple of Jupiter Hammon in Lybia, and founded the City of Alexandria. And Ptolemy the Aſtronomer being a native of Alexandria, begins Alexander's Reign over the Eaſt, or the Grecian Monarchy from this Year: but I begin it from the Death of Darius King of Perſia.	417	177	58	4	205	CXII.	1	3672 332
This Year the Romans fearing an Invaſion by the Gauls, created Papirius Craſſus Dictator, who made V. Poplicola his Maſter of Horſe: but They had no Buſineſs to do. Two new Roman Tribes were made, being now in all 29 Tribes.
Alexander gave Darius another total Rout in the Battel of Gaugameh, near Arbela in Aſſyria. ———	418	178	59	5	206		2
At Rome 170 Women were put to Death for uſing the Art of Poiſoning, and the Romans created Quintius Varus Dictator, who made Valerius Potitus his Maſter of Horſe, and drove a Nail into Jupiter's Temple to remedy the Diſtempers of the State.
The Romans defeated Vitrurius Vaccus an Aruncian, who had drawn in the Inhabitants of Privernum to join him. ———	419	179	60	6	207		3	3674 330

TABLE XLVIII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the ROMAN Republick, from the End of the PERSIAN Monarchy, To the End of their Wars with PYRRHUS, and the firſt Punic War, containing 65 Years.

	U. C.	Era of the Roman Republick.	Era of Rome burnt.	Era of the Grecian Monarchy	Alexander the Great	OLYMPIADS.		A. M. and Bef. Chriſt		reign'd Years.		Died or Depoſed.
In the 15th Year of the Roman Wars with the Samnites,
ALEXANDER the Great, after the Death of DARIUS, and in the 7th Year of his Reign over Macedonia, began to reign King of Perſia, and founded the GRECIAN Monarchy: while the Romans took Vitrurius Priſoner, and Privernum ſurrender'd, whoſe Inhabitants were made free of Rome.	420	180	61	1	1	CXII.	4	3675 329	—	06	—	3680
The Inhabitants of Palæpolis in Campania (where Naples was afterwards built) ſupported by the Samnites, and while a Plague raged at Rome, ravaged the Country about Cumæ and Falernus.	421	181	62	2	2	CXIII.	1	3676 328
This Year ALEXANDER in cold Blood put to Death Caliſthenes the Philoſopher, for his good Admonitions.
The Romans forced the Palepolitans to ſurrender their City, took Three Towns from the Samnites, while ALEXANDER invaded India, and vanquiſh'd King PORUS.	422	182	63	3	3		2
About this Time one Papirius a beautiful Youth, having made himſelf the Slave of one Publius a ſevere Uſurer, to work out his Father's Debts; Publius being a Sodomite, attempted to abuſe him; and upon Refuſal, moſt cruelly ſcourged him. But Papirius complaining to the People, They in Reſentment procured two Laws, viz. 1. That no Man ſhould be detain'd in Slavery but for heinous Miſdemeanors, and not after due Puniſhment. 2. That the Money and Goods, not the Body of the Debtor, ſhould be reſponſible. Whereupon all Priſoners for Debt being ſet at Liberty, the Army was recruited, and Brutus Scaeva the Conſul defeated the Veſtini, the Confederates of the Samnites, and took from them two Towns. Furius Camillus the other Conſul being ſick at Samnium, nam'd	423	183	64	4	4		3
PAPIRIUS Curſor DICTATOR, who made Fabius Rullianus his Maſter of Horſe, and going to Rome to renew his Auſpicia, left a ſtrict Charge to Fabius not to fight till he return'd to the Camp: but Fabius finding a great Advantage over the Enemy, fought and overthrew them with a great Slaughter. The Dictator in a Rage return'd to the Camp, and would have put Fabius to Death, but that he was reſcued by the Army; and the Senate and the People interceded for him with the Dictator.	424	184	65	5	5		4
ALEXANDER the Great died at Babylon by hard drinking, in the 33d Year of his Age, when the Empire was partition'd among his Generals. See Page 139.	425	185	66	6	6 Philippus Aridæus Emperor.	CXIV.	1	3680 324
The Severity of Papirius ſo alienated the Hearts of the Roman Army, that he almoſt loſt a Battel, till becoming more popular, he defeated the Samnites, and forced them to ſue for Peace.
ALEXANDER's Generals not agreeing which of them ſhould ſucceed him, ſet up his Baſtard Brother
PHILIPPUS Aridaeus, who began to reign after a poor Manner this Year, which is the firſt Year of the Egyptian Era from the Death of ALEXANDER, call'd from him the Philippic Era, commencing on the firſt Day of Thoth, or 12th of November, of the Year that Alexander died.	426	186	67	7	1		2	3681 323	—	7	—	3687
The Samnites revived the War, and growing very powerful, the Roman Senate created
CORNELIUS Arvina DICTATOR, who made Fabius Ambuſtus his Maſter of Horſe, and routed the Samnites, who ſent their Priſoners and Plunder to Rome, in order to purchaſe Peace, which was deny'd them by the Senate. Inraged at this Refuſal, Pontius their General drew out the Samnites to Caudium, and ſent ten Soldiers as Spies, in Shepherd's Habit, to miſinform the Conſul and the Roman Army at Collatia, that the Samnites were beſieging Luceria in Apulia, and had almoſt took it: the Conſuls Calvus and Poſthumius thus deceived, marched forthwith to relieve Luceria, thro' the Straits of Caudium the ſhorteſt Way, and were there block'd up by Pontius, whoſe Father Herennius ſent him Advice either to diſmiſs the Romans generouſly, which would be a perpetual Obligation on a moſt powerful Nation, or to cut them all off, which would be a great Weakening of a moſt formidable Enemy. Pontius followed not this good Advice, but gave the Romans Terms, 1. That the Army ſhould paſs under the Jugum or Gallows, in Token of Slavery; and march off diveſted of their upper Garments. 2. And quit all Samnium, and remove their Colonies. 3. And a firm Alliance made between the Nations. Which diſgraceful Terms the Romans being forced to accept, They left 600 Hoſtages, and return'd to Capua diſarmed and half naked; and from thence to Rome with great Shame, Anger and Confuſion. The Conſuls were aſham'd to appear, and therefore the Senate created	427	187	68	8	2		3
ÆMILIUS Papus DICTATOR, who made Valerius Flaccus his Maſter of Horſe; but could not get the People to meet in their Comitia to chuſe new Conſuls, the whole City being in Mourning, and the State fell into a ſhort Anarchy. But next Year They choſe	428	188	69	9	3		4
Papirius Curſor and Publius Philo Conſuls, when the former Conſuls generouſly offer'd themſelves to be deliver'd up to the Enemy, and to break the Caudian Treaty, urging that only They two were obliged to perform the Articles, and not the State: but Pontius the Samnite refuſing to receive them, and exclaiming againſt the Perfidy of the Romans, Papirius marched the Army inflam'd with Revenge and Fury, beat the Samnites in ſeveral Battels, recover'd the Roman Hoſtages and ſeveral Towns, made the Samnite Priſoners paſs under the Jugum, and that Nation did with Difficulty obtain a two Year's Truce: during which Time two new Tribes were added, which made the Number 31.	429	189	70	10	4	CXV.	1	3684 320
The Samnites renew'd the War, and the Hetrurians preparing for War too, the Senate made L. ÆMILLIUS DICTATOR, who made L. Fulvius Corvina his Maſter of Horſe, and overthrew the Enemy in a bloody Battel, that came to relieve Saticula, which he had inveſted.	432	192	73	13	7		4

FABIUS Maximus being choſen DICTATOR, made AULIUS Cerretanus his Maſter of Horſe, took in Saticula, and managed the War with great Succeſs againſt the Samnites.	434	194	75	15	2	—	2
While the Succeſſors of Alexander the Great were contending about the Partition of his Empire, the wiſe and brave Eumenes was baſely deliver'd up to ANTIGONUS, who now became Maſter of all Aſia, and expell'd Seleucus from Babylon, who fled to PTOLEMY in Egypt.
C. MÆNIUS was choſen DICTATOR, who made M. Foslius his Maſter of Horſe, and ſuppreſs'd a Rebellion at Capua. ———	435	195	76	16	3	—	3
C. PÆTELIUS was choſen DICTATOR, who made the ſame Foslius his Maſter of Horſe, and beat the Enemy. ———	436	196	77	17	4	—	4
Ptolemy, Seleucus, Lyſimachus, and Caſſander, had confederated againſt ANTIGONUS; and Ptolemy having defeated Demetrius, the Son of Antigonus, at Gaza, drove him out of Phenicia; upon which Ptolemy gave SELEUCUS Nicator 1000 Foot, and 300 Horſe, who marching to Babylon recover'd that City, where he had rul'd before, and all the Eaſtern Parts of the Empire.
From the Spring of this Year begins the famous Era of SELEUCUS, or of the Kingdom of the Greeks, 1 Mac. that was uſed all over the Eaſt, call'd by the Jews the Era of Contracts, and by the Arabs Taric Dilcarnaim, or the Era of the two horned; becauſe the Statues and Coins of SELEUCUS had two Horns. And This is reckon'd the firſt Year of SELEUCUS's Reign, tho' he wore no Diadem, till eight Years after This.
JUNIUS Bubulcus was choſen DICTATOR this Year againſt the Hetrurians; but They gave him no Opportunity of Action. Now alſo Appius Claudius the Cenſor began the famous Cawſey call'd the Via Appia. The War with the Hetrurians continuing,
PAPIRIUS was choſen DICTATOR, who made Bubulcus his Maſter of Horſe, and beat the Enemy with a dreadful Slaughter of all their Chiefs; and the Hetrurians were henceforth never able much to oppoſe Rome.	439	199	80	20	7	3	3
ALEXANDER Aegus the young Emperor, and his Mother Roxana were murder'd by CASSANDER: but Ptolemy the Aſtronomer aſſigns to him 5 Years more, even till the firſt Year of King PTOLEMY Soter in his Canon.
AGATHOCLES King of Sicily decoy'd Ophellas from Lybia with 20000 Men, to join him againſt the Carthaginians, and murder'd him to get the Command of his Men.	441	201	82	22	9	5	CXVIII. 1	3696 308
CORNELIUS Scipio was choſen DICTATOR for the Election of Conſuls, who made ——— Decius Mus his Maſter of Horſe.	443	203	84	24	11	7	3
ANTIGONUS and his Son DEMETRIUS Polyorcetes, now proclaim'd themſelves Kings of Aſia, wore Each a Diadem and Royal Robes, and uſed the Royal Title in all their Deeds.	444	204	85	25	12	8	4
And now the Samnites, after many and great Loſſes, obtain'd Peace from the Romans, and the ancient League was renew'd, about 12 Years after They broke the Truce, and 37 Years after the Beginning of the Wars with the Samnites.					Kings of Egypt.
PTOLEMY the Son of Lagus, call'd Soter or Savior by the Rhodians, proclaim'd himſelf King of Egypt, and This is his firſt Year according to Ptolemy the Aſtronomer's Canon, tho' he had ruled with Royal Power in Egypt, from the Death of Alexander the Great 19 Years.	445	205	86	26	1	9	CXIX. 1	3700 304	—	20	—	3719
The ſame Time his Confederates, SELEUCUS, LYSIMACHUS, and CASSANDER, proclaim'd themſelves Kings too in Imitation of ANTIGONUS.
The Romans now turn'd their Arms againſt the Æqui, and chaſtis'd them for having aſſiſted the Samnites; whereby many other Italick Nations ſubmitted themſelves to Rome, whoſe Dominions daily increas'd.
King Demetrius took Sicyon and Corinth in Greece, from King PTOLEMY Soter, and reduced Caſſander in Macedonia to ſue for Peace. But Caſſander finding Demetrius's Terms exorbitant, join'd with Lyſimachus, Ptolemy, and Seleucus, againſt the Deſigns of ANTIGONUS and Demetrius, and began the War in the Helleſpont.	446	206	87	27	2	10	2
JUNIUS Bubulcus was choſen DICTATOR, who made M. Titinius his Maſter of Horſe, and clear'd the Country of the Remains of Rome's Enemies.	447	207	88	28	3	11	3

Continuation of TABLE XLVIII.

ROMAN Republick.

VALERIUS Maximus was choſen DICTATOR, who made Aemilius Paulus his Maſter of Horſe, and marched againſt the Hetrurians, the Umbrians and Sabines, now Confederates againſt Rome. He conquer'd all Hetruria, annexing it to the Roman Territories, and a great Part of Umbria, that lay North of Hetruria, and made all foreign Wars to ceaſe.

This ſame Year SELEUCUS and LYSIMACHUS ſlew Antigonus in the deciſive Battel of Ipſus in Phrygia, and made Demetrius flee to Epheſus. Upon which the Confederates made a new Partition of the Grecian Monarchy, viz.

PTOLEMY Soter got Egypt, Lybia, Cyrene, Arabia, Phenicia, Judæa, and Cœle Syria.

CASSANDER got Greece and Macedonia.

LYSIMACHUS got Thrace and Bithynia, the Helleſpont and Boſphorus.

SELEUCUS got all the Reſt.

Rome now at Peace abroad, began to quarrel at home; for the Tribunes of the People complain'd, that no Plebeians could be made Prieſts and Augurs: but the Senate yielded to their Motion, and allow'd five Chief Prieſts and five Augurs to be added out of the Commons. And Valerius the Conſul preferr'd a Law of Appeal more carefully enacted, and ſubdued the Æqui now in Rebellion, that had nothing left but their hardy Courage. SELEUCUS now founded the City Antioch.

This Year there was a Roman Luſtrum, and two new Tribes made, being now in all 33.

King CASSANDER died in Macedon, leaving two Sons, Antipater and Alexander, who contended for Succeſſion: and the Samnites again broke their League with the Romans.

PYRRHUS King of Epirus having been kept out of his Kingdom by Neoptolemus the Uſurper, had long follow'd King DEMETRIUS in his Wars; and upon a Peace made between Demetrius and Ptolemy, PYRRHUS as the Hoſtage of Demetrius went to Egypt with Ptolemy, who gave him to Wife Antigone, the Daughter of his Queen Berenice by her former Husband Philip, a noble Macedonian: and Berenice got Ptolemy to aſſiſt PYRRHUS in recovering his Kingdom.

The Romans had overcome the Samnites in ſeveral Battels; but now the Samnites having got the Umbrians and Gauls, and ſome of the Hetrurians to aſſiſt them, made a brave Reſiſtance, but were as bravely defeated by the Conſuls Fabius Maximus and Decius Mus, when Decius follow'd his Father's Example (47 Years before) devoting himſelf to the Gods, and ſo loſt his Life in the Battel to gain the Victory.

King DEMETRIUS ſlew Alexander the Son of Caſſander, and became King of Macedon during 7 Years.

About this Time Papirius Curſor erected a Sun Dial at Rome, but a very poor one.

PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt, founded the College and the famous Library of Alexandria.

Papirius the Son of Papirius obtain'd this Year a glorious Victory over the Samnites, took 15000 Priſoners, gain'd ſeveral of their Towns, and had a ſplendid Triumph.

But the Samnites gain'd a ſignal Victory over the Conſul Fabius Gurges, whom the Senate would have depoſed if his Father Fabius Maximus had not undertook to be his Lieutenant, defeated the Enemy, and obtain'd a Triumph for his Son. And Pontius being taken and ſlain, the Samnites ſued for Peace, and the League was renew'd with them a fourth Time.

Yet the Samnites broke the League in leſs than a Year, and were juſtly puniſh'd with the Loſs of ſeveral Battels, and more Towns; and the Conſul Dentatus triumphed over them twice in one Year, and the Romans ſent Colonies to Caſtrum, Sena, and Adria.

The Triumviri were now created, or Three Chief Judges to puniſh Malefactors; and 273000 free Citizens of Rome were ceſs'd.

King DEMETRIUS left Macedon and Greece with 100000 Men to invade Aſia, in order to recover his Father's Dominions; but he was miſerably defeated by the Confederates, and at laſt taken Priſoner by SELEUCUS, and died a Priſoner; while SELEUCUS added the Leſſer Aſia to his Syrian Kingdom.

The Commons of Rome oppreſs'd with Debts, and quarrelling with the Patricians, withdrew to the Hill Janiculum; this being their third Separation: but the Senate choſe

Q. HORTENSIUS their DICTATOR, who artfully decoy'd them to return, promiſing that their Plebiſcita ſhould have the Force of Laws, and bind all Ranks; thence call'd Lex Hortenſia, tho' It had been twice granted before in Effect.

PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt made his Son Philadelphus his Partner in the Throne, and being old he reſign'd all Management to him; ſo that

2. PTOLEMY Philadelphus now began to reign alone, and began to build the Tower of Pharos.

Ptolemy Soter aged 84 Years, died much lamented, the ſame Year that PHILETÆRUS revolting from Lyſimachus King of Thrace, founded the Kingdom of Pergamus in Leſſer Aſia, and reign'd 20 Years.

Continuation of TABLE XLVIII.

ROMAN Republick.

The Romans carried on a ſucceſsful War againſt the Lucani, in the fartheſt Part of Italy.

SELEUCUS King of Syria, ſlew LYSIMACHUS in the Battel of Corupedion in Phrygia,

This Year the Tarentines made Head againſt Rome; their large and opulent City was 240 Miles South Eaſt of Rome; and having plunder'd ſome Roman Ships, They began the War: but tho' They were aſſiſted by the Lucani, Meſſapii, Brutii, Apulii, and the Samnites, They were not able to ſtand before the growing Power of Rome, but were forced to ſend for PYRRHUS King of Epirus to come over and help them.

Here end the Roman Wars with the Samnites.
And their Wars with PYRRHUS King of Epirus begin.

PYRRHUS King of Epirus arrived at Tarentum, ſhut up their Gaming Places, and made the Tarentines apply themſelves wholly to War. PYRRHUS ſent to Laevinus the Roman Conſul, in full March againſt Tarentum, offering to be a Mediator: but Laevinus leading the Meſſengers thro' the Camp, bid them tell their Maſter what They had ſeen, and ſent him for Anſwer, That he neither eſteem'd him as a Mediator, nor fear'd him as an Enemy. Upon which PYRRHUS advanced towards him on the Plain between Pandoſia and Heraclea, where a bloody Battel was fought, and the Romans being at length put into Confuſion by the Elephants, and then ſharply charged by the Theſſalian Cavalry, were put to a total Rout, with the Loſs of 15000 Men, and 1800 Priſoners; tho' Pyrrhus loſt 13000 Men, and was ſore wounded himſelf. PYRRHUS treated his Priſoners with much Courteſy, and obſerving the ſlain Romans had ſtern Countenances, and were all wounded before, he lifted up his Eyes and Voice, ſaying, O how eaſily might I conquer the World, were I Maſter of ſuch Soldiers! and generouſly buried them.

PYRRHUS being join'd by the Samnites, Lucani, and Brutii, marched towards Rome; yet ſent his Orator Cineas to treat of a Peace, a Man of great Eloquence: but he could not perſuade any of the Nobility or their Ladies to accept of his Preſents. When Cineas enter'd the Senate, he offer'd to return the Priſoners without Ranſom, and to aſſiſt them in conquering all Italy, only aſking their Friendſhip and Alliance for his Maſter and the Tarentines: nay he had almoſt perſuaded the Senate to comply, till Appius Claudius, an old blind Senator, by a warm Oration excited the Senate to diſmiſs Cineas with this Anſwer, that They would not treat with Pyrrhus till he had withdrawn his Forces from Italy. When he return'd, Pyrrhus aſkt him what he thought of Rome? and Cineas reply'd, That the Senate was like an Aſſembly of Kings, and the People like the Hydra, whoſe Numbers increas'd by their Defeat; for that the Conſul had rais'd twice as great an Army.

The Romans ſent C. Fabricius, with others, to PYRRHUS, about the Ranſom of Priſoners; and Pyrrhus receiv'd him kindly, firſt trying him with Gold; but finding that Method fruitleſs with one that ſcorn'd Gold, Pyrrhus try'd to frighten him by an Elephant brought into the Room: but Fabricius ſmiling ſaid, Neither your Gold Yeſterday, nor your dreadful Beaſt to Day, can make any Impreſſion upon me! Upon which PYRRHUS amazed at the Greatneſs of his Soul, generouſly releas'd the Priſoners, upon his Promiſe, That if the Senate accepted not of Peace, They ſhould return to his Camp: and the Senate generouſly order'd them to return upon Pain of Death. Mean while, the other Conſul Coruncanius triumph'd over ſome revolted Hetrurians: and at the Luſtrum 278222 free Citizens of Rome were ceſs'd.

SELEUCUS King of Syria, the laſt of Alexander's Generals, was murder'd by Ptolemy Ceraunus, the elder Brother of Philadelphus.

2. ANTIOCHUS Soter the Son of Seleucus Nicator King of Syria began to reign,

And the Gauls invading Macedonia, tore in Pieces Ptolemy Ceraunus, as he deſerv'd.

Sulpitius Saverrio and Decius Mus, the Roman Conſuls, now marched againſt Pyrrhus with a well recruited Army, and met him near Aſculum, where They fought a drawn Battel, till the Night parted them: but in the Morning PYRRHUS by a Detachment took Poſſeſſion of the Woods, and forced the Romans to fight on the Plain; where, after a long obſtinate Fight, the Romans were ſo overpower'd by the Elephants, and Archers mix'd with them, and by the Grecian Cavalry, that They retreated to their Camp with the Loſs of 6000 Men; yet had ſlain near 4000 of the Enemy. After the Battel, PYRRHUS ſaid to a Friend, If we overcome the Romans once more, we are utterly ruin'd; for he had loſt moſt of his Friends and his beſt Troops. And ſo the Campaign ending, both Sides began to recruit for another.

C. Fabricius and Aemilius Papus being choſen Conſuls, at the nigh Approach of the Armies, Fabricius receiv'd a Letter from the King's principal Phyſician, offering to take off Pyrrhus by Poiſon, if duly rewarded: but the virtuous Fabricius forthwith wrote to Pyrrhus, to let him know what an ill Choice he made both of his Friends and Enemies; that he was at War with honeſt People, while he truſted and promoted Villains; that the Romans abhorr'd Treachery, and uſed to conquer by the Power of their Arms, and not by the Treaſon of their Enemies Subjects! Upon which PYRRHUS cry'd out, This is that Fabricius, whom it is harder to turn from

from the Way of Virtue and Honeſty, than the Sun from its Courſe! Pyrrhus put to Death his Phyſician, and not to be behind with the Romans, he ſent all the Priſoners to Rome without Ranſom, and Cineas to renew the Treaty of Peace: The Romans releas'd as many of the Tarentines and Samnites, but would not treat till PYRRHUS had ſail'd back to Epirus.

The King was much confounded, was loth to continue the War, and as loth to quit it diſhonourably: but he was ſoon reliev'd by an honourable Invitation from the People of Sicily, to come over and reſcue them from Tyrants, and to expel the Carthaginians from that Iſland: therefore ſending Cineas before, and putting a Garriſon in Tarentum, He imbarked for Sicily with an Army of 30000 Foot, and 2500 Horſe, after he had been in Italy two Years and four Months. Mean while Brennus, Belgius, Acichorius, and other great Men of the Gauls, who had brought an Army into Greece of 152000 Foot, and 61200 Horſe, were moſtly deſtroy'd there. Polyb.

While PYRRHUS warred ſucceſsfully in Sicily, the Romans were as ſucceſsful in Italy, puniſhing his Confederates: and the Remains of the Gauls in Greece paſſed the Helleſpont, and enter'd into the Service of NICOMEDES King of Bithynia, who gave them that Country to dwell in, call'd Gallo-Græcia and Galatia, and their Offspring were call'd Galatians.

The Tarentines and their Confederates having wrote to Pyrrhus an Account of their being ſhut up in their Towns by the Romans, and his Conduct in Sicily having given much Offence to the Sicilians, PYRRHUS was glad of the Occaſion; and ſo return'd to Tarentum with 20000 Foot, and 3000 Horſe.

And this Year ANTIGONUS Gonatas, the Son of King Demetrius Polyorcetes, began to reign King of Macedonia during 34 Years. And Philadelphus King of Egypt cauſed the Pentateuch of Moſes to be tranſlated into Greek by the Septuagint. And the Plague raging in Rome, CORNELIUS Rufinus the laſt Year's Conſul was choſen DICTATOR, to perform the Ceremony of driving a Nail into Jupiter's Temple for curing the Plague. At length

Curius Dentatus and Cornelius Lentulus being choſen Conſuls, recruited the Army in Spite of the turbulent People that had refuſed to liſt themſelves; and PYRRHUS having recruited his Army, and made new Levies, marched to Samnium, ſent one Part of his Army into Lucania, to hinder Lentulus from joining his Collegue, and marched with the other Part againſt Curius, then advantagiouſly poſted near Beneventum, and attempted to ſurprize the Romans by marching upon them thro' the Woods in the Night; but his Lights fail'd him; and at Break of Day, his Approach being diſcover'd by the Romans then marching to meet him, Curius in haſte fell upon his Vanguard, kill'd many, put the reſt to Flight, and took ſome Elephants; whereby Pyrrhus's Men were much diſcouraged.

Curius thus incouraged, ventur'd into the Plain, where the deciſive Battel was fought: In one Wing Curius repulſed the Enemy, but in the other he was repulſed, by the Violence of the Elephants, back to his Trenches; and thence order'd his Corps de Reſerve to fall upon the Beaſts with Darts and lighted Torches, that the Elephants ran furiouſly back upon Pyrrhus's Men, bearing them down, and breaking all their Ranks; which Curius improv'd for giving them a total Rout, ſlaying 23000 of the Enemy, and taking Pyrrhus's Camp, which the Romans admir'd, and from it firſt learn'd to incamp their whole Army within a Trench; for before this They ignorantly pitched their Tents without Order, like Booths amidſt their Battalions. And from their Wars with PYRRHUS They learned alſo to avoid Plains, and how to ſuſtain the Shock of well diſciplin'd Cavalry, which before They had deſpiſed.

CURIUS Dentatus obtain'd a moſt ſplendid Triumph over PYRRHUS, which was graced with 4 Elephants, and 1300 Priſoners of ſeveral Nations, with many Rarities and the Implements of the Tarentin Luxury. A few Days after, his Collegue Lentulus triumph'd over the Samnites and Lucani, whom he had overthrown much about the ſame Time.

This ſame Year the Cenſors Fabricius and Aemilius expell'd Rufinus out of the Senate, for having ten Pound Weight of Silver Plate for the Uſe of his Table, tho' he had been twice Conſul and once DICTATOR. And at the Luſtrum 271224 free Citizens were ceſs'd or poll'd.

PYRRHUS bore his Defeat with an undaunted Mind, and ſent to Greece and Aſia for Succours, but in vain; yet concealing it from the Tarentines, and telling them a Lie, that Aſſiſtance would ſoon come, he went aboard his Fleet in the Night, with 8000 Foot, and 500 Horſe, and ſail'd over to Epirus, leaving a Garriſon in Tarentum, more for Reputation than for Uſe; about 6 Years after he firſt came into Italy. And having recruited in Epirus, He marched into Macedon, and bravely beat Antigonus Gonatas out of that Kingdom, where he reign'd a few Months.

PYRRHUS now deſign'd to conquer all Greece and Aſia too, and marching firſt into Laconia, he beſieged Sparta, which the Women defended till their King AREUS return'd from Crete to make Head againſt him. Mean while Gonatas recover'd Macedon, and led an Army into Peloponneſus to join Areus.

The Roman Name before famous, was now formidable by defeating the ableſt Commander of that Age, the wiſe and valiant PYRRHUS; and in this ſecond Year after his Retreat from Italy, PTOLEMY Philadelphus King of Egypt ſent Ambaſſadors to Rome to congratulate the Senate, and make an Alliance with them; which was granted very gratefully: and the Senate ſent Q. Fabius Gurges, Cn. Fabius Pictor, and Q. Ogulnius their Ambaſſadors, to King Ptolemy, who preſented them with golden Crowns, which which They thankfully accepted of him, but next Day crown'd his Statues with them; and at parting He loaded them with rich Presents, which, upon their Return, They put into the publick Treasury, before They appear'd in the Senate.

The Tarentines got the Carthaginians next to assist them; but the Romans defeated them both; and Milo the Commander of PYRRHUS's Garrison, perhaps hearing that his Master was murder'd by a poor old Woman at the Siege of Argos, got Leave from the Consul Papirius to depart with his Men, when the Romans took Possession of the Castle, easily master'd the City, and demolish'd its Walls: whereby Peace and Liberty were restored, and both the Tarentin and Samnite Wars were finish'd. The Samnite Wars, with some Intermissions, had lasted in all 72 Years, and over them the Romans had triumphed 30 Times. After this	477	237	118	58	13	8	41	CXXVII 1	3732 272
The Campanian Legion, who had revolted and seiz'd the City Rhegium, were forced to surrender it, and were all put to Death by 50 at a Time: and the Inhabitants of Apollonia in Illyricum sent Ambassadors to Rome, who being maletreated by some unruly Noblemen, the Senate deliver'd up the Rioters to the Apollonians: and the same Year the Picentes were subdued, and Roman Colonies were sent to their Capital Ariminum, and to Beneventum, a City of the Samnites.	478	238	119	59	14	9	42	2

The Number of the Roman Quæstors were now increas'd from four to eight; and the Romans this Year having reduced the Umbri and Salentini, and the City Brundusium, their Conquest of all old Italy was compleated, their Dominions being about 500 Miles long, and 130 broad, about one Half of what is now call'd Italy.	484	244	125	65	20	15	48	4	3739 265

TABLE XLIX.

The Chronology of the Roman Republick during the firſt Punic War, containing 24 Years.

THE Carthaginians were originally a Colony of Phenicians, call'd by the Romans Pœni and Puni, from Phœnix and Phenicia. They came from Tyre, firſt under Zor and Carchedon, in the ninth Year of Gideon Judge of Iſrael, about 48 Years before the Fall of Troy, and next in the Eleventh Year of King David, after the Death of Iſhboſheth, about 148 Years after the Fall of Troy, when this ſecond Colony was call'd Karthada, or the New Town. And after this, viz. A. M. 3135, before Chriſt 869, after the founding of Solomon's Temple 143, after the Fall of Troy 315, before the Founding of Rome 120 Years, Dido or the Lovely, call'd alſo Elissa, or the divine Woman, fled from her Brother Pygmalion King of Tyre into Africa, and founded, or rather inlarged Carthage, by building the Caſtle of Byrſa in the Heart of the City Karthada, (ſee Page 220.) and they had now become a very large and powerful Commonwealth (having long thrown off the Yoke of Kings) their Dominions extending along the North Coaſt of Barbary on the Mediterranean Sea Side, about 2000 Miles in Length, and were alſo poſſeſs'd of the Iſlands of Sardinia, Corſica, many little Iſlands, and a great Part of Sicily. And now about 604 Years after the inlarging of Carthage by Dido,

The Carthaginians joining with Hiero King of Syracuſe, againſt the Mamertines in the Siege of Meſſana in Sicily, the Mamertines ſent to Rome for Succour. But the former Conduct of that People not being very juſtifiable, the Romans choſe rather to declare War againſt the Carthaginians, upon Pretence of their having aſſiſted the Tarentines againſt the Romans.

And ſo in the Varronian Year of Rome founded 490, or,

In the 13th Year of Antigonus Gonatas King of Macedonia, who reign'd 21 Years more.
18th Year of Nicomedes I. King of Bithynia, who reign'd 18 Years more.
20th and laſt Year of Philetærus, the Founder of the Kingdom of Pergamus.

Appius Claudius the Conſul, in a ſmall Fleet of Boats, ſail'd over to Sicily with an Army, ſoon rais'd the Siege of Meſſana, and defeated King Hiero and the Carthaginians in two Battels; and returning to Rome he made the firſt Triumph over Fereigners, when 292224 free Citizens were ceſs'd, and Fencing Matches, or Gladiators at Funerals, were introduc'd by D. Junius Brutus.

Both the Conſuls were now order'd for Sicily with all their Legions, and after They had took Catana, going to inveſt Syracuſe, King Hiero was frighted into a Peace, upon reſtoring all their Priſoners without Ranſom, and paying 100 Talents of Silver: which the Romans were glad of; becauſe They had no Fleet, while the Carthaginians were Maſters of the Sea.

Valerius the Conſul was now call'd Meſſala from Meſſana, and he brought from Catana a Sun Dial, which, tho' not perfect, was the beſt at Rome for 99 Years to come: and the Plague raging at Rome, Fulvius Maximus was made Dictator, who made Marcius Philippus his Maſter of Horſe, for driving a Nail into Jupiter's Temple.

Eumenes I. King of Pergamus, ſucceeded to his Brother Philetaerus this Year, and reign'd 22 Years.

Poſthumius and Mamilius the Conſuls, with only two Legions in Sicily, overthrew Hannibal the Carthaginian Admiral, who had landed to relieve Agrigentum beſieged by the Romans, which after a long Siege They took. Mean while the Carthaginians being Maſters of the Sea, got the maritime Towns on their Side, and grievouſly infeſted Italy, while Africa was out of Danger; which made the Romans begin to apply themſelves to maritime Affairs, and to build 100 little Veſſels of five Oars on a Side, and 20 of three Oars, which They rigg'd out after an odd Manner. But tho' They had neither Power nor Skill at Sea; yet

Cornelius and Duilius the Conſuls ventur'd aboard their poor Fleet, but with Men of great Courage: Cornelius with 17 little Gallies ſailing to reduce the Iſland Lipara, was overpower'd and taken by the Carthaginians: But Duilius by a grappling Invention defeated the Carthaginians, took 50 of their Veſſels, rais'd the Siege of Ægeſta, and took Macella by Storm; for which he was greatly honour'd, and had the Glory of the firſt Naval Triumph. But at Land the Roman Legions quarrelling with the Auxiliaries, made a Separation; which Amilcar the Carthaginian General improv'd, and cut off 4000 of them.

3. Antiochus Theos the Son of Antiochus Soter King of Syria, began to reign,

And Beroſus the Babylonian Prieſt of Belus, dedicated his Hiſtory to this King.

This Year Cornelius Scipio the Conſul went aboard, and invading Sardinia and Corſica, cut off Hanno the Carthaginian General and all his Army: and afterwards he ſurpriz'd and routed Hannibal's Fleet, new come out of Carthage; for which that unhappy Admiral was crucified by his own Men.

Towns in Sicily were now gain'd and loſt on both Sides; and the Conſul Attilius Calatinus being hemm'd in by the Enemy, without Hopes of eſcaping, Calpurnius Flamma a Roman Colonel, with 300 choſen Men of amazing Courage, ſo diverted the whole Carthaginian Army, that the Conſuls's Army handſomely eſcaped off; tho' Calpurnius alone eſcaped of all his Detachment.

Attilius Regulus the Conſul went aboard, and ſubdued the Iſlands Lipara and Melita, (now call'd Malta) and this Year certain Prodigies at Rome made them create OGULNIUS Gallus DICTATOR, who made Letorius Plancianus his Maſter of Horſe.	492	252	8	73	56	4	28	—	4
1. ARSACES a noble Parthian revolted from Antiochus, and founded the Kingdom of Parthia. This Year the Romans ſent the Conſuls Regulus and Manlius with a Fleet of 330 Sail, and a good Army aboard, to carry the War into Africa; and the Carthaginians ſent out a Fleet of 350 Sail, and They fought thrice in one Day: but the invincible Romans, by Help of their grappling Engines, boarded 54 Ships, which they took with all their Complements of Men, and ſunk 20 more; while They loſt but 24 Ships without Men: and in purſuance of this Victory, the Romans made a Deſcent upon Africa at Clupea, a City near the Promontory Hermæa, which ſurrender'd to them; and having ravaged the Country, Manlius return'd to Rome with Part of the Forces, leaving Regulus with 40 Ships, 15000 Foot, and 500 Horſe, as Pro-Conſul of Africa, where at the River Begrada he ſlew by his battering Engines a monſtrous Serpent, whoſe Skin ſent to Rome was 120 Foot long.	493	253	9	74	57	5	29	1	CXXXI. 1	3748 256	—	3	—	3750
The Carthaginians attackt Regulus, but not having Room for their Horſe and Elephants, They were put to the Rout, and He took Tanetum or Tunis. But the Carthaginians ſent for Xantippus a brave Lacedemonian, to be their General, who defeated Regulus, and took him Priſoner, and beſieged the reſt of the Romans in Clupea: but raiſed the Siege to oppoſe the Succours coming under Æmilius Paulus and Fabius Nobilior the Conſuls, with 350 Sail, who beat the Carthaginian Fleet near their own Doors, ſunk 104, and took 30 Sail, with the Loſs only of nine Roman Ships. Then They took in the Roman Garriſon of Clupea: but in their Way home a Storm ſwallow'd up moſt of their Ships, and the reſt were ſplit upon Rocks, both the Conſuls periſh'd, and the few that eſcap'd were kindly uſed by King HIERO.	494	254	10	75	58	6	30	2	2
Carthalo the Carthaginian hearing of the Romans late Misfortune, laid Siege to Agrigentum, took it, and demoliſh'd its Fortifications: while the Romans not diſcouraged by their Loſſes, built 220 Ships in three Months Time, and ſent their Conſuls Attilius and Cornelius into Sicily, who took ſeveral Towns, in ſpite of Aſdrubal, who arrived there from Carthage, aboard 200 Sail with his Veteran Troops and Levies.	495	255	11	76	59	7	31	3	3
2. Arſaces TIRIDATES King of Parthia, the Brother of the firſt ARSACES, began to reign, —————— The next Conſuls, Servilius and Sempronius, ſail'd with the whole Fleet firſt to Sicily, and thence to Africa, landing often, but performing nothing memorable; They were like to be loſt on the Quick-Sands of the Iſland Meninx, near the Leſſer Syrtis, difficultly return'd to Panormus, and in their Way to Rome thro' the Straits, They loſt by a Storm 150 Veſſels. This Year the Cenſors turn'd out 13 Senators for Miſdemeanors, and at the Luſtrum 297797 free Citizens were ceſs'd.	496	256	12	77	60	8	32	1	4	3751 253	—	37	—	3787
Theſe Loſſes at Sea made the Romans omit Naval Preparations, and depend wholly upon their Strength by Land, yielding the Sovereignty of the Sea to the Carthaginians, and ſent the Conſuls Caecilius and Metellus with the Legions into Sicily. Aſdrubal the Punic General perceiving Cæcilius was return'd with Half the Legions, and that the Romans of all Things dreaded the Elephants, ravaged all the Country about Panormus with the more Security, that Metellus kept within the Walls: but the wary Conſul found an Opportunity when Aſdrubal came near the City, to give him a dreadful Overthrow, ſlaying 20000 Carthaginians, and taking 26 Elephants; for which he had a noble Triumph, and all Sicily fell into his Hands, except Drepanum, and Lilybæum, to which Aſdrubal eſcap'd, at the South Weſt Cape of Sicily over againſt Africa. The Carthaginians condemn'd him, and put him to Death upon his Return.	497	257	13	78	61	9	33	2	CXXXII. 1	3752 252
The Carthaginians became weary of this unfortunate War, and ſent their Ambaſſadors to Rome to treat of Peace, and with them ſent Regulus that had been near 5 Years a Priſoner, whom They bound with an Oath to return, if there be no Peace concluded.	498	258	14	97	62	10	34	3	2
But Regulus diſcover'd to the Senate of Rome the Weakneſs of the Carthaginians, and adviſed againſt making Peace with them, ſhewing alſo the Advantages of proſecuting the War. The Senate reliſh'd the Advice, if it could be follow'd without ruining the generous Adviſer, and therefore adviſed him to ſtay at home: but he with an undaunted Reſolution told them, that tho' He knew the Carthaginians would treat him with Torture and Death, he would return thither: and ſo contrary to all Advice, without ſeeing his Wife and Children, he bravely return'd with the Punic Ambaſſadors to Carthage, where They firſt cut off his Eye-lids, and ſet his Face turn'd up to the Sun, and at laſt was put into a narrow Barrel ſtuck with Nails, and there ſtarved in the Extremity of Pain. O barbarous Cruelty! Upon which The Roman Senate deliver'd to Marcia the Widow of Regulus, ſome noble Carthaginian Priſoners, whom ſhe ſhut up in an Armory ſtuck round with Spikes, where Boſtar was ſtarv'd, but Hamilcar held it out ten Days, till the Senate relented, and took him out, ordering all Priſoners to be well uſed, and ſent Boſtar's Aſhes home, to ſhew, the Romans were too generous to inſult over the miſerable, or to countenance Cruelty, tho' ever ſo much provoked. The warlike Romans now triumphant, and enjoying profound Peace, began a little to apply themſelves to Learning, eſpecially to Poetry; and now the firſt Tragedies and Comedies were made according to the Grecian Method, by Livius Andronicus a Grecian Poet, juſt the Year before Ennius the Poet was born; and ſome new Games were inſtituted.
The Carthaginians were plagued by the Rebellion of their mercenary Troops, that wanted both Pay and Employment, and who were reduced by Amilcar after three Years War, tho' with great Loſs. ———	512	272	93	76	9	10	17	5	9	6	4
Hiero the generous King of Sicily, came now to Rome to behold the Roman Games, and was very liberal to the Poor.
During this War, the Carthaginians had ſeiz'd ſeveral Roman Ships, for fear of ſupplying the Enemy; but when the Roman Ambaſſadors complain'd of it, the Ships, Men, and Goods, were handſomely reſtored; which excited the Senate of Rome generouſly to ſend home their Carthaginian Priſoners without Ranſom; and there was an extraordinary Friendſhip between theſe two great Republicks, till

The Gauls in Italy, being provoked by the Romans dividing their Lands among them, had ſent over the Alps for the Gauls call'd Geſſatæ near the River Rhoſne, who came to their Aſſiſtance with 50000 Foot, and 20000 Horſe; upon which the Romans armed all their Subjects in Italy, about 800000 Men placed in ſeveral Parts: and ſo the War began, when
The Gauls enter'd Hetruria, and waſted all with Fire and Sword, as far as Cluſium, within three Days Journey of Rome, where the Conſuls before them, with 50800 Foot, and 4200 Horſe, and the Prætor on their Back, ſurrounded them, and forced them to make two Fronts; and the Geſſatæ being ſo vain as to fight naked, were ſoon broken, upon which the Reſt fled: but the Romans being poſſeſs'd of the Paſſes, ſlew 40000 of them, and took 10000 Priſoners, among whom was CONCOLITANUS a King of the Geſſatæ. HANNIBAL the Great having the War committed to his Conduct by the Senate of Carthage, and over-run all Spain to the Pyrenæan Mountains, and leaving Hanno in Spain with a good Army, He marched into Gaul with 50000 Foot, and 9000 Horſe of different Nations; and having difficultly croſs'd the Rhoſne, He marched in Ten Days to the Foot of the Alps; and after nine Days painful March in the Midſt of Winter, tho' ignorant of the Roads, and much diſtreſs'd by the Savage Inhabitants, and the Fears of his own Men, He reached to the Top of the Alps, where he refreſh'd his Men two Days, and pointing down to Italy, told them, That like hardy Soldiers They had mounted the Walls of Italy, and of Rome too! From thence he marched forward till obſtructed by the Snows and an high Rock, thro' which he cut his Way by indefatigable Toil in four Days, whereby his Elephants and heavy Carriages could paſs into a low Ground, where They found ſome Paſture for the Beaſts, and the Soldiers had ſome Reſt on the 15th Day after They came to the Alps, and his Army was reduced to 18000 Foot and 6000 Horſe, with whom he continued his March.

Anno U. C. Varronians 536.

P. Cornelius Scipio the Conſul hearing of HANNIBAL's March, haſtned with an Army to encounter him, before his Men were well refreſh'd, and fought him at Ticinum; (now Pavia) but in a few Hours Scipio was defeated by the Numidian Horſe falling on his Rear, and being wounded, he was narrowly ſaved by the Valour of his young Son who was afterwards call'd Africanus.

T. Sempronius Longus the other Conſul, came from Sicily with an Army, and join'd Scipio at the River Trebia; and having been ſucceſsful in ſome Skirmiſhes, reſolv'd to fight Hannibal before the Gauls could join him, contrary to the Advice of Scipio: but HANNIBAL by equal Skill and Bravery gave him a total Rout, 26000 Romans being then kill'd or drown'd, or taken: tho' Hannibal received much Damage too in the Battel, and by the Colds loſt many Men, and almoſt all his Elephants and other Beaſts.

HANNIBAL having well recruited his Army in Ciſalpine Gaul, now march'd forward into Hetruria towards ROME, the ſhorteſt Way, thro' the Fens; and being forced to march four Days and Nights thro' Water without Reſt or Sleep, his Men were ſorely diſtreſs'd, many of his Beaſts left dead in the Mud, and himſelf riding on the only Elephant left, catched an intolerable Pain in his Eyes, and loſt one of them intirely.

When he came on firm Ground, he ſoon decoy'd the Conſul Flaminius to a Battel, by marching by him and ſeeming to ſlight him; who being a fiery Man, would not ſtay till his Collegue Cn. Servilius Geminus ſhould join him, but marched up to Hannibal at the Lake Thraſymene, his Army being follow'd with a Rabble that carried Chains, Bonds, &c. for the Priſoners.

HANNIBAL being poſſeſs'd of the Mountains, artfully ſurrounded the Romans when They came into the Valley, and attackt them on all Sides, before They could ſee the Enemy, by reaſon of a Miſt. Flaminius loſt his Life and all his Army; 15000 Romans were ſlain in the Valley, and 6000 that eſcaped to a Village, were forced to yield themſelves Priſoners.

Geminus the other Conſul from Ariminum detached 4000 Men to join Flaminius; but coming too late were attackt by Maharbal with a Detachment from Hannibal, who ſlew the one Half, and took the other Half Half Priſoners. HANNIBAL diſmiſs'd the Latine Priſoners without Ranſom, but kept the Romans.

Rome now all in Conſternation had Recourſe to a DICTATOR, chuſing the moſt excellent FABIUS Maximus, who made Minutius Rufus his Maſter of Horſe, and marched againſt Hannibal, tho' with little Intention to fight him, but to wait his Motions, ſtraiten his Quarters, and cut off his Proviſions, as the moſt effectual Means to ruin him in a Country ſo far from home. Fabius therefore incamped always on high Grounds, to be free from the Inſults of the Enemies Cavalry, and ſtill kept Pace with them, gave them no Reſt, but kept them in a conſtant Alarm; which got him the Name of Cunctator or Delayer, becauſe cunctando reſtituit rem, by delaying he retrieved All: yet it made moſt Men ſuſpect his Courage, except the wiſe Hannibal, who uſed all poſſible Artifice to draw him to a Battel, tho' in vain.

HANNIBAL deſigning for Caſinum, was by a Miſtake directed to Caſilinum near Campania, where entering a Valley inviron'd with Mountains, Fabius cut off 800 of his Rear, and then blockt him up by 4000 choice Men poſted at the Entry: but the enterprizing HANNIBAL put lighted Torches upon the Horns of 2000 Cows, and ſent them in the Night towards the Entry, which frighted the Romans to quit their Poſts, and ſo Hannibal got out, tho' his Rear was again claw'd off by Fabius.

HANNIBAL ravaging the Country, ſpared the Lands of Fabius, to render him ſuſpected by the Romans; and the Multitude believing him a Coward, gave to Minutius, his Maſter of Horſe, an equal Authority; who having been ſucceſsful in ſome Skirmiſhes, reſolved to attack Hannibal, contrary to Fabius's Perſuaſions, with his Half of the Army: but HANNIBAL having drawn him into a Plain, would have cut him off and all his Men, if Fabius had not, with his Party, deſcended ſeaſonably from the Mountains upon the Enemy, whom he forced to retreat and ſaved Minutius; who now confeſs'd his Error, call'd Fabius his Father, and ſubjected his Office again to the Dictatorſhip: but HANNIBAL wittily ſaid to his Friends, He thought the Cloud upon the Mountains would ſome Time break upon his Army in a Storm! meaning Fabius.

Arſaces ARTABANUS King of Parthia began to reign, ———————————

VETRURIUS Philo was now choſen DICTATOR, who made Pomponius Matho his Maſter of Horſe, and held the Comitia for a new Election of Conſuls, viz. Aemilius Paulus an experienced and prudent Man, and Terentius Varro an hot inconſiderate Man. Theſe two had muſter'd an Army of 80000 Foot, and 6000 Horſe: but tho' Fabius, the wiſe Cunctator, earneſtly adviſ'd Aemilius to beware of Hannibal's Policy and Varro's Raſhneſs; Varro, contrary to the Mind of Æmilius, attackt HANNIBAL, who had but 40000 Foot, and 20000 Horſe, at Cannae, a Village in Apulia, but fought it out bravely, over matching the Romans in Skill, as They exceeded him in Numbers, forcing the Romans to fight with Wind, Duſt, and Sun, and almoſt ſurrounded them, cutting them off till he was weary and order'd his Men to give over: when Aemilius PAULUS, deſperately wounded, would not flee nor ſurvive the fatal Day, but threw himſelf into the thickeſt Danger, and among the Dead, expiring with Commendations to Fabius; as Horace ſings of him,

The Romans loſt 50000 Men, ſays Polybius 70000, 2 Quæſtors, 21 Tribunes, 80 Senators, and as many Knights as their Rings ſent to Carthage fill'd three Buſhels; while HANNIBAL loſt not above 5700 Men. Anno U. C. Varroniano 538.

The diſmal News fill'd the City with Terror, Tumult, and univerſal Mourning, and the Senate was in Confuſion by the horrid Shrieks of Widows and Orphans, tearing their Hair, and beating their Breaſts; upon which M. JUNIUS was choſen DICTATOR, who made T. Sempronius his Maſter of Horſe, and forbid the mourning Women to come into the Streets: nay the Senators went from Houſe to Houſe to appeaſe the People, and ſtrict Guards were placed at the Gates to keep People from abandoning the City, and to ſhew them that the beſt Way of their Preſervation was to defend their Walls.

Varro ſoon return'd with the tatter'd Remains of his Army, and Multitudes went out to meet him from a Greatneſs of Mind; and the Senate thankt him for that he had not deſpaired of the Republick: nay, for all their Loſſes and Defeats by Hannibal, and the Revolt of a great Part of Italy, the Romans never talkt of Peace with Carthage.

Hitherto HANNIBAL was altogether ſucceſsful, and had he marched ſtrait to Rome, he had ended the War, and demoliſht the Roman State: but as Maharbal his Captain of Horſe, told him, He well knew how to gain a Victory, but not how to improve it; Vincere ſcis, Hannibal, victoriâ uti neſcis: for he became too ſecure, not doubting doubting of always beating the Enemy, and of deſtroying Rome when he pleas'd; and ſo his dilatory Conduct this Summer gave the Romans a Breathing Time.

They ſoon recover'd Themſelves, were inſpired with new Courage, made new Reſolutions of proſecuting the War without Fainting, and made great Preparations for another Campaign, chuſing

FABIUS Buteo their DICTATOR, without a Maſter of Horſe, and before the laſt DICTATOR was out of Office, but abroad. He fill'd up the Senate that wanted 177 Members, and arm'd ſome Thouſands of the Slaves; while HANNIBAL winter'd at Capua, a wealthy luxurious City, where his brave hardy Soldiers were enervated by effeminate Pleaſures, and ever after impatient of Labour and military Diſcipline.

And now Hannibal's Fortune began to change; for in the next Campaign, Marcellus the Prætor ſallied out of Nola upon him, and beat him off that City, and again repulſed him from Caſilinum, even after he had reduced that City to Extremities;

Mean while the two Scipio's gain'd great Ground in Spain, where they defeated Mago and Aſdrubal the Brothers of Hannibal, who had been order'd by the Senate of Carthage to go and join Hannibal; but that Project was broke for this Time, for They loſt more than 40000 Men.

The Romans in Sardinia ſlew 30000, and took many Priſoners, before Aſdrubal Calvus was arrived with a Fleet from Carthage; and even after that the Romans ſlew 12000 Carthaginians in Sardinia.

PHILIP King of Macedonia ſent Ambaſſadors to HANNIBAL, and made a League with him againſt the Romans, who, tho' plunged in bloody Wars within and round about, had the Magnanimity to proclaim War againſt King PHILIP, and ſent Valerius Laevinus with an Army againſt him.

HIERO King of Syracuſe died, aged 94 Years, leaving a Grandſon King HIERONYMUS, murder'd this Year: the Murderers Faction had join'd the Carthaginians; and Marcellus having a third Time repulſed HANNIBAL near Nola, was now ſent into Sicily, and beſieged them in Syracuſe by Sea and Land; but could not ſtorm it, being always hinder'd by the amazing Skill and ingenious Devices of the learn'd Archimedes: while the War in Italy was wiſely managed on both Sides.

But in Spain the Romans had great Succeſs this Year.

Marcellus was forced to remove out of the Reach of Archimedes's Engines, till on a great Feſtival he maſter'd an ill guarded Tower, and took the City: but tho' he gave ſtrict Charge to ſave Archimedes, a common Soldier kill'd him, while the great and learned Man was imploy'd in ſome Mathematical Speculations, without minding the Uproar in the City: for whom Marcellus ſhed Tears, and gave him an honourable Burial. Marcellus alſo wept, becauſe he could not hinder his Soldiers from ruining ſo glorious a City, 22 Miles in Circuit: and Marcellus having beat the Enemy out of the Field near Agrigentum, return'd to Syracuſe to prepare to return to Italy.

But both the brave Scipio's were now ſlain in Spain, tho' They ſold their Lives dear; and Martius the Lieutenant of Cn. Scipio ſoon ſurpriz'd the Enemy, and ſlew 37000 of them.

While HANNIBAL had Tarentum betray'd to him, but not the Caſtle, the Romans laid Siege to Capua; upon which Hannibal marched to relieve it: but tho' he bravely attackt the Roman Trenches, aſſiſted by a Sally of his own Garriſon with the Inhabitants, the Romans repulſed him with great Loſs. Therefore to draw the Romans from Capua, he marched towards Rome: but the wiſe Fabius Cunctator, the Buckler of Rome, prevail'd with the Senate not to recal the Army from before Capua, but only to ſend for Fulvius Flaccus the Proconſul with 15000 Foot, and 1000 Horſe, to defend Rome.

HANNIBAL had firſt incamped about eight Miles from Rome, and then within three Miles of it, and with a Party of 2000 Horſe came to view the City; but Fulvius ſent out a Body of Horſe that fell upon him, and forced him to retreat. The next two Days the Romans and Hannibal both drew out to fight, but could not, becauſe of great Storms of Hail and Rain; but after both Armies retired from the Field to their Camps, the Weather was calm and fair: This ſtruck the Carthaginians with a religious Awe, and made HANNIBAL to ſay, That one while his Mind, and another while his Fortune, kept him from that mighty City! Wherefore he decamped to the River Turia, and thence to the Lake of Feronia, where he plunder'd a Temple of that Goddeſs, and treated cruelly the Countries of the Lucani and Brutii, which loſt him much Credit. Mean while Fulvius Flaccus return'd to the Siege of Capua, which was ſurrender'd to him; and he cut off the Heads of 53 Senators of Capua, demoliſh'd its Government, and reſerv'd it for the Uſe of Plowmen and Mechanicks.

Claudius Nero the Governor of Spain, having been impoſed upon by the Cunning of Aſdrubal, the Comitia met to chuſe a Proconſul to ſucceed him, and no Candidate appearing, becauſe of the Hazards attending the

As for SYPHAX, perceiving how Matters went, he rais'd a numerous Army of raw Men, and fought Scipio, but was defeated, and taken Priſoner; upon which MASINISSA marched with a ſtrong Detachment to Cirta his Capital, and ſhewing the People Syphax in Chains, They open'd their Gates to him; when Queen SOPHONISBA the Wife of Syphax humbly requeſted him, that ſhe might not be deliver'd up to the Romans; and her powerful Charms ſo inamour'd young MASINISSA, that he forthwith married her: but when Scipio came up, he was offended, ſaying, That the Romans had a Title to her Head as their Captive, one of their greateſt Enemies, and the principal Cauſe of Syphax's Treachery. Upon which MASINISSA, in a deſperate Paſſion, ſent her a Cup of Poiſon, which ſhe boldly drank off, ſaying, That it was a poor Token for a new Wife, and that her Death had been more honourable if ſhe had not been ſo lately married! and Scipio to comfort the melancholy Prince, had him proclaim'd King of Numidia with great Solemnity. TABLE LII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the ROMAN Republick from the End of the 2d Punic War, To the Deſtruction of Carthage and Corinth, containing their Wars with PHILIP King of Macedon, ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria, PERSEUS King of Macedon, Andriſcus the Pretender, the 3d Punic War, and the ACHÆAN War, during 55 Years.

Anno U. C. Varroniano 554.

THE ROMAN Republick, tho' almoſt ruin'd by HANNIBAL, yet upon its Recovery now found They had by theſe Wars gain'd much Honour, Dominion, and Experience; as They acquired daily Knowledge alſo by their Acquaintance with the Greeks: and now They began to be as much delighted in Comedy as in Games; the Drammatic Poets Ennius, Caecilius, and Licinius Tegula flouriſhing much about this Time: tho' They were not without foreign Wars: for now the firſt Macedonian War began to be hot.

PHILIP King of Macedon, the Ally of HANNIBAL, having broke his Faith with the Ætolians, and other Allies of Rome, and diſtreſs'd ATTALUS King of Pergamus, and the Rhodians (who complain'd of him to the Senate of Rome) and at the earneſt Requeſt of the Athenians, was declared again the Enemy of the ROMAN Republick, and the Senate a 2d Time proclaim'd open War againſt him. The Conſul Sulpicius Galba, ſent with an Army into Greece, had almoſt taken him Priſoner; and by the Aſſiſtance of King ATTALUS and the Rhodians, Galba rais'd the Siege of Athens. Mean while

Furius the Prætor defeated the Gauls near Cremona, ſlaying 30000 of them, with Amilcar a Carthaginian Captain: but next Year

Bebius the Prætor was ſurrounded by the Inſubrian Gauls, who cut off 6600 of his Men. ———

Quinctius Flaminius the Conſul was ſent againſt King PHILIP, and beat him out of the Straits; while the Conſul's Brother Lucius, with ATTALUS, by Sea, regain'd ſeveral Towns, and inveſted Corinth, but could not take it.

Attalus King of Pergamus now dying, aged 72, was ſucceeded by his Son

EUMENES II. the Founder of the famous Library at Pergamus, who began to reign ———

The Tribunes objecting, that the Cuſtom of the New Conſuls taking the Provinces from their Predeceſſors, much retarded the War, obtain'd that Flaminius ſhould continue in his Government; who being ready to take in the Caſtle of Opus, King PHILIP ſent to him about a Treaty; but it came to nothing, after ſeveral Meetings. But Flaminius following PHILIP into Theſſaly, routed him in the Battel of Cynocephalae, ſlaying 8000, and taking 5000 Priſoners: upon which PHILIP ſued for Peace, and obtain'd it for 1000 Talents.

Thus ended the firſt Macedonian War.

Smyrna and Lampſachus ſent to the Roman Army for Protection againſt ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria, who had now marched over the Helleſpont into Thrace; and the Roman Ambaſſadors had Audience of him at Selymbria, but to no Purpoſe.

4. Arsaces PHRIAPATIUS the Son of Artabanus King of Parthia, began to reign, ———

About this Time, the Romans obtain'd two great Victories over the Gauls, and Attilius the Prætor quell'd a Rebellion of the Slaves in Hetruria.

Flaminius and 9 more eminent Romans were ſent Commiſſioners by the Senate, and at the Iſthmian Games in a general Meeting of all Greece, proclaim'd Liberty to all the People of Greece, in the Name of the Senate and People of Rome. This unexpected and ſurpriſing Act of Generoſity, made the Grecian Orators harrangue, ſaying, That at laſt a People appear'd for the Safety of all others that croſs'd the Seas, and made Wars at their own Coſt and Peril, to relieve the oppreſs'd, to eſtabliſh Laws, and maintain publick Security throughout the Earth!

HANNIBAL fearing that the Roman Ambaſſadors now at Carthage came to demand him, timely fled from thence to ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria.

Flaminius, with EUMENES King of Pergamus, and the Rhodians, were obliged to attack Nabis the cruel Tyrant of Lacedæmon, but could not yet force him to ſubmit.

At Rome Porcius Cato the Conſul, a Stoic Moraliſt, rail'd at the Females for wearing rich Ornaments, and did all he could to ſupport the Oppian Law; but it was repeal'd in ſpite of him. Then Cato went to Spain his Province, which he intirely reduced, and by his Severity he reſtored the old Roman military Diſcipline there.

Plautus the Comedian now flouriſh'd at Rome. HANNIBAL the Great came to ANTIOCHUS at Epheſus, and determin'd the King's Mind to make War upon the Romans: for HANNIBAL had been accuſed of this by the Romans at Carthage, and the Carthaginians being ungrateful to him, He fled to Antiochus to deſerve the Accuſation.

Pub. Corn. Scipio Naſica was made Prætor of the fartheſt Spain beyond Iberia, where he did many great Things.

Acilius Glabrio the Conſul, came with a well appointed Army into Theſſaly, and beat Antiochus out of Greece, while Livius the Roman Admiral beat the King's Fleet in the Eugean, and while C. Scipio Naſica the other Conſul defeated the Boian Gauls in Italy, which for ever broke all their Power. Page 156.

Lucius Cornelius SCIPIO Aſiaticus the Conſul obtain'd to ſucceed to Acilius, by the Offer of his Brother SCIPIO Africanus to go as his Lieutenant or Legate; and ANTIOCHUS having fooliſhly abandon'd Lyſimachia and the Helleſpont, the SCIPIOS came up, took his great warlike Stores which he had left, and peaceably paſt the Helleſpont, the firſt Roman Army that ever came into Aſia; where the Conſul forced ANTIOCHUS to fight, while the King offer'd fairly for a Peace. 559

The Syrians were 70000 Foot, and 12000 Horſe, 54 Elephants, and many Chariots armed with Sythes: but the Conſul Scipio, with a far leſs Army, turn'd the Chariots back upon the Syrians, and in a few Hours gave ANTIOCHUS a total Rout under Mount Sipylus near Magneſia, who fled home to Antioch the ſhorteſt Way, and was now glad of Peace upon the following Terms, viz. To pay 15000 Talents for the Expence of the War; to quit all on this Side Mount Taurus; to deliver up HANNIBAL, Thoas the Ætolian, and others, and to give 20 Hoſtages, among whom the King's Son Antiochus was one. From this glorious Succeſs the Conſul was call'd Scipio ASIATICUS.

HANNIBAL was not in the Battel, being ſhut up in Pamphilia; nor SCIPIO Africanus, being ſick at Sardis: but Hannibal happily eſcaped to Crete.

Thus ended the Antiochian War.

The Conſul Manlius Vulſo, ſucceeding to Scipio Aſiaticus, reſtored the Grecian Cities in Leſſer Aſia to Liberty, and amply rewarded King EUMENES, and the Rhodians for their Aſſiſtance, with large Tracts of Land in this new Province: while his Collegue Fulvius Nobilior chaſtis'd the Ætolians. 560

Manlius, now the firſt Proconſul of Aſia, defeated the Aſiatic Gauls, or Galatians, gave them Laws, ſettled his Province in profound Peace, and raiſed an immenſe Sum of Money in Leſſer Aſia. 561

The Roman Cenſus was now 258328.

ANTIOCHUS having made with the Romans a League in the moſt ſolemn Manner, went into the Eaſt to raiſe his Tribute for paying the Romans what he had contracted, but was ſlain by the Mob in attempting to rob the Temple of Belus at Elimais: and his Son 562

This Year at Rome SCIPIO Africanus was maliciouſly accuſed of having been too much in the Intereſt of ANTIOCHUS Magnus, and of defrauding the Treaſury of ſome Booty, &c. Cato the Stoic (who had been offended at Scipio's being frequently ſaluted King while in Spain) excited the Tribunes to ſet him a Day to anſwer it before the People. But the Great SCIPIO enter'd the Aſſembly with a mighty Train of Friends and Clients; and having, with an undaunted Air, put on his Triumphal Crown, he cry'd out with the Voice of a Conqueror, This Day, O Romans, I overcame the fierce Hannibal, and vanquiſh'd the powerful Carthaginians; therefore let us lay aſide private Conteſts, and go to the Capitol to thank the Gods for giving me the Will and Power of doing ſuch eminent Services for my Country! then leaving the Place, the whole People follow'd him to the Capitol, and to all the great Temples in the City.

Yet ſoon after, the Tribunes accuſed him in the Senate-Houſe: but boldly riſing up, SCIPIO produced his Accounts, and tore them in Pieces, diſdaining to account for ſuch Trifles, after he had ſo vaſtly inriched the Treaſury. Yet they ſet him another Day; but he withdrew to his Country Seat, and his Brother Aſiaticus declaring that Africanus wanted Health, another Day was appointed, before which he went to Linternum a

This Year many scandalous Practices in the Feasts of Bacchus were reformed at Rome. The Romans now began to compose Differences between PHILIP of Macedon, and EUMENES of Pergamus, and the Grecian States. HANNIBAL left Crete this Year, and retired to several Places, till he came at last to PRUSIAS King of Bithynia.	564	324	145	128	20	2	12	13	2	36	4
P. SCIPIO Africanus, and the Comedian Plautus both, now died. Africanus is supposed to have died at Linternum, where he was buried, and order'd this Inscription on his Tomb, Ingrata Patria, ne ossa quidem mea habes, O my ungrateful native Place, Thou hast not so much as my Bones.	565	325	146	129	21	3	13	14	3	37	CXLIX. 1	3820 184
This Year is famous for the Death of HANNIBAL, aged 70 Years, at Lybissa in Bithynia, where he poison'd himself, rather than be taken alive by the Romans, and led in Triumph, when King Perseus gave them Leave to seize him. DEMETRIUS the youngest and legitimate Son of Philip King of Macedon, came to Rome, and wisely pleaded his Father's Cause before the Senate, against his Accusers, and obtain'd the Favour of all the Senators, which made him too popular at home: for his Brother Perseus (supposed to be illegitimate) began to be envious, and plotted his Death.	566	326	147	130	22	4	14	15	4	38	2
And this Year the Ligurians, that dwelt on the Tuscan Sea Coast, turn'd Pyrates, and infested the Sea as far as Hercules Pillars.	567	327	148	131	23	5	15	16	5	39	3
5. Arsaces PHRAHATES I. the Son of Phriapatius King of Parthia, began to reign, And MASINISSA King of Numidia quarrelling with the Carthaginians about Lands, the Senate of Rome decided it in that King's Favour. And this Year Q. Fulvius Flaccus fought the Enemy in Spain, who were 35000 strong, slew 23000 of them, and took 4500. Also L. Aemilius Paulus bravely defeated the Ligurians, slaying 15000 of them, and taking 2500: upon which They gave Hostages and submitted. PHILIP King of Macedon, at the Instigation of his Son Perseus, order'd his younger Son DEMETRIUS to be murder'd, upon Suspicion of corresponding with the Romans. And the 14 Books in Greek and Latin of NUMA Pompilius King of the Romans, were digg'd out of the Ground by Accident, that had been buried in a Stone Chest near his Stone Coffin, about 490 Years; which were publickly burnt as unfit for the People.	568	328	149	132	24	6	1	17	6	40	4	3823 181	—	8	—	3830
6. PTOLEMY Philometor the Son of Epiphanes King of Egypt, began to reign. The Senate for securing the Peace, transported many of the Ligurians to the Country of the Samnites. Q. Fulvius Flaccus leading his Army out of Celtiberia, was attackt by the Enemy, of whom he slew 17000, and took above 3000, with 277 Standards. EUMENES King of Pergamus sent his Brother Attalus to Rome, to complain of PHARNACES King of Pontus. See the Catalogue of the Kings of Pontus.	569	329	150	133	1	7	2	18	7	41	CL. 1	3824 180	—	8	—	3830
The Romans forced PHARNACES to make Peace with his Neighbours. Tib. Sempronius Gracchus in Spain overcame the Celtiberians, slaying 22000, and taking 300, with 72 Standards. PHILIP King of Macedon coming to know the Innocence of his late hopeful Son DEMETRIUS, broke his Heart and died at Amphipolis: and so	570	330	151	134	2	8	3	19	8	42	2
PERSEUS or PERSES his Son, the last King of Macedonia, began to reign in the first Year of the 3ᵈ Calippic Period. See the Catalogue of the Kings of Macedonia. The Consul Manlius Vulso led an Army against the Histrians in Italy near Illyricum, who by the Histrians were terrify'd, and run away, leaving all to the Conquerors: but Manlius gathering his Men, rally'd upon the Enemy, and recover'd all, slaying the Histrians without Quarter.	571	331	152	135	3	9	4	20	9	1	3	3826 178	—	11	—	3839
Claudius Pulcher the Consul totally subdued the Histrians, slaying 8000, and the rest yielded, when their Towns were taken, and their King kill'd himself, that he might not be led in Triumph. Then the Consul subdued the rest of the Ligurians, slaying 15000, while the other Consul Sempronius Gracchus subdued the Sardinians, who had revolted. SELEUCUS Philopator sent his Son DEMETRIUS to Rome for Education, and to redeem his Brother Antiochus, there an Hostage; when Heliodorus poison'd SELEUCUS, and usurped to reign: but Antiochus opportunely	572	332	153	136	4	10	5	21	10	2	4

And now the Second Macedonian War begins.
PERSEUS broke the League made with his Father, and began the War, in which PERSEUS at firſt was victorious againſt the Conſul Licinius. But Lucretius the Prætor intirely ſubdued the Bœotians, that had made a League with PERSEUS. ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes ſent an Ambaſſador to Rome, to juſtify his Egyptian War. PERSEUS perceiving the vaſt Preparations of the Romans, ſent to Quintus Marcius now come againſt him, to treat of Peace; and Marcius wiſely diverted him from Action by a Truce, till he ſhould ſend to Rome. The Senate refuſed to grant Peace to PERSEUS, but upon too hard Terms, that he could not comply with; and ſent the Conſul Attilius to ſeize Lariſſa the Capital of Theſſaly: when PERSEUS rais'd a vaſt Army.	578	338	159	142	10	5	3	27	16	8		2

Hoſtilius the Proconſul performed not much againſt PERSEUS, only he reduced the Roman Army to the ancient Diſcipline, neglected by Licinius, and ſent Legates to all the States of Greece, who promiſed either to aſſiſt the Romans, or to be neuter: while PERSEUS made a League with GENTIUS King of the Illyrians, againſt the Romans, and ſent to the Rhodians, and to ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes for Aſſiſtance, but in vain. Marcius Philippus the new Conſul was quickly ſent to take the Command of the Army in Macedonia, who might have been defeated in the Paſſes, or blockt up in the Plains, if PERSEUS, ſtruck with Fear, had not retreated to Pydna.	580	340	161	144	12	7	5	29	18	10		4
At length Aemilius Paulus, again Conſul, came to command the Army, and gave PERSEUS a total Rout near the River Enipeus. PERSEUS fled to Samothrace, where he was forced to ſurrender himſelf and his eldeſt Son to Octavius the Prætor; and being carried to Rome He and his Children were led in the Triumph of Aemilius; while L. Anicius routed the Illyrians, and took their King Gentius with his Wife and Children Priſoners, who were led in the Triumph of Anicius at Rome. N. B. By this pray correct the Fault of Table XXX. and XXXIV. concerning his Beginning.

ONIAS the Prieſt, of the right Line of Joſedech, founded his Temple in Egypt.

And this is the firſt Year of
The III. Punic War againſt the Carthaginians.
And the III. Macedonian War againſt the Pretender Andriſcus.

The Carthaginians having made War upon MASINISSA King of Numidia, the Ally of Rome; the Romans ſent Ambaſſadors to Carthage to enquire about it; who, when return'd, acquainted the Senate of the great growing Grandeur and Wealth of Carthage ſince the laſt War, about 52 Years: This made many inſiſt upon the Danger to Rome of having ſo potent a Rival; eſpecially old Cato, one of the Ambaſſadors, concluded all his Speeches upon every Subject with Delenda eſt Carthago! Carthage muſt be deſtroy'd! He was often oppoſed by Scipio Naſica, who urged, that by deſtroying ſo powerful a Rival, ROME would grow ſecure, and the Republick might be diſſolved. But Cato's Opinion prevail'd, and for breaking the League, War was proclaim'd againſt the Carthaginians, who were ſore afraid, and offer'd all deſirable Satisfaction: but the Romans Anſwer was, That They muſt firſt ſend 300 of their moſt noble Children as Hoſtages in 30 Days to Sicily, and perform what the Conſuls ſhould further enjoin. This was punctually done, and when the Conſuls landed at Utica ſoon after, They ſent Commiſſioners to know their further Commands: the Conſul Cenſorinus demanded all their Arms; which were faithfully deliver'd up by the Carthaginians, who imploring Mercy with Tears, and all poſſible Submiſſion, deſired to know their laſt Doom, which was, That their City muſt be levell'd with the Ground, and that They might build another any where, but not within ten Miles of the Sea! This too ſevere Doom put them in a Rage, and They deſperately reſolved to ſuffer the laſt Extremity, rather than abandon their ancient magnificent City.

Cenſorinus commanded the Roman Fleet that was augmented with an auxiliary Fleet ſent by MITHRIDATES Euergetes King of Pontus: while Manlius the other Conſul commanded the Army.

Andriſcus was at firſt hinder'd from invading Theſſaly, by the Achæans, that helped the Romans in thoſe Parts.

Marcius Portius Cato ſaw not Carthage deſtroy'd, but died this Year, aged 85 Years, and alſo MASINISSA King of Numidia, aged 90 Years, died, leaving his Crown to MICIPSA his youngeſt Son, who began to reign after the Death of his two Brothers Maſtanabal and Guluſſa.

The Conſuls were dilatory in beginning the War, thinking now that the Carthaginians wanting Arms could make no Reſiſtance; but They were miſtaken: for all Hands in Carthage went to work Arms Night and Day; and when They wanted Iron and Braſs, They made Uſe of Gold and Silver, the Women freely cutting off their Hair to ſupply the want of Tow or Flax; and Aſdrubal, tho' lately condemn'd, was now their General, who with an Army of Deſperadoes beat off the Romans ſeveral Times from beſieging the City, with great Loſs; and had been greater Loſers if Scipio Aemilianus had not artfully drawn to his Side Phaneas, with 2200 of the beſt Carthaginian Horſe.

Andriſcus in Macedonia fought the Roman Prætor Juventius, who was ſlain and all his Army routed and cut off; upon which the Pretender invaded Theſſaly, laid waſte the moſt Part of it, and got the Thracians to join him.

The Carthaginians having baffled the Conſul Piſo, and made him riſe from the Siege of Hippo, ſent Ambaſſadors to Andriſcus, exhorting him to perſiſt in his War againſt the Romans, and promiſing to furniſh him with Money and Ships.

But Metellus the Prætor at length coming with a great Roman Army into Macedonia, and King ATTALUS aſſiſting him with a Fleet, Andriſcus could not get Poſſeſſion of any Sea Coaſt to open a Correſpondence with Carthage; and being routed by Metellus in ſeveral Conflicts, with the Loſs of 25000 Men, he fled to Byzes a Thracian Prince, who deliver'd him up to Metellus.

Metellus alſo drove away one Alexander another pretended Son of the late King Perſeus: and ſo in the latter End of the Conſulſhip of Poſthumius and Piſo, Macedonia was intirely reduced by Metellus, now call'd Macedonicus.

The People of Rome admiring the Conduct of Scipio Aemilianus, and imagining that Africa could not be conquer'd but by a Scipio, inſtead of the Ædileſhip which he only expected, They made him Conſul this Year, tho' under Age, (with Livius Druſus his Collegue) and was ſent to command alone in Africa, who carried with him Polybius the Hiſtorian, and Panæcius the Philoſopher; for he affected always to have the Learn'd about him as their known Patron: and his firſt Attack was upon the Carthaginian Fleet, which he beat, and diſpers'd under the very Walls of Carthage; in which the Romans were much aſſiſted by the Fleet of MITHRIDATES Euergetes King of Pontus, which he lent them laſt Year. Mean while

The Achæans having quarrell'd with their Neighbours the Lacedæmonians about Juriſdiction, the laſt appeal'd to the Romans, who ſent their Legates to compoſe the Difference; and the Roman Legates being very ill uſed by the Achæans at Corinth, and forced to flee for their Lives; becauſe They decided it in favour of the Lacedæmonians, (and indeed of all the Grecian Cities which the Romans had formerly reſtored to Liberty) War was proclaim'd at Rome againſt the Achaean Republick.

Scipio next new modell'd the Roman Army; and having reſtored the old military Diſcipline, he ſoon took that Part of Carthage call'd Megara, and drove the Inhabitants into the Citadel call'd Byrſa, which he beſieged, cut off their Proviſions from the Country, by ſecuring the Iſthmus, and blockt up their Haven: while ASDRUBAL brought the Roman Captives to the Walls, and in Sight of the Roman Army, He tortured and butchered them to Death.

ROMAN Republick.

But the Beſieged having, with almoſt miraculous Induſtry, cut out a new Paſſage to the Sea, by which They received Neceſſaries from the Army without; Scipio thought fit to attack their Army in the Field, and gave them a total Rout, ſlew 70000, and took 10000 Priſoners, in the Winter.

In the Spring Scipio took the Wall leading to the Haven Citho, and after that the Forum itſelf, where was a moſt deplorable Sight of ſlaughter'd mangled People in Heaps: yet ſtill the Citadel held out, till Scipio made Proclamation, That all who would come forth ſhould have their Lives, except Revolters; upon which 50000 Carthaginians came forth, and were ſaved, among whom was Aſdrubal himſelf; for which the Revolters revil'd him, and being deſperate, They ſet Fire to the Temple, and burnt Themſelves in it; as did alſo Aſdrubal's Wife, who threw herſelf and her two Children into the Flames.

Then Scipio ſet this magnificent City a Fire, which was 24 Miles in Compaſs, and was 17 Days a burning; which made Scipio ſeriouſly conſider of the Changes of human Affairs, as he confeſs'd to his Maſter Polybius. Appian. And hereby he got the Title of SCIPIO AFRICANUS junior: he was the Son of Æmilius, and being adopted by Scipio the Son of Scipio Africanus, he was call'd Scipio Aemilianus.

The Senate joyfully received the News, diſpatched ſome of their Number to join Scipio in diſpoſing of the Country, ordering that there ſhould be no Remains of Carthage left, and denouncing heavy Curſes on any that ſhould dare to rebuild it, cauſing all the African Cities aſſiſting the Carthaginians to be demoliſh'd, dividing the Lands among the Romans and their Friends, ſelling all the Captives, except a few principal ones, and appointing a Pretor to govern the Country, and the tributary Towns. Cornelius Lentulus and Mummius Achaicus being Conſuls.

This ſame Year the Conſul Mummius was ſent into Greece againſt the Acheans, who receiving the Army from Metellus, at the Iſthmus of Corinth, routed Diaeus the laſt Prætor of the Achæans, and Author of this War: Three Days after the Battel, Mummius enter'd Corinth; and having given his Soldiers leave to ſpoil it, he utterly deſtroy'd that great and learned, and wealthy City; and from hence he was called Achaicus. He brought from Corinth two famous Pictures, viz. an Hercules tormented with Deianira's Coat, and a Bacchus drawn by Ariſtides the Theban, and placed them in the Temple of Ceres at Rome, with other Grecian Ornaments.

Here ends the Republick of Achaea, of which Polybius was a Native, which was made up of ſeveral little States, all now ſubject to the ROMAN Republick, which, together with Epirus, and the other Parts of Greece, made up the new Roman Province call'd Achaia.

Upon this the Senators determin'd the Death of Gracchus: but Mutius Scævola the Conſul declining or afraid to puniſh him, Scipio Nasica cry'd out, Let every Man that would defend the Authority of the Laws follow me! ſo ſaying, He walkt to the Capitol with the Senators and Knights, and ſome Plebeians, arm'd only with Sticks and Clubs, or what next came to Hand; where They fell upon Tiberius Gracchus, harranguing the Mob to chuſe him a Tribune, kill'd him in his Flight by a Blow with a Piece of a Bench, and alſo 300 of his Hearers. Caius Gracchus, continued in the Tribuneſhip, inſpected into the Corruptions of the Senate, their taking Bribes, ſelling Offices, &c. found Means to transfer the Power of trying corrupt Officers from the Senators to the Equites or Knights; which was a great Innovation upon the Conſtitution: for the Equites, tho' inſtituted by ROMULUS, had no Rank, Order and Authority in the Republick till now, when They come to make the Third Order, call'd the Equeſtrian; whereas before there were only the Senatorian and Plebeian Orders, the Equites being hitherto only diſtinguiſh'd from other Plebeians or Commoners by their Way of Service. Gracchus had a fair Opportunity for this Law, becauſe the Senators had become odious, by acquitting for Money Cotta, Salinator, and Aquilius, who had been capitally guilty of Corruption.
The Equeſtrian Order became the Ornaments of the City, and Strength of the State, who made up ſo many Companies as there were Provinces ſubject to pay Toll, Tribute, Cuſtom, or Impoſt; which publick Revenues They were wont to farm from the Cenſors, and from thence were call'd Publicans: but in Time their Power became exorbitant and burdenſome, till by Degrees their Authority was diminiſh'd.

ROMAN Republick.

Gracchus taking all Care to pleaſe the People, caus'd the High Ways to be mended, erecting a Stone at each Mile. He alſo propoſed that a Roman Colony ſhould be ſent to Tarentum, and that the Latines ſhould be made Roman Citizens, but being fruſtrated, He departed into Africa with Fulvius Flaccus his Collegue, deſigning to rebuild Carthage with a Roman Colony, calling it Junonia; and being there likewiſe diſappointed,

He return'd again and ſtood to be Tribune a Third Time; but his Collegues offended at his violent Carriage, got Minucius Rufus to be choſen into his Place, who began to abrogate the Laws of Gracchus, being ſeconded by the Conſul Opimius; and Gracchus afraid of his Life reſolved with Flaccus to raiſe Forces, and with many Friends went to the Capitol with ſecret Arms; when one Attilius a Serjeant of the Conſul coming down from the Capitol while They were going up, cry'd out, You factious Citizens, make Way for honeſt Men! They forthwith ſlew him. This Murder rais'd a Tumult, and the next Day Opimius having order'd the Equites to take Arms, Gracchus and his Friends were forced to fortify themſelves in Mount Aventine, when the Conſul by Proclamation offer'd for the Head of Gracchus or Flaccus its Weight in Gold: Flaccus flying to a Friend's Houſe was betray'd and ſlain; and Gracchus ſoon fled to a Grove beyond the Tiber, and got his Servant to kill him, who alſo kill'd himſelf; and Opimius cut off about 3000 of that Party.

Thus ten Years after his Brother Tiberius Gracchus was cut off, Caius Gracchus, and all the Party of the Gracchi, were cut off, for the ſame Practices; even for changing the Conſtitution of the Republick, breaking the publick Peace, diſuniting Clients from their Patrons, and affecting to govern All: whereby the Roman State became very unſettled, and liable to any Revolution, as will afterwards appear.

TABLE LIV.

The CHRONOLOGY of the ROMAN Republick, from the Death of Caius Gracchus, To the Beginning of the firſt Mithridatic War, containing 31 Years.

In the 26th Year of PTOLEMY Phyſcon King of —— Egypt.
4th Year of ANTIOCHUS Grypus King of —— Syria.
5th Year of Arſaces MITHRIDATES II. King of — Parthia.
30th Year of NICOMEDES II. King of —— Bithynia.
16th Year of JOHN Hyrcanus King of —— Judæa.
And 3d Year of MITHRIDATES Eupator King of — Pontus.
Anno U. C. Varroniano, ———————— 634

MITHRIDATES VI. Eupator King of Pontus, having eſcap'd the Snares of his Tutors, who thought to have poiſon'd him, (for which he took Antidotes, and ſo early began to ſtudy Medicine) being afraid They would cut him off by the Sword, feign'd to go a Hunting; but return'd not to his Palace for ſeven Years, living in Woods and Mountains, till he became a very hardy Man, and fit for the Adminiſtration of Government without his Tutors. See Vaillant Page 65.

Caius Marius the Tribune of the People got the Lex Maria preferr'd, which diminiſh'd the judicative Authority of the Senate.

A Roman Colony is now ſent into Gallia Narbonenſis, which is conſtituted a Roman Province, M. Porcius Cato and Q. Marcius Rex being Conſuls.

The Conſul Metellus Diadematus triumph'd over the Dalmatians; and this Year ——

PTOLEMY Phyſcon dying, left to his Baſtard Son Apion the Kingdom of Cyrene and Lybia; and to his Wife and Niece CLEOPATRA the Kingdoms of Egypt and Cyprus, to reign jointly with her two Sons Lathyrus and Alexander: and ſo

9. PTOLEMY Lathyrus, }
10. CLEOPATRA II. } began to reign jointly: but Ptolemy the Aſtronomer, in his Canon, aſſigns to Lathyrus 36 Years; tho' during that Time, his Mother and ALEXANDER I. his Brother reign'd too. See Page 213.

This Year Terentius Varro the moſt learned Roman was born, whoſe Grandfather was a Conſul.

Q. Cæcilius Metellus Macedonicus, call'd the happy old Man, died, after he had ſeen his four Sons preferr'd, viz. 1. Metellus Balearicus, who had been Conſul U. C. 626. 2. Lucius Metellus Conſul U. C. 630. when the Marian Law paſs'd. 3. Marcus Metellus Conſul this Year. 4. Caius Metellus Prætor this Year.

The Scordiſcian War in Thrace.

The Scordiſci of a Gallic Original in Thrace, bravely defeated the Conſul C. Porcius Cato, as They had worſted the Romans frequently before.

ANTIOCHUS Cizicenus the Brother of Grypus took the Field, and is reckoned to begin this Year to reign as King of Damaſcus, where he reign'd 21 Years. See Page 172.

The Cimbrian War began.

The Cimbri (that is either Soldiers or Robbers in the old Teutonic) who had travell'd every where for new Settlements, long ago had ſome of them ſettled in Denmark, Sleſwick, and Holſtein, call'd from them Cimbrica Cherſoneſus, or the Peninſul of the Cimbri, and were now firſt known to the Romans, when They marched towards Italy, join'd by Bands of ſeveral Teutonic, or German and of Gallic Nations, and totally routed the Roman Army under the Conſul Carbo, who was glad to flee for his Life.

But this Year Didius the Prætor beat the Scordiſci home to their Country of Thrace: and Caius Metellus the other Conſul now triumph'd over Thrace, and the ſame Day his Brother Marcus Metellus lately Conſul triumph'd over Sardinia.

MITHRIDATES King of Pontus, now return'd from his Hunting Life to adminiſter Government, became eager after Blood and Slaughter; firſt put his Mother in Priſon till ſhe died by ill Uſage, and then ſlew his Brother.

Livius Druſus the Conſul overcame the Scordiſci, and forbid them to paſs over the Danube; and ſo He finiſh'd that War.

The Jugurthin War.

MICIPSA King of Numidia being dead, had left two Sons, Hiempſal and Adherbal, and his Nephew Jugurtha, who firſt cut off Hiempſal, and had forced Adherbal to flee to the Romans; and Jugurtha having largely bribed the Senators, had got a Decree to divide the Kingdom between him and Adherbal; yet tho' he had got the better Part by bribing the Roman Legates that came to make the Partition, he was not contented, but beſieged Adherbal in Cirta, took him and cut his Throat.

Therefore War was proclaim'd againſt JUGURTHA, and L. Calpurnius Beſtia the Conſul, was ſent with an Army againſt him, who at firſt took in ſome Towns, but was too ſoon overcome by Jugurtha's golden Weapons, to conſent to a Treaty of Peace. This, and the exorbitant Power of Scaurus the Conſul's Intimate, ſo alarm'd the Senate, that They wrote to Caſſius Longinus the Prætor in Africa, to prevail with Jugurtha to come to Rome upon the publick Faith, that from him They might know the Truth of the Bribery and Corruption juſtly ſuſpected; and Jugurtha came accordingly to Rome, tho' in poor Habit.

When Jugurtha was beginning to open, Caius Baebius a Tribune, corrupted by Money, order'd him to be ſilent, and ſo the People were diſappointed. Nay Jugurtha perceiving that Albinus the Conſul wanting to go to War in Numidia, had got one Maſſiva to beg that Kingdom of the Senate (being the Son of Geluſſa, the Grandſon of Maſiniſſa, the Nephew of Micipſa, and firſt Couſin of Jugurtha) he imploy'd his Friend Bomilcar to cut him off, and ſent Bomilcar home ſafe to Numidia, and at the Order of the Senate Jugurtha himſelf ſoon departed out of Italy, looking back on the City, and ſaying, O Rome, Thou wouldſt be all ſold if there were a proper Chapman to buy Thee!

Albinus follow'd him with an Army, but did nothing, and left it with his Brother Aulus: but the other Conſul Minucius Rufus defeated the Scordiſci, Thracians, Triballians, and Dacians.

Silanus the Conſul was well beaten by the Cimbri and Teutones: and JUGURTHA bribed Aulus not to inveſt Suthul, where his chief Treaſures lay; nay he corrupted the Centurions, and did what he pleaſed with the Roman Army; till at laſt the other Conſul Cæcilius Metellus came thither, and revived the Army, by renewing the old military Diſcipline.

Metellus wiſely and bravely defeated JUGURTHA in ſeveral Conflicts, whoſe Legate or Lieutenant Caius Marius by Frugality, Patience, and Indulgence, conciliated to him the Hearts of the Soldiers, and let the People of Rome know, That with the Half of the Army he could bring Jugurtha to Rome in Chains, charging Metellus with Neglect: and Marius going to Rome, obtain'd to be made one of the Conſuls, and got the Command of the Army in Numidia; yet Metellus was honour'd with a Triumph, and with the Name of Numidicus.

L. Caſſius Longinus the other Conſul, and his Legate L. Piſo were both defeated and ſlain by the Tigurins or Helvetians in Gallia, the Confederates of the Cimbri, and their Army made to paſs under the Jugum. Cæſar Lib. I. de bello Gallico.

5. ARISTOBULUS I. the Son of John Hyrcanus King and High Prieſt of Judæa, began to reign and officiate.

Marcus Tullius CICERO the Father of Roman Eloquence, was now born.

Marius having taken the ſtrong City Capſa, JUGURTHA got BOCCHUS King of Mauritania his Father in Law, to join him with an Army of Cavalry; but in the Battel of Cirta, tho' the Romans were three Days ſore diſtreſs'd, yet Marius beat them both out of the Field. And now Lucius Cornelius Sylla the Quæſtor of Marius began to learn to be a great Soldier.

Q. Servilius Caepio the Conſul warring againſt the Tectoſagans, took the City Toloſa in Gaul, where he found an immenſe Treaſure.

6. Alexander Jannæus the Brother of ARISTOBULUS, King and High Prieſt of Judæa, began to reign and officiate.

Marius having taken Cirta, and again defeated the Enemy, King BOCCHUS thought fit to ſue for Peace, and to enter into a League with Rome; but tho' the Senate pardon'd him, They would not make a League with him till he ſhould deſerve it: therefore, by Sylla's Advice, He betray'd JUGURTHA to a private Conference, and deliver'd him to Sylla, then preſent with him, who brought him in Chains to Marius.

But Manilius the Conſul, and Caepio the Proconſul in Gaul, by Envy and Quarrelling came to be overthrown, and They and all their Army cut off, about 90000, near the Rhone, by the Cimbri, the Teutones, the Tigurines, and Ambrones, the confederated Gauls and Germans, to the great Diſhonour of the Roman Name.

The ſecond Servile War in Sicily.

The News of JUGURTHA's being taken made Marius to be choſen Conſul a ſecond Time, tho' in his Abſence; and returning to Rome, JUGURTHA with his two Sons were led in his ſolemn Triumph; (tho' Sylla had a Seal Ring made, on which was ingraven King BOCCHUS delivering JUGURTHA to Sylla, with which he ever ſeal'd all his Deeds) and JUGURTHA being put to Death by Order of the Senate, the Jugurthin War ended, and a more terrible War began, or rather was continued and carried on,

Viz. The Cimbrian and Teutonic War continued.

For It had laſted ten Years already in Gaul and Spain, where They had been very proſperous againſt the Romans: and having got many Nations to join them, They reſolved to march over the Alps into Italy; the News of which put all Rome in great Conſternation, and the Conſul Marius had this threatning War committed to his Care. He raiſed a good Army, and

While the Enemy had gone to Spain, Marius a third Time Conſul, train'd his Men up to regular Exerciſe, and firſt order'd the Eagle to be the Enſign or Standart of every Legion, a Silver Eagle with Wings expanded on the Top of a Pole; but in Proceſs of Time the Roman Eagles were of Gold. Marius marched againſt the Toloſans in Gaul, where Sylla his Lieutenant took their King Copilus Priſoner.

Marius a 4th Time Conſul, having made ſufficient Preparations for War, marched again over the Alps, to meet the Enemy upon their Return from Spain into Gaul, and to prevent their paſſing the Alps into Italy: and ſo at the Rhone, his Army being ſtraitned for want of Water, and the Enemy lying between him and the Sextian Waters, He was forced to fight, and routed the Teutones and Ambrones in two Battels, ſlaying 200000 of them, and taking 80000, with their Leader or King Teutobochus, or Teutobodus. But the Cimbri eſcaped him, and paſs'd over the Alps, tho' in the Depth of Winter, and twice repulſed the other Conſul Catulus at the Alps, and at the River Atheſis near Verona.

Marius a 5th Time Conſul, and Catulus the Proconſul, marched againſt the Cimbri now in Italy, and near the Atheſis in a large Field, upon the Enemy's Challenge, fought the deciſive Battel, and defeated the Cimbri, ſlaying 140000, with their King BOIORIX, and taking 60000. And their Women, who fought fiercely from their Carts and Chariots, ſeeing all loſt, firſt kill'd their Children, and then Themſelves.

Thus ended the Cimbrian and Teutonic War, that had laſted in all 13 Years.

The Romans being deliver'd from that dreadful Invaſion, quaffed it to Marius as They uſed to their Gods, reckoning him the Third Founder of Rome, after ROMULUS and CAMILLUS.

And this Year AQUILIUS Nepos the other Conſul happily finiſh'd the Second Servile War in Sicily, which had laſted four Years.

MITHRIDATES the Great, King of Pontus, had inlarged his Dominion, by conquering the Scythians near the Palus Meotis (now Crim Tartary) and from thence about as far as Colchis, was poſſeſs'd of the Kingdom of Boſphorus, King Perſades yielding it to him; and then ſubdued the Kings near the River Phaſis, even to the Countries beyond Mount Caucaſus. Therefore the Romans jealous of his Projects, had commanded him to reſtore to the Scythian Kings their paternal Kingdoms. But inſtead of obeying their Orders, MITHRIDATES ſent Ambaſſadors to Rome with a great Sum for corrupting the Senate. Mean while, ROME was not without inteſtine Broils, for Saturninus a Friend of Marius being angry at the Senate for turning him out of being the Quæſtor at Oſtia, in Revenge, had got himſelf made a Tribune of the People, in order to follow the Example of the Gracchi.

When his Year was out, Metellus Numidicus being Cenſor, endeavour'd to thruſt him out of the Senate, but was retarded by the other Cenſor: therefore Saturninus inraged, ſtood Candidate laſt Year again for the Tribuneſhip; and having murder'd his Competitor Nonius, obtain'd it, and preferr'd an Agrarian Law for dividing the Conqueſts in Gaul, and made the Senate to ſwear to it: but Numidicus refuſing the Oath, Saturninus ſet him a Day to anſwer it before the People; and Numidicus afraid of Marius now the 6th Time Conſul, rather choſe a voluntary Baniſhment, and went to Rhodes and Smyrna, where he apply'd himſelf wholly to Learning. And now

Saturninus having reproach'd the Ambaſſadors of Mithridates, and thoſe Senators that received Money from them, was brought into Danger for violating the ſacred Rights of Ambaſſadors, but reſcued by the People, who a third Time choſe him to be a Tribune: but having drawn much Hatred upon himſelf, by cauſing Memmius to be murder'd, that ſtood Candidate for the Conſulſhip, to make Way for his intimate Glaucius; and Marius perceiving him in a declining Condition, deſerted him, and by Warrant from the Senate fell upon him and his Accomplices Glaucius and Suffeins in the Forum, drove them to the Capitol, and by cutting off the Water Pipes made

10. NICOMEDES III. and laſt King of Bithynia, began to reign, ———	—	—	—	—	—	—	—	1	—	—	—	—	—	17	—	3928

MITHRIDATES King of Pontus had ſubdued Colchis, and extended his Dominion beyond Pharnacia and Trapezunt, (where the Tibarenians and Chaldæans dwell) even to little Armenia, where the petty Kings yielded their Power to him.

He travell'd incognito over all the Aſiatic Countries near him, to know how to carry on his Wars; and when return'd he narrowly eſcaped being poiſon'd by his Wife and Siſter Laodice, who had in his Abſence been too familiar with others.

He had made a League with NICOMEDES II. King of Bithynia, and They having invaded Paphlagonia, divided it between them: upon which the Romans ſent Legates to them both, requiring them to reſtore the Country to its right Owners; but MITHRIDATES bravely reply'd, That he only took Poſſeſſion of his hereditary Dominions, and wonder'd the Romans would meddle in a Controverſy not yet referr'd to them! and ſcorning their Threats he took Poſſeſſion of Galatia too. Next

He imploy'd Gordius a Cappadocian to murder ARIARATHES King of Cappadocia, (the Son of him ſlain in the Ariſtonic War) tho' ARIARATHES had married his Siſter the other Laodice; but while deſigning to cut off her two Sons next, NICOMEDES II. invaded Cappadocia, and married the Widow Queen: upon which MITHRIDATES beat all the Bithynians out of Cappadocia, and ſet his Nephew young ARIARATHES on the Throne.

But MITHRIDATES offering to reſtore Gordius from Baniſhment, the young King oppos'd it, and met his Uncle at the Head of an Army, conſiſting of 80000 Foot, 10000 Horſe, and 600 Hook-Chariots. MITHRIDATES deſired an Interview with ARIARATHES alone before Battel, with a ſolemn Promiſe of his Safety; but when the Youth came, his Uncle cut off his Head with a private Weapon, in Sight of both Armies, and without a Battel ſeiz'd that Kingdom, which he beſtow'd upon one of his Sons 9 Years old, call'd ARIARATHES, and made Gordius his Regent.

The Cappadocians ſent for their late young King's Brother, call'd alſo ARIARATHES, and made him their King; but MITHRIDATES ſoon expell'd him, and falling ſick the Youth died.

And now NICOMEDES III. being juſtly afraid of the growing Power of Mithridates, ſuborned a Youth to call himſelf the third Son of the late ARIARATHES; and getting his Mother in Law, Queen Laodice, to own him, ſent her with him to Rome to put in his Claim: and MITHRIDATES ſent Gordius to Rome to aſſure the Senate with all Impudence, that the Youth he had ſet upon the Throne (viz. his own Son) was the Son of ARIARATHES King of Cappadocia.

But the Senate was not to be impoſed upon, condemn'd both their Claims, order'd Mithridates to leave Cappadocia, and NICOMEDES to leave Paphlagonia, (which his Father had ſeiz'd) and to reſtore their King PYLÆMENES.

The Senate decreed the Cappadocians ſhould become a free People; but, to the Wonder of the Romans, They would not be free, declaring They could not ſubſiſt without a King: therefore They got Leave to chuſe ARIOBARZANES one of their Noblemen to be their King.

Mean while at Rome the Senatorian Order was much offended at the judicial Power given to the Equites, by the Laws of Caius Gracchus; for that the Commonwealth was bought and ſold by the Equites, who were alſo Publicans; Druſus a Tribune endeavouring to make all eaſy, pleas'd no Party, except the Italian Allies, whom he propoſed to be made free of Rome; and was baſely ſtab'd in the Croud of his Attendants, by the Contrivance of the Knights, as was ſuppoſed; for being influenced by the Publicans of Aſia, the Knights got Rutilius Rufus late Quæſtor of Scaevola, condemn'd upon a falſe Accuſation of having purloin'd ſome Money while in Aſia, and had confiſcated his Eſtate, tho' his All amounted not to the Half of what he was charged with. But he had ſeverely puniſh'd the Publicans, which was Crime enough; and beſides, He was too honeſt to concur in the Meaſures of Marius, who concur'd therefore with the Knights againſt Rutilius: and Rutilius ſailing from Rome, came to Mytelene, where all the Princes and Cities of Aſia made him welcome, and contributed to make up for him a far better Eſtate than he had loſt. He is call'd by Hiſtorians the beſt Man that ever liv'd.

The Senate order'd Sylla then Prætor of Cilicia, to march and put ARIOBARZANES in quiet Poſſeſſion of Cappadocia, which he did. And while Sylla was in thoſe Parts Arſaces MITHRIDATES II. King of Parthia, ſent Ambaſſadors to him to ſue for Friendſhip with the Romans; which was the firſt Intercourſe between thoſe Nations.

The Social or Civil War began this Year.

For the Italians finding that the Knights were baniſhing all great Men that were not for their Purpoſe, and their Hope being extinct with Druſus of being made free of Rome by Petition, were reſolved to be free by Arms, and many Italian Nations, as the Lucani, Apulii, Marſi, Peligni, Samnites, and others, join'd to raiſe an Army with equal Diligence and Secrecy of 100000 Foot and Horſe. They cut off Servilius the Proconſul at Aſculum; yet ſent Ambaſſadors to complain of their not being admitted to their Right of the Freedom of Rome, which They thought They deſerved as much as the Romans; for that by their Valour, Rome had arrived at her Greatneſs: but the Senate would not hear their Ambaſſadors, till They had repented of what They had done; and ſo committed the War to the Conſuls Lucius Julius Caeſar, and P. Rutilius Lupus, with Marius, Sylla, Cneius Pompeius Strabo (the Father of POMPEY the Great) and others, who had Proconſular Authority.

The Romans received many Defeats, the Conſul Rutilius was ſlain in an Ambuſcade by the Marſi, and the Roman Army was committed to Marius and Cæpio, till Cæpio was ſlain by Popedius an Italian General; and then Marius had his Deſire of the ſole and chief Command. Mean while

MITHRIDATES King of Pontus prevail'd with TIGRANES King of Armenia to join in his deſtined Wars againſt the Romans, and ſent him his Daughter Cleopatra in Marriage; upon which TIGRANES ſent an Army into

TABLE LV.

The Chronology of the Roman Republick from the Beginning of the firſt Mithridatic War,
To the perpetual Dictatorſhip of Sylla, and the End of the ſecond Mithridatic War, containing 8 Years.

In the 28th Year of Ptolemy Lathyrus King of —— Egypt.
4th Year of Philip King of —— Syria.
36th Year of Arſaces Mithridates II. King of — Parthia.
4th Year of Nicomedes III. King of —— Bithynia.
17th Year of Alexander Jannaeus King of —— Judæa.
And 34th Year of Mithridates the Great King of — Pontus.
Anno U. C. Varroniano, —— 665

In the ſame Year that the Social War in Italy was almoſt finiſh'd.

Mithridates the Great King of Pontus, having expell'd Nicomedes III. from Bithynia, while his Confederate Tigranes King of Armenia expell'd Ariobarzanes from Cappadocia, both theſe injured Kings came to Rome to complain, and the Senate ſent Manius Aquilius (who had finiſh'd the Servile War in Sicily) and M. Altinus, their Legats to reſtore them, with an Order to L. Caſſius, and alſo to Mithridates himſelf to aſſiſt the Legates. Mithridates laugh'd at the Order, but Caſſius with a little Army aſſiſted Aquilius, and reſtored thoſe Kings: But the ſame Time adviſed them both to diſtreſs Mithridates, in order to provoke him to go to War. Accordingly

Nicomedes rais'd Forces, ravaged Pontus, and return'd with great Spoils: for Mithridates would not oppoſe him, that he might have many juſt Cauſes for going to War; but ſent Pelopidas his Ambaſſador to the Roman Commanders, to complain of the Wrong; whom the Romans did not treat with Civility, but diſmiſs'd him with a dubious Anſwer, That They would not have Nicomedes and Mithridates wrong each other.

Therefore Mithridates judging himſelf ſufficiently provoked by the Romans, ſent an Army to expel Ariobarzanes, and again ſet his Son Ariarathes on the Throne of Cappadocia; and again ſent Polipidas to the Roman Generals and Legats, to acquaint them that he would complain of them to the Senate, and to charge them not to begin Hoſtilities without the publick Decree of the Senate and People of Rome: but Pelopidas being diſmiſs'd with Indignation,

The Roman Chiefs in Aſia not waiting for Orders from Rome, forthwith began

The firſt Mithridatic War.

L. Caſſius, Manius Aquilius, and Q. Oppius, Each form'd an Army of 40000, and pitched in ſeveral Parts; while King Nicomedes took the Field with 50000 Foot, and 6000 Horſe; and Minutius Rufus, and C. Popilius commanded the Roman Fleet at the Mouth of the Pontic Sea.

Mithridates had 250000 Foot, and 40000 Horſe, 300 Deck Ships, and 100 Two-Oar'd-Gallies, and his Son Arcathias brought to him 10000 Horſe from Leſſer Armenia.

Neoptolemus and Archelaus two noble Brothers, before the King came up with the Phalanx or Main Body, attackt Nicomedes in the Plains near the River Amnia; and tho' They were inferior in Numbers, yet by the Means of the Armenian Horſe, and 130 hooked Chariots commanded by Dorylaus, They routed him with a great Slaughter, and made him flee to Paphlagonia.

Next They beat Aquilius and Oppius, and made him flee to Pergamus: and They got all the Fleet of Nicomedes into their Power, when the Roman Fleet retired.

Mithridates ſent home all his Priſoners with Proviſions to their reſpective Countries; whereby he gain'd many to his Side, as the Saviour of Aſia from a foreign Yoke: and Nicomedes going to Rome, Mithridates ſeiz'd all Bithynia, enter'd Phrygia with a great Army, lay in the Bed of Alexander the Great in great State, as an happy Omen; and having ſubdued all the Roman Province in Aſia, and alſo Pamphilia and Lycia, He beat King Phylaemenes out of Paphlagonia. The Laodiceans near the Lycus delivered up to him Oppius, whom he carried about for a Show; and the Mitylenians next deliver'd Aquilius, whom he ſet upon an Aſs, forcing him to proclaim to the People, I am Aquilius the Author of the War! and at laſt being often whipt, and much tormented, They had melted Gold poured into their Mouths at Pergamus, in Deriſion of Roman Covetouſneſs.

The revolted Italians invited Mithridates into Italy againſt the Romans; but he anſwer'd, That when he had conquer'd Aſia, he would lead his Troops into Italy; whereby the Italians were diſpirited.

Continuation of TABLE LV.

ROMAN Republick.

Sylla and Pompeius Rufus being Conſuls, the Romans decreed an Expedition againſt MITHRIDATES, wherein Sylla was to command: but while Sylla was finiſhing the Remains of the Social War, P. Sulpicius the Tribune got Marius to be appointed inſtead of Sylla to command the Army againſt MITHRIDATES; which was oppoſed by Pompeius the other Conſul, whoſe Son had married Sylla's Daughter, and was now ſlain in this Tumult. But Sylla hearing theſe Things, haſtned to Rome with the Army, and ſeized the Capitol; when the Marians diſpers'd, and Sulpicius was put to Death. And thus began

The firſt Civil War at ROME.

Marius, now aged 70 Years, in his Flight, hid himſelf in the Fens, whence he was brought to the Priſon of Minturnum, where a Gaulic Slave was ſent to kill him: but the Gaul was ſo daſh'd at the Majeſty of his Preſence, that he run away crying for the ſad Fate of ſo great a Man; nay the Minturnians moved with Pity, let him eſcape, and he went to Africa: while Sylla, the firſt in Rome that acquired Dominion by Arms, diſpoſed of the City as he pleaſed, and left the Remains of the Social War to be finiſh'd by Pompeius Strabo: But the Senate ſending Pompeius Rufus the Conſul to receive the Army from Pompeius Strabo, his Soldiers ſlew the Conſul; the News of which made Sylla not a little afraid, and haſtning to the Army at Capua, he ſail'd over into Greece. Mean while MITHRIDATES gather'd immenſe Wealth from the Aſiatic Cities, the labour of ancient Kings; and returning from Ionia, he took in Stratonice, and took the charming Monima Daughter of Philopæmenes into his Seraglio. But his terrible Hatred of the Romans prompted him to contrive and execute the Maſſacre of 80000 Italians and Romans in Aſia in one Day. Then he paſs'd into the Iſland Coos, where he found the great Treaſure of Cleopatra Queen of Egypt, with her Son Alexander, to whom he gave a Royal Education. But the Rhodians were faithful to the Intereſt of Rome, and their Iſland was the Aſylum of the Romans in Time of the ſaid Maſſacre: therefore MITHRIDATES came and attackt it with his grand Fleet, but was ſhamefully beat off by the Rhodians ſmall Fleet, and narrowly eſcaped being taken himſelf.

Then MITHRIDATES ſent Archelaus into Greece with 120000 Men, who ſoon had Athens deliver'd to him by Ariſtion, and ſoon got almoſt all the Greek Nations on his Side.

10. Arſaces MNASKIRES, the Son of Phrahates I. King of Parthia, began to reign, ————————

Sura the Legate of Sentius, the Prætor of Macedonia, defeated Metrophanes's Fleet, which was ſent againſt Magneſia by MITHRIDATES; till Sylla came into Attica, who ſent a Detachment to beſiege Ariſtion in Athens, and with his main Body marched to Piræeus where Archelaus was; while MITHRIDATES at Pergamus was dividing Lordſhips and Wealth among his Friends.

Octavius Nepos and Cornelius Cinna being Conſuls, the Italians declared their Uneaſineſs, that tho' now free of the City, They were not incorporated in the old 35 Tribes, but made up Eight new Tribes, and gave their Votes laſt, whereby They were not often needful; and Cinna declared for the new Citizens, and recall'd Marius and his Aſſociate Exiles from Africa to aſſiſt him: but Octavius ſo warmly oppoſed it, that Cinna was by Force drove out of Rome, and Merula put in his Place. Cinna went about the Italian Cities, telling them he was a Sufferer upon their Account; and aſſuring them he would obtain for them equal Privileges at Rome with the old Romans, he rais'd conſiderable Sums for carrying on the projected War.

Octavius and Merula fortified the City, and ſent for Pompeius Strabo with his Army to defend it, who no ſooner came, than Cinna came alſo with an Army from Capua; and Marius landing in Hetruria, rais'd 6000 Men there, and join'd Cinna.

Marius marched and took Oſtia, and returning, poſted himſelf on the Hill Janiculum near Rome, where Cinna join'd him. The Conſuls ſent to Samnium for Metellus with his Army; but he not agreeing to their Terms, ſoon join'd Marius and Cinna. But tho' They broke in upon Rome, They were bravely repulſed by Pompeius Strabo, who ſoon after was kill'd by a Thunder-bolt.

Marius ſtraitned Rome by taking in ſeveral Towns about it, where Proviſions lay; and Cinna by promiſing Liberty to the Slaves, drew many of them out of Rome: which made the Senate ſend Ambaſſadors to Marius and Cinna to come peaceably to Rome, and ſpare their Country Men: but Cinna would not be addreſs'd as a private Man, and therefore They were forced to invite him as Conſul, requiring him to ſwear he would ſhed no Blood, which he refuſed: and Marius would not come till They had revers'd the Decree for his Baniſhment.

But when Marius and Cinna enter'd Rome, They fill'd it with Blood and Death, cut off the Heads of Octavius and Antonius, (the Grandfather of the Triumvir) and ſet them on the Roſtra: all Sylla's Friends were ſlaughter'd without Mercy, his Houſe demoliſh'd, his Goods put to Sale, and He was declared an Enemy to Rome. Merula and Catullus choſe rather to kill themſelves, and diſmal was the State of Rome; when Marius and Cinna made themſelves Conſuls for the Year inſuing.

Catullus the Poet was born this Year. Mean while

Sylla, after a long Siege, took in Athens in December, tho' it is ſaid to be on the Calends of next March, by the Error of the Roman Calendar: and the Rhodians not being able to cope with MITHRIDATES at Sea, wiſely adviſed L. Lucullus, Sylla's Legate, to ſail to Syria, Egypt, and Lybia, and hire a Fleet to join them; which he did in the Middle of Winter.

But Marius, while contriving great Things againſt Sylla, died in the firſt Month of his 7th Conſulſhip; being ſucceeded by L. Valerius Flaccus another Enemy of Sylla.

Ariſtio the Tyrant was forced for want of Water to ſurrender the Caſtle of Athens to Curio, and was with his Aſſociates put to Death. Then SYLLA marched into Bœotia with 15000 Foot, and 1500 Horſe, and at Chæronea fought Archelaus, who had 120000 Men, routed him, and ſlew above 100000 of them; for Archelaus brought not off 10000, and SYLLA loſt not above 15 Men.

While Lucullus arriving at Cyrene ſettled their Commonwealth, and gave them Laws; and tho' he loſt moſt of his Ships by the Pyrates, in ſailing to Alexandria, He was handſomely treated by PTOLEMY Lathyrus King of Egypt, who gave him a good Fleet, and with it he ſail'd to Cyprus, and thence to Rhodes.

Saluſt the Hiſtorian was born this Year at Amiternum, a Sabine Town. Mean while Cinna ſent his Collegue Flaccus with two Legions into Aſia, to manage the War againſt MITHRIDATES; and Fimbria a Senator, an expert Soldier, went as his Legate; with a Charge to aſſiſt Sylla, if They found him firm in the Senate's Intereſt, if not to oppoſe him: but Sylla knowing all this, marched into Theſſaly to meet them, where a good Part of their Army hating Flaccus as a covetous cruel Man, deſerted to Sylla.

Archelaus made Havock among the Iſlands by his Fleet; and his Maſter MITHRIDATES began to make new Levies, and cut off moſt of the Tetrarchs of Galatia, with their Wives and Children, and many more, only for fear They ſhould go over to Sylla: and ſent Zenobius to ruine Chios, and tranſport the People to Pontus; but They were ſaved in their Paſſage by the People of Heraclea, who ſent them back ſafe. Then Zenobius marching to Epheſus, was there intrapt and ſlain; when the Epheſians, terrify'd by the Uſage of the Chians, aſſerted their Liberty, as did alſo the Men of Sardis, Colophon, and Smyrna.

Dorylaus the Favourite of MITHRIDATES, and Prieſt of Comana in Pontus, the Son of Philæterus, and Nephew of Dorylaus Tacticus, was ſent againſt Sylla with 80000 Men, and Archelaus with 10000 join'd him, and at Orchomenus fought Sylla, but were defeated by him with the Loſs of 15 or 20000: and renewing the Battel, Sylla beat them again, and ſlew 20000 of them, while as many periſh'd in a Lake, Archelaus narrowly eſcaping to Colchis to gather the Remains of the Army. Sylla having ſpoil'd Bœotia winter'd in Theſſaly, expecting Lucullus with a Fleet; and not hearing from him, Sylla built ſome Ships there; tho' Livy ſays that Archelaus betray'd his Maſter's Fleet to Sylla, and which MITHRIDATES afterwards diſcover'd, and complain'd of in his Letter to Arſaces. Saluſt. Lib. 4.

Flaccus perceiving Fimbria's Deſigns, diſmiſs'd him in Bithynia, and going home thro' Bizantium, Fimbria got Flaccus's Garriſon there to revolt, and with them return'd to Bithynia, driving Flaccus to flee to Nicomedia, where he catched him hid in a Well, and having cut off his Head, threw it into the Sea, leaving his Body unburied, took the Command of his Army, was by them declared Imperator, gave them Leave to ſpoil Nicomedia, marched to ſubdue the Cities of Aſia, uſed many Cruelties, exacted great Sums, defeated Mithridates the Son of King MITHRIDATES, by croſſing a River in the Night, and falling upon his Army aſleep, followed that Prince to Pergamus, from whence he made him and the King his Father flee to Patana, where he blokaded them by Land, and ſent to Lucullus, then with a great Fleet in the Neighbourhood, to block him up at Sea, whereby the King had certainly been taken. But Lucullus hating Fimbria and all his Party, would not concur; and ſo the King getting Ships eſcaped to Mitylene. But Lucullus bravely repulſed Neoptolemus and the Pontic Fleet, near Troas and Tenedus.

Roman Republick.

Fimbria ſeverely puniſh'd thoſe Cities that had refuſed him Entrance, particularly old Ilium, that had been long rebuilt a fine City, into which he cunningly enter'd; and tho' Sylla had ſent to him, not to moleſt it as being under his Protection, yet he cut off the innocent People, and burnt it down, juſt 1100 Years after the Fall of Troy.

But the Conſuls Cinna and Carbo, by their Cruelties, made moſt of the Nobility flee from Rome to Sylla's Camp, where there was the Appearance of a Senate, and all pray'd him to make Haſte, and return to ſave his Country, which he was earneſt for; tho' not before he had finiſh'd the Mithridatic War.

While thus uneaſy in his Mind, Archelaus came from Mithridates to ſue for Peace: Sylla treated him with all Marks of Honour, and ſent him back with Terms to his Maſter, viz. That Mithridates ſhould reſtore to Nicomedes and Ariobarzanes their Kingdoms, ſhould be contented with his ancient Kingdom of Pontus; and the Countries beyond the Halys, ſhould pay 3000 Talents for the Charge of the War, and yield to the Romans 70 of his Capital Ships.

When Archelaus return'd to Sylla, ſignifying his Maſter's Acceptance, He marched his Army from Philippi thro' Thrace to the Helleſpont, where Lucullus was at Hand with a Fleet, that ſafely tranſported his Army into Aſia; and meeting with Mithridates at Dardonum near Troy, the Peace was concluded to the Satisfaction of both. Mithridates then ſail'd home in State to Pontus, and Sylla marched ſtrait towards Fimbria, then incamp'd at Thyatira, and refuſing to deliver up the Army, Sylla drew Lines againſt him: but Fimbria perceiving his Soldiers to deſert him, fled to Pergamus, where he ſtab'd himſelf, and died; when his Army came over to Sylla, who order'd Curio to ſee Nicomedes and Ariobarzanes reſtored, and the City Ilium to be rebuilt, reconſtituted the Province of Aſia, declared the Ilians, Chians, Rhodians, Lycians, Magneſians, and others, that had ſuffer'd in the Cauſe of Rome, to be the Friends and Allies of the Roman Republick, made the Slaves that had been freed by Mithridates to return to their Maſters, diſmantled many Towns in Aſia, ſold many People under the Spear, and ſummoning the prime Men of the Aſiatic Cities before him at Epheſus, he fined them in 20000 Talents to be paid in 5 Years, leaving Lucullus to gather it.

But he neglected to clear the Coaſt and Country of Pyrates and Robbers, being in Haſte to return to Rome. He deſired good Rutilius Rufus to return with him, who refuſed it, and retiring to Smyrna ſpent all his Time in learned Studies: but Sylla brought with him Alexander, the Son of Alexander late King of Egypt, who had fled to him from Mithridates; left Murena the Prætor to command in Aſia with Lucullus as Quæſtor; and ſailing from Epheſus, Sylla in three Days, arriv'd at Piræus; and marching to Athens, he was initiated in the Athenian Myſteries, and ſeiz'd the Library of the late Apellico, where were the Works of Ariſtotle and Theophraſtus, with which he adorned his own Library at Rome. From Athens He marched his Army through Macedonia to Dyrrachium; and here we may begin

The Second Civil War of the Romans.

The Conſuls Cinna and Carbo had made a Law to diveſt Sylla of his Command, and to proclaim War againſt him as an Enemy of Rome; but upon his Letters to the Senate, threatning ſpeedily to revenge both publick and private Injuries; the Senate ſent Ambaſſadors to him to reconcile him to his Adverſaries, and order'd Cinna to diſcontinue his Levies: but Cinna and Carbo having got themſelves choſen Conſuls for the next Year, They travell'd over Italy, and rais'd Legions, ſome of which They tranſported to Dalmatia to oppoſe Sylla; but the reſt being driven back by a Storm, flatly refuſed to fight againſt their victorious Country Men, and none would go aboard: upon which Cinna went to harrangue them; and a Mutiny ariſing, Cinna was cut off in the Tumult, and Carbo was ſole Conſul. Mean while

Mithridates King of Pontus having ſlain his Son Mithridates a brave Youth, ſuſpecting him to be an ambitious Rival; becauſe ſome of his diſtant Subjects deſired him to be their King, prepared a great Army againſt the Boſphorans that had revolted from him; and Archelaus his General, afraid of being cut off for his Intimacy with Sylla, fled to Murena, and eaſily excited him to War, who was moſt ambitious of obtaining a Triumph: and ſo began

The Second Mithridatic War.

Murena pretending that Mithridates had not reſtored all the Territories of Ariobarzanes, and that his great Preparations were made for War againſt the Romans, marched an Army thro' Cappadocia to Comana, a great City of Mithridates, famous for its magnificent Temple and High Prieſt, and began Hoſtilities.

Sylla ſent the Senate Anſwer, That he would never be reconciled to Cinna and Carbo; but the Meſſengers coming to Brunduſium heard of Cinna's Death, and went ſtrait back to Sylla, who forthwith ſail'd over to Brunduſium with a Fleet of 1600 Ships, and 60000 Men, in the Beginning of the Conſulſhip of Cornelius Scipio and Norbanus Piſo. The ſame Year the Syrians quite weary of the Seleucidae, depoſed the whole Race at once, and choſe 22. TIGRANES King of Armenia, who as King of Syria began to reign, —— Mithridates ſent Ambaſſadors to Murena to complain of breaking the League lately made with Sylla; but Murena deny'd he had ſeen any written League made by Sylla. Upon which the King ſent to Sylla and the Senate of Rome to complain of Murena. Mean while Sylla from Brunduſium marched into Campania, being join'd on the Road by Metellus Pius with a little Army; and next by CNEIUS POMPEIUS, (call'd afterwards POMPEY the Great) and even by Cethegus his old Enemy, who had reconciled himſelf to Sylla. At Canuſium he fought the Conſul Norbanus, and made him flee to Capua, with the Loſs of 6000 Men ſlain: but the other Conſul Scipio's Army deſerted him, and Sylla diſmiſs'd him ſafe; and Sertorius fled to Spain his Province. Sylla ſent to Norbanus to treat of Peace, but receiving no Anſwer, He marched forward in an hoſtile Manner. Carbo marched into Rome, and got Metellus and all Sylla's Party declared Enemies of the State. The Day before the Nones of July, and while both Parties were haraſſing Italy, and raiſing Forces, the famous Capitol of Rome was burnt, none knowing which Way it happen'd, about 430 Years after it was built by TARQUINIUS Superbus King of the Romans: when all its Rarities periſh'd, particularly the Sibyllin Verſes.	666	426	247	230	34	1	5	10	23	40	2	3921 83	—	18	—	3938
Papirius Carbo and young Caius Marius (the Nephew and adopted Son of the Great Marius) being Conſuls, the civil War was fiercely carried on by both Parties: for	667	427	248	231	35	2	6	11	24	41	CLXXIV. 3	3922 82

Metellus Pius defeated Carinas the Lieutenant of Carbo; and Carbo purſued Metellus and beſieged him; but hearing that Marius was overthrown by Sylla, Carbo retreated to Ariminum, while Sylla blokaded Marius in Præneſte. Marius grown deſperate, and hating that his Enemies ſhould ſurvive him, wrote to Damaſippus the Prætor of Rome to call the Senate, and cut off Mucius Scævola the High Prieſt, with Antiſtius, Domitius, and other Senators; which was done, and their Bodies thrown into the Tiber. Metellus having again defeated Carbo, and Pompey having routed Marcius, Sylla had no Stop to his marching into Rome, where he ſold his Enemies Goods under the Spear; and bidding the People be eaſy, for that his Enemies forced him to act ſo, he left a ſufficient Garriſon in Rome, and marched to Cluſium, where he fought Carbo a whole Day, till Night parted them, neither Side knowing who won the Day. Carbo now upon the Defenſive, ſent Marcius with 8 Legions to relieve Marius; but Pompey met them in a narrow Lane, and drove them back. Lamponius, Teleſinus, and Capuanus, marched from different Parts with 70000 Men to relieve Marius; but Sylla took Poſſeſſion of the Paſſes, and kept them out: while Norbanus and Carbo were overcome by Metellus at Faventia, with the Loſs of 10000, and 6000 yielded, and the Lucanian Legion deſerting to Metellus, their General Albinovanus follow'd them, and was reconciled to Sylla, by murdering ſome of Carbo's chief Captains. Norbanus fled by Sea to Rhodes, where fearing to be deliver'd up, he kill'd himſelf in the Forum. Carbo ſent Damaſippus with two Legions to relieve Marius, but he could not force the Paſſes that Sylla had fortify'd. And now Metellus was Maſter of all Gallia Ciſalpina, while M. Lucullus (the Brother of L. Lucullus in Aſia) defeated another Carbonian Army at Fidentia: upon which CARBO fled into Africa, leaving 30000 Men at Cluſium, whom Pompey defeated, ſlaying 20000 of them, and the reſt went Home.

Damaſippus, Marcius, Carinas, Teleſinus, Lamponius, and other Carbonian Chiefs, not being able to relieve Marius, marched in the Night to the Walls of Rome, and Sylla ſtrait followed them; where a moſt fierce Battel was fought at the Gates all Day, and with much ado SYLLA got the bloody Victory at Night: about 50000 on both Sides were ſlain, and 8000 of the Carbonians taken Priſoners, the moſt Part being Samnites, were afterwards cut off by Archers: Marcius and Carinas being taken in their Flight, their Heads were cut off and ſent to the Neighbourhood of Præneſte, whoſe Inhabitants were frighted to ſurrender the Place to Lucretius; and Marius kill'd himſelf, whoſe Head Sylla ſet upon the Roſtra at Rome. Lucretius took all the Senators Priſoners found in Præneſte, whom Sylla, when he came thither, put to Death; and 12000 of the Inhabitants, brought out into a Field, were cut off by Darts, only the Romans and the Women and Children eſcaped, and that very opulent City was plunder'd.

All Italy being thus brought under the Power of Sylla, He ſent Pompey into Africa to hunt Carbo, whom he drove into Sicily, and thence into Corcyra, where Pompey took him and ſent his Head to Sylla; while Metellus was ſent into Spain againſt Sertorius. Mean while

ROMAN Republick.

Sylla at Rome harrangued the People, aſſuring them, He would ſettle the State, but would proſecute his Enemies with Rigour; which he forthwith did, proſcribing 40 Senators and 1600 Knights: He was the firſt that brought up the Uſage of Proſcription, promiſing Rewards to the Diſcoverers, and threatning Death to the Concealers of them; ſome of them were ſlain in their Houſes, others in the Streets, others at his Feet begging Life, and the Goods of thoſe that fled were ſeiz'd; the Brother of Marius had his Eyes firſt pull'd out, then his Hands and Legs cut off by Degrees, that he might die in Torment: Caius JULIUS CÆSAR a promiſing Youth, (afterwards Imperator) having married Cinna's Daughter, narrowly eſcaped, of whom Sylla was wont to ſay, that in Cæſar were many Marius's: all Sorts of People ſuffer'd, 8000 together in the Villa Publica, a large Houſe in Campus Martius, and the Soldiers had Leave to kill all they met, Men, Women, and Children; till Furſidius put Sylla in mind of ſparing ſome to reign over: nay the Proſcription and the Maſſacre were carried round all the Cities of Italy.

Both the Conſuls being deſtroy'd, Sylla retired from Rome, and order'd the Senate to create an Inter-Rex, and They choſe Valerius Flaccus, to whom Sylla wrote to adviſe the People to chuſe a Dictator, not for a certain Time, but till all Affairs were ſettled; and having all Power in his Hand the People choſe him. Thus SYLLA was the firſt perpetual DICTATOR, after that Office had been diſuſed about 120 Years, with this Inſcription on his Statue, L. CORNELIO SYLLÆ IMPERATORI Felici.

In Aſia this Year Murena paſs'd over the Halys, and having plunder'd 400 Villages of MITHRIDATES (who made no Reſiſtance, expecting the Return of his Meſſengers from Rome) return'd into Phrygia and Galatia loaded with Spoils: but tho' he was warned by Callidius (who came on Purpoſe from Rome) to deſiſt, Murena purſued his Game, and marched to beſiege Sinope, and the Royal Palace; when MITHRIDATES could no longer bear it, but drew out his Army and defeated Murena, forcing him to retreat into Phrygia with great Loſs, and to draw off his Garriſons out of Cappadocia, which again became ſubject to MITHRIDATES; and that King making a great Bonfire on the Top of an high Mountain, offer'd Sacrifice to Jove the Mighty in War, for his Succeſs.

And now the ſecond Mithridatic War ended; for there was no more fighting, and the former Peace was confirm'd next Year.

Lucius Cornelius SYLLA Imperator Felix, and DICTATOR, allow'd the People to keep up that Part of the old Conſtitution, the electing of Conſuls, viz. Marcus Tullius Decula, and Cn. Corn. Dolabella; but He reign'd over them, and on the 3d and 2d before the Calends of February, or 29th and 30th of January, he triumphed with great Glory for his Victories over MITHRIDATES King of Pontus; when the chief Men of Rome that had fled to him in Greece, followed his triumphal Chariot with Crowns on their Heads, calling him Savior and Father, for bringing them back to their native Country. SYLLA ſent Gabinius into Aſia to confirm the former Peace with MITHRIDATES, and to reconcile him to ARIOBARZANES, recall'd Murena and Lucullus, and ſent M. Thermus to ſucceed him as Prætor of the Aſiatic Province, under whom JULIUS CÆSAR firſt bore Arms, aged 20 Years: and yet Murena was allow'd a Triumph, not for oppreſſing but for repreſſing of MITHRIDATES, who now at Eaſe conquer'd the Boſphorus, and made his Son MACHARES King of it. Marcus Tullius CICERO, aged 26 Years, made his firſt Oration for P. Quintius. Cneius Pompeius, SYLLA's Favourite, went from Sicily into Africa, ſubdued Domitius a General of the Marian Faction, and HIARBA King of Numidia, who had aſſiſted Domitius, and ſlew them both; and returning to Rome triumphed over Africa, when only 26 Years old, neither Conſul yet nor Prætor. Julius CÆSAR was ſent by Thermus to Bithynia for a Fleet, and was ſuſpected to be too familiar with NICOMEDES; and for his Bravery at the taking of Mytelene, was preſented by Thermus with a Crown of Oak. SYLLA made 10000 Slaves of the proſcribed Romans free Citizens, (Alexander Polyhiſtor was one of them) whom he call'd Cornelii from himſelf: He removed the Senators great Plague the Tribunes of the People, by making them uncapable of any other Truſt; He added 300 of the Knights to the Senate; and aſſign'd large Lands to 23 old Legions, whereby he had them at Command, and ſo he was effectually a King, tho' without the Name. PTOLEMY Lathyrus having quite ruin'd Thebes in Egypt, died, and was ſucceeded by his Daughter 12. 13. Ptolemy ALEXANDER II. the Son of Ptolemy ALEXANDER I. who married and cut off Cleopatra, and began to reign alone. SYLLA now join'd himſelf as Conſul with Q. Cæcilius Metellus Pius, and made a Law that none ſhould be Conſul without going thro' the lower Offices. Q. Sertorius in Spain having expell'd SYLLA's Friends, choſe 300 whom he call'd a Senate in Oppoſition to that of Rome, had bravely worſted Metellus, and bid fair to be Maſter of all Spain, and join'd the Celtiberians with a View to Rome at laſt. MITHRIDATES King of Pontus loſt two Thirds of his Army againſt the Achæans that dwelt near Colchis; and when return'd, He ſent to Rome to have the League written; but SYLLA commanded him to give up firſt all Cappadocia before It ſhould be writ. Cilicia being made a Province, Dolabella was ſent to rule it as Proconſul, whoſe Lieutenant Verres ſpoil'd all the religious Houſes he could of their Enſigns, Rarities, and Relicts in Gold and Silver.	669	429	250	233	1	4	8	13	26	43	CLXXV. 1	3924 80	—	15	—	3938

And now to the Wonder of all Men, SYLLA laid down his Dictatorſhip of his own Accord, without being deſired or expected by any Man: and tho' he had been guilty of many heinous Crimes, he had the Aſſurance, after he abdicated his Office, to ſay publickly, That he was ready to give Account of his Management, if any ſhould require it! yet none	670	430	251	234	2	5	9	14	27	44	2

He also conquer'd Lycia and its famous Cities: then he marched over Mount Olympus and demolisht three great Cities, Olympus, Phaselides, and Corycus; and was the first Roman that led an Army over Mount Taurus. The Spanish War continued by POMPEY and Metellus. POMPEY aged 30 Years, tho' only a private Man, was honoured by the Senate with proconsular Authority, and sent into Spain to assist Metellus against Sertorius, who now design'd to invade Italy; and if he should come by Land, POMPEY marched an Army over the Alps to meet him, but not in the Tract of Hannibal. Mnaskires being dead,	672	432	253	236	4	7	11	16	2	46	4	3927 } 77 }
11. Arsaces SINATROCKES the Son of Arsaces Mithridates I. King of Parthia, began to reign, The Capitol being finely rebuilt by the Care and Direction of Q. Catulus late Consul, the Consul Curio got the Senate to send to the City Erithræ in Lesser Asia, P. Gabinius, M. Otacilius, and L. Valerius, to pick up some Sibyllin Verses there, that were supposed to have been written by Sibylla Erithræa, a cunning old Woman and Fortune-Teller, about the Time of ALEXANDER the Great. But indeed They sent to all Parts of the World for Sibyllin Verses, and got a vast Number at last, most of them, if not all, fictitious, and placed them in the Capitol, in the Room of those that had been burnt in the Old Capitol. POMPEY marched thro' Gaul into Spain and join'd Metellus, but could not relieve the City Lauro, which Sertorius took in, before their Eyes and in spight of their Teeth. Magius and Fannius two Roman Captains that had fled from Fimbria's Army to MITHRIDATES King of Pontus, persuaded the King to make a League with Sertorius in Spain against the Romans; and he sent them thither with Letters to Sertorius, promising to assist him with 3000 Talents and 40 Ships, provided he would confirm to him all Asia: but Sertorius was a brave Roman, and would not grant to MITHRIDATES any Thing that belong'd to Rome; but only Bithynia and Cappadocia, which the King was glad to accept of: for when Marcus Marius came to him from Sertorius, the King sign'd it, and made Marius his General. NICOMEDES III. King of Bithynia dying without Issue, left All to the Romans by his last Will. Cyrene and Lybia was actually made a Roman Province too, which had been left to them 20 Years ago by its last King PTOLEMY Apion. MITHRIDATES King of Pontus spent all this Year in mighty Preparations by Sea and Land, beyond Expression, for renewing the War against the Romans, in which he engaged all the northern Nations near him. Metellus with POMPEY marching from their Winter Quarters in the Pyrenæan Mountains, and Sertorius with Perperna from Lusitania, both Armies met at Sucro, and fought a fierce drawn Battel; for Metellus routed	674	434	255	238	6	9	2	—	4	48	2	3929 } 75 } routed Perperna, and Sertorius routed Pompey, and wounded him in the Thigh. Soon after They met again at Seguntum in a great Battel, where Memmius the Quæſtor, and Brother in Law of Pompey was ſlain: but Sertorius reduced his Enemies to great Straits, forced Metellus to winter in Gaul, and Pompey to write for Succours of Men and Money. CICERO now Quæſtor in Sicily well ſupply'd Rome with Corn in Time of a great Scarcity. And Julius CÆSAR, aged 25 Years, ſailing to Rhodes to learn Eloquence of Apollonius Molo, was taken by the Cilician Pirates, who both admired and fear'd him: but after 38 Days he was ranſomed, and getting a few Ships he took thoſe Pirates, and crucify'd them at Pergamus, as he had often threatned in Jeſt while with them. The Third Mithridatic War.

MITHRIDATES having ſacrificed to Jove mighty in War, and ſunk in the Sea Chariots with white Horſes to Neptune; and having made a florid Speech to his Army, began the War, by invading Bithynia at the Head of 140000 Foot, and 16000 Horſe in the Spring; L. Licinius Lucullus and Marcus Aurelius Cotta being Conſuls. Cotta was ſent to govern Bithynia, and protect it with a Fleet and Army; and after him Lucullus was ſent to fight MITHRIDATES. But Cotta, willing to gain a Triumph alone before Lucullus came up, made Haſte to fight, and loſt his Triumph; for Marius and Eumachus fell upon Rutilius the Lieutenant of Cotta, and ſlew him with moſt Part of his Army at Chalcedon, where MITHRIDATES blockt up Cotta, and ſlew moſt of his Men. The ſame Day the King attackt the Harbour, burnt four Roman Ships, ſpoil'd 60, and deſtroy'd above 10000 Romans, whereby he acquired a mighty Name, and got all the Malecontents of Aſia to join him. Mean while Lucullus with 30000 Foot, and 2500 Horſe, marched towards the King, and was loth to engage ſuch vaſt Numbers; but that Marius attackt him by Skirmiſhes: yet both Armies, when ready to join Battel, were frightned by a flaming Prodigy from Heaven. The wiſe and brave Servilius Iſauricus, now return'd from Cilicia, had his well deſerved Triumph, the moſt joyful that ever was ſeen.	675	435	256	239	7	10	3	5	49	3	3930 } 74 }
The King with a vaſt Army laid Siege to Cyzicus on the Propontis, the Key of Aſia, a moſt friendly City to the Romans: but Magius the Roman Refugee (by a private Concert with Lucullus) perſuaded the King to let Lucullus pitch any where without Diſturbance, in Hopes that Fimbria's two Legions would revolt; and ſo Lucullus quickly fortify'd a Mountain, whereby he beſieged the King, and cut off his Proviſions: ſo that after a long Siege, the King was forced to break up by Famine, Diſtempers and Death: He eſcaped by Sea in the Night; but Lucullus fell upon his Army in their Retreat, and cut off many Thouſands. Sertorius in Spain became remiſs in his Conduct by converſing chiefly with Women, and jealous of the Romans about him, would have only Celtiberian Guards, and cruel in puniſhing thoſe he ſuſpected; wherefore Perperna and others conſpired to cut him off at a Feaſt: but POMPEY hotly purſued Perperna and took him; nay tho' he offer'd to make great Diſcoveries for his Life, Pompey prudently cut him off, and burnt all his Papers, that nothing might be diſcover'd to create more Broils in the State. And thus an End was put to the Spaniſh War. Having given large Accounts of the Roman Affairs in Aſia, from Page 178. to Page 211 incluſive, I ſhall be the ſhorter now, referring the Reader to thoſe Pages. The Rebellion of Spartacus. This Year, Spartacus a Thracian Gladiator at Capua, got 70 of his Sort to join him in aſſerting their Liberty, rais'd a vaſt Army, took Poſſeſſion of Mount Veſuvius, defeated the Prætor Clodius, and afterwards Varinus, that were ſent againſt him.	676	436	257	240	8	11	4	6	50	4	3931 } 73 }
MITHRIDATES aboard his Fleet in returning to Pontus, loſt 60 of his Ships by Storm: then he ſent from Sinope to his Son, MACHARES King of Boſphorus, and to his Son in Law TIGRANES King of Syria, for Aids to his new Army; while Lucullus recover'd Bithynia, and marched into Pontus. Scribonius Curio Proconſul of Macedonia, having ſubdued the Dardanians and Mœſians, was the firſt Roman General that purſued his Enemies to the Danube. ARIOVISTUS King of the Germans, paſs'd over the Rhine, and ſubdued Gaul. Spartacus the Rebel gather'd 70000 Men, marched over the Apennine Mountains towards Gaul, routed both the Conſuls Gellius and Lentulus, who had ſurrounded him, ſlew 300 Roman Captives in Revenge of the Death of his Aſſociate Crixus, and routed the Prætor Caſſius that oppoſed his March to the Alps.	677	437	258	241	9	12	5	7	51	CLXXVII. 1	3932 } 72 }
MITHRIDATES having levied 40000 Foot, and 4000 Horſe, was again defeated by LUCULLUS, and forced to flee with 2000 Horſe to his Son in Law TIGRANES in Armenia. M. Licinius Craſſus a noble Roman very rich, generouſly undertook to go againſt Spartacus as Prætor with Six Legions:	678	438	259	242	10	13	6	8	52	2	3933 } 71 }

While at Rome Pompey and Craſſus were Conſuls, Lucullus now poſſeſs'd himſelf by Surrender and by Siege of all the great Cities of Pontus; and Machares King of Boſphorus, the Son of Mithridates, ſent to Lucullus a Crown of Gold, and was admitted to be an Ally of Rome.	679	439	260	243	11	14	7	9.	53	3	2934 70
Tigranes royally treated his Father in Law Mithridates, but did not ſoon admit him into his Preſence, nor before he return'd from his great Expedition into Paleſtin; and at his Return He refuſed to deliver up Mithridates to Lucullus, who had ſent his Brother in Law Clodius to demand him, or declare War. This Year Virgil, the Prince of Roman Poets, was born near Mantua: and Alexandra the good Queen of Judæa dying, aged 73, was ſucceeded by Hyrcanus her eldeſt Son for three Months, till deprived by his Brother 8. Lucullus having cruſh'd the Publicans in Leſſer Aſia, ſent Cotta to take in Heraclea on the Pontus, and ſettled that Province under Sornatius with 6000 Soldiers, took 12000 Foot, and 3000 Horſe, and marched over the Euphrates towards Tigranocerta; and leaving Murena to inveſt it, Lucullus marched with about 10000 Men to meet Tigranes, who brought an Army of 360000 Men to relieve his new Capital, deſpiſing the Romans as too many for Ambaſſadors, and too few for an Army: but Lucullus bravely defeated his left Wing, and turn'd them upon his Right, and gave this haughty King of Kings a total Overthrow; one of the moſt glorious Victories ever obtain'd by the Romans. Lucullus return'd to the Siege, took that great City, and gave the Spoil to his Army. And Tigranes now left the War to the Care of Mithridates. Mean while Cotta, return'd to Rome, was honour'd by the Senate with the Name of Ponticus, for having taken the City Heraclea. The Conſul Metellus dying the Beginning of the Year, and his Succeſſor too, the other Conſul Marcius Rex officiated alone. Mithridates had carefully raiſed an Army in Armenia of 70000 Foot, and about 30000 Horſe, choice Men, train'd to the Roman Exerciſe, deſigning to ſtarve or wear out Lucullus without fighting: but Lucullus marching to beſiege Artaxata, where the Treaſures, the Women and Children of Tigranes were lodged, brought him to a Battel, in which Mithridates terrify'd by the warlike Noiſe of the Roman Legions, ran away and left Tigranes to be again totally routed by Lucullus; while Mithridates return'd to Pontus, of which he recover'd a great Deal. The Pirates of Cilicia, very numerous and powerful, ſcorn'd the Power of Rome, and uſed their Priſoners with great Barbarity and Cruelty.	681	441	262	245	13	16	2	2	55	CLXXVIII. 1	3936 68
Lucullus could not perſuade his Men to march Northward in the Winter, and beſiege Artaxata, but Southward to take Niſibis from the Parthians, where Clodius his Wife's Brother began to foment a Mutiny in his Army; nay by Letters got many People at Rome, from Envy, to harrangue againſt him for procraſtinating the War. Mithridates overcame Fabius in Pontus, and beſieged him in Cabria, till relieved by Triarius, who made the King twice flee before him: but the King afterwards being reinforced, found Means of decoying Triarius to a Battel at Mount Scotius in Pontus, totally routed him, and had ſlain all the Romans, if he had not been wounded; but above 7000 Romans were ſlain with Triarius, 150 Centurions, and 24 Tribunes. Mithridates marched into Leſſer Armenia, when he heard of Lucullus's March into Pontus. Continuation of TABLE LVI.

ROMAN Republick.

Aulus Gabinius, a Tribune of the People, juſtly repreſented the wretched State of the Seas, by innumerable audacious Pirates, and got a Law made to appoint POMPEY to be Admiral or Imperator of the Seas, with unlimited Power for three Years over All at Sea, and within 50 Miles of the Sea, in order to ſuppreſs the Pirates. He was now indeed POMPEY the Great, having under his Command 500 Ships of War, 120000 Foot, 5000 Horſe, 25 Senators his Lieutenants, two new Quæſtors, with 6000 Attic Talents. He poſted his Lieutenants in the ſeveral Bays or little Seas of the Mediterranean, with force to diſturb the Pirates; that when They ſail'd from one Creek, They might be catched before They could hide themſelves in another; while He, like a King of Kings, ſuperintended them all with Art and Diligence; ſo that in 40 Days he ſcoured the Seas clear of Pirates, from the Straits of Gades to Brunduſium, when They fled to Cilicia their common Reſort, whither he follow'd them with 60 Sail, and upon his Approach They ſubmitted to his Mercy, by the Terror of his Name: ſo that in 40 Days more, all Cilicia became peaceably obedient to Rome. In this hot maritime War, POMPEY took 120 Forts, and 400 Ships, and ſlew 10000 Pirates; but tranſported the reſt into Inland Countries with great Clemency.

Q. Cæcilius Metellus who had been ſent to Crete, conquer'd it; for which he was call'd Creticus.

By the ſame Gabinian Law, the Conſul Manius Acilius Glabrio was ſent to ſucceed Lucullus in Pontus and Bithynia; upon the News of which, the Soldiers deſerted from Lucullus, and MITHRIDATES and TIGRANES ranged at Pleaſure.

On the very Calends of January, when Tullus and Lepidus commenced Conſuls, the Senate having revers'd the Law that Manilius the Tribune had made the Day before, for allowing the Liberti or freed Men an equal Vote with thoſe free born; Manilius, always vendable and a mere Tool, to curry Favour with POMPEY, preferr'd a Law to appoint POMPEY Generaliſſimo of Aſia, and to ſuperſede Lucullus, Glabrio, and Marcius Rex, and to commit the Mithridatic and all Wars to him by Sea and Land. This gave great Offence to the Nobility, who were already jealous of POMPEY's unheard of and exorbitant Power; yet Cicero, out of Fear, harrangued for it, and CÆSAR out of Cunning favour'd it, as a Precedent for himſelf in Time: when POMPEY, then in Cilicia, received the News of this great Honour and Power conferred upon him at Rome, he knit his Brows, beat his Thigh, and ſeem'd uneaſy at the Trouble; tho' it was all Diſſimulation and Cant.

POMPEY renew'd the League with PHRAHATES King of Parthia. See what he did then, Page 181. when old TIGRANES ſubmitted to him, and yielded all Syria, which now became a Roman Province, after the SELEUCIDÆ had reign'd (acccounting TIGRANES the laſt, tho' he was none of them) juſt 247 Years. As for poor Antiochus Aſiaticus, POMPEY reſtored him not. See more of POMPEY and MITHRIDATES Page 186. See alſo Table XXXIII. or the Catalogue of the SELEUCIDÆ.

14. Ptolemy AULETES, the Baſtard Son of Lathyrus, who now began to reign,

See Table XL. the Catalogue of the PTOLEMYS.

P. Sulla and P. Autronius were choſen Conſuls for this Year, but being accuſed of Bribery, their Accuſers were ſubſtituted in their Room, viz. Aurelius Cotta and Manlius Torquatus. This ſo diſpleas'd Marcus Craſſus and Julius CÆSAR, that now They join'd to contrive how to attack the Senate: beſides, CÆSAR now an Ædile, was provoked by their refuſing to ſend him into Egypt.

POMPEY had defeated MITHRIDATES laſt Year, who fled round thro' Scythia into the Cimmerian Boſphorus, and cut off his Son MACHARES the King of it, for being an Ally of Rome: but POMPEY not being able to follow him, return'd to Damaſcus, and conſtituted Syria a Roman Province, where he was attended by 12 Kings. See more Page 186.

This Year Horace the famous Lyric Poet was born at Venuſium in Apulia.

MITHRIDATES ſent to POMPEY an Offer of being a Tributary of Rome as TIGRANES was, but was rejected, unleſs he would come and ſubmit himſelf as Tigranes had done. But that great Prince ſcorn'd ſuch a Submiſſion, or could not truſt POMPEY; and therefore prepared for a vigorous War. Mean while Caſtor his General revolted at Phanagorium, ſlew Tryphon the royal Eunuch, and made the King's Children in the Caſtle to ſurrender themſelves, viz. Artaphernes, Darius, Xerxes, Oxathres, and his Daughter Eupatra; but his other Daughter Cleopatra held out till ſhe got off by Ships ſent by her Father; and Caſtor ſent the reſt to the Romans. Upon which MITHRIDATES in a Rage cut off thoſe he ſuſpected, and his Son Exipodra, and ſent ſome of his Daughters with Eunuchs under a Guard of 500 Soldiers to the petty Kings of Scythia for Wives, and to demand Supplies to recruit his Army: but the Soldiers on their March ſoon cut off the Eunuchs, and carried the Royal Maids to POMPEY, who was now come from Syria into Pontus.

POMPEY, tho' MITHRIDATES was alive reigning in Boſphorus, added Pontus to Galatia and Bithynia, in one Roman Province, call'd the Bithynian Province; made ARCHELAUS (the Son of Archelaus the late Friend of SYLLA) the High Prieſt of Comana, with princely Power; made Attalus and Pylæmenes Lords of Paphlagonia, and gave Leſſer Armenia to DEJOTARUS the Tetrarch of Galatia, for aſſiſting the Romans againſt MITHRIDATES, and made him a King. MITHRIDATES, tho' thus diveſted and diſtreſs'd, had ſtill an unconquerable Soul; and now reſolved to march thro' Scythia and Pannonia, along the Danube, and join the European Gauls, in paſſing over the Alps, and to carry the War, like Hannibal, into Italy: but his Soldiers were terrify'd at the Length and Dangers of that Expedition, and join'd with his beloved Son PHARNACES to dethrone MITHRIDATES, and forced the brave old King to poiſon himſelf, uttering his Curſe upon his barbarous Son, and gave Poiſon alſo to his Wives, Concubines, and Daughters in the Caſtle of Panticopæa in Boſphorus, while beſieged by PHARNACES; and the Poiſon not working faſt enough he ſtab'd himſelf; and that not diſpatching him, he got a Gaulic Soldier to kill him, as an Office of Friendſhip, rather than fall into the Hands of the Romans, as PHARNACES deſign'd. See Appian. Oroſius, &c. Thus ended the Third Mithridatic War that had laſted about 12 Years, Marcus Tullius Cicero and Caius Antonius Nepos being Conſuls. POMPEY had lately return'd to Damaſcus to oppoſe ARETAS King of Petræa who ſubmitted; and marching towards Jeruſalem POMPEY had the News of the Death of MITHRIDATES, and that PHARNACES ſubmitted to Rome. When he came to Jeruſalem; he depoſed ARISTOBULUS II. and reſtored his Brother	686	446	267	3	7	—	60	CLXXIX. 2	3941 63

See Table XXXVIII. and Pages 186. 187. See alſo Oroſius and Joſephus about POMPEY's Conduct at Jeruſalem, and in the Temple, who carried off Ariſtobulus for his Triumph. Caius Octavius, afterwards call'd AUGUSTUS CÆSAR, was this Year born. Mean while at Rome Catilin's Conſpiracy was diſcover'd, and defeated by the vigilant Care of the Conſul Cicero. CATILIN, with Aurelius Cotta, Manlius Torquatus, Cethegus, Lentulus, and others, had plotted to burn Rome, and ſeize the ſovereign Authority of Italy: but when he fled, his Accomplices were taken, and by Order of the Senate put to Death in Priſon, which Cicero ſaw executed. POMPEY leaving his Quæſtor Scaurus to govern Syria, marched into Cilicia, which ſubmitted; and from thence into Pontus, where he found the immenſe Treaſures of MITHRIDATES. And now PHARNACES ſent his Father's dead Body to POMPEY, who order'd it to be honourably buried in his Royal Sepulchre at Sinope. This Year alſo the great LUCULLUS, in ſpight of all his malicious Enemies, had a moſt ſolemn Triumph for his great Victories over MITHRIDATES and TIGRANES. Lucullus had brought from Aſia a fine Library that ſtood open for all that underſtood Greek; He firſt brought the Cherry Tree out of Pontus to Italy, and much advanced the high Taſte of the Romans for Architecture, Furniture, and Feaſting.
As for Catilin, he had raiſed a little Army, and was marching into Tranſalpin Gaul to gather Strength, and return with a Vengeance to Rome; when C. Antonius (Cicero's Collegue laſt Year) overtook him with a ſuperior Force at the Alps; yet Antonius being in Catilin's Plot, feign'd himſelf ſick, and left the Battel to be conducted by Petreius, who ſlew Catilin and all his Men in Rank and File, obſtinately fighting to the laſt Man, without asking Quarter, Saluſt, Dio, Caſſiodorus, &c. Julius CÆSAR had been Quæſtor and Ædile, had obtain'd to be High Prieſt of Rome, and this Year is made Prætor: and now by his great Learning, Eloquence, Art and Liberality, began to make a very great Appearance in Rome, being alſo the moſt high born of all the Romans: but was much diſturbed at this Time by Publius Clodius Pulcher, the Brother in Law of Lucullus, a Nobleman, deep in Love of his Wife Pompeia, who to gain his Point enter'd the High Prieſt CÆSAR's Houſe in Woman's Habit, where certain ſacred Rites were performed, to which none but Women were admitted. This coſt Clodius much Trouble, and induced CÆSAR to put away Pompeia privately, ſaying to thoſe that pleaded for her, That he believed her innocent, but that CÆSAR's Wife ſhould not give Cauſe to be ſuſpected. POMPEY reſtored the City Eupatoria, calling it Magnopolis, and Cabira, calling it Decopolis; and having given a Body of Laws to the People of Pontus and Bithynia, he left Pontus and winter'd at Epheſus, where he gave great Rewards to all his gallant Soldiers. Metellus Creticus triumph'd at Rome for his great Service in ſubduing Crete. CATO came to Epheſus to ſalute POMPEY his Senior, who received him with the utmoſt Veneration, as his moſt virtuous Kinſman; yet glad of his Departure, as thinking himſelf eclipſed in his Preſence. At length Scaurus being left Preſident of Syria, and Flaccus Prætor of Aſia, POMPEY, after he had warred with 22 Kings and Princes, had taken 1090 Caſtles and 900 Cities, had reſtored 39 ruin'd Cities, had increas'd 8 Regions and Cities with Colonies, and had given Laws and a new Conſtitution of Government to many Nations, left Epheſus, and began to return thro' the Iſlands and Greece towards Italy in great imperial Splendor.	687	447	268	4	8	2	—	3	3942 62
About the Beginning of the Conſulſhip of Piſo and Meſſala, POMPEY arrived at Brunduſium, where, contrary to all Mens Thought, He diſmiſs'd the Army, and came without a military Retinue to Rome; where, after he had recited his meritorious	688	448	269	5	9	3	—	4	3243 61

Atchievements, his Triumph was decreed, which he delay'd till his Birth Day. He prevail'd to reverſe the Decrees of Lucullus, and to reſtore the Tribunes of the People to their former Power, in which he was aſſiſted by CÆSAR. Quintus Cicero the younger Brother of Marcus, was ſent to ſucceed to Valerius Flaccus as Prætor of Aſia; and Marcius Philippus to ſucceed to Scaurus as Preſident of Syria; and Clodius was try'd for the former Mutiny at Niſibis againſt Lucullus, for polluting the female ſacred Rites in the High Prieſt CÆSAR's Houſe, for debauching the Wives of Metellus and Cæſar, and for being too familiar with his own Siſter; but he bribed the Judges to acquit him. Julius CÆSAR was envious of POMPEY's Glory, and having finiſh'd his Prætorſhip, he procured the Government of Spain; but being much in Debt by his Liberality, or rather Bribery and Prodigality, he was forced to apply himſelf to Craſſus the wealthieſt Man in Rome, who became his Security for 830 Talents, at the Requeſt of his Wife Tertulla, who paſſionately lov'd CÆSAR; and Craſſus was glad of Cæſar's Aſſiſtance to keep down POMPEY. CÆSAR thus rigg'd out, went to Spain, where he ſubdued the Gallicians and Luſitanians, and all the Spaniſh Nations that had never been conquer'd before; and coming round by Gades, he wept at the Statue of ALEXANDER the Great in the Temple of Hercules, for that he had done nothing great at an Age when Alexander had conquer'd the World! but in a ſhort Time he amaſſed ſuch a vaſt Treaſure to himſelf, (tho' in the Name of the Republick) as enabled him to imitate Alexander. After CÆSAR went to Spain, At length on the 28th and 30th of September, (POMPEY's Birth Day, and the Day before it, when aged 45 Years) POMPEY's Triumph for two Days was held over the known Earth, viz. over Africa, Europe, and Aſia, when 324 noble Captives were led before him, among whom were TIGRANES the Son of Tigranes King of Armenia, with his Wife and Daughter, and Zoſime his Mother in Law, ARISTOBULUS II. King of Judæa, alſo the Siſter of Mithridates, and his five Sons (Artaphernes, Cyrus, Darius, Oxathres, Xerxes) and two Daughters Oxathris and Eupatra: alſo OLTHACES King of Colchis, ſeveral Tyrants or petty Princes of Cilicia, ſome royal Ladies of Scythia, two Dukes of Iberia, two Dukes of Albania, with Menander Duke of Laodicea, the General of Mithridates's Horſe, alſo the Hoſtages of the Albanians, the Iberians and Commagenians, with many Trophies, and the Effigies of old MITHRIDATES and TIGRANES. Then marched POMPEY himſelf now truly great, in a Chariot ſet with Gemms, and clothed with the Cloak of ALEXANDER the Great, and his Chariot was followed by his General Officers, and with ſuch Heaps and Loads of precious Things taken in War, as the like was never ſeen in Rome; the Gold, Silver and Jewels, amounting to 20000 Talents, or 3740000 Pounds Sterling: when he arrived at the Capitol, he ſlew none of his Captives, but ſent them all home at the publick Charge, except the Royal ones. He advanced the Revenue of the Republick to 120000 Talents; and his meaneſt Soldier was worth 40. l.

POMPEY had prevail'd, by his Money and Intereſt, to get Metellus Creticus and Afranius choſen Conſuls for this Year, in Hopes of getting the Senate to confirm all his Tranſactions in Aſia, his Promiſes to Kings and Cities and Favourites, and certain Lands for his Soldiers; but he was miſtaken: for Afranius being indolent, had no Authority, and Metellus oppoſed him for divorcing his Siſter Mutia, upon Suſpicion of too much Familiarity with CÆSAR: Cato and Craſſus likewiſe oppoſed him, and ſent for Lucullus from his Country Pleaſures, who, with many Senators, demanded and obtain'd that POMPEY ſhould account for his ſeveral Tranſactions ſeparately, and not have them all approved in the Lump; that the Decrees of Lucullus, reverſed by Pompey, ſhould be reſtored to their due Force; that Pompey's Promiſes to the conquer'd Princes of Aſia be made void, and that no Lands be granted to his Soldiers: nay Lucullus and his Friends affirm'd, That POMPEY only purſued the Shadows of War, and, like a ravenous Bird, fed upon the dead Carcaſs that another had ſlain. POMPEY thus caſt in the Senate, had Recourſe to the Tribunes, and got one of them, Flavius, to propoſe a Law for rewarding the Soldiers; which Metellus oppoſed, till They came to Blows, and the Tribune ſent him (tho' Conſul) to Priſon, when the whole Senate offer'd to be Priſoners with him; but Flavius kept them out by ſetting up his Tribunal at the Priſon Door; upon which the Senate cauſed the Walls in another Place to be broke down; and their Firmneſs frightning the People, POMPEY deſired the Tribunes to accommodate the Matter, too late repenting of giving up the Army. Mean while CÆSAR came home from Spain, and waved his Triumph, in order to be made Conſul; got POMPEY's Intereſt upon promiſing to confirm all his Tranſactions: nay CÆSAR made POMPEY and CRASSUS good Friends, and theſe Three join'd to ingroſs the whole Power of Rome, reſolving that nothing ſhould be done in the Republick without their Approbation; which They confirm'd by an Oath: and ſo the firſt Triumvirate commenced, which prov'd, in the End, the Deſtruction of the Roman Republick, and of themſelves too.

ROMAN Republick.

The firſt Triumvirate of ROME.

Caius Julius CÆSAR being made Conſul, made a Cypher of his Collegue Bibulus, and by the Concurrence of POMPEY and CRASSUS, deſpis'd the Senate, by depending on the Conſent of the People; made an Agrarian Law for the Benefit of poor Citizens, divided large Lands in Campania among thoſe that had three Children each, and ſent 20000 ſuch Citizens to poſſeſs it; confirmed all the Tranſactions of POMPEY, and remitted a Third Part to the Publicans, whereby he gain'd all the Knights to his Side; ſeiz'd Cato for oppoſing him, and put him in Priſon, pleas'd the People with Shows and Hunting, and by great Liberality obtain'd the Province of Gaul for five Years, with four Legions, (which was the Commencement of his mighty Power) married Calpurnia the Daughter of Calpurnius Piſo, and gave his Daughter Julia to POMPEY in Marriage.

Cicero openly blamed the Triumvirate as dangerous to the publick Liberty; and therefore CÆSAR got Clodius to lay down his Patrician Order, and to be adopted by a Plebeian, that he might be made a Tribune of the People for oppoſing Cicero.

And this Year Titus Livius the famous Roman Hiſtoriographer was born.

CÆSAR having got his two Friends Calpurnius Piſo and Aulus Gabinius made Conſuls, departed quickly for Gaul as Proconſul, for fear of being accuſed of his laſt Year's Proceedings; leaving all to be managed at Rome by POMPEY and CRASSUS. And here CÆSAR begins his Book of Commentaries. Clodius now Tribune, having accuſed Cicero of putting to Death ſome Roman Citizens without an hearing before the People, viz. thoſe in Catilin's Conſpiracy, he rais'd the People againſt him, forced him to flee from Rome in the Night, got an Act to baniſh him 400 Miles from the City, demoliſht his Villages and Houſe, with his Temple of Liberty, and ſet his Goods to Sale; and ſo poor Cicero deſerted by POMPEY, travell'd an Exile to Theſſalonica in Macedonia, While CÆSAR overcame the Helvetians at the Rhone, and King ARIOVISTUS at the Seine.

Cornelius Lentulus and Caecilius Metellus being Conſuls, Clodius not pleas'd with Cato's Preſence, got him ſent in an Expedition againſt PTOLEMY King of Cyprus, the Brother of Auletes, to make that Iſland a Roman Province, on Pretence that ALEXANDER late King of Egypt had made the Romans his Heirs. Gabinius was ſent Preſident of Syria, with Mark Antony his Lieutenant and General of his Horſe. See Page 188.

But Clodius becoming inſolent to POMPEY, and an intolerable Plague to the Nobility, POMPEY repented of deſerting Cicero, and found Means to have him honourably call'd home; and after 16 Months Baniſhment, Cicero return'd in Splendor, and had all reſtored to him: while AULETES King of Egypt, baniſh'd by his Subjects, came to Rome to ſollicit Aſſiſtance. Page 188.

CÆSAR in Gaul ſubdued the Belgæ, and with Difficulty the Nervians; for which at Rome a Feſtival of 15 Days was decreed.

Lentulus Marcellinus and Marcius Philippus being Conſuls; Cornelius Lentulus, the laſt Year's Conſul, got the Province of Cilicia and Cyprus: CÆSAR intending for Italy, ſent Servius Galba with the 12th Legion to ſubdue the Nations between the Rhone and the Alps, in order to clear a Paſſage, and ſecure the Traffick: then CÆSAR marched back and defeated the Veneti, and the Celti that had revolted in the Weſt: while he ſent Craſſus another Lieutenant to ſubdue the Soutiates, and the greateſt Part of Aquitain; and Sabinus to ſubdue the Unelli, and the maritime Parts; when CÆSAR put all his Men into Winter Quarters, and travell'd himſelf into Italy: and coming to Lucca ſent for POMPEY and CRASSUS, and got them to ſet up for the Conſulſhip, fearing that otherwiſe he might be recall'd from Gaul. Here CÆSAR was waited on by a great Concourſe of People, and 200 Senators.

POMPEY and CRASSUS became Conſuls by mere Violence, againſt the Mind of the Senate, and Advice of Cato, (who proteſted againſt the Triumvirate as dangerous to Rome's Liberty, and was wounded by POMPEY's Party) wherefore POMPEY hinder'd Cato's being choſen Prætor, by corrupting the Tribes with Money; and by the Aſſiſtance of Trebonius the Tribune, the Conſuls got Laws made to continue CÆSAR in his Government of Gaul for five Years more; to aſſign Syria and the Parthian War to CRASSUS, and Spain and Africa to POMPEY with four Legions, two of which he lent to Cæſar: and the Triumvirate obtain'd alſo an unheard of Power to imploy what Forces They pleas'd, againſt whom They pleas'd, without waiting for Orders from the Senate or People of Rome.

Gabinius, and his brave Lieutenant Mark Antony, by virtue of Letters from POMPEY, marched and reſtored AULETES to the Throne of Egypt for 10000 Talents. Page 188. And Gabinius returning to Syria, prepared to return home, to make Way for CRASSUS, who, againſt the Conſent of the People of Rome, made vaſt Preparations againſt the Parthians, tho' then at Peace with Rome: therefore the People followed him out of the City, tho' then Conſul, with dreadful Imprecations, and he proſper'd accordingly.

CÆSAR, mean while, return'd to Gaul, and had hot Work in ſcouring that Province of 430000 Germans of various Sorts, that were driven out by the Suevi, and had paſs'd the Rhine: but he cut them to Pieces, and laying a Bridge upon the Rhine, marched into Germany for 18 Days; and returning into Gaul, croſs'd the Sea over into Britain; becauſe the Britons had ſupply'd the Gauls againſt the Romans. He landed with much Difficulty, beat them ſeveral Times, reduced them to ſue for Peace, and give Hoſtages; and then ſail'd back to Gaul, ſent Labienus and Cotta to harraſs the Gauls that had revolted, and ſent his Army into Winter Quarters in Belgium.
Domitius Aenobarbus and Claudius Pulcher being Conſuls, CRASSUS having ſpoil'd the Temple of Jeruſalem, (Page 189) to the Value of 10000 Talents, (which POMPEY left untouched) marched over the Euphrates againſt the Parthians. CÆSAR finding the Britains had broke their Articles, imbarked with 5 Legions, and 2000 Horſe, at Iccius (now Calais) and landed at or near Dover without Oppoſition, in the Spring, and ſoon forced one of their Camps: upon which the Trinobantes yielded to him, and CÆSAR ſet over them Mandubratius, a Youth who had fled laſt Year to CÆSAR in Gaul, when their chief King Caſſivelaun ſlew his Father the King of the Trinobantes, and now return'd with CÆSAR. While CÆSAR beſieged Caſſivelaun's City, four Kentiſh Kings, Cingetorix, Carvilius, Taximagulus, and Segonax, attackt his Fleet in Harbour; but 10 Cohorts and 300 Knights left to guard it, ſallied upon them, and repulſed them with great Slaughter, and took Priſoner King Cingetorix: but hearing his Fleet was greatly damaged by a Storm, CÆSAR retired to the Coaſt, and in ten Days refitted it, and wrote to Labienus to build more Ships. Then CÆSAR marched againſt Caſſivelaun, and having routed him in a bloody Battel, He advanced and croſs'd the Thames, his Men wading up to the Neck, while Caſſivelaun kept within the Woods; and finding his own City, and ſeveral more had been ſurrender'd to CÆSAR, Caſſivelaun ſued for Peace; and CÆSAR having received his Submiſſion, took Hoſtages, impoſed a Tribute on Britain, and return'd to Gaul with many Captives and great Glory. Mean while Domitius Calvinus and Valerius Meſſala being Conſuls, CRASSUS over-ran Meſopotamia, till he went into Winter Quarters, the Parthians being engaged in civil Wars: but Mithr'dates III. being conquer'd and ſlain by his Brother Orodes,	695	455	276	12	7	10	CLXXXI. 3	3950 54
14. ORODES King of Parthia began to reign alone, —————————————— ORODES marched with one Army towards Armenia to oppoſe Craſſus, if he came that Way; and ſent another Army under his braveſt General Surenas, who at Charrae (or old Charran) miſerably overthrew the Romans, ſlew Craſſus and his hopeful Son, and 20000 more, and took 10000 Priſoners; Caſſius his Quæſtor only retreated with 500 Horſe into Syria, to take Care of that Province. See Page 189. Here ends the firſt Triumvirate. CÆSAR, mean while, broke the Union of the Gauls (that deſign'd a general Inſurrection) by ſubduing ſeveral of their Nations; while Labienus his Lieutenant reduced all the People about Triers, to whom CÆSAR marched by a new Bridge over the Rhine, and attempted, tho' in vain, to fight the Suevi: and the Sigambri having croſs'd the Rhine, and ſorely diſtreſs'd the Romans left in Gaul under Q. Cicero (the Brother of the Orator) CÆSAR repaſs'd the Rhine, made the Sigambri retire, fell upon the Eburones, held a Council of War to puniſh Revolters, and put his Army into Winter Quarters. POMPEY had managed his Provinces of Spain and Africa by his Lieutenants, pretending he could not leave Rome, becauſe the general Charge of Proviſions was committed to him; whereby his Authority was extended over all Provinces. But the Fame of CÆSAR's Conqueſts made him uneaſy; for he hated a Rival in Point of Glory: and therefore he uſed all poſſible Means to leſſen CÆSAR's Reputation; eſpecially after the Death of his Wife Julia, Cæſar's Daughter, who, by her Prudence, kept them in good Friendſhip. She died when CÆSAR was laſt in Britain, much lamented by the People of Rome, who buried her in great State in the Field of Mars. Now POMPEY began to have a ſeparate Intereſt from CÆSAR, and to purſue only his own Advancement, as CÆSAR alſo purſued his: and Craſſus, who was a Check to them both, and ballanced their Intereſts, being dead, They had an open Field for their Ambition and Emulation. And now Factions in Rome daily encreas'd, all Equity and Moderation was laid aſide, all Offices were purchas'd by Bribes, or gain'd by Swords and Clubs; the Conſuls being debarr'd by the Triumvirate from commanding the Armies, were only intent upon inriching themſelves out of the publick Revenues; which POMPEY conniv'd at, hopeing the Infirmities of the State would occaſion his being created DICTATOR; and therefore he retired a while to give his Friends an Opportunity of inſinuating the Neceſſity of his Preſence; and in the Year after the Death of Craſſus, there was no Conſul choſen for eight Months, becauſe of the Contentions of the Candidates.	696	456	277	13	1	11	4	3951 53	—	17	—	3967
P. Clodius demanding to be made Prætor of Rome, was kill'd in an accidental Rencounter by his great Enemy Milo, and his Body all bloody brought to Rome, exaſperated the People to attack Milo in his Houſe, but were repulſed with Loſs; and returning, pull'd down all the Benches of the Magiſtrates to make a Funeral Pile, which burn'd with ſo much Rage, that the ſtately Curia, where the Senate uſed to meet, was burnt with Clodius's Body; thus even to the laſt he prov'd the Senate's Enemy: nay the inraged Mutineers pretending to ſearch for Milo's Friends, fill'd Rome with Murders and Quarrels; ſo that the Senate was forced to create Servius Sulpitius INTERREX, who made POMPEY, not DICTATOR, but ſole Conſul, by the Advice of Cato; that Pompey might be afterwards accountable: whereby he had the Power of a DICTATOR without the Name, allowing him 10000 Talents yearly for paying his new Troops, and continuing with him the Government of Spain for four Years longer; and Milo, to pleaſe the People, was baniſh'd to Marſeilles.	697	457	278	14	2	12	CLXXXII. 1	3952 52

Continuation of TABLE LVII.

ROMAN Republick.

CÆSAR willing to have POMPEY his Friend, offer'd him his Niece Octavia, and demanded POMPEY's Daughter for himſelf, but was rejected by POMPEY, who married the beautiful Cornelia, the Widow of young Craſſus, and Daughter of Scipio Metellus, the Son of Scipio Naſica, and adopted Son of Metellus Pius.

POMPEY executing the Office of DICTATOR, aſſumed for his Collegue as Conſul Scipio Metellus his Father in Law; whereby he ſtrengthned his Intereſt in order to blaſt CÆSAR, when Affairs were once ripe for Execution. But CÆSAR was aware of all theſe Things, and ſecured an Intereſt at Rome, but durſt not go thither; becauſe the News of the Troubles at Rome had imboldened the Nations of Gallia Tranſalpina to revolt, chuſing VERCINGETORIX for their Imperator. CÆSAR in the Winter marched thither thro' the Snows, and after various Succeſs routed Vercingetorix, who retreated to Aleſia with 80000 Men, and CÆSAR there beſieged him, where he himſelf was ſoon beſieged alſo by the Gaulick Chiefs with 240000 Foot, and 8000 Horſe, that ſurrounded his Intrenchments of Contravallation: but CÆSAR by his wonderful Management repulſed the Relievers, and ſoon after took that great and ſtrong City; upon which all other Places ſubmitted.

Auletes being dead, order'd by Will that his eldeſt Son and Daughter ſhould be married, and reign jointly, viz.

15. PTOLEMY Dionyſius, aged about 12 Years, and
16. CLEOPATRA IV. the famous lovely Queen, aged 17 Years, } They were never married, and He was drown'd the Year that CÆSAR was in Egypt, after he had reign'd four Years. See Table XL.

But CLEOPATRA now began to reign,

Sulpicius Rufus and Marcus Claudius Marcellus being Conſuls, CICERO lately made Augur in the Room of young Craſſus, was made Proconſul of Cilicia, and Bibulus of Syria, which Caſſius bravely preſerved againſt the Parthians; and when Caſſius was beſieged in Antioch, CICERO made a Diverſion that cauſ'd the Parthians leave the Siege; and when They beſieged Antigonia, Caſſius marched and gave them a total Rout; after which Caſſius reſign'd the Government to Bibulus, and return'd to Rome: while CICERO ſubdued the Eleuthero-Cilices that had never been conquer'd; for which his Army ſaluted him Imperator.

The Gauls once more confederated againſt the Romans in and about Aquitain, upon which CAESAR march'd againſt them, and having conquer'd ſome of thoſe Nations by his Lieutenants Fabius and Caninius, He came up and join'd them in the Siege of the ſtrong City Uxellodunum, which he took by diverting their Water Courſes: upon which the reſt of Aquitain ſubmitted, and he wiſely diſpoſed of his Army into Winter Quarters about Narbon, commodiouſly for executing his grand Project.

Thus the eighth and laſt Year of CAESAR's Wars in Gaul ended, after a Series of Victory and Conqueſt, much to his Honour, and the Inlargement of Rome's Dominion.

Now CAESAR very rich and illuſtrious by Birth and Valour, by the Grandeur of his Perſon, his Learning and Eloquence, his unbounded Generoſity, his magnificent Entertainments, his gaining the Affections of his Soldiers, reſolved never to admit a Superior; as the great POMPEY reſolved never to admit an Equal.

CAESAR had lent great Sums to many Senators without Intereſt, and his Army was a Refuge to all Criminals and Debtors; ſome of their Debts he diſcharged, and uſed to ſay to the more deſperate Debtors, That one civil War would make all even: but all theſe Acts of Liberality were at the Expence of Gaul; which made ſome obſerve, That CAESAR conquer'd the Gauls with Roman Steel, and the Romans with Gaulick Gold. CAESAR ſent from Gaul to demand the Conſulſhip in his Abſence, and the Government of Gaul to be continued with him, which was ſucceſsfully oppoſed by the Conſul Marcellus; upon the Footing of a Law made by POMPEY laſt Year, to forbid all abſent Perſons to demand any publick Employment.

Lucius Aemilius Paulus and Caius Claudius Marcellus being Conſuls, CAESAR, tho' in Gaul, gain'd Paulus, by ſending him a Preſent of 1500 Talents; but this Marcellus was as bitter an Enemy to CAESAR as the other laſt Year. Curio, a Tribune of great Eloquence in Pleading, and firm in his Purpoſes, had been CAESAR's violent Enemy; but CAESAR knowing his Capacity and Worth, and alſo that he was plunged in Debts for himſelf, and for his Collegue Mark Antony, wiſely gain'd him, by ſending him enough to diſcharge thoſe Incumbrances; and now becoming his faſt Friend, Curio ſought an Occaſion of breaking with POMPEY, by demanding an Office which he knew would be deny'd: and ſo when the Conſul Marcellus warmly propoſed to recall CAESAR from Gaul, his Collegue Paulus was ſilent, and Curio applauded Marcellus's Wiſdom, ſaying, It was but juſt that POMPEY and CAESAR ſhould both be recall'd together! all underſtood his Meaning, and Appius the Cenſor, one of POMPEY's Friends, threatned to expel him the Senate; but Paulus protected him. Next Curio propoſed the ſame to the People, who teſtify'd their Applauſe and Satisfaction, by giving Power to CAESAR to demand the Conſulſhip, without removing out of his Province. Upon which POMPEY left Rome, and from his Country Houſe wrote to the Senate, That he would readily reſign if CAESAR did likewiſe; to which Curio reply'd, That POMPEY ſhould begin to perform his own Propoſal, and engaged that CAESAR ſhould follow his Example: but nothing came of it, tho' publickly debated; only that POMPEY and CAESAR ſhould detach a Legion Each to go againſt the Parthians; and POMPEY recall'd the Legion he had lent to CAESAR, who, tho' he ſaw the Deſign was to weaken him, yet ſurrender'd the two Legions.

ROMAN Republick.

Appius having gone to CAESAR's Camp, upon returning publiſh'd, That his Soldiers had no Eſteem of him, and would certainly deſert him as ſoon as They came over the Alps. This elated POMPEY, ſo that when Cicero askt him, What Forces he had to oppoſe CAESAR? POMPEY reply'd, That upon ſtamping with his Foot, an Army would ſtart out of the Earth! nay many Senators talkt againſt CAESAR, and Cato threatned to call him to an Account, and ſend him after Milo.

The Civil War between CAESAR and POMPEY.

CAESAR had often writ to the Senate, either to be continued as POMPEY was, or both to be recall'd together, or to allow him to ſtand for Conſul by Proxy; but all his Propoſals were rejected, while he decently march'd over the Alps, with ſome of his hardy Veterans, as far as Ravenna; and from thence wrote to the new Conſuls, Caius Claudius Marcellus and Lucius Cornelius Lentulus, That he was ready to reſign all his Power, if POMPEY would at the ſame Time reſign his; for that otherwiſe he would come and revenge his own and his Country's Wrongs. Upon which the Senate, on the Calends of January, after violent Debates, cry'd out by a Majority, That CAESAR had by his Letter declared War; and decreed That CAESAR ſhould disband all his Forces within a certain Time, or otherwiſe ſhould be declared an Enemy of the Republick. And on the 7th of the Ides of January, it was decreed, That the Conſuls and other Magiſtrates ſhould take Care that the Republick ſuffer no Damage; and POMPEY was order'd to command what Troops were in Readineſs, and Domitius was appointed CAESAR's Succeſſor, Scipio Metellus got Syria, Sextius got Cilicia, and Servilius got Aſia, and all Rome was up in Arms: while Cicero and Bibulus return'd from Aſia; but their Triumphs were delay'd, becauſe of the Civil War, and never happen'd.

Antony and Caſſius, now Tribunes of the People, join'd with Curio, and being threatned by the Conſuls, fled diſguis'd in Slaves Habits to CAESAR, who ſhew'd them to his Army with a mournful Oration, tearing his Robes and ſhedding Tears, conjuring them to defend his Honour, who had fought ſucceſsfully under him theſe nine Years paſt! and They all vowing to revenge his Wrongs, CAESAR firſt ſent a choice Party only with Swords to convey themſelves privately into Ariminum, ſituated on the Rubicon that parts Ciſalpin Gaul from the reſt of Italy; and the next Night went after Them with a few Friends, and after ſome fluctuating melancholy Thoughts about the Conſequences, was for ſome Time undetermin'd, ſaying to Aſinius Pollio, 'Tis now in our Power to return, but if we paſs this fatal River, our only Retreat muſt be to Arms! at length obſerving ſome happy Omens, and finding it beſt to proſecute his Deſign, he ſaid, Let us go where the Gods direct us, and the Fury of our Enemies drive us! and ſo croſſing the Rubicon, He took Poſſeſſion of Ariminum without Oppoſition; and with only 6000 Men began the dreadful Civil War, ordering his other Troops to follow with Expedition.

How the People of Rome were in Conſternation upon the News, how CAESAR marched forward, and what Exploits he perform'd in the Way; how the Conſuls and almoſt all the Senate left Rome under POMPEY, and went to Capua, and from thence to Brunduſium; how CAESAR took in Corfinium, ſpared Lentulus and Domitius, the Senators and Knights found there, took nothing from any of them, declaring, He came not from his Province to injure any Man, but for his own Security, the Reſtoration of the Tribune's Office, and the Liberty of Rome: how CAESAR paſs'd by Rome, and marched to Brunduſium, but could not hinder POMPEY from tranſporting himſelf and his Troops by Sea to Dyrrachium in Epirus, on the 16th before the Calends of April; are all punctually narrated by moſt Roman Hiſtorians, and would take too much Room here.

POMPEY not yet prepared to fight CAESAR, choſe to go to Epirus, that he might be near the Eaſtern Provinces, which were all at his Devotion, as Gaul was at the Devotion of CAESAR, who had now alſo conquer'd all Italy in 60 Days, and returning to Rome before the Calends of April, he viſited Cicero in his Way, and by Force ſeiz'd on the publick Treaſure, out of which he took 3000 Pound Weight of Gold for his Army, and ever afterwards had the Treaſury at his Command in all his Wars. CAESAR releas'd ARISTOBULUS the captive King of Judæa, and ſent him to raiſe Forces to make ſome Diverſion to the Pompeians; but They poiſon'd him, and beheaded his Son Alexander at Antioch. Then CAESAR ſent Forces under Curio to Sicily, who drove out Cato thence, and alſo into Sardinia, who drove out Cotta; aſſembled at Rome what Senators he could, whom he call'd the Senate, put Æmilius Lepidus over the City, and leaving Italy under the Government of Mark Antony, He marched for Spain thro' Gaul, laid Siege to Marſeilles in his Way, where Domitius had gather'd Forces; and leaving the Siege to be carried on by Trebonius and Brutus, he arrived in Spain, and joining Fabius with three Legions, had a good Army, with which he fought POMPEY's Lieutenants, Afranius, Petreius, and Varro, till after various Motions he reduced them to ſurrender for Hunger and Drought, and diſmiſs'd them with Civility, ſending them home laden with Shame, and Obligations from the moſt generous Enemy that ever liv'd; and having ſoon ſettled all Spain, he return'd to Marſeilles, that forthwith ſurrender'd to him, Domitius eſcaping by Sea. CAESAR ſpared the City for its Antiquity, as he ſaid, and not for the Merit of the Inhabitants, and having put a Garriſon there, He marched on to Rome.

When CAESAR came to Rome, he was created DICTATOR, to which he had been named by Lepidus in his Abſence, and held the Comitia; but abdicated himſelf from that Office in Eleven Days, deſiring only to be Conſul with Servilius Iſauricus as his Collegue, but made ſeveral good Laws firſt. From this firſt Dictatorſhip of CAESAR, the Greeks in Syria compute the Cæſarian Times, and the Roman EMPERORS their Indictions. While CAESAR was in Spain, POMPEY in Epirus ſent his Father in Law Scipio into Syria, and Cato into Aſia, and his other Friends into all the Eaſtern Parts, who raiſed immenſe Sums for him, many Ships and many Forces.

ROMAN Republick.

Attius Varro POMPEY's Lieutenant in Africa, aſſiſted by JUBA King of Mauritania, had routed and ſlain Curio, CAESAR's Lieutenant; while in Illyricum the Pompeians drove out Dolabella, and took Caius Antony Priſoner, the Brother of Mark: upon which many flockt to POMPEY at Dyrrachium, ſo that he form'd a Senate of 200 there, who, by Cato's Advice, decreed, That no Roman Citizen ſhould be put to Death out of Battel, and that no Town ſubject to Rome ſhould be plunder'd. This was laudable and popular Conduct, gain'd them great Reputation, and the People's good Wiſhes, retarded CAESAR's Succeſs, and afterwards was uſed to juſtify the Manner of his Death. But CAESAR in December left Rome, and about the Nones of January, tranſported 7 Legions from Brunduſium to Epirus; and having ſeiz'd the Towns Oricus and Apollonia, he marched towards Dyrrachium, which was POMPEY's Magazine, and by him protected with his great Army and numerous Fleet; while CAESAR had no Naval Force, which made Mark Antony the longer in following him with the reſt of the Army: but when They arriv'd, CAESAR and POMPEY diſcover'd great military Skill, and CAESAR drew Lines to ſurround POMPEY's Army, and ſorely diſtreſs'd him at Dyrrachium, till he ſkilfully got out to a Camp by the Sea, where he had both Forrage, and Acceſs to his Fleet; and coming to a Battel, CAESAR was fairly beat with great Loſs by POMPEY, who purſued him to his Intrenchments; and if he had purſued his Victory there, POMPEY had gain'd All; as CAESAR afterwards own'd.

CÆSAR retired to Apollonia, encouraged his Men, and wanting a Fleet, thought fit to march quickly towards Macedonia, to join his Lieutenant Calvinus with 3 Legions; and POMPEY imprudently marched after him to join Scipio, who had brought thither the Syrian Legions; and when both theſe great Men were join'd by their ſaid Friends, They met in the Plains of Pharſalia in Theſſaly, POMPEY at the Head of 45000 Foot, and 7000 Horſe, and CÆSAR at the Head of 22000 Foot, and above 1000 Horſe: on the one Side Domitius Aenobarbus commanded the Right Wing, Scipio the Center, and Pompey himſelf the Left Wing, all in three Lines; on the other Side, Mark Antony commanded the Left Wing, Domitius Calvinus the Center, and Sylla the Right Wing, where CÆSAR placed himſelf at the Head of the 10th Legion, over againſt POMPEY: POMPEY's Word was Hercules, the Invincible; and CÆSAR's Word was Venus, the Victorious. And now the Fate of ROME was decided in a fierce Battel, by thoſe two great Captains; and Victory hanging doubtful till Noon, at laſt fell on CÆSAR's Side, who well knew how to improve it, cauſing his Men to cry out at the Beginning of POMPEY's Diſorder, Kill the Foreigners, but ſave the Romans; upon which the Right Wing under Aenobarbus, then ſlain, threw down their Arms, and CÆSAR purſued thoſe that fled till Night; and in the Morning They came down from their Hill, begg'd Quarter, and received it from CÆSAR in the moſt obliging Manner, forbidding his Soldiers to plunder their Baggage. Thus CÆSAR, with a very ſmall Loſs, obtain'd a complete Victory, ſlaying 15000, and taking 24000 of POMPEY's Men.

This deciſive Battel was fought near the 20th Day of July. Anno U. C. Varroniano 706.

As for POMPEY, he fled to Lariſſa, and from thence, not to his fine Fleet, as he ſhould have done, but in a private Ship to Mitylene, where he took up his Lady Cornelia, and his Son Sextus, and diſputed about Providence with the Philoſopher Cratippus, who told him, That the ill Conduct of the Republick, made Monarchy at Rome neceſſary; and askt, How it could be known, that if he had conquer'd CÆSAR, he had uſed his Fortune to better Purpoſes: POMPEY had no Proſpect of Relief in Aſia, Syria, or Parthia, but got ſome Ships in Cilicia, and 2000 Men, and 60 Roman Senators eſcaped from Pharſalia.

Scipio, Labienus, Afranius, and others, had fled to Dyrrachium, where CATO had been left, with 15 Cohorts, and 300 Ships, aboard which he and CICERO had ſail'd to Corcyra, where the main Fleet was, and there received their Friends, particularly Octavius, and POMPEY's eldeſt Son Cneius, and where They threatned to murder CICERO for not aſſuming the Command, but CATO protected him: the Navy being divided, one Part of it was led by Caſſius to PHARNACES King of Boſphorus, now recovering Pontus his Father's Inheritance, to excite him againſt CÆSAR; and Scipio ſail'd with another Part to Africa, depending on Varro with his Forces there, and the Aids of JUBA King of Mauritania; and CATO carried another Part of the Fleet to Cyrene and Lybia: and now POMPEY, too late, repented his going to fight ſo far from his Fleet.

From Cilicia POMPEY went to Cyprus, where hearing that the Antiocheans had declared for CÆSAR, who was purſuing him thro' Leſſer Aſia, POMPEY ſail'd to Peluſium in Egypt, hoping King PTOLEMY Dionyſius, tho' a Minor, and his Siſter Queen CLEOPATRA, would, in Gratitude, aſſiſt him: but all was in Confuſion there, Dionyſius's Tutors having expell'd CLEOPATRA, who had brought an Army of Syrians to reſtore her, and incamped near his Army hard by Peluſium at Mount Caſius; and POMPEY ſent Meſſengers aſhore to Dionyſius, whoſe Tutors (by Advice of Theodotus the King's Preceptor in Rhetoric, who told them, that Dead Folks dont bite) determin'd to cut him off: and ſo Achillas their General, with Septimius a Roman military Tribune, and Salvius a Centurion in the Egyptian Service, who had both ſerved under Pompey, came in a Boat, and by Lies and fair Promiſes decoy'd poor infatuated POMPEY aſhore, and at landing ſtabb'd him in Sight of his Wife and Friends, cut off his Head, and left the Body unburied on the Shore, (which was burned ſoon after by Philip his freed Man, and an old Roman Soldier, with the Boards of an old Boat) on the 3d before the Calends of October, the Day before his Birth Day, the Day he had triumph'd over MITHRIDATES King of Pontus, and the Pirates, when aged 58 Years complete. See Page 190.

Thus the Roman Republick may be ſaid now to end,

Anno Period. Julianæ,	4666	Year of the 2d Temple,	488
Anno Nabonaſſari,	700	And of Daniel's 70 Weeks,	411
Anno Period. Philippicæ,	276	18 Years before the Roman Empire began under AUGUSTUS.
Anno IV. Period. Calippicæ,	55

For the Republick ſeem'd to exiſt till the Beginning of AUGUSTUS's ſole Reign, as in the following Table.

The Reſt of the Roman Hiſtory concerning the Great Julius CÆSAR, the Second Triumvirate, the Battels of Philippi and Actium, the creating of HEROD the King of Judæa, the Death of ANTONY and CLEOPATRA, when the Grecian MONARCHY and Egyptian KINGDOM ended, is already printed in the Tables XXXVI and XXXIX.

And for connecting of Table XXXIX with the next Table LVIII. we may recollect, that

ANTONY and CLEOPATRA kill'd themſelves, and were buried in the ſame Tomb, when the Grecian MONARCHY ended, and the ROMAN Empire began under AUGUSTUS Cæſar, then call'd only Octavianus.

OCTAVIANUS, while in Egypt, cut off Cæſarion (the Son of CLEOPATRA by Julius CÆSAR) Canidius ANTONY's General, Autyllas the eldeſt Son of ANTONY by Fulvia, &c. but he was very kind to Antony's other Children by Fulvia, Octavia, and Cleopatra; and from ANTONY's two Daughters, Three of the Roman Emperors were deſcended: See their Genealogical Table.

OCTAVIANUS, while in Egypt, was curious to ſee the imbalmed Body of ALEXANDER the Great, preſerved in a Caſe of Glaſs, (ever ſince the Caſe of Gold was taken away by Seleucus Cybioſactes) with a Crown of Gold, to which He paid great Reverence; only handling the Body he broke a Bit of its Noſe. But he ſcorn'd to viſit the Bodies of the PTOLEMYS, or the Egyptian God Apis.

The Egyptians now laid aſide their Philippic Period, computed from the Death of ALEXANDER the Great, being now 294 Nabonaſſarian or Aſtronomical Years; and began their New Era on their New Year's Day, the 29th of Auguſt, (which ſhould be the 31ſt of Auguſt) not of Philippic or Nabonaſſarian Years, but of Julian Years. It ſhould be call'd the Era of the Alexandrian Victory; but to avoid owning their being conquer'd, the Egyptians call'd it the Era of the Actiac Victory, tho' the Battel of Actium was fought near a Year before: and it was ſo call'd till the firſt Year of the Emperor DIOCLESIAN, A. D 284. when It came to be call'd the Era of Diocleſian, and the Era of the Martyrs.

OCTAVIANUS came to Alexandria the Beginning of Auguſt, and left it the Beginning of September; making Cornelius Gallus the Prefect of Egypt. The Conqueror was attended by King HEROD as far as Antioch, where he reſtored to HEROD the Territory of Jericho, and gave him alſo Gadara, Hippon, Samaria, Gaza, Authedon, Joppa, and Straton's Tower.

PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia being laſt Year expell'd by Tiridates and the Nobility, ARTAVASDES did then recover Media, and CLEOPATRA to gain him to her Side, then ſent him the Head of his old Enemy ARTABAZES late King of Armenia, whom ANTONY had brought Captive to Alexandria: but after the Battel of Actium, the Mede adhered to OCTAVIANUS. And this Year PHRAHATES rais'd an Army, and Tiridates being beat out of the Field, fled into Syria; and now at Antioch apply'd to OCTAVIANUS for Aſſiſtance, while the Ambaſſadors of PHRAHATES addreſs'd him likewiſe: but he would aſſiſt neither of them; only allow'd Tiridates to ſtay in Syria till his Fortune mended, and received from him a younger Son of PHRAHATES that had fallen into his Hands, who was carried to Rome as an Hoſtage: and having made Maſſala Corvinus Præfect of Syria, OCTAVIANUS marched into Leſſer Aſia, where he winter'd.

Anno Period. Julianæ,	4684	Anno U. C. Varroniano,	724	In the Year of the 2d Temple,	506	In the 7th Year of PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia.
Anno Mundi,	3974	Anno U. C. Fabiano,	719	And of Daniel's 70 Weeks,	429	In the 8th Year of HEROD the Great King of Judæa.

Julian Year,	16	After CÆSAR's Death,	14	Of the IV. Calippic Period,	73	In the 22d and laſt Year of CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.

And here ends the GRECIAN Monarchy, that had laſted from the Death of DARIUS Codomannus, juſt 300 Years.
And here alſo ends the Kingdom of the Grecians in Egypt, that had laſted from the Death of ALEXANDER, juſt 294 Years.
When the ROMAN Empire took place.

TABLE LVIII. to be connected with Table XXXIX.

The CHRONOLOGY of the IV^th. Monarchy, or the ROMAN Empire, and its Contemporaries, From the Death of Queen CLEOPATRA, or the End of the GRECIAN Monarchy, and firſt Year of AUGUSTUS, To the Founding of the 3d TEMPLE of Jeruſalem by King HEROD, containing 12 Years.

In the firſt Year of AUGUSTUS the Emperor of —— Rome.
8th Year of PHRAHATES IV. King of —— Parthia.
9th Year of HEROD the Great King of —— Judæa.
15th Year after Cæſar's Death.
Anno U. C. Varroniano, ———— 725

OCTAVIANUS, on the Calends of January this Year at Samos, enter'd upon his 5th Conſulſhip; and having ſettled the Eaſtern Provinces, return'd to Rome in the Month Sextilis, (call'd afterwards Auguſt from him) a glorious Conqueror, entering the City with Three Triumphs during three Days; on the firſt Day for Victories over the Dalmatians, Pannonians, and ſome of the German and Gaulick Nations; on the 2d for his Sea Victory at Actium, and on the third Day for his Conqueſt of Egypt, very magnificent. Then He ſhut the Temple of Janus, that had been open 206 Years, and aſſumed the Title, not of King, as hateful to the Romans, but of Imperator or EMPEROR; not as it was given by Soldiers to their victorious General, but as it is now underſtood, or as King of Kings.

The Emperor generouſly reſtored the learned Prince JUBA (who had been led in the Triumph of Julius CÆSAR) to his paternal Kingdom of Mauritania.

The Senate was now reform'd, and increas'd to a Thouſand; and the Conſtitution of the Empire being ſettled, the Emperor wiſely began to reconcile to himſelf Antony's Adherents, to pleaſe the Populace, and to convince the Republican Party, that the People enjoy'd as much Liberty as ever, except that They could not ſo eaſily create Diſturbance. He alſo encouraged all the Arts and Sciences, eſpecially Architecture, Painting, Poetry, Eloquence; for under him flouriſh'd Vitruvius, Virgil, Horace, Livy, Ovid, and many more.

King HEROD being deceived by the Artifice of his Mother Cyprus and Siſter Salome, became jealous, without Cauſe, of his charming Mariamne; and in a Rage packt a Bench of Judges, who condemn'd her, and He cauſed her Head to be publickly ſtruck off; but afterwards He felt great Remorſe, and turn'd almoſt ſtark mad.

OCTAVIANUS enter'd upon his 6th Conſulſhip, and PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia growing intolerable, was again expell'd by his Nobles, who recall'd TIRIDATES to mount the Throne.

A grievous Peſtilence in Judæa, made HEROD retire to Samaria; where, hearing that Alexandra the Mother of Mariamne was again plotting againſt him at Jeruſalem, he ſent Orders to cut her off. He recover'd his Health and return'd to Jeruſalem, but never recover'd his Temper, being ever after fierce and cruel.

Jeſus the Son of Phebes ſucceeded to Ananelus as High Prieſt of Jeruſalem.
Here ends the IV. and laſt Calippic Period.

The Emperor, in his 7th Conſulſhip, to gain the Peoples Favour, harrangued the Senate with an Offer to reſign the Government into the Hands of the Senate and People, or to reſtore the old Conſtitution of the Republick: but the Senators being all his Friends or Creatures, preſs'd him to take upon him the ſole Adminiſtration, which, with a feign'd Reluctancy, he accepted of for Ten Years: but he often renew'd his Leaſe during his Life.

The Senate alſo gave Octavianus the new Name of AUGUSTUS, in Greek SEBASTOS; and he, in Requital, reſign'd to the Senate the Power of appointing Governors to the peaceable Provinces, but wiſely reſerved to himſelf the frontier Provinces, and thoſe that required ing Armies: the firſt were called the Senatorial, and the others the Imperial Provinces.

And now the ROMAN Republick had another finiſhing Stroke, by this formal Reſignation of the Senate to AUGUSTUS, who made a Poll of 4063000 Roman Citizens: After the Republick began, upon the Baniſhment of TARQUIN 482 Years; and after the Death of Julius CÆSAR 17 Years.

And now properly the ROMAN Empire began, which was extended in Europe over Italy, Gaul, Spain, Greece, Illyricum, Dacia, Pannonia, with ſome Parts of Germany and Britain: and in Aſia over Aſia Minor, Armenia, Syria, Judæa, with Part of Meſopotamia and Media; and in Africa over Egypt, Lybia, Proper Africa, Numidia, Mauritania, beſides Sicily, Sardinia, Corſica, the Balearic, and other Iſlands, in all near 4000 Miles in Length; and its annual Revenue was, by a ſober Computation, reckon'd to be near 40 Millions Sterling.

And this is the firſt Year of the Roman Emperors call'd by the Name of AUGUSTUS, Anno U. C. Varroniano, 727.

Salome the Siſter of HEROD, after her firſt Husband and Uncle Joſeph was cut off, had married another Idumæan, Coſtobarus; but being weary of him, ſhe gave him a Bill of Divorce, contrary to Law, and had gone to live with her Brother.

And now ſhe form'd a Plot to cut off poor Coſtobarus, and many more. HEROD having alſo cut off all the Aſmonaean Race, thought himſelf ſecure, deviated from the Jewiſh Uſages, and introduced many foreign Cuſtoms, built a Theatre at Jeruſalem, where he order'd order'd Games to be celebrated every 5th Year in Honour of Auguſtus, in Imitation of thoſe at Rome for the Actiac Victory.

Cornelius Gallus, recall'd from Egypt, was declared infamous, for ſpeaking amiſs of Auguſtus; and for Male-adminiſtration was baniſh'd, when he kill'd himſelf; and Petronius was made Præfect of Egypt. At this Time Britain, and Gaul, preparing for an Inſurrection, and Part of Spain being up in Arms, AUGUSTUS, in his 8th Conſulſhip, open'd the Temple of Janus, and marched with an Army into Gaul, where the Britiſh Ambaſſadors, by fair Promiſes, prevented his Deſcent upon that Iſland; and the Gauls ſubmitting, He marched into Spain againſt the Cantabrians and Aſturians, whom he drove to their Faſtneſſes in the Mountains, where he blockt them up by building Forts round them, and ſtarved the moſt Part of them.

PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia, by an Army of Scythians, had expell'd Tiridates, who now fled to AUGUSTUS in Spain; and PHRAHATES got the Parthians again to own him their Sovereign, tho' moſt unworthy of Royal Dignity, as Horace obſerves, Lib. II. Od. 2.

Redditum Cyri Solio Phraaten, &c.

AUGUSTUS, in his 9th Conſulſhip, found hard Work in Spain, by the Obſtinacy of that People, who rather choſe to ſtarve and ſlay themſelves than yield; but at length he ſubdued them all, tho' the Romans own'd They had never encounter'd ſo fierce and cruel Enemies.

While at Tarracona, AUGUSTUS was addreſs'd by Ambaſſadors from the remoteſt Nations of the North and Eaſt, the Scythians, Sarmatians, Indians, and Seres or Chineſe, who with rich Preſents courted his Friendſhip: ſo famous was his Name.

Marcus Craſſus this Year ſubdued the Mæſians and Baſternians beyond the Danube, ſlaying their King DEDDO.

Terentius Varro ſubdued the Salaſſi, a People upon the Alps, and built the City Auguſta Prætoria, now Aouſte; while Vincius appeas'd the Germans: and at the End of the Year, AUGUSTUS having founded the City Saragoſſa, return'd to Italy, and order'd the Temple of Janus to be ſhut again.

ROME was now adorned with ſeveral noble Structures by AGRIPPA, who alſo, at his own Charge, finiſh'd the famous Pantheon, or Temple of All Gods, (now the Temple of All Saints) and made curious Aqueducts for the City.

AUGUSTUS not coming to Rome becauſe of a raging Diſtemper, got his Favourite Agrippa to celebrate the Marriage of his Daughter Julia with Marcellus, the Son of his Siſter Octavia; and the Marriage of the learned JUBA King of Mauritania, with ANTONY's Daughter Cleopatra Selene, and committed to his Care his Queen's two Brothers, Alexander and Ptolemy, all three born to ANTONY by the famous CLEOPATRA.

This Year HEROD diſcover'd a Conſpiracy againſt his Life at Jeruſalem, puniſh'd the Plotters ſeverely, and to be more ſafe, began to fortify Samaria, which he call'd Sebaſte, (after Auguſtus) and put a Garriſon into Straton's Tower. And Paleſtin and Syria being ſore afflicted with Drought, Barrenneſs, Famine, and Peſtilence, HEROD, wanting Money, melted down all his fine Plate into Coin, and bought Corn in Egypt to preſerve his People; for which he was deſervedly eſteemed.

AUGUSTUS entering on his 10th Conſulſhip, the Senate voted him free from the Obligation of Laws, and intruſted him with abſolute Power, to act in all Things as he pleas'd.

So farewell ROMAN Liberty.

When he came to Rome, He ſent Aelius Gallus with 10000 Men againſt the Southern Arabs, that had affronted him: HEROD aſſiſted Gallus with 500 of his Guards; and OBODAS King of the Nabathæan Arabs, ſent him 1000 Men, with Syllaeus to be his Guide.

HEROD, now in profound Peace, began to build his magnificent Palace on Mount Zion, as fine as the Temple; and in this XXIX. Year of JUBILEE, HEROD falling in Love with another Mariamne, the beautiful Daughter of one Simon the Son of Boethus a Prieſt, removed Jeſus the Son of Phebes, and in his Stead made Simon the High Prieſt; that he might with more Honour marry his Daughter. After theſe Nuptials, HEROD founded his lofty Palace Herodium ſeven Miles South of Jeruſalem.

AUGUSTUS, in his 11th Conſulſhip, now gave Audience to the Ambaſſadors of PHRAHATES, who demanded his Son, and alſo his Servant Tiridates: but tho' He would not deliver Tiridates, he ſent home the young Prince with his dry Nurſe Thermuſa, a lovely Italian Virgin, upon Condition of having the Roman Captives and Enſigns reſtored, that had been taken from Craſſus and ANTONY.

Aelius Gallus defeated the Enemy, but by the Treachery of his Guide Syllaeus, loſt the Half of his Army by long Marches thro' Arabia, and ſhamefully brought back the Reſt to Alexandria. Mean while CANDACE Queen of Ethiopia, South of Egypt, invaded the Upper Egypt, took in Syena, and carried off many Captives: but Petronius the Præfect having routed her in Battel, purſued her 800 Miles into Ethiopia, deſtroy'd her Metropolis Napata, garriſon'd Premnis, and return'd with his Captives to Alexandria.

AUGUSTUS fearing that Marcellus his Nephew and Son in Law and his adopted Son and Heir, was jealous of Agrippa his prime Favourite, wiſely ſent Agrippa to govern the Aſiatic Provinces: and AUGUSTUS falling dangerouſly ill, was cured by his Phyſician Antonius Muſa, who uſed the Cold Bath: but it would not do with dear Marcellus, for it kill'd him; whoſe immature Death, at the End of this Year, is much lamented by Virgil, Æneidos 6. But the Empreſs Livia was ſuſpected to have poiſon'd Marcellus, for the advancing of her own Son Tiberius.

HEROD having finiſh'd Sebaſte, (formerly Samaria) founded Caeſarea (formerly Straton's Tower) a 12 Years Work of prodigious Labour and Expence, and made it the beſt Harbour in all Phœnicia. HEROD now ſent his two Sons (by his firſt MARIAMNE) Alexander and Ariſtobulus, to Rome for Education, whom AUGUSTUS lodged in his Palace, and took ſpecial Care of them; adding alſo to HEROD's Kingdom the Countries of Trachonitis, Auronitis, and Batanæa. HEROD went to Mitylene in Samos, to wait upon Agrippa, who aſſured him of his Friendſhip; nay deliver'd up to him thoſe that accuſed him; and AUGUSTUS gave him Power to ſettle his Succeſſion upon which of his Sons he pleas'd.

ROMAN Empire.

Auguſtus went into Sicily, to ſettle that and the other Provinces Eaſtward; and ſent to Mitylene for Agrippa, made him divorce his Wife, (tho' the Daughter of Octavia the Siſter of Auguſtus) and marry his Daughter Julia, the Widow of Marcellus, ſent him to Rome to conſummate his Marriage, and to reſide there as chief Ruler, in his Abſence. The divorced Wife of Agrippa, was afterwards married to Antony, the Son of Antony the Triumvir.

Auguſtus now refuſed to be perpetual Dictator and Cenſor, when preſs'd to accept of them both, and took great Care of Decency and Diſcipline at Rome.

Auguſtus having ſettled Affairs at Rome and in Sicily, ſail'd into Greece, and winter'd in Samos, where he was addreſs'd by the Ambaſſadors of Candace Queen of Ethiopia, who ſued for Peace and obtain'd it.

In the Spring, He paſs'd over into Aſia, and from thence into Syria; when Zenodorus, and others, accuſed Herod before him at Antioch of many heinous Crimes; but failing in their Probation, They made away with themſelves the Night before the Deciſion, for fear of being delivered up to Herod. Upon which Auguſtus readily abſolved Herod, gave his Brother Pheroras a Tetrarchy, and gave himſelf the Tetrarchy of Zenodorus, and his Lands near Mount Paneas and the Fountain of the Jordan, where Herod built a Temple of white Marble to Auguſtus, making him thus an Idol God.

The Armenians accuſed their King Artaxias (the Son of Artabazes that was carried Captive by Antony, and murder'd by Cleopatra) before Auguſtus of Male-adminiſtration, deſiring his Brother Tigranes to be their King; and Auguſtus ſent Tiberius to ſee it done: but before he got thither, They had privately cut off Artaxias; and Tigranes having peaceable Poſſeſſion, Tiberius had a peaceable Expedition.

Phrahates IV. King of Parthia, having begot a Son by Thermuſa the beautiful Italian, exalted her to be his Queen; and ſhe influenced him to deliver to Auguſtus all the Roman Enſigns, and Priſoners taken from Craſſus and Antony, and to ſubmit to Cæſar's Terms; nay to give his four eldeſt Sons, with their Wives and Children, as Hoſtages, who remain'd long at Rome. Phrahates was a wicked Tyrant, and afraid that his People ſhould dethrone him, if Cæſar ſhould declare War againſt him; and therefore put his Sons thus out of the Way of being ſet up by the People, who were ſuperſtitiouſly attach'd to the Race of Arsaces: and Thermuſa deſign'd thus to get the Crown for her young Son, tho' ſhe was juſtly diſappointed in the Iſſue.

Auguſtus brought the Conquer'd Countries under the Roman Laws, but left the others to uſe their old Laws and Cuſtoms. He reſtored Jamblichus to his paternal Principality in Arabia, and Tercondimotus to his in Cilicia, made Archelaus King of Leſſer Armenia, and Mithridates King of Commagena; and returning to Samos, he winter'd there again.

Herod having convoy'd Cæſar to the Sea Side, return'd to Jeruſalem; but found the People moſtly alienated from him, becauſe of his Conformity to Heathen Uſages; which made him forbid all Clubs and Feaſts, had Spies in every Place, ſmartly puniſh'd his Enemies, and would have had all his Subjects ſwear Fidelity to him, if it had not been refuſed by the Rabbins Hillel and Shammai, with the Phariſees and Eſſens. Yet to regain their Affection, he propoſed at the Paſſover (which happen'd properly in the Beginning of his nineteenth Year) to rebuild the Temple, and not to pull down the old Temple, till he had gather'd Materials for the new one. Accordingly he forthwith prepared 1000 Waggons, 10000 Artificers, and 1000 Prieſts that were skilful Maſter Maſons or Architects, to direct and overſee the Work.

While Cæſar winter'd at Samos, Julia at Rome bore to Agrippa his Son Caius; and Ignatius Rufus, M. Genucius, and Plautus Rufus, were executed by the Senate for plotting to cut off Cæſar upon his Return. At Samos alſo He was addreſs'd by three Ambaſſadors from Porus King of India, who made a League with him, and gave him great Preſents, and ſome Tigres, Beaſts that the Grecians and Romans had never ſeen before: one of the Three Ambaſſadors, Zarmarus a Gymnoſophiſt, follow'd Cæſar to Athens, and there burnt himſelf on his Funeral Pile, in his Preſence, with a chearful Countenance; according to the Cuſtom of theſe People, when They think They have liv'd long enough.

At length Auguſtus in his Return to Rome, was met at Athens by his Poet Virgil, who had retired to Greece in order to finiſh his Æneis; and returning with Cæſar, he contracted a Diſtemper, which encreaſing a Shipboard, cut him off a few Days after he landed at Brunduſium, in the 52d Year of his Age.

Cæſar enter'd Rome with an Ovation on Horſeback, marching thro' a Triumphal Arch; the People rejoycing at the Sight of the Enſigns redeem'd from Parthia, which were hung up in the New Temple of Mars the Avenger, in the Capitol, that Auguſtus had vowed to build before the Battel of Philippi. The Senate now order'd 12 Axes and Faſces to be carried before him, and directed him to ſit in a Curule Chair between the Conſuls.

Auguſtus now prorogued his Imperial Power to five Years more, gave to Agrippa Tribunitial Power for the ſame Time, whom he had ſent to prevent Inſurrections in Gaul and Spain; and order'd the Prieſts of Rome to tranſcribe the Sybillin Books with their own Hands. Aelius Gallus ſucceeding Petronius in the Præfecture of Egypt, made a Progreſs thro' it as far as Æthiopia, and carried with him Strabo the learned Geographer, who was born at Amaſia in Pontus, and afterwards publiſh'd his Geography in the 4th Year of Tiberius.

This is the laſt Year of the Second Temple of Jeruſalem.
After Zerubbabel had founded it 518 Years. Anno U. C. Varroniano, 736.

TABLE LIX.

The Chronology of the Romans, Jews, Parthians, and their Contemporaries, from the Founding of the 2d Temple by King Herod, To the Dedication of it, containing 10 Years.

In the 13th Year of Augustus Caeſar Emperor of ———— Rome.
20th Year of Arſaces Phrahates IV. King of ———— Parthia.
21ſt Year of Herod the Great King of ———— Judea.
And the 7th Year of Simon the Son of Boethus, High Prieſt of Jeruſalem.
Anno U. C. Varroniano, ———————— 737

The Third Temple of Jeruſalem was founded by King Herod, who had prepared Materials for two Years paſt, which, with the Materials of the Old Temple, would be enough to begin with; tho' the 2d Temple was not now pulled down all at once, but Piece by Piece: only according to Joſephus, the Foundation was much inlarged, and the 3d Temple was almoſt twice as large as the 2d. This Erection was begun juſt 46 Years before the firſt Paſſover of our Saviour's Miniſtry, for Joh. ii. 20. The Jews ſaid, 46 Years has this Temple been already in building: for tho' in nine Years and an Half it was made fit for divine Service; yet It was not completed, nor the contiguous Apartments, and its Appurtenances finiſh'd, till Geſſius Florus came to be Procurator of Judæa, Anno Chriſti 65. when 18000 of the Artificers, diſcharged at one Time, for want of Work, began thoſe Mutinies and Seditions, which in about Six Years occaſion'd the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem and the Temple by Titus Veſpaſian.

Augustus prov'd an excellent Magiſtrate, reform'd the City and Army, renew'd the great ſecular Games, and obliged the Players to be modeſt and decent.

Lucius the Son of Agrippa was born by Julia; and her Father Augustus forthwith adopted him, and his Brother Caius, to prevent Plots againſt his Perſon.

Herod now ſail'd to Rome, and in his Way ſtopt in Greece, where he preſided at the Celebration of the CXCI. Olympiad; and for his Liberality to the Elians, They made him the Agonotheta, or Preſident for Life. At Rome Augustus magnificently entertain'd him, and delivered to him his Sons, well educated about ſeven Years in the Roman Way, with whom he return'd to Judæa; where he found the Holy Place, and the Holy of Holies, and the Porch leading to both, well finiſh'd in 18 Months, during which no Rain fell in the Day Time, and in Eight Years more the Reſt was built that Herod had propoſed.

The Sicambri, Uſipetes, and Teuchteri, People of Germany, invaded Gaul, and beat Lollius the Proconſul; but tho' he rallied and beat them over the Rhine, Augustus thought fit to march and ſettle Gaul, and alſo to make his Preſence more valuable at Rome; while he ſent Agrippa to ſettle the Aſiatic Provinces.

The Rhætians about Trent made Irruptions into Italy and Gaul, but were entirely ſubdued by Druſus and Tiberius, the Sons of Livia the Empreſs.

Herod married his two Sons by his firſt Mariamne; Alexander the eldeſt to Glaphyra, Daughter of Archelaus King of Cappadocia; and Aristobulus to Berenice, the Daughter of Salome Herod's Siſter. Theſe Youths by their Comlineſs, good Behaviour, and many Accompliſhments, gain'd the Favour of all the Jews; but wicked Salome, fearing They would one Time revenge on her their Mother's Death, began to plot their Deſtruction.

When Herod heard that Agrippa was come to Aſia, He waited on him, and prevail'd to bring him into Judæa, where he ſhew'd him all his new built Caſtles and Cities, and was met at Jeruſalem by all the People in their Feſtival Apparel. He order'd an Hecatomb to be offer'd on the great Altar, and return'd by Sea to Ionia before Winter.

Pharnaces (the Son of Mithridates the Great, King of Pontus) having been expell'd from his Kingdom of Boſphorus, and ſlain by Asander, his Daughter Dynamis was married to Aſander; and he being now dead, ſhe married one Scribonius, that pretended to be the Grandſon of Mithridates, and to have a Grant from Auguſtus to be King of Boſphorus. Upon which Agrippa ſent Polemon (whom the Romans had made King of Pontus) to expel Scribonius; but before his Arrival, the Boſphorans had diſcover'd Scribonius to be a Cheat, and cut him off; nor would They ſubmit to Polemon, tho' he had defeated them in one Battel. Wherefore Agrippa marched againſt them; and Herod, of his own Accord, came to his Aſſiſtance, with a Fleet and Army, when Agrippa much wanted it, who ſoon entirely reduced the Boſphorans, married Polemon to Dynamis, and made him King of Boſphorus, which he held, by the Confirmation of Augustus, with Pontus and Leſſer Armenia; not all Pontus, but that Part call'd Pontus Polemoniacus. When Agrippa return'd to Ionia, Herod accompanying him, obtain'd from him great Favour to the Jews that had been firſt ſettled in Lydia, and the adjacent Countries, by Antiochus Magnus, and were now increas'd over all Leſſer Aſia and the Iſles, but had of late been ſorely oppreſs'd by the other Inhabitants, and deprived of living according to their own Religion, and of their other Immunities: but Herod obtain'd a Redreſs of all their Grievances; and indeed was Mediator with Agrippa for the Ilians, and all the diſtreſs'd.

When Agrippa ſail'd over to Samos, Herod return'd by Sea to Cæſarea, and thence travell'd to Jeruſalem, where he was joyfully received, and remitted a 4th Part of the Taxes.

ROMAN Empire.

Lepidus, the Triumvir, who had been long ago made High Prieſt of Rome, and not depoſed, now dying, AUGUSTUS, now return'd from Gaul, took upon him the Office of High Prieſt, as did all the CÆSARS his Succeſſors; till the Emperor GRATIAN, a zealous Chriſtian, declin'd it, as did all his Succeſſors.

And now Auguſtus CÆSAR, as High Prieſt, call'd in all the prophetical Books, that had created vain Hopes and Fears among the People, as they were interpreted for or againſt the Government; and cauſed above 2000 Volumes of them to be burnt as ſpurious, and ſome of the Sibyllin Verſes too, after Examination: but thoſe accounted genuine he put into two golden Cabinets, under the Pedeſtal of Apollo Palatinus. Many of the Sibyllin Verſes were afterwards burnt by TIBERIUS, and the reſt by Order of the Emperor HONORIUS, Anno Chriſti 399. after They had been convicted of groſs Falſhood.

Alexander and Ariſtobulus, the Sons of HEROD, having utter'd Threatnings againſt the Authors of their Mother Mariamne's Death, the chief Authors of it Salome, and her Brother Pheroras, related the ſame perverſly to their Brother HEROD, and excited him to bring to Court Antipater his Son, by Doris his firſt Wife, (who was divorced upon his Marriage with Mariamne) in order to humble the two royal Brothers; but it made them outragious.

AGRIPPA being call'd home, left Sentius Saturninus and Titus Volumnius to govern Syria and Phœnicia; but before he left Aſia, HEROD waited on him, and ſent with him his Son Antipater to Rome.

Upon his Return to Rome, AGRIPPA refuſed the Triumph that was decreed for him by the Senate: and ſo Others following his Example, the good old Cuſtom of Triumphs was laid aſide, and Enſigns of Triumph only were uſed.

AGRIPPA was now ſent againſt the Pannonians, who ſubmitted to his Terms by the Terror of his Name; but returning he fell ſick in Campania, and died much lamented by All, eſpecially by AUGUSTUS, who himſelf made his funeral Oration, and buried him in his own Tomb.

AUGUSTUS finding it neceſſary to have another Aſſiſtant, choſe his Step Son TIBERIUS, (the Son of Livia by her former Husband) cauſing him, ſore againſt his Will, to divorce his beloved Wife Agrippina, (the Daughter of Agrippa by his firſt Wife, who was the Daughter of Pomponius Atticus) tho' ſhe had bore to him his Son Druſus, and was now pregnant; and AUGUSTUS made him to betroth his Daughter Julia the Widow of AGRIPPA, and thus become alſo his Son in Law: while Druſus the Brother of Tiberius defeated the Germans, ſail'd down the Rhine, ſubdued the Friſians, and was the firſt Roman that ſaw the German Sea. And Sulpicius Quirinius Conſul this Year, obtain'd the Enſigns of a Triumph, for ſubduing ſome Caſtles in Cilicia.

Antipater at Rome, being an artful Man, ingratiated himſelf with AUGUSTUS, and wrote artful Letters to his Father HEROD, to excite him in his own Defence againſt the Sons of Mariamne.

HEROD impatient, took his ſaid two Sons, and carried them before CÆSAR at Aquileia in Italy; where he accuſed them of undutiful Behaviour, and of a Deſign to poiſon him: but the young Men having purged themſelves from the laſt Accuſation, CÆSAR acquitted them, and reconciled them to their Father, to whom he gave Power to appoint which of his Sons he pleaſed for his Succeſſor. When he had ſail'd back to Cæſarea, he found there ARCHELAUS King of Cappadocia, who was overjoy'd at the Reconciliation, and that Alexander his Son in Law had been acquitted. And when HEROD came to Jeruſalem, he call'd the People to the Temple, and nominated his eldeſt Son Antipater to be his Succeſſor, and after him his two Sons by Mariamne.

Tiberius reduced this Year the Dalmatians and Pannonians; while his Brother Druſus purſuing the Sicambrians and the Cheruſcians over the Rhine, was almoſt inſnared by them. Lucius Piſo Governor of Pamphilia overcame the Beſſi and Sialletæ, that had invaded Thrace and Macedon; for which he obtain'd Triumphal Honours.

Julus Antony, the Son of Mark ANTONY the Triumvir, by his Wife Fulvia, was this Year Conſul, when the Marriage of Tiberius and Julia was now conſummated, and ſhe bore to him a Child that ſoon died: but ſhe had born to her laſt Husband AGRIPPA five Children, viz. Caius, Lucius, Agrippina, (afterwards the Wife of Germanicus) Julia, (afterwards the Wife of L. Aemilius Paulus) and Agrippa a poſthumous Son.

OCTAVIA, the Siſter of Auguſtus died this Year, leaving two Daughters by Mark ANTONY, viz.

1. Antonia Major, Wife of L. Domitius Aenobarbus.
   - Cneius Domitius,
     - The Emperor NERO,
2. Antonia Minor, Wife of Druſus, the Brother of Tiberius.
   1. Germanicus.
      - CALIGULA the Emperor.
   2. Livilla.
   3. CLAUDIUS born this Year, and was Emperor after Caligula.

HEROD having finiſh'd his new City Cæſarea, dedicated it ſolemnly with Games, appointed for every 5th Year, for the Honour of CÆSAR.

Agrippa the Son of Ariſtobulus, the ſecond Son of HEROD by Mariamne, was now born; for when aged 54 Years he was conſum'd of Worms, Acts xii. 23.

Claudius Druſus Nero, and L. Quinctius Criſpinus being Conſuls, Druſus drove the Germans into their Woods and Deſerts, following them till a gigantick Woman met him, and in the Roman Language ſaid, Druſus, Whither will thy boundleſs Ambition hurry Thee? declaring, That the Fates permitted him not to ſee all Places; and bid him retreat, for that the Period of his Life and Actions approach'd! Dion. Accordingly Druſus died in his Retreat, before he reach'd the Rhine, aged 30 Years, lamented by All: his Body brought to Rome was honourably burnt, and He juſtly obtain'd the Surname of Germanicus. After Cæſarea, HEROD began to build Antipatris, Cypron, and Phaſaelis, ſo call'd from his Father, Mother, and Brother, and the Tower of Phaſael at Jeruſalem, as large as the Pharos of Alexandria. The Jews of Aſia and Cyrene, oppreſs'd againſt Law, petition'd CÆSAR and got Redreſs. HEROD wanting Money, open'd the Royal Sepulchre of DAVID (as John Hyrcanus had done) hoping to find Store of Money; but found only precious Things and golden Furniture, which he took away. Salome and Pheroras, with their Nephew Antipater, turn'd HEROD almoſt mad, by falſe Stories of the two Sons of Mariamne, whoſe Servants he rackt to confeſs what never was done; nay he put the eldeſt, Alexander, under Chains in Priſon, who, to be avenged of his jealous Father, ſent him a written Confeſſion of great Plots againſt him, carried on by Salome, Pheroras, and others; which HEROD believing, he turn'd more mad, and made his Palace a Slaughter Houſe, where he tortur'd People to Death, for not confeſſing what never had a Being.	740	37	21	28	29	9	450	4705	9	3995		21
ARCHELAUS King of Cappadocia came to Jeruſalem, and again reconciled his Son in Law Alexander with his Father HEROD; for which prudent good Office, HEROD made him rich Preſents, and convoy'd him to Antioch, where he reconciled ARCHELAUS with Titus Volumnius the Preſident of Syria: and then while HEROD went to Rome, to acquaint CÆSAR with this new Reconciliation, the Thieves or Free-booters of Trachonitis ravaged his Kingdom, being protected by Syllaeus, the prime Favourite of OBODAS King of the Nabathæan Arabs; becauſe HEROD had refuſed to give him his Siſter Salome in Marriage, unleſs he would turn Jew, and had given her to Alexas. The Roman Prieſts having made every Third Year a Leap Year, ever ſince JULIUS Caeſar mended the Calendar, now found that in 36 Years, Three Days were added to the Julian Year: wherefore AUGUSTUS as High Prieſt order'd, that for 12 Years to come there ſhould be no Leap Year, and that afterwards the Leap Year ſhould be every fourth Year, according to the Inſtitution of Julius; which is obſerved to this Day in the Julian or Old Stile: and the Senate decreed to call the Month Sextilis Auguſt, Marcius Cenſorinus, and Aſinius Gallus being Conſuls; who made a Poll of 4233000 Roman Citizens. HEROD upon his Return, celebrated the Dedication of the 3^d TEMPLE, that had been 9 Years and 6 Months in building; and with the greater Solemnity, that it fell out on the ſame Day of the Year on which He at firſt received the Crown. HEROD offer'd 300 Oxen, and Others offer'd, according to their Ability, without Number. This Dedication was juſt four Years before the Birth of Chriſt. This Year Horace, aged 57 Years, died, and his wiſe Patron Maecenas, both great Favourites of AUGUSTUS.	741	38	22	29	30	10	451	4706	8	3996	CXCIII. 1	22

Auguſtus Cæsar now offer'd to lay down his Imperial Dignity, but was perſuaded to retain it for ten Years more; which Limitation tended to his Security. He gave the Title of Imperator to Tiberius, this Year Conſul, and the Honours of a Triumph over the Germans, whom he had quieted more by Craft than by Arms.

Herod's Kingdom was ſtill infeſted by the Free-Booters of Trachonitis, which made him apply to Saturninus and Volumnius the Governors of Syria for Redreſs; and They decreed that Syllæus ſhould pay to Herod 60 Talents he had borrowed of him, and to deliver up to him all Fugitives, and no more to protect the Thieves: but inſtead of obeying this, tho' he had took an Oath to do it, Syllaeus went to Rome: wherefore Herod got Leave from the ſaid Roman Governors, to march into Arabia with an Army, and deſtroy the City Repta the Refuge of thoſe Thieves; where He ſlew many of them, with Nacebus, an Arabian Captain that came to their Relief; and returning, placed 3000 Idumæans in Trachonitis, to prevent further Depredations.

Syllaeus at Rome complain'd grievouſly of this to Cæsar, which he aggravated with Lies: therefore Cæsar wrote a ſmart Letter to Herod, who was now quite out of the Emperor's Favour.

Mean while King Obodas dying of the Poiſon prepared by Syllaeus, the Nabathæans, without Leave from Cæsar, forthwith made one Æneas their King, whom They call'd Hareth, which in the Greek is Aretas.

Dionyſius of Halicarnaſſus this Year began to write his Roman Hiſtory.

Tiberius offended at the Inſolence of Caius and Lucius, the Gandſons of Augustus, and at his Wife Julia's frequent Adulteries, whom he durſt not accuſe, pretended to be weary of Honour and Toil, and got Leave, with Difficulty, from Cæsar to retire to Rhodes for a ſtudious Life, where he liv'd very privately.

Herod's Quarrel with the Sons of Mariamne again revived, and the Trachonites hearing that He was out of Cæsar's Favour, (who would not give Audience to his Ambaſſadors) got Arabians to join them in expelling his Idumæan Garriſons, and renew'd their Depredations, which He durſt not now remedy; but ſent Nicolaus Damaſcenus his Ambaſſador to Cæsar, and he wiſely join'd the Ambaſſadors of the Nabothæans, who came with Preſents from their new King, and to accuſe Sylleus of poiſoning King Obodas. Caeſar would not own Aretas, but appointed a Day for hearing the Accuſation againſt Syllaeus, which Nicolaus pleaded handſomely, and at the ſame Time accuſed him of impoſing upon Cæsar by telling Lies, as in the Caſe of the Trachonites and Repta; and Syllaeus not being able to contradict it, was by Cæsar condemned to be carried back, to pay what he ow'd to Herod, and to be put to Death, which was done.

Augustus then accepted of their Preſents, and confirm'd Aretas in the Kingdom of Petræa; and receiving Letters from Herod about his two Sons, Cæsar wrote to him a kind Anſwer, giving him Leave to try his Sons at Berytus, by a Council of eminent Perſons: and Herod having got them condemn'd, carried them to Sebaſte, where he order'd them both to be ſtrangled: and ſo Salome had her curſed Ends.

Tigranes King of Armenia being dead, Cæsar made his Brother Artavasdes King.

Zacharias the Prieſt had now the Viſion in the Temple, and the Promiſe of a Son, mention'd in the firſt Chapter of St. Luke; and when he went home, his Wife Elizabeth conceived of their Son John Baptiſt.

Caius now put on a Man's Gown, and Cæsar in his 12th Conſulſhip, made him the Prince of the Youth, and the Præfect of a Tribe, as Lucius was afterwards.

Alexander and Ariſtobulus, the Sons of Mariamne the Aſmonæan, being dead, Antipater next wanted to get rid of his Father Herod, and join'd with his Uncle Pheroras to poiſon him: for Pheroras, inſtead of marrying Herod's eldeſt Daughter by Mariamne, married his own Maid for her Beauty and Wit; and Herod having married his ſaid Daughter to Phaſael, the Son of his Brother Phaſael, again offer'd to Pheroras his other Daughter by Mariamne; but tho' he had ſwore to marry her in a Month, he did not, becauſe he would not divorce his pretty Wife.

Beſides, about 7000 Phariſees refuſing to ſwear Allegiance to Cæsar, as not being of the Stock of Iſrael, Herod fined them; and the Wife of Pheroras being a ſtrict Phariſee, paid their Fines; for which the Phariſees, pretending to prophecy, gave out that God had tranſlated the Kingdom from Herod to Pheroras and his Iſſue by this good Woman; which occaſion'd Sedition: Herod being inform'd hereof by Salome, cut off ſeveral of them, and commanded Pheroras to put away his Wife; which he flatly refuſing, Herod forbid Pheroras his Houſe. And ſo Pheroras came into Antipater's Plot.

But to conceal the Treaſon, Antipater went to Rome, and Pheroras to his Tetrarchy, where he ſoon died; when Herod diſcover'd the Plot, how Antipater had got the Poiſon prepared at Alexandria, and had deliver'd it to his Mother's Brother Theudion, who ſent it to Pheroras, who gave it to his Wife to lay up till a convenient Time, which ſhe confeſs'd; only affirming, that her Husband repenting, on Herod's kind Viſit in his laſt Sickneſs, order'd her to caſt it into the Fire; which ſhe did, except a little ſhe reſerved for herſelf.

Upon which HEROD poorly turn'd out of his Court his Wife Doris, the Mother of Antipater, and his other Wife Mariamne, as concern'd in the Plot; put out of his Will her Son Herod from the Right of ſucceeding to him, and turn'd out her Father Simon from the High Prieſthood, placing in his Stead one Matthias of Jeruſalem as High Prieſt. Mean while

At Rome the Temple of Janus, that was open in Time of War, was now ſhut by Auguſtus CÆSAR, the whole Earth being at Peace. It had been ſhut, 1. In the Reign of King NUMA. 2. At the End of the firſt Punic War. 3. Upon the Death of ANTONY and CLEOPATRA. 4. Upon AUGUSTUS's finiſhing the Spaniſh War. 5. And now for 12 Years running, upon the general Peace, it was ſhut, when the PRINCE of Peace, the promiſed Meſſiah, and Saviour of Men, was to be born of the Bleſſed Virgin.

For in Six Months after the Viſion of Zachariah in the Temple, God ſent the ſame Angel GABRIEL to Nazareth in Galilee to MARY a Virgin of King DAVID's Race, that had been lately eſpouſed, but not married, to her Couſin Joſeph, to declare to her the glad Tidings that She was to be the Mother of Meſſiah. And ſhe being overſhadow'd by the Holy Eternal SPIRIT, conceived the human Nature of CHRIST.

The Virgin MARY having thus conceived, went to Hebron to viſit her Couſin Elizabeth, the Wife of Zachariah the Prieſt, and ſtaid with her Three Months: and Joſeph her betrothed Husband perceiving her pregnant, was to have diſmiſs'd her privately, but was warned by an Angel to receive her; for that ſhe had conceived, not by knowing a Man, but by the overſhadowing of the Holy SPIRIT.

When Elizabeth's good Time came, ſhe bore to Zachariah a Son, whom he now cured of his Dumbneſs, call'd JOHN, the Fore-runner of CHRIST, afterwards call'd JOHN the Baptiſt.

AUGUSTUS having Three Years ago made an Edict for making a Survey of the whole Roman Empire, or an Account of all the Perſons, Poſſeſſions and Eſtates therein, and the Taxes iſſuable from them; it came this Year to be executed in Judæa by Saturninus, the Roman Preſident of the Province of Syria, to which Judæa belong'd; but no Tax was there levied for the Emperor, till about 12 Years after this, when Archelaus the Tetrarch of Judæa was depoſed, and that Land was intirely reduced under the Roman Government, and when Cyrenius or Quirinius was Governor of Syria. Luke ii. 1, 2.

But the Jews not living like any other People, were to be taxed not according to their Place of Abode, but according to their Tribes and Families: therefore Joſeph and MARY being of the Houſe of DAVID, came from Nazareth in Galilee to Bethlehem in Judah, where DAVID was born, in order to be regiſtred there by the Poll Makers againſt a certain Day.

And her good Time being come, and the Town being crouded with rich People, ſhe was reduced, being poor, to lodge in a Stable; where ſhe was delivered of the promiſed Meſſiah, the Son of DAVID, and the Son of God; as is generally computed, on the 25th Day of December, or about the End of the Second Month of the Year of the World 4000, and of the Julian Period 4710, Anno U. C. Varroniano 749 ending, the Emperor AUGUSTUS CÆSAR the 12th Time, and Cornelius Sylla being Conſuls.

This is the Computation of Archbiſhop Uſher, and many Others: but Ubbo Emmius, and other accurate Chronologers, compute the Birth of CHRIST at the End of September.

Calviſius Sabinus and Paſſienus Rufinus commencing Conſuls, CHRIST was circumciſed on the 8th Day, or the Calends of January, when his Name was call'd JESUS.

Soon after, Three Wiſe Men from the Eaſt, of the Sect of the Magians, following the Guidance of a Star, came and worſhipped CHRIST at Bethlehem.

On the 40th Day after her Delivery, the Bleſſed Virgin MARY went to the Temple of Jeruſalem for her Purification, and for preſenting her Son JESUS before God, according to the Law about the firſt born; when Simeon, divinely inſpired, took him in his Arms, and ſang his ſweet Song, Nunc Dimittis; as did alſo Anna the Propheteſs.

Joſeph and MARY having performed what was proper, according to the Law of Moſes, return'd to their Dwelling in Nazareth; where ſoon the Angel of JEHOVAH warned Joſeph in a Dream, to flee from HEROD's Cruelty, with the Child and his Mother, into Egypt; where They ſtaid till HEROD was dead. Mean while HEROD, alarm'd at the Birth of one of DAVID's Offspring that ſhould be King of the Jews, according to the Prophecies of the Old Teſtament, ſent his Cut-Throats to Bethlehem, (where he thought the Child JESUS ſtill reſided) and to be ſure to cut him off, order'd them to cut off all Infants found there and thereabouts, under two Years old.

HEROD decoy'd his Son Antipater home from Rome, without knowing what had been diſcover'd againſt him; and arraigning him before Quintilius Varus the new Preſident of Syria, Antipater was condemn'd for plotting the Death of his Brothers, and the poiſoning of his Father.

While HEROD ſent to Rome to get the Sentence confirm'd by AUGUSTUS, He was taken with a Complication of moſt horrible Diſtempers, and made a New Will, leaving the Succeſſion to his youngeſt Son Herod ANTIPAS, being exaſperated at Archelaus and Philip, by the Craft of Antipater.

Judas the Son of Sariphæus, and Matthias the Son of Margalothus, two learned Rabbins, with 40 Youths their Scholars, hearing HEROD's Diſeaſe was incurable, came in broad Day, and cut down the Roman Eagle from the great Gate of the Temple; but being brought by the Captain before the King, and boldly owning the Fact as juſt, They were ſent to Jericho and burnt alive. And HEROD ſuſpecting Matthias the High Prieſt, depoſed him, and made Joazar High Prieſt, the Brother of Mariamne, and Son of Simon, late High Prieſt.

When AUGUSTUS heard that HEROD had ſlain the Infants at Bethlehem, and among them one of his own Sons, (as was then reported at Rome) he ſaid, 'Tis ſafer to be HEROD's Sow than his Son. Macrob. Saturn. L. II. Cap. 4. Yet AUGUSTUS ſent to HEROD Leave to baniſh Antipater, or to cut off his Head, as he pleaſed, which refreſh'd him a little: but his Diſeaſe growing more violent, he would have ſtab'd himſelf with a Knife, if he had not been hinder'd by his Nephew Achiabus.

HEROD juſtly thinking that the Jews would not put on Mourning for him, ſeiz'd all the moſt noble of the Jews, and ſhut them up in the Hippodrom at Jericho, ordering his Siſter Salome, and her Huſband Alexas, to cut them off as ſoon as he was dead, that the Jews might put on Mourning at his Death.

Antipater believing his Father was really dead, tamper'd with his Keepers to let him out of Priſon; which HEROD hearing of, order'd, tho' in Bed, one of his Servants forthwith to cut off Antipater, and to bury him obſcurely. Then altering his laſt Will, He made Antipas only Tetrarch of Galilee and Peræa; but left the Kingdom to his Son Archelaus, and made Philip Tetrarch of Gaulonitis, Trachonitis, Batanæa, and Pancas: he left to his Siſter Salome, the Cities Jamnia, Azotus, and Phaſaelis, with 500000 Pieces of coin'd Silver; and left good Eſtates to all his Kindred; to CÆSAR Ten Millions of coin'd Silver Pieces, and all his Veſſels in Gold and Silver, and a vaſt Number of precious Garments; and to Livia the Empreſs, and other Friends, Five Millions of Pieces. And having thus diſpoſed of all Affairs, HEROD the Great the King of Judæa, died at Jericho, five Days after he had cut off Antipater his Son.

A little before his Death was publiſh'd, Salome and Alexas releas'd the noble Jews out of the Hippodrom of Jericho, as if by HEROD'S Order; and calling the People together, publiſh'd his Death and his Will, and forthwith ARCHELAUS began to rule.

After HEROD'S Death in the firſt Year of ARCHELAUS the Ethnarch of Judæa, Joſeph and MARY being warned in a Dream by an Angel, return'd from Egypt home to Nazareth in Galilee, not under the Dominion of Archelaus; where JESUS grew and dwelt with them, increaſing in Wiſdom and Stature, and in Favour with God and Man, till the Time he enter'd on his publick Miniſtry. Hence CHRIST was call'd a Nazarite, and Chriſtians Nazarenes.

ARCHELAUS, after he had ſumptuouſly buried his Father's Corps in the Caſtle of Herodium, came to Jeruſalem; and after ſeven Days publick Mourning, according to the Jewiſh Cuſtoms, he feaſted the People, offer'd Sacrifices, and took upon him the Government, but not the Title of King; quell'd the Sedition of the Friends of thoſe that were puniſh'd for pulling down the Roman Eagle, ſlaying 3000 of them about the Temple, and driving the reſt to the Mountains.

Then He, with his Mother Malthace of Samaria, Nicolaus Damaſcenus, Ptolemy HEROD'S Procurator and many Friends more, ſail'd to Rome; as did alſo his Aunt Salome, with all her Progeny, and many of that Kindred, apparently to aſſiſt ARCHELAUS, but really to oppoſe him.

Antipas alſo his Brother with his Mother Cleopatra of Jeruſalem, his eloquent Orator Irenæus, and many Friends came to Rome, who was excited by his Aunt Salome, to petition CÆSAR for the Crown that had been ſettled upon him by HEROD'S former Will: yet tho' at Rome all the Kindred deſerted ARCHELAUS, and attended Antipas, CÆSAR upon hearing both Sides, courteouſly raiſed up Archelaus from his Knees, pronouncing him worthy of a Kingdom, and promiſing to tranſact the Jewiſh Affairs according to HEROD'S Will.

Mean while Varus came from Antioch, and repreſs'd Inſurrections in Judæa, leaving one Legion at Jeruſalem. Upon his Return, Sabinus the Procurator by the Help of that Legion poſſeſs'd the Caſtles there, and raiſed great Sums: upon which, at Pentecoſt, many Thouſand Jews came armed from all Parts to Jeruſalem, and beſieged Sabinus; while Tumults and Inſurrections were over all that Kingdom: particularly Judas (the Son of Hezekiah the Captain of Robbers, long ago defeated by HEROD) rais'd a Band of deſperate Men at Sephoris in Galilee, and became very formidable, aſpiring to be a King: He is the ſame call'd Theudas by Gamaliel, Acts v. 36.

Simon alſo, HEROD'S Slave, an handſome clever Fellow, would be a King; but was defeated and ſlain by Gratus, Captain of the royal Guards, now of the Roman Side.

Athronges alſo an obſcure gigantick Shepherd put on a Diadem, rais'd his Poſſe, and ruled as a King in ſome Parts, till ARCHELAUS return'd from Rome. So that Quintilius Varus finding all Judæa to be in Confuſion and War, marched thither with his two other Legions and his Auxiliaries; and with much ado diſpers'd the Rebellions, relieved his Third Legion beſieged in the Caſtle of Jeruſalem; and having crucified 2000 Ringleaders, and ſettled the Country, Varus return'd to Antioch: only firſt he permitted 50 eminent Jews to go to Rome as Ambaſſadors from the reſt, who were join'd by 8000 at Rome, and ſolemnly petition'd CÆSAR to be no more govern'd by Kings, but to be added to the Roman Province of Syria: but CÆSAR, having alſo heard the Reply of Nicolaus Damaſcenus, conſtiuted

ARCHELAUS, not King, but Ethnarch over the Half of his Father HEROD'S Dominion, viz. the Countries of Judæa, Idumæa, and Samaria, with a Promiſe to make him a King, if he behaved himſelf well.

CÆSAR divided the other Half of Herod's Dominions between his two other Sons, giving to Antipas Galilee and alſo Peræa beyond the Jordan; and to Philip Batanæa, Trachonitis, and Auronitis; and to Salome the Cities Jamnia, Azotus, and Phaſaelis; obſerving the Diſpoſition of HEROD'S Will very much.

A Jewiſh young Man bred up at Sidon, reſembling ſomewhat the late Alexander the Son of HEROD, ſet up to be the real Alexander, as if preſerved from Execution by the Clemency of his Keeper, when his Brother Ariſtobulus was cut off; and perſuaded many thouſand Jews in Crete and Melos to believe it, to advance him Money, and attend him to Rome, in order to obtain the Kingdom; where the Jews alſo believed him, and were very fond of him; till CÆSAR ſent for him, made him own the Cheat, and being a luſty Fellow, ſent him to row in his Gallies. ARCHELAUS the Ethnarch, when return'd to Jeruſalem, depoſed Joazar for conniving at the Tumults, and made his Brother Eleazar High Prieſt in his Room.	747	44	28	35	2	16	457	4712	2	4002	CXCIV. 3	28
Now AUGUSTUS enter'd upon his 13th Conſulſhip, when he brought his Grandſon LUCIUS into the Forum, conferring on him the ſame Honours as on his Brother CAIUS three Years ago. But while AUGUSTUS was amuſing the People of Rome with ſham Sea-Fights, and other Shows, TIGRANES (the Son of Tigranes late King of Armenia) afforded him other Employment; for POMPEY had reduced the Armenians to have their Kings all approved and confirmed by Rome: but having dethroned laſt Year Artavaſdes, (whom AUGUSTUS had confirmed) They rebell'd againſt Rome, and inthroned this TIGRANES aſſiſted by the Parthians; PHRAHATES having now broke with CÆSAR. AUGUSTUS was now too old to take the Field againſt the Armenians and Parthians; nor was willing to imploy Tiberius: and therefore he choſe his Grandſon CAIUS, tho' not above 19 Years old, beſtowing on him Proconſular Authority. CAIUS firſt went to Egypt, and from thence to Jeruſalem; where he would not worſhip in the Temple by Prayer and Sacrifice, (as AGRIPPA his Father had done) thereby expreſſing his Contempt of the Jewiſh Religion: which AUGUSTUS commended him for when he heard it. But when PHRAHATES King of Parthia, and TIGRANES King of Armenia, heard that CAIUS was arrived in Syria, They both ſued for Peace, and obtain'd it.	748	45	29	36	3	17	458	4713	1	4003	4	29
Thus I have finiſh'd the principal CHRONOLOGY of the World, from the Creation to the firſt Year of the CHRISTIAN Era; which was thought neceſſary for the better underſtanding of the Genealogies prior to this Era, and was enjoin'd upon me by many of the Encouragers of this Work, inſtead of the Genealogical Queſtions at firſt propoſed. The CHRISTIAN Era begins four Years after the Birth of CHRIST, by the Miſtake of its Author Dionyſius Exiguus, a Scythian and a Roman Abbot, who A. D. or of this Era 527. deſign'd this Era by computing the Years from CHRIST'S Nativity, but began it four Years later: ſo that to find the true Year from CHRIST'S Birth, we muſt add four Years to the Chriſtian Era; which by long Uſe is call'd the Era of CHRIST, and its Year call'd (Anno Domini) the Year of our LORD; tho' ſtrictly it ſhould be call'd (Anno Eræ Chriſtianæ) the Year of the CHRISTIAN Era, according to which, the Genealogies that are poſterior to its Commencement, are ſtated. And thus the firſt Year of the CHRISTIAN Era is, Anno U. C. Varroniano, ——— 754	749	46	30	37	4	18	459	4714	A. D. 1	4004	CXCV. 1	30
